17 *For he shal go [m] before him in the spirit & power of Elias, to turne the hearts of the [n] fathers to the children, & the disobedient to the wisdome of the iust men, to make readie a people prepared for the Lord.

18 Then Zacharias said vnto the Angel, Whereby shal I know e this? for I am an olde man, and my wife is of a great age.

19 And the Angel answered, and said vnto him, I am [o] Gabriel that stand in the presence of God, and am sent to speake vnto thee, & to shewe thee these good tidings.

20 And beholde, thou shalt be domme, and not be able to speake, vntil [p] ỹ day that these things be done, becausse thou beleuedst not my wordes, which shalbe fulfilled in their season.

21 Now the people waited for Zacharias, and marueiled that he taried so long in the Temple.

22 And when he came out, he colde not speake vnto them: then they perceiued that he had sene a visiõn in the Temple: for he made signes vnto them, and remained domme.

23 And it came to passe, when the dayes of his office were fulfilled, that he departed [q] to his owne house.

24 And after those dayes, his wife Elizabet conceiued, and hid her self fiue moneths, saying, 59 And it was so that on the eight day they came to circumcise the babe, & called him Zacharias, after the Name of his father.

60 But his mother answered, and said, Not so, but he shalbe called Iohn.

61 And they said vnto her, There is none of thy kinred, that is named with this Name.

62 Then they made signes to his father, how he wolde haue him called.

1 Iesus is led into the wilderne to be tempted. 13 He ouercometh the deuil. 14 He goeth into Galile, 16 Preacheth at Nazaret, and Capernaum. 22 The Iewes despise him. 38 He cometh into Peters house, and healeth his mother in law. 41 The deuils acknowledge Christ. 43 He preacheth through the cities.

1 AND Iesus ful of the holie Gost returned from Iordan, and was led by the Spirit into the wildernes,

7 If thou therefore wilt [d] worship me, they shalbe all thine.

8 But Iesus answered him, and said, "Hence from me, Satan: for it is written, * Thou shalt worship the Lord thy [d] God, and him alone thou shalt serue.

9 Then he broght him to [e] Ierusalem, and set him on a pinacle of the Temple, and said vnto him, If thou be the Sonne of God, cast thy self downe from hence,

10 For it is written, * That he wil giue his Angels charge ouer thee to kepe thee:

11 And with there hands they shal lift thee vp, lest at anie time thou shuldest dash thy fote against a stone.

12 And Iesus answered and said vnto hi, It is said, * Thou shalt not tempt the Lord thy God.

13 And when the deuil had ended all the tentacion, he departed from him [f] for a seaſon.

14 ¶ And Iesus returned by the power of the spirit into Galile: and there went a fame of him throughout all the region rounde about.

15 For he taught in their Synagogues, & was honoured of all men.

16 * And he came to Nazaret where he had bene broght vp, and (as his custome was) went into the Synagogue on the Sabbath day, and stode vp to reade.

17 And there was deliuered vnto him the boke of the Prophet Esaias: and when he had opened the boke, he founde the place where it was written,

18 * The Spirit of the Lord is vpon me, becauſe he hathe [g] anointed me, that I shulde preache the Gospel to thee poore: he hathe sent me, that I shulde heale the broken hearted, that I shulde preache deliuerance to the captiues, and recouering of sight to the blinde, that I shulde set at libertie them that are bruised,

19 And that I shulde preache the [h] acceptable yere of the Lord.

20 And he closed the boke, and gaue it againe to the minister, and sate downe: and the eyes of all that were in the Synagogue were fastened on him.

21 Then he began to say vnto them, This daye is this Scripture fulfilled in your eares.

22 And all [i] bare him witnes, and wondered at the gracious wordes, which proceded out of his mouth, and said, Is not this Iosephs sonne?

23 Then he said vnto them, Ye wil surely saye vnto me this prouerbe, Physicion, [k] heale thy self: whatsoeuer we haue heard done in Capernaum, do it here likewise in thine owne countrey.

24 And he said, Verely I saye vnto you, * No [l] Prophet is accepted in his owne countrey.

25 But I tell you of a trueth, manie widdowes were in Israel in the dayes of * Elias, when heauen was shut three yeres and six moneths, when great famine was throughout all the land,

26 But vnto none of them was Elias sent, saue in to Sarepta, a citie of Sidon, vnto a [m] certeine widdowe.

27 Also manie lepers were in Israel, in the time of * Eliseus the Prophet: yet none of them was made cleane, sauing Naaman the Syrian.

28 Then all that were in the Synagogue, when thei heard it, were [n] filled with wrath,

29 And rose vp, and thrust him out of the citie, and led him vnto the edge of the hil, whereon their citie was buylt, to cast him downe headlong.

30 But he passed [o] through the middes of them, and went his way,

31 ¶ * And came downe into Capernaum a citie of Galile, and there taught them on the Sabbath dayes.

32 * And thei were astonied at his doctrine: for his worde was with [p] autoritie.

33 And in the Synagogue there was a man which had a [q] spirit of an vncleane deuil, which cryed with a loude voyce,

34 Saying, Oh, what haue we to do with thee, thou Iesus of Nazaret? art thou come to destroy vs? I knowe who thou art, euen the Holie one of God.

35 And Iesus rebuked him, saying, Holde thy peace, and come out of him. Then the deuil throwing him in the middes of them, came out of him, and hurt him not.

36 So feare came on them all, and they spake amõg them selues, saying, What thing is this? for with autoritie and power he commandeth the foule spirits, and they come out?

Mat.4,18 mar.1,16,

1 THen * it came to passe, as the people pressed vpon him to heare the worde of God, that he stode by the lake of Gennesaret,

2 And sawe two shippes stand by the lake side, but the fishermen were gone out of them, & were washing their nettes.

a To the intēt ỹ he might not be thronged of ỹ preasse, & also ỹ he might ỹ better be heard.

3 And [a] he entred into one of the shippes which was Simons, and required hī that he wolde thrust of a litle from ỹ land: and he sate downe, and taught the people out of the ship.

4 ¶ Now when he had left speaking, he said vnto Simon, Lanche out into the depe, and let downe your nettes to make a draught.

b The worde signifieth him ỹ is made ruler ouer anie thig.

5 Then Simon answered, and said vnto him, [b] Master, we haue trauailed all night, and haue taken nothing neuertheles at thy [c] worde I wil let downe the net.

c He sheweth his prompt obedience to Christs cōmandement.

6 And when they had so done, they inclosed a great multitude of fishes, so that their net brake.

7 And they beckened to their parteners, which were in the other ship, that they shulde come and helpe them, who came then, and filled bothe the shippes, that they did [d] sinke.

d Thei were so laden ỹ they almoste sunke.

8 Now when Simon Peter sawe it, he fell downe at Iesus knees, saying, Lord, go from me: for I am a sinful man.

9 For he [e] was vtterly astonied, and all ỹ were with him, for the draught of fishes which they toke.

e The feeling of Gods presence maketh afrayed.

10 And so was also Iames and Iohn the sonnes of Zebedeus, which were companions with Simon. Then Iesus said vnto Simon, Feare not: from [f] hence forthe ỹ shalt catch men.

f He appointeth him to the office of an Apostle.

11 And when they had broght the shippes to land, they forsoke all, and followed him.

12 ¶ * Now it came to passe, as he was in a certeine citie, behold, there was a mā ful of leprosie, and when he sawe Iesus, he fel on his face, and besoght him, saying, Lord if thou wilt, thou canst make me cleane.

Mat.8,2 mar.1.40

13 So he stretched forthe his hand, and touched him, saying, I wil, be thou cleane. And immediatly the leprosie departed from him.

14 And he commanded him that he shulde tell it no man: but Go, saith he, and shewe thy self to the [g] Priest, and offer for thy clensing, as * Moses hathe commanded, for a witnes vnto them.

g Hereby he shewed them ỹ he wolde not transgresse the Law, & ỹ thei shulde be inexcusable, who seīg the miracle wrought, wolde not beleue Christ.

Leu.14,4

15 But so muche more went there a fame abroad of him, & great multitudes came together to heare, and to be healed of him of their infirmities.

16 But he kept him self aparte in the wildernes, and praied.

17 ¶ And it came to passe, on a certeine daye, as he was teaching, that the Pharises & doctours of the Law sate by, which were come out of euerie towne of Galile, and Iudea, and Ierusalem, & the power of the Lord was in him to heale them.

18 * Then beholde, men broght a man lying in a bed, which was taken with a palsie, and they soght meanes to bring him in, and to laie him before him.

Mat.9,2 mar.2,3

19 And when they colde not finde by what way they might bring him in, because of the preasse, they went vpon the house, and let him downe through the tiling, bed and all, in the middes before Iesus.

20 And when he sawe their faith, he said vnto him, Man, thy [h] sinnes are forgiuen thee.

h Christ toucheth ỹ pricipal cause of all our euils.

21 Then the Scribes and the Pharises began to thinke, saying, Who is this ỹ speaketh blasphemies? who can forgiue sinnes but God onelie?

22 But when Iesus perceiued their thoghts?

thoghts, he answered, and said vnto them, What thinke ye in your hearts?

i Forasmuche as his diuinitie was sufficiently shewed by this miracle, he gaue them hereby to vnderstād that he had power to forgiue sinnes.

23 Whether is easier to say, Thy [i] sinnes are forgiuen thee, or to saye, Rise and walke?

24 But that ye may knowe that ỹ Sonne of man hathe autoritie to forgiue sinnes in earth, he said vnto the sicke of the palsie) I say to thee, Arise: take vp thy bed, & go to thine house.

25 And immediatly he rose vp before them, and toke vp his bed whereon he laie, and departed to his owne house, praising God.

28 And he left all, rose vp, and followed him.

29 Then Leui made him a great feast in his owne house, where there was a great companie of Publicanes, & of other, that sate at table with them.

30 But they that were Scribes and Pharises among thē, murmured against his disciples, saying, Why eat ye and drinke ye with Publicanes and sinners?

31 Then Iesus answered, and said vnto them, they that are whole, nede not the phisicion, but they that are sicke.

p Greke, make prayers.

34 And he said vnto them, Can ye make the [l] children of the wedding chamber to fast, as long as the bridegrome is ẅ them?

35 But the dayes wil come, euen when the bridegrome shalbe taken away from them: then shal they fast in those dayes.

36 Againe he spake also vnto them a parable, No man putteth a piece of a newe garment into an olde vesture: for then the newe renteth it, and the piece taken out of ỹ newe, agreeth not with ỹ olde.

CHAP. VII.

2 He healeth the captaines seruant. 11 He raiseth vp the widowes sonne from death to life. 19 He answereth the disciples whome Iohn Baptiste sent vnto him. 24 He commendeth Iohn, 31 And reproueth the Iewes for their vnfaithfulnes. 36 He eateth with the Pharise. 37 The woman washeth his fete with her teares, and he forgiueth her sinnes.

Mat.8,5

1 WHen he had ended all his sayings in the audience of the people, he entred into Capernaum.

a It might be, ỹ this captaine did lie w his garrison in Capernaum.

2 And a certeine[a] Centurions seruant was sicke and ready to dye, which was dere vnto him.

3 And whē he heard of Iesus, he sent vnto him the Elders of the Iewes, be seching him that he wolde come and heale his seruant.

4 So they came to Iesus, and besought him instantly, saying that he was worthie ỹ he shulde do this for him.

5 For he loueth said they, our nacion, and he hathe buylt vs a[b] Synagogue.

b In buylding them a Temple for their assemblies, he shewed his zeale to wardes ỹ true seruice of God.

6 Then Iesus went with them: but when he was now not farre from the house, the Centurion sent friends to him, [c] saying vnto him, Lord, trouble not thy self. for I am not worthie that ỹ shouldest enter vnder my roofe.

c The friends speake to Iesus in ỹ captaines name

7 Wherefore I thoght not my self worthie to come vnto thee: but[d] say the worde, and my seruant shalbe whole.

d Or, commande by a worde one ly ỹ it so be.

8 For I likewise am a man set vnder autoritie, and haue vnder me souldiers, and I say vnto one, Go, and he goeth, and to another, Come, and he cometh and to my seruant, Do this, and he doeth it.

9 When Iesus heard these things, he marueiled at him, and turned him, and said to the people, that followed him, I say vnto you, I haue not found so [e] great faith, no not in Israel.

e He cōmendeth this heathen captaine because he assirmeth, him self vpō Christs worde alone.

10 And when they that were sent, turned backe to the house, they founde the seruant that was sicke, whole.

11 And it came to passe the day after, ỹ he went into a citie called [f] Nain, & many of his disciples went with him, and a great multitude.

f Which was a towne of Galile in the trib e of Issachar not farre frō Tiberias.

12 Now when he came nere to the gate of the citie, beholde, there was a dead mā caryed out, who was the onelie begottē sonne of his mother, which was a widowe, and muche people of the citie was a with her.

13 And when the Lord sawe her, he had compasion on her, and said vnto her, Wepe not.

14 And he went and touched the[a] coffin, (and they that bare him, stode stil) and he said, [g] Yong man, I say vnto thee, Arise.

a Or, biere.

g Christ calleth those things ỹ are not, as if they were & giueth life to thē ỹ be dead.

15 And he that was dead, sate vp, and began to speake, and he deliuered him to his mother.

16 Then there came a feare on them all, and they glorified God, saying, A great Prophet is raised vp among vs, & God hathe[h] visited is people.

h That is, to establish, & restore them.

17 And this rumour of him went forthe throughout of all Iudea, and throughout all the region rounde about.

18 ¶ And the disciples of Iohn shewed hī of all these things.

19 So Iohn called vnto him two certeine men of his disciples, and sent them to Iesus, saying, Art thou [i] he that shulde come, or shal we waite for another?

i To wit, ỹ Messias, & redemer.

20 And when the men were come vnto him, they said, John Baptist hathe sent vs vnto thee, saying, Art thou he that shulde come, or shal we wait for another?

21 And at that time, he cured manie of their sickenes, and plagues, and of euil spirits, and vnto manie blinde men he gaue sight.

22 And Iesus answered, and said vnto them, Go your wayes and shewe Iohn, [k] what things ye haue sene & heard: that the blinde se, ỹ halte go, the lepers are clensed the deafe heare, the dead rise againe, & the [l] poore receiue the Gospel.

k He declareth by ỹ vertues, & power that were in him ỹ he was the Christ.

24 And when the messengers, of Iohn were departed, he began to speake vnto the people of Iohn, What went ye out into the wildernes to se? A[n] rede shaken with the winde?

n That shal persuere & not shrinke backe for anie thing ỹ can come vnto them.

25 But what went ye out to se? A man clothed in soft raiment? beholde, they which are gorgeously apparelled, and liue delicately, are in Kings courtes.

26 But what went ye forthe to se? A Prophet? yea, I say to you, and greater thē a Prophet.

Mat. 3, 1

o Or, Angel.

28 For I say vnto you, there is no greater Prophet then Iohn, among them ỹ are [p] begotten of women: neuertheles, he that is the leaste in the kingdome of God is greater then he.

p Or, borne.

29 Then all the people that heard, and the Publicanes [o] iustified God, being baptized with the [p] baptisme of Iohn.

o They praised him as iuste faithful, good and merciful, so ỹ ỹ frute of their baptisme appeared in them.

p This worde comprehendeth the whole doctrine that Iohn taught.

30 But the Pharises and the expounders of the Law despised the counsel of God q against them selues, & were not baptized of him.

q Meaning to their owne condemnation or as some read, with them selues because they durst not openly speake against Iohns doctrine: for they feared the people, Matt. 21, 46.

31 *And the Lord said, Whereunto shal I liken the men of this generacion? and what thing are they like vnto?

Mat. 11, 16

r The songs of litle children are sufficient to condemne ſ pharises and suche like.

36 *¶ And one of the Pharises desired him that he wolde eat with him: and he went into the Pharises house, and sate downe at table.

Mar. 15, 40
Iohn. 20, 11

37 And beholde a woman in the citie, w was a sinner, when she knewe that Iesus sate at table in the Pharises house, she brought a boxe of ointement.

38 * And she stode at his fete behinde him weping, and began to wash his fete with teares, and did wipe them with the heeres of her head, and kissed his fete, and anointed them w the ointmēt.

39 Now when the Pharise which bade him, sawe it, he spake within him self, saying, If this man were a Prophet, he wolde surely haue knowen who, and what maner of woman this is which toucheth him: for she is a sinner.

40 And Iesus answered, and said vnto him, Simon I haue some what to saye vnto thee. And he said, Master, say on.

41 There was a certeine lender which had two detters: the one oght fiue hundreth pence, and the other fiftie.

42 When they had nothing to pay, he forgaue them bothe. Which of them therefore tell me, wil loue him moste?

43 Simon answered, and said, I suppose that he, to whome he forgaue moste. And he said vnto him, Thou hast truely iudged.

44 Then he turned to the woman, and said vnto Simon, Seest thou this woman? I entred into thine house, and thou gauest me no water to my fete: but she hathe washed my fete with teares, and wiped them with the heeres of her head.

45 Thou gauest me no kisse: but she since the time I came in, hathe not ceased to kisse my fete.

46 Mine head with oyle thou didest not anoint: but she hathe anointed my feete with ointement.

47 Wherefore I saye vnto thee, manie sinnes are forgiuen her: for she v loued muche. To whome a litle is forgiuen, he doeth loue a litle.

v This great loue is a signe ſ she felt her self muche bounde vnto Christ, who had forgiuen her so manie sinnes, 48 And he said vnto her, Thy sinnes are forgiuen thee.

49 And they that sate at table with him, began to say within them selues, Who is this that euen forgiueth sinnes?

50 And he said to the woman, Thy faith hathe saued thee: go in x peace, x The peace of conscience cometh onely of faith.

CHAP VIII.

5 A sower went out to sowe his seed, & as he sowed, some fel by the wayes side, and it was troden vnder fete, and the foules of heauen deuoured it vp.

b That is, to vnderstand, & beleue these things.

when * they se, they shulde not se, and when they heare, they shulde not vnderstand.

11 *The parable is this, The sede is the worde of God.

12 And thei that are beside the way, are thei that heare: afterwarde commeth the deuil, and taketh away ỹ worde out of their hearts, lest they shulde beleue, & be saued.

13 But they that are on the stones, are they which whē they haue heard, receiue the worde ẅ ioye: but they haue no rootes, which for a while [d] beleue, but in the time of tentation go away.

14 And that which fel among thornes, are they which haue heard, and [e] after their departure are choked with cares and with riches, and voluptuous liuing, and bring forthe no frute,

15 But that which fel in good ground, are they which ẅ an honest & good heart heare the worde, and kepe it, & bring forthe frute with pacience.

16 ¶ *No[f] man when he lighteth a cādel, couereth it vnder a vessel, nether putteth it vnder the ‘ table, but setteth it on a candlesticke, that they that entre in, may se the light.

17 *For nothing is secret, that shal not be euident: nether any thing hid, that shal not be knowen, and come to light.

18 Take hede therefore how ye heare: *for whosoeuer hathe, to him shalbe giuen: and whosoeuer hathe not, from him shalbe taken euen that, which[g] it semeth that he hathe.

19 ¶ *Then came to him his mother & his brethren, and colde not come nere to him for the preasse.

20 And it was tolde him by certeine which said, Thy mother and thy ‘ brethrē stād without, and wolde se thee.

21 But he answered, & said vnto them, My mother, and my brethren are [h] these which heare the worde of God, and do it.

22 ¶ *And it came to passe on a certeine day, that he went into a ship ẅ his disciples, and he said vnto them, Let vs go ouer vnto ỹ other side of the lake. And they lanched forthe:

23 And as they sailed, he fel a [i] slepe, & there came downe a storme of winde on the lake, and they were filled with water, and were in ieopardie.

24 Then they went to him, and awoke him saying, Master, master, we perish. And he arose, and rebuked the winde, & the waues of water: & they ceased, and it was calme,

25 Then he said vnto thē, Where is your faith? and they feared, & wōdered amōg them selues, saying, Who is this ỹ commandeth bothe the windes and water, and they obey him?

26 ¶ *So they sailed vnto the region of the Gadarenes, which is ouer against Galile.

27 And as he went out to land, there met him a certeine man out of ỹ citie, which had a deuil long time, and he ware no clothes, nether abode in house, but in the graues.

28 And when he sawe Iesus, he cryed out, & fel downe before him, & with a loude voyce said, What haue I to do with thee, Iesus the Sonne of God, the most high? I beseche thee [k] torment me not.

29 For he commanded the foule spirit to come out of the man: (for ″ oft times he had caught him: therefore he was bound with chaines, and kept in fetters: but he brake the bandes, and was [l] caryed of the deuil into wildernesses).

30 Then Iesus asked him, saying, What is thy name? And he said, [m] Legion, because many deuils were entred into him.

31 And they besoght him, that he wolde not commande them to go out into the [n] diepe.

32 And there was there by, an herd of many swine, feding on an hil, and the deuils besoght him, that he wolde suffre them to entre into them. So he suffred them.

33 Then went the deuils out of the man, and entred into the swine: and the herd was caryed with violence from a stepe downe place into the lake, and was choked.

34 When the herdmen sawe what was done, they fled: and whē they were departed, they tolde it in the citie and in the countrey.

35 Then they came out to se what was done, and came to Iesus, & founde the man, out of whome the deuils were departed, sitting at the fete of Iesus, clothed, & in his right minde: and they were afraid.

36 They also which sawe it, tolde them by what meanes he that was possessed with the deuil, was healed.

37 Then the whole multitude of the countrey about the Gadarenes, besoght him, that he wolde departe from them: for they were taken with a great feare: and he went into the ship, and returned.

38 Then the man, out of whome the deuils were departed, besoght him that he might be with him: but Iesus sent him away, saying,

39 ° Returne into thine owne house, and shewe what great things God hathe done to thee. So he went his way, and preached through out all the [p] citie, what great things Iesus had done vnto him.

40 ¶And it came to passe when Iesus was come againe, that the people receiued him: for they all waited for him.

41 ¶*And beholde, there came a man named Iairus, and he was the ruler of the [q] Synagogue, who fel downe at Iesus fete, and besought him that he wolde come into his house.

42 For he had but a daughter onely, about twelue yeres of age, & she laye a dying (& as he went, the people thronged him.

45 Then Iesus said, Who is it that hathe touched me? When euerie man denyed, Peter said & thei that were with him, Master, the multitude thrust thee, & tread on thee, and sayest thou, Who hathe touched me?

46 And Iesus said, Some one hathe touched me: for I perceiue that vertue is gone out of me.

47 When the woman sawe that she was not hid, she came trembling, & fel downe before him, & tolde him before all the people, for what cause she had touched him, and how she was healed immediatly.

48 And he said vnto her, Daughter, be of good comfort: thy [s] faith hathe made thee whole: go in peace.)

49 While he yet spake, there came one from the ruler of the Sinagogues house, which said to him, Thy daughter is dead: disease not the Master.

50 Whē Iesus heard it, he answered [t] him, saying, Feare not: beleue onely, & she shalbe made whole.

51 And when he wēt into ỹ house, he suffred no man to go in with him, saue Peter, and Iames, and Iohn, and the father & mother of the maide.

52 And all wept, and sorowed for her: but he said, Wepe not: for she is not [v] dead, but slepeth.

53 And they laught him to skorne, knowing that she was dead.

54 So he [x] thrust them all out, and toke her by the hand, and cryed, saying, Maid, arise.

55 And her spirit came againe, and she rose straight way: and he commanded to giue her meat.

28 *And it came to paſſe about an eight dayes after thoſe wordes, that he toke Peter, & Iohn and Iames, and went vp into a mountaine to pray.

Mat. 17, 1. mar. 9, 2.

29 And as he prayed, ỹ facion of his coũtenance was changed, & his garmẽt was white and gliſtered,

30 And beholde two men talked w̃ him, which were Moſes and Elias.

[i] That is, what yſſue he ſhulde haue and how he ſhulde dye.

31 Which appeared in glorie, and tolde of his [i] departing, which he ſhulde accompliſh at Ieruſalem.

32 But Peter and they that were with him, were heauie with ſlepe, and when they awooke, they ſawe his glorie, and the two men ſtanding with him.

33 And it came to paſſe, as they departed from him, Peter ſaid vnto Ieſus, Maſter, it is good for vs to be here: let vs therefore make thre tabernacles, one for thee, and one for Moſes, and one for Elias, and wiſt not what he ſaid.

34 While he thus ſpake, there came a cloude & [k] ouerſhadowed them, & they feared when theſe were entring into the cloude.

[k] For otherwayes they had not bene able to comprehend his great maieſtie. Mat. 3 17. mar. 1, 11.

35 *And there came a voyce out of the cloude, ſaying, This is my beloued Sonne heare him.

36 And when the voyce was paſt, Ieſus was founde alone: and they kept it cloſe, and tolde no man in [l] thoſe dayes any of thoſe things which they had ſene.

37 ¶And it came to paſſe on ỹ next day, as they came downe from ỹ mountaine muche people met him.

38 *And beholde, a man of the companie cryed out, ſaying, Maſter, I beſeche thee, beholde my ſonne: for he is all that I haue.

Mat 17, 14. mar. 9, 17.

39 And lo, a ſpirit taketh him, & ſuddenly he cryeth, and he teareth him, that he ſometh, and with muche paine departeth from him, when he hathe bruiſed him.

40 Now I haue beſoght thy diſciples to caſt him out, but they colde not.

41 Then Ieſus anſwered, and ſaid, [m] O generacion faithles, and croked, how long now ſhal I be with you, & ſuffer you? bring thy ſonne hither.

[m] Vnder the coulour that his diſciples colde not heale the ſicke man, he reproueth them, w̃ wolde haue diminiſhed his autoritie.

42 And whiles he was yet comming, the deuil rent him, and tare him: and Ieſus rebuked the vncleane ſpirit, and healed the childe, and deliuered him to his father.

43 ¶And thei were all amaſed at ỹ mightie power of God: & while thei all wondred at all things, which Ieſus did, he ſaid vnto his diſciples, 44 [n] Marke theſe wordes diligently: for it ſhal come to paſſe, that the Sonne of man ſhalbe delmered into the hands of men.

[n] Greke, put theſe wordes into your eares.

45 But they [n] vnderſtode not that worde, for it was hid frõ them, ſo that they colde not perceiue it: and they feared to aſke him of that worde.

[n] They were ſo blinded with this opinio that Chriſt ſhulde haue a temporal kingdome that they wolde not vnderſtand whẽ he ſpake of his death. Mat. 18, 1. mar. 9, 33.

46 *Then there aroſe a diſputacion among them, which of them ſhulde be the greateſt.

47 When Ieſus ſawe the thoghts of their hearts, he toke a litle childe, and ſet him by him.

48 And ſaid vnto them, Whoſoeuer receiueth this litle childe in my Name, receiueth me: and whoſoeuer ſhal receiue me, receiueth him that ſente me: for he that is leaſt among you all, he ſhalbe great.

49 ¶*And Iohn anſwered, & ſaid, Maſter, we ſawe one caſting out deuils in thy Name, and we forbade him, becauſe he followeth thee not with vs.

Mat. 7 38.

50 Then Ieſus ſaid vnto him, Forbid ye him not: for he that is not againſt vs, [o] is with vs.

51 ¶ And it came to paſſe, whē the [p] dayes were accompliſhed, that he ſhulde be receiued vp, he ſetteled him ſelf fully to go to Ieruſalem,

52 And ſent meſſengers before him: and they went and entred into a towne of the Samaritans, to prepare him lodging.

53 But they wolde not receiue him, becauſe his [q] behauiour was, as though he wolde go to Ieruſalem.

54 And when his diſciples, Iames & Iohn ſawe it, they ſaid, Lord, wilt thou that we commande, that fyre come downe from heauen, and conſume them, euen as* Elias did?

55 But Ieſus turned about, & rebuked them, and ſaid, Ye knowe not of what [r] ſpirit ye are.

56 *For the Sonne of man is not come to deſtroye mens liues, but to ſaue them. Then they went to another towne.

57 ¶ And it came to paſſe ỹ as they went in the way, a certeine mā ſaid vnto him, I wil followe thee, Lord, whether ſoeuer thou goeſt.

58 And Ieſus ſaid vnto him, The [s] foxes haue holes, and the birdes of the heauen haue neſtes, but ỹ Sonne of man hathe not whereon to laie his head.

59 But he ſaid vnto another, Followe me. And the ſame ſaid, Lord, ſuffer me firſt to go and [t] burie my father.

60 And Ieſus ſaid vnto him, [v] Let the dead burye there dead: but go thou and preache the kingdome of God.

61 Then another ſaid, I wil followe thee, Lord: but let me firſt go bid them fare wel, which are at mine houſe.

62 And Ieſus ſaid vnto him, No man that putteth his hand to the plough, and [x] loketh backe, is apte to the kingdome of God.

thee, Father, Lord of heauen & earth, that thou hast hid these things from the [n] wise and learned, and hast reueiled them to babes: euen so, Father, because it so pleased thee.

22 Then he turned to his disciples, and said, All things are [o] giuen me of my Father: and [p] no man knoweth who the Sonne is, but the Father; nether who the Father is, saue the [q] Sonne, and he to whome the Sonne wil reueile him.

23 ¶ And he returned to his disciples, and said secretly, *Blessed are the eyes, which se that ye se.

24 For I tell you that manie Prophetes & Kings haue desired to se those things, which ye se, & haue not sene them: and to heare those things, which ye heare, & haue not heard them.

25 ¶* Then beholde, a certeine expouder of the Law stode vp, and tempted him, saying, Master, what shal I do, to inherite eternal life?

26 And he said vnto him, [r] What is writte in the Law? how readest thou?

27 And he answered, and said, * Thou shalt loue thy Lord God with all thine heart, & with all thy soule, & with all thy strength, & with all thy thoght, * & thy neighbour as thy self.

28 Then he said vnto him, Thou hast answered right: this do, & thou shalt liue.

29 But he willing to [t] iustifie him self, said vnto Iesus, Who [r] is then my neighbour?

30 And Iesus answered, and said, A certeine man went downe from Ierusalem to Iericho, and fell among theues, and they robbed him of his rayment, and wounded him, & departed, leauing him halfe dead.

31 And by [s] chance there came downe a certeine [t] Priest that same way, and when he sawe him, he passed by on the other side.

32 And likewise also a Leuite, when he was come nere to the place, went and loked on him, and passed by on the other side.

33 Then a certeine [v] Samaritan, as he iourneyed, came nere vnto him, and when he sawe him, he had compassion on him,

34 And went to him, & bounde vp his woundes, and powred in oyle and wine, and put him on his owne beast, and broght him to an ynne, and made prouision for him.

35 And on the morowe whe he departed, he toke out [x] two pence, and gaue them to the hoste, and said vnto him, Take care of him, and what soeuer thou spendest more, when I come againe, I wil recompense thee.

36 Which now of these thre, thinkest thou, was neighbour vnto him that fell among the theues?

37 And he said, He that shewed mercie on him. Then said Iesus vnto him, Go, and do thou likewise.

38 ¶ Now it came to passe as they went, that he entred into a certeine towne, and a certeine woman named Martha, receiued him into her house.

39 And she had a sister called Marie, [w] also sate at Iesus fete, & heard his preaching.

40 But Martha was combred about muche seruing, and came to him, & said, Master, doest thou not care that my sister hathe left me to serue alone? bid her therefore, that she helpe me.

41 And Iesus answered, and said vnto her, Martha, Martha, [y] carest, & art [z] troubled about manie things.

42 But one thing is nedeful, Marie hathe chosen the good parte, [a] which shal not be taken away from her.

14 ¶ Then he cast out a deuil which was domme: and when the deuil was gone out, the domme spake, and the people wondered,
15 But some of them said, He casteth out deuils through Beelzebub the chief of of the deuils.
16 And others tempted him, seking of him a singe from heauen.
17 But he knewe their thoghtes, and said vnto them, * Euerie kingdome deuided against it self, shalbe desolate, and an house deuided against an house, falleth.

21 So is he that gathereth riches to him self, and is not riche in[f] God.

22 And he spake vnto his disciples, Therefore I say vnto you, *Take no thoght for your life, what ye shal eat: nether for your bodie, what ye shal put on.

1 The crueltie of Pilate. 2 We ought not to cōdemne all to be wicked men which suffre. 3 Christ exhorteth to repētance. 11 He healeth the croked woman. 15 Answereth to the master of the Synagogue. 18 By diuers similitudes he declareth what the kingdome of God is. 23 Also that the nomber of them which shal be saued, is smale. 33 Finally he sheweth that no worldelie policie or force can let the worke and counsel of God.

THere were certeine men present at the same season, that shewed him of the Galileans, whose blood Pilate had [a] mingled with their owne sacrifices.

2 And Iesus answered, and said vnto thē, Suppose ye, ỹ these Galileans were [b] greater sinners then all the other Galileans, because they haue suffered suche things?

3 I tell you, nay: but except [c] ye amēde your liues, ye shal all likewise perish.

4 Or thinke you that those eightene, vpon whome ỹ towre in [d] Siloam fel, & slewe them, were [e] sinners aboue all men that dwel in Ieruſalem?

5 I tell you, nay: but except ye amende your liues, ye all shal likewise perish.

6 ¶He spake also this parable, A certeine man had a figge tre planted in his vineyarde: & he came & soght frute thereon, and founde none.

7 Then said he to the dresser of his vineyarde, Beholde, [f] this three yeres haue I come and soght frute of this figge tre, and finde none: [g] cut it downe why kepeth it [s] also the ground baren?

8 And he answered, & said vnto him, Lord let it alone this yere also, til I digge round about it, and dongue it.

9 And if it beare frute wel: it not, thē after thou shalt cut it downe.

10 ¶And he taught in one of ỹ Synagogues on the Sabbath day.

11 And beholde, there was a womā which had a [h] spirit of infirmitie eightene yeres, & was [i] bowed together, & colde not lift vp her self in anie wise.

12 When Iesus sawe her, he called her to him, & said to her, Woman, thou art [k] losed from thy disease.

13 And he laid his hands on her, & immediatly she was made straight againe, and glorified God.

14 And the ruler of ỹ Synagogue answered with indignation because that Iesus had healed on the Sabbath day, & said vnto the people, There are six dayes in which men ought to worke: in thē therefore come and be healed, & not on ỹ Sabbath day.

15 Then answered him the Lord, & said, Hypocrite, doeth not eche one of you on the Sabbath day lose his oxe or his asse from the stall, & lead him away to the water?

16 And ought not this daughter of Abrahā, whome Satan had bounde, lo, eightene yeres, be losed from this bonde on the Sabbath day?

17 And when he said these things, all his aduersaries were ashamed: but all the people reioyced at all the excellent things, that were done by him.

18 ¶* Thē said he, What is the [k] kingdome of God like? or whereto shal I cōpare it?

19 It is like a graine of mustarde seed, which a man toke & sowed in his garden, & it grewe, and waxed a great tre, & the foules of the heauen made nestes in the branches thereof.

20 ¶And againe he said, Whereūto shal I liken the kingdome of God?

21 It is like leaue, which a womā toke, & hid in thre peckes of floure, til all was leauened.

22 ¶* And he went through all cities and townes, teaching, & iourneyinge towardes Ieruſalem.

23 Then said one vnto him, Lord, are there fewe ỹ shalbe saued? And he said vnto them,

24 *[l] Striue to entre in at the straite gate: for manie, I say vnto you, wil seke to enter in, and shal not be able.

1 Ieſus eateth with the Phariſe. 4 Healeth the dropſie vpon the Sabbath. 8 Teacheth to be lowlie & to bid the poore to our table. 15 He telleth of the great ſupper. 28 He warneth them that wil followe him, to lay their accountes before, what it wil coſt them. 34 The ſalt of the earth.

1 AND it came to paſſe that when he was entred into the houſe of one of the chief Phariſes on the Sabbath day, to [u] eat bread, they watched him.
2 And beholde, there was a certeine mā before him, which had the dropſie.
3 Then Ieſus anſwering, ſpake vnto the expounders of the Law, & Phariſes, ſaying, Is it lawful to heale on ſ̄ Sabbath day?

5 And anſwered them, ſaying, Which of you ſhal haue an aſſe, or an oxe fallē into a pit, & wil not ſtraight way pul him out on the Sabbath day?
6 And they colde not anſwer him againe to thoſe things.
7 ¶ He ſpake alſo a parable to ſ̄ gheſts, when he marked how they choſe out the chief roumes, and ſaid vnto them,
8 [a] When thou ſhalt be bidden of anie man to a wedding, ſet not thy ſelf downe in the chiefeſt place, leſt a more honorable man then thou, be bidden of him,
9 And he that bade bothe him and thee, come, and ſay to thee, Giue this mā roume, and thou then beginne with ſhame to take the loweſt roume.
10 *But when thou art bidden, go and ſit downe in the loweſt roume, that when he that bade thee, cometh, he may ſay vnto thee, Friend, ſit vp hier: then ſhalt ẏ haue worſhip in the preſence of them ſ̄ ſit at table with thee.
11 *For whoſoeuer exalteth him ſelf, ſhalbe broght low, and he that humbleth him ſelf, ſhalbe exalted.

CHAP. XV.

The Pharises murmure because Christ receiueth sinners. 4 The louing mercie of God is openly set forthe in the parable of the husbandreth shepe, 7 Ioye in heauen for one sinner. Of the prodigal sonne.

1 THen resorted vnto him all ỳ Publicanes, & sinners, to heare him.
2 Therefore the Pharises & Scribes murmured, saying, He receiueth sinners, & eateth with them.
3 Then spake he this parable to them, saying,
4 * What mā of you hauing an hundreth shepe, if he loose one of them, doeth not leaue ninetie and nine in the wildernes, & go after that which is lost, vntil he finde it?
5 And whē he hathe founde it, he laieth it on his shulders with ioye.
6 And whē he cometh home, he calleth together his frieds & neighbours, saying vnto them, Reioyce with me: for I haue founde my shepe, which was lost.
7 I say vnto you, that likewise ioye shalbe in heauen for one sinner that cōuerteth, more then for ninetie and nine [a] iuste men, which nede none amendement of life.
8 Ether what woman hauing tē [b] pieces of siluer, if she loose one piece, doeth not light a candel, & swepe the house, and seke diligently til she finde it?
9 And whē she hathe foūde it, she calleth her friends, and neighbours, saying, Reioyce with me: for I haue founde ỳ piece which I had lost.
10 Likewise I say vnto you, there is ioye in the presence of the Angels of God, for one sinner that conuerteth.
11 ¶ He said moreouer, A certeine man had two sonnes.
12 And the yonger of thē said to his father, Father, giue me the [c] portion of ỳ goods that falleth to me. So he deuided vnto them his substance.
13 So not long after, whē the yonger sonne had gathered all together, he toke his iorney into a farre countrey, & there he wasted his goods with [d] riotous liuing.
14 Now when he had spent all, there arose a great dearth throughout ỳ land, & he began to be in necessitie.
15 Then he went & claue to a citizen of that countrey, & he sent him to his farme, to feede swine.
16 And he wolde faine haue filled his belie with ỳ huskes, ỳ the swine ate: [e] but no man gaue them him.
17 Then he came to him self, and said, How manie hired seruāts at my fathers haue bread ynough, and I dye for hunger?
18 I wil rise and go to my father, and say vnto him, Father, I haue sinned against [f] heauen, & before thee,

20 So he aroſe and came to his father, and when he was yet a g great way of, his father ſawe him, and had compaſſion, and ran & fel on his necke, & kiſſed him.

21 And the ſonne ſaid vnto him, h Father, I haue ſinned againſt heauen, & before thee, and am no more worthie to be called thy ſonne.

22 Then the father ſaid to his ſeruants, Bring forthe ŷ beſt robe, and put it on him, & put a ring on his hand, & ſhoes on his feete,

23 And bring ŷ fat calf, and kil him, and let vs eat, and be merie.

24 For this my ſonne was dead, & is aliue againe: and he was loſt, but he is founde. And they began to be merie.

25 Now the i Elder brother was in the field, and when he came & drewe nere to the houſe, he heard melodie, & dancing,

26 And called one of his ſeruants, & aſked what thoſe things ment.

27 And he ſaid vnto him, Thy brother is come, & thy father hathe killed the fatted calfe, becauſe he hathe receiued him ſafe and ſounde.

28 Thē he was angrie, & wolde not go in: therefore came his father out & entreated him.

29 But he anſwered & ſaid to his father, Lo theſe manie yeres haue I done thee ſeruice, nether brake I at anie time thy commandement, & yet thou neuer gaueſt me a kid that I might make merie with my friends.

30 But whē this thy ſonne was come, which hathe deuoured thy goods with harlots, thou haſt for his ſake killed the fat calfe.

Chriſt exhorteth his to wiſdome and liberalitie by the example of the ſtewarde 13 None can ſerue two maſters. 14 He reproueth the couetouſnes and hypocriſie of the Phariſes. 16 Of the end and force of the Law. 18 Of the holie ſtate of mariage. 19 Of the riche and Lazarus.

AND he ſaid alſo vnto his diſciples, a There was a certeine riche man, which had a ſtewarde, and he was accuſed vnto him, that he waſted his goods.

2 And he called him, and ſaid vnto him, How is it that I heare this of thee? Giue an accounts of thy ſtewardſhip: for thou maieſt be no longer ſtewarde.

3 Then the ſtewarde ſaid within him ſelf, What ſhal I do: for my maſter wil take away from me the ſtewardeſhip? I can not digge, & to begge I am aſhamed.

4 I knowe what I wil do, that whē I am put out of ŷ ſtewardeſhip they may receiue me into their houſes.

5 Then called he euerie one of his maſters detters, & ſaid vnto the firſt, How muche oweſt thou vnto my maſter?

6 And he ſaid, An hundreth meaſures of oyle. And he ſaid to him, Take thy writing, and ſit downe quickely, and write fiftie.

7 Then ſaid he to another, How muche oweſt thou? And he ſaid, An hundreth meaſures of wheat. Then he ſaid to him, Take thy writing, and write fourſcore.

8 And the Lord commended b ŷ vniuſt ſtewarde, becauſe he had done wiſely. Wherefore the children of this worlde are in their generatiō wiſer thē ŷ children of light.

12 He said therefore, * A certeine noble man went into [c] a farre countrey, to receiue for him self a kingdome, and so to come againe.

13 And he called his ten seruants, & deliuered them ten [d] pieces of money, & said vnto them, [e] Occupie til I come.

14 Now his citizens hated him, and sent an ambassage after him, saying, We wil not haue this man to reigne ouer vs.

15 And it came to passe, when he was come [f] againe, and had receiued his kingdome, that he commanded the seruants to be called to him, to whome he gaue his money, that he might knowe what euerie man had gained.

16 Then came the first, saying, Lord, thy piece hathe encreased ten pieces.

17 And he said vnto him, Wel, good seruant: because thou hast bene faithful in a verie litle thing, take thou autoritie ouer ten cities,

18 And the seconde came, saying, Lord, thy piece hathe encreased fiue pieces.

19 And to the same he said, Be thou also ruler ouer fiue cities.

20 So the other came and said, Lord, behold thy piece, which I haue laid vp in a napkin.

21 For I feared thee, because thou art a strait man: thou takest vp, that thou laidest not downe, & reapest that thou diddest not sowe.

22 Then he said vnto him, Of thine owne [g] mouth wil I iudge thee, ô euil seruant. Thou knewest that I am a strait man, taking vp that I laid not downe, and reaping that I did not sowe.

23 Wherefore then gauest not thou my money into the banke, that at my comming I might haue required it with vantage?

24 And he said to them that stode by, Take from him that piece, and giue it him that hathe ten pieces.

25 (And they said vnto him Lord, he ha the ten pieces.)

26 * For I say vnto you, that vnto all thẽ that haue, it shalbe [h] giuen: and from him that hathe not, euen that he hathe shalbe taken from him.

27 Moreouer those mine enemies, which wolde not that I shulde reigne ouer thẽ, bring hither, and slay them before me.

28 ¶ And when he had thus spoken, he went forthe [i] before, ascending vp to Ierusalem.

29 * And it came to passe, whẽ he was come nere to Bethphage, and Bethania, besides the mount which is called the mount of oliues, he sent two of i. is disciples.

30 Saying, Go ye to the towne which is before you, wherein, assone as ye are come, ye shal finde a colte tied, whereon neuer man sate: loose him, and bring him hither.

31 [k] And if anie man aske you, why ye lose him, thus shal ye say vnto him, Because the Lord hathe nede of him.

32 So they that were sent, went their way, and founde it as he had said vnto them.

33 And as they were losing the colte, the owners thereof said vnto them, Why lose ye the colte?

34 And they said, The Lord hathe nede of him.

35 ¶ * So they broght him to Iesus, and they cast their garments on the colte, and set Iesus thereon.

36 And as he went, they spred their clothes in the way.

37 And when he was now come nere to ỹ going downe of the mount of oliues, ỹ whole multitude of the disciples bega to reioyce, & to praise God with a loude voice, for all the great workes that thei had sene,

39 Then some of the Pharises of the cõpanie said vnto him, Master, rebuke thy disciples.

40 But he answered, and said vnto them, I tel you, ỹ if these shulde holde there peace, the stones wolde crye.

1 AND * it came to passe that on one of those dayes, as he taught the people in the Temple, and preached ȳ Gospel, the high Priests and the Scribes came vpon him with the Elders,
2 And spake vnto him, saying, Tell vs by what autoritie ȳ doest these things, or who is he that hathe giuen thee this autoritie?
3 And he answered and said vnto them, I also wil aske you one thing: tell me therefore:
4 The a baptisme of Iohn was it from heauen, or of men?
5 And thei reasoned within thē selues, saying, If we shal say from heauen, he wil say, Why then beleued ye him not?
6 But if we shal say, Of men, all the people wil stone vs: for thei be persuaded that Iohn was a Prophet.
7 Therefore they answered, that they colde not tell whence it was.
8 Then Iesus said vnto them, b Nether tell I you, by that autoritie I do these things.
9 ¶ * Then began he to speake to the people this parable, * A certeine man planted a c vineyarde, & d let it forthe to housbandmen: and went into a strange countrey, for a great season.
10 And at a time he sent a e seruant to ȳ housband men, that they shulde giue him of the frute of the vineyarde, but the housband men did beat him, & sent him away emptie.
11 Againe he sent yet another seruant: & thei did beat him, and fowle entreated him, and sent him away emptie.
12 Moreouer he sent the third, and him they wounded, and cast out.
13 Then said the Lord of the vineyarde, What shal I do? I wil send my beloued sonne: it may be that thei wil do reuerence, when they se him.
14 But when the housband men sawe him, they reasoned with them selues, saying, This is the heire: come, let vs kil him, that the enheritance may be ours.
15 So they cast him out of the vineyarde, and killed him. What shal the Lord of the vineyarde therefore do vnto them?
16 He wil come and destroy these housbandmen and wil giue out his vineyarde to others. But when they heard it, they said, God forbid.
17 ¶ And he behelde them, & said, What meaneth this then that is writtē, * The stone that the buylders refused, that is made the head f of the corner?
18 Whosoeuer shal fall vpon that stone, shalbe broken: and on whomesoeuer it shal fall, it wil grinde him to powder.
19 Then the hie Priests and the Scribes the same houre went about to lay hands on him: (but they feared the people) for they perceiued that he had spoken this parable against them.
20 * And they h watched him, and sent forthe spies, which shulde faine them selues iuste mē, to take him in his talke and to deliuer him vnto the power and autoritie of the gouernour.
21 And they asked him, saying, Master, we knowe that thou sayest, and teachest right, nether doest thou accept mans persone, but teachest the way of God truely.
22 Is it i lawful for vs to giue Cesar tribute or no?
23 But he perceiued their craftines, and said vnto them, Why tempt ye me?
24 Shewe me a penie. Whose image and superscription hathe it? They answered and said, Cesars.
25 Then he said vnto them, * k Giue then vnto Cesar the things which are Cesars, and to God those which are Gods.
26 And they colde not reproue his saying before the people: but they marueiled at his answer, and helde their peace.
27 * Then came to him certeine of the Sadducees (which denie that there is anie resurrection) and they asked him,
28 Saying, Master, * Moses wrote vnto vs, If anie mans brother dye hauing a wife, and he dye without children, that his brother shulde take his wife, and raise vp sede vnto his brother.
29 Now there were seuen brethren, and the first toke a wife, & he dyed without children.

a Who was the chief gouernour & had y^e examinacion of matters of life and death.

2 And they began to accuse him, saying, We haue founde this man peruerting y^e people, and forbidding to paye tribute to Cesar, saying, That he is Christ a King.

Mat. 27,11 mar. 15,2 iohn. 18,33

3 * And Pilate asked him, saying, Art y^u the King of the Iewes? And he answered him, and said, Thou saist it.
4 Then said Pilate to the hie Priests & to the people, I finde no faute in this man.
5 But they were the more fierce, saying, He moueth y^e people, teaching through out all Iudea, beginning at Galile, euen to this place,
6 Now when Pilate heard of Galile, he asked whether the man were a Galilean.
7 And when he knewe that he was of Herodes iurisdictiō, he [b] sent him to Herode, which was also at Ierusalem [||] in those daies.
8 And whē Herode sawe Iesus, he was exceadingly glad: for he was [c] desirous to se him of a long season, because he had heard manie things of him, and trusted to haue sene some [||] signe done by him.
9 Then questioned he with him of manie things: but he answered him [d] nothing.
10 The hie Priests also and Scribes stode forthe and accused him vehemently.
11 And Herode with his [||] men of warre, despised him, and mocked him, and arrayed him in [e] [||] white, & sent him againe to Pilate.
12 * And the same daye Pilate and Herode were made friends together: for before they were enemies one to another.
13 ¶ Then Pilate called together the hie Priests, and the rulers, and the people,
14 And said vnto them, Ye haue broght this man vnto me, as one that peruerted the people: and beholde, I haue examined him before you, and haue founde no faute in this man, of those things whereof ye accuse him:
15 No, nor yet Herode: for I sent you to him: and lo, nothing worthie of death is done [||] to him.
16 I wil therefore chastise him, and let him lose.
17 (For of [f] necessitie he must haue let one lose vnto them at the feast.)
18 Then all the multitude cryed at once, saying, Away with him, and deliuer to vs Barrabbas:
19 Which for a certeine insurrection made in the citie, and murther, was cast in prison.
20 Then Pilate spake againe to them, willing to let Iesus lose.
21 But they cryed saying, Crucifie, crucifie him.
22 And he said vnto them the third time, But what euil hathe he done? I finde [g] no cause of death in him: I wil therefore chastise him, and let him lose.
23 But they were instant with loude voyces, & required that he might be crucified: and the voyces of them and of the hie Priests preuailed.

25 And he let loose vnto them him that for insurrection and murther was cast into prison, whome they desired, and deliuered Iesus to do with him what they wolde.
26 ¶ *And as they led him awaye, they caught one Simon of Cyrene, comming out of ỹ field, and on him they laid the crosse, to beare it after Iesus.
27 And there followed him a great multitude of people, and of women, which women bewailed and lamented him.
28 But Iesus turned backe vnto them, & said, [g]Daughters of Ierusalem, wepe not for me, but wepe for your selues, and for your children.
29 For beholde, the daies wil come, when men shal say, Blessed are the barren, and the wombes that neuer bare, and the pappes which neuer gaue sucke.
30 Then shal they beginne to say to the mountaines, *Fall on vs: and to the hilles, Couer vs.
31 * For if they do these things to a hgrene tre, what shalbe done to the drye?
32 * And there were two others, which were euil doers, led with him to be slaine.
33 And when they were come to the place, which is called [g]Caluerie, there they crucified him, and the euil doers: one at the right hand, and the other at the left.
34 Then said Iesus, Father, forgiue them: for they knowe not what they do. And they parted his rayment, & cast lots.
35 And the people stode, and beholde: and the rulers mocked him with them, saying, He saued others: let him saue himself, if he be the Christ, the i Chosen of God.
36 The souldiers also mocked him, and came and offred him k vineger, 37 And said, If thou be the King of the Iewes, saue thy self.
38 And a superscription was also written ouer him, in l Greke letters, and in Latin, and in Hebrewe, THIS IS THE KING OF THE IEWES.
39 ¶ And one of the euil doers, which were hanged, railed on him, saying, If thou be the Christ, saue thy self and vs.
40 But the other answered, and rebuked him, saying, [m] Feareste thou not God, seing thou art in the same condemnacion?
41 We are in dede righteously here: for we receiue things worthie of that we haue done: but this man hathe done nothing amisse.
42 And he said vnto Iesus, Lord, remember me, when thou comest into thy kingdome.

44 And it was about the [n] sixt houre: and there was a darkenes ouer all the land, vntil the ninth houre.
45 And the sunne was darkened, and the vaile of the Temple rent through the middes.
46 And Iesus cryed ẅ a loude voyce, & saied * Father, into thine handes I commend my spirit. And when he thus had said, He gaue vp the goste.
47 Now when the [o] Centurion sawe what was done, he glorified God, saying, Of a suretie this man was iuste.
48 And all the people that came together to that sight, beholding the thigs, which were done, smote their brests, and returned.
49 And all his acquaintance stode a farre of, and the women that followed him from Galile, beholding these things.
50 ¶ * And beholde, there was a man named Ioseph, which was a counseller, a good man and a iuste.
51 He did not consent to the counsel and dede of them, which was of Arimathea, a citie of the Iewes: who also himself [p] waited for the kingdome of God.
52 He went vnto Pilate, and asked the bodie of Iesus.
53 And toke it downe, and wrapped it in a linnen cloth, and laid it in a tombe hewen out of a rocke, wherein was neuer man yet laid.
54 And that day was the [q] Preparacion, and the Sabbath [r] drewe on.
55 And the women also that followed after, which came with him from Galile, behelde the sepulchre, and how his bodie was laid.

5 And as they were afrayed, and bowed downe their faces to the earth, they said to them, Why seke ye him that liueth, among the dead?
6 He is not here, but is risen: remember *how he spake vnto you, when he was yet in Galile,
7 Saying, that the sonne of man must be deliuered into the hands of sinful men, and be crucified, and the third daye rise againe.
8 And they remembred his wordes,
9 And returned from the sepulchre, and tolde all these things vnto the eleuen, and to all the remnant.
10 Now it was Marie Magdalene and Ioanna, & Marie the mother of Iames, and other women with them, which tolde these things vnto the Apostles.
11 But their wordes semed vnto them, as a fained thing, nether beleued they them.
12 Then arose Peter, and ran vnto the sepulchre, and loked in, and sawe the linnen clothes laid by them selues, & departed wondering in him self at that which was come to passe.
13 ¶ *And beholde, two of them went ý same day to a towne which was from Ierusalem about, thre score furlongs, called Emmaus.
14 And they [d] talked together of all these things that were done.
15 And it came to passe, as they communed together, and reasoned, that Iesus him self drewe nere, and went with them.
16 But their eyes [e] were holden, ý they colde not knowe him.
17 And he said vnto them, What maner of communications are these that ye haue one to another as ye walke, and are sad?
18 And the one (named Cleopas) answered and said vnto him, Art thou onely [f] stranger in Ierusalem, and hast not knowen the things which are come to passe therein in these dayes?
19 And he said vnto them, What things? And they said vnto him, Of Iesus of Nazaret, which was a Prophet, mightie in dede and in worde before God, and all the people,
20 And how the hie Priests, and our rulers deliuered him to be condemned to death, and haue crucified him.
21 But we [g] trusted that it had bene he that shulde haue deliuered Israel, and as touching all these things, to day is the third day, that they were done.
22 Yea, and certeine women among vs made vs astonied, which came early vnto the sepulchre.
23 And when they founde not his bodie, they came, saying, that they had also sene a vision of Angels, which said that he was aliue.
24 Therefore certeine of them which were with vs, went to the sepulchre, and founde it euen so as the women had said, but him they sawe not.
25 Then he said vnto them, [h] O fooles & slowe of heart to beleue all that the Prophetes haue spoken,
26 Ought not Christ to haue suffred these things, and to enter into his glorie?
27 And he began at [i] Moses, and at all the Prophetes, and interpreted vnto them in all the Scriptures the things which were written of him.
28 And they drewe nere vnto the towne, which they went to, but he [k] made as though he wolde haue gone further.
29 But they constrained him, saying, Abide with vs: for it is towardes night, & the day is farre spent. So he went in to tarie with them.
30 And it came to passe, as he sate at table with them, he toke the bread, [l] and gaue thankes, and brake it, and gaue it to them.
31 Then their eyes were opened, & they knewe him: but he was taken out of their sight.
32 And they said betwene them selues, Did not our hearts burne within vs, while he talked with vs by the way, and when he opened to vs the Scriptures?
33 And they rose vp the same houre, and returned to Ierusalem, and founde the Eleuen gathered together, and them ý were with them,
34 Which said, The Lord is risen in dede, and hathe appeared to Simon.
35 Then they tolde what things were done in the way, and how he was knowen of them in [m] breaking of bread.

CHAP. I.

1.14.17. The diuinitie, humanitie, & office of Iesus Christ. 15 The testimonie of Iohn. 39 The calling of Andrewe, Peter, &c.

Euang: am Dritt. Nachtstunde

1 IN [n] the beginning was the Worde, and the Worde was with [a] God, and that Worde was God.
2 The same was [b] in the beginning with God.
3 All things were made by it, and [c] without it was made nothing that was made
4 In it was [d] life, and the life was ỹ [e] light of men.
5 And the light shineth in [f] the darkenes, and the darkenes comprehended it not.
6 ¶ * There was a man sent from God, whose name was Iohn.
7 The same came for a witnes, to beare witnes of ỹ light, that all men through him might beleue.
8 He was not that light, but was sent to beare witnes of the light.
9 That was the true light, which lighteth euerie man that [n] cometh into the worlde.
10 He was in the worlde, and the worlde was * made by him: and the worlde [g] knewe him not.
11 He came vnto [h] his owne, and his owne receiued him not.
12 But as many as receiued him, to them, he gaue [i] power to be the sonnes of God euen to them that beleue in his Name,
13 Which are borne not of blood, nor of the wil of the flesh, nor of ỹ wil of man, but of God,
14 *And the Worde was made [k] flesh, and dwelt among vs, (and we * sawe the glorie thereof, as the glorie of the onely begottten Sonne [n] of the Father) * ful of grace & trueth.
15 ¶ Iohn bare witnes of him, and cryed, saying, This was he of whome I said, He that cometh after me, is preferred before me: for he was [e] before me.
16 And of his fulnes haue all we receiued, and grace for grace.
17 For the Lawe was giuen by Moses, but grace and trueth came by Iesus Christ.
18 *No man hathe sene God at any time: the onely begotten Sonne, which is in ỹ [m] bosome of the Father, he hathe [n] declared him.
19 ¶ Then this is the recorde of Iohn, when the Iewes sent Priests and Leuites from Ierusalem, to aske him, Who art thou?
20 And he confessed and denyed not, & said plainely, I am not the Christ.
21 And they asked him, What then? Art thou Elias? And he said, I am not. Art thou the [o] Prophet? And he answered, No.
22 Then said they vnto him, Who art thou that we may giue an answer to them that sent vs? what saist thou of thy selfe?

x How Iohn said, that Iesus was the lambe of God.

u Or, the Anointed.

41 The same founde his brother Simon first, and said vnto him, We haue founde the Messias, which is by interpretacion, [u] the Christ.

42 And he broght him to Iesus. And Iesus behelde him, & said, Thou art Simon the sonne of Iona: thou shalt be called Cephas, which is by interpretation, [u] a stone.

43 ¶ The day following, Iesus wolde go into Galile, and founde Philippe, and said vnto him, Followe me.

44 Now Philippe was of Bethsaida, the citie of Andrewe and Peter.

45 Philippe founde Nathanael, and said vnto him, We haue foūde him, of whome *Moses did write in the Law, and ẏ *Prophetes, Iesus of Nazaret the sonne of Ioseph.

Gen. 49. 10. deut. 18. 18. Isa. 42. 4. 10. 45. 8. vers. 23. ier. 23. 5. ezec. 34. 23. & 37. 24. dan. 9. 24.

46 Then Nathanael said vnto him, Can there any [y] good thing come out of Nazaret? Philippe said to him, Come, & se.

y Those things ẅ are contemptible to the worlde, are esteemed and preferred of God: and those thigs ẅ the worlde preferreth, God abhorreth.

47 Iesus sawe Nathanael comming to him, & said of him, Beholde in dede an Israelite, in whome is no guile.

48 Nathanael said vnto him, Whence knewest thou me? Iesus answered & said vnto him, Before that Philippe called thee, when thou wast vnder ẏ figge tre, I sawe thee.

49 Nathanael answered, & said vnto him, Rabbi, thou art the Sonne of God: thou art the King of Israel.

50 Iesus answered, and said vnto him, Because I said vnto thee, I sawe thee vnder the figge tre, [w] beleuest thou? thou shalt se greater things then these.

w Or, thou beleuest.

51 And he said vnto him, Verely, verely, I say vnto you, hereafter shal ye se heauen [z] open, & the Angels of God * ascending, and descending vpon the Sonne of man.

z Christ openeth ẏ heauens, ẏ we may haue accesse to God, and maketh vs felowes to the Angels. Gen. 28. 12.

CHAP. II.

Christ turneth the water into wine. 14 He driueth the byers, and sellers out of the Temple. 19 He forewarneth his death and resurrection. 23 He conuerteth many, and distrusteth man.

AND ẏ third day, was there a mariage in Cana a towne of Galile, & the mother of Iesus was there.

2 And Iesus was called also, and his disciples vnto the mariage.

3 Now when the wine failed, the mother of Iesus said vnto him, They haue no wine.

4 Iesus said vnto her, Woman, what haue I to do with thee? mine houre is not yet come.

5 His mother said vnto the seruants, Whatsoeuer he saith vnto you, do it.

6 And there were set there, six waterpottes of stone, after the maner of the [a] purifying of the Iewes, conteining two or thre [b] firkins a piece.

b Whereof euerie one conteined 15. gallōs.

7 And Iesus said vnto them, Fil the waterpottes with water. Then they filled them vp to the brim.

8 Then he said vnto thē, Draw out now & beare vnto the [c] gouernour of the feast. So they bare it.

9 Now when the gouernour of the feast had tasted the water that was made wine, (for he knewe not whence it was: but the seruants, which drewe the water, knewe) the gouernour of the feast called the bridegrome,

10 And said vnto him, All men at the beginning set forthe good wine, and when men haue wel drunke, then that which is worse: but thou hast kept backe the good wine vntil now.

Or, signes.

11 This beginning of miracles did Iesus in Cana a towne of Galile, and shewed forthe his glorie: & his disciples beleued on him.

12 After that he went downe into Capernaum, he and his mother, and his [g] brethren, and his disciples: but they continued not manie dayes there.

[g] Or, cousins.

13 For the Iewes Passeouer was at hand. Therefore Iesus went vp to Ierusalem.

Mat. 21, 12. mar. 11, 17. luk. 19. 46.

14 *And he founde in the Temple those that solde oxen, and shepe, and doues, and changers of money sitting there.

15 Then he made a scourge of smale cordes, & drawe them all out of the Temple with the shepe, and oxen & powred out the changers money, and ouerthrewe the tables,

16 And said vnto them that solde doues, Take these things hence: make not my Fathers house, an house of marchandise.

17 And his disciples remembred, that it was written, *The [c] zeale of thine house hathe eaten me vp.

Psal. 68, 10.

[c] This affectiō was so burning in him, y it surmounted and swallowed vp all the others.

18 Then answered the Iewes, and said vnto him, What [f] signe shewest thou vnto vs, that thou doest these things?

[f] Or, miracle. Mat. 26, 61. & 27, 40. mar. 14, 58. & 15, 29.

19 Iesus answered and said vnto them, Destroye this temple, and in thre dayes I wil raise it vp againe.

20 Then said the Iewes, Fortie and six yeres was this Temple a buylding, and wilt thou reare it vp in thre dayes?

21 But he spake of the Temple of his [d] bodie.

[d] Christs bodie might iustly be called the temple, because y fulnes of the Godhead dwelleth in it corporally, Col. 2, 9.

22 Assone therefore as he was risen from the dead, his disciples remembred that he thus said vnto them: and they beleued the Scripture, and the worde which Iesus had said.

23 Now when he was at Ierusalem at the Passeouer in the feast, many beleued in his Name, when they sawe his miracles which he did.

24 But Iesus [e] did not commit him self vnto them, because he knewe them all,

[e] For he tooke not them for true disciples, as he knewe by their inwarde thoghtes, what religion soeuer they did pretende outwardely.

25 And had no nede that any shulde testifie of man: for he knewe what was in man.

CHAP. III.

3 Christ instructeth Nicodem^s in y regeneratiō. 15 Of faithe. 16 Of y loue of God towards y worlde. 23 The doctrine and baptisme of Iohn. 28 And y witnes y he beareth of Christ.

1 THere was now a man of the Pharises named Nicodemus, a ruler of the Iewes.

2 He came to Iesus by night, and said vnto him, Rabbi, we knowe that thou art a teacher come from God: for no man colde do these miracles that thou doest, except God were with him.

3 Iesus answered and said vnto him, Verely, verely I say vnto thee, except a man be borne againe, he can not [a] se y [b] kingdome of God.

a To entre therein.

4 Nicodemus said vnto him, How can a man be borne which is olde? can he enter into his mothers wombe againe, and be borne?

d As y power of God is manifest by y moving of the aire, so is it in chaging and renuing vs, althogh y maner be hid from vs.

5 Iesus answered, Verely, verely I say vnto thee, except that a man be borne of [c] water and of the Spirit, he can not enter into the kingdome of God.

e Although he was excellently learned, yet knewe he not those things w the very babes in Christs schole ought to knowe.

6 That which is borne of y flesh, is flesh, & that that is borne of the Spirit, is spirit.

f We may not teache our owne inuentions.

7 Marueile not that I said to thee, Ye must be borne againe.

8 The [d] winde bloweth where it listeth, & thou heareſt the sounde thereof, but cāst not tel whence it cometh, and whether it goeth: so is euerie mā that is borne of the Spirit.

g He reproueth him, for y men do teache things w they vnderstāde not, and yet others beleue them: but Christ teacheth thigs most certeine & knowen, & mē wil not receiue his doctrine.

9 Nicodemus answered, and said vnto him, How can these things be?

10 Iesus answered, and said vnto him, Art thou a teacher of Israel, and [e] knowest not these things?

h Which was after a commune and grosse maner.

11 Verely, verely I say vnto thee, we speake that we [f] knowe, & testifie, that we haue sene: but ye^s receiue not our witnes.

k His power must be manifest, which is not yet knowē. 1. Iohn 4, 9. Chap. 9, 39. and 12, 47.

13 For no man ascendeth vp to heauen, but he that hathe descended from heauen, y Sonne of mā which is in heauen.

16 *For God so loued the worlde, that he hathe giuē his onely begotten Sonne, that whosoeuer beleueth in him, shulde not perish, but haue euerlasting life.

17 *For God sent not his Sonne into the worlde, that he shulde [l] condemne the worlde, but that the worlde through him might be saued.

m Not onely y Iewes, but whosoeuer shal de beleue in him.

18 He that beleueth in him, shal not be condemned: but he that beleueth not, is condemned already, because he beleueth not in the Name of the onely begotten Sonne of God.

19 *And this is the n condemnation, that light is come into the worlde, & men loued darkenes rather then light, because their dedes were euil.
20 For euerie man that euil doeth, hateth the light, nether commeth to light, lest his dedes shulde be reproued.
21 But he that doeth o crueth, commeth to the light, that his dedes might be made manifest, that they are wroght *p according to God.
22 ¶ After these things, came Iesus and his disciples into the *land of Iudea, and there taried with them, and *baptized.
23 And Iohn also baptized in Enon besides Salim, because there was much water there: and they came, and were baptized.
24 For Iohn was not yet cast into prison.
25 Then there arose a question betwene Iohns disciples & the Iewes, about q purifying.
26 And they came vnto Iohn, and said vnto him, Rabbi, r he that was with thee beyonde Iordan, to whome *thou bearest witnes, beholde, he baptizeth, and all men come to him.
27 Iohn answered, & said, A man can receiue nothing, except it be giuen him from heauen.
28 Ye your selues are my witnesses, that *I said, s I am not the Christ, but that I am sent before him.
29 He that hathe the bride, is the bridegrome: but the friend of the bridegrome which standeth and heareth him, reioyceth greatly, because of the bridegromes voice. This my ioye therefore is fulfilled.

The communication of Christ with the woman of Samaria. 34 His zeale towarde his Father & his harueft. 39 The conuersion of the Samaritans. 45 And Galileans. 47 Howe he healeth the rulers sonne.

6 And there was Iacobs well. Iesus then wearied in the iorney, sate b thus on the well: it was about the c sixt houre.
7 There came a woman of Samaria to drawe water. Iesus said vnto her, Giue me drinke.
8 For his disciples were gone away into the citie, to bye meat.
9 Then said the woman of Samaria vnto him, How is it, that thou being a Iewe, askest drinke of me, which am a woman of d Samaria? For the Iewes medle not with the Samaritans.
10 Iesus answered & said vnto her, If thou knewest the e gift of God, and who it is that saith to thee, Giue me drinke, thou woldest haue asked of him, and he wolde haue giuen thee f y water of life.
11 The woman said vnto him, Syr thou hast nothing to drawe with, & the wel is depe: from whence then hast thou that water of life?
12 Art thou greater then our father Iacob, which gaue vs the wel, & he him self dranke thereof, & his children, and his cattel?
13 Iesus answered, and said vnto her, Whosoeuer drinketh of this water, shal thirst againe:
14 But whosoeuer drinketh of the g water that I shal giue him, shal neuer be more h athirst: but the water that I shal giue him, shal be in him a well of water, springing vp into euerlasting life.
15 The woman said vnto him, Syr, giue me of that water, that I may not thirst, nether come hither to drawe.
16 Iesus said vnto her, Go, call thine housband, and come hither.
17 The woman answered, and said I haue no housband. Iesus said to her, Thou hast wel said, I haue no housband.
18 For thou hast had fiue housbands, and he whome thou now hast, is not thine housband: that saidest thou truely.
19 The woman said vnto him, Syr, I i se that thou art a Prophet.
20 Our fathers worshiped in this mountaine, and ye say, that in *Ierusalem is the place where men ought to worship.

25 The woman said vnto him, I know wel that Messias shal come, which is called Christ: when he is come, he wil tell vs all things.

26 Iesus said vnto her, I am he, that speake vnto thee.

27 ¶ And vpon that came his disciples, and marueiled that he talked with a woman: yet no man said vnto him, What askest thou? or why talkest thou with her?

28 The woman then left her waterpot, and went her way into the citie, & said to the men,

29 Come, se a man which hathe tolde me all things that euer I did: is not he the Christ?

30 Then they went out of the citie, & came vnto him.

31 ¶ In the meane while, the disciples prayed him, saying, Master, eat.

32 But he said vnto them, I haue meat to eat, that ye knowe not of.

33 Then said the disciples betwene them selues, Hathe anie man broght him meat?

l There is nothing, that I hunger for more, or wherein I take greater pleasure. 34 Iesus said vnto them, [l]My meat is that I may do the wil of him that sent me, and finish his worke.

o The Samaritans shewed thẽ selues willing to receiue his doctrine, who being but strangers and skarsely knowing Christ, are a condemnation to ỹ Iewes, & all others, which negle& Gods worde when it is offered. 39 Now manie of the Samaritans of that citie [o]beleued in him, for the saying of the woman which testified, He hathe tolde me all things that euer I did.

40 Then when the Samaritans were come vnto him, they besoght him, that he wolde tarie with them: and he abode there two dayes.

p That is, had the right and true faith. 41 And manie mo [p]beleued because of his owne worde.

42 And they said vnto the woman, Now we beleue not because of thy saying: for we haue heard him our selues, & knowe that this is in dede the Christ ỹ Sauiour of the worlde.

43 ¶ So two dayes after he departed thẽce, and went into Galile.

q Here by his owne countrey he meaneth Ierusalem, & the coũtrey about. 45 Then when he was come into Galile, the Galileans receiued him, which had sene all the things that he did at Ierusalem at the feast: for they went also vnto the feast.

Chap.2,1. 46 And Iesus came againe into *Cana a towne of Galile, where he had made of water wine. And there was a certeine [r]ruler, whose sonne was sicke at Capernaum.

r The worde signifieth royal or one of the Kigs court: & it semeth, that he was one of Herods court, who was in great estimation w Herode, whome the people called King, Mar. 6, 14.

47 When he heard that Iesus was come out of Iudea into Galile, he went vnto him, & besoght him that he wolde' go downe, & heale his sonne: for he was euen ready to dye.

48 Then said Iesus vnto him, Except ye se signes and wonders, ye wil not beleue.

*Or, come. 49 The ruler said vnto him, Sir, go downe before my sonne dye.

50 Iesus said vnto him, Go thy way, thy sonne liueth: and the man beleued ỹ worde that Iesus had spoken vnto him, & went his way.

51 And as he was now [n]going downe, his seruants met him, saying, Thy sonne liueth.

n Or, returnig. 52 Then enquired he of them the houre when he began to amende. And they said vnto him, Yesterday the seuenth houre the feuer left him.

53 Then the father knewe, that it was the same houre in the which Iesus had said vnto him, Thy sonne liueth. And he beleued, and all his howshold.

54 This seconde miracle did Iesus againe, after he was come out of Iudea into Galile.

CHAP. V.

He healeth the man that was sicke eight and thirtie yeres. 10 The Iewes accuse him. 19 Christ answereth for him self, and reproueth them, 32 Shewing by the testimonie of his Father. 33 Of Iohn. 36 Of his workes, 39 And of the Scriptures who he is.

Leui.23,2. deut.16,1. 1 After *that, there was a feast of the Iewes, & Iesus went vp to Ierusalem.

n Or, the shepe market. 2 And there is at Ierusalem by [n] ỹ place of the shepe, a [a] poole called in Ebrewe [b] Bethesda, hauing fiue porches:

a Where the shepe were washed, ỹ shulde be sacrificed. b Which signifieth the house of powring out, because ỹ water ranne out by conduits. 3 In the which lay a great multitude of sicke sicke folke, of blinde, halte, & withered, waiting for the mouing of the water.

4 For an Angel went downe at a certeine season into the poole, and troubled the water: whosoeuer then first, after ý stirring of the water, stepped in, was made whole of whatsoeuer disease he had.

5 And a certeine man was there, ẅ had bene diseased eight and thirtie yeres.

6 When Iesus sawe him lie, and knewe that he now long time had bene diseased, he said vnto him, Wilt thou be made whole?

7 The sicke man answered him, Sir I haue no man, when the water is troubled, to put me into the poole: but while I am comming, another steppeth downe before me.

e This was, to the end that the miracle might be so euident, ý no man colde speake against it.

8 Iesus said vnto him, Rise: [e] take vp thy bed, and walke.

9 And immediatly the man was made whole, and toke vp his bed, and walked & the same day was the Sabbath.

10 The Iewes therefore said to him that was made whole, It is the Sabbath day: * it is not lawful for thee to carie thy bed.

Iere. 17, 22.

11 He answered them, He that made me whole, he said vnto me, Take vp thy bed, and walke.

12 Then asked they him, What man is that which said vnto thee, Take vp thy bed, & walke?

13 And he that was healed, knewe not who it was: for Iesus had conueyed him self away from the multitude that was in that place.

d The afflictiõs that we endure, are chastisemẽts for our sinnes.

14 And after that, Iesus founde him in the Temple, and said vnto him, Beholde, thou art made whole: [d] sinne no more, lest a worse thing come vnto thee.

15 ¶ The man departed, and tolde the Iewes that it was Iesus, which had made him whole.

e That is, propre & peculiar to him alone.

16 And therefore the Iewes did persecute Iesus, & soght to slay him, because he had done these things on the Sabbath day.

f It was lawful for all Israel to call God their father, Exod. 4, 22, but because Christ did attribute to him self, ý he had power ouer all things, and wroght as his Father did, they gathered that Christ did not onely make him self ý Sõne of God, but also equal with him.

17 But Iesus answered them, My Father worketh hitherto, and I worke.

18 Therefore the Iewes soght the more to kil him: not onely because he had broken the Sabbath: but said also that God was [e] his [f] Father, and made him self equal with God.

g That is, he doeth communicate ẅ him, hauing ý same power and the same wil.

19 Then answered Iesus & said vnto them, Verely, verely I say vnto you, The Sonne can do nothing of him self, saue that he seeth ý Father do: for whatsoeuer things he doeth, the same things doeth the Sonne also.

20 For the Father loueth the Sonne, & [g] sheweth him all things, whatsoeuer he him self doeth, and he wil shewe him greater workes then these, that ye shulde marueile.

21 For likewise as the Father raiseth vp the dead, & quickeneth them, so the Sonne quickeneth whome he wil.

h In giuing him power & rule ouer all.

22 For the Father iudgeth no man, but hathe committed all [h] iudgement vnto the Sonne,

23 Because that all men shulde honour ý Sonne, as they honour the Father: he that honoreth not the Sonne, the same honoreth not the Father, which hathe sent him.

24 Verely, verely, I say vnto you, he ý heareth my worde, & beleueth in him that sent me, hathe euerlasting life, & shal not come into condemnacion, but hathe passed from death vnto life.

They that receiue it by faith.

25 Verely, verely, I say vnto you, the houre shal come, and now is, when the dead shal heare the voyce of the Sonne of God: and they that [i] heare it, shal liue.

k To communicate it ẅ vs.

26 For as the Father hathe life in [k] him self, so likewise hathe he giuen to ý Sonne to haue life in him self,

That is, to gouerne and rule all things.

27 And hathe giuen him power also to execute [l] iudgement, in that he is the Sonne of man.

28 Marueile not at this: for the houre shal come in the which all that are in the graues, shal heare his voyce.

29 And they shal come forthe, *that haue done good, vnto the resurrection of life: but they that haue done euil, vnto the resurrection of condemnacion.

Mat. 25, 41.

30 I can do nothing of mine owne self: as I heare, I iudge: and my iudgement is iust, because I seke not mine owne wil, but the wil of the Father who hathe sent me.

31 If I * shulde beare witnes of my self, my witnes were not [m] true.

Chap. 8, 14. mat. 3, 17.

m Christ had respect to their weakenes, that heard him, and therefore said his owne witnes shulde not be sufficient. Chap. 1, 27.

32 There is another that beareth witnes of me, and I knowe that the witnes, ẅ he beareth of me, is true.

33 *Ye sent vnto Iohn, and he bare witnes vnto the trueth.

Or, lampe.

34 But I receiue not the recorde of man: neuertheles these things I say, that ye might be saued.

n But ye left him quickely & did not persuere.

35 He was a burning, and a shining [n] candle: and ye wolde for a [n] seasen haue reioyced in his light.

36 But I haue greater witnes then the witnes of Iohn: for the workes which ý Father hathe giuen me to finish, ý same workes that I do, beare witnes of me, that the Father sent me.

37 And the * Father him self, which hathe sent me, [o] beareth witnes of me. Ye haue not heard his voyce at anie time, *nether haue ye sene his shape.

ye thinke to haue eternal life, & they are they which testifie of me.

40 But ye wil not come to me, that ye might haue life.

41 I receiue not praise of men.

42 But I knowe you, that ye haue not the loue of God in you.

43 I am come in my Fathers Name, and ye receyue me not: if [p] another shal come in his owne name, him wil ye receiue.

44 How can ye beleue, which [q] receiue * honour one of another, and seke not the honour that cometh of God alone?

45 Do not thinke that I wil accuse you to my Father: there is one that [r] accuseth you, euen Moses, in whome ye trust.

46 For had ye beleued Moses, ye wolde haue beleued me: * for he wrote of me.

47 But if ye beleue not his writings, how shal ye beleue my wordes?

p The people are more readie to receiue false prophetes, then Iesus Christ.

q Vaine glorie is a great let for a man to come to God. Chap. 12, 43. Gen. 3, 15. & 22, 18. & 49, 10. deut. 18, 15.

r As Moses shal accuse them ỹ trust in him: so they shal haue no greater enemies at the daye of iudgement, then the virgine Marie & the Saintes, vpon whome now they cal: but whosoeuer doeth accuse, Christ & their owne conscience shal condemne ỹ reprobat.

CHAP. VI.

10 Iesus feedeth fiue thousand men with fiue loaues & two fishes, 15 He departeth awaye, that they shulde not make him King. 26 He reproueth the fleshlie hearers of his worde. 41 The carnal are offended at him. 63 The flesh profiteth not.

Quadragesimalis

AFter these things, Iesus went his way ouer the [a] sea of Galile, or of [b] Tiberias.

a Called ỹ lake of Gennesareth.

b Tiberias, Bethsaida, and Capernaũ were on this side the lake, in respect of Galile: but it is here said ỹ he went ouer, because there were diuers crikes & turnings ouer the which men seried. Leui. 23, 2. deut. 29, 1. Mat. 14, 16. mar. 6, 38. luk. 9, 13.

2 And a great multitude followed him, because they sawe his miracles, which he did on them that were diseased.

3 Then Iesus went vp into a mountaine, and there he sate with his disciples.

4 Now the Passeouer, a * feast of the Iewes, was nere.

5 * Then IESVS lift vp his eyes, and seing that a great multitude came vnto him, he said vnto Philippe, Whence shal we bye bread, that these might eat?

6 (And this he said to proue him: for he him self knewe what he wolde do)

7 Philippe answered him, [c] two hũdreth penyworthe of bread is not sufficient for them, that euerie one of them may take a litle.

c This summe amounteth to about fiue pounde sterling.

8 Then said vnto him one of his disciples, Andrewe, Simon Peters brother,

9 There is a litle boye here, which hathe fiue barlie loaues, and two fishes: but what are they among so manie?

10 And Iesus said, Make the people sit downe. (Now there was muche grasse in that place) then the men sate downe in nomber, about fiue thousand.

11 And Iesus toke the bread, and [d] gaue thankes, and gaue to the disciples, and the disciples to them that were set downe & likewise of the fishes as muche as they wolde.

d praier and thankesgiuing do sanctifie our meates where with we are nourished.

12 And when they were satisfied, he said vnto his disciples, Gather vp the broken meat which remaineth, that [e] nothing be lost.

e The abundãce of Gods gifts ought not to make vs prodigal to waste them.

13 Then they gathered it together, and filled twelue baskets with the broken meat of the fiue barlie loaues which remained vnto them that had eaten.

14 Then the men when they had sene ỹ miracle that Iesus did, said, This is of a trueth the Prophet that shulde come into the worlde.

15 When Iesus therefore perceiued that they wolde come, and take him to make him a [f] King, he departed againe into a mountaine him self alone.

f They imagined an earthlie kigdome without the testimonie of Gods worde, so ỹ by this meanes his spiritual kingdome shulde haue bene abolished. Mat. 14, 25. mar. 6, 47.

16 ¶ When euen was now come, his disciples went downe vnto the sea,

17 * And entred into a ship, and went [g] ouer the sea towardes Capernaum: and now it was darke, & Iesus was not come to them.

g Ouer a corner of ỹ lake.

18 And the sea arose with a great winde that blewe.

19 And when they had rowed about fiue & twentie, or thirtie [h] furlongs, they sawe Iesus walking on the sea, and drawing nere vnto the ship: so they were afrayed.

h Whereof eight make a mile.

20 But he said vnto them, It is I: be not afrayed.

21 Then willingly they receiued him into the ship, and the ship was by and by at the land, whether they went.

22 ¶ The day following, the people ỹ stode on the other side of the sea, sawe that there was none other ship there, saue that one, where into his disciples were entred, and that Iesus went not with his disciples in the ship, but that is disciples were gone [i] alone,

i Wherefore it must nedes followe ỹ Christ passed miraculously.

23 And that there came other shippes from Tiberias nere vnto the place where they ate the bread, after the Lord had giuen thankes.

24 Now when the people sawe that Iesus was not there, nether his disciples, they also toke shipping, & came to Capernaum, seking for Iesus.

25 And when they had founde him on the [k] other side of the sea, they said vnto him, Rabbi, when cameste thou hither?

k This was not straight ouer ỹ lake from side to side, but ouer a crike, or arme of the lake, ỹ caused muche labour to them ỹ shulde haue gone about by Iid.

l Which nourisheth & augmẽteth our faith. Chap. 1, 32. mat. 3 17. & 17, 5. 1. Iohn. 3, 23.

26 Iesus answered them, and said, Verely, verely I say vnto you, ye seke me not, because ye sawe the miracles, but because ye ate of the loaues, and were filled.

27 Laboure not for the meat which perisheth, but for the meat that [l] endureth vnto euerlasting life, which the Sonne of man shal giue vnto you: for him hathe * God the Father [m] sealed.

m For when he appointed him to be ỹ Mediator, he set his marke & seale in him to be ỹ onelie one to reconcile God & mã together.

28 Then said they vnto him, What shal we do, that we might worke the [n] workes of God?

n Suche as be acceptable vnto God.

29 Iesus

29 Iesus answered, & said vnto thē, * This is the worke of God, that ye beleue in him, whome he hathe sent.

30 They said therefore vnto him, What signe shewest thou then, that we maye se it, and beleue thee? what doest thou worke?

32 Then Iesus said vnto them, Verely, verely I say vnto you, °Moses gaue you not bread from heauen, but my Father giueth you the true bread from heauen.

33 For the bread of God is he which cometh downe from heauen, and giueth life vnto the worlde.

34 Then they said vnto him, Lord, euermore giue vs this bread.

35 And Iesus said vnto them, I am ý bread of life: he that cometh to me, shal not hunger, and * he that beleueth in me, shal Pneuer thurst.

Eccl. 24, 29.

p He shal neuer want spiritual nourishment.

36 But I said vnto you, that ye also haue sene me, and beleue not.

q God doeth regenerate his elect, & causeth them to obey ý Gospel.

37 All q that the Father giueth me, shal come to me: and him that cometh to me, I cast not away.

38 For I came downe from heauen, not to do mine owne wil, but his wil which hathe sent me.

39 And this is the Fathers wil which hathe sent me, that of all which he hathe giuē me, I shulde lose nothing, but shulde raise it vp againe at the last day.

40 And this is the wil of him that sent me, that euerie man which seeth ý Sonne, & beleueth in him, shulde haue euerlasting life: and I wil raise him vp at the last day.

41 The Iewes then murmured at him, because he said, I am the bread, which is come downe from heauen.

Mat. 13, 55.

42 And they said, * is not this Iesus the sonne of Ioseph, whose father & mother we knowe? how then saith he, I came downe from heauen?

43 Iesus then answered, & said vnto thē, Murmure not among your selues.

r That is, or beleue in me.

44 No man can r come to me, except the Father, which hathe sent me, s drawe him: and I wil raise him vp at the last day.

Mat. 11, 27.

46 Not that anie man * hathe sene the Father, saue he which is of God, he hathe sene the Father.

47 Verely, verely I say vnto you, He that beleueth in me, hathe euerlasting life.

48 I am the bread of life.

Exod. 16, 15.

49 * Your fathers did eat Manna in the wildernes, t and are dead.

t Then there is no fode that can nourish our soules, but Iesus Christ.

50 This is the bread, which cometh downe from heauen, that he which eateth of it, shulde not dye.

v Which giue life to the worlde.

51 I am the v liuing bread, which came downe from heauen: if anie man eat of this bread, he shal liue for euer: and the bread that I wil giue, is my flesh, which I wil giue for the life of the worlde.

52 Then the Iewes stroue among them selues, saying, How can this man giue vs his flesh to eat?

53 Then Iesus said vnto them, Verely, verely I say vnto you, Except ye eat the flesh of the Sonne of man, and drinke his blood, ye haue x no life in you.

x Where Christ is not, there death reigneth. 1. Cor. 11, 27.

54 Whosoeuer eateth my flesh, and drinketh my blood, hathe eternal life, and I wil raise him vp at the last day.

55 For my flesh is meat in dede, & my blood is drinke in dede.

56 He y that eateth my flesh, and drinketh my blood, z dwelleth in me, and I in him.

y As our bodies are sustened w meat & drinke: so are our soules nourished w the bodie, and blood of Iesus Christ.

z To eath the flesh of Christ and drinke his blood, is to dwell in Christ and to haue Christ dwelling in vs.

57 As the liuing Father hathe sent me, so liue I by the Father, and he that eateth me, euen he shal liue by me.

58 This is the bread which came downe from heauen: not as your fathers haue eaten Manna, and are dead. He that eateth of this bread, shal liue for euer.

59 These things spake he in the Synagogue as he taught in Capernaum.

60 Manie therefore of his disciples (when they heard this) said, This is an hard saying: who can a heare it?

a That is, vnderstand it.

61 But Iesus knowing in him self, that his disciples murmured at this, said vnto them: Doeth this offende you?

62 What then if ye shulde se he Sonne of man b ascende vp * where he was before?

Chap. 3, 13.

b He meaneth nor ý his humanitie descedeth from heauē: but he speaketh touching the vnion of bothe natures, attributing to ý one that w apperteineth to the other.

63 It is the Spirit that quickeneth: the flesh c profiteth nothing: the wordes that I speake vnto you, are spirit and life.

c To wit, if it be separate frō the Spirit, whereof it hathe ý the force: for it cometh of the power of the Spirit ý the flesh of Christ giueth vs life.

64 But there are some of you that beleue not: for Iesus knewe from the beginning, which they were that beleued not, & who shulde betraye him.

65 And he said, Therefore said I vnto you, that no man can come vnto me, except it be giuē vnto him of my Father.

66 From that time, manie of his disciples went backe, and walked no more with him.

67 Then said Iesus to the twelue, Wil we also go away?

68 Then Simon Peter answered him, Master to whome shal we go? Thou hast the wordes of d eternal life:

d Thē without Christ there is but death: for his worde onely leadeth vs to life.

69 And we beleue and knowe that thou art the Christ the Sonne of the liuing God.

Mat. 16, 16.

70 Iesus answered them, Haue not I * chosen you twelue and e one of you is a deuil?

e Although your nōber be smale, yet shal ye be diminished.

71 Now he spake it of Iudas Iscariot the sonne of Simon: for he it was that shulde betraye him, thogh he was one of the twelue.

a At this feast they dwelled seuen dayes in the tentes, w put them in remembrance, ỹ they had no citie here permanent, but ỹ they must seke one to come.

1 AFter these things, Iesus walked in Galile, and wolde not walke in Iudea: for the Iewes soght to kil him.
2 Now the Iewes * [a] feast of the Tabernacles was at hand.
3 His brethren therefore said vnto him, Departe hence, and go into Iudea, that thy disciples may se thy workes ỹ thou doest.
4 For there is no man that doeth anie thing secretly & he him self seketh to be [*] famous. If thou doest these things, shewe thy self to the worlde.
5 For as yet his brethren beleued not in him.
6 Then Iesus said vnto them, My time is not yet come: but your time, is alway readie.
7 The worlde can not hate you: but me it hateth, [b] because I testifie of it, that the workes thereof are euil.
8 Go ye vp vnto this feast: I wil [c] not go vp yet vnto this feast: for my time is not yet fulfilled.
9 ¶ These things he said vnto them, and abode stil in Galile.
10 But assone as his brethren were gone vp, then went he also vp vnto the feast, not openly, but as it were priuely.
11 Then the Iewes soght him at the feast, & said, Where is he?
12 And muche murmuring was there of him among the people. Some said, He is a good man: other said, Naye: but he deceiueth the people.
13 Howbeit no man spake openly of him for feare of the [d] Iewes.
14 Now when half the feast was done, Iesus went vp into the Temple and taught.
15 And the Iewes marueiled, saying, How knoweth this man the [*] Scriptures, seing that he neuer learned.
16 Iesus answered them, & said, My doctrine is not [e] mine, but his that sent me.
17 If anie man wil do his wil, he shal knowe of the doctrine, whether it be of God, or whether I speake of my self.
18 He [f] that speaketh of him self, seketh his owne glorie: but he that seketh his glorie that sent him, the same is true, and no [g] vnrighteousnes is in him.
19 * Did not Moses giue you a Law, and yet none of you kepeth the Law? * Why go ye about to kil me?
20 The [h] people answered, and said, Thou hast a deuil: who goeth about to kil thee?
21 Iesus answered, and said to them, I haue done one worke, and ye all [i] marueile.
22 * Moses therefore gaue vnto you circumcision, (not because it is of Moses, but of the * fathers) and ye on the Sabbath day circumcise a man.
23 If a man on the Sabbath receiue circumcision, that the Law of Moses shulde not be broken, be ye angrie with me, because I haue made a man euerie whit whole on the Sabbath day?
24 * Iudge not according to the appearance, but iudge righteous iudgement.
25 ¶ Then said some of them of Ierusalem, Is not this he, whome they go about to kil?
26 And beholde, he speaketh [*] openly, and they say nothing to him: do the rulers know in dede that this is the verie Christ?
27 Howbeit we know this man whence he is: but when the Christ cometh, no man shal knowe whence he is.
28 ¶ Then cried Iesus in the Temple as he taught, saying, Ye [k] bothe knowe me, and knowe whence I am: yet am I not come of my self, but he that sent me, is true, whome ye knowe not.
29 But I knowe him: for I am of him, and he hathe sent me.
30 Then they soght to take him, but no mā laid hands on him, because his houre was not yet come.
31 Now manie of the people [l] beleued in him, and said, When the Christ cometh, wil he do mo miracles then this man hathe done?
32 The Pharises heard that the people murmured these things of him, and the Pharises, and high Priests sent officers to take him.
33 Then said Iesus vnto them, Yet am I [m] a litle while with you, and then go I vnto him that sent me.
34 * Ye shal seke me, & shal not finde me, & where I [*] am, can ye not come.
35 Then said the Iewes among them selues, Whither wil he go, that we shal not finde him? Wil he go vnto them ỹ are [*] dispersed among the [n] Grecians, and teache the Grecians?
36 What saying is this that he said, Ye shal seke me, and shal not finde me? and where I am, can ye not come?
37 Now in the last [o] * great day of the feast, Iesus stode and cryed, saying, If anie man thirst, let him come vnto me, and drinke.

1 AND Iesus went vnto the mount of Oliues,

2 And early in the morning came againe into the Temple, and all the people came vnto him, and he sate downe, and taught them.

3 Then the Scribes, & the Pharises broght vnto him a woman taken in adulterie, & set her in the middes,

4 And said vnto him, Master, this woman was taken in adulterie, in the verie act.

5 *Now Moses in the Lawe cōmanded vs, that suche shulde be stoned: what saist thou therefore?

Lev. 20, 10.

6 And this they said to tempt him, that thei might haue, whereof to a accuse him. But Iesus stouped downe, and with his finger wrote on the grounde.

7 And while they cōtinued asking him, he list him self vp, & said vnto them, * Let him that is among you without sinne, cast the first stone at her.

8 And againe he stouped downe, and wrote on the grounde.

9 And when they heard it, being accused by their owne conscience, they went out one by one, beginning at the eldest euen to the last: so Iesus was left alone, and the woman standing in the middes.

10 When Iesus had lift vp him self againe, and sawe no man, but the woman, he said vnto her, Woman, where are those thine accusers? hathe no man condemned thee?

11 She said, No man, Lord. And Iesus said, b Nether do I condemne thee: go and sinne no more.

12 Then spake Iesus againe vnto them, saying, I * am the light of ỹ worlde: he ỹ followeth me, shal not walke in darkenes, but shal haue the ‖ light of life.

13 The Pharises therefore said vnto him, Thou beares recorde of thy self: thy recorde is not ‖ true.

20 These wordes spake Iesus in ỹ g treasurie, as he taught in the Temple, and no man laid hands on him: for his houre was not yet come.

36 If the Sonne therefore shal make you fre, ye shalbe fre in dede.

37 [q] I knowe that ye are Abrahams sede, but ye seke to kill me, because my worde hathe no place in you.

38 I speake that which I haue sene with my Father: and ye do that which ye haue sene with your father.

39 They answered, and said vnto him, Abraham is our father. Iesus said vnto them, If ye were Abrahams children, ye wolde do the [r] workes of Abraham.

40 But now ye go about to kill me, a mā that haue tolde you the trueth, which I haue heard of God: this did not Abraham.

41 Ye do the workes of your father. Thē said they to him, We are not borne of fornication: we haue one Father, which is God.

42 Therefore Iesus said vnto them, If God were your Father, then wolde ye loue me: for I proceded forthe, & came from God, nether came I of my self, but he sent me.

43 Why do ye not vnderstand my talke? because ye can not [s] heare my worde.

44 *Ye are of your father [y] deuil, and [y] lustes of your father ye wil do: he hathe bene a murtherer [t] from [y] beginning, & [v] abode not in [y] trueth, because there is no trueth in him. When he speaketh a lie, then speaketh he of his [w] owne: for he is a liar, and the father thereof.

45 And because I tell you the trueth, ye beleue me not.

46 Which of you can rebuke me of sinne? and if I say the trueth, why do ye not beleue me?

47 *He [y] is of God, heareth Gods wordes: ye therefore heare them not, because ye are not of God.

48 Then answered [y] Iewes, and said vnto him, Say we not wel that thou art a Samaritan, and hast a deuil?

49 Iesus answered, I haue not a deuil, but I honour my Father, and ye haue dishonored me.

50 And I seke not mine owne praise: but there is one [y] seketh it, and [x] iudgeth.

51 Verely, verely I say vnto you, If a mā kepe my worde, he shal neuer [z] se death.

52 Then said the Iewes to him, Now knowe we that thou hast a deuil. Abraham is dead, and the Prophetes, and thou saist, If a man kepe my worde, he shal neuer tast of death.

53 Art thou greater then our father Abraham, which is dead? and the Prophetes are dead: whome makest thou thy self?

54 Iesus answered, If I honour my self, mine honour is nothing worthe: it is my Father that honoureth me, whome ye say, that he is your God.

55 Yet ye haue not knowen him: but I knowe him, and if I shulde say I knowe him not, I shulde be a liar like vnto you: but I knowe him, and kepe his worde.

56 Your father Abraham reioyced to se my [a] day, and he sawe it, and was glad.

57 Then said the Iewes vnto him, Thou art not yet fiftie yere olde, and hast [y] sene Abraham?

58 Iesus said vnto them, Verely, verely I say vnto you, before Abraham was, [b] I am.

59 *Then toke they vp stones, to cast at him, but Iesus hid him self, and wēt out of the Temple‖.

2 And his disciples asked him, saying, Master, who did sinne, this man, or his parents, that he was borne blinde?

3 Iesus answered, [a] Nether hathe this mā sinned, nor his parents, but that ý workes of God shulde be shewed on him.

4 I must worke the workes of him that sent me, while it is [b] day: the night cometh when no man can worke.

5 As long as I am in the worlde, *I am ý light of the worlde.

6 Assone as he had thus spoken, [c] he spate on the grounde, & made claye of the spettle, and annointed the eyes of the blinde with the clay,

7 And said vnto him, Go wash in ý poole of Siloam (which is by interpretatiō, [d] Sent) He went his way therefore, and washed, & came againe seing.

8 Now the neighbours and they that had sene him before, when he was blinde, said, Is not this he that sate and begged?

9 Some said, This is he: & others said, He is like him: but he him self said, I am he.

10 Therefore they said vnto him, How were thine eyes opened?

11 He answered, and said, The man that is called Iesus, made claye, and annointed mine eyes, and said vnto me, Go to the poole of Siloam and wash. So I went and washed and receiued sight.

12 Then they said vnto him, Where is he? He said, I can not tell.

13 ¶ They broght to the Pharises him ý was once blinde.

14 And it was ý Sabbath day, when Iesus made the claye, and opened his eyes.

15 Then againe the Pharises also asked him, how he had receiued sight. And he said vnto them, He laid claye vpō mine eyes, & I washed, and do se.

16 Then said some of the Pharises, This man is not of God, because he keepeth not the Sabbath day. Others said, How can a man that is a sinner, do suche miracles? and there was a dissension amōg them.

17 Then spake they vnto ý blinde againe, What saist thou of him, because he hathe opened thine eyes? And he said, He is a Prophet.

18 Then the Iewes did not beleue him (that he had bene blinde, and receiued his sight) vntil they had called the parents of him that had receiued sight.

19 And they asked them, saying, Is this your sonne, whome ye say was borne blinde? How doeth he now se then?

20 His parents answered them, & said, We knowe that this is our sonne, and ý he was borne blinde:

21 But by what meanes he now seeth, we knowe not: or who hathe opened his eyes, [e] can we not tell: he is olde ynough: aske him: he shal answer for him self.

22 These wordes spake his parents, because they feared the Iewes: for ý Iewes had ordeined alreadie, that if any man did confesse that he was the Christ, he shulde be excommunicate out of the Synagogue.

23 Therefore said his parents, He is olde ynough: aske him.

24 Then againe called they ý man that had bene blinde, and said vnto him, [f] Giue glorie vnto God: we knowe that this man is a sinner.

25 Then he answered, and said, Whither he be a sinner or no, [g] I can not tell: one thing I knowe, that I was blinde, and now I se.

26 [h] Then said they to him againe, What did he to thee? how opened he thine eyes?

27 He answered them, I haue tolde you alreadie, and ye haue not heard it: wherefore wolde ye heare it againe? [i] wil ye also be his disciples?

28 Then checked they him, & said, Be thou his disciple: we be Moses disciples.

29 We knowe that God spake with Moses: but this man we knowe not from whence he is.

30 The man answered, and said vnto thē, Doutles, this is a marueilous thing, that ye [k] knowe not whence he is, and yet he hathe opened mine eyes.

31 Now we knowe that God heareth not [l] sinners: but if any man be a worshipper of God, and doeth his wil, him heareth he.

32 Since the worlde begā was it not heard that any mā opened the eyes of one that was borne blinde.

33 If this man were not of God, he colde haue done nothing.

34 They answered, & said vnto him, Thou art altogether borne in sinnes, and doest thou teache vs? so they cast him out.

35 Iesus heard ý they had [n] cast him out: and when he had founde him, he said vnto him, Doest thou beleue in ý, Sonne of God?

36 He answered, and said, Who is he, Lord, that I might beleue in him?

37 And Iesus said vnto him, Bothe thou hast sene him, & he it is that talketh with thee.

38 Then he said, Lord, I beleue, and [m] worshipped him.

39 And Iesus said I am come vnto [n] iudgemēt into this worlde that they which se not might se: & that they * which se might be made blinde.

40 And some of ý Pharises which were with him, heard these things, and said vnto him, Are we blinde also?

CHAP. X.

1 Christ is the true shepherd, and the dore. 19 Diuers opinions of Christ. 24 He is asked if he be Christ. 32 His workes declare that he is God. 34 The princes called gods.

VErely, verely, I say vnto you, He ỹ entreth not in by the dore into the shepefolde, but climeth vp another way, he is a thefe and a robber.

2 But he that goeth in by ỹ dore, is the shepherd of the shepe.

3 To him the porter openeth, and the shepe heare his voyce, and he [a] calleth his owne shepe by name, and leadeth them out.

4 And when he hathe sent forthe his owne shepe, he goeth before them, and the shepe followe him: for they knowe his voyce.

5 And they wil not followe a strãger, but they flee from him: for they knowe not the voyce of strangers.

6 This parable spake Iesus vnto them: but they vnderstode not what things they were which he spake vnto them.

7 Then said Iesus vnto them againe, Verely, verely I say vnto you, I am the dore of the shepe.

8 All, [b] that euer came before me, are thues & robbers: but the shepe did not heare them.

9 I am the dore: by me if any man enter in, he shalbe saued, and shal [c] go in and go out, and finde pasture.

10 The thefe commeth not, but for to steale, and to kil, and to destroye: I am come that they might haue life, and haue it in abundance.

11 *I am the good shepherd: ỹ good shepherd giueth his life for his shepe.

12 But an hireling, and he which is not the shepherd, nether the shepe are his owne, seeth the wolfe comming, & he leaueth the shepe, and fleeth, and the wolfe catcheth them, and scattereth the shepe.

13 So the hireling fleeth, because he is an hireling, and careth not for the shepe.

14 I am the good shepherd, and [d] knowe mine, and am knowen of mine.

15 [e] As the Father [f] knoweth me, so knowe I the Father: and I lay downe my life for my shepe.

16 [g] Other shepe I haue also, which are not of this folde: them also must I bring, and they shal heare my voyce: and *there shal be one shepefolde, & one shepherd.

17 [h] Therefore doeth my Father loue me, because *I lay downe my life, that I might take it againe.

18 No man taketh it from me, but I lay it downe of my self: I haue power to lay it downe, and haue power to take it againe: this *commandement haue I receiued of my Father.

19 ¶ Then there was a dissention againe among the Iewes for these sayings.

20 And many of them said, He hathe a deuil, and is madde: why heare ye him?

21 Others said, These are not the wordes of him that hathe a deuil: can the deuil open the eyes of the blinde?

22 And it was at Ierusalem the [i] feast of the *Dedication, and it was winter.

23 And Iesus walked in the Temple, in [k] Solomons porche.

24 Then came the Iewes rounde about him, and said vnto him, How long doest thou [l] make vs doute? If thou be the Christ, tell vs plainely.

25 Iesus answered them, I tolde you, and ye beleue not: the workes that I do in my Fathers Name, they beare witnes of me.

26 But ye beleue not: [l] for ye are not of my shepe, as I said vnto you.

27 My shepe heare my voyce, and I knowe them, and they followe me,

28 And I giue vnto thẽ eternal life, and they shal neuer perish, nether shal any plucke them out of mine hand.

29 My Father which gaue them me, is [m] greater then all, and none is able to take them out of my Fathers hand.

30 I and my Father are one.

31 *Then the Iewes againe toke vp stones, to stone him.

32 Iesus answered them, Many good workes haue I shewed you from my Father: for which of these workes do ye stone me?

33 The Iewes answered him, saying, For the good worke we stone thee not, but for blasphemie, and that thou being a man, makest thy self God.

34 Iesus answered them, Is it not written in your Lawe, *I said, ye are [n] gods?

35 If he called them gods, vnto whome the worde of God was giuen, and the Scripture can not be broken, 36 Say ye of him, whome the Father hathe sanctified, and sent into the worlde, Thou blasphemest, because I said, I am the Sonne of God?

37 If I do not the workes of my Father, beleue me not.

38 But if I do, then thogh ye beleue not me, yet beleue the workes, that ye may knowe & beleue that the Father is in me, and I in him.

39 Againe they went about to take him: but he escaped out of their hands,

Chap. 12 3. m. 26, 7.

2 (And it was that* Marie which anointed the Lord with ointment, and wiped his fete with her heere, whose brother Lazarus was sicke.)

3 Therefore his sisters sent vnto him, saying, Lord, beholde, he whome thou louest, is sicke.

4 Whē Iesus heard it, he said, This sickenes is not a vnto death, but for the glorie of God, that the Sōne of God might be glorified thereby.

a For although he dyed, yet being restored so soone to life, it was almost no death in cōparison.

5 ¶Now Iesus loued Martha and her sister and Lazarus.

6 And after he had heard that he was sicke, yet abode he two dayes stil in the same place where he was.

7 Then after that, said he to his disciples, Let vs go into Iudea againe.

Chap. 7. 30. & 8. 59. & 10. 33.

8 The disciples said vnto him, Master, ỹ Iewes lately soght to * stone thee, & doest thou go thither againe?

b He that walketh in his vocation, & hathe ỹ light of God for his guyde, needeth to feare no dangers. The day also, bothe sommer & winter was with ỹ Iewes divided into 12 houres.

9 Iesus answered, Are there not b twelue houres in the day? If a man walke in the day, he stombleth not, because he seeth the light of this worlde.

10 But if a man walke in the night, he stombleth, because there is no light in him.

11 These things spake he, and after he said vnto them, Our friend Lazarus slepeth: but I go to wake him vp.

c They labored to stay Christ from going into Iudea, as though there had bene no nede.

12 Then said his disciples, Lord, if he slepe, he c shalbe safe.

13 Howbeit, Iesus spake of his death: but they thoght that he had spoken of the natural slepe.

14 Then said Iesus vnto them plainely, Lazarus is dead.

15 And I am glad for your sakes, that I was not there, that ye may beleue: but let vs go vnto him.

d Which signifieth in our tōgue, a twynne in birth.

16 Then said Thomas (which is called d Didymus) vnto his fellowe disciples, Let vs also go, that we may dye with him.

17 ¶Then came Iesus, & founde that he had line in the graue foure dayes already.

e Which were almost two mile.

18 (Now Bethania was nere vnto Ierusalem, about e fiftene furlongs of.)

19 And many of the Iewes were come to Martha and Marie to comfort them for their brother.

20 Then Martha, when she heard that Iesus was coming, went to mete him: but Marie sate stil in the house.

21 Then said Martha vnto Iesus, Lord, if thou haddest bene here, my brother had not bene dead.

f She sheweth some faith, ỹ not withstanding was almost ouercome by her affections.

22 But now f I knowe also, that whatsoeuer thou askest of God, God wil giue it thee.

23 Iesus said vnto her, Thy brother shal rise againe.

24 Martha said vnto him, I knowe ỹ he shal rise againe in the resurrection at the last day.

g Christ restoreth vs from death to giue vs euerlasting life.

25 Iesus said vnto her, g I am the resurrection and the life: he that beleueth in me, thogh he were dead, yet shal he liue.

26 And whosoeuer liueth, and beleueth in me, shal neuer dye. Beleuest thou this?

27 She said vnto him, Yea, Lord, I beleue that thou art the Christ the Sonne of God, which shulde come into the worlde.

28 ¶And when she had so said, she went her way, and called Marie her sister secretly, saying, The Master is come, and calleth for thee.

29 And when she heard it, she arose quickely, and came vnto him.

30 For Iesus was not yet come into the towne, but was in the place where Martha met him.

31 The Iewes then which were with her in the house, and comforted her, when they sawe Marie, that she rose vp h hastely, and went out, followed her, saying, She goeth vnto the graue, to wepe there.

h Wherein she declared her affection and reuerence ỹ she bare to Christ.

32 Then when Marie was come where Iesus was, and sawe him, she fel downe at his fete, saying vnto him, Lord, if thou haddest bene here, my brother had not bene dead.

33 When Iesus therefore sawe her wepe, & the Iewes also wepe which came with her, he groned in the spirit, & was troubled in him self, i For compassion: for he felt our miseries, as though he suffred the like.

34 And said, Where haue ye laid him? Thei said vnto him, Lord, come, and se.

35 And Iesus k wept.

k We read not that his affections were so excessiue that he kept no measure, as we do in our sorowes, ioyes & other affections.

36 Then said the Iewes, Beholde, how he loued him.

37 And some of them said, Colde not he, which opened the eyes of the blinde, haue made also, that this man shulde not haue dyed?

38 Iesus therefore againe groned in him self, and came to the graue. And it was a caue, and a stone was laid vpon it.

39 Iesus said, Take ye away ỹ stone. Martha the sister of him that was dead, said vnto him, Lord, he stinketh alreadie: for he hathe bene dead foure daies.

40 Iesus said vnto her, Said I not vnto thee, that if thou diddest beleue, thou shuldest se the [l] glorie of God?

41 Then they toke away the stone from the place where the dead was laid. And Iesus lift vp his eyes, and said, Father, I thanke thee, because thou hast heard me.

42 I knowe that thou hearest me alwayes, but because of the people that stād by, I said it, that they maye beleue, that thou hast sent me.

43 As he had spoken these things, he cryed with a loude voyce, Lazarus, come forthe.

44 Then he that was dead, came forthe, bounde hand and fote with bandes, & his face was bounde with a napkin. Iesus said vnto them, Lose him, and let him go.

45 ¶ Then manie of the Iewes, which came to Marie, and had sene the things, which Iesus did, beleued in him.

46 But some of them went their way to the Pharises, and tolde thē what things Iesus had done.

47 Then gathered the hie Priests, and the Pharises a councel, and said, What shal we do? For this man doeth manie miracles.

48 If [m] we let him thus alone, all men wil beleue in him, and the Romaines wil come and take away bothe our place, and the nacion.

49 Then one of them named Caiaphas, which was the hie Priest [n] that same yere, said vnto them, Ye perceiue nothing at all,

50 Nor yet do you consider that it is expedient for vs, that one man dye for the people, and that the whole nacion perish not.

51 This spake he not of him self: but being hie Priest that same yere, he [o] prophecied that Iesus shulde dye for ý nacion:

52 And not for the nacio onely, but that he shulde gather together in one the children of God, which were scattered.

53 Then from that day forthe they consulted together, to put him to death.

54 Iesus therefore walked no more openly among the Iewes, but went thence vnto a countrey nere to the wildernes, into a citie called Ephraim, and there continued with his disciples.

55 ¶ And the Iewes Passeouer was at hand, and manie went out of the countrey vp to Ierusalem before the Passeouer, to [p] purifie them selues.

56 Then soght they for Iesus, and spake among them selues, as thei stode in the Temple, What thinke ye, that he cometh not to the feast?

57 Now bothe the hie Priests and the Pharises had giuen a commandement, that if anie man knewe where he were, he shulde shewe it, that they might take him.

m They resist God, thinking to hinder his worke by their owne policies.

n Or, for that present time.

o God made him to speake, neither colde his impietie let Gods purpose, who caused his wicked mā eue as he did Balaā, to be an instrument of ý holie Goost.

p Because thei thoght hereby to make thē selues more holie against the feast: but he did eat the passeouer: but they were not commanded by God to vse this ceremonie.

Zach. 9,9.

15 *Feare not, daughter of Sion: beholde, thy King cometh sitting on an asses colte.

16 But his disciples vnderstode not these things at the first: but when Iesus was glorified, then remembred they, that these things were written of him, and that they had done these things vnto him.

17 The people therefore that was with him, bare witnes that he called Lazarus out of the graue, and raised him frō the dead.

18 Therefore met him the people also, because thei heard that he had done this miracle.

19 And the Pharises said among them selues, Perceiue ye how ye preuaile nothing? Beholde, the [n] worlde goeth after him.

[n] Or, the preasse.

20 ¶ Now there were certeine [c] Grekes among them that came vp to worship at the feast.

c They were of the race of the Iewes, and came out of Asia & Grecia: for els ỹ Iewes wolde not haue permitted that they shulde worship with them in the Temple.

21 And they came to Philippe, ẅ was of Bethsaida in Galile, and desired him, saying, Syr, we wolde se Iesus.

22 Philippe came and tolde Andrewe: and againe Andrewe & Philippe tolde Iesus.

23 And Iesus answered them, saying, The houre is come, that the Sonne of man must be [f] glorified.

f Which is, ỹ the knowledge of him shulde be manifest through all the worlde.

24 Verely, verely I say vnto you, Except the wheate corne fall into the grounde & dye, it bideth alone: but if it dye, it bringeth forthe muche frute.

Mat. 10 39. & 16, 5. mar. 8 35. luk. 9, 24. & 17, 33. Chap 17 24.

25 *He that [g] loueth his life, shal lose it, & he that [h] hateth his life in this worlde, shal kepe it vnto life eternal.

g If ỹ loue thereof let him frō comming to Christ.

h And so loseth it for Christis sake.

26 *If anie man serue me, let him followe me: for where I am, there shal also my seruant be: and if anie mā serue me, him wil my Father honour.

27 Now is my soule troubled: & what shal I say? Father, saue me from this houre: but therefore came I vnto this houre.

28 Father, glorifie thy Name. Then came there a voyce from heauen, saying, I haue bothe glorified it, and wil glorifie it againe.

i The reformacion and restoring of those things, which were out of order.

29 Then said the people ỹ stode by and heard, that it was a thundre: others said, An Angel spake to him.

Chap. 3, 14.

30 Iesus answered, and said, This voyce came not because of me, but for your sakes.

k The crosse is the meane to gather ỹ Church of God together, and to draw men to heauen.

31 Now is the [i] iudgement of this worlde: now shal the prince of this worlde be cast out.

32 * And [k] I, if I were lift vp from the earth, wil drawe [l] all men vnto me.

l Not onely the Iewes but also the Gentiles.

33 Now this said he, signifying what death he shulde dye.

34 The people answered him, We haue heard out of the * Law, that the Christ [m] bydeth for euer: and how saist thou, that the Sonne of man must be lift vp? who is that Sonne of man?

Psal. 89 37. & 110, 4 & 117, 2. ezek. 37, 25.

35 Then Iesus said vnto them, Yet a litle while is * the light with you: walke while ye haue light, lest the darkenes come vpon you: for he that walketh in the darke, knoweth not whether he goeth.

Chap. 1, 9.

36 While ye haue light, beleue in the light, that ye may be the children of the light. These things spake Iesus, and departed, & hid him self from them.

37 ¶ And thogh he had done so manie miracles before them, yet beleued they not on him:

38 That the saying of Esaias the Prophet might be fulfilled, that he said, * Lord, who beleued our reporte? and to whome is the [m] arme of the Lord reueiled?

Isa. 53, 1. rom. 10, 16.

m That is, the Gospel, ẅ is the power of God to saluacion to euerie one that doeth beleue.

39 Therefore colde thei not beleue, because that Esaias saith againe,

40 * He hathe blinded their eyes, and hardened their heart, that they shulde not se with their eyes, nor vnderstand with their heart, and shulde be cōuerted, & I shulde [n] heale them.

Isa. 6, 9. mat. 13, 14. mar. 4, 12. luk. 8, 11, act. 28, 26. rom 11, 8, n By deliuering them from their miseries, & giuing them true felicitie.

41 These things said Esaias when he sawe his glorie and spake of him.

42 Neuertheles euen among the chief rulers manie beleued in him: but because of the Pharises, they did not confesse him, lest they shulde [o] be cast out of the Synagogue.

[o] Or, excommunicate.

43 *For they loued the [p] praise of men, more then the praise of God.

Chap. 5, 44.

p To be esteemed of men.

44 And Iesus cryed, and said, He ỹ beleueth in me, beleueth not in me, but in him that sent me.

45 And he that seeth me, seeth him that sent me.

46 I * am come a light into the worlde, that whosoeuer beleueth in me, shulde not abide in darkenes.

Chap. 3, 19. & 9, 39.

47 And if anie man heare my wordes, and beleue not, I [q] iudge him not: for I came not to [q] iudge the worlde, but to saue the worlde.

[q] Or, condemne.

[q] Or, condemne.

48 He that refuseth me, and receiueth not my wordes, hathe one that [r] iudgeth him: * the worde that I haue spoken, it shal iudge him in the [s] last day.

[r] Or, condēneth Mar. 16, 16. chap 3, 17.

s For that day shalbe the appropriacion of the Gospel.

49 For I haue not spoken of my self, but the Father, which sent me, he gaue me a commandement what I shulde say, and what I shulde speake.

50 And I knowe that his cōmandement is life euerlasting: the things therefore that I speake, I speake them so as the Father said vnto me.

CHAP. XIII.

1 Christ washeth the disciples fete. 14 Exhorting them to humilitie & charitie. 21 Telleth them of Iudas the traitour, 34 And commandeth them earnestly to loue one another. 38 He forewarneth of Peters denial.

Mat.26.2. mar.14.1. luk.22.1.

1 NOw * before the feast of the Passeouer, when Iesus knewe that his houre was come, that he shulde departe out of this worlde vnto the Father, for asmuche as he loued his owne which were in the worlde, vnto the end he [a] loued them.

a Because he sawe the danger great ẅ was towarde thē, therefore he toke the greater care for them.

2 And when [b] supper was done (and that the deuil had now put in the heart of Iudas Iscariot, Simons sonne, to betraye him)

b Which was ẏ eating of ẏ Passeouer.

3 Iesus knowing that the Father had giuen all things into his hands, & that he was come from God, and went to God,

4 He riseth from supper, and layeth aside his vpper garments, and toke a towel, and girde him self.

5 After that, he powred water into a basin, and began to wash the disciples fete, and to wipe them with the towel, where with he was girde.

6 Then came he to Simon Peter, who said to him, Lord, doest thou wash my fete?

7 Iesus answered and said vnto him, What I do, thou knowest not now: but thou shalt knowe it hereafter.

8 Peter said vnto him, Thou shalt neuer wash my fete. Iesus answered him, If I [c] wash thee not, thou shalt haue no parte with me.

c And make thee cleane frō thy sinnes.

9 Simon Peter said vnto him, Lord, not my fete onely, but also the hands & the head.

10 Iesus said to him, He that is washed, nedeth not, saue to [d] wash his fete, but is cleane euerie whit: and ye are * cleane, but not all.

d That is, to be continually purged of his corrupt affections and worldelie cares ẅ remaine dayly in vs. Chap.15.3.

11 For he knewe who shulde betraye him: therefore said he, Ye are not all cleane.

12 ¶ So after he had washed their fete, and had taken his garments, and was set downe againe, he said vnto thē, Knowe ye what I haue done to you?

13 Ye call me Master, and Lord, and ye say wel: for so am I.

14 If I then your Lord, and Master, haue washed your fete, ye also ought to wash [e] one anothers fete.

e To ferue one another.

15 For I haue giuen you an example, that ye shulde do, euen as I haue done to you.

16 Verely, verely I say vnto you, * The seruant is not greater then his master, nether the ambassadour greater then he that sent him.

Chap.15.20. mat.10.24. luk.6.40.

17 If ye knowe these things, blessed are ye, if ye do them.

18 ¶ I speake not of you all: I knowe who me I haue chosen: but it is that the Scripture might be fulfilled, * He that eateth bread with me, hathe [f] lift vp his hele against me.

Psal.41.10.

f Vnder pretence of friendship seketh his destruction.

19 From hence forthe tell I you before it come, that when it is come to passe, ye might beleue that I am [g] he.

g To wit, the Christ and redemer of the worlde.

20 * Verely, verely I say vnto you, If I send anie, he that receiueth him, receiueth me, and he ẏ receiueth me, receiueth him that sent me.

Mat.10.40. luk.10.16.

21 When Iesus had said these things, he was [h] troubled in ẏ Spirit, & [i] testified, and said, Verely, verely I say vnto you, that one of you shal betraye me.

h For very horror & indignation of suche an abominable acte as Iudas shulde commit.

i He did openly affirme.

22 * Then the disciples loked one on another, douting of whome he spake.

Mat.26.21. mar.14.18. luk.22.21.

23 Now there was one of his disciples, ẅ leaned on Iesus [k] bosome, whome Iesus loued.

k Their facion was not to sit at table, but hauig their shoes of, and sumtōs vn der their elbowes, leaned on their sides, as it were halfe lyig.

24 To him beckened therefore Simon Peter, that he shulde aske who it was of whome he spake.

25 He then, as he leaned on Iesus brest, said vnto him, Lord, who is it?

26 Iesus answered, He it is, to whome I shal giue a soppe, when I haue dipte it: and he wet a soppe, and gaue it to Iudas Iscariot, Simons sonne.

27 And after the soppe, [l] Satan entred into him. Then said Iesus vnto him, That thou doest, do quickely.

l Satā toke ful possession of him.

28 But none of them that were at table, knewe, for what cause he spake it vnto him.

29 For some of them thoght because Iudas had the bagge, that Iesus had said vnto him, Bie those things ẏ we haue nede of against the feast: or ẏ he shulde giue some thing to the poore.

30 Assone then as he had receiued ẏ soppe, he went immediatly out, and it was night.

31 ¶ When he was gone out, Iesus said, [m] Now is the Sonne of man glorified, and God is glorified in him.

m Meaning, that his crosse shal ingēder a marueilous glorie, and ẏ in it shal shine the infinite bountie of God.

32 If God be glorified in him, God shal also glorifie him in him self, & shal straight way glorifie him.

33 Litle children, yet a litle while am I with you: ye shal seke me, but as I said vnto the * Iewes, Whither I go, can ye not come: also to you say I now,

Chap.7.34.

34 * [n] A new commandement giue I vnto you, that ye loue one another: as I haue loued you, that ye also loue one another.

Leuit.19.18. mat.22.39. chap.15.12. 1.iohn 4.21.

n Whereof we ought to haue cōtinual remembrance as though it were euen newly giuen.

35 By this shal all mē knowe that ye are my disciples, if ye haue loue one to another.

36 Simō Peter said vnto him, Lord, whither goest thou? Iesus answered him, Whither I go, thou canst not followe me now:

o When thou shalt be more strong.

Mat.26,14. mar.14,30.

me now: but thou o shalt followe me after wardes.

37 Peter said vnto him, Lord, why can I not followe thee now? * I will lay downe my life for thy sake.

38 Iesus answered him, Wilt thou lay downe thy life for my sake? Verely, verely I say vnto thee, The cocke shal not crowe, til thou haue denyed me thrise.

CHAP. XIIII.

1 He armeth his disciples with consolation against trouble. 2 He ascendeth into heauen to prepare vs a place. 6 The way, the trueth and the life. 10 The Father and Christ one. 13 How we shulde pray. 23 The promes vnto them that kepe his worde.

Euang. in festo Philippi & Iacobi.

1 AND he said to his disciples, Let not your heart be troubled: ye beleue in God, a beleue also in me.

a For in so beleuing no troubles shal ouercome them.

2 In my Fathers house are b many dwelling places: if it were not so, I wolde haue tolde you: I go to prepare a place for you.

b So that there is not onely place for him, but for all his.

3 And thogh I go to prepare a place for you, I wil c come againe, & receiue you vnto my self, ý where I am, there may ye be also.

c At the latter day, Act.1,11.

4 And whither I go, ye knowe, and the way ye knowe.

5 Thomas said vnto him, Lord, we d know not whither thou goest: how can we then knowe the way?

d He was not altogether ignorant, but his knowledge was weake and imperfite.

6 Iesus said vnto him, I am the e Way, and the Trueth, & the Life. No man commeth vnto the Father, but by me.

e Therefore we must begin in him, continewe in him, & end in him.

7 If ye had knowen me, ye shulde haue knowen my Father also: & from hēceforthe ye knowe him, & haue sene him.

8 Philippe said vnto him, Lord, shewe vs thy Father, and it suffiseth vs.

9 Iesus said vnto him, I haue bene so lōg time with you, and hast thou not knowen me, Philippe? he that hathe sene me, hathe sene my Father: how then saist thou, Shewe vs thy Father?

f For the verie fulnes of the diuinitie remaineth in Christ.

10 Beleuest thou not, that I am in ý Father, and f the Father is in me? The wordes that I speake vnto you, I speake not of my g self: but the Father that dwelleth in me, he h doeth the workes.

g In that, that he is man.

h Who declareth his maiestie and vertue by his doctrine and miracles.

11 Beleue me, that I am in the Father, and the Father in me: at the least, beleue me for the very workes sake.

i This is referred to the whole bodie of the Church in whome this vertue of Christ doeth shine & remaine for euer.

12 Verely, verely I say vnto you, he that beleueth in me, ý workes that I do, i he shal do also, & greater then these shal he do: for I go vnto my Father.

Chap.16,23. mat.7,7. mar.11,24. iam.1,5.

13 *And whatsoeuer ye aske in my Name, that wil I do, that the Father may be glorified in the Sonne.

14 If ye shal aske any thing in my Name, I wil do it.

15 If ye loue me, kepe my commandements,

Euang. in festo Pasche.

16 And I wil pray the Father, and he shal giue you another k Comforter, that he may abide with you for euer, k I haue comforted you whiles I was with you, but henceforthe the holie Gost shal comfort you, and preserue you.

17 Euen the Spirit of l trueth, whome the worlde can not receiue, because it seeth him not, nether knoweth him: but ye knowe him: for he dwelleth with you, & shalbe in you.

l So called because he worketh in vs the trueth.

18 I wil not leaue you comfortles: but I wil m come to you.

m Which thing he doeth by the vertue of his Spirit.

19 Yet a litle while, and the worlde shal se me no more, but ye shal se me: because I liue, ye shal liue also.

20 At that day shal ye knowe that I am in my Father, and you in me, and I in you.

21 He that hathe my cōmandements, and kepeth them, is he that loueth me: and he that loueth me, n shalbe loued of my Father: and I wil loue him, and wil shewe mine owne self to him.

n He shal sensibly feele that ý grace of God abideth in him.

22 Iudas said vnto him (not o Iscariot) Lord, what is the cause that thou wilt shewe thy self vnto vs, and not vnto the worlde?

o But the brother of Iames.

23 Iesus answered, and said vnto him, If any man loue me, he wil p kepe my worde, & my Father wil loue him, and we wil come vnto him, and wil dwell with him.

p Whereby he aduertiseth thē not to haue respect to ý world, lest they shulde be drawen backe by euil example.

24 He that loueth me not, kepeth not my wordes, and ý worde which ye heare, is not q mine, but the Fathers which sent me.

q That is, not his alone: for he had nothing separate from his Father.

25 These things haue I spokē vnto you, being present with you.

26 But the Comforter, which is the holie Gost, whome the Father wil send in my Name, he shal teache you all things, & bring all things to your remembrance, which I haue tolde you.

27 r Peace I leaue with you: my peace I giue vnto you: not as ý worlde giueth, giue I vnto you. Let not your heart be troubled, nor feare.

r All comfort & prosperitie.

28 Ye haue heard how I said vnto you, I go away, and wil come vnto you. If ye loued me, ye wolde verely reioyce, because I said, I go vnto the Father: for my Father is s greater then I.

29 And now haue I spoken vnto you, before it come, that when it is come to passe, ye might beleue.

s In that, that Christ is become man to be Mediator betwene God & vs.

30 Hereafter wil I not speake many thīgs vnto you: for the t prince of this worlde commeth, and hathe v noght in me.

t Satan executeth his rage & tyrannie by the permission of God.

31 But it is that the worlde may knowe that I loue my Father: & as the Father hathe commanded me, so I do. Arise, let vs go hence.

u Satan shal assaile me with all his force, but he shal not finde that in me wherby he loketh for: for I am ý innocent lambe without spot.

CHAP. XV.

6 The swete consolation, and mutual loue

betwene Christ and his membres vnder the parable of the vine. 18 Of their commune afflictions and persecutions. 26 The office of the holie Gost and the Apostles.

1 I Am the true vine, and my Father is an housbandman.
2 *Euerie branche that beareth not frute in me, he taketh away: & euerie one
Mat. 15,13. that beareth frute, he purgeth it, that it may bring forthe more frute.
Chap. 13,11. 3 *Now are ye cleane through ſ worde, which I haue ſpoken vnto you.
4 Abide in me, and I in you: as the branche cānot beare frute of it ſelf, except it abide in the vine, no more can ye, except ye abide in me.
a We can bring forthe no frute, except we be ingraffed in Christ.
5 I am the vine: ye are the branches: he that abideth in me, & I in him the ſame bringeth forthe muche frute: for without me can ye do nothing.
6 If a man abide not in me, he is caſt forthe as a brāche, and withereth: and men gather them, and caſt them into the fyre, and they burne.
b We muſt be rooted in Iesus Christ by faith, which cometh of the worde of God.
c So that ye followe Gods worde, which ye comprehend by faith.
d Wherewith I loue you.
7 If ye abide in me, & my b words abide in you, aſke c what ye wil, and it ſhalbe done to you.
8 Herein is my Father glorified, that ye beare muche frute, and be made my diſciples.
9 As the Father hathe loued me, ſo haue I loued you: continue in d my loue.
10 If ye ſhal kepe my commandements, ye ſhal abide in my loue, as I haue kept my Fathers commandements, and abide in his loue.
11 Theſe things haue I ſpoken vnto you, that my ioye might remaine in you, and that your ioye might be e ful.
e perfect and entier.
Chap. 13,34. 1. theſſ. 1. 9. 1. iohn. 3,11. & 4,21.
12 *This is my commandement that ye loue one another, as I haue loued you.
13 Greater loue then this hathe no man, when any man beſtoweth his life for his friends,
14 Ye are my friends, if ye do whatſoeuer I commande you.
15 Hence forthe, call I you not ſeruants: for the ſeruant knoweth not what his maſter doeth: but I haue called you friēds: for f all things that I haue heard of my Father, haue I made knowen to you.
f So that there is nothing omitted that is neceſſarie for vs and concerning our ſalvation.
Mat. 28,19.
16 Ye haue not choſen me, but I haue choſen you, and ordeined you, *that ye go & bring forthe frute, and ſ your frute remaine, that whatſoeuer ye ſhal aſke of the Father in my Name, he may giue it you.
17 Theſe things commande I you, that ye loue one another.
18 If the worlde hate you, ye knowe that it hated me before you.
19 If ye were of the worlde, the worlde wolde loue his owne: but becauſe ye are not of the worlde, but I haue choſen you out of the worlde, therefore ſ worlde hateth you.
20 Remember the worde that I ſaid vnto you, *The ſeruāt is not greater then his maſter. *If they haue perſecuted me, they wil perſecute you alſo: if they haue g kept my worde, they wil alſo kepe h yours.
Chap. 13,16. mat. 10,24. Mat. 24,9.
g The worde alſo ſignifieth, to be diligēt to eſpie faultes to trippe one in.
h Which is the ſelf ſame worde, but called theirs becauſe they preache it.
21 But all theſe things wil they do vnto you for my Names ſake, becauſe they haue not knowen him that ſent me.
22 If I had not come and ſpoken vnto them, they i ſhulde not haue had ſinne: but now haue they no k cloke for their ſinne.
i But ſhulde haue ſemed to be innocent, if I had not diſcouered their malice.
k In that they refuſed Christ it taketh from them all excuſe wherewith they wolde haue iuſtified them ſelues as if they had bene very holie & without all ſinne.
23 He that hateth me, hateth my Father alſo.
24 If I had not done workes amōg them which none other man did, they had not had ſinne: but now haue thei bothe ſene, & haue hated bothe me, and my Father.
25 But it is that the worde might bē fulfilled, that is written in their l Law, *They hated me without a cauſe.
Pſal. 35,19.
l That is, in the holie Scriptures.
26 But when the Comforter ſhal come, *whome I wil ſend vnto you from the Father, euen the Spirit of trueth, which proceadeth of the Father, he ſhal teſtifie of me.
Chap. 14, 26. luk. 24, 49.
27 And ye ſhal witneſſe alſo, becauſe ye haue bene with me from the beginning.

CHAP. XVI.

2 He putteth them in remembrance of the croſſe, and of their owne infirmitie to come, 7 And therefore doeth comfort them with the promes of the holie Goſt. 16 Of the coming againe of Christ. 17 Of his aſcenſion. 23 To aſke in the Name of Christ. Peace in Christs, & in the worlde affliction.

1 THeſe things haue I ſaid vnto you, that ye ſhulde not be a offended.
a And ſo ſhrinke from me.
2 They ſhal " excommunicate you: yea, the time ſhal come, that whoſoeuer killeth you, wil thinke that he doeth God ſeruice.
" Greke, put you out of the Synagogues.
3 And theſe things wil they do vnto you, becauſe they haue not knowen the Father, nor me.
4 But theſe things haue I tolde you, that whē the houre ſhal come, ye might remember, that I tolde you them. And theſe things b ſaid I not vnto you from the beginning, becauſe I was with you.
b He bare w them becauſe they were but weakelings.
5 But now I go my way to him that ſent me and none of you aſketh me, c Whither goeſt thou?
c For if you did cōſider, ye wolde reioyce.
6 But becauſe I haue ſaid theſe things vnto you, your hearts are ful of ſorowe.
7 Yet I tel you the trueth, It is expedient for you that I go away: for if I go not away away, the Comforter wil not come vnto you: but if I departe, I wil send him vnto you.

8 And when he is come, he wil [d] reproue the worlde of sinne, and of righteousnes, and of iudgement.

9 Of [e] sinne, because they beleue not in me:

10 Of [f] righteousnes, because I go to my Father, and ye shal se me no more:

11 Of [g] iudgement, because the prince of this worlde is iudged.

12 I haue yet [h] manie things to say vnto you, but ye can not beare them now.

13 Howbeit, when he is come which is the Spirit of trueth, he wil lead you into all trueth: for he shal not speake of him self, but whatsoeuer he shal heare, shal he speake, and he wil shewe you the things [i] to come.

14 He shal glorifie me: for he shal receiue of mine, and shal shewe it vnto you.

15 All things that the Father hathe, are mine: therefore said I, that he shal take of mine, and shewe it vnto you.

16 [k] A litle while, and ye shal not se me: and againe a litle while, and ye shal se me: for I [l] go to my Father.

17 Then said some of his disciples among them selues, What is this that he saith vnto vs, A litle while, and ye shal not se me, & againe, a litle while, and ye shal se me, and, For I go to my Father?

18 They said therefore, What is this that he saith, A litle while? we knowe not what he saith.

19 Now Iesus knewe that they wolde aske him, and said vnto them, Do ye enquire among your selues, of that I said, A litle while, & ye shal not se me: and againe, a litle while, and ye shal se me?

20 Verely, verely I say vnto you, that ye shal wepe and lament, and the worlde shal reioyce: & ye shal sorowe, but your sorowe shalbe turned to ioye.

21 A woman when she trauaileth, hathe sorowe, because her houre is come: but assone as she is deliuered of the childe, she remembreth no more the anguish, for ioye that a man is borne into the worlde.

22 And ye now therefore are in sorowe: but I wil se you [m] againe, & your hearts shal reioyce, and your ioye shal [n] no man take from you.

23 And in that day shal ye aske me [o] nothing. * Verely, verely I say vnto you, whatsoeuer ye shal aske the Father in my Name, he wil giue it you.

24 Hitherto haue ye asked [p] nothing in my Name: aske, and ye shal receiue, that your ioye may be ful.

25 These things haue I spoken vnto you in parables: but the time wil come, when I shal no more speake to you in parables: but I shal shewe you plainely of the Father.

26 At that day shal ye aske in my Name, & I say not vnto you, that I [q] wil pray vnto the Father for you.

27 For the Father him self loueth you, because ye haue loued me, * and haue beleued that I came out from God.

28 I am come out from the Father, & came into the worlde: againe I leaue the worlde, and go to the Father.

29 His disciples said vnto him, Lo, now speakest thou plainely, and thou speakest no parable.

30 Now knowe we that thou knowest all things, and nedest not that any mā shulde aske thee. By this we beleue, ý thou art come out from God.

31 Iesus answered them, Do you beleue now?

32 *Beholde, the houre cometh, & is alreadie come, that ye shalbe scattred euerie man into his owne, and shal leaue me alone: but I am not [r] alone: for the Father is with me.

33 These things haue I spoken vnto you, that [s] in me ye might haue peace: in the worlde ye shal haue affliction, but be of good comfort: I haue ouercome the worlde.

CHAP. XVII.

1 The prayer of Christ vnto his Father, bothe for him self and his Apostles, and also for all suche as receiue the trueth.

1 THese things spake Iesus, and lift vp his eyes to heauen, & said, Father the houre is come: glorifie thy Sonne, that thy Sonne also may glorifie thee,

2 *As thou hast giuen him [a] power ouer all flesh, that he shulde giue eternal life to all [b] them that thou hast giuen him.

3 And this is life eternal, that they knowe thee to be the onely verie God, and whome thou hast sent, Iesus [c] Christ.

4 I haue [d] glorified thee on the earth: I haue finished the worke which thou gaueste me to do.

5 And now glorifie me, thou Father, with thine owne self, with the glorie which I had with thee before the worlde was.

6 I haue declared thy Name vnto the men which thou gaueste me out of the worlde: [e] thine they were, and thou gaueste them me, and they haue kept thy worde.

d Or, conuince. This is to be vnderstand of the comming of the holie Goste when his vertue and stregth shal shine in the Church.

e His enemies which contemned him, & put him to death, shalbe conuict by their owne conscience, for that they did not beleue in him, Act. 2, 37, and shal know that without Iesus Christ there is nothing but sinne.

f Wherefore ý wicked must nedes confesse that he was iuste, & beloued of his Father, not condemned by him as a blasphemer or transgressor.

g When they shal knowe that I (whome they called the carpenters sonne, and willed to come downe from ý crosse) am the verie Sonne of God which haue ouercome all the power of hel & reigne ouer all, 2. Cor. 10, 12. ephe 1.19.

h These things are contcined in the doctrine of the Apostles which onely is sufficient.

i As touching the spiritual kingdome of God: for the Apostles knewe not that til after the resurrection. Chap. 14, 13. mat. 7, 7. & 21, 22. mar. 11, 24. luk 11, 9. iam. 1, 5.

k Mine absence shal not be long: for I wil send you the holie Goste, who shal remaine with you for euer.

l From death I passe to glorie and so wil I indue you with mine heauenlie vertue.

m By the power and vertue of the holie Goste.

n For it shalbe grounded vpon my resurrection & the grace of the holie Goste.

o For ye shal haue perfect knowledge, & shal no more doute as you were wont.

p In respect of that that you shal obteine, if you aske in faith.

q Christ denieth not that he is ý mediator, but sheweth that they shal obteine their requestes without difficultie or any paine. Chap. 17 8.

r Although men forsake Christ, yet is he no whit diminished: for he & his Father are one.

s We haue rest & cōfort when we are truely graffed in Christ.

a Christ hathe all rule & dominion ouer men.

b Which are the elect.

c That is, that thei acknowledge bothe ý Father, & the Sonne to be verie God.

d As wel by doctrine as miracles.

e Our election standeth in the good pleasure of God, which is ý onelie fundacion, & cause of our saluatiō, and is declared to vs in Christ, through whome we are iustified by faith and sanctified, Rom. 8, 29. ephe. 1, 4.

7 Now they knowe that all things whatsoeuer thou hast giuen me, are of thee.
8 For I haue giue vnto them the wordes, which thou gauest me, and they haue that I came out frō thee, and haue be-leued that thou hast sent me.

f That is, the reprobate. 9 I pray for them: I pray not for f the worlde, but for them which thou hast giuen me: for they are thine.
10 And all mine are thine, and thine are mine, and I am glorified in them.
11 And now am I no more in the worlde, but these are in ỹ worlde, & I come to thee. Holie Father, kepe thē in thy Na-

18 As thou diddest send me into the worldde, so haue I sent them into the worlde.
k Renewe thē with thine heauenlie grace, ỹ they onelymay seke thy wil. 19 And for their sakes sanctifie I my self,

as we are one,
23 I in them, and thou in me, that they may be made perfect in one, & that the worlde may know, that thou hast sent me, & hast loued them, as thou hast loued me.

I am, that they may beholde my glorie, which thou hast giuen me: for thou lo-uedst me before the foundacion of the worlde.
25 O righteous Father, the worlde also hathe not knowen thee, but I haue knowen thee, and these haue knowen, that thou hast sent me.
26 And I haue declared vnto them thy Name, and wil declare it, that the loue wherewith thou hast loued me, may be in them, and I in p them.

p For without him we can not comprehende the loue wherewith God loueth vs.

CHAP. XVIII.

Christ is betrayed. 6 The wordes of his mouth smite the officers to the grounde. 10 Peter smiteth of Malchus eare. 13 Iesus is broght before Annas & Caiaphas. 25 & he re Peter denieth him. 36 He telleth Pilate what his kingdome is.

The Gospel on S. Iames Day.

1 WHen Iesus had spoken these things, he went forthe with his disciples ouer the a broke * Cedron, where was a garden, into the which he entred, and his disciples.
1. King. 15, 13. mat. 26, 36. mar. 14, 32. luk. 22, 39.
a Which was a deepe valley through the which a streame rainne after a great raine.
2 And Iudas which betrayed him, knewe also the place: for Iesus oft times resorted thither with his disciples.
3 * Iudas then after he had receiued a
Mat. 26, 47. mar. 14, 43. luk. 22, 47. b bande of men and officers of the high Priests, & of the Pharises, came thither with lanternes and torches, and weapons.
b The which he had obteined of the gouernour of ỹ Temple.
4 Then Iesus, knowing all things that shulde come vnto him, went forthe and said vnto them, Whome seke ye?
5 They answered him, Iesus of Nazaret.
Iesus said vnto them, I am he. Now Iudas also which betrayed him, stode with them.
6 Assone then as he had said vnto them,
I am he they went backewards, and fel to the grounde.
7 Then he asked thē againe, Whome seke ye? And they said, Iesus of Nazaret.
8 Iesus answered, I said vnto you, that I am he: therefore if ye seke me, let these go their way,
9 This was that the worde might be fulfilled which he spake, * c Of them which Chap. 17, 12. thou gauest me, haue I lost none.
c He both spareth their bodies & also saueth their soules.
10 Then Simon Peter hauing a sworde, drewe it, and smote the high Priests seruant, and cut of his right eare. Now the seruants name was Malchus.
11 Then said Iesus vnto Peter, Put vp
Luk. 3 2. thy sworde into the sheath: shal I not the giuen me?

12 Then the bande and the captaine, & the officers of the Iewes toke Iesus, and bounde him,
13 And led him away to * d Annas first Chap. 11, 50. (for he was Father in law to Caiaphas, which was the high Priest e that same yere.)
e Al hogh this office was for terme of life by Gods ordinance, yet the ambition, and dissension of ỹ Iewes caused the Romaines from time to time to change it either for bri bere or fauour.
14 * And Caiaphas was he, that gaue counsel to the Iewes, that it was expedient that one man shulde dye for the people.
15 ¶ * Now

Mat.26,58. mar.14,54. luk.22,54.

15 ¶ *Now Simon Peter followed Iesus, & another disciple, and that disciple was knowen of ý high Priest: therefore he went in with Iesus into the hall of the high Priest, 16 But Peter stode at the dore without. Then went out ý other disciple which was knowen vnto the high Priest, and spake to her that kept the dore, and broght in Peter.

17 Then said the maide ý kept the dore, vnto Peter, Art not thou also one of this mans disciples? He said, I am not.

18 And ý seruants and officers stode there, which had made a fyre of coles: for it was colde, and they warmed thē selues. And Peter also stode among them & warmed him self.

19 (¶ The high Priest then asked Iesus of his disciples, and of his doctrine.

f That is, frankely, and plainely.

20 Iesus answered him, I spake f openly to the worlde: I euer taught in the Synagogue & in the Temple, whither the Iewes resorte continually, and in secret haue I said nothing.

21 Why askest thou me? aske thē which heard me what I said vnto them: beholde, they knowe what I said.

22 When he had spokē these things, one of the officers which stode by, smote Iesus with his rod, saying, Answerest thou the high Priest so?

23 Iesus answered him, If I haue euil spoken, beare witnes of ý euil: but if I haue wel spoken, why smitest thou me?

g After that Caiaphas had first sent him to him.

24 ¶ Now Annas had g sent him bounde vnto Caiaphas the high Priest.

Mat.26,57. mar.14,53. luk.22,54.

25 *And Simon Peter stode and warmed him self, and they said vnto him, Art not thou also of his disciples? He denied it, & said, I am not 26 One of the seruāts of the high Priest, his cousin whose eare Peter smote of, said, Did not I se thee in the garden with him?

27 Peter then denied againe, and immediatly the cocke crewe.

Mat.27,2. mar.15,1. luk.23,1. Act.10,28. & 11,3.

28 ¶ * Thē led they Iesus from Caiaphas into the commune hall. Now it was morning & thei them selues went not into the commune hall, lest they shulde be * defiled, but that they might eat the Passeouer.

h He spake this disdainfully, because they were so bent against all right and equitie. Mat 20,19.

29 Pilate then went out vnto them, and said, What accusation bring ye against this man?

30 They answered and said vnto him, If he were not an euil doer, we wolde not haue deliuered him vnto thee.

i As if they shulde say, Thou wilt not suffre vs to do it: for he knewe that it was not permitted to them by the Romaines to punish with death.

31 Then said Pilate vnto them, Take h ye him, and iudge him after your owne Law. Then the Iewes said vnto him, It is not i lawful for vs to put anie man to death.

32 It was that the worde of Iesus * might be fulfilled which he spake, signifying what death he shulde dye.

Mat. 27, 11 mar.15,2. luk.23,31.

33 *So Pilate entred into ý commune hall againe, and called Iesus, & said vnto him, Art thou the King of the Iewes?

34 Iesus answered him, Saist thou that of thy self, or did other tel it thee of me?

35 Pilate answered, Am I a Iewe? Thine owne nation, and the high Priests haue deliuered thee vnto me. What hast thou done?

k It standeth not in strength of men nor in wordelie defence.

36 Iesus answered, My kingdome is not of this k worlde: if my kingdome were of this worlde, my seruants wolde surely fight, that I shulde not be deliuered to the Iewes: but now is my kingdome not from hence.

37 Pilate then said vnto him, Art thou a King? then Iesus answered, Thou saist that I am a King: for this cause am I borne, & for this cause came I into the worlde, that I shulde beare witnes vnto the trueth: euerie one ý is of the trueth, heareth my voyce.

l This was a mocking and disdeineful question.

38 Pilate said vnto him, l What is trueth? And when he had said that, he went out againe vnto ý Iewes, & said vnto them, I finde in him no cause at al.

Mat. 27, 15. mar.15,6, luk.23 27.

39 *But you haue a m custome, that I shulde deliuer you one lose at the Passeouer: wil ye then that I lose vnto you the King of the Iewes?

m This was one of their blinde abuses: for the Law of God gaue no libertie to quite a wicked trespasser. Act.3,14.

40 *Then cryed they all againe, saying, Not him, but Barabbas: now this Barabbas was a murtherer.

CHAP. XIX.

1 When Pilate colde not asswage the rage of the Iewes against Christ, he deliuereth him vp with his superscription to be hanged betwixt two theues. 23 They cast lottes for his garments. 26 He commendeth his mother vnto Iohn. 28 Calleth for drinke. 33 Dyeth, and his side is perced, and taken downe from the crosse. 38 He is buryed.

Mat 27, 26. mar.15,18.

1 THen * Pilate toke Iesus & a scourged him.

a He thoght to haue pacified ý furie of the Iewes by some indifferent correction.

2 And the souldiers platted a crowne of thornes, and put it on his head, and they put on him a purple garment,

3 And said, Hail, King of the Iewes. And they smote him with their roddes.

4 Then Pilate went forthe againe, and saied vnto them, Beholde, I bring him forthe to you, that ye may knowe, that I finde no faute in him at all.

5 Then came Iesus forthe wearing a crowne of thornes, and a purple garment. And Pilate said vnto them, b Beholde the man.

b He spake in mockerie, because Christ called him self King.

6 Then when ý high Priests and officers sawe him, they cryed, saying, Crucifie, crucifie him. Pilate said vnto them, Take ye him & crucifie him, for I finde no faute in him.

7 The Iewes answered him, We haue a Law, and by our Law he ought to dye, because he made him self the [c] Sonne of God.

c Christ was in dede the Sonne of God, and therefore might iustly call him self so without breache of the Law: wherefore their colloured accusation was falsely applied.

8 ¶When Pilate then heard that worde, he was the more afraide,

9 And went againe into the commune hall and said vnto Iesus, Whence art thou? But Iesus gaue him none answere.

10 Then said Pilate vnto him, Speakest thou not vnto me? Knowest ỹ not that I haue power to crucifie thee, and haue power to lose thee?

11 Iesus answered, Thou coldest haue no [d] power at all against me, except it were giuen thee from aboue: therefore he that deliuered me vnto thee, hathe the greater sinne.

d Hereby he sheweth him, that he ought not to abuse his office and authoritie.

12 From thence forthe Pilate soght to lose him, but the Iewes cryed, saying, If thou deliuer him, thou art not Cesars friend: for whosoeuer maketh him self a King, speaketh against Cesar.

13 ¶When Pilate heard that worde, he broght Iesus forthe, and sate downe in the iudgemẽt seat in a place called the [e] Pauement, and in Hebrewe, Gabbatha.

e A place some what high & raised vp.

14 And it was the Preparation of the Passeouer, and about the [f] sixt houre: and he said vnto the Iewes, Beholde your King.

f Which was midday.

15 But they cryed, Away with him, away with him, crucifie him. Pilate said vnto them, Shal I crucifie your King? The high Priests answered, We haue no King but Cesar.

16 Then deliuered he him vnto them, to be crucified. *And they toke Iesus, and led him away.

Mat. 27, 31. mar. 15, 21. luk. 23, 26.

17 And he bare his crosse, and came into a place named of dead mens Skulles, which is called in Ebrewe, [g] Golgotha:

g Which was the place of execution.

18 Where thei crucified him, & two other with him, on ether side one, & Iesus in the middes.

19 ¶And Pilate wrote also a title and put in on the crosse, and it was written, IESVS OF NAZARET THE KING OF THE IEWES.

20 This title thẽ red manie of the Iewes: for the place where Iesus was crucified, was nere to the citie: and it was written in [h] Hebrewe, Greke, and Latin.

h Because all nacions might vnderstand it.

21 Then said the hie Priests of the Iewes to Pilate, Write not, The King of the Iewes, but that he said, I am King of the Iewes.

22 Pilate answered, What I haue written, I haue written.

23 ¶Then the * souldiers, when they had crucified Iesus, toke his garments & made foure partes, to euerie souldier a parte, & his coate: and the coate was without seame, wouen from the top throughout.

Mat. 27, 35. mar. 15, [illegible]. luk. 23, [illegible].

24 Therefore thei said one to another, Let vs not deuide it, but cast lots for it, whose it shalbe. This was that the [i] Scripture might be fulfilled, which saith, * They parted my garments among them, & on my coate did cast lottes. So the souldiers did these things in dede.

i That which was prefigured in Dauid, was accomplished in Iesus Christ. Psal. 22, 8.

25 ¶Then stode by the crosse of Iesus his mother, and his mothers sister, Marie the wife of [k] Cleopas, & Marie Magdalene.

k Or, Clopas.

26 And whẽ Iesus sawe his mother, & the disciple standing by whome he loued, he said vnto his mother, Woman, beholde thy sonne.

27 Then said he to the disciple, Beholde thy mother: and from that houre, the disciple toke her home vnto him.

28 ¶After, when Iesus knewe that all things were performed, that the * Scripture might be fulfilled, he said, I thirst.

Psal. 68, 22.

29 And there was set a vessel ful of vinegre: & they filled a spõge with vinegre, and [k] put it about [l] an hyssope stalke, & put it to his mouth.

k Or fastened it vpon an hyssope stalke.

l It may appeare that the crosse was not hie, seing a man might reache Christs mouth with an hyssope stalke, which as appeareth, 1. King. 4, 33 was ỹ lowest amongs herbes, as the cedre was hiest amongs trees.

30 Now when Iesus had receiued of the vinegre, he said, [m] it is finished, and bowed his head, and gaue vp the gost.

m Mans saluacion is perfected by the onelie sacrifice of Christ: & all the ceremonies of the Law are ended.

31 The Iewes then (because it was ỹ Preparacion, that the bodies shulde not remaine vpon the crosse on the Sabbath day: for that Sabbath was an [n] hie day) besoght Pilate that their legges might be broken, and that they might be taken downe.

n Because the day of the passeouer fel on ỹ Sabbath day.

32 Then came the souldiers and brake the legges of the first, and of the other, which was crucified with Iesus.

33 But when they came to Iesus, and sawe that he was dead alreadie, they brake not his legges.

34 But one of the souldiers with a speare [o] perced his side, & forthewith came there out blood and water.

o Which declareth that he was dead in dede as he rose againe frõ death to life. Exod. 12, 46. nomb. 9, 12. Zach. 12, 10.

35 And he that sawe it, bare recorde, & his recorde is true: and he knoweth that he saith true, that ye might beleue it.

36 For these things were done, that the * Scripture shulde be fulfilled, Not a bone of him shalbe broken.

Mat. 27, 59. mar 15, 42. luk. 23, 50.

37 And againe another Scripture saith, * Thei shal se him whome thei haue thrust through.

38* And after these things, Ioseph of Arimathea (who was a disciple of Iesus, but [p] secretly for feare of the Iewes) besoght Pilate that he might take downe the bodie of Iesus. And Pilate gaue him licence. He came then and toke Iesus bodie.

p That is to say, before Christs death, but now he declareth him self manifestly. Chap. 3, 2.

39 And there came * also Nicodemus (which first came to Iesus by night) and broght of myrrhe & aloes mingled together about an hundreth pounde.

q This honorable burial was as a preparacio & entrie vnto ỹ resurrection.

40 ¶Then toke thei the bodie of Iesus, and and wrapped it in linnen clothes with the odours, as the maner of the Iewes is to burie.

41 And in that place where Iesus was crucified, was a garden, and in the garden a new sepulchre, wherein was neuer man yet laid.

42 There then laid they Iesus because of the Iewes Preparacion day, for the sepulchre was nere.

CHAP. XX.

1 Marie Magdalene cometh to the sepulchre. 3 So do Peter & Iohn. 12 The two Angels appeare. 17 Christ appeareth to Marie Magdalene, 19 And to all his disciples. 27 The incredulitie & confession of Thomas.

1 NOw *the first day of the weke came Marie Magdalene, earely when it was yet [a] darke, vnto the sepulchre, and sawe the stone taken away from the tombe.

2 Then she ranne, and came to Simō Peter, and to the other disciple whome Iesus loued, and said vnto them, They haue taken away the Lord out of the sepulchre, and we knowe not were they haue laid him.

3 Peter therefore went forthe, & the other disciple, & they came vnto the sepulchre.

4 So they ranne bothe together, but the other disciple did out runne Peter, and came first to the sepulchre.

5 And he stouped downe, and sawe the linnen clothes lying: yet went he not in.

6 Thē came Simon Peter following him, and went into the sepulchre, and sawe the linnen clothes lye,

7 And the "kerchefe that was vpon his head, not lying with the linnen clothes, but wrapped together in a place by it self.

8 Then went in also the [b] other disciple, which came first to the sepulchre, and he sawe it, [c] and beleued.

9 For as yet they knewe not the Scripture, That he must rise againe from the dead.

10 And the disciples went away againe vnto their "owne home.

11 ¶ *But Marie stode without at the sepulchre weping: & as she wept, she bowed her self into the sepulchre,

12 And sawe two Angels in white, sitting, the one at the head, & the other at the fete, where the bodie of Iesus had laine.

13 And they said vnto her, Woman, why wepest thou? She said vnto them, Thei haue taken away my Lord, and I knowe not where they haue laid him.

14 When she had thus said, she turned her self backe and sawe Iesus standing, and knewe not that it was Iesus.

15 Iesus saith vnto her, Woman, why wepest thou? whome sekest thou? She supposing that he had bene the gardener, said vnto him, Syr, if thou hast borne him hence, tell me where thou hast laid him, and I wil take him away.

16 Iesus saith vnto her, Marie. She turned her self, & said vnto him, Rabboni, which is to say, Master.

17 Iesus saith vnto her, Touche me not: for I am not yet [d] ascended to my Father, but go to my [e] brethren, and say vnto them, I ascend vnto my Father, & to your Father, and to my God, and your [f] God.

18 Marie Magdalene came and tolde the disciples that she had sene the Lord, and that he had spoken these things vnto her.

19 ¶ *The same daye thē at night, which was the first day of the weeke, and when the [g] dores were shut where the disciples were assembled for feare of the Iewes, came Iesus & stode in ỹ middes, & said to them, [h] Peace be vnto you.

20 And when he had so said, he shewed vnto them his hands, and his side. Then were the disciples glad when they had sene the Lord.

21 Then said Iesus to them againe, Peace be vnto you: as my Father sent me, so send I you.

22 And when he had said that, he [i] breathed on them, and said vnto them, Receiue the holie Gost.

23 *Whosoeuers sinnes ye remit, they are remitted vnto them: & whosoeuers sinnes ye reteine, they are reteined.

24 ¶ But Thomas one of the twelue called Didymus, was not with them when Iesus came.

CHAP. XXI.

1 Christ appeareth to his disciples againe. 15 He commandeth Peter earnestly to fede his shepe. 18 He forewarneth him of his death. 25 And of Christs manifolde miracles.

1 AFter these things, Iesus shewed him selfe againe to his disciples at the [n] sea of Tiberias: and thus shewed he him self.
2 There were together Simon Peter, and Thomas, which is called Dydimus, & Nathanael of Cana in Galile, and the sonnes of Zebedeus, & two other of his disciples.
3 Simō Peter said vnto thē, I go a fishing. They said vnto him, We also wil go with thee. They went their way and entred into a ship straight way, & that night caught they nothing.
4 But when the morning was now come, Iesus stode on the shore: neuertheles the disciples knewe not that it was Iesus.
5 Iesus then said vnto them, [n] Sirs, haue ye anie meat? They answered him, No.
6 Then he said vnto them, Cast out the net on ȳ right side of the ship, & ye shal finde. So they [a] cast out, and they were not able at all to drawe it, for the multitude of fishes.
7 Therefore said the disciple whome Iesus loued, vnto Peter, It is the Lord. When Simon Peter heard that it was the Lord, he girde his [b] coate to him (for he was naked) and cast him self into the sea.
8 But the other disciples came by shippe (for they were not farre from land, but about two hundreth cubites) & they drewe the net with fishes.
9 Assone then as they were come to lād, they sawe hotte coles, and fish laid thereon, and bread.
10 Iesus said vnto them, Bring of ȳ fishes, which ye haue now caught.
11 Simō Peter stepped forthe and drewe the net to land, ful of great fishes, an hundreth, fiftie and three: and albeit there were so manie, yet was not the net broken.
12 Iesus said vnto them, Come, & dyne. And none of ȳ disciples durst aske him, Who art thou? seing they knewe that he was the Lord.
13 Iesus then came & toke bread, and gaue them, and fish likewise.
14 This is now the third time that Iesus shewed him self to his disciples, after that he was risen againe from the dead.
15 ¶So when they had dined, Iesus said to Simon Peter, Simon sonne of Iona, [c] loueſt thou me more then these? He said vnto him, Yea Lord, thou knoweſt that I loue thee. He said vnto him, Fede my lambes.
16 He said to him againe the seconde time, Simō the sonne of Iona, loueſt thou me? He said vnto him, Yea Lord, thou knoweſt that I loue thee. He said vnto him, Fede my shepe.
17 He said vnto him the [d] third time, Simon the sonne of Iona, loueſt thou me? Peter was sorie because he said to him the third time, Loueſt thou me? and said vnto him, Lord, ȳ knoweſt all things: thou knoweſt ȳ I loue thee. Iesus said vnto him, Fede my shepe.
18 Verely, Verely I say vnto thee, When thou wast yong, thou girdeſt thy self, & & walkedst whither thou woldest: but when thou shalt be olde, ȳ shalt stretch forthe thine hands, & another shal [e] girde thee, & lead thee whither thou woldest not.
19 And this spake he, signifying by what death he shulde glorifie God. And when he had said this, he said to him, Followe me.
20 Then Peter turned about, and sawe the disciple whome IESVS loued, following, which had also * leaned on his breſt at supper, & had said, Lord, which is he that betrayeth thee?
21 Whē Peter therefore sawe him, he said to Iesus, Lord, what shal this man do?
22 Iesus said vnto him, If I wil that he tarie til I come, what is it to thee? followe thou me.
23 Then went this worde abrode among the brethren, that this disciple shulde not dye. Yet Iesus said not to him, He shal not dye: but if I wil that he tarie til I come, what is it to thee?
24 This is that disciple, which testifieth of these things, & wrote these things, & we knowe that his testimonie is true.
25 * Now there are also manie other things which Iesus did, ȳ which if they shulde be writen euerie one, [f] I suppose the worlde colde not conteine the bokes that shulde be written, Amen.

THE ACTES OF THE holie Apostles written by Luke the Euangelist.

THE ARGVMENT.

Christ, after his ascension performed his promes to his Apostles, and sent them the holie Gost, declaring thereby, that he was not onely mindful of his Church, but wolde be the head & mainteiner thereof for euer. VVherein also his mightie power appeareth, who not withstãding that Satan & the worlde resisted neuer so muche against this noble worke, yet by a fewe simple men of no reputation, replenished all the worlde with the founde of his Gospel. And here, in the beginning of the Church, and in the increse therof, we may plainely perceiue the practise and malice which Satan continually vseth, to suppresse, and ouerthrowe the Gospel: he raiseth conspiracies, tumultes, commotions, persecutions, sclanders and all kinde of cruelte. Againe we shal here beholde the prouidence of God, who ouerthroweth his enemies entreprises, deliuereth his Church from the rage of tyrants, strengtheneth, and incourageth his most valiantly and constantly to followe their captaine Christ, leauing as it were by this historie a perpetual memorie to the Church, that the crosse is so ioyned with the Gospel, that they are fellowes inseparable, and that the end of one affliction, is but the beginning of another. Yet neuertheles God turneth the troubles, persecutiõs, imprisonings and tentations of his, to a good issue, giuing them as it were, in sorrowe, ioye: in bandes, fredome: in prison, deliuerãce: in trouble, quietnes: in death, life. Finally, this boke conteineth manie excellent sermons of the Apostles & disciples, as touching the death, resurrection, and ascension of Christ. The mercie of God. Of the grace, and remission of sinne through Iesus Christ. Of the blessed immortalitie. An exhortation to the ministers of Christ: & oke. Of repentance & feare of God. With other principal points of our faith, so that this onelie historie in a maner may be sufficient to instruct a man in all true doctrine and religion.

2 Vntil the day, that he was taken vp, after that he through the holie Gost, had giuen [b] commandemẽts vnto the [c] Apostles, whome he had chosen:
3 To whome also he presented him self aliue after that he had suffred, by manie infallible tokẽs, being sene of them by the space of fourtie dayes, & speaking of those things which apperteine to the [d] kingdome of God.
4 And when he had [e] gathered them together, he commanded them, that they shulde not departe frõ Ierusalem, but to wait for the promes of the Father, ẏ, said he, ye haue heard of me.
5 *For Iohn in dede baptized with water but ye shalbe baptized with the holie Gost within these fewe dayes.
6 When they therefore were come together, they asked of him, saying, Lord, wilt thou [g] at this time restore the kingdome to Israel?
7 And he said vnto them, It is not for you to knowe the [h] times or the seasons, which the Father hathe put in his owne power,
8 But ye shal receiue power of the holie Gost, when he shal come on you: and ye shalbe [i] witnesses vnto me bothe in Ierusalem, & in all Iudea, and in Samaria, and vnto ỹ [k] vttermost parte of ỹ earth.
9 *And when he had spoke these things, while they behelde, he was [l] taken vp: for a cloude toke him vp out of their sight.

19 And it is knowen vnto all the inhabitants of Ierusalem, in so muche, that that field is called in their owne langage, Aceldama, ȳ is, The field of blood.

20 For it is written in the boke of Psalmes, *Let his habitacion be voyde, and let no man dwell therein: *also, Let another take his ʲ charge.

21 Wherefore, of these men which haue companied with vs, all the time that the Lord Iesus was ᵏ conuersant among vs,

22 Beginning frō the Baptisme of Iohn, vnto the day that he was takē vp from vs, must one of them be made a witnes with vs of his ˡ resurrection.

23 And they presented two, Ioseph called Barsabas, whose surname was Iustus, and Matthias.

24 And they prayed, saying, Thou Lord which knowest the hearts of all men, shewe whether of these two ˣ thou hast chosen,

25 That he may take the roume of this ministration and Apostleship, from ẅ Iudas hathe gone astray, to go to his owne place.

CHAP. II.

ª The Apostles hauing receiued the holie Gost, make their hearers astonished. 14 ᵇ When Peter had stopped the mouthes of the mockers, he sheweth by the visible graces of the holie Spirit that Christ is come. 41 He baptizeth a great nomber that were conuerted. 42 The godlie exercise, charitie, and diuers vertues of the faithful.

1 AND when the ª day of Pentecoste was come, they were ᵇ all with one accorde in one place.

2 And * suddenly there came a sounde from heauen, as of a rushing and mightie ᶜ winde, and it filled all ȳ house where they sate.

3 And there appeared vnto them clouen ᵈ tongues, like ᵉ fyre, and it sate vpon eche of them.

4 And they were all filled with the holie Gost, and began to speake with other tongues, as the Spirit gaue them ʲʲ vtterance.

5 And there were dwelling at Ierusalem Iewes, men that feared God, of euerie nation vnder heauen.

6 Now when this was ᶠ noised, the multitude came together and were astonied, because that euerie man heard them speake his owne langage.

7 And they wondred all, and marueiled, saying among them selues, Beholde, are not all these which speake, of Galile?

8 How then heare we euerie man our owne ᵍ langage, wherein we were borne?

9 Parthians, and Medes, and Elamites, and the inhabitants of Mesopotamia, and of Iudea, & of Cappadocia, of Pontus, and Asia,

37 Now when they heard it, they were pricked in their hearts, and said vnto Peter & the other Apostles, Men & brethren, what shal we do?

38 Then Peter said vnto them, Amend your liues, and be [g] baptized euerie one of you in the Name of Iesus Christ for the remission of sinnes: & ye shal receiue the [h] gift of the holie Gost.

11 ¶ And as the creple which was healed, helde Peter and Iohn, all the people ran amased vnto them in the porche which is called Solomons.
12 So when Peter sawe it, he answered vnto the people, Ye men of Israel, why marueile ye at this? or why loke ye so stedfastly on vs, as though by our owne [e] power or godlines, we had made this man go?
13 The GOD of Abraham, and Isaac, and Iacob, the * GOD of our fathers hathe glorified his Sonne Iesus, whome ye betrayed, and denied in the presence of Pilate, when he had iudged him to be deliuered.

14 And beholding also the man ẏ was healed stading with them, they had nothing to say against it.

15 Then they commanded them to go aside out of the Council, and [k] conferred among them selues,

17 But that it be noised no farther among the people, let vs threaten and charge them that they speake henceforthe to no man in this [l] Name.

18 So they called them, and commanded them, that in [m] no wise they shulde speake or teache in the Name of Iesus.

19 But Peter and Iohn answered vnto them, and said, Whether it be right in the sight of God, to obey you rather then God, iudge ye.

20 For we can not but speake the things which we haue [n] sene and heard.

21 So they [o] threatened them, and let them go, and founde nothing how to punish them, because of the people: for all men praised God for that which was done.

22 For the man was aboue fourtie yere olde, on whome this miracle of healing was shewed.

23 Then assone as they were let go, they came to their [p] fellowes, & shewed all that the hie Priests & Elders had said vnto them.

24 And when they heard it, they lift vp their voyces to God with one accorde, & said, O Lord, thou art the God which hast made the heauen and the earth, the sea, & all things that are in them.

2 And [a] kept away parte of the price, his wife also being of counsel, & broght a certeine parte, and laid it downe at the Apostles fete.

3 Then said Peter, Ananias why hathe Satan filled thine heart, that thou shuldest lie vnto the holie [b] Gost, and kepe away parte of the price of the possession?

4 Whiles it remained, [c] apperteined it not vnto thee? and after it was solde, was it not in thine owne [d] power? how is it that thou hast conceiued this thing in thine heart? thou hast not lied vnto mē, but vnto God.

5 Now when Ananias heard these wordes, he fel downe, and gaue vp ẏ gost. Then great feare came on all them that heard these things.

c His sinne therefore was so muche greater in ẏ he comitted it willingly.

d Then no man was compelled to sel his possessions, nor to put his money to the commune vse.

7 And it [e] came to passe about the space of thre houres after, that his wife came in, ignorant of that which was done.
8 And Peter said vnto her, Tell me, solde ye the land for so muche? And she said, Yea, for so muche.
9 Then Peter said vnto her, Why haue ye agreed together, to [f] tempt the Spirit of the Lord? beholde, the fete of them which haue buryed thine husband, are at the dore, and shal carye thee out.
10 Then she fel downe straight way at his fete and yelded vp the goost: and the yong mẽ came in, and founde her dead, and caryed her out and buryed her by her husband.
11 And great feare came on all ỹ Church, and on as many as heard these things.
12 Thus by the hands of the Apostles were many signes and wonders shewed among ỹ people (and they were all with one accorde in [g] Solomons porche.
13 And of the other [h] durst no man ioyne him self to them: neuertheles ỹ people [i] magnified them,

15 In somuche that they broght ỹ sicke into the stretes, and laid them on beddes and couches, that at the least way ỹ shadowe of Peter, whē he came by, might shadowe some of them.
16 There came also a multitude out of the cities rounde about vnto Ierusalem, bringing sicke folkes, & them which were vexed with vncleane spirits, who were all healed.
17 ¶ Then the chief Priest rose vp, & all they that were with him (which was the secte of the [k] Sadduces) and were ful of [l] indignation,
18 And laid hands on the Apostles, and put them in the commune prison.
19 But the Angel of the Lord, by night opened the prison dores, & broght them forthe, and said,
20 Go your way, and stand in the Temple, & speake to the people all ỹ wordes [m] of this life.
21 So when they heard it, they entred into the Temple early in the morning & taught. And the chief Priest came, and they that were with him, and called the Council together, and all the Elders of the children of Israel, and sent to the prison, to cause them to be broght.
22 But when the officers came, and founde them not in the prison, they returned and tolde it,
23 Saying, Certeinely we founde ỹ prison shut as sure as was possible, & the kepers [n] standing without, before the dores: but when we had opened, we founde no man within.
24 Then when the chief Priest, and the captaine of the Temple, and the hie Priests heard these things, they douted of them, whereunto this wolde growe.
25 Then came one and shewed them, saying, Beholde the men that ye put in prison, are standing in the Temple, and teache the people.
26 Then went the captaine with the officers, and broght them without violence (for they feared the people, lest they shulde haue bene stoned)
27 And whē they had broght them, they set them before the Council, and the chief Priest asked them,
28 Saying, Did not we straitely commande you, that ye shulde not teache in this Name? and beholde, ye haue filled [o] Ierusalem with your doctrine, & ye wolde bring this mans [p] blood vpō vs.
29 Then Peter and the Apostles answered, and said, We oght rather to obey God then [q] men.
30 The * God of our fathers hathe raised vp Iesus, whome ye slew, & hanged on a tre.
31 Him hathe God lift vp with his right hand, to be a Prince and a [r] Sauiour, to giue repentance to Israel, and forgiuenes of sinnes.
32 And we are his witnesses concerning these things which we say: yea, and ỹ holie Goost, whome God hathe giuen to them that obey [s] him.
33 Now when they heard it, they brast for anger, and consulted to slay them.
34 Then stode there vp in the Council a certeine Pharise named Gamaliel, a doctour of the Law, honored of all the people, and commanded to put the Apostles forthe a litle space,
35 And said vnto them, Men of Israel, take hede to your selues, what ye entend to do touching these men.
36 For before these times, rose vp [t] Theudas boasting him self, to whome resorted a nomber of men, about a foure hũdreth, who was slayne: and they all ỹ obeied him, were scattered, & broght to noght.
37 After this man, arose vp [v] Iudas of Galile, in the dayes of the tribute, and drewe away muche people after him: he also perished, and all that obeied him, were scattered abroad.
38 And now I say vnto you, refraine your selues from these men, and let them alone: for if this counsel, or this worke be of men it wil come to noght:
39 But if it be of [x] God, ye can not destroy it, lest ye be founde euen fighters against God.

23 Now when he was ful fortie yere olde, it came into his heart to visit his brethren, the children of Israel.

24 *And when he sawe one of them suffer wrong, he defended him, and auenged his quarel that had the harme done to him, & smote the Egyptian.

25 For he supposed his brethren wolde haue vnderstand, that God by his hand shulde giue them deliuerance: but they vnderstode it not.

26 * And the next day, he shewed him self vnto them as they stroue, and wolde haue set them at one againe, sayig, Syrs, ye are brethren: why do ye wrong one to another?

27 But he that did his neighbour wrong, thrust him away, sayig, Who made thee a prince, and a iudge ouer vs?

28 Wilt thou kil me, as thou diddest the Egyptian yesterday?

29 Then fled Moses at that saying, & was a stranger in the land of Madian, where he begate two sonnes.

30 And when fourtie yeres were expired, there appeared to him in the *wildernes of mount Sina, an Angel of the Lord in a flame kof fyre, in a bush.

31 And when Moses sawe it, he wondred at the sight: & as he drewe nere to consider it, the voyce of the Lord came vnto him, saying,

32 I am the lGod of thy fathers, § God of Abraham, and the God of Isaac, & the God of Iacob. Then Moses trembled, & durst not beholde it.

33 Then the Lord said to him, m put of thy shooes from thy fete: for the place where thou standest, is holie grounde.

34 I haue sene, I haue sene the affliction of my people, which is in Egypt, and I haue heard their groning, and am come downe to deliuer them: and now come, and I wil send thee into Egypt.

35 This Moses whome they forsoke, saying, Who made thee a prince and a iudge? the same God sent for a prince, and a deliuerer by the hands of the Angel, which appeared to him in the bush.

36 He *broght them out, doing wonders, and miracles in the land of Egypt, and in the red sea, and in the wildernes *fourtie yeres.

37 This is that Moses, which said vnto the children of Israel, *An Prophet shal the Lord youre God raise vp vnto you, euen of your brethren, like vnto me: him shal ye heare.

38 *This is he that was in the Congregacion, in the wildernes with the oAngel, which spake to him in mount Sina, & with our fathers, who receiued the pliuelie oracles to giue vnto vs.

39 To whome our fathers wolde not obey, but refused, & in their hearts turned backe againe into Egypt,

40 Saying vnto Aaron, *Make qvs gods that may go before vs: for rwe knowe not what is become of this Moses that broght vs out of the land of Egypt.

41 And they made a calfe in those daies, and offred sacrifice vnto the idole, and reioyced in the workes of their owne hands.

42 Then God turned him self away, & *gaue them vp to serue the shoste of heauen, as it is written in the boke of the Prophetes, *tO house of Israel, haue ye offred to me slayne beasts & sacrifices by the space of fourtie yeres in the wildernes?

43 And ye vtoke vp the tabernacle of *Moloch, & the starre of your god Remphan, figures, § ye made to worship them: therefore I wil carie you away beyonde Babylon.

44 Our fathers had the tabernacle of xwitnes in the wildernes, as he had appointed, speaking vnto *Moses, that he shulde make it according to the facion, that he had sene.

45 Which tabernacle also our fathers receiued, and broght in with * Iesus into the possession of the Gentiles, which God draue out before our fathers, vnto the dayes of Dauid.

1 Steuen is lamented & buryed. 3 The rage of the Iewes and of Saul against them. 4 The faithful scattred, preache here and there. 9 Samaria is seduced by Simon the sorcerer but was conuerted by Philippe, and confirmed by the Apostles. 18 The couetousnes and hypocrisie of Simon, 26 And conuersion of the Eunuche.

1 AND Saul consented to his death, and at that time, there was a great persecution against the Church which was at Ierusalem, and they were all scattred abroade through the regions of Iudea and of Samaria, except the Apostles.
2 Then certeine men fearing God, a caryed Steuen amongs them, to be buryed, and made great b lamentation for him.
3 But Saul made hauocke of ỹ Church, and entred into euerie house, and dreawe out bothe men and women, and put them into prison.
4 Therefore they that were scattred abroade, went to and fro preaching the worde.
5 ¶ Then came Philippe into the citie c of Samaria, and preached Christ vnto them.
6 And the people gaue hede vnto those things which Philippe spake, with one accorde, hearing & seing the miracles w he did.
7 For vncleane spirits crying with a loude voyce, came out of many that were possessed of them: and many taken with palsies, and that halted, were healed.
8 And there was great ioye in that citie.
9 And there was before in the citie a certeine man called Simon, which vsed witchecraft, and bewitched the people of Samaria, saying, that he him self was some great man.
10 To whome they d gaue hede from the least to the greatest, saying, This man is the great e power of God.
11 And they gaue hede vnto him, because that of long time he had bewitched them with sorceries.
12 But assone as they beleued Philippe, which preached the things that concerned the kingdome of God, and in the Name of Iesus Christ, they were baptized bothe men and women.
13 Then Simon him self f beleued also and was baptized, & continued with Philippe, and wondred, when he sawe ỹ signes and great miracles which were done.
14 ¶ Now when the Apostles, which were at Ierusalem, heard say, that Samaria had receiued the worde of God, they sent vnto them Peter and Iohn.
15 Which when they were come downe, prayed for them, that they might receiue the holie Goſt.
16 (For as yet, he was come downe on none of them, but they were baptized h onely in the Name of the Lord Iesus)
17 Then laid they their hands on them, and they receiued the holie Goſt.
18 And when Simon sawe, that through laying on of the Apostles hands the holie Goſt was giuen, he offred them money, 9 Where he was thre dayes without sight, and neither ate nor dranke.

10 And there was a certeine disciple at Damascus named Ananias, and to him said the Lord in a vision. Ananias. And he said, Beholde, I am here, Lord.
11 Then the Lord said vnto him, Arise, and go into the strete which is called Straight, and seke in the house of Iudas after one called Saul of Tarsus: for beholde, he prayeth.
12 (And he sawe in a vision a man named Ananias coming in to him, & putting his hands on him that he might receiue his sight.)
13 Then Ananias answered, Lord, I haue heard by many of this man, how muche euil he hathe done to thy saincts at Ierusalem.
14 Moreouer here he hathe autoritie of the hie Priests, to binde all that call on thy Name.
15 Then the Lord said vnto him, Go thy way: for he is [h] chosen vessel vnto me, [i] to beare my Name before the Gētiles, and Kings, and the children of Israel.
16 For I wil shewe him, how many things he must suffre for my Names sake.
17 Then Ananias went his way, and entred into the house, and put his hands on him, and said, Brother Saul, the Lord hathe sent me (euen Iesus that appeared vnto thee in the way as thou camest) ỳ thou mightest receiue thy sight, and be filled with the holie Gost.
18 And immediatly there fel from his eyes as it had bene scales, and suddenly he receiued sight, and arose, and was baptized,
19 And receiued meat, and was strengthened. So was Saul certeine dayes with the disciples which were at Damascus.
20 And straight way he preached Christ in the Synagogues, ỳ he was the Sonne of God,
21 So that all that heard him, were amased, and said, Is not this he, that destroyed them which called on this Name in Ierusalem, and came hither for that intent, that he shulde bring them bounde vnto the hie Priests?
22 But Saul encreased ỳ more in strēgth, and confounded the Iewes which dwelt at Damascus, [k] confirming, that this was the Christ.
23 And after [l] that many dayes were fulfilled the Iewes toke counsel together, to kill him.
24 But their laying await was knowen of Saul: now they [xm] watched the gates day and night, that they might kill him.
25 Thē the disciples toke him by night, and put him through the wall, and let him downe in a basket.
26 And when Saul was come to Ierusalem, he assaied to ioyne him self with the disciples: but they were all afraid of him, and beleued not that he was a disciple.
27 But Barnabas toke him, and broght him to the Apostles, and declared to them, how he had sene the Lord in the way, and that he had spoken vnto him, and how he had spoken boldely at Damascus in the Name of Iesus.
28 And he [n] was conuersant with them at Ierusalem,
29 And spake boldely [o] in the Name of the Lord Iesus, and spake and disputed with the [p] Grecians: but they went about to slay him.
30 But when the brethren knewe it, they broght him to Cesarea, and sent him forthe to [q] Tarsus.
31 Then had the Churches rest through all Iudea, and Galile, and Samaria, and were edified, and walked in the feare of the Lord, and were multiplied by the the comfort of the holie Gost.
32 And it came to passe, as Peter walked through out all quarters, he came also to the saincts which dwelt at Lydda.
33 And there he founde a certeine man named AEneas, which had kept his bed eight yeres, & was sicke of the palsie.
34 Then said Peter to him, AEneas, Iesus Christ maketh thee whole: arise & [u] make vp thy bed. And he arose immediatly.
35 And [r] all that dwelt at Lydda and [s] Saron, sawe him, and turned to the Lord.
36 There was also at Ioppa a certeine woman a disciple named Tabitha (which by interpretation is called [t] Dorcas) she was [w] ful of good workes & almes which she did.
37 And it came to passe in those dayes, ỳ she was sicke & dyed: & when they had [v] washed her, they laid her in an vpper chamber.
38 Now forasmuche as Lydda was nere to Ioppa, & the disciples had heard ỳ Peter was there, they sent vnto him two men, desiring ỳ he wolde not delaye to come vnto them.
39 Then Peter arose & came with them: & when he was come, they broght him into the vpper chamber, where all the widdowes stode by him weping, and shewing the coates and garments, which Dorcas made, while she was with them.
40 But Peter put them all forthe, and kneled downe, and praid, and turned him to the bodie, and said, Tabitha arise. And she opened her eyes, and whē she sawe Peter, sate vp.

CHAP. X.

3 Cornelius admonished by the Angel, 7 He sendeth to Ioppa. 11 The vision that Peter sawe. 17 How he was sent to Cornelius. 19 The Gentiles also receiue the Spirit, & are baptized.

1 FVrthermore there was a certeine man in Cesarea called Cornelius, a captaine of the bande called the Italian bande,
2 A deuout man, and [a] one that feared God with all his housholde, which gaue muche almes to the people, and prayed God continually.
3 He sawe in a vision euidently (about ỹ nine the houre of the day) an Angel of God comming in to him, and saying vnto him. Cornelius.
4 But when he loked on him, he was afraid, and said, What is it, Lord? And he said vnto him, Thy prayers and thine almes are come[b] vp into remembrance before God.
5 Now therefore send men to Ioppa, and call for Simon, whose surname is Peter.
6 He lodgeth with one Simon a tanner, whose house is by the sea side: [||] he shal tell thee what thou oghtest to do.
7 And when the Angel which spake vnto Cornelius, was departed, he called two of his seruants, and a souldier that feared God, one of them that waited on him,
8 And tolde them all things, and sent thē to Ioppa.
9 On the morowe as they went on their iorney, and drewe nere vnto the citie, Peter went vp vpon the house to pray, about the[c] sixt houre.
10 Then waxed he an hungred, & wolde haue eaten: but while they made some thing readie, he fel into a trance.
11 And he sawe heauen opened, and a certeine vessel come downe vnto him, as it had bene a great shete, knit at the foure corners, and was let downe to the earth.
12 Wherein were[d] all maner of foure footed beastes of the earth, and wilde beastes and creping things, and foules of ỹ heauen.
13 And there came a voyce to him, Arise, Peter: kill, and eat
14 But Peter said, Not so, Lord: for I haue neuer eaten any thing that is[||] polluted, or vncleane.
15 And the voyce spake vnto him againe the seconde time, The things that God hathe [e] purified, [f] pollute thou not.
16 This was so done thrise: and the vessel was drawen vp againe into heauen.
17 ¶ Now while Peter douted in him self what this vision which he had sene, meant, beholde, the men which were sent from Cornelius, had inquired for Simons house, and stode at the gate,
18 And called, and asked, whether Simō, which was surnamed Peter, were lodged there.
19 And while Peter thoght on the vision, the Spirit said vnto him, Beholde, thre men seke thee.
20 Arise therefore, and get thee downe, and go with them, and[g] doute nothing: for I haue sent them.
21 ¶ Then Peter went downe to the me, which were sent vnto him from Cornelius, and said, Beholde, I am he whome ye seke: what is the cause wherefore ye are come?
22 And they said, Cornelius the captaine, a iust man, and one that feareth God, & of good reporte among all the nacion of the Iewes, was warned from heauen by an holie Angel, to send for thee into his house, and to heare thy wordes.
23 Then called[||] he them in, and lodged them, and the next day, Peter went forthe with them, and certeine brethren from Ioppa accompanied him.
24 ¶ And the day after, thei entred into Cesarea. Now Cornelius waited for thē, and had called together his kinsmen, and special friends.

4 Peter ſheweth the cauſe wherefore he wēt to the Gentiles: 18 The Church approueth it. 21 The Church increaſeth. 22 Barnabas and Paul preache at Antiochia. 28 Agabus prophecieth dearth to come. 29 And the remedie.

1 NOw the Apoſtles and the brethren that were in Iudea, heard, that the Gentiles had alſo receiued the worde of God.
2 And when Peter was come vp to Ieruſalem, they of the circumciſion[a] contended againſt him,
3 Saying, Thou wenteſt in to men vncircumciſed, and haſt eaten with them.
4 Then Peter began, and expounded the thing in order to [b] them, ſaying,

19 ¶ And thei which were * scattred abroade becausе of the [#] affliction that arose about Steuen, walked throughout til they came vnto Phenice and Cyprus, and Antiochia, preaching the worde to no man, but vnto the Iewes onely.

20 Now some of them were men of Cyrus and of Cyrene, which when they were come into Antiochia, spake vnto the [f] Grecians, and preached the Lord Iesus.

21 And the [g] hand of the Lord was with them so that a great nomber beleued & turned vnto the Lord.

27 In those dayes also came Propheres from Ierusalem vnto Antiochia.

28 And there stode vp one of them named Agabus, and signified by the [k] Spirit, that there shulde be great famine throughout all the worlde, which also came to passe vnder Claudius Cesar.

29 Then the disciples, euerie man according to his habilitie, [l] purposed to send succour vnto the brethren which dwelt in Iudea.

30 Which thing they also did, and sent it to the Elders, by the hand of Barnabas and Saul.

1 Herode persecuteth the Christians. 2 He killeth Iames, 4 And putteth Peter in prison. 7 W̄home the Lord deliuereth by an Angel. 21 The horrible death of Herode. 24 The Gospel floriseth, 25 Barnabas & Saul returning to Antiochia take Iohn Marke with them.

1 NOw about that time, [a] Herode the Kīng stretched forthe his hands to vexe certeine of the Church.

2 And he killed Iames the [b] brother of Iohn with the sworde.

3 And when he sawe that it [c] pleased the Iewes, he proceded further, to take Peter also (then were the daies of vnleauened bread)

4 And when he had caught him, he put him in prison, and deliuered him to [d] foure quaternions of souldiers to be kept, intending after the Passeouer to bring him forthe to the people.

5 So Peter was kept in prison, but earnest prayer was made of the Church vnto God for him.

6 And when Herode wolde haue broght him out vnto ỹ people, thesame night slept Peter betwene two souldiers, bounde with two chaines, and the kepers before the dore kept the prisone.

7 * And beholde, the Angel of ỹ Lord came vpon them, and a light shined in the house, and he smote Peter on the side, and raised him vp, saying, Arise quickely. And his chaines fel of from his hands.

8 And the Angel said vnto him, Girde thy self, and binde on thy [e] sandales. And so he did. Then he said vnto him, cast thy garment about thee, and followe me.

9 So Peter came out and followed him, & knewe not that it was true, which was done by the Angel, but thoght he had sene a vision.

10 Now when they were past the first & the seconde watche, they came vnto the yron gate, that leadeth vnto the citie, which opened to them by it own accorde, and they went out, and passed through one strete, and by and by the Angel departed from him.

11 ¶ And when Peter was come to him self, he said, Now I knowe for a trueth, that the Lord hathe sent his Angel, and hathe deliuered me out of the hand of Herode, & from all the [f] waiting for of the people of the Iewes.

14 But when she knewe Peters voyce, she opened not the entrie dore for gladnes, but ran in, and tolde how Peter stode before the entrie.
15 But they said vnto her, Thou art mad. Yet she affirmed it constantly, that it was so. Then said they, It is his[g] Angel.
16 But Peter continued knocking, and when they had opened it, and sawe him they were astonied.
17 And he beckened vnto them with the hand, to holde their peace, & tolde thē how the Lord had broght him out of the prison. And he said, Go shewe these things vnto Iames and to the brethrē & he departed and went into [h] another place.
18 ¶ Now assone as it was day, there was no smale trouble among the souldiers, what was become of Peter.
19 And when Herode had soght for him and founde him not, he examined the kepers and commanded them to be led to be punished. And he went downe from Iudea to Cesarea, and there obode.
20 Then Herode intended to make warre against them of Tyrus and Sidō, but they came all with one accorde vnto him, & [i] persuaded Blastus the Kings chamberlaine, and they desired peace, because their countrey was nourished by the Kings land.
21 And vpon a day appointed, Herode arayed him self in royal apparel, and sate on the iudgement seat, and made an oration vnto them.
22 And the people gaue a shoute, saying, The voyce of God, and not of man.

Paul and Barnabas are called to preache among the Gentiles. 7 Of Sergius Paulus, and Elymas the sorcerer. 13 The departure of Marke. 14 Paul preacheth at Antiochia. 42 The faith of the Gentiles. 46 The Iewes reiected. 48 Thei that are ordeined to life, beleue. 52 The frute of faith.

1 THere were also in the Church that was at Antiochia, certeine Prophetes and teachers, as Barnabas, and Simeon called Niger, and Lucius of Cyrene, & [a] Manahen (which had bene broght vp with Herode the Tetrarch) and Saul.
2 Now as they[b] ministred to the Lord, & fasted, the holie Gost said, Separate me Barnabas & Saul, for the worke whereunto I haue called them.
3 Then fasted thei and prayed, and laid their hands on them, and let them go.
4 And they, after they were * sent forthe of ỹ holie Gost, came downe vnto Seleucia, and from thence thei sailed to Cyprus.
5 And when thei were at Salamis, they preached the worde of God in the Synagogues of the Iewes: and they had also Iohn to their minister.
6 So when they had gone throughout the yle vnto Paphus, they founde a certeine sorcerer, a false Prophet, being a Iewe, named Barieſus,
7 Which was with the Deputie Sergius Paulus, a prudent man. He called vnto him Barnabas & Saul, & desired to here the worde of God.
8 But Elymas, the sorcerer (for so is his name by interpretaciō) withstode thē, & soght to turne away the Deputie frō the faith.
9 Thē Saul (which also is called Paul) being ful of the holie Gost, set his eyes on him,
10 And said, O ful of all subtilitie & all mischief, the childe of the deuil, & enemie of all righteousnes, wilt thou not cease to peruert the straight [c] waies of ỹ Lord?
11 Now therefore beholde, the hand of the Lord is vpon thee, & thou shalt be blinde, & not se the sunne for a season. And immediatly there fell on him a miste & a darkenes, and he went about, seking some to lead him by the hand.
12 Then the Deputie when he sawe what was done, beleued, and was astonied at the doctrine of the Lord.
13 Now when Paul and they that were w him were departed by ship from Paphus, they came to Perga a citie of Pamphylia: then Iohn departed from them, and returned to Ierusalem.
14 But when they departed from Perga, thei came to [d] Antiochia a citie of Pisidia, and went into the Synagogue on ỹ Sabbath day, and sate downe.
15 And after the lecture of the Law and prophetes, the rulers of the Synagogue sent vnto them, saying, Ye men and brethren, if ye haue anie worde of [e] exhortacion for the people, say on.

22 And after he had taken him away, he raised vp *Dauid to be their King, of whome he witnessed, saying, I haue founde Dauid the sonne of Iesse, a man after mine owne heart, which wil do all things that I wil.

23 Of this mans sede hathe God *according to his promes raised vp to Israel, ỹ Sauiour Iesus:

24 When * Iohn had first preached before his comming the baptisme of repentance to all the people of Israel.

25 And when Iohn had fulfilled his h course, he said, * Whome ye thinke that I am, I am not he: but beholde, there cometh one after me, whose shoe of his fete I am not worthie to lose.

26 Ye men and brethren, children of the generacion of Abraham, and whosoeuer among you feareth God, to you is the i worde of this saluacion sent.

27 For the inhabitants of Ierusalem, & their rulers, because they k knewe him not, nor yet the wordes of the Prophetes, which are l red euerie Sabbath daye, they haue fulfilled them in condemning him.

28 And thogh thei founde no cause of death in him, yet desired they Pilate to kill him.

29 And when they had m fulfilled all things that were written of him, thei toke him downe from the tre, & put him in a sepulchre.

30 But God * raised him vp from the dead.

31 And he was sene manie dayes of them, which came vp with him from Galile to Ierusalem, which are his witnesses vnto the people.

32 And we declare vnto you, that touching the promes made vnto ỹ fathers,

33 God hathe fulfilled it vnto vs their children, in that he n raised vp Iesus, euẽ as it is written in the seconde Psalme, * Thou art my Sõne: this day haue I begotten thee.

34 Now as concerning that he raised him vp from the dead, no more to returne to the graue, he hathe said thus, * I wil giue you the o holie things of Dauid, ẅ are faithful.

35 Wherefore he saith also in another place, * Thou wilt not suffre thine holie one to se corruption.

36 Howbeit, Dauid after he had serued his time by the counsel of God, he slept, and was laid with his fathers, and sawe corruption.

37 But he whome God raised vp, sawe no corruption.

38 Be it knowen vnto you therefore, men & brethren, that through this mã is preached vnto you the forgiuenes of sinnes.

39 And from all things, from ẅ ye colde not be iustified by the Law of Moses, by him euerie one that beleueth, is iustified.

6 They were ware of it, and fled vnto Lystra, and Derbe, cities of Lycaonia, & vnto the region rounde about,

8 ¶ * Now there sate a certeine man at Lystra, impotent in his fete, which was a creple from his mothers wombe, who had neuer walked.

9 He heard Paul speake: who beholding him, and perceiuing that he had faith to be healed,

10 Said with aloude voyce, ‖ Stand vpright on thy fete. And he leaped vp, & walked.

11 Then when the people sawe what Paul had done, thei lift vp their voyces, saying in the speache of Lyconia, Gods are come downe to vs in the likenes of men.

12 And thei called Barnabas, Iupiter, & Paul, Mercurius, because he was ỹ chief speaker.

13 Then Iupiters priest, which was before their citie, broght bulles with [b] garlandes vnto the [c] gates, & wolde haue sacrificed with the people.

14 But when the Apostles, Barnabas and Paul heard it, thei [d] rent their clothes, & ran in among the people, crying,

19 Then there came certeine Iewes from Antiochia & Iconium, which when they had persuaded ỹ people, ‖ * stoned Paul, and drewe him out of ỹ citie, supposing he had bene dead.

23 And when they had ordeined them Elders by [i] election in euerie Church, and praied, and fasted, they commended them to the Lord in whome they beleued.

24 Thus they went through out Pisidia, & came to Pamphilia.

25 And when they had preached the worde in Perga, they came downe to Attalia,

26 And thẽce sailed to Antiochia, * from whence they had bene commended vnto the grace of God, to the worke which they had fulfilled.

1 Variance about circumcision. 22 The Apostles send their determination to the Churches. 35 Paul and Barnabas preache at Antiochia, 39 And separate companie because of Iohn Marke.

a As Cerinthus and others: so writteth Epiphanius against the Cerinthias: also the fame of the place whence they came, did muche preuaile to persuade abrode. Gal.5,1.

THen came downe [a] certeine from Iudea, and taught the brethren, saying, * Except ye be circumcised after the maner of Moses, ye can not be saued.
2 And when there was great dissention, and disputacion by Paul & Barnabas against them, they ordeined that Paul and Barnabas, and certeine other of them, shulde go vp to Ierusalem vnto the Apostles & Elders about this question.
3 Thus being sent forthe by the Church, they passed through Phenice, and Samaria, declaring the conuersion of the Gentiles: and they broght great ioye vnto all the brethren.
4 And when they were come to Ierusalem, they were receiued of the Church, and of the Apostles and Elders, & they declared what things God had done by them.
5 But said they, certeine of the secte of the [b] Pharises, which did beleue, rose vp, saying, that it was nedeful to circumcise them, and to commande them to kepe the Law of Moses.
6 Then the Apostles & Elders came together to loke to this matter.
7 And whē there had bene great disputatiō, Peter rose vp, & said vnto them, * Ye men & brethren, ye knowe that a good while ago, among vs God chose out me, that the Gentiles by my mouth shulde heare the worde of the Gospel, and beleue.
8 And God which knoweth the hearts, bare them witnes, in giuing vnto them the holie Gost, euen as he did vnto vs.
9 And he put not [c] difference betwene vs & them, after that by faith he [d] had * purified their hearts.
10 Now therefore, why [e] tempt ye God, to * lay a yoke on the disciples neckes, which nether our fathers, nor we were able to beare?
11 But we beleue, through the [f] grace of the Lord Iesus Christ to be saued, euen as they do.
12 Then all the multitude kept silence, and heard Barnabas & Paul, which tolde what signes and wondres God had done among the Gentiles by them.
13 And when they helde their peace, Iames answered, saying, Men & brethren, hearken vnto me.
14 * Simeon hathe declared, how God first did visite the Gentiles, to take of them a people vnto his Name.
15 And to this agre the wordes of the Prophetes, as it is written,
16 * After this I wil returne, & wil buylde againe the [g] tabernacle of Dauid, which is fallen downe, and the ruines thereof wil I buylde againe, and I wil set it vp,
17 That the residue of men might seke after the Lord, and all the [h] Gentiles vpon whome my Name is called, saith the Lord which doeth all these things.
18 From the beginning of the worlde God knoweth all his workes.
19 Wherefore my sentence is, that we trouble not them of the Gentiles that are turned to God,
20 But that we write vnto them, ỹ they abstein̄e them selues from [i] filthines of idoles, and [k] fornication, and that that is strangled, and from blood ‖.
21 For [l] Moses of olde time hathe in euerie citie them that preache him, seing he is red in the Synagogues euerie Sabbath day.
22 Then it semed good to the Apostles & Elders with the whole Church, to send chosen men of their owne companie to Antiochia, with Paul and Barnabas: to wit, Iudas whose surname was Barsabas and Silas, which were chief men among the brethren,
23 And wrotte letters by them after this maner, THE APOSTLES, AND the Elders, & the brethren, vnto the brethren which are of the Gentiles in Antiochia, & in Syria, and in Cilicia, send greting.
24 Forasmuche as we haue heard, that certeine which departed from vs, haue troubled you with wordes, and cumbred your mindes, saying, Ye must be circumcised & kepe ỹ Law: to whome we gaue no suche commandement,
25 It semed therefore good to vs, when we were come together with one accorde, to send chosen men vnto you, with our beloued Barnabas and Paul,
26 Men that haue giuē vp their liues for the Name of our Lord Iesus Christ.
27 We haue therefore sent Iudas and Silas, which shal also tell you the same things by mouth.
28 For it semed good to the holie Gost, and [m] to vs to lay no more burden vpon you, then these necessarie things, 29 That is, that ye abstein from things offered to idoles, and blood, and that that is strangled, and from fornication: ‖ from which if ye kepe your selues, ye shal do wel. Fare ye wel.

CHAP. XVII.

1 Paul commeth to Thessalonica, 4 Where some receiue him, and others persecute him. 11 To searche the Scriptures. 17 He disputeth at Athens, and the frute of his doctrine.

1 NOw as they passed through Amphi polis, and Apollonia, they came to Thessalonica, where was a Synagogue of the Iewes.
2 And Paul, as his maner was, went in vnto them, & thre Sabbath dayes disputed with them by the Scriptures,
3 Opening, and alledging ỹ Christ must haue suffred, and risen againe from the dead: and this is Iesus Christ, whome said he, I preache to you.
4 And some of them beleued, & ioyned in companie with Paul and Silas: also of the Greciās that feared God a great multitude, & of the chief women not a fewe.
5 But the Iewes which beleued not, moued with enuie, toke vnto them certei-ne vagabondes & wicked fellowes, and when they had assembled the multitude, they made a tumulte in the citie, &
made assaut against the house of Iason, & soght to bring them out to the people.
6 But when they founde them not, they drewe Iason & certeine brethren vnto the heades of the citie, crying, These are they which haue subuerted the state of the worlde, and here they are,
7 Whome Iason hathe receiued, and these all do against the decrees of Cesar, saying that there is another [a] King, one Iesus.
8 Then they troubled the people, and the heads of the citie, when they heard these things.
9 Notwithstanding when they had recei ued [o] sufficient assurance of Iason and of the other, they let them go.
10 And ỹ brethren immediatly sent away
Paul & Silas by night vnto Berea, which when they were come thither, entred into the Synagogue of the Iewes.
11 These were also [b] more noble men then they which were at Thessalonica, which receiued the worde with all rea dines, and * searched the Scriptures daily, [c] whether those things were so.
12 Therefore manie of them beleued, & of honeste womē, which were Grecians, and men not a fewe.

15 And they ỹ u did conduit Paul, brought him vnto Athenes: and when they had receiued a commandement vnto Silas and Timotheus that they shulde come to him at once, they departed.

16 ¶ Now while Paul waited for them at Athenes, his spirit was stirred in him, when he sawe the citie d subiect to idolatrie.

17 Therefore he disputed in the Synagogue with the Iewes, and with them that were religious, and in the market daily e with whome soeuer he met.

18 Then certeine philosophers of the f Epicures, and of the g Storickes, disputed with him, and some said, What wil this u babler say? Others said, He semeth to be a setter forthe of strange gods (because he preached vnto them Iesus, & the resurrection.)

19 And they toke him, and brought him into h Mars strete, saying, May we not knowe, what this new doctrine, whereof thou speakest, is?

20 For thou bringest certeine strange things vnto our eares: we wolde knowe therefore, what these things meane.

21 For all the Athenians, and strangers which dwelt there, u gaue them selues to nothing els, but either to tel, or to heare some newes.

29 *For asmuche then, as we are the generacion of God, we ought not to thinke ỹ the Godhead is like vnto p gold, or siluer, or stone grauen by arte and the inuencion of man.

30 And the time of this ignorance God q regarded not: but now he admonisheth r all men euerie where to repent,

31 Because he hathe appointed a day in the which he wil iudge the worlde in righteousnes, by that man whome he hathe appointed, whereof he hathe giue an assurance to all men, in that he hathe raised him from the dead.

32 Now when they heard of the resurrection from ỹ dead, some mocked, & other said, We wil heare thee againe of this thing.

Chap. 13, 32. mat. 16, 14.

e Because they haue none excuse, he denouceth ỹ vengeance of God against thē through their owne faute.

7 So he departed thence, and entred into a certaine mans house, named Iustus, a worshipper of God, whose house ioyned hard to the Synagogue,

8 And * Crispus the chief ruler of the Synagogue, beleued in the Lord with all his household: and many of the Corinthians hearing it, beleued & were baptized.

1.Cor.1,14.

9 Then said the Lord to Paul in ỹ night by a vision, Feare not, but speake, & holde not thy peace.

10 For [f] I am with thee, and no man shal lay hands on thee to hurt thee: for I haue muche people in this citie.

f God promiseth him a special protection, whereby he wold defende him from the violēt rage of his enemies.

11 So he continued there a yere and six moneths, and taught the worde of God among them.

12 ¶ Now whē Gallio was Deputie of [g] Achaia, the Iewes arose with one accorde against Paul, and broght him to the iudgement seat, g Or, Grecia.

13 Saying, This fellow persuadeth mē to worship God contrary to the [5] Law.

g They accused him because he transgressed the seruice of God appointed by ghe Law.

14 And as Paul was about to open his mouth, Gallio said vnto the Iewes, If it were a matter of wrong or an euil dede, ô ye Iewes, I wolde according to reason mainteine you.

15 But if it be a question of wordes, and names, & of your Law, loke ye to it your selues: for I wil be no iudge of those things.

16 And he draue them from the iudgement seat.

17 Then toke all the Grecians [h] Sosthenes the chief ruler of the Synagogue, and bet him before the iudgement seat: but Gallio cared nothing for those things.

h Of whome is spoken.1.Co.1,1.

18 But when Paul had taried there yet a good while, he toke leaue of ỹ brethrē, & sailed into Syria (and with him Priscilla and Aquila) after ỹ he had [i] shorne his head in Cenchrea: for he had a * vowe.

i paul did thus beare with the Iewes infirmities which as yet were not sufficiently instructed. Numb.6,18. chap.21,24.

19 Then he came to Ephesus, and left thē there: but he entred into the Synagogue and disputed with the Iewes.

20 Who desired him to tary a lōger time with them: but he wolde not consent,

21 But bad them farewel, saying, I must nedes kepe this feast that commeth, in Ierusalem: but I wil returne againe vnto you, * if God wil. So he sailed from Ephesus.

2.Cor.4,19. iam.4,15.

22 ¶ And when he came downe to [k] Cesarea, he went vp to Ierusalem: & when he had saluted the Church, he went downe vnto Antiochia.

k Called Cesarea Stratonis.

23 Now when he had taried there a while, he departed, and went through ỹ countrey of Galacia & Phrygia by order, strengthening all the disciples.

24 And a certeine Iewe named * Apollos, borne at Alexandria, came to Ephesus, an eloquent man, & [l] mightie in the Scriptures.

2.Cor.2,12.

l Or, wel instructed.

25 The same was [l] instructed in the way of the Lord, & he spake feruently in the Spirit, and taught diligently the things of the Lord, & knewe but the [m] baptisme of Iohn onely.

l That is, was some what entred.

m He had but as yet the first principles of Christs religiō: and by baptisme is here mēt the doctrine.

26 And he began to speake boldly in the Synagogue. Whome when Aquila & Priscilla had heard, they toke him vnto them, and [n] expounded vnto him the [o] way of God more perfectly.

n This great learned, and eloquent man disdained not to be taught of a poore craftes man.

o The way to saluation.

27 And when he was minded to go into Achaia, the brethren exhorting him, wrote to the disciples to receaue him: and after he was come thither, he holpe thē muche which had beleued through grace.

28 For mightely he confuted publikely the Iewes with great vehemencie, shewing by the Scriptures, that Iesus was the Christ.

CHAP. XIX.

6 The holie Gost is giuen by Pauls hands. 9 The Iewes blaspheme his doctrine, which was cōfirmed by miracles. 13 The rashenes and punishement of the coniurers, & the frute that came thereof. 24 Demetrius raiseth sedition vnder pretēce of Diana. 41 Yet God deliuereth his and appeaseth it by the towne clarke.

1 AND it came to passe, while Apollos was at Corinthus, that Paul when he passed through the vpper coastes, came to Ephesus, and founde certeine disciples, a That is, the particular gifts of the Spirit: for as yet they knewe not ỹ visible gifts. Mat.3,11. mar.1,8. luk.3,16. iohn.1,27. chap.1,5. & 2,2. & 11,16.

2 And said vnto them, Haue ye receiued the [a] holie Gost sence ye beleued? And they said vnto him, We haue not so muche as heard whether there be an holie Gost.

3 And he said vnto them, [b] Vnto what were ye then baptized? And they said, Vnto Iohns baptisme.

b Meaning, what doctrine they did professe by their baptisme for to be baptized in Iohns baptisme signifieth to professe the doctrine which he taught, & sealed with the signe of baptisme: to be baptized in the Name of the Father, &c. is to be dedicate and consecrate vnto him to be baptized in ỹ death of Christ, or for the dead, or into one bodie, vnto remission of sinnes, is, that sinne by Christs death may be abolished, and dye in vs, & ỹ we may growe in Christ our head, and ỹ our sinnes may be washed away by the blood of Christ.

4 Then said Paul, *Iohn verely baptized with the baptisme of repentāce, saying vnto the people, that they shulde beleue in him, which shulde come after him, that is, in Christ Iesus.

5 So when they heard it, they were [c] baptized in the Name of the Lord Iesus.

c Endewed with the visible graces of the holie Gost.

6 And Paul laid his hands vpon them, and ỹ holie Gost came on them, & they spake the tongues, and prophecied.

7 And all the men were about twelue.

8 ¶ Moreouer he went into the Synagogue, & spake boldely for the space of thre moneths, disputing & exhorting to the things that apperteine to the kingdome of God.

9 But when certeine were hardened, and disobeyed, speaking euil of ỹ way of God before ỹ multitude, he departed from them, and separated the disciples, and disputed daily in the schole of one [d] Tyrannus ‖.

10 And this was done by the space of two yeres, so that all they which dwelt in Asia, heard the worde of the Lord Iesus, bothe Iewes and Grecians.

11 And God wroght no smale miracles by the hands of Paul,

12 So that from his bodie were broght vnto the sicke, [‖] kerchefs [e] or handkerchefs, and the diseases departed from them, and the euil spirits went out of them.

13 Then certeine of the vagabonde Iewes, [f] exorcistes, toke in hand to name ouer them which had euil spirits, the Name of the Lord Iesus, saying, We adiure you by Iesus, whome Paul preacheth.

14 (And there were certaine sonnes of Sceua a Iewe the Priest, about seuē which did this)

15 And the euil spirit answered, and said, Iesus I acknowledge, and Paul I knowe: but who are ye?

16 And the man in whome the euil spirit was, ran on them, & ouercame them, & preuailed against them, so that they fled out of that house, naked, and wounded.

17 And this was knowen to all the Iewes & Grecians also, which dwelt at Ephesus, & feare came on them all, and the Name of the Lord Iesus was magnified.

18 And many that beleued, came and confessed, and [g] shewed their workes.

19 Many also of them which vsed curious artes, broght their bokes, and burned them before all men, and they counted the price of them, & founde it [h] fiftie thousand pieces of siluer.

20 So the worde of God grewe mightely, and preuailed.

21 ¶ Now when these things were accomplished, Paul purposed [i] by the Spirit to passe through Macedonia and Achaia, and to go to Ierusalem, saying, After I haue bene there, I must also se Rome.

22 So sent he into Macedonia two of them that ministred vnto him, Timotheus and Erastus, but he remained in Asia for a season.

23 And the same time there arose no smale trouble about that [k] way.

24 For a certeine man named Demetrius a siluersmith, which made siluer [‖] temples of Diana, [l] broght great gaines vnto the craftes men:

25 Whome he called together, with the workemen of like things, and said, Sirs, ye knowe that by this crafte [m] we haue our goods.

26 Moreouer ye se and heare, that not alone at Ephesus, but almoste through out all Asia this Paul hathe persuaded, & turned away muche people, saying, That they be no gods which are made with hands.

27 So that not onely this thing is dangerous vnto vs, [n] that the state shulde be reproued, but also that the [o] temple of the great goddesse Diana shulde be nothing estemed, and that it wolde come to passe that her magnificence, which all Asia, and the [p] worlde worshippeth, shulde be destroyed.

28 Now when they heard it, they were ful of wrath, & cryed out, saying, Great is Diana of the Ephesians.

29 And the whole citie was ful of confusion, and they rushed into the commune place with one assent, and caught *Gaius, and *Aristarchus, men of Macedonia, & Pauls companions of his iourney.

30 And when Paul wolde haue entred in vnto the people, the disciples suffred him not.

31 Certeine also of ỹ chief of Asia which were his frieds, sent vnto him disiering him that he wolde not present him self in the commune place.

32 Some therefore cryed one thing, and some another: for the assemblie was out of order, and the more parte knewe not wherefore they were come together.

33 And some of the companie [q] drewe forthe Alexander, the Iewes thrusting him forwardes. Alexander then beckened with the hand, and wolde haue excused the matter to the people.

34 But when they knewe that he was a Iewe, there arose a shoute almoste for ỹ space of two houres, of all men crying, Great is Diana of the Ephesians.

35 Then the towne clarke when he had stayed the people, said, Ye mē of Ephesus, what mā is it that knoweth not how that the citie of the Ephesians is a worshipper of the great goddesse Diana, & of the image, which came downe from [r] Iupiter?

36 Seing then that no man can [s] speake against these things, ye ought to be appeased, and to do nothing rashly.

37 For ye haue broght hither these men, which haue nether commit sacrilege, nether do blaspheme your goddesse.

38 Wherefore, if Demetrius and ỹ craftes men which are with him, haue a matter against any mā, the lawe is open, & there are Deputies: let thē accuse one another.

39 But if ye inquire anie thing cōcerning other matters it maye be determined

CHAP. XX.

Paul goeth into Macedonia and into Grecia 7 He celebrateth the Lords supper and preacheth. 9 At Troas he raiseth vp Eutychus. 17 At Ephesus he calleth the Elders of the Church together, committeth the keping of Gods flocke vnto them, warneth them of false teachers, maketh his prayer with them, and departeth by ship towards Ierusalem.

1 NOw after the tumulte was ceased, Paul called the disciples vnto him, and embraced them, and departed to go into Macedonia.
2 And when he had gone through those parties, and had exhorted them with manie wordes, he came into Grecia.
3 And hauing taried there thre moneths, because the Iewes laid waite for him, as he was about to saile into Syria, he purposed to returne through Macedonia.
4 And there accompanied him in to Asia Sopater of Berea, and of them of Thessalonica, Aristarchus, and Secundus, & Gaius of Derbe, and Timotheus, & of them of Asia Tychicus, and Trophimus.
5 These went before, & taried vs at Troas.
6 And we sailed forthe from [a] Philippi, after the daies of vnleauened bread, & came vnto them to Troas in fiue daies, where we abode seuen daies.
7 And [b] the first day of the weke, the disciples being come together to [c] breake bread, Paul preached vnto them, readie to departe on the morowe, and continued the preaching vnto midnight.
8 And there were manie lightes in an vpper chamber, where [n] they were gathered together.
9 And there sate in a windowe a certeine yong [o] man named Eutychus, fallen into a depe slepe: & as Paul was long preaching, he ouercome with slepe fell downe from the third lofte, and was taken vp dead.
10 But Paul went downe, and laid him self vpon him, & embraced him, saying, Trouble not your selues, for his life is in him.
11 So when Paul was come vp againe, and had broken bread, & eaten, he commoned a long while til the dawning of the daye, and so he departed.
12 And they brought the boie aliue, and thei were not a litle comforted.
13 ¶ Then we went forthe to ship, & sailed vnto the citie [d] Assos, that we might receiue Paul there: for so had he appointed, and wolde him self go a fote.
14 Now when he was come vnto vs to Assos, and we had receiued him, we came to Mitylenes, 15 And we sailed thence, and came the next day ouer against Chios, and the next daye we arriued at Samos, and taried at Trogyllium: the next daye we came to Miletum.
16 For Paul had determined to saile by Ephesus, because he wolde not spend the time in Asia: for he hasted to be, if he colde possible, at Ierusalem, at the day of [p] Pentecoste.
17 ¶ Wherefore from Miletum he sent to Ephesus, & called the Elders of the Church.
18 Who when they were come to him, he said vnto them, Ye knowe from the first day that I came into Asia, after what maner I haue bene with you at all seasons,
19 [e] Seruing the Lord with all [f] modestie, and with manie teares, and tentacions, which came vnto me by the layings awaite of the Iewes,
20 And how I kept [g] backe nothing that was profitable, but haue shewed you, & taught you openly, & throughout euerie house,
21 Witnessing bothe to the Iewes, & to the Grecians the [h] repentance towarde God, & [i] faith towarde our Lord Iesus Christ.
22 And now beholde, I go [k] bounde in the spirit vnto Ierusalem, and knowe not what things shal come vnto me there,

24 But I passe not at all, nether is my [m] life deare vnto my self, so that I may fulfil my course with ioye, and the ministracion which I haue receiued of the Lord Iesus, to testifie the Gospel of the grace of God.
25 And now beholde I know that hence forthe ye all, through whome I haue gone preaching the kingdome of God, shal see my face no more.
26 Wherefore I take you to recorde this day, that I am pure from the [m] blood of all men.
27 For I haue kept nothing backe, but haue shewed you [n] all the counsel of God.

ỹ commune prayers of the faithful. 8 Philippes foure daughters propheteſſes. 23 Pauls conſtancie to beare the croſſe, as Agabus & others forſpake, although he was otherwiſe counſeled by the brethren. 28 The greate danger that he was in, and how he eſcaped.

1 AND as we launched forthe, and were departed from them we came ẅ a ſtraight courſe vnto Coos, and ỹ daye following vnto the Rhodes, & frō thence vnto Patara.

2 And we founde a ſhip that went ouer vnto Phenice, and went aboarde, & ſet forthe.

3 And when we had diſcouered Cyprus, we left it on the left hand, and ſailed towarde Syria, and arriued at Tyrus: for there the ſhip vnladed the burden.

4 And when we had founde diſciples, we taryed there ſeuen daies. And they tolde Paul a through the b Spirit, that he ſhulde not go vp to Ieruſalem.

5 But when the daies were ended, we departed, and went our way, and thei all accompanied vs with their wiues and children, euen out of the citie: & we kneling downe on the ſhore, prayed.

6 Then when we had embraced one another, we toke ſhip, & thei returned home.

8 And ỹ next day, Paul & thei that were with him, departed, and came vnto Ceſarea: and we entred into the houſe of *Philippe the Euangeliſt, which was one of the e ſeuen Deacons, and abode with him.

9 Now he had foure daughters virgines, which did prophecie.

10 And as we taryed there manie dayes, there came a certeine Prophet from Iudea, named Agabus.

11 And when he was come vnto vs, he toke Pauls girdle, and bounde his owne hands and fete, and ſaid, d Thus ſaith the holie Goſt, So ſhal the Iewes at Ieruſalem *binde the man that oweth this girdle, and ſhal deliuer him into the hands of the Gentiles.

12 And when we had heard theſe things, bothe we and other of the ſame place beſought him that he wolde not go vp to Ieruſalem.

13 Then Paul anſwered, and ſaid, What do ye weping and breaking mine heart? For I am readie not to be bounde onely, but alſo to dye at Ieruſalem for the Name of the Lord Ieſus.

14 So when he wolde not be perſuaded, we ceaſed, ſaying, The wil of the Lord be done.

15 And after thoſe dayes we truſſed vp our fardelles, and went vp to Ieruſalem.

16 There went with vs alſo certeine of the diſciples of Ceſarea, & broght with them one Mnaſon of Cyprus, an olde diſciple, with whome we ſhulde lodge.

17 And whē we were come to Ieruſalem, the brethren receiued vs gladly.

18 And the next daye Paul went in with vs vnto f Iames: and all the Elders were there aſſembled.

19 And when he had embraced thē, he tolde by ordre all things, that Gōd had wroght among the Gentiles by his miniſtracion.

20 So when thei heard it, they glorified the Lord, and ſaid vnto him, Thou ſeeſt, brother, how manie thouſand Iewes there are which beleue, and they are all zealous of the Law.

22 What is then to be done? the multitude must nedes come together: for they shal heare that thou art come.

23 Do therefore this ẏ we saye to thee. We haue [h] foure men, which haue made a vowe.

25 For as touching the Gentiles, which beleue, we haue written, and determined *that thei obserue no suche thing, but that they kepe them selues from things offred to idoles, and from blood, and frō that that is strangled, and from fornication.

26 Then Paul toke ẏ men, and the next day was purified with them, and entred into the Temple, * declaring ẏ accomplishment of the daies of ẏ purification, vntil that an offering shulde be offered for euerie one of them.

27 And when the seuen dayes were almoste ended, the Iewes which were of Asia (when they sawe him in the Temple) moued all ẏ people, and [k] laid hands on him,

28 Crying, Men of Israel, helpe: this is ẏ man that teacheth all men euery where against the people, and the Law, and this place: moreouer, he hathe broght Grecians into the Temple, and hathe [l] polluted this holie place.

29 For they had sene before Trophimus an Ephesiā with him in the citie, whome they supposed that Paul had broght into the Temple.

30 Then all the citie was moued, & the people rā together: and they toke Paul, and drewe him out of the Temple, & forthewith the dores were shut.

31 But as they went about to kill him, tydings came vnto the chief Captaine of the bande, that all Ieruſalem was on an vproare.

32 Who immediatly toke souldiers and [m] Centurions, and ran [n] downe vnto thē: and when they sawe the chief Captaine & the souldiers, they left beating of Paul.

33 Then ẏ chief Captaine came nere and toke him, & commanded him to be bounde with two chaines, and demāded who he was, and what he had done.

34 And one cryed this, another that, among the people. So when he colde not knowe the certeinetie for the tumulte, he commanded him to be led into the castle.

35 And when he came vnto the grieces, it was so that he was borne of the souldiers, for the violence of the people.

36 For the multitude of the people followed after, crying, Away with him.

37 And as Paul shulde haue bene led into the castle, he said vnto the chief Captaine, May I speake vnto thee? Who said, Canst thou speake Greke?

38 Art not thou the *[o] Egyptian, who before these dayes raised a sedition, & led out into the wildernes foure thousand men that were murtherers?

39 Then Paul said, Douteles I am a man which am a Iewe, & citizen of * Tarsus, a famous citie in Cilicia, & I beseche thee, suffre me to speake vnto the people.

40 And when he had giuē him licence, Paul stode on the grieces, & beckened with the hand vnto the people: and when there was made great silence, he spake vnto them in the Hebrue tongue, saying,

10 The I said, What shal I do, Lord? And the Lord said vnto me, Arise, and go into Damascus: and there it shalbe tolde thee of all things, which are appointed for thee to do.

11 So when I colde not se for the glorie of that light, I was led by the hand of them that were with me, and came into Damascus.

12 And one Ananias a godlie man, as pertaining to the Law, hauing good reporte of all the Iewes which dwelt there,

13 Came vnto me, and stode, and said vnto me, Brother Saul, receiue thy sight. & that same houre I loked vpon him.

14 And he said, The God of our fathers hathe [c] appointed thee, that thou shuldest knowe his wil, and shuldest se that [d] Iust one, and shuldest heare the voyce of his mouth.

15 For thou shalt be his witnes vnto all men of the things, which thou hast sene and heard.

16 Now therefore why tariest thou? Arise, and be baptized, and washe away thy sinnes, in calling on the [e] Name of the Lord.

17 ¶ And it came to passe, that whē I was come againe to Ierusalem, and prayed in the Temple, I was in a traunce,

18 And sawe him saying vnto me, Make haste, & get thee quickely out of Ierusalem: for they wil not receiue thy witnes concerning me.

19 Then I said, Lord, they knowe that I *prisoned, and bet in euerie Synagogue them that beleued in thee.

20 And when ŷ blood of thy martyr Steuen was shed, I also *stode by, and consented vnto his death, and kept ŷ clothes of them that slewe him.

21 Then he said vnto me, Departe: for I wil send thee farre hence vnto the Gentiles.

22 ¶ And they heard vnto this worde, but then they lift vp their voyces, and said, Away w̄ suche a felowe frō ŷ earth: for it is not mete that he shulde liue.

23 And as they cryed and cast of their clothes, and threwe dust into the aire,

24 The chief captaine commanded him to be led into the castle, & bad that he he shulde be scourged, and examined, that he might knowe wherefore they cryed so on him.

25 And as they bounde him with thōgs, Paul said vnto the Centurion that stode by, Is it lawful for you to scourge one that is a [f] Romaine, and not condemned?

26 Now when the Centurion heard it, he went, and tolde the chief captaine, saying, Take hede what thou doest: for this man is a Romaine.

27 Then the chief captaine came, and said to him, Tell me, art thou a Romaine? And he said, Yea.

28 And the chief captaine answered, With a great summe obteined I this burgesship. Then Paul said, But I was [g] so borne.

29 Then straight way they departed frō him, which shulde haue examined him: & the chief captaine also was afraid, after he knewe that he was a Romaine, and that he had bounde him.

30 On the next day, because he wolde haue knowen the certeinetie wherefore he was accused of the Iewes, he losed him from his bondes, & commāded the hie Priests and all their Council to come together: and he broght Paul, and set him before them.

1 And Paul behelde earnestly ŷ Coūcil, and said, Men and brethren, I haue in all good conscience serued God vntil this day.

2 Then the hie Priest Ananias commanded them that stode by, to smite him on the mouth.

3 Then said Paul to him, God [a] wil smite thee, thou whited wall: for thou sittest to iudge me according to the Law, and commandest thou me to be smiten contrary to the Law?

4 And thei that stode by, said, Reuilest thou Gods hie Priest?

5 Then said Paul, [b] I knewe not, brethrē, that he was the hie Priest: for it is written, * Thou shalt not speake euil of the Ruler of thy people.

6 But when Paul perceiued that the one parte were of the Sadduces, and the other of the Pharises, he cried in the Council, Men and brethren, * I am a Pharise, the sonne of a Pharise: I am accused of the hope and [c] resurrection of the dead.

7 And when he had said this, there was a dissension betwene the Pharises and the Sadduces, so that the multitude was deuided,

8 *For the Sadduces say that there is no resurrectiō, nether Angel, nor spirit: but the Pharises confesse [d] bothe.

9 Then there was a great crye: & ŷ Scribes of the Pharises parte rose vp, and stroue, saying, We finde none euil in this man: but if a spirit or an Angel hathe spoken to him, let vs not fight against God.

11 ¶ Now the night following the Lord stode by him, & said, Be of good courage, Paul: for as thou hast testified of me in Ierusalem, so must thou beare witnes also at Rome.

12 And when the day was come, certeine of the Iewes made an assemblie, and bounde thē selues with an [c] othe, saying, that thei wolde nether eat nor drinke, til they had killed Paul.

13 And they were more thē fourtie, which had made this conspiracie.

14 And they came to the chief Priests and Elders, and said, We haue bounde our selues with a solemne othe, that we wil eat nothing, vntil we haue slaine Paul.

15 Now therefore, ye and ỹ Council signifie to ỹ chief captaine, that he bring him forthe vnto you to morow, as thogh ye wolde knowe some thing more perfitely of him, and we, or euer he come nere, wil be readie to kil him.

16 But when Pauls sisters [f] sonne heard of their laying awaite, he went, and entred into the castle, and tolde Paul,

17 And Paul called one of the Centurions vnto him, & said, Bring this yong man vnto the chief captaine: for he hathe a certeine thing to shewe him.

18 So he toke him, and broght him to the chief captaine, and said, Paul the prisoner called me vnto him, and prayed me to bring this yong man vnto thee, which hathe some thing to say vnto thee.

19 Then the chief captaine toke him by the hand, and went aparte with him alone, and asked him, What hast thou to shewe me?

20 And he said, The Iewes haue conspired to desire thee, ỹ thou woldest bring forthe Paul to morow into the Council, as thogh they wolde inquire somewhat of him more perfitely.

21 But let them not persuade thee: for there lie in waite for him of thē, more then fourtie men, which haue bounde them selues with an othe, that they wil nether eat nor drinke, til they haue killed him: and now are they readie, and wait for thy promes.

22 The chief captaine then let the yong man departe, and charged him to speake it to no man, that he had [l] shewed him these things.

23 And he called vnto him two certeine Centuriōs, saying, Make readie two hūdreth souldiers, that they may go to Cesarea and horsmen thre score and ten, and two hundreth, with dartes at the thirde houre of the night.

24 And let them make readie an horse ỹ Paul being set on, may be broght safe vnto Felix the Gouernour.

25 And he wrote an [g] epistle in this maner,

26 Claudius Lysias vnto ỹ moste noble Gouernour Felix sendeth greting.

27 As this man was taken of the Iewes, and shuide haue bene killed of them, I came vpon them with the garison, and rescued him, [h] perceiuing that he was a Romaine.

28 And when I wolde haue knowen the cause, wherefore they accused him, I broght him forthe into their council.

29 There I perceiued ỹ he was accused of questions of their Law, but had no crime worthie of death, or of bondes.

30 And when it was shewed me, how that the Iewes laid wait for the man, I sent him straight way to thee, and commanded his accusers to speake before thee the things that they had against him. Fare wel.

31 Then the souldiers as it was cōmanded them, toke Paul, and broght him by night to Antipatris.

32 And the next day, they left the horsmen to go with him, and returned vnto the castel.

33 Now when they came to Cesarea, they deliuered the epistle to the Gouernour, & presented Paul also vnto him.

34 So when the Gouernour had red it, he asked of what [i] prouince he was: and when he vnderstode that he was of Cilicia,

35 I wil heare thee, said he, when thine accusers also are come, & commanded him to be kept in Herodes iudgement hall.

1 NOw after fiue dayes, Ananias the high Priest came downe with the Elders, and with Tertullus a certeine oratour, which appeared before the Gouernour against Paul.

2 And when he was called forthe, Tertullus began to accuse him, saying, Seing that we haue obteined great quietnes through thee, and that manie worthie things are done vnto this natiō through thy prouidence,

3 We acknowledge it wholy, and in all places, moste [a] noble Felix, with all thankes.

5 Certeinely we haue founde this man a pestilēt fellow, and a mouer of seditiō among all the Iewes throughout ỹ worlde and a chief mainteiner of the [b]secte of the [c] Nazarites:
6 And hathe gone about to pollute the Temple: therefore we toke him, and wolde haue iudged him according to our Law:
7 But the [n] chief captaine Lysias came vpon vs, and with great violence toke him out of our hands,
8 Commanding his accusers to come to thee: of whome thou maist (if thou wilt inquire) knowe all these things whereof we accuse him.
9 And the Iewes likewise affirmed, saying that it was so.
10 Then Paul, after that the gouernour had beckened vnto him that he shulde speake, answered, I do the more gladly answer for my self, for asmuche as I knowe that thou hast bene of manie yeres a [d] iudge vnto this [e] nation,
11 Seing that thou maist knowe, that there are but twelue dayes since I came vp [f] to worship in Ierusalem.
12 And thei nether founde me in the Tēple disputing with anie man, nether making vproare among the people, nether in the Synagogues, nor in the citie.
13 Nether can they proue the things, whereof they now accuse me.
14 But this I confesse vnto thee, that after the way (which they call [g] heresie) so worship I the God of my fathers, beleuing all things which are written in the Law & the Prophetes,
15 And haue hope towards God, that the resurrection of the dead which they them selues loke for also, shalbe bothe of iust and vniust.
16 And herein I endeuour my self to haue alway a cleare conscience towarde God, & towarde men.
17 Now after [h] many yeres, I came and broght * almes to my nacion & offrings.
18 *At what time, certeine Iewes of Asia founde me purified in the Temple, nether with multitude, nor with tumult.

22 Except it be for this one voyce, that I cryed standing among them, *Of the resurrection of the dead am I accused of you this day.
23 Now when Felix heard these things, he differred them, & said, When I shal more perfitely knowe the things which concerne this [e] way, by the coming of Lysias ỹ chief Captaine, I wil decise your matter.
24 Then he commanded a Centurion to kepe Paul, and that he shulde haue ease, and that he shulde forbid none of his acquaintance to minister vnto him, or to come vnto him.
25 ¶And after certaine dayes, came Felix with his wife Drusilla, which was a [k] Iewesse, & he called for the Paul, & heard him of the faith in Christ.
26 And as he disputed of righteousnes, and tēperance, & of the iudgement to come, Felix [l] trembled, & answered, Go thy way for this time, and when I haue conuenient time, I wil call for thee.
27 He hoped also that money shulde haue bene giuen him of Paul, ỹ he might lose him: wherefore he sent for him the oftener, and communed with him.
28 When two yeres were expired, Porcius Festus came into Felix roume: and Felix willing to [n] get fauour of ỹ Iewes, left Paul bounde.

The Iewes accuse Paul before Festus. 8 He answereth for him self. 11 And appealeth vnto the Emperor. 14 His matter is rehearsed before Agrippa. 23 And he is broght forthe.

1 WHen Festus was then come into the prouince, after thre dayes he went vp from Cesarea vnto Ierusalem.
2 Then the high Priest, and the chief of the Iewes appeared before him against Paul: and they besoght him,
3 And [a] desired fauour against him, that he wolde send for him to Ierusalē: and they laid wait to kil him by the way.
4 But Festus answered, that Paul shulde be kept at Cesarea, & ỹ he him self wolde shortely departe thither.
5 Let them therefore, said he, which among you are [b] able, come downe with vs: and if there be anie wickednes in ỹ man, let them accuse him.
6 ¶Now when he had taried among thē nomore then ten dayes, he went downe to Cesarea, and the next day sate in ỹ iudgement seat, & commanded Paul to be broght.
7 And when he was come, ỹ Iewes which were come from Ierusalem, stode about him and laid manie and grieuous complaintes against Paul, which they colde not proue.

c Paul defendeth him self in iudgement.

Yet Festus willing to [n] get fauour of the Iewes, answered Paul, and said, Wilt thou go vp to Ierusalem, and there be iudged of these things before me?

10 Then said Paul, I stand at [d] Cesars iudgement seat, where I ought to be [e] iudged: to the Iewes I haue done no wrong, as thou verie wel knowest.

11 For if I haue done wrong, or committed anie thing worthie of death, I refuse not to die: but if there be none of these things whereof they accuse me, no man can deliuer me to them: I appeale vnto Cesar.

12 Then when Festus had spoken with [f] the Counsel, he answered, Hast thou appealed vnto Cesar? vnto Cesar shalt thou go.

13 ¶ And after certeine dayes, King Agrippa and [g] Bernice came downe to Cesarea to salute Festus.

14 And when they had remained there manie dayes, Festus proposed Pauls cause vnto the King, saying, There is a certeine man left in prison by Felix.

15 Of whome when I came to Ierusalem, the high Priests & Elders of the Iewes informed me, and desired to haue iudgement against him.

16 To whome I answered, ỹ it is not the maner of the Romaines for fauour to deliuer anie man to ỹ death before that he which is accused, haue the accusers before him, and haue place to defend him self, concerning the crime.

17 Therefore when they were come hither, without delay the day following I sate on the iudgement seat, and cõmanded the man to be broght forthe.

18 Against whome when the accusers stode vp, they broght no crime of suche things as I supposed:

19 But had certeine questions against him of their owne [h] superstition, and of one Iesus which was dead, whome Paul affirmed to be aliue.

20 And because I douted of suche maner of question, I asked him whether he wolde go to Ierusalẽ, and there be iudged of these things.

21 But because he appealed to be reserued to the examination of Augustus, I commanded him to be kept, til I might send him to Cesar.

22 Then Agrippa said vnto Festus, I wolde also heare the man my self. To morowe, said he, thou shalt heare him.

23 And on the morow when Agrippa was come and Bernice with great pompe, and were entred into the [i] Cõmune hall with the chief captaines and chief men of the citie, at Festus commandement Paul was broght forthe.

24 And Festus said, King Agrippa, and all men which are present with vs, ye se this man, about whome all the multitude of the Iewes haue called vpon me, bothe at Ierusalẽ, and here, crying, that he ought not to liue anie longer.

25 Yet haue I founde nothing worthie of death, that he hathe committed: neuertheles, seing that he hathe appealed to Augustus, I haue determined to send him.

26 Of whome I haue no certeine thing to write vnto my [k] Lord: wherefore I haue broght him forthe vnto you, & specially vnto thee, King Agrippa, that after examination had, I might haue somewhat to write.

27 For me thinketh it vnreasonable to send a prisoner, and not to shewe ỹ causes which are layed against him.

CHAP. XXVI.

1 The innocencie of Paul is approued by rehearsing his conuersation. 25 His modest answer against the iniurie of Festus.

1 THen Agrippa said vnto Paul, Thou art permitted to speake for thy self. So Paul stretched forthe the hand, and answered for him self.

2 I thinke my self happie, King Agrippa, because I shal answer this daye before thee of all the things whereof I am accused of the Iewes:

3 Chiefly, because thou hast knowledge of all customes, and questions which are among the Iewes: wherefore, I beseche thee, [a] to heare me paciently.

4 As touching my life from my childehode and what it was from the beginning among mine owne nation at Ierusalem, knowe all the Iewes,

5 Which knewe me heretofore (if they wolde testifie) that after the moste straite [b] sect of our religion I liued a Pharise.

6 And now I stand and am accused for the hope of the promes made of God vnto our fathers.

7 Whereunto our twelue tribes instantly seruing God day and night, hope to come: for the which hopes sake, o King Agrippa, I am accused of the Iewes.

8 Why shulde it be thoght a thing incredible vnto you, that God shulde raise againe the dead?

9 I also verely thoght in my self, that I ought to do manie cõtrarie things against the Name of Iesus of Nazaret.

10 * Which thing I also did in Ierusalẽ: for manie of ỹ Saincles I shut vp in prison, hauing receiued autoritie of ỹ high Priests, and when they were put to death, I [c] gaue my sentence.

23 To wit, that Christ shulde suffer, and that he shulde be the first that shulde rise from the dead, and shulde shewe light vnto the people, and to the Gentiles.

24 And as he thus answered for him self, Festus said with a loude voyce, Paul, thou art besides thy self: muche learning doeth make thee mad.

25 But he said, I am not mad, o noble Festus but I speake the wordes of trueth and soberues.

f He knewe ý the Law and the prophetes were of God, but he did not vnderstand ý true applying of the same. 26 For ý King knoweth of these things, before whome also I speake boldely: for I am persuaded ý f none of these things are hid from him: for this thing was not done in a corner.

27 O King Agrippa, beleuest thou the Prophetes? I knowe that thou beleuest.

28 Then Agrippa said vnto Paul, Almost thou persuadest me to become a Christian.

29 Then Paul said, I wolde to God that not onely thou, but also all that heare me to daye, were bothe almost, & altogether suche as I am, except these bondes.

30 And when he had thus spoken, ý King rose vp, and the gouernour, and Bernice, and they that sate with them.

31 And when they were gone aparte, they talked betwene thē selues, saying, This man doeth nothing worthie of death, nor of bondes.

32 Then said Agrippa vnto Festus, This man might haue bene losed, if he had not appealed vnto Cesar.

CHAP. XXVII.

1 Pauls dangerous viage and his companie towarde Rome. 44 How, and where they arriue.

1 NOw when it was concluded, that we shulde saile into Italie, they deliuered bothe Paul, & certeine other prisoners vnto a Centurion named Iulius, of the bande of Augustus.

2 And * we ētred into a ship of Adramyttium purposing to saile by the costes of Asia, and launched forthe, and had Aristarchus of Macedonia, a Thessalonia, with vs. 2.Cor.11,25.

3 And the next day we arriued at Sidō: & Iulius courteously entreated Paul, & gaue him libertie to go vnto his frieds, that they might refresh him.

a From Sidon to Myra they shulde haue sailed north, & by west: but ý windes caused them to saile to Cyprus plaine North: thence to Cilicia North and by East, and so to pamphylia, & Myra plaine West.

4 And from thēce we launched, and sailed harde by a Cyprus, becaus the windes were contrarie.

5 Then sailed we ouer the sea by Cilicia, and Pamphylia, and came to Myra, a citie in Lycia.

6 And there the Cēturion founde a ship of Alexandria, sailing into Italie, and put vs therein.

7 And when we had sailed slowly manie dayes, and scarce were come against Gnidum, because the winde suffered vs not, we sailed harde by ||Cādie, nere to b Salmone,

||Or, Creta.

b Which was an high hil of Candie bowing to ý sea warde.

8 And with muche a do sailed beyonde it, and came vnto a certeine place called the Faire hauens, nere vnto the w̄ was the citie Lasea.

c This fast the Iewes obserued about ý moneth of October in ý feast of their expiation, Leuit. 23,27. So ý paul thoght it better to winter there, then to saile in ý diepe of winter which was at hand.

9 So when muche time was spent, and sailing was now ieoperdous, because also the c Fast was now passed, Paul exhorted them,

10 And said vnto them, Syrs, I se that this viage wil be with hurt & muche domage, not of ý lading & shippe onely but also of our liues.

11 Neuertheles the Centurion beleued rather the gouernor & the master of the ship, then those things which were spoken of Paul.
12 And because the hauen was not commodious to winter in, manie toke counsel to departe thence, if by anie meanes they might atteine to Phenice, there to winter, which is an hauen of Candie, and lieth towarde the Southwest and by West, and Northwest and by West.
13 And when the southern winde blewe softely, they supposing to obteine their purpose, losed nerer, and sailed by Candie.
14 But anone after, there arose by it a stormie winde called [d] Euroclydon.
15 And when the ship was caught, & colde not resist the winde, we let her go, & were caryed away.
16 And we ran vnder a litle yle named [e] Clauda, and had muche a do to get the boat.
17 Which they toke vp and vsed all helpe, vndergirding the ship, fearing lest they shulde haue fallen into Syrtes, and they let downe the [e] vessel, and so were caryed.
18 The next day when we were tossed w an exceading tempest, they [f] lightened the shippe.
19 And the third day we cast out with our owne hands the takling of the ship.
20 And when nether sonne nor starres in manie dayes appeared, and no smal tempest lay vpon vs, all hope that we shulde be saued, was then taken away.
21 But after long abstinence, Paul stode forthe in ỹ middes of thẽ, and said, Syrs, ye shulde haue harkened to me, and not haue losed from Candie: so shulde ye haue [f] gained this hurt and losse.
22 But now I exhorte you to be of good courage: for there shalbe no losse of anie mans life among you, saue of ỹ shippe onely.
23 For there stode by me this night the Angel of [g] God, whose I am, & whome I serue,
24 Saying, Feare not, Paul: for thou must be broght before Cesar: and lo, God hathe giuen vnto [h] the all that saile with thee.
25 Wherefore, sirs, be of good courage: for [i] I beleue God, that it shalbe so as it hathe bene told me.
26 Howbeit, we must be cast into a certeine yland.
27 And when the foureteenth night was come, as we were caryed to & fro in the [k] Adriatical sea about midnight, ỹ shipmen demed that some countrey approched vnto them.
28 And sounded, and founde it twentie fathoms: & when they had gone a litle further, they sounded againe, and founde fiftene fathoms.
29 Then fearing lest they shulde haue fallen into some rough places, they cast foure ancres out of the sterne, & wished that the day were come.
30 Nowe as ỹ mariners were about to flee out of the ship, & had let downe ỹ boate into the sea vnder a colour as though they wolde haue cast ancres out of the foreship,
31 Paul said vnto the Centurion and the souldiers, Except these abide in ỹ ship, [l] ye can not be safe.
32 Then the souldiers cut of the ropes of the boat, and let it fall away.
33 And when it began to be daye, Paul exhorted thẽ all to take meat, saying, This is the foureteth daye that ye haue tarryed, and continued [m] fasting, receiuing nothing.
34 Wherefore I exhorte you to take meat: for this is for your sauegarde: for there shal not [n] an heere fall from ỹ head of anie of you.
35 And when he had thus spoken, he toke bread, and gaue thankes to God, in presence of them all, and brake it, and began to eat.
36 Then were they all of good courage, & they also toke meat.
37 Now we were in the ship in all two hundreth, thre score and sixtene soules.
38 And when they had eaten ynough, they lightened the ship, and cast out the wheat into the sea.
39 And when it was daye, they knewe not the coũtrey, but they spyed a certeine creeke with a banke, into ỹ which they were minded (if it were possible) to thrust in the ship.
40 So when they had taken vp the ancres, they committed the ship vnto ỹ sea, and losed the rudder bondes, and hoysed vp the maine saile to the winde, & drewe to the shore.
41 And when they fell into a place, where two seas met, they thrust in the ship: and the fore parte stucke fast, and colde not be moued, but the hinder parte was broken with the violence of the waues.
42 Then the souldiers counsel was [o] to kil the prisoners, lest anie of them, when he had swome out, shulde flee away.
43 But the Centurion willing to saue Paul, staied them from this counsel, and commãded that they that colde swime, shulde cast thẽ selues first into the sea, and go out to land:
44 And the other, some on boardes, & some on certeine pieces of the ship: and so it came

CHAP. XXVIII.

2 Paul with his companie are gently intreated of the barbarous people. 5 The viper hurteth him not. 8 He healeth Publius father and others, and being furnished by thē of things necessarie, he fared towarde Rome, 15 Where being received of the brethren, he declareth his busines, 30 And there preacheth two yeres.

1 AND whē they were come safe, then they knewe that the yle was called [a] Melita.

2 And the Barbarians shewed vs no litle kindenes: for they kindled a fyre, and receiued vs euerie one, because of the present showre, & because of the colde.

3 And when Paul had gathered a nomber of stickes, and laid them on the [b] fyre, there came a viper out of the heat, and leapt on his hand.

4 Now when the Barbarians sawe the worme hang on his hand, they said among them selues, This man surely is a [b] murtherer, whome, thogh he hathe escaped the sea, yet [c] Vengeace hathe not suffred to liue.

5 But he shoke of the worme into the fyre, and felt no harme.

6 Howbeit thei waited when he shulde haue swolne, or fallen downe dead suddenly: but after they had loked a great while, and sawe no inconuenience come to him, thei changed their mindes, and said, That he was a [d] God.

7 In the same quarters, the chiefman of the yle (whose name was Publius) had possessions: the same receiued vs, and lodged vs thre dayes courteously.

8 And so it was, that the father of Publius lay sicke of the feuer, and of a blodie fixe: to whome Paul entred in, and when he prayed, he laid his hands on him, and healed him.

9 When this then was done, other also in the yle, which had diseases, came to him and where healed,

10 Which also did vs great honour: and when we departed, they laded vs with things necessarie.

11 ¶ Now after thre moneths we departed in a ship of Alexandria, which had wintred in the yle, whose badge was [e] Castor and Pollux.

12 And when we arriued at Syracuse, we taryed there thre dayes.

13 And from thence we fet a compasse, & came to Rhegium: and after one daye, the South winde blewe, & we came the seconde daie to Putioli,

14 Where we founde brethren, and were desired to tarie with them seuen daye: & so we went towarde Rome.

15 ¶ And from thence, when the brethren heard of vs, they came to mete vs at the Market of Appius, and at the [f] Thre tauernes, whome when Paul sawe, he thanked God, and waxed bolde.

16 So when we came to Rome, the Centurion deliuered the prisoners to the generall Captaine: but Paul was [g] suffred to dwel by him self with a souldier that kept him.

17 And the third day after, Paul called the chief of the Iewes together: & when thei were come, he said vnto them, Mē & brethren, thogh I haue committed nothing against the people, or Lawes of the fathers, yet was I deliuered prisoner from Ierusalem into the hands of the Romaines.

18 Who when thei had examined me, wolde haue let me go, because there was no cause of death in me.

19 But when the Iewes spake contrarie, I was constrained to appeale vnto Cesar, not because I had ought to accuse my nacion of.

20 For this cause therefore haue I called for you, to se you, and to speake with you: for the hope [h] of Israels sake, I am bounde with this chaine.

21 Then they said vnto him, We nether receiued letters out of Iudea concerning thee, nether came anie of the brethren that shewed or spake anie euil of thee.

22 But we wil heare of thee what thou thinkest: for as concerning this secte, we knowe that euerie where it is spokē against.

23 And when they had appointed him a daye, there came manie vnto him into his lodging, to whome he expounded & testified the [i] kingdome of God, and preached vnto them concerning Iesus bothe out of the Law of Moses and out of the Prophetes, from morning to night.

24 And some were persuaded with the things, which were spoken, and some beleued not.

25 Therefore when thei agreed not among them selues, they departed, after that Paul had spokē one worde, to wit, Well spake the holie Gost by Esaias the Prophet vnto our fathers,

26 Saying, * [k] Go vnto this people, and say, By hearing ye shal heare, and shal not vnderstand, and seing ye shal se, & not perceiue.

27 For the heart of this people is waxed fat, and their eares are dull of hearing, and with their eyes haue they winked, lest they shulde se with their eyes, and heare with their eares, and vnderstand with their hearts, and shulde returne the Apostle Paul to the Romaines.

THE ARGUMENT.

THe great mercie of God is declared toward de man in Christ Iesus, whose righteousnes is made ours through faith. For when man by reason of his owne corruptiō colde not fulfil the Law, yea, committed moste abominably, bothe against the Law of God & nature, the infinite boūtie of God, mindeful of his promes made to his seruant Abrahā, the father of all beleuers ordeined that mans saluacion shulde onely stand in the perfect obedience of his Sonne Iesus Christ: so that not onely the circumcised Iewes, but also the vncircumcised Gentiles shulde be saued by faith in him: euen as Abraham before he was circumcised, was counted iuste onely through faith, and yet afterwarde receiued circūcision, as a seale or badge of the same righteousnes by faith. And to the intent, that none shulde thinke that the couenant which God made to him, & his posteritie, was not performed: either because the Iewes receiued not Christ (which was the blessed sede) or els beleued not that he was the true redemer, because he did not onely, or at least more notably preserue the Iewes; the examples of Ismael and Esau declare, that all are not Abrahams posteritie, which come of Abraham according to the flesh: but also the verie strangers & Gentiles grafted in by faith are made heires of the promes. The cause whereof is the onelie wil of God: forasmuche as of his fre mercie he electeth some to be saued, & of his iuste iudgement reiecteth others to be damned, as appeareth by the testimonies of the Scriptures. Yet to the intent that the Iewes shulde not be to muche beaten downe, nor the Gentiles to muche puffed vp, the example of Elias proueth, that God hathe yet his elect euen of the natural posteritie of Abraham, though it appeareth not so to mans eye: and for that preferment that the Gentiles haue, it procedeth of the liberal mercie of God, which he at length wil stretch towarde the Iewes againe, and so gather the whole Israel (which is his Church) of them bothe. This grounde worke of faith and doctrine layed, instructions of Christian maners followe: teaching euerie man to walke in roundenes of conscience in his vocation, with all patience and humblenes, reuerencing, and obeying the magistrate, exercising charitie, putting of the olde man & putting on Christ, bearing with the weake, & louing one another according to Christs example. Finally S. Paul after his commendacions to the brethren exhorteth them to vnitie, & to flye false preachers, and flatterers & so concludeth with a prayer.

19 And persuadest thy self that thou art a guide of the blinde, a light of them ẅ are in darkenes.

20 An instructer of them which lacke discretion, a teacher of the vnlearned, which hast the forme of knowledge, & of the trueth in the Law.

21 Thou therefore, which teachest another, teachest thou not thy self? thou ỳ preachest, A man shulde not steale, doest thou steale?

22 Thou that saist, A man shulde not cõmit adulterie, doest thou commit adulterie? thou that abhorrest idoles, committest thou sacrilege?

23 Thou that gloriest in ỳ Law, through breaking the Law dishonorest thou God?

24 For the Name of God is blasphemed among the Gentiles through you, * as it is written.

25 For circumcision verely is profitable, if thou do the Law: but if thou be a transgressor of the Law, thy [m] circumcision is made vncircumcision.

26 Therefore if the vncircumcision kepe the ordinances of the Law, shal not his vncircumcision be counted for circumcision?

27 And shal not vncircumcision which is by nature (if it kepe the Law) [n] iudge thee, which by the [n] letter and circumcision art a transgressor of the Law?

28 For he is not a Iewe, which is one outwarde: nether is ỳ circumcisiõ, ẅ is outwarde in the flesh:

29 But he is a Iewe which is one within, & the * circumcision is of the heart, in the [o] spirit, not in the letter, whose praise is not of men, but of God.

CHAP. III.

1 Hauing granted some prerogatiue to the Iewes, because of Gods fre & stable promes, 10 He proueth by the Scriptures, bothe Iewes and Gentiles to be sinners, 21. 24 And to be iustified by grace through faith, & not by workes. 31 And so the Law to be established.

1 WHat is then the preferment of the Iewe? or what is the profite of circumcision?

2 Muche euerie maner of way: for chiefly, because vnto them were committed the [o] oracles of God.

3 For what, though some did not beleue? shal their * vnbelief make the [p] faith of God without effect? Esa. 45. 23.

4 God forbid: yea, let God be * true, and * euerie man a liar, as it is writtẽ, * That thou mightest be [a] iustified in thy wordes, and ouercome, when thou art iudged.

5 Now if [b] our vnrighteousnes commẽde the righteousnes of God, what shal we say? Is God vnrighteous ẅ punisheth? (I speake [c] as a man.)

6 God forbid: els how shal God iudge ỳ worlde?

7 For if the veritie of God hathe more abounded through my lie vnto his glorie, why am I yet condemned as a sinner?

8 And (as we are blamed, and as some affirme that we say) why do we not euil, ỳ good may come thereof? whose damnation is iust.

9 What then? [d] Are we more excellent? No, in no wise: for we haue already proued, that all, bothe Iewes and Gentiles are * vnder sinne.

20 Therefore by the workes of [h]ỹ Law shal no flesh be iustified in his sight: for by the Lawe commeth the knowledge of sinne.
21 But now is the[i] righteousnes of God made manifest without the Law, hauing witnes of the Law and of the Prophetes,
22 To wit, the righteousnes of God by the faith of Iesus Christ, vnto all, and vpon all that beleue.
23 For there is no difference: for all haue sinned, and are[j] depriued of the glorie of God,

27 Where is then the reioycing? It is excluded. By what Law? of workes? Nay: but by the[l] Law of faith.
28 Therefore we conclude that a man is iustified by faith without the workes of the Law.
29 God is he the God of the Iewes onely, & not of the Gentiles also? Yes, euen of the Gentiles also.

CHAP. IIII.

1. 17 He declareth that iustification is a free gifte cuẽ by thẽ thẽ selues, of whome the Iewes moste boasted as of Abraham and of Dauid, 15 And also by the office of the Law & faith.

1 WHat shal wẽ say then, that Abraham our father hathe founde [a]concerning the flesh?
2 For if Abraham were iustified by workes, he hathe wherein to [b]reioyce, but not with God.
3 For what saith the Scripture? * Abrahã beleued God, and it was counted to him for righteousnes.
4 Now to him that[c] worketh, the wages is not counted by fauour, but by dette,
5 But to him that[d] worketh not, but beleueth in him that[e] iustifieth the vngodlie, his faith is counted for righteousnes.
6 Euen as Dauid declareth the blessednes of the man, vnto whome God imputeth righteousnes without workes, saying,
7 * Blessed are thei, whose iniquities are forgiuen, and whose sinnes are couered.
8 [o] Blessed is the man, to whome the Lord imputeth not sinne.
9 Came this blessednes then vpon ỹ [f]circumcision onely, or vpon the vncircumcision also? For we say, that faith was imputed vnto Abraham for righteousnes.
10 How was it then imputed? when he was circumcised, or vncircumcised? not when he was circumcised, but when he was vncircumcised.
11 * After he receiued the signe of circumcision, as the seale of the righteousnes of the faith which he had, when he was vncircumcised, that he shulde be ỹ father of all them that beleue, not being circumcised, that righteousnes might be imputed to them also,
12 And the father of circumcision, not vnto them onely which are of the circumcision, but vnto them also that walke in the[g] steppes of the faith of our father Abraham, which he had when he was vncircumcised.
13 For the promes that he shulde be the heire of the worlde, was not giuen to Abraham, or to his seed, through the [h]Law, but through the righteousnes of faith.

2 * By whome also we haue accesse through faith vnto this grace, wherein we stand, & reioyce vnder the hope of the glorie of God.
3 Nether do we so onely, but also we * reioyce in tribulations, knowing that tribulation bringeth forthe patience,
4 And patience experience, and experience hope,
5 And hope maketh not b ashamed, because the c loue of God is shed abroade in our hearts by the holie Goste, which is giuen vnto vs.
6 For Christ, when we were yet of no strength, at his time, dyed for the * vngodly.
7 Douteles one wil scarse dye for a d righteousnes man: but yet for a e good man it may be that one dare dye.
8 But God setteth out his loue towardes vs, seing that while we were yet sinners, Christ dyed for vs.
9 Muche more then, being now iustified by his blood, we shal be saued from wrath through him.
10 For if when we were f enemies, we were reconciled to God by the death of his Sonne, muche more being reconciled, we shalbe saued by his life.
11 And not onely so, but we also reioyce in God through our Lord Iesus Christ, by whome we haue now receiued the atonement.
12 Wherefore, as by one man sinne, entred into ỹ world, & deathe by sinne, & so death wēt ouer all mē: for asmuche as all men haue sinned.
13 For vnto the g time of the Lawe was sinne in the worlde, but sinne is not imputed, while there is no Law.
14 But death reigned from Adam to Moses euen ouer them also that sinned not h after the like maner of the transgression of i Adam, which was the figure of k him that was to come.
15 But yet the gift is not so, as is the offence: for if through the offence of one many be dead, muche more the grace of God, and the gift by grace, which is by one man Iesus Christ, hathe abunded vnto many.
16 Nether is the gift so, as that which entred in by one that sinned: for the faute came of one offence vnto condemnacion: but the gift is l of many offēces to iustification.
17 For if by the offence of one, death reigned through one, muche more shal they which receiue the abundance of grace, and of the gift of m righteousnes, reigne in life through one, that is Iesus Christ.
18 Likewise then as by the offence of one the faute came on all men to condemnation, so by the iustifiying of one the benefite abounded toward n all mē to ỹ iustification of life.
19 For as by one mans disobedience many were made sinners, so by the obediēce of one shal many also be made righteous,
20 Moreouer the o Law entred thereupon that the offence shulde p aboūde: neuertheles where sinne aboūded, there grace abounded muche more:

Because no man shulde glorie in the flesh, but rather seke to subdue it to the Spirit, 3 He sheweth by the vertue & end of Baptisme. 5 That regeneration is ioyned with iustification, & therefore exhorteth to godlie life, 21 Setting before mens eyes the rewarde of sinne & righteousnes.

1 VVHat shal we say then? Shal we continue stil in sinne, that grace may abounde? God forbid.

2 How shal we, that are [a] dead to sinne, liue yet therein?

3 Knowe ye not, that * all we which haue bene baptized into [b] Iesus Christ haue ben baptized into his death?

4 * We are buryed then with him by baptisme into his death, that like as Christ was raised vp from the dead by the glorie of the Father, so we also shulde *walke in newnes of life.

5 *For if we be [c] grafted with him [d] to the similitude of his death, euen so shal we be to the similitude of his resurrection,

6 Knowing this, that our olde man is crucified with him, that the [e] bodie of sinne might be destroyed, that henceforthe we shulde not serue sinne.

7 For he that is dead, is [f] freed from sinne.

8 Wherefore, if we be dead with Christ, we beleue that we shal liue also with him,

9 Knowing that Christ being raised frō the dead, dyeth no more: death hath no more dominion ouer him.

10 For in that he dyed, he dyed once to sinne: but in that he liueth, he liueth to [h] God.

11 Likewise thinke ye also, that ye are [i] dead to sinne, but are aliue [k] to God in Iesus Christ our Lord.

12 Let not sinne reigne therefore in your mortal bodie, that ye shulde obey it in the [l] lustes thereof.

13 Neither giue ye your membres as [m] weapons of vnrighteousnes vnto sinne: but giue your selues vnto God, as they that are aliue from the dead, and giue your membres as weapons of righteousnes vnto God.

14 For sinne shal not haue dominion ouer you: for ye are not vnder the [n] Law, but vnder grace.

15 What then? shal we sinne, because we are not vnder the Law, but vnder grace? God forbid.

16 * Knowe ye not, that to whomesoeuer ye giue your selues as seruants to obey, his seruants ye are to whome ye obey, whether it be of sinne vnto death, or of [o] obedience vnto righteousnes?

17 But God be thanked, that ye haue bene the seruants of sinne, but ye haue obeyed from the heart vnto the forme of the doctrine, whereunto ye were [p] deliuered.

18 Being then made [q] fre from sinne, ye are made the seruants of righteousnes.

19 I speake [r] after the maner of men, because of the infirmitie of your flesh: for as ye haue giuen your membres seruants to vncleanenes & to iniquitie, to commit iniquitie, so now giue your membres seruants vnto righteousnes in holines.

20 For when ye were the seruants of sinne, ye were freed from righteousnes.

21 What frute had ye thē in those things, whereof ye are now asnamed? For the end of those things is death.

22 But now being freed from sinne, and made seruants vnto God, ye haue your frute in holines, and the end, euerlastig life.

23 For the [t] wages of sinne is death: but ✠ gift of God is eternal life through Iesus Christ our Lord.

CHAP. VII.

1. 7. 12 The vse of the Law, 6. 24. And how Christ hathe deliuered vs from it. 16 The infirmitie of the faithful. 23 The dangerous fight betweene the flesh and the Spirit.

1 KNowe ye not, brethren, (for I speake to them that knowe the Law) ✠ the [a] Law hathe dominion ouer a man as long as he liueth?

2 *For the [b] woman which is in subiection to a man, is bounde by the law to the man, while he liueth: but if the man be dead, she is deliuered from the law of the man.

3 So then, if while the man liueth, she take another man, she shalbe called an *adultéresse: but if ✠ man be dead, she is fre from the Law, so that she is not an adultéresse, though she take another man.

4 So ye, my brethren, are dead also to the Law by the bodie of Christ, that ye shulde be vnto another, euen vnto [c] him that is raised vp from the dead, that we shulde bring forthe frute vnto God.

5 For when we were [d] in the flesh, the [n] motions of sinnes, which were by the Law had force in our membres, to bring forthe frute vnto death.

6 But now we are deliuered from the Law, being dead [e] vnto it, wherein we were holden, that we shulde serue in newes of Spirit, and not in the oldenes of the letter.

7 [f] What shal we say thē? Is the Law sinne, God forbid. Nay, I knewe not sinne, but by the Law: for I had not knowen [g] lust, except the Law had said, * Thou shalt not lust.

8 But sinne toke an occasion by the commandement, and wroght in me all maner of concupiscence: for without ỳ Law sinne is dead.

9 For I once [h] was a liue, without ỳ Law: but when the commandemēt came, sinne reuiued.

10 But I dyed: and the same commandement which was ordained vnto life, was founde to be vnto me vnto death.

11 For sinne toke occasion by the commandement, and disceiued me, & thereby slew me.

12 Wherefore the Law is * holie, and the commandement is holie, and iust, and good.

13 Was that then which is good, made death vnto me? God forbid: but sinne, that it might [i] appeare sinne, wroght death in me by that which is good, that sinne might be out of measure sinful by the commandement.

14 For we knowe that the Law [k] is spiritual, but I am carnal, solde vnder sinne.

15 For I alowe not that which I do: for what I [l] wolde, that do I not: but what I hate, that do I.

16 If I do then that which I wolde not, I consent to the Law, that it is good.

17 Now then, it is no more, I that do [m] it, but the sinne that dwelleth in me.

18 For I knowe, that in me, that is, in my [n] flesh, dwelleth no good thing: for to wil is present with me: but I finde no meanes to performe that which is good.

19 For I do not the good thing, which I wolde, [o] but the euil, which I wolde not, that do I.

20 Now if do that I wolde not, it is no more I that do it, but the sinne ỳ dwelleth in me.

21 I finde then by the Law, that when I wolde do good, euil is present with me.

22 For I delite in the Law of God, concerning the [p] inner man:

23 But I se another [q] Law in my [r] membres, rebelling against the law of my minde, and leading me captiue vnto the law of sinne, which is in my membres.

24 O wretched man that I am, who shal deliuer me from the [s] bodie of this death?

25 I thāke God through Iesus Christ our Lord. Then I my self in my [t] minde serue the Law of God, but in my [u] flesh the law of sinne.

CHAP. VIII.

1 The assurance of the faithful & of the frutes of the holie Gost in them. 3 The weakenes of the Lawe & who accomplished it 4 And wherefore. 5 Of what sorte the faithful ought to be. 6 The frute of the Spirit in them. 17 Of hope. 18 Of pacience vnder the crosse. 28 Of the mutual loue betwixt God and his children. 29 Of his foreknowledge.

1 NOw then there is no [a] condēnacion to them that are in Christ Iesus, which walke not [b] after the flesh, but after the Spirit.

2 For the [c] Law of the Spirit of life which is in [d] Christ Iesus hathe freed me from the Law of sinne and of death:

3 For (that that was impossible to ỳ Law, in as muche as it was [e] weake, because of the flesh) God sending his owne Sonne, in the similitude of sinful flesh, and [f] for sinne, condemned sinne in the flesh,

4 That the [g] righteousnes of the Law might be fulfilled in vs, which walke not after the flesh, but after the Spirit.

5 For they that are after the flesh, sauour the [h] things of the flesh: but they that are after the Spirit, the things of the Spirit.

6 For the wisdome of the flesh is death: but the wisdome of the Spirit is life & peace,

7 Because the wisdome of the flesh is enimitie against God: for it is not subiect to the Law of God, nether in dede can be.

8 So then they that are in the flesh, cannot please God.

9 Now ye are not in the flesh, but in the Spirit, [i] because the Spirit of God dwelleth in you: but if anie man hathe not the Spirit of Christ, the same is not his.

10 And if Christ be in you, the [k] bodie is dead, because of sinne: but the [l] Spirit is life for righteousnes sake.

11 But if the Spirit of him that raised vp Iesus from the dead, dwell in you, he that raised vp Christ from the dead, shal also quicken your mortal bodies, becaus*e* d When we were destitute of the Spirit of God.

[n] Or, affections

e Meaning to sinne, our first housband.

f There is nothing more enemie to sinne thē ỳ Law: if so be therefore ỳ sinne rage more by reason thereof thē before, why shulde it be imputed to ỳ Lawe which discloseth the sleightes of sinne her enemie? Exod. 20, 17 deut. 5, 21

g Which is an inwarde vice not openly knowen.

h He thoght him self to be aliue, when he knewe not the Lawe. 1. Tim. 1, 8

i Sinne beīg discloased by ỳ Law, is so muche more detestable, because it turneth ỳ goodnes of ỳ Lawe to our destruction.

k So ỳ it can iudge ỳ affections of ỳ heart.

l He is not able to do ỳ ẅ he desireth to do, and therefore is far from ỳ true perfection.

m He doeth not excuse him self, but sheweth ỳ he is not able to accomplish ỳ good desire ẅ is in hī.
[o] Or, in my nature.

n The flesh stayeth euen ỳ moste perfect to rūne forwarde as ỳ spirit wisheth.

a Though sinne be in vs, yet it is not imputed vnto vs through Christ Iesus.

b He anneexeth ỳ condition lest we shulde abuse the libertie.

c The power & autoritie of the Spirit ỳ is, ỳ grace of regeneracion.

d Whose sanctificacion as made ours.
[e] Or, of no strength.
[f] Or, by sinne.

e Christ did take flesh, ẅ of nature was subiect to sinne, which not withstanding he sanctified euē in ỳ verie instāt of his conceptiō, & so did appropriate it vnto him, ỳ he might destroie sinne in it, 2. Cor. 5, 21.

f That ẅ ỳ Law requireth.

g The worde cōprehendeth all ỳ ẅ is moste excellēt in mā, as wil, vnderstanding, reason, wit, &c.
[h] Or, if so be.
[i] Or, flesh.

h The Spirit of regeneracion ẅ aboliseth sinne in our flesh, not all at once, but by degrees: wherfore we muste in ỳ meane time call to God through pacience.

because that his Spirit dwelleth in you.
12 Therefore brethren, we are detters not to the flesh, to liue after the [i] flesh:
13 For if ye liue after the flesh, ye shal dye: but if ye mortifie the dedes of the bodie by the Spirit, ye shal liue.
14 For as manie as are led by the Spirit of God, they are the sonnes of God.
15 For ye haue not receiued the Spirit of bondage to feare againe: but ye haue receiued the Spirit of [k] adopcion, whereby we crye *Abba, Father.
16 The same Spirit [l] beareth witnes with our Spirit, that we are the children of God.
17 If we be children, we are also [m] heires, euen the heires of God, & heires annexed with Christ, if so be that we suffer with him, that we maye also be glorified with him.
18 For I counte that the afflictions of this present time are not [n] worthie of ỹ glorie, which shalbe shewed vnto vs.
19 For the feruent desire of the creature waiteth when the sonnes of God shalbe reuelled.
20 Because the [n] creature is subiect to [o] vanitie, not of it owne wil, but by reason of him, which hathe subdued it vnder hope,
21 Because the creature also shalbe deliuered from the bondage of corruption into the glorious libertie of the sonnes of God.
22 For we knowe that euerie [p] creature groneth with vs also, and trauaileth in paine together vnto this present.
23 And not onely the creature, but we also which haue the [q] first frutes of the Spirit, euen we do sigh in our selues, waiting for the adoption, euen the *redemption of our [r] bodie.
24 For we are saued by hope: but [s] hope that is sene, is not hope: for how can a man hope for that which he seeth?
25 But if we hope for that we se not, we do with patience abide for it.
26 Likewise the Spirit also helpeth our infirmities: for we knowe not what to praye as we oght: but the Spirit it self maketh requeit for vs with sighs, which can not be expressed.
27 But he that [t] searcheth ỹ hearts, knoweth what is the meaning of the Spirit: for he [t] maketh request for the Sainctes, according to the wil of God.
28 Also we knowe that all things worke together for the best vnto them that loue God, euen to them that are called of his purpose.
29 For those which he [v] knewe before, he also predestinate to be made like to the image of his Sonne, that he might be the first borne among manie brethren.
30 Moreouer whome he predestinate, them also he called, and whome he called, them also he iustified, and whome he iustified, them he also glorified.
31 What shal we then say to these things? If God be on our side, who can be against vs?
32 Who spared not his owne Sonne, but gaue him for vs all to death, how shal he not with him giue vs all things also?
33 Who shal lay anie thing to the charge of Gods chosen? it is God that *[x] iustifieth,
34 Who shal condemne? it is Christ, [w] is dead, yea or rather, which is risen againe, who is also at the right hand of God, and maketh request also for vs.
35 Who shal separate vs from the loue of [y] Christ? shal tribulation or anguish, or persecution, or famine, or nakednes, or peril, or swordе?
36 As it is written, *For thy sake are we [z] killed all day long: we are counted as shepe for the slaughter.
37 Neuertheles, in all these things we are more then conquerers through him that loued vs.
38 For I am persuaded that nether death, no, life, nor Angels, nor [a] principalities, nor powers, nor things present, nor things to come,
39 Nor height, nor depth, nor anie other creature shalbe able to [b] perate vs from the [b] loue of God, which is in Christ Iesus our Lord.

f That is, of Iacob whose name was also Israel.

7 Nether are they all children, because they are the sede of Abraham: *but, In Gen.21,12.
g Isaac shal thy sede be called:
8 That is, they which are the children of the h flesh, are not the children of God but the * children of the promes are counted for the sede.
9 For this is a worde of promes, *In this same time wil I come, and Sara shal haue a sonne.
10 Nether he onelie felt this, but also * Rebecca when she had conceiued by one, euen by our father Isaac.
11 For yet the children were borne, & when they had nether done good, nor euil (that the purpose of God might remaine according to election not by workes, but by him that calleth)
12 It was said vnto her, *The elder shal serue the yonger. Gen.25,23.
13 As it is written, *I haue loued Iacob, & haue hated Esau. Malac.1,2.
14 What shal we say then? Is there vnrighteousnes with God? God forbid.
15 For he saith to Moses, * I i wil haue mercie on him, to whome I wil shewe mercie: and wil haue compasion on him, on whome I wil haue compassion. Exod.33,19.
i As y onelie wil & purpose of God is the chief cause of election & reprobacion: so this fre mercie in Christ is an inferior cause of saluation, & the hardening of the hart, an inferior cause of damnacion.
16 So then it is not in him that willeth, nor in him that runneth, but in God that sheweth mercie.
17 For the k Scripture saith vnto Pharao, * For this same purpose haue I stirred thee vp, that I might shewe my power in thee, and that my Name might be declared throughout all the earth.
k That is, God in y Scripture. Exo.9,16.
18 Therefore he hathe mercie on whome he wil, & whome he wil, he hardeneth.
19 Thou wilt say then vnto me, Why doeth he yet complaine? for who hathe resisted his wil.
20 But, ô Man, who art thou w l pleadest against God? shal the * thing formed say to him that formed it, Why hast thou made me thus? *Or, speaketh against. Isa.45,9. iere.18.6. wisd.15,7.
21 Hathe not the potter power of the clue to make of the same lompe one vessel to m honour, and another vnto dishonour?
22 What and if God wolde, to shewe his wrath, and to make his power knowen, suffre with long pacience the vessels of wrath, prepared to destruction? Or, vnto honest vses.
23 And that he might declare the riches of his glorie vpon the vessels of mercie, which he hathe prepared vnto glorie?
24 Euen vs, whome he hathe called, not of the Iewes onely, but also of the Gentiles,
25 As he saith also in Osee, * I wil call them, My people: which were not my people: & her, Beloued, which was not beloued. Hose.2,23. 1.pet.2,10.
26 And it shalbe in the place where it was said vnto them, * Ye are not my people, that there they shalbe called, the children of the liuing God. Hose.1,10.
27 Also Esaias cryeth concerning Israel, * Thogh the nomber of the children of Israel were as the sand of y sea, yet shal but a remnant be saued. Isa.10,22.
28 l For he wil make his account, & gather it into a short summe with righteousnes, for the Lord wil make a short count in the earth.
l God wil make suche waste of that people y the fewe w shal remaine, shalbe a worke of his iustice, & shal set forthe his glorie in his Church.
29 *And as Esaias said before, Except y Lord of hostes had left vs a sede, we had bene made as m Sodom, and had bene like to Gomorrha. Isa.1,9.
m That is, vtterly lost.
30 What shal we say then? That y Gentiles which followed not righteousnes, haue atteined vnto righteousnes, euen the righteousnes which is of faith.
31 But Israel which followed the Law of righteousnes, colde not atteine vnto the Law of righteousnes.
32 Wherefore? Because they soght it not by faith, but as it were by the workes of the Law: for they haue stombled at y stombling stone. Isa.8,14. & 28,16. 1.pet. 2.6 psal.118, 22.
33 As it is written, *Beholde, I lay in Sio a n stombling stone, and a rocke to make me fall: and euerie one that beleueth in him, shal not be ashamed.
n Iesus Christ is to the infideles destructio, & to the faithful life & resurrection.

CHAP. X.

1 After that he had declared his zeale towardes them, 3 He sheweth the cause of the ruine of the Iewes. 4 The end of the Lawe. 5 The difference betweene the iustice of the Lawe, and of faith. 17 VVhereof faith commeth, and to whome it belongeth. 19 The reiection of the Iewes, and calling of the Gentiles.

1 BRethrē, mine hearts desire & prayer to God for Israel is, that they might be saued.
2 For I beare them record, that they haue a the zeale of God, but not according to knowledge.
a That is acerteine affection, but not a true knowledge.
3 For they, being ignorant of y righteousnes of God, & going about to stablish their owne righteousnes, haue not submitted them selues to the righteousnes of God.
4 *For Christ is the b end of the Law for righteousnes vnto euerie one that beleueth.
b The end of the Lawe is to iustifie thē w obserue it: therefore Christ hauing fulfilled it for vs, is made our iustice, sanctification, &c. Gal.3,24. Leui.18,5. ezek.20,11. gal.3,12. Deut.30,12.
5 For Moses thus describeth y righteousnes which is of the Lawe. * That the man which doeth these things, shal liue thereby. Deut.30,14.
c Because we can not performe the Law, it maketh vs to flout, who shal go to heauen & to say, Who shal go downe to y depe to deliuer vs thence? but faith teacheth vs that Christ is ascended vp to take vs w him & hathe descended into the depth of death to destroy death, & deliuer vs.
6 But the righteousnes which is of faith, speaketh on this wise, c * Say not in thine heart, Who shal ascende into heauen? (that is to bring Christ frō aboue)
7 Or, Who shal descende into the depe? (that

(that is to bring Christ againe from the dead)

8 But what saith it? *The worde is nere thee, euen in thy mouth, and in thine heart. This is the [d] worde of faith which we preache.

9 For if thou shalt confesse with thy mouth the Lord Iesus, and shalt beleue in thine heart, that God raised him vp from the dead, thou shalt be saued.

10 For with the heart man beleueth vnto righteousnes, and with [e] the mouth man confesseth to saluation.

11 For the Scripture saith, * Whosoeuer beleueth in him, shal not be ashamed.

12 For there is no difference betwene the Iewe & the Grecian: for he that is Lord ouer all, is riche vnto all ỹ call on him.

13 *For whosoeuer shal call vpon ỹ Name of the Lord, shalbe saued.

14 But how shal they call on him, in whome they haue not beleued? and how shal they beleue in him, of whome they haue not heard? and how shal they heare without a preacher?

15 And how shal they preache, except they be sent? as it is written, *How beautiful are the [f] fete of thē which bring glad tydings of peace, and bring glad tydings of good things?

16 But they haue not all obeyed the Gospel: for Esaias saith, *Lord, who hathe beleued our [f] reporte?

17 Then faith is by hearing, & hearing [g] by the worde of God.

18 But I demande, Haue [h] they not heard? No doute their [i] sounde wēt out through all the earth, & their wordes into the ends of the [k] worlde.

19 But I demande, Did not Israel knowe God? First Moses saith, I wil prouoke you to enuie by a nation that is not my nation, & by a fooliſh nation I wil anger you.

20 *And Esaias is bolde, and saith, I was founde of them that soght me not, and haue bene made manifest to them that asked not after me.

21 And vnto Israel he saith, *All the day long haue I stretched forthe mine hand vnto a [l] disobedient, and gaine saying people.

CHAP. XI.

4 God hathe his Church although it be not sene to mans eye. 5 The grace shewed to the elect. 7 The iudgement of the reprobate. 8 God hathe blinded the Iewes for a time, and reueiled him self to the Gentiles. 18 Whome he warneth to humble them selues. 29 The giftes of God without repentance. 33 The depth of Gods iudgements.

1 I Demande then, Hathe God cast away his people? God forbid: for I also am an Israelite, of the sede of Abraham, of the tribe of Beniamin.

2 God hathe not cast away his people ỹ he [a] knewe before. Knowe ye not what the Scripture saith of Elias, how he maketh requeſt vnto God [b] against Israel, saying,

3 *Lord, they haue killed thy Prophetes, & digged downe thine altars: and I am left alone, and they seke my life?

4 But what saith the answer of God to him? I haue reserued vnto my self [c] seuen thousand men, which haue not bowed the knee to Baal.

5 Euen so then at this present time is there a remnant through the [l] election of grace.

6 And if it be of grace, it is no more of workes: or els were grace no more grace: but if it be of workes, it is no more grace: or els were worke no more worke.

7 What then? Israel hathe not obteined that he soght: but the election hathe obteined it, and the rest haue bene hardened.

8 According as it is written, *God hathe giuen them ỹ spirit of [l] slomber: eyes that they shulde not se, & eares ỹ they shulde not heare vnto this day.

9 And Dauid saith, *Let their [d] table be made a snare, & a net, & a stombling blocke, euen for a recompense vnto them.

10 Let their eyes be darkened that they se not, & [e] bowe downe their backe alwayes.

11 I demande then, Haue they stōbled, that they shulde fall? God forbid: but through their fall saluatiō commeth vnto the Gentiles, to [g] prouoke them to follow them.

12 Wherefore if the fall of them be the riches of the worlde, & the diminishing of them the [h] riches of the Gentiles, how muche more shal their abundance be?

13 For in that I speake to you Gentiles, in asmuche as I am the Apostle of the Gentiles, I magnifie mine office,

14 To trie if by any meanes I might [i] prouoke them of my flesh to follow e them, & might saue some of them.

15 For if the casting away of them be the reconciling of the worlde, what shal the receiuing be, but [k] life from the dead?

16 For if [l] the first frutes be holie, so is the whole lompe: and if the [m] roote be holie, so are the branches.

17 And though some of the branches be broken of, & thou being a wilde oliue tre, wast grafte in [l] for them, and made partaker of the roote, and fatnesse of [n] oliue tre.

CHAP. XII.

Conuersation, loue and workes of suche as are in Christ. 19 Not to seke reuēgeāce.

Epistle. Dominica 9. post Epiphaniæ.

1 I Beleche you therefore, brethren, by the mercies of God, that ye giue vp your bodies a liuing sacrifice, holie, acceptable vnto God, which is your b reasonable seruing of God.

a In stede of dead beasts, liuely sacrifice: in stede of ỹ blood of beastes which was but a shadowe & pleased not God of it self, the acceptable sacrifice of the Spiritual man, framed by faith to godlines and charitie.

b That is true, lawful & spirituall. 1. Pet. 2. 5. Eph. 5, 17. 1. thess. 5, 1.

2 And facion not your selues like vnto this worlde, but be ye changed by the renewing of your minde, that ye may * proue what is the c good wil of God, & acceptable, & perfite.

c Whatsoeuer is not agreable to Gods wil, is euil, displeasant and vnperfect.

3 For I say through the grace that is giuen vnto me, to euerie one that is amog you, that no man presume to vnderstād aboue that which is mete to vnderstād, but that he d vnderstand according to e sobrietie, as God hathe dealt to euerie man the *measure of faith.

d Two things are required, if we wil iudge soberly of Gods giftes in vs: the one that we do not arrogate to our selues that we haue not: next, that we boast not of the giftes, but reuerently vse them to Gods honour.

e That is, soberly, not neglecting Gods giftes, but vsing them to this glorie. 1. Cor. 12, 11. Ephes 4. 7. 1. Pet 4, 10.

4 For as we haue many members in one bodie, and all members haue not one office,

5 So we being many are one bodie in Christ, and euerie one, one anothers members.

6 *Seing then that we haue giftes that are diuers, according to the grace that is giuen vnto vs, whether we haue f prophecie, let vs prophecie according to the proportion of faith.

f By prophecying here he meaneth preaching and teaching, & by office or ministerie, all suche offices, as appertein to the Church as Elders, Deacons, &c.

7 Or an office, let vs waite on the office: or he that teacheth, on teaching:

8 Or he that exhorteth, on exhortation: he that g distributeth, let him do it * with simplicitie: he that ruleth, with diligence: he that h sheweth mercie, with *cherefulnes.

13 *Distributing vnto the necessities of the Saintes: * giuing your selues to hospitalitie.

14 * Blesse them which persecute you: blesse, I say, and curse not.

15 Reioyce with them that reioyce, & wepe with them that wepe.

16 Be of like affection one towards another: * be not hie minded: but make your selues equal to them of the lower sorte: be not wise in your selues.

i Be not hie minded: but make your selues equal to them of the lower sorte: be not wise in your selues.

17 *Recompense to no man euil for euil: I procure things honest in the sight of all men. 18 Yf it be possible, as much as in you is, haue peace w all men.

1 LEt * euerie soule be subiect vnto the higher powers: for there is no power but of God: & the powers that be, are ordeined of God.

2 Whosoeuer therefore resisteth the power, resisteth the ordinance of God: and they that resist, shal receiue to them selues [a] iudgement.

3 For princes are not to be feared for good workes, but for euil. Wilt thou then be without feare of the power? Do wel: so shalt thou haue praise of the same.

4 For he is the minister of God for thy wealth: but if thou do euil, feare: for he beareth not the sworde for noght: for he is the minister of God "to take vengeance on him that doeth euil.

5 Wherefore ye must be subiect, not because of wrath onely, but also for [b] conscience sake.

6 For, for this cause ye paye also tribute: for they are Gods ministers, applying them selues for the same [c] thing.

CHAP. XIIII.

1 The weake ought not to be despised. 10 No man shulde offende another's conscience. 15 But one ought to supporte another in charitie and faith.

1 HIm that is weake in the [a] faith, receiue vnto you, but not [b] for controuersies of disputations.

2 One beleueth that he may eat of all things: & another, which is weake, eateth herbes.

3 Let not him that eateth, despise him that eateth not: and let not him which eateth not, iudge him that eateth: for God hathe receiued him.

4 * Who art thou that condemneth a nother mans seruant? he standeth or falleth to his owne [c] master: yea, he shalbe established: for God is able to make him stande.

5 This man estemeth one day aboue a nother day, & another man counteth euerie daye a like: let euerie man be [d] fully persuaded in his minde.

6 He that [e] obserueth the day, obserueth it to the [f] Lord: and he that obserueth not the day, obserueth it not to ỹ Lord. He that eateth, eateth to the Lord: for he giueth God thankes: and he that [g] eateth not, [h] eateth not to ỹ Lord, and giueth God thankes.

7 For none of vs liueth [i] to him self, nether doeth anie dye to him self.

8 For whether we liue, we liue vnto the Lord: or whether we dye, we dye vnto the Lord: whether we liue therefore, or dye, we are the Lords.

9 For Christ therefore dyed and rose againe, and reuiued, that he might be Lord bothe of ỹ dead and the quicke.

10 But why doest thou iudge thy brother? or why doest thou despise thy brother? * For we shal all appeare before ỹ iudgement seat of Christ.

11 For it is written, * I [k] liue, saith the Lord and euerie knee shal bowe to me, and all tongues shal [l] confesse vnto God.

12 So then euerie one of vs shal giue accountes of him self to God.

14 [m] I knowe, & am persuaded through the Lord Iesus, that there is nothig vncleane of it self: but vnto him that iudgeth any thing to be vncleane, to him it is vncleane.

15 But if thy brother be grieued for the meat, now walkest thou not charitably: * destroy not him with thy meat, for whome Christ dyed.

16 Cause not your [n] commoditie to be euil spoken of.

17 For the [o] kingdome of God is not meat nor drinke, but righteousnes, and peace, & ioye in the holie Gost.

18 For whosoeuer [p] in these things serueth Christ, is acceptable vnto God, and is approued of men.

19 Let vs then followe those things ẅ concerne peace, and wherewith one may edifie another.

20 Destroy not the worke of God for meats sake: *all things in dede are pure: but it is euil for the man which eateth with offence.

21 *It is good neither to eat flesh, nor to drinke wine, nor any thing, whereby thy brother stombleth, or is offended, or made weake.

22 Hast thou [q] faith? Haue it with thy self before God: blessed is he that [r] condemneth not him self in that thing ẅ he alloweth.

1 WE which are strong, ought to beare the infirmities of the weake, and not to please our selues.

2 Therefore let euerie mã please his neighbour in that that is good to [a] edification.

3 For Christ also wolde not please him self, but as it is written, * The rebukes of them which rebuke thee, Fel [b] on me.

4 For whatsoeuer things are written afore time, are written for our learning, that we through pacience, & comforte of ỹ Scriptures might haue hope.

Psal. 69, 10.

a To edifie, signifieth to do all maner duties to our neighbour, ether to bring him to Christ, or if he be wõne, ỹ he may growe frõ faith to faith: for the faithful are called the temple of God wherein he is resident by his Holie Spirit & these faithful are the stones of the newe Ierusalem: that is, the vniuersal Church, Isa. 54. reuel 21. of the which buylding Christ is the chief corner stone, Ephes 2, 20.

b I did so beare them, as if they had bene doue to me and not to my Father.

5 Now the God of [c] pacience and consolation giue you that ye be * like minded one towards another, according to Christ Iesus,

6 That ye with one minde, and with one mouth may praise God euen the Father of our Lord Iesus Christ.

7 Wherefore receiue ye one another, as Christ also receiued vs to the [d] glorie of God.

8 Now I say, that Iesus Christ was a [e] minister of the circumcisiõ, for the [f] trueth of God, to confirme the promises made vnto the fathers.

9 And let the Gentiles praise God for his mercie, as it is written, * For this cause I wil confesse thee among ỹ Gentiles, and sing vnto thy Name.

10 And againe he saith, * Reioyce, ye Gentiles with his people.

11 And againe, *Praise the Lord, all ye Gentiles, & laude ye him, all people together.

12 And againe Esaias saith, * There shall be a roote of Iesse, and [g] he that shal rise to reigne ouer [h] the Gentiles, in him shal the Gentiles truste.

13 Now the God of hope fil you with all ioye, and peace in beleuing, that ye may abounde in hope through the power of the holie Gost.

14 And I my self also am persuaded of you, my brethren, that ye also are ful of goodnes, and filled with all knowledge, and are able to admonish one another.

15 Neuertheles brethren, I haue some what boldly after a sort written vnto you, as one that putteth you in remembrance, through the grace that is giuen me of God,

16 That I shulde be the minister of Iesus Christ towarde the Gentiles, ministring the Gospel of God, that the offring vp of the Gentiles might be acceptable [i] being sanctified by the holie Gost,

17 I haue therefore whereof I may reioyce in Christ Iesus in those things ẅ perteine to God.

18 For I dare not [k] speake of anie thing, which Christ hathe not wroght by me, to make the Gentiles obedient in worde and dede,

19 With the power of signes and wonders, by the power of the Spirit of God: so that from Ierusalem, and rounde about vnto Illyricum, I haue caused to abounde the Gospel of Christ.

20 Yea, so I enforced my self to preache the Gospel, not where Christ was named, lest I shulde haue buylt on another mans fundation.

21 But as it is written, * To whome he was not spoken of, they shal se him, & they that heard not, shal vnderstand him.

Written to the Romaines from Corinthus and sent by Phebe, seruant of the Church, which is at Cenchrea.

THE FIRST EPISTLE

of Paul to the Corinthians.

THE ARGVMENT.

After that S. Paul had preached at Corinthus a yere and an halfe, he was compelled by the wickednes of the Iewes to saile into Syria. In whose absence false Apostles entred into the Church, who being puffed vp with vaine glorie, and affectat eloquence, soght to bring into contempt the simplicitie which Paul vsed in preaching the Gospel. By whose ambition suche factions & schismes sprang vp in the Church, that from opinions in pollicies & ceremonies they fel to false doctrine and heresies, calling into doute the resurrection from the dead, one of the chiefest points of Christian religion. Against these euils the Apostle procedeth, preparing the Corinthians hearts, & eares with gentle salutations: but sone after he reproueth their contentions and debates, their arrogancie & pride, and exhorteth them to cõcorde & humilitie, setting before their eyes the spiritual vertue, & heauelie wisdome of the Gospel, which can not be persuaded by wordlie wit and eloquent reasons, but is reueiled by Gods Spirit, and so sealed in mens hearts. Therefore this salutation may not be attributed to the ministers, but onely to God, whose seruants they are, and haue receiued charge to edifie his Church: wherein S. Paul behaued him self skilfully, buylding according to the fundation (which is Christ) and exhorteth others to make y end proportionable to the beginning, taking diligent hede that they be not polluted with vaine doctrine, seying they are the Tẽple of God. And as for those w deuted of his Apostleship he sheweth thẽ that he depẽdeth not on mans iudgement, albeit he had declared by manifest signes that he neuer soght his owne glorie, nether yet how he might liue, but onely the glorie of Christ: which thing at his comming he wolde declare more amply, to the shame of those vaine glorious braggers, who soght them selues onely. & therefore suffred moste horrible Vices vnreproued & vnpunished, as incest, contentions, pleadings before infideles, fornication & suche like, to the great slander of the Gospel. This done, he answereth to certeine points of the Corinthians letter, as touching single life, duetie of mariage, of discorde & dissension among the maried, of virginitie, & seconde mariage. And because some thoght it nothing to be present at idole seruice, seing in their heart they worshiped the true God, he warneth them to haue respect to their weake brethren, whose faith by that dissembling was hindred, & their cõsciences wounded, which thing rather then he wolde do, he wolde neuer vse that libertie, w God had giuen him. But forasmuche as pride, & self wil was the cause of those great euils, he admonisheth them by the example of the Iewes not to glorie in these outwarde gifstes, whose horrible punishment for the abuse of Gods creatures, ought to be a warning to all mẽ to follow Christ vprightly, without all pollution and offence of others. Then he correcteth diuers abuses in their Church, as touching the behauiour of men and women in the assemblies: of the Lords Supper, the abuse of the spiritual giftes, which God hath geue to maintein loue and edifie y Church: as cõcerning the resurrection frõ the dead, without the w the Gospel serueth to no vse. Last of all he exhorted the Corinthians to relieue the poore brethren at Ierusalem, to persenere in the loue of Christ, and wel doing, sending his commendations, and wishing them peace.

6 As the testimonie of Iesus Christ hathe bene confirmed in you.
7 So that ye are not destitute of anie gift: *wayting for ỹ appearing of our Lord Iesus Christ.
8 Who shal also confirme you vnto the end, that ye may be[g] blameleſſe in ỹ day of our Lord Iesus Christ.
9 *God is faithful, by whome ye are called vnto the felowſhip of his Sonne Iesus Christ our Lord.
10 Now I beſeche you, brethren, by the Name of our Lord Iesus Christ, * that ye all[h] speake one thing, and that there be no diſſentions among you: but be ye knit together in one minde, and in one iudgement.
11 For it hathe bene declared vnto me, my brethren, of you by them that are of the houſe of [i] Cloe, that there are cõtentions among you.
12 Now this I say, ỹ euerie one of you ſaith, I am Paules, and I am *Apollos, and I am Cephas, and I am Chriſts.
13 Is Christ deuided? was Paul crucified for you? ether were ye baptized [k] into the name of Paul?
14 I thanke God, that I baptized none of you, but *Criſpus, and [l] Gaius, 15 Leſt anie ſhulde ſay, that I had baptized into mine owne name.
16 I baptized alſo the houſhode of Stephanas: furthermore knowe I not, whether I baptized anie other.
17 For Christ ſent me not to [m] baptize, but to preache the Goſpel, not with *[n] wiſdome of wordes, [o] leſt the croſſe of Christ ſhulde be made of none effect.
18 For ỹ preaching of ỹ croſſe is to thẽ that periſh, fooliſhnes: but vnto vs, ẅ are ſaued, it is the *power of God.
19 For it is written, I* wil deſtroye ỹ wiſdome of the wiſe, and wil caſt away the vnderſtanding of the prudent.
20 Where is ỹ wiſe? where is the [p] Scribe? where is the [q] diſputer of this worlde? hathe not God made ỹ wiſdome of this worlde fooliſhnes?
21 For ſeing ỹ worlde by wiſdome knewe not God in the wiſdome of God, it pleaſed God by the fooliſhnes of preaching to ſaue them that beleue:
22 Seing alſo that the Iewes require a* ſigne, and the Grecians ſeke after wiſdome.
23 But we preache Christ crucified: vnto the Iewes, euen a ſtombling blocke, & vnto the Grecians, fooliſhnes:
24 But vnto them which are called, bothe of the Iewes & Grecians we preache Christ, the power of GOD, and ỹ wiſdome of God.
25 For the [r] fooliſhenes of God is wiſer then men, and the weakenes of God is ſtronger then men.
26 For brethrẽ, you ſe your calling, how that not manie wiſe men [ſ] after ỹ fleſh, not manie mightie, not manie noble are called.
27 But God hathe choſen the fooliſh things of the worlde to confounde the wiſe, and God hathe choſen the weake things of the worlde, to confounde the mightie things.
28 And vile things of the worlde & things which are deſpiſed, hathe God choſen & things[t] which are not, to bring to noght things[v] that are,
29 That no [x] fleſh ſhulde reioyce in his preſence.
30 But ye are of him in Christ Iesus, who of God is made vnto vs* wiſdome and righteouſnes, and ſanctification, and redempcion,
31 That, according as it is written, * He that reioyceth, [y] let him reioyce in the Lord.

CHAP. II.

1 He putteth for exaꝛple his maner of preaching, which was according to the tenor of the Goſpel. 8 Which Goſpel was contemptible & hid to the carnal, 10 And againe honorable and manifeſt to the ſpiritual.

1 And I, brethrẽ, whẽ I came to you, came not with *excellencie of wordes, or of wiſdome, ſhewing vnto you the [a] teſtimonie of God.
2 For I eſtemed not to [ſ] knowe anie thing among you ſaue Iesus Christ, and him crucified.
3 * And I was among you in [b] weakenes, and in feare, & in muche trembling.

6 And we ſpeake wiſdome among them that are [c] perfite: not the wiſdome of this worlde, nether of the [d] princes of this worlde which come to noght.
7 But we ſpeake the wiſdome of God in a myſterie, euen the hid wiſdome, which God had determined before ỹ worlde vnto our glorie.

[o] For the truth of God is not subiect to the iudgement of man.

[p] That is, Christs Spirit, Iohn 16,13. rom. 8,9.

[a] Being ingrafted in Christ by faith, we begin to moue by his Spirit, & as we profite in faith, we growe vp to a ripe age. And here let him take hede that teacheth, lest for milke he giue poyson for milke and strong meat in effect are one, but onely differ in maner & forme.

8 Which [c] none of the princes of this worlde hathe knowen: for had thei knowen it, thei wolde not haue crucified the [f] Lord of glorie.

9 But as it is writtē, * The things which eye hathe not sene, nether eare hathe heard, nether [g] came into mans heart, are, which God hathe prepared for thē that loue him.

10 But God hathe reueiled them vnto vs by his Spirit: for the Spirit [h] searcheth all things, yea, the deepe things of God.

11 For what man knoweth the things of a man, saue the spirit [i] of a man, which is in him? euen so the things of God knoweth no man, but the Spirit of God.

12 Now we haue [k] receiued not the Spirit of the worlde, but the Spirit, which is of God, that we might knowe the [l] things that are giuen to vs of God.

13 Which things also we speake, not in the * wordes which mans wisdome teacheth, but ẅ the holie Goste teacheth, comparing [m] spiritual things with spiritual things.

14 But the [n] natural man perceiueth not the things of the Spirit of God: for they are foolishnes vnto him: nether can he knowe them, because they are spiritually discerned.

15 But he that is * spiritual, discerneth all things: yet he him self is [o] iudged of no man.

16 * For who hathe knowen the minde of the Lord, that he might instruct him? But we haue the [p] minde of Christ.

CHAP. III.

Paul rebuketh the sectes and autours thereof. 7 No man ought to attribute his saluacion to the ministres, but to God. 10 That they be ware erronius doctrines. 11 Christ is the fundacion of his Church. 16 The dignitie and office both of the ministres and also of all the faithful.

AND I colde not speake vnto you, brethren, as vnto spiritual mē, but as vnto carnal, euen as vnto [a] babes in Christ.

2 I gaue you milke to drinke, & not meat: for ye were not yet able to beare it, nether yet now are ye able.

3 For ye are yet carnal: for where as there is among you enuying, and strife, and diuisions, are ye not carnal, and walke as men?

4 For when one saith, I am Pauls, and another, I am Appollos, are ye not carnal?

5 Who is Paul then? and who is Apollos, but the ministres by whome ye beleued, & as the Lord gaue to euerie man?

6 I haue planted, Apollos watred, but God gaue the encrease.

7 So then, nether is he that plāteth, anie thing, nether he that watreth, but God that giueth the encrease.

8 And he that planteth, & he that watreth, are [b] one, * and euerie man shal receiue his wages, according to his labour.

9 For we together are Gods [c] laborers: ye are Gods housbandrie, and Gods buylding.

10 According to the grace of God giuen to me, as a skilful master buylder, I haue laid the fundacion, and another buyldeth thereon: but let euerie man [d] take hede how he buyldeth vpon it.

11 For other fundacion can no man lay, then that which is laid, which is Iesus Christ.

12 And if anie man buylde on this fundacion, golde, siluer, precious stones, tymber, haye, or stubble.

13 Euerie mans worke shalbe made manifest: for the [e] daye shal declare it, because it shalbe reueiled by the [f] fyre: & the fyre shal trye euerie mans worke of what sorte it is.

14 If anie mans worke, that he hathe buylt vpon, abide, he shal receiue wages.

15 If anie mans worke burne, he shal [g] lose, but he [h] shalbe [i] safe him self: neuertheles yet as it were by the fyre.

16 * Knowe ye not that ye are the Temple of God, and that the Spirit of God dwelleth in you?

17 If anie man destroy the Temple of God, him shal God destroy: for the Temple of God is holie, which ye are.

18 Let no man deceiue him self. If anie man among you seme to be wise in this worlde, let him be a foole, that he may be wise.

19 For ȳ wisdome of this worlde is foolishnes with God: for it is written, * He catcheth the wise [k] in their owne craftines.

20 * And againe, The Lord knoweth that the thoghts of the wise be vaine.

21 Therefore let no man reioyce in men: for all things are yours.

22 Whether it be Paul, or Apollos, or Cephas, or the worlde, or life, or death: whether they be things present, or things to come, euen all are yours,

23 And ye Christs, and Christ Gods.

CHAP. IIII.

After that he had described the office of a true Apostle, 3 Seing they did not acknowledge him suche a one, 4 He appealeth to Gods iudgement, 7 Beating downe their glorie which hindered them to praise that, which they dispraised in him. 16 He sheweth what he requireth on their parte, & what they ought to loke for of him at his returne.

LEt a man so thinke of vs, as of the [a] ministers of Christ, and disposers the secrets of God.

2 And as for ỹ rest, it is required of the disposers, that euerie man be founde faithful.

3 *As touching me, I passe verie litle, to be iudged of you, or of [b] mans iudgement: no, I iudge not [b] mine owne self.

4 For I [c] knowe nothing by [d] my self, yet am I not thereby iustified: but he that iudgeth me, is the Lord.

5 Therefore * iudge nothing before the time, vntil the Lord come, who wil lighten things that are hid in darkenes, and make the counsels of the hearts manifest: and then shal euerie man haue praise of God.

6 Now these things, brethren, I haue figuratiuely applied vnto mine owne self & Apollos, for your sakes, that ye might learne [e] by vs, that no man presume aboue that which is written, that one swel not against another for anie mans cause.

7 For who [f] separateth thee? and what hast thou, that thou hast not receiued? if thou hast receiued it, why reioycest thou, as though thou hadest not receiued it?

8 Now ye are ful: now ye are made riche: ye reigne as Kings without vs, and wolde to God ye did reigne, that we also might reigne with you.

9 For I thinke that God hathe set forthe vs [g] the laste Apostles, as men appointed to death: for we are made a gasing stocke vnto the worlde, and to the Angels, and to men.

10 We are [h] fooles for Christs sake, and ye are wise in Christ: we are weake, and ye strong: ye are honorable, and we are despised.

11 Vnto this houre we bothe honger, & thirst, and are naked, and are buffeted, and haue no certeine dwelling place,

12 *And labour, working with our owne hands: we are reuiled, & yet we blesse: we are persecuted, and suffer it.

13 *We are euil spoken of, and we [i] pray: we are made as the filthe of the worlde, the ofskowring of all things, vnto this time.

14 I write not these things to shame you, but as my beloued children I admonish you.

15 For though ye haue ten thousand [j] instructours in Christ, yet haue ye not manie fathers: for in Christ Iesus I haue begotten you through the Gospel.

16 Wherefore, I pray you, be ye followers of me.

17 For this cause haue I sent vnto you Timotheus, ẅ is my beloued sonne, and faithful in ỹ Lord, ẅ shal put you in [k] remembrance of my wayes in Christ as I teache euerie where in euerie Church.

18 Some are puffed vp as though I wolde not come to you.

19 But I wil come to you shortely, * if ỹ Lord wil, and wil knowe, not ỹ speache of them ẅ are puffed vp, but ỹ power.

20 For the [k] kingdome of God is not in worde, but in [l] power.

21 What wil ye? shal I come vnto you with a rod, or in loue, and in the spirit of mekenes?

CHAP. V.

1 He reproueth sharpely their negligence in punishing him that had committed incest. 3 Willing them to excommunicate him, 7 To embrace puritie, 9 And flee wickednes.

IT is heard certeinely that there is fornicatiō amōg you, and suche fornicatiō as is not once named amōg ỹ [a] Gentils, * ỹ one shulde haue his fathers wife.

7 Purge out therefore the olde leauen, that ye may be a newe lumpe, [h] as ye are vnleauened: for Christ our Passeouer is sacrificed for vs.

8 Therefore let vs kepe ỹ feast, not with olde leauē, nether in ỹ leauen of maliciousnes and wickednes: but ẅ the vnleauened bread of sinceritie and trueth.

9 I wrote vnto you [i] an epistle, * ỹ ye shul de not cōpanie together ẅ fornicators,

10 And [i] not all together with the fornicatours of this worlde, or with the couetous, or with extortioners, or with idolaters: for then must ye nedes go out of the worlde.

11 But now I haue written vnto you, that ye shul not company together, if any man that is called a brother be a fornicatour, or couetous, or an idolater, or a railer, or a drunkard, or an extortioner: with such a one see that ye eate not.

12 For what haue I to do to iudge them also that are without? do not ye iudge them that are within?

13 But them that are without, God iudgeth. Therefore put away from among your selues that wicked person.

CHAP. VI.

1 He rebuketh them for going to law together before the Heathen. 7 Christians ought rather to suffer. 12 He reproueth the abusing of Christian libertie, 15 And sheweth that we ought to serue God purely bothe in bodie, and in soule.

1 DAre anie of you, hauing busines against another, be iudged vnder a the a vniust, and not vnder the Saintes?

2 * Do ye not knowe, that the Saintes shal iudge the worlde? If the worlde then shalbe iudged by you, are ye vnworthie to iudge the smalleſt matters?

3 Knowe ye not that we shal iudge the b Angels? how muche more things that perteine to this life?

4 If then ye haue iudgements of things perteining to this life, c set vp them ẅ are d leaſt estemed in the Church.

5 I speake it to your shame. Is it so that there is not a wise man among you? no not one, that cā iudge betwene his brethren?

6 But a brother goeth to lawe with a brother, and that vnder the infideles.

7 Now therefore there is vtterly e a faute among you, because ye go to law one with another: * why rather suffer ye not wrong? why rather susteine ye not harme?

8 * Nay, ye your selues e do wrong, and do harme, and that to your brethren.

9 Knowe ye not that the vnrighteous shal not inherite the kingdome of God? Be not deceiued: * nether fornicatours, nor idolaters, nor adulterers, nor wantons, nor bouggerers,

15 Knowe ye not, that your bodies are the membres of Christ? shal I then take the membres of Christ, and make them the members of an k harlot? God forbid.

16 Do ye not knowe, that he which coupleth him self with an harlot, is one bodie? * for two, saith he, shalbe one flesh.

17 But he that is ioyned vnto ẏ Lord, is one spirit.

18 Flee fornication: euerie sinne that a man doeth, is without the bodie: but he that committeth fornication, sinneth against his l owne bodie.

19 Know ye not, that * your bodie is the temple of the holie Goſt, which is in you, whome ye haue of God? and ye are not your owne.

CHAP. VII.

1 The Apostle answereth to certeine questiōs which the Corinthians desired to knowe, 2 As of single life, 3 Of the duetie of mariage, 11 Of discordes & dissension in mariage, 13 Of mariage betwene the faithful & vnfaithful. 18 Of vncircumcising the circumcised, 21 Of seruitude. 25 Of virginitie, 39 And seconde mariage.

1 NOw concerning ẏ things whereof ye wrote vnto me. It were a good for a man not to touche a woman.

2 Neuertheles, to auoide fornication, let b euerie man haue his wife, and let euerie woman haue her owne housband.

3 * Let the housband giue vnto ẏ wife c due beneuolence, and likewise also the wife vnto the housband.

4 The wife hathe not the power of her owne bodie, but the housband: and likewise also the housband hathe not the power of his owne bodie, but the wife.

a Or, expediēt because mariage, through mās corruption, and not by Gods institution bringeth cares and troubles.

1. Pet. 3, 7.

b Speaking to all men in general.

c Which conteineth all duetie perteining to mariage.

5 Defraud-

5 Defraude not one another, except it be with consent for a time, that ye may giue your selues to fasting and prayer & againe come together that Satan tempt you not for your incontinencie.

6 But I speake this by permission, [d] not by commandement.

7 For I wolde that all men were euen as I my self am: but euerie man hathe his proper gift of God, one after this maner, and another after that.

8 Therefore I say vnto ỹ vnmaried, and vnto the widowes, it is good for them if they abide euen as I do.

9 But if they can not abstein, let them marie: for it is better to marie then to [e] burne.

10 And vnto the maried I commande, not I but the Lord, Let not the wife * departe from her housband.

11 But and if [f] she departe, let her remaine vnmaried, or be reconciled vnto her housband, and let not the housbād put [g] away his wife.

12 But to the remnant I speake & not [h] the Lord, If anie brother haue a wife, that beleueth not, if she be cōtent to dwell with him, let him not forsake her.

13 And the woman which hathe an housband that beleueth not, if he be content to dwel with her, let her not forsake him.

14 For the vnbeleuing housband is [i] sanctified by the wife, & the vnbeleuing wife is sanctified by the housband, els were your children vncleane: but now are they [k] holie.

15 But if the vnbeleuing departe, let him departe: a brother or a sister is not in subiection in such things: but God hathe called vs in peace.

16 For what knowest thou, o wife, whither thou shalt saue thine housband? Or what knowest thou, o mā, whither thou shalt saue thy wife?

17 But as God hathe distribute to euerie man, as the Lorde hathe [m] called euerie one, so let him walke: and so ordeine I in all Churches.

18 Is anie man called being circumcised? let him not [n] gather his vncircumcision: is anie called vncircumcised? let him not be circumcised.

19 [o] Circumcision is nothing, & vncircumcision is nothing but the keping of the commandements of God.

20 * Let euerie man abide in the same vocation wherein he was called.

21 Art thou called being a seruant? [p] care not for it: but if yet thou maist be free, vse it rather.

22 For he that is called in the [q] Lord being a seruant, is the Lords fremā: likewise also he that is called being free, is Christs seruant.

23 * Ye are boght [r] with a price: be not ỹ seruants of men.

24 Brethren, let euerie man, wherein he was called, therein abide [s] with God.

25 Now concerning [t] virgines, I haue no [u] commandement of the Lord: but I giue mine aduise, as one that hathe obteined mercie of the Lord to be [v] faithful.

26 I suppose then [w] this to be good for ỹ present [x] necessitie: I meane ỹ it is good for a man so to be.

27 Art thou bounde vnto a wife? seke not to be losed: art thou losed frō a wife? seke not a wife.

28 But if thou take a wife, thou sinnest not: and if a virgine marie, she sinneth not: neuertheles, suche shal haue [xy] trouble in the flesh but I [z] spare you.

29 And this I say, brethren, because the time is short, [aa] here after that bothe they which haue wiues, be as though they had none:

30 And they that [a] wepe, as though they wept not: and they ỹ [b] reioyce, as though thei reioyced not: & thei that bie, as though they possessed not:

31 And they ỹ vse this worlde, as though they vsed it not: for the [c] facion of this worlde goeth away.

32 And I wolde haue you without care. The vnmaried careth for the things of the Lord, how he may please the Lord.

33 But he that is maried, careth for the things of the [d] worlde, how he maie please his wife.

34 There is difference also betwene a virgine & a wife: the vnmaried woman careth for the things of the Lord, that she may be [e] holie, bothe in bodie and in spirit: but she that is maried, careth for the things of ỹ worlde, how she may please her housband.

35 And this I speake for your owne commoditie, not to [f] tangle you in a snare, but that ye follow that, which is honest, and that ye may cleaue fast vnto the Lord without separation.

36 But if anie man thinke that it is vncomlie for his virgine, if she passe the flowre of her age, & [g] nede so require, let him do what he wil, he sinneth not: let them be maried.

37 Neuertheles he [h] that standeth firme in his heart, that he hathe no nede, but hathe [i] power ouer his owne wil, & hathe so decreed in his heart, that he wil kepe his virgine, he doeth wel.

d He sheweth that he commandeth not precisely all men to marie, but that God hathe grāted this remedie vnto the which can not liue chaste.

e With the fyre of concupiscence, ỹ is when mans will so giueth place to ỹ lust ỹ tēpteth, he can not call vpon God with a quiet conscience. Mat 5,32. & 19 9. mar,10,11. luk.16.18.

i Meaning, ỹ ỹ faith of ỹ beleuer hathe more power to sanctifie mariage then ỹ wickednes of ỹ other to pollute it.

k They that are borne of either of ỹ parēts faithful, are also coūted members of Christs Church, because of the promes, Act.2,39.

l When suche things come to passe, ỹ ỹ faithful & vnfaithful be maried together, and the one forsake the other without cause.

CHAP. VIII.

He rebuketh them that vse their libertie to the slander of other, in going to the idolatrous sacrifices. 9 And sheweth how men ought to behaue them towarde suche as be weake.

1 AND as touching things sacrificed vnto idoles, we knowe that we all haue [a] knowledge: knowledge puffeth vp, but loue edifieth.

2 Now, if any man thinke ỹ he knoweth any thing, he knoweth nothing yet as he ought to knowe.

3 But if any man loue God, the same is [m]knowen of him.

4 Concerning therefore meat sacrificed vnto idoles, we knowe that an idol is [b] nothing in the worlde, & that there is none other God but one.

5 For thogh there be ỹ are called gods, whether in heauen, or in earth, (as there be many gods, and many [c] lords)

6 Yet vnto vs there is but one God, which is the Father, of whome are all things, & we in him: & * one Lord Ieſus Chriſt, by whome are all things, and we by him.

7 But euerie man hathe not knowledge: for some hauing [d] conſcience of the idole, vntil this houre, eat as a thing sacrificed vnto the idole, and so their conſcience being weake, is defiled.

8 But meat maketh not vs acceptable to God: for nether if we eat, haue we the [e] more: nether if we eat not, haue we the leſſe.

9 But take hede leſt by any meanes this [n] power of yours be an occaſion of falling to them that are weake.

10 For if any man ſe thee ẅ haſt knowledge, ſit at table in the idoles temple, ſhal not the conſcience of him which is weake, be [o] boldened to eat thoſe thigs which are sacrificed to idoles?

11 And through thy knowledge ſhal the * [g] weake brother periſh, for whome Chriſt dyed.

12 Now when ye ſinne ſo againſt ỹ brethren, and wounde their weake cōſcience, ye ſinne againſt Chriſt.

3 My defenſe to them [b] that examine me, is this,

4 Haue we not power to eat [c] & to drinke?

5 Or haue we not power to [d] lead about a wife being a [e] ſiſter, as wel as the reſt of the Apoſtles, and as the [e] brethren of the Lord, and Cephas?

11 * If we haue ſowen vnto you ſpiritual things, is it a great thing if we reape your carnal things?

12 If others with you be partakers of this [h] power, are not we rather? Neuertheles, we haue not vſed this power: but [n] ſuffre all things, that we ſhulde not hinder the Goſpel of Chriſt.

17 For if I do it willingly, I haue a rewarde: but if I do it against my wil, notwithstanding the dispensation is cõmitted vnto me.

18 What is my rewarde then? verely that when I preache the Gospel, I make the Gospel of Christ [m] fre that I abuse not mine autoritie in the Gospel.

19 For though I be fre from all men, yet haue I made my self seruant vnto all men, that I might winne the mo.

20 *And vnto the Iewes I become as a Iewe, that I may winne the Iewes: to thẽ that are vnder the Lawe, as though I were vnder the [n] Law, that I may winne them that are vnder the Law:

He feareth them with the examples of the Iewes that they put not their truste carnally in the graces of God, 14 Exhorting them to flee all idolatrie, 23 And offence of their neighbour.

Epla Dnica 9ª post Trinit.

MOreouer, brethren, I wolde not ỹ ye shulde be ignorant, that all our fathers were vnder * the cloude, and all passed through the * sea,

2 And were all * baptized vnto [a] Moses, in the cloude, and in the sea,

3 And did all eat the same [b] spiritual meat,

4 *And did all drinke the same spiritual drinke (for they dranke of the spiritual Rocke that followed them: and the Rocke [d] was Christ)

5 But with many of them God was not pleased: for they were * ouerthrowen in the wildernes.

6 Now these are ensamples to vs, to the intent that we shulde not lust after euil things *as they also lusted.

7 Nether be ye idolaters as were some of them, as it is writtẽ, *The people sate downe to [e] eat and drinke, and rose vp to playe.

8 Nether let vs commit fornication, as some of them committed fornication, and fel in one * [f] daye thre & twentie thousand.

9 Nether let vs tempt [g] Christ, as some of them also tempted him, & were * destroyed of serpents.

10 Nether murmure ye, as some of thẽ *also murmured, and were destroyed of the [h] destroyer.

CHAP. XI.

He rebuketh the abuses which were crept into their Church, 4 As touching prayer, prophecying, 18 And ministring the Lords Supper, 23 Bringing them againe to the first institution thereof.

1 BE ye the followers of me, euen as I am of Christ.
2 Now, brethren, I commend you, that ye remembre [u] all my things, & kepe the ordinances, as I deliuered them to you.
3 But I wil that ye knowe, that Christ is ỹ *heade of euerie man: and the mā is ỹ womans head: and God is Christs head.
4 Euerie man [a] praying or [o] prophecying hauing any thing on his head, [b] dishonoreth his head.
5 But euerie woman that prayeth [c] or prophecieth bareheaded, dishonoreth her head: for it is euen one very thing, as though she were shauen.
6 Therefore if the woman be not couered, let her also be shorne: and if it be shame for a woman to be [u] shorne or shauen, let her be couered.
7 For a man ought not to couer his head: for asmuche as he is the * [d] image and glorie of God: but the woman is the [e] glorie of the man:
8 For the man is not of the woman, but the woman of the man.
9 *For the man was not created for the womans sake: but the woman for the mans sake.
10 Therefore ought the woman to haue [f] power on her head, because of the [g] Angels.
11 Neuertheles, neither is ỹ man without the woman, neither the woman without the man in the [hi] Lord.
12 For as the woman is of the man, so is the man also by the woman: but all things are of God.
13 Iudge in your selues, is it comelie that a woman praye vnto God vncouered?
14 Doeth not nature it self teache you, that if a mā haue long [k] heere, it is a shame vnto him?
15 But if a woman haue long heere, it is a praise vnto her: for her heere is [l] giue her for a couering.
16 But if any man luste to be cōtentious, we haue no suche custome, nether the Churches of God.
17 ¶ Now in this that I declare, I praise you not, that ye come together, not with profit, but with hurt.
18 For first of all, when ye come together in the Church, I heare that there are dissensions among you: and I beleue it to be true [m] in some parte.
19 For there must be [u] heresies euen amōg you, that they which are approued among you might be knowen.
20 When ye come together therefore into one place, this is not to eat ỹ Lords Supper.
21 For euerie man when they shulde eat, taketh his owne supper afore, and one is hungrie, and another is drunken.
22 Haue ye not houses to eat & to drinke in? Dispise ye the Church of God, and shame thē that haue not? What shal I say to you? Shal I praise you in this? I praise you not.
23 For I haue receiued of the [o] Lord that which I also haue deliuered vnto you, to wit, That the Lord Iesus in the night that he was betrayed, toke bread.
24 *And when he had giuen thankes, he brake it, and said, Take, eat: this is my bodie,

25 After the same maner also he toke the cup, when he had supped, saying, This cup is the Newe Testamēt in my blood: this do as oft as ye drinke it in remembrance of me.

27 Wherefore, whosoeuer shal eat this bread, and drinke the cup of the Lord [q] vnworthely, shalbe giltie of the bodie & blood of the Lord.

28 *Let a man therefore examine himself, and so let him eat of this bread, & drinke of this cup.

CHAP. XII.

The diuersitie of the giftes of ỹ holie Goost ought to be vsed to the edifying of Christs Church. 12 As the members of mans bodie serue to the vse one of anoter.

Sonday next before Trinitie.

1 NOw concerning spiritual giftes, brethren, I wolde not haue you [a] ignorant.

2 Ye knowe that ye were Gentiles, and were caryed away vnto the [b] domme idoles, as ye were [c] led.

3 Wherefore, I declare vnto you, that no man * speaking by the [d] Spirit of God, calleth Iesus * execrable: also no man can say that Jesus is the Lord, but by the holie Goost.

4 Now there are diuersities of giftes, but the same Spirit.

5 And there are diuersities of administrations, but the same Lord.

6 And there are diuersities of operatiōs, but God is the same, which worketh all in all.

7 But the manifestation of the Spirit is giuen to euerie man, to [e] profit withall.

8 For to one is giuen by the Spirit the worde of wisdome: and to another the worde of [f] knowledge, by the same Spirit:

9 And to another is giuen [g] faith, by the same Spirit: and to another the giftes of healing, by the same Spirit:

10 And to another [h] the operations of great workes: and to another, [i] prophecie: and to another, [k] the discerning of spirits: and to another, diuersities of tongues: & to another ỹ interpretation of tongues.

11 *And all these things worketh euen the self same Spirit, distributing to euerie man seuerally as he wil.

12 For as the bodie is one, and hathe many membres, and all the membres of the bodie, which is one, thogh they be many, yet are but one bodie: euen so is Christ.

13 For by one Spirit are we all baptized into [l] one bodie, whether we be Iewes or Grecians, whether we be bonde, or fre, and haue bene all made to drinke into one Spirit.

14 For the bodie also is not one member, but many.

15 If the fote wolde say, Because I am not the hand, I am not of the bodie, is it therefore not of the bodie?

16 And if the eare wolde say, because I am not the eye, I am not of the bodie, is it therefore not of the bodie?

17 If the whole bodie were an eye, where were the hearing? If the whole were hearing, where were the smelling?

18 But now hathe God disposed the membres euerie one of them in the bodie at his owne pleasure.

19 For if they were all one member, where were the bodie?

20 But now are there manie membres, yet but [m] one bodie.

21 And the eye cā not say vnto the hand, I haue no nede of thee: nor the head againe to the fete, I haue no nede of you.

22 Yea, muche rather those membres of the bodie, which seme to be [n] more feble, are necessarie.

23 And vpon those membres of the bodie, which we thinke moste vnhoneste, put we more [o] honestie on: and our vncomelie partes haue more comelines on.

24 For oure comelie partes nede it not: but God hathe tempered the bodie together, and hathe giuen the more honour to that parte which lacked,

25 Lest there shulde be anie diuision in the bodie: but that the members shulde [p] haue the same care one for another.

26 Therefore if one member suffer, all suffer with it: if one member be had in honour, all the membres reioyce with it.

Because loue is the fountaine and rule of edifying the Church, he setteth forth the nature office and praise thereof.

Epta Dnica Quinquagesima.

1 THogh I speake with the tongues of men and a Angels, and haue not loue, I am as sounding brasse, or a tinkling cymbal.

2 And thogh I had the gift of prophecie, and knewe all secretes & all knowledge, yea, if I had b all faith, so that I colde remoue * mountaines and had not loue, I were nothing.

3 And thogh I fede the poore with all my goods and thogh I giue my bodie, that I be burned, and haue not loue, it profiteth me nothing.

4 Loue suffreth long: it is bountiful: loue enuieth not: loue doeth not boast it self: it is not puffed vp:

5 It disdaineth not: it seketh not her owne things: it is not prouoked to anger: it thinketh not euil:

6 It reioyceth not in iniquitie, but reioyceth in the trueth:

7 It suffreth all things: it beleueth c all things: it hopeth all things: it endureth d all things.

8 Loue doeth neuer fall away, thogh that prophecyings be abolished, or the tongues cease, or knowledge vanish away.

9 For e we knowe f in parte, and we " prophecie in parte.

10 But when that which is perfite, is come, then that which is in parte, shalbe abolished.

11 When I was a childe, I spake as a childe, I vnderstode as a childe, I thoght as a childe: but when I became a man, I put away childish things.

12 For now we se g through a glasse darkely: but then shal we se face to face. Now I knowe in parte: but then shal I knowe euen as I am e knowen.

13 And now abideth faith, hope & loue, euen these thre; but the h chiefest of these is loue.

CHAP. XIIII.

He exhorteth to loue commendeth the gifte of tongues, & other spirituall gifts, 5 But chiefly prophecying. 34 He commandeth women to kepe silence in the Church. 40 And sheweth what good ordre ought to be obserued in the Church.

1 FOllowe after loue, and couet spirituall gifts, and rather that ye maye a prophecie.

2 For he that speaketh a strange tongue, speaketh not vnto men, but vnto God: for no man b heareth him: howbeit in c the Spirit he speaketh secret things.

3 But he that prophecieth, speaketh vnto men to edifying, and to exhortacion, and to comfort.

4 He that speaketh strange language, edifieth d him self: but he that prophecieth, edifieth the Church.

5 I wolde that ye all spake strange languages, but rather that ye prophecied: for greater is he that prophecieth, then he that speaketh diuers tongues, except he expounde it, that the Church may receiue edificacion.

6 And now, brethren, if I come vnto you speaking diuers tongues, what shal I profite you, except I speake to you, either by c reuelacion, or by knowledge, or by prophecying, or by doctrine?

7 Moreouer things " without life which giue a sounde, whether it be a " pipe or an harpe, except they make a distinctiō in the sounds, how shal it be knowen what is piped or harped?

8 And also if the trumpet giue an vncerteine sounde, who shal prepare him self to battel?

9 So likewise ye ou by the tongue, except ye vtter wordes that haue significacion, how shal it be vnderstand what is spoken? for ye shal speake f in the f ayre.

10 There are so manie kindes of voyces, (g as it cometh to passe) in the worlde, and none of them g is domme.

11 Except I knowe then the power of the voyce, I shalbe vnto him ỹ speaketh, h a barbarian, and he that speaketh, shalbe a barbarian vnto me.

12 Euen so, for asmuche as ye couet spiritual gifts, seke that ye maye excel vnto the edifying of the Church.

17 For thou verely giuest thankes wel, but the other is not edified.

18 I thanke my God, I speake languages more then ye all.

19 Yet had I rather in ỹ Church to speake n fiue wordes with mine vnderstanding that I might also instruct others, then ten thousand wordes in a strange tongue.

20 Brethren, be not * children in vnderstanding, but as concerning maliciousnes be children, but in vnderstanding be of a ripe age.

21 In the Law it is written, *o By men of other tongues & by other languages wil I speake vnto this people: yet so shal they not heare me, saith the Lord.

22 Wherefore strange tongues are for a p signe, not to them that beleue, but to them that beleue not: but prophecying serueth not for them that beleue not, but for them which beleue.

23 If therefore, when the whole Church is come together in one, and all speake strange tongues, there come in they that are vnlearned, or they which beleue not, wil thei not say, that ye are out of your wittes.

24 But if all prophecie, and there come in one that beleueth not, or one vnlearned, q he is rebuked of r all men, and is iudged of all.

25 And so are the secretes of his heart made manifest, & so he wil fall downe on his face and worship God, and say plainely that God is in you in dede.

26 What is to be done then, brethren? when ye come together, according as euerie one of you hathe a psalme, or hathe doctrine, or hathe a tongue, or hathe reuelacion, or hathe interpretacion, let all things be done vnto edifying.

27 If anie man speake a strange tongue, let it be by two, or at the s most, by three, and that by course, and let one interpret.

28 But if there be no interpreter, let him kepe silence in the Church, which speaketh language, & let him speake to him self, and to God.

29 Let the Prophetes speake two, or three, and let the other iudge.

30 And if anie thing be reueiled to another that sitteth by, let the first holde his peace.

31 For ye may all prophecie one by one, that all may learne, & all may haue comfort.

32 And the t spirits of the Prophetes are v subiect to the Prophetes.

33 For God is not the autor of confusion, but of peace, as we se in all the Churches of the Saintes.

34 *Let your wome kepe x silence in the Churches: for it is not permitted vnto them to speake: but they ought to be subiect, as also * the Law saith.

35 And if thei wil learne anie thing, let them aske their housbands at home: for it is a shame for women to speake in the Church.

36 yCame the worde of God out from you? ether came it vnto you onely?

37 If anie man thinke him self to be a Prophet, or z spiritual, let him acknowledge, that the things, that I write vnto you, are the commandements of the Lord.

38 aAnd if anie man be ignorant, let him be ignorant.

39 Wherefore, brethren, couet to prophecie, & forbid not to speake languages.

40 Let all things be done honestly & by order.

11 Wherefore whether it were I, or they, so we preache, and so haue ye beleued.
12 ¶ Now if it be preached, that Christ is risen from the dead, how say some among you, that there is no resurrection of the dead?
13 For if there be no resurrection of the dead, then is Christ not risen.
14 And if Christ be not risen, then is our preaching e vaine, and your f faith is also vaine.
15 And we are founde also false witnesses of God: for we haue testified of God, that he hathe raised vp Christ: whome he hathe not raised vp, if so be the dead be not raised.
16 For if the dead be not raised, then is Christ not raised.
17 And if Christ be not raised, your faith is g vaine: ye are yet in your h sinnes.
18 And so they ‖ are a slepe in Christ, are perished.
19 If in this life *i onely we haue hope in Christ, we are of all men the moste miserable.
20 But now is Christ risen from the dead, and was made the* first k frutes of them that slept.
21 For since by man came death, by man came also the resurrection of the dead.
22 For as in Adam all dye, euen so in k Christ shal l all be made aliue, 35 But some man wil say, How are the dead raised vp? And with what bodie come they forthe?

36 O foole, that which thou sowest, is not quickened, except it dye.
37 And that which thou sowest, thou sowest not that bodie that shalbe but bare corne, as it falleth, of wheat, or of some other.
38 But God giueth it a bodie at his pleasure, euen to euerie sede his owne bodie.
39 All flesh is not the same flesh, but there is one s flesh of mē, and another flesh of beastes, and another of fishes, and another of birdes.
40 There are also heauenlie bodies, and earthlie bodies: but the glorie of the heauenlie is one, and the glorie of the earthlie is another.
41 There is another glorie of the t sunne, and another glorie of the moone, and another glorie of the starres: for one starre differeth from another starre in glorie.
42 So also is the resurrection of the dead. The bodie is sowen in corruption, and is raised in incorruption.
43 It is sowen in v dishonour, and is raised in glorie: it is sowen in weakenes, & is raised in power.
44 It is sowen a natural bodie, & is raised a x spiritual bodie: there is a natural bodie, & there is a spiritual bodie.
45 As it is also written, The first man *Adam was made a liuing soule: and the last Adam was made a y quickening Spirit.
46 Howbeit that was not first made which is spiritual: but that which is natural, & afterwarde that which is spiritual.

THE

THE SECONDE EPIstle of Paul to the Corinthians.

THE ARGVMENT.

AS nothing can be written, either so perfitely, or with so great affection and zeale, which is not vnprofitable to many, and resisted by some: so the first epistle written by S. Paul to the Corinthians, besides the puritie and perfection of the doctrine, sheweth a loue towarde them farre passing all natural affections: which did not onely not profit all, but hardened the hearts of many to remaine in their stubbernes, and contemne the Apostles autoritie. By reason whereof S. Paul being let with iuste occasions to come vnto them, wrote this epistle from Macedonia, minding to accomplish the worke which he had begonne among them. First therefore he wisheth them wel in the Lord, declaring that albeit certeine wicked persones abused his afflictions to condemne thereby his autoritie, yet they were necessarie scholings, and sent to him by God for their bettering. And where as they blame his lang absence, it came of no inconstancie, but to beare with their inhabilitie and imperfection, lest contrary to his fatherlie affection he shulde haue bene copelled to vse rigour and seueritie. And as touching his sharpe writing in the former epistle, it came through their faute, as is now evident bothe in that, that he pardoneth the trespacer, seing he doeth repēt: and also in that he was vnquiet in his minde, til he was certified by Titus of their estate. But forasmuche as the false Apostles went about to vndermine his autoritie, he confuteth their arrogāt bragges, and commendeth his office, and the diligent executing of the same: so that Satan must haue greatly blinded their eyes, which se not the brightnes of the Gospel in his preaching: the effect whereof is newnes of life, forsaking of our selues, cleauing to God, fleing frō idolatrie, embracing the true doctrine, and that sorrowe which engendreth true repentance: the which is ioyned mercie and compassion towards our brethren: also wisdome to put difference betwixt the simplicitie of the Gospel, and the arrogancie of the false preachers, who vnder pretēce of preaching the trueth, soght onely to fil their bellies, where as he contrari wise soght them, and not their goods, as those ambitious persones slandered him: wherefore at his cōming he menaceth suche as rebell against his autoritie, that he wil declare by liuelie example, that he is the faithful ambassadour of Iesus Christ.

CHAP. I.

He declareth the great profite that cometh to the faithful by their afflictiōs. 15.17. And because they shulde not impute to lightnes, that he differed his comming contrarie to his promes, he proueth his constancie, bothe by the synceritie of his preaching, and also by the immutable trueth of ỹ Gospel. 21 Which trueth is grōūded on Christ, and sealed in our hearts by the holie Gost.

1 PAul an Apostle of IESVS CHRIST by the wil of God, & our brother Timotheus, to the Church of God, which is at Corinthus with all ỹ Saintes, which are in all [a] Achaia:

2 Grace be with you, and peace from God our Father, & from the Lord Iesus Christ.

3 *[b] Blessed be God cuē the Father of our Lord Iesus Christ, the Father of mercies, and the God of all comforte,

4 Which comforteth vs in all our tribulation, that we may be able to comforte them which are in anie affliction by the comforte wherewith we our selues are comforted of God.

5 For as the [c] sufferings of Christ abunde in vs, so our consolation abundeth through Christ.

6 And whether we be afflicted, it is for your consolation and [d] saluation, which [e] is wroght in the induring of the same suffrings, which we also suffer: or whether we be comforted, it is for your consolation and saluation.

7 And our hope is stedfast cōcerning you, in as muche as we knowe that as ye are partakers of the suffrings, so shal ye be also of the consolation.

8 For brethren, we wolde not haue you ignorant of our affliction, which came vnto vs in Asia, how we were pressed [f] out of measure passing strength, so that we all together douted, euen of life.

9 Yea, we [g] receiued the sentence of death in our selues, because we shulde not trust in our selues, but in God, which raiseth the dead.

10 Who deliuered vs from so [h] great a death, and doeth deliuer vs: in whome we trust, that yet here after he wil deliuer vs,

11 *So that ye labour together in prayer for vs, that for the gift bestowed vpon vs for manie, thankes may be giuen by manie persones for vs.

12 [i] For our reioycing is this, the testimonie of our conscience, that in simplicitie and godlie purenes, & not in fleshlie wisdome, [k] but by the grace of God we haue

d For seing him indure so muche, they had occasion to be cōfirmed in the Gospel.

e As God onely worketh all things in vs: so doeth he also our saluacion by his fre mercie, and by suche meanes as he hathe here left in this life for vs to be exercised in.

f Hereby he sheweth his owne infirmitie that it might appeare how wōderfully Gods graces wroght in him.

g I was vtterly resolued in my self to dye.

h So manie dangers of death. Rom.15.30.

i He rendreth a reason why they ought to praye vnto God for his recouerie.

k Vsing that wisdome which God gaue me from heauen.

haue had our conuersation in the worlde, and moste of all to you wardes.

13 For we [l] write none other things vnto you, then that ye read or els that ye acknowledge, & I truste ye shal acknowledge vnto the end.

14 Euen as ye haue acknowledged vs partely, that we are your [m] reioycing, euen as ye are [n] ours, in the [o] day of our Lord Iesus.

15 And in this confidence was I minded firste to come vnto you, that ye might haue had a double grace,

16 And to passe by you into Macedonia, & to come againe out of Macedonia vnto you, and to be led forthe towarde Iudea of you.

17 When I therefore was thus minded, did I vse lightnes? or minde I those things which I minde, [p] according to ý flesh, that with me shulde be, [q] Yea, yea, and Nay, nay?

18 Yea, [r] God is faithful, that our worde towarde you was not Yea, and Nay.

19 For the Sonne of God Iesus Christ who was preached among you by vs, that is by me, and Siluanus, and Timotheus, was not Yea, and Nay: but in him it was ý Yea.

20 For all the promises of God in him are [t] Yea, and are in him Amen, vnto ý glorie of God through vs.

21 And it is God which stablisheth vs with you in Christ, and hathe anointed vs.

22 Who hathe also sealed vs, & hathe giuen the * earnest of the Spirit in our hearts.

23 Now, I call God for a recorde vnto my soule, that to spare you, I came not as yet vnto Corinthus.

24 Not ý we [v] haue dominion ouer your faith, but we are helpers of your ioye: for by [x] faith ye stande.

l Ye knowe partely my constancie bothe by my dwelling w you, and also my writing vnto you: and I truste ye shal know me to be ý same to the very end.

m In that we haue taught you the Gospel so syncerely.

n Because we haue wone you to Christ.

o Which shal abolish all worldelie glorie.

p Which is rashely to promes and not to performe.

q Now to affirme one thing, and then to deny it, which is a signe of inconstancie.

r He taketh God to witnes ý he preacheth the trueth.

s He preached nothing vnto them but onely Iesus Christ who is the moste constant and infallible trueth of the Father.

t They are made, performed & we are partakers onely by him, who is our Amen, in that he hathe fulfilled them forvs.

Ephe. 4, 30.

u In that I say I came not because I wolde spare you, I meane not that I haue autoritie to alter true religion, or to binde your consciences: but that I am Gods minister to confirme and comfort you.

x And faith is not in subiection to man.

CHAP. II.

He sheweth his loue towardes them. 7 Requiring like wise that thei wolde be fauorable to the incestious adulterer, seing he did repent. 14 He also reioyceth in God for the efficacie of his doctrine, 17 Confuting thereby suche quarelpikers, as vnder pretence of speaking against his persone, soght nothing, but the ouerthowe of his doctrine.

1 BVt I determined thus in my self, that I wolde not come againe to you in heauines.

2 For if I make you sorie, who is he then that shuldemake me glad, but the same which is made [a] sorie by me?

3 And I wrote [b] this same thing vnto you, lest when I came, I shulde take heauines of thē, of whome I ought to reioyce: this confidence haue I in you all, that my ioye is the ioye of you all.

4 For in great affliction, and anguish of heart I wrote vnto you with many teares: not that ye shulde be made sorie, but that ye might perceiue ý loue which I haue, specially vnto you.

5 And if any hathe caused sorow, the same hathe not [c] made me sorie, but partely (lest I shulde [d] more charge him) you all.

6 It is sufficient vnto the same man, that he was rebuked of manie.

7 So that now contrarie wise ye ought rather to forgiue him, and comforte him lest the same [e] shulde be swalowed vp with ouer muche heauines.

8 Wherefore, I praye you, that you wolde [f] confirme your loue towards him.

9 For this cause also did I write, that I might knowe the prose of you, whether ye wolde be obedient in all things.

10 To whome ye forgiue anie thing, I forgiue also: for verely if I forgaue anie thing, to whome I forgaue it, for your sakes forgaue I it in the [g] sight of Christ,

11 Lest Satan shulde [h] circumuent vs: for we are not ignorant of his entreprises.

12 *¶ Furthermore, whē I came to Troas to preache Christs Gospel, & a dore was opened vnto me of the Lord,

13 I had no reste [i] in my spirit, because I founde not Titus my brother, but toke my leaue of them, and went away into Macedonia.

14 [i] Now thankes be vnto God which alwayes maketh vs [k] to triumph in Christ, and maketh manifest the sauour of his knowledge by vs in euerie place.

15 For we are vnto God the swete sauour of Christ, in them that are saued, and in them which perish.

16 To ý one we are the [l] sauour of death, vnto death, and to the other the sauour of life, vnto life. * and who is sufficient for these things?

17 *For we are not as manie, [m] which make marchādise of the worde of God: but as of synceritie, but as of God in ý sight of God speake we in [n] Christ.

a Which was giuen to Satan but now doeth repent.

b Which made you & him sory in my former epistle.

c After this adulterer did repent & amend, paul did so vterly cast of all sorowe, ý he denieth ý in maner he was anie whit sorie.

d And so shulde increase his sorowe which I wolde diminish.

e The adulterer, which interteined his mother in Law.

f That at my intercession you wolde declare by the publike consent of the Church that you embrace him againe as a brother: seing he was excommunicate by the commune consent.

g That is, truely, and from mine heart, euen as in the presence of Christ.

h By our rigorous punishing.

i Or, in my minde.

i From this place vnto the 6. chap. 11. he entreateth onely of the ministers saue he some time interme deleth that w apperteineth to ý whole Church, as Chap. 3, 17, and 18. verses, and not onely to ý ministers.

Rom. 11, 16. Chap. 4, 2.

k In working mightely by vs

l The preaching of the crosse bringeth death to them which onely consider Christs death as a commune death, & be thereat offended, or els thinke it folie: & bringeth againe life to them who holde their life.

m That is, which preache for gaine, & corrupt it to serue mens affectiones.

n Or, through Christ, of our Christ.

he maketh vs partakers of his victorie and triumph.

m That is, which preache for gaine, & corrupt it to serue mens affectiones.

CHAP. III.

1 He taketh for example the faith of the Corinthians for a probation of the trueth which he preached. 6 And to exalte his Apostleship against the bragges of the false apostles. 7. 13 He maketh comparison betwixt the Law and the Gospel.

DO [a] we beginne to praise our selues againe? or nede we as some other, epistles of recommendation vnto you, or letters of recommendation from you?

Ye are our epistle, writtē in our hearts, which is vnderstād and red of all men, In that ye are manifest, to be the epistle of Christ, [b] ministred by vs, and written, not with yncke, but with the Spirit of the liuing God, not in [c] tables of stone, but in fleshlie tables of the heart.

And suche truste haue we through Christ to God:

Not that we are sufficiēt of our selues, to thinke anie thing, as of our selues: but our sufficiencie is of God.

Who also hathe made vs able ministers of the New testament, not of the [d] letter but of the [e] Spirit: for the letter killeth, but the [f] Spirit giueth life.

If the [g] ministration of death written with letters & ingraue in stones, was glorious so that the children of Israel colde not beholde the face of Moses for the [h] glorie of his countenāce (which glorie is done away)

How shal not the ministration of the Spirit be more glorious?

For if the ministerie of [i] cōdemnation was glorious, muche more doeth the ministration of [k] righteousnes excede in glorie.

For euen that which was glorified, was not glorified in this point, that is, as touching the exceding glorie.

For if that which shulde be abolished, was glorious, much more shal that which remaineth, be glorious.

Seing then that we haue suche truste, we vse [l] great boldenes of speache.

And we are not as Moses, which [m] put a vaile vpon his face, that the children of Israel shulde not looke vnto the end of that which shulde be abolished.

Therefore their mindes are hardened: for vntil this day remaineth the same couering vntaken away in the reading of the Olde testament, which vaile in Christ is put away.

But euen vnto this day, when Moses is red, the vaile is layed ouer their hearts.

Neuertheles when their heart shalbe turned to the Lord, the vaile shalbe taken away.

Now the [n] Lord is the * Spirit, and where the Spirit of the Lord is, there is libertie.

But we all beholde as in a [o] mirrour the glorie of the Lord with open face, and are changed into the same image, from glorie to glorie, as by the Spirit of the Lord.

CHAP. IIII.

He declareth his diligence, and roundenes in his office. 8 And that which his enemies toke for his disaduantage, to wit, the crosse and afflictions which he endured, he turned it to his great aduantage. 11. 17 Shewing what profit cometh thereby.

THerefore, seing that we haue this ministerie, as we haue receiued mercie, [a] we fainte not:

But haue cast from vs the [b] clokes of shame & * walke not in craftines, nether handle we the worde of God disceitfully: but in declaration of the trueth we approue our selues to euerie mans conscience in the sight of God.

If our Gospel be then hid, it is hid to them, that are lost.

In whome the [c] god of this worlde hathe blinded the mindes, that is, of the infideles, that the light of the glorious Gospel of Christ, which is the [d] image of God, shulde not shine vnto them.

For we preache not our [e] selues, but Christ Iesus the Lord, and our selues your seruants for Iesus sake.

For God that * commanded the light to shine out of darkenes, is he which hathe shined in [f] our hearts, to giue the [g] light of the knowledge of the glorie of God in the face of Iesus Christ.

But we haue this [h] treasure in earthen vessels, that the excellencie of that power might be of God and not of vs.

We are afflicted on euerie side, yet are we not in distresse: in pouertie, but not ouercome of pouertie.

We are persecuted, but not forsaken: cast downe, but we perish not.

Euerie where we beare about in our bodie the [i] dying of ȳ Lord Iesus, that the life of Iesus might also be made manifest in our bodies.

For we which liue, are alwayes deliuered vnto death for Iesus sake, that the life also of Iesus might be made manifest in our mortal flesh.

So then [k] death worketh in vs, and life in you.

And becausе we haue the same [l] Spirit of faith, according as it is writtē, * I beleued, & therefore haue I spoken, we also beleue, and therefore speake,

Knowing ȳ he which hathe raised vp the Lord Iesus, shal [m] raise vs vp also by Iesus, and shal set vs with you.

CHAP. V.

1 Paul procedeth to declare the vtilitie that cometh by the croſſe. 4 How we ought to prepare our ſelues vnto it. 5 By whome. 9 And for what end. 14. 19 He ſetteth forthe the grace of Chriſt. 20 And the office of miniſters, and all the faithful.

1 FOr we knowe that if [a] our earthlie houſe of this tabernacle be deſtroyed, we haue a buylding giuen of God, that is, an houſe not made with hands, but eternal in the heauens.

2 For therefore we ſigh, deſiring to be clothed with our houſe, which is from heauen.

3 ["]Becauſe that if we be clothed, we ſhal not be founde * naked.

4 For in dede we that are in this tabernacle, ſigh and are burdened, ["] becauſe we wolde not be vnclothed, but wolde be clothed vpon, that mortalitie might be ſwalowed vp of life.

5 And he that hathe created vs for this thing, is God, who alſo hathe giuen vnto vs the earneſt of the Spirit.

6 Therefore we are alway [b] bolde, thogh we knowe that whiles we are ["] at home in the bodie, we are abſent from the Lord.

7 (For we [c] walke by faith, & not by ſight)

8 Neuertheles, we are bolde, & loue rather to remoue out of the bodie, and to dwell with the Lord.

9 Wherefore alſo we couet, that bothe dwelling [d] at home, and remouing [e] from home, we may be acceptable to him.

10 *For we muſt all appeare before the iudgement ſeat of Chriſt, that euerie man may receiue the things which are done in his bodie, according to that he hathe done, whether it be [f] good or euil.

11 Knowing therefore the [g] terror of the Lord, we [h] perſuade men & we [i] are made manifeſt vnto God, & I truſt alſo ẏ we are made manifeſt in your conſciences.

12 For we praiſe not our ſelues againe vnto you, but giue you an occaſion to reioyce of vs, that ye may haue to anſwere againſt them, which reioyce in the [k] face, and not in the heart.

13 For whether we be [l] out of our wit, we are it [m] to God: or whether we be in our right minde, we are it vnto you.

14 For the loue of Chriſt conſtraineth vs: becauſe we thus iudge, that if one be dead for all, then were [n] all dead,

15 And he dyed for all, that they [o] which liue, ſhulde not hence forthe liue vnto them ſelues, but vnto him which dyed for them, and roſe againe.

16 Wherefore, hence forthe know we no man [p] after the fleſh, yea thogh we had knowen Chriſt after the fleſh, yet now hence forthe [q] know we him no more.

17 Therefore if anie man be in Chriſt, let him be a [r] new creature. * Olde things are paſſed away: beholde, all things are become new.

18 And all things are of God, which hathe reconciled vs vnto him ſelf by Ieſus Chriſt, and hathe giuen vnto vs the miniſterie of reconciliation.

19 For God was [s] in Chriſt, and reconciled the worlde to him ſelf, not imputing their ſinnes vnto them, and hathe committed to vs the worde of reconciliation.

20 Now then are we ambaſſadours for Chriſt: as thogh God did beſeche you through vs, we praye you in Chriſts ſtede, that ye be reconciled to God.

21 For he hathe made him to be [t] ſinne for vs, which knew no ſinne, that we ſhulde be [v] made the righteouſnes of God in him.

a After this bodie ſhalbe diſſolued, it ſhalbe made incorruptible and immortal.

[f] By the worde of trueth, by the power of God, by the armour of righteousnes on the right hand and on the lefte,

By honour, and dishonour, by euil reporte & good reporte, as deceiuers, and yet true:

As vnknowē, and yet knowen: as dying, and beholde, we liue: as chastened, and yet not killed:

As sorowing, & yet alway reioycing: as poore, and yet make manie riche: as hauing nothing, and yet possessing all things.

O Corinthians, our [g] mouth is open vnto you: our heart is made large.

Ye are not kept straite in vs, but ye are kept straite in your owne [h] bowelles.

Now for the same recompense, I speake as to my children, [i] Be you also enlarged.

[k] Be not vnequally yoked with the infideles: for * what felowship hathe righteousnes with vnrighteousnes? and what communion hathe light with darkenes?

And what concorde hathe Christ w Belial? or what parte hathe the beleuer with the infidel?

And what agrement hathe the Temple of God with idoles? * for ye are the Temple of the [l] liuing God: as God hathe said, * I will dwel among them, and walke there: and I wil be their God, and they shalbe my people.

* Wherefore come out from among them, and separate your selues, saith the Lord: and touche none vncleane thing, & I wil receyue you.

* And I wil be a Father vnto you, and ye shalbe my sonnes and daughters, saith the Lord almightie.

CHAP. VII.

He exhorteth them by the promises of God to kepe them selues pure, 3. 7 Assuring them of his loue, & 13 And doeth not excuse his seueritie towarde them, but reioyceth thereat, considering what profite came thereby. 10 Of two sortes of sorow.

SEing then we haue these promises, dearely beloued, let vs [a] clense our selues from all filthines of the [b] flesh & spirit, and growe vp vnto ful holines in the feare of God.

[c] Receiue vs: we haue done wrong to no man: we haue consumed no man: we haue [d] defrauded no man.

I speake it not to your condemnacion: for I haue said before, that ye are in our hearts, to dye and liue together.

I vse great boldenes of speache towarde you: I reioyce greatly in you: I am filled with comfort, and am exceading ioyous in all our tribulation.

For when we were come into Macedonia, our flesh had no reste, but we were troubled on euerie side, fightings [e] without, & terrours within.

But God, that comforteth the abiect, comforted vs at the comming of Titus:

And not by his comming onely, but also by ȳ consolacion wherewith he was comforted of you, whē he tolde vs your great desire, your mourning, your feruēt minde to me warde, so that I reioyced [f] muche more.

For though I made you sorie with a letter, I repent not, though I did repent: for I perceiue that the same epistle made you sorie, though it were but for a season.

I now reioyce, not that ye were sorie, but that ye sorowed to repentance: for ye sorowed godly, so that in nothing ye were hurt by vs.

* For godlie sorowe causeth repentance vnto saluation, not to be repented of: but the wordlie sorowe causeth death.

For beholde, this thing that ye haue bene [g] godly sorie, what great care it hathe wroght in you: yea, what [h] clearing of your selues: yea, what indignacio: yea what feare: yea, how great desire: yea, what a zeale: yea, what [i] punishment: in all things ye haue shewed your selues, ȳ ye are pure in this matter.

Wherefore, though I wrote vnto you, I did not it for his cause that had done the wrong, nether for his cause that had the iniurie, but that our care towarde you in the sight of God might appeare vnto you.

Therefore we were comforted, because ye were comforted: but rather we reioyced muche more for the ioy of Titus, because his [m] spirit was refreshed by you all.

For if that I haue boasted anie thing to him of you, I haue not bene ashamed: but as I haue spokē vnto you all things in trueth, euen so our boasting vnto Titus was true.

And [k] his inwarde affection is more abundant towarde you, when he remembreth the obedience of you all, and how with feare & trembling ye receiued him.

I reioyce therefore that I may [l] put my confidence in you in all things.

CHAP. VIII.

7 By the example of the Macedonians. 9 And Christ, he exhorteth them to continue in relieuing the poore Saincles, commending their good beginning. 23 After he commendeth Titus and his felowes vnto them.

1 WE do you also to wit, brethren, of the [a] grace of God bestowed vpon the Churches of Macedonia,

2 Because in great tryal of afflictiō their ioye abunded, and there moste extreme pouertie [b] abunded vnto their riche liberalitie.

3 For to their power (I beare recorde) yea, & beyonde their power, they were willing,

4 And praied vs with great instance that we wolde receiue the [c] grace, & felowship * of the ministring which is towarde the Saintes.

5 And this they did, not as we loked for: but gaue their owne selues, first to the Lord, and after vnto vs by the wil of God,

6 That we shulde exhorte Titus, that as he had begonne, so he wolde also accomplish the same grace among you also.

7 Therefore, as ye abūde in euerie thing, in faith and worde, and knowledge, and in all diligence, and in your loue towards vs, euen so se that ye abunde in this grace also.

8 This say I not by commandement, but because of the diligence of others: therefore proue I the naturalnes of your loue.

9 For ye knowe the grace of our Lord Iesus Christ, that he being riche, for your sakes became poore, that ye through his pouertie might be made riche.

10 And I shewe my minde herein: for this is expedient for you, which haue begonne not to do onely, but also to [d] wil, a yere a go.

11 Now therefore performe to do it also, that as there was a readines to wil, euen so ye maye performe it of that which ye haue.

12 For if there be first a willing minde, it is accepted according to that a man hathe, & not according to that he hathe not.

13 Nether is it that other men shulde be eased and you grieued.

14 But vpon like condicion, at this time your [e] abundance supplieth their lacke, that also their abundance may be for your lacke, ỹ there may be [f] equalitie:

15 As it is written * He that gathered muche, had nothing ouer, and he that gathered litle, had not the lesse.

16 And thankes be vnto God, which hathe put in the heart of Titus the same care for you.

17 Because he accepted the [g] exhortacion, yea, he was so careful that of his owne accorde he went vnto you.

18 And we haue sent also with him the brother, whose praise is [h] in the Gospel throughout all the Churches,

19 (And not so onely, but is also chosen of the Churches to be a felowe in our iourney cōcerning this grace that is ministred by vs vnto the glorie of ỹ same Lord, and declaration of your prompt minde)

20 Auoyding this, that no man shulde blame vs in this abundance that is ministred by vs,

21 *Prouiding for [i] honest things, not onely before ỹ Lord, but also before mē.

22 And we haue sent with them our brother, whome we haue oft times proued to be diligent in manie things, but now muche more diligent, for the great cōfidence, which I haue in you.

23 Whether anie do enquire of Titus, he is my felowe and helper to you warde: or of our brethren, they are messengers of the Churches, & the [k] glorie of Christ.

24 Wherefore shewe toward them, & before the Churches the profe of your loue, and of the reioycing that we haue of you.

a This benefite of God appeared in two things: first, that the Macedonians being in so great afflictions were so prompt to helpe others. & next ỹ being in great pouertie, were verie liberal towards others.

b So ỹ a moste abundant riuer of riches flowed out of their pouertie.

c So he calleth their liberalitie, either because ỹ they were ỹ bestowers of Gods grace, or because they receiued them of God frely, and so they desired paul to se to the destribution thereof.

d Euerie man may do good ỹ hathe abilitie thereunto, but to wil, and haue a minde to do good, cometh of perfite charitie.

e That as you helpe others in their nede, so others shal relieue your wāt. Exod. 16, 18.

f That bothe you & others, as occasion shal serue, may relieue ỹ godlie according to their necessities.

g And willingly offred him self to gather your almes.

CHAP. IX.

3 The cause of Titus and his companions comming to them. 6 He exhorteth to giue almes cherefully. 7 Shewing what frute wil come thereof.

1 FOr as touching the ministring to ỹ Saintes, it is superfluous for me to write vnto you.

2 For I knowe your readines of minde, whereof I boast my self of you vnto thē of Macedonia, & say, that Achaia was prepared a yere ago, and your zeale hathe prouoked manie.

3 Now haue I sent the brethren, lest our reioycing ouer you shulde be in vaine in this behalfe, that ye (as I haue said) be readie:

4 Lest if they of Macedonia come with me, and finde you vnprepared, we (I nede not to say you) shulde be ashamed in this my constant boasting.

5 Wherefore, I thoght it necessarie to exhorte the brethren to come before vnto you, and to finish your beneuolence appointed afore, that it might be readie, and come as of beneuolēce, and not as of sparing.

6 This yet remember, that he ỹ soweth, sparingly, shal reape also sparingly, and he that soweth liberally, shal reape also liberally.

7 As euerie man wisheth in his heart, so let him giue not *grudgingly, or of necessitie: *for God loueth a chereful giuer.

Prou. 11,25. rom. 12,8. Eccle. 35,1.

8 And God is able to make all grace to abounde towarde you, that ye alwayes hauing [a] all sufficiencie in all things, may abounde in euerie [b] good worke, a Lest they shuld degiue but litle, distrusting to impouerish thé selues thereby, he sheweth that God wil so blesse their liberal hearts, ý bothe they shal haue ynough for thé selues & also to helpe others withal.

9 *As it is written, [c] He hathe sparsed abroad and hathe giuen to the poore: his beneuolence remaineth for euer.

Psal. 112,9.

b That ye may do good & helpe others at all times.

10 Also he that findeth seede to the sower, wil minister likewise bread for foode, and multiplie your sede, and increase the frutes of your beneuolence,

11 That on all partes ye may be made riche vnto all liberalitie, which causeth through vs thankesgiuing vnto God.

12 For the ministration of this seruice not onely supplieth the necessities of the Saincts, but also is abundant by the thankesgiuing of manie vnto God,

13 (Which by the experimente of this ministration praise God for your voluntarie submission to the Gospel of Christ, and for your liberal distribution to thé, and to all men)

14 And by [d] their prayer for you, [e] desiring after you greatly, for the abundāt grace of God in you.

15 Thankes therefore be vnto God for his vnspeakeable gift.

c Dauid speaketh of that man ẅ feareth God & loueth his neighbour.

d Besides ý by their liberalitie God shal be prai sed, they also shalbe commended to God by their prayers whome they haue holpē, yea & all men shal reuerence them, as beīg endued ẅ an excellent gift of God.

e Or, greatly affectioned towarde you.

CHAP. X.

He toucheth the false apostles and defendeth his autoritie, exhorting them to obedience. 11 And sheweth what his power is, 13 And how he vseth it.

1 NOw I Paul my self beseche you by the mekenes, & gentlenes of Christ, which when I am present among you, am [a] base, but am bolde towarde you being absent:

a These wordes his bakbiters vsed, thinking thereby to diminish his autoritie, as verse. 10.

2 And this I require you, that I nede not to be bolde when I am present, with that same confidence, wherewith I thinke to be bolde against some, ẅ esteme vs as though we walked [b] according to the flesh.

b Meaning a certeine man among them, ẅ thus spake of paul.

3 Neuertheles, though we walke in the flesh, yet we do not warre after the flesh,

4 (For the weapons of our warrefare are not carnal, but mightie through God, to cast downe holdes)

5 Casting downe the imaginations, and euerie high thig that is exalted against the knowledge of God, and bringing into captiuitie euerie thoght to the obedience of Christ,

6 And hauing ready the vengeāce against all disobedience, when your obedience is fulfilled.

7 Loke ye on things after the appearance? If anie man trust in him self that he is Christs, let him consider this againe of him self, that as he is Christs, euen so are we Christs.

8 For thogh I shulde boast somewhat more of our autoritie, which the Lord hathe giuen vs for edification, and not for your destruction, I shulde haue no shame.

9 This I say that I may not seme as it were to feare you with letters.

10 For the letters, [c] saith he, are sore and strong, but his bodelie presence is weake, and his speache is of no value.

c Meaning a certeine man among them, ẅ thus spake of paul.

11 Let suche one thinke this, that suche as we are in worde by letters when we are absent, suche wil we be also in dede, when we are present.

12 For we dare not make our selues of ý nomber, or to compare our selues to them, which praise thē selues: but they vnderstād not that they [d] measure them selues with them selues, & cōpare them selues with them selues.

d He ý measureth anie thing, must haue some line or measure to mete by, and not to measure a thing by it self: so these boasters must measure them selues by their worthie actes: & if they wil cōpare with others, let them shewe what coūtreis, what cities, & people they haue wōne to the Lord: for who wil praise ý souldier, ẅ onely at the table can finely talke of the warres, & whē he cometh, to the brunt, is nether valiant nor expert. Ephes. 4,8.

13 But we wil not reioyce of things, which are not with in our measure, *but according to the [e] measure of the line, whereof God hathe distributed vnto vs a measure to atteine euen vnto you.

e That is, the giftes & vocation, ẅ God had giue hī to winne others by.

14 For we stretch not our selues beyonde our measure, as though we had not atteined vnto you: for euen to you also haue we come in preaching the Gospel of Christ,

15 Not boasting of things which are without our measure: that is, of other mens labours: and we hope, when your faith shal increase, to be magnified by you according to our line abundantly,

16 And to preache the Gospel in those regions which are beyonde you: not to reioyce in [f] another mans line, that is in ý things that are prepared already.

f God gaue the whole worlde to ý Apostles to preache in, so ý paul here meaneth by the line his porciō of the coūtreis where he preached. Iere. 9,24. 1. cor. 1,31.

17 *But let him that reioyceth, reioyce in the Lord.

18 For he that praiseth him self, is not alowed, but he whome the Lord praiseth.

9 And when I was present with you, and had nede, I was [i] not slothful to ỹ hinderãce of anie man: for that which was lacking vnto me, the brethren which came from Macedonia, supplied, and in all things I kept, and wil kepe my self that I shulde not * be grieuous to you.

i He did not onely labour ẅ his hands for his liuing, but in his extreme pouertie preached diligently, without burdening anie mã, or els waxing slothful to do his duetie to euerie man.

Chap.12.13. act.20.34.

10 [k] The trueth of Christ is in me, that this reioycing shal not be shut vp agaīst me in the regions of Achaia.

k Let not the trueth of Christ be thought to be in me, if I suffer my ioye to be shut vp, ẅ I haue conceiued of Grecia.

11 Wherefore? because I loue you not? God knoweth.

12 But what I do, that wil I do: that I may cut away occasion from them which desire [l] occasion, that they might be founde like vnto vs in that wherein they reioyce.

l To slander my ministerie, if I shulde receiue wages.

13 For suche false [m] Apostles are deceitful workers, and transforme them selues into the Apostles of Christ.

m By false Apostles here is not ment suche as teache false doctrine (which doutles, they wolde haue growen vnto) but suche as were vaine glorious, and did not their duetie syncerely.

14 And no marueile: for Satan him self is transformed into an Angel of light.

15 Therefore it is no great thing, though his ministers transforme them selues, as though they were the ministers of righteousnes, whose end shalbe according to their workes.

16 I say againe, let no man thinke, that I am foolish: or els take me euen as a foole, ỹ I also may boast my self a litle.

n In his hearte he had respect to the Lord: but this facion of boasting semed according to man, wherevnto they compelled him.

17 That I speake, I speake it not after the [n] Lord: but as it were foolishly, in this my great boasting.

18 Seing that manie reioyce [o] after the flesh, I wil reioyce also.

19 For ye suffer fooles gladly, because that ye are wise.

20 For ye suffre euen if a man bring you into bondage, if a man deuoure you, if a man take your goods, if a mā exalte him self, if a man smite you on the face.

be spoken, which are not n possible for man to vtter.

5 Of suche a man wil I reioyce: of my self wil I not reioyce, except it be of mine infirmities.

6 For thogh I wolde reioyce, I shulde not be a foole: for I wil say the trueth, but I refraine, lest anie man shulde thinke of me above that he seeth in me, or that he heareth of me.

7 And lest I shulde be exalted out of measure through the abundance of reuelations, there was giuen vnto me d a pricke in the flesh, the messenger of Satan to buffet me, because I shulde not be exalted out of measure.

8 For this thing I besoght ỹ Lord e thrise, that it might departe from me.

9 And he said vnto me, My grace is sufficient for thee: for my power is made f perfite through weakenes. Verie gladly therefore wil I reioyce rather in mine infirmities, that the power of Christ may dwell in me.

10 Therefore g I take pleasure in infirmities, in reproches, in necessities, in persecutions, in anguish for Christs sake: for when I am weake, then am I strong.

11 I was a foole to boast my self: ye haue compelled me: for I ought to haue bene commended of you: for in nothing was I inferior vnto the verie chief Apostles, thogh I be nothing.

12 The signes of an Apostle were wroght among you with all pacience, with signes, and wonders, and great workes.

13 For what is it, wherein ye were inferiors vnto other Churches, *except that I haue not bene n slothful to your hinderance? forgiue me this wrong.

14 Beholde, b the thirde time I am readie to come vnto you, and yet wil I not be slothful to your hinderance: for I seke not yours, but i you: for the children ought not to laye vp for the fathers, but the fathers for the children.

15 And I wil moste gladly bestowe, and wil be bestowed for your n soules: thogh the more I loue you, the lesse I am loued.

16 But be it that I charged you not: k yet forasmuche as I was craftie, I take you with guile.

17 Did I pill you by anie of them whome I sent vnto you?

18 I haue desired l Titus, & with him I haue sent a brother: did Titus pil you of anie thing? walked we not in the self same spirit? walked we not in the same steppes?

19 Againe, thinke ye that we excuse our selues vnto you? we speake before God in Christ. But we do all things, dearly beloued, for your edifying.

20 For I feare lest when I come, I shal not finde you suche as I wolde: and that I shalbe founde vnto you m suche as ye wolde not, and lest there be strife, enuying, wrath, contentions, backebitings, whisperings, swellings & discorde.

21 I feare lest when I come againe, my God n abase me among you, and I shal bewaile manie of them which haue sinned already, and haue not repented of the * vnclennes, and fornication, and wantonnes, which they haue cõmitted.

The seconde epistle to the Corinthians, written from Philippi, a citie in Macedonia, & sent by Titus and Lucas.

THE EPISTLE OF

the Apostle Paul to the Galatians.

THE ARGUMENT.

THe Galatians after they had bene instructed by S. Paul in the trueth of the Gospel, gaue place to false Apostles, who entring in, in his absence corrupted the pure doctrine of Christ, & taught that the ceremonies of the Law must be necessarily obserued, which thing ý Apostle so earnestly reasoneth against, that he proueth that the granting thereof is the ouerthrowe of mans saluacion purchassed by Christ: for thereby the light of the Gospel is obscured: the conscience burdened: the testaments confounded: mans iustice established. And becawse the false teachers did pretend, as though they had bene sent of the chief Apostles, and that Paul had no autoritie, but spake of him self, he proueth bothe that he is an Apostle ordeined by God, and also that he is not inferior to the rest of the Apostles: which thing established, he procedeth to his purpose, proving that we are freely iustified before God without any workes or ceremonies: which not withstanding in their time had their vse and commoditie: but now they are not onely vnprofitable figures, but also pernicious, becawse Christ the trueth and ý end thereof is come: wherefore men ought now to embrace that libertie, which Christ hathe purchassed by his blood, & not to haue their consciences snared in the grennes of mans traditions: finally he sheweth wherein this libertie standeth, and what exercises apperteine thereunto.

CHAP. I.

6 Paul rebuketh their inconstancie which suffred them selues to be seduced by the false Apostles who preached that the obseruation of the ceremonies of ý Law were necessarie to saluation. 8 And detested them that preache anie otherwise then Christ purely, 13 He sheweth his owne conuersation, magnifieth his office & Apostleship, and declareth him self to be equal with the chief Apostles.

Tit.1,3.
a For God is ý autor of all ministerie.
b This prerogatiue was peculiar to the Apostles.
Luk.1,74.

1 PAul *an Apostle (not [a] of men, nether by [b] man, but by IESVS CHRIST, and God the Father ý hathe raised him from the dead)

2 And all the brethren which are with me, vnto the Churches of Galatia:

3 Grace be with you and peace from God the Father, & from our Lord Iesus Christ,

4 Which gaue him self for our sinnes, that he might deliuer vs * frō this [c] present euil worlde according to the wil of God euen our Father,

5 To whome be glorie for euer and euer, Amen.

c Which is, the corrupt life of man without Christ.

6 I marueile that ye are so sone remoued away vnto another [*] Gospel, from him that had called you in the [d] grace of Christ,

Or, doctrine.
d That is, to be partakers of ý saluation offred freely by Christ.

7 Which is not another Gospel, saue that there be some which trouble you, and intende to [e] peruert the Gospel of Christ.

8 But thogh that we, or an [f] Angel from heauen preache vnto you other wise, then that which we haue preached vnto you, let him be [*] accursed.

9 As we said before, so say I now againe, If anie man preache vnto you otherwise, then that ye haue receiued, let him be accursed.

10 For [g] now preache I mans doctrine, or Gods? Or go I about to please men? for if I shulde yet please men, I were not ý seruant of Christ.

11 * Now I certifie you, brethren, that the Gospel which was preached of me, was not after [h] man.

12 For nether receiued I it of man, nether was I taught it, but by the [i] reuelation of Iesus Christ.

13 For ye haue heard of my conuersation in time paste, in the Iewish religion, how that * I persecuted the Church of God extremely, and wasted it,

14 And profited in the Iewish religion aboue manie of my [*] companions of mine owne nacion, and was muche more zealous of the [k] traditions of my fathers.

e For what is more contrarie to our fre iustification by faith, then the iustification by the Law, or our workes? therefore to ioyne these two together, is to ioyne light ẅ darkenes, death with life, & doeth vtterly ouerthrow the Gospel.

f If it were possible, that an Angel shulde so do: wherby paul declareth the certeinetie of his preaching.

m That is, ẅ anie man, as thogh I had nede of his counsel to approue my doctrine.

15 But when it [l] pleased God (which had separated me from my mothers wombe, and called me by his grace)

16 To reueile his Sonne " in me, that I shulde preache him *among the Gentiles, immediatly I communicated not with [m] flesh and blood:

17 Nether came I againe to Ierusalem to them which were Apostles before me, but I went into Arabia, & turned againe vnto Damascus.

18 Then after thre yeres I came againe to Ierusalem to visite Peter, and abode with him fiftene dayes.

19 And none other of the Apostles sawe I, saue Iames the Lords brother.

20 Now the things which I write vnto you, beholde, I witnesse before God, that I lie not.

21 After that, I went into the coastes of Syria & Cilicia: for I was vnknowen by face vnto the Churches of Iudea, which were in Christ.

22 But they had heard onely some say, He ẅ persecuted vs in time past, now preacheth the [n] faith, which before he destroyed.

23 And they glorified God for me.

n That is, the Gospel ẅ is the doctrine of faith.

CHAP. II.

Confirming his Apostleship to be of God. 3 He sheweth why Titus was not circumcised, 6 And that he is nothing inferior to other Apostles: 11 Yea, and that he hathe reproued Peter the Apostle of the Iewes. 16 After he cometh to ỹ principal scope, which is to proue that iustification onely cometh of the grace of God by faith in Iesus Christ, and not by the workes of the Lawe.

THen fourtene yeres after, I wēt vp againe to Ierusalem with Barnabas, and toke with me Titus also.

2 And I went vp by reuelation, and [a] cōmunicated with them of the Gospel ẅ I preache among the Gētiles, *but particularly with them that were ỹ chief, lest by any meanes I shulde runne, or had runne " in vaine:

3 But nether yet Titus which was with me, though he were a Greekian, was [b] cōpelled to be circumcised.

4 For all the false brethren that crept in, who came in priuely to spie out our libertie, which we haue in Christ Iesus, that they might bring vs into bondage.

5 To whome we [c] gaue not place by subiection for an houre, that the trueth of the Gospel might continue with you.

6 And of them which semed to be great, I was not taught (what they [d] were in time passed, it maketh no matter to me: *God accepteth no mās persone) neuertheles, they that are the chief, [e] did communicate nothing with me.

7 But contrariwise, when they sawe that the Gospel ouer the vncircumcision was committed vnto me, as the Gospel ouer the Circumcision was vnto Peter:

8 (For he that was mightie by Peter in the Apostleship ouer the Circumcision, was also mightie by me towarde the Gentiles)

9 And when Iames, and Cephas, and Iohn knewe of the grace that was giuen vnto me, ẅ are counted to be pillers, they gaue to me and to Barnabas the [f] right hands of felowship, that we shulde preache vnto the Gentiles, and they vnto ỹ Circumcision,

10 * Warning onely that we shulde remember the poore: which thing also I was diligent to do.

11 ¶ And when Peter was come to Antiochia, I withstode him [g] to his face: for he was to be blamed.

12 For before that certeine came from Iames, he ate with ỹ Gentiles: but when they were come, he withdrewe & separated him self, fearing them which were of the Circumcision.

13 And the other Iewes dissembled likewise with him, in somuche that Barnabas was broght into their dissimulation also.

14 But when I sawe, that they went not the " right way to the trueth of the Gospel, I said vnto Peter before all men, If thou being a Iewe: liuest as ỹ Gentiles, & not like the Iewes, why [h] constrainest thou the Gentiles to do like the Iewes?

15 We which are Iewes by nature, and not [i] sinners of the Gentiles,

16 Knowe that a man is not iustified by ỹ workes of the Law, but by the faith of Iesus Christ: euen we, I say, haue beleued in Iesus Christ, that we might be iustified by the faith of Christ, and not by the workes of the Law, because that by the workes of the Law no " flesh shall be iustified.

17 * If then while we seke to be made righteous by Christ, we our selues are founde [k] sinners, is Christ therefore the minister of sinne? God [l] forbid.

18 For if I buylde againe the things that I haue destroyed, [m] I make my self a tresp aser.

19 For I through the Law am dead to ỹ Law, & that might I liue vnto God, I am [n] crucified with Christ.

20 Thus I liue yet, [o] not I now, but Christ liueth in me: & in that that I now liue in the [p] flesh, I liue by the faith in the Sonne of God who hathe loued me, & giuen him self for me.

21 I do

a paul nothing douted of his doctrine: but because many reported ỹ he taught contrary doctrine to the other Apostle, ẅ humors hindered ỹ course of the Gospel, he endeuored to remedie it, and to proue ỹ they consented with him. Act.15, 2.

CHAP. III

1 He rebuketh them sharpely, 2 And proueth by diuers reasons that iustification is by faith. 6 As appeareth by the example of Abraham, 10 19. 24. And by the office, & the end, both of the Law, 11. 25. And of faith.

1 O Fooliſh Galatians, who hathe bewitched you that ye ſhulde not obey the trueth, to whome Ieſus Chriſt before[a] was deſcribed in your ſight, & among you crucified?

2 This onely wolde I learne of you, Receiued ye the[b] Spirit by the workes of the Law, or by the hearing of[c] faith preached?

3 Are ye ſo fooliſh, that after ye haue begonne in the Spirit, ye wolde now[d] be made perfite by the[e] fleſh?

4 Haue ye ſuffred ſo many things in vaine? if ſo be it be euen in vaine.

5 He therefore that miniſtreth to you Spirit, and worketh miracles among you, doeth he it through the worke of ỹ Law, or by the hearing of faith preached?

6 Yea rather as Abraham beleued God, & it was ✱imputed to him for righteouſnes.

7 Knowe ye therefore, that they which are of faith, the ſame are children of Abraham.

8 For the Scripture foreſeing, that God wolde iuſtifie the Gentiles through faith, preached before the Goſpel vnto Abraham, ſaying, ✱In thee ſhal all ỹ Gētiles be bleſſed.

9 So then they which be of faith, are bleſſed with faithful Abraham.

10 For as many as are of the[f] workes of the Law, are vnder the curſe: for it is written, ✱Curſed is euerie man that cōtinueth not in all things, which are written in the boke of the Law, to do them.

11 And that no man is iuſtified by the Law in the ſight of God, it is euident: ✱for the iuſt ſhal liue by faith.

12 And the[g] Law is not of faith: but✱ the man that ſhal do thoſe things, ſhal liue in them.

13 Chriſt hathe redemed vs from the curſe for vs (for it is written, ✱ Curſed is euerie one that hangeth on tre)

14 That the bleſsing of Abraham might come on the Gentiles through Chriſt Ieſus, ỹ we might receiue the [h] promes of the Spirit through faith.

15 Brethren, I ſpeake as mē do. ✱Though it be but a mās couenāt when it is cōfirmed, yet no man doeth abrogate it, or[k] addeth any thing thereto.

16 Now to Abraham and his ſede were the promiſes made. He ſaith not, And to the ſedes, as ſpeaching of many: but, And to thy ſede, as of one, which [l] is Chriſt.

17 And this I ſay, that the Law which was foure hundreth and thirtie yeres after, can not diſanul the couenant ỹ was confirmed afore of God in reſpect of Chriſt, that it ſhulde make the promes of none effect.

18 For if the inheritance be of the Law, it is no more by the promes, but God gaue it vnto Abraham by promes.

19 Wherefore then ſerueth the Law? It was added becauſe of the [m] tranſgreſſions, til the ſede came vnto the which the promes was made: & it was ordeined by [n] Angels in the hand of a Mediatour.

20 Now a Mediatour is not a Mediatour of[o] one: but God is[p] one.

21 Is the Law then againſt the promes of God? God forbid: for if there had bene a Law giuen which colde haue giuen life, ſurely righteouſnes ſhulde haue bene by the Law.

22 But the Scripture hathe ✱ concluded [q] all vnder ſinne, that the promes by ỹ faith of Ieſus Chriſt ſhulde be giuen to them that beleue.

23 But before[r] faith came, we were kept vnder the Law, and ſhut vp vnto the faith, which ſhulde afterwarde be reueiled.

24 Wherefore the ✱Law was our ſcholemaſter to bring vs to Chriſt, that we might be made righteous by faith.

25 But after that faith is come, we are no longer vnder [s] a ſcholemaſter.

26 For ye are all the ſonnes of God by faith in Chriſt Ieſus.

10 Ye obserue[l] dayes, and moneths, and times, and yeres.
11 I am in feare of you, lest I haue bestowed on you labour in vaine.
12 Be ye as[m] I: for I am euen as you: brethren, I beseche you: ye haue not hurt [n] me at all.
13 And ye knowe, how through[o] infirmitie of the flesh I preached the Gospel vnto you at the first.
14 P And the tryal of me which was in my flesh, ye despised not, neither abhorred: but ye receiued me as an[q] Angel of God, yea, as Christ Iesus.
15 What was then your felicitie? for I bere you recorde, that if it had bene possible, ye wolde haue plucked out your owne eyes, and haue giuen them to me.
16 Am I therefore become your enemie because I tell you the trueth?
17 They are ielous ouer you[r] amisse: yea, they wolde exclude[s] you, that ye shulde altogether loue them.
18 But it is a good thing to loue earnestly alwayes in a good thing, & onely when I am present with you,
19 My litle children, of whome I trauaile in birth againe, vntil Chirst be [t] formed in you.
20 And I wolde I were with you now, that I might change my voyce: for I am in doute of you.
21 Tell me, ye that wil be vnder ỹ Law, do ye not heare the Law?
22 For it is written, that Abraham had two sonnes, *one by a seruant, & * one by a fre woman.
23 But he which was of the seruant, was borne after the flesh: and he which was of the fre woma, was borne by promes.
24 By the which things another thing is ment: for these mothers [v] are the two Testaments, the one which is [x] Agar of mounte Sina, ẅ gendreth vnto bōdage,
25 (For Agar or Sina is a mountaine in [y] Arabia, and it answereth to Ierusalem ẅ now is) and she is in bondage with her children.
26 But Ierusalem, which is[z] aboue, is free: which is the mother of vs all.
27 For it is written, * Reioyce thou[a] barren that beareſt no children: breake forthe, & crye, thou that trauaileſt not: for the desolate hathe many mo children, then she which hathe an housbād.
28 * Therefore, brethren, we are after ỹ maner of Isaac, children of the promes.
29 But as then he that was borne after the flesh, persecuted him that was borne after the spirit, euen so it is now.
30 But what saith the Scripture? * Put out the seruant & her soune: for the sonne of the seruant shal not be heire with the sonne of the fre woman.
31 Then brethren, we are not children of the seruant, but of the[a] fre woman ‖.

THE EPISTLE OF

Paul to the Ephesians.

THE ARGVMENT.

WHile Paul was prisoner at Rome, there entred in among the Ephesians false teachers who corrupted the true doctrine which he had taught them, by reason whereof he wrote this Epistle to confirme them in that thing, which they had learned of him. And first after his salutacion, he assureth them of saluacion, because they were thereunto predestinate by the fre election of God, before they were borne, & sealed vp to this eternal life by the holie Gost, giuen vnto them by the Gospel, the knowledge of the which mysterie he prayeth God to confirme towarde them. And to the intent they should not glorie in them selues, he sheweth them their extreme miserie, wherein they were plonged before they knewe Christ, as people without God, Gentiles to whome the promises were not made, and yet by the fre mercie of God in Christ Iesus, they were saued, and he appointed to be their Apostle, as of all other Gentiles: therefore he desireth God to lighten the Ephesians hearts with the perfite vnderstanding of his Sonne, & exhorted them likewise to be mindeful of so great benefites: nether mouen with the false apostles, which seke to ouerthrowe their faith, & treade vnder fote the Gospel, which was not preached to them, as by chance or fortune, but according to the eternal counsel of God: who by this meanes preserueth onely his Church. Therefore the Apostle cõmendeth his ministerie, forasmuche as God thereby reigneth among men, & causeth it to bring forthe moste plentiful frutes as innocencie, holines, with all suche offices appertaining to godlines. Last of all, he declareth not onely in general what ogbt to be the life of the Christians, but also sheweth particularly, what things concerne euerie mans vocacion.

CHAP. I.

After his salutacion, 4 He sheweth that the chef cause of their saluacion standeth in the fre election of God through Christ. 16 He declareth his good wil towarde them giuing thankes & praying God for their faith. 21 The maiestie of Christ.

1 PAul an Apostle of Iesus Christ, by the wil of God, to the *Saintes, which are at Ephesus, and to ỹ faithful in Christ Iesus:

2 Grace be with you, & peace from God our Father, & from the Lord Iesus Christ.

3 *Blessed be God euen the Father of our Lord Iesus Christ, which hathe blessed vs with all [a]spiritual blessing in heauenlie [b]things in Christ,

4 *As he hathe [c]chosen vs in him, before the fundacion of the worlde, ỹ we *shulde be [c]holie, and without blame before him in loue.

5 Who hathe predestinate vs, to be [d]adopted through Iesus Christ vnto him self, according to the good pleasure of his wil,

7 By whome we haue redemptiõ through his blood, euen the forgiuenes of sinnes, according to his riche grace:

8 Whereby he hathe bene abundant toward vs in all wisdome and vnderstanding,

9 And hathe opened vnto vs the misterie of his wil according to his good pleasure, which he had purposed [f] in him.

10 That in the dispensacion of the fulnes of the times he might gather together in one [g]all things, bothe which are in heauen and which are in earth, euen in Christ:

11 In whome also we are chosen when we were predestinate according to the purpose of him, which worketh all things after the counsel of his owne wil,

CHAP. II.

To magnifie the grace of Christ, which is the onelie cause of saluation. 11 He sheweth them what maner of people they were before their conuersion, 18 And what they are now in Christ.

1 AND* you hathe he quickened, that were dead in trespasses and sinnes,

2 Wherein, in time past ye walked, according to the course of this worlde, & after the *[a] prince that ruleth in the aire, euen the spirit, that now worketh in the children of disobedience,

3 Among whome we also had our conuersation in time past, in the lustes of our flesh, in fulfilling the wil of the flesh, & of the minde, and were [b] by nature the children of wrath, as wel as others.

4 But God which is riche in mercie, through his great loue wherewith he loued vs,

5 Euen when we were dead by sinnes, hathe quickened vs [c] together in Christ, by whose grace ye are saued,

6 And hathe [d] raised vs vp together, and made vs sit together in the heauenlie places in Christ Iesus,

7 That he might shew in the ages to come the exceding riches of his grace, through his kindnes towarde vs in Christ Iesus.

8 For by grace are ye saued through faith, and that not of your selues: it is the gifte of God,

9 Not of workes, lest any man shulde boaste him self.

10 For we are [e] his workemanship created in Christ Iesus vnto good workes, ẅ God hathe ordeined, that we shulde walke in them.

11 Wherefore [f] remember that ye being in time past Gentiles in the flesh, & called *vncircumcision of them, which are called circumcision in the flesh, made with hands,

12 That ye were, I say, at ỳ time without Christ, and were aliantes from the comune welth of Israel, & were * stragers from the [g] couenants of promes, and had no [h] hope, and were [i] without God in the worlde.

13 But now in Christ Iesus, ye which once were farre of, are made nere by the blood of Christ.

14 For he is our peace, which hathe made of bothe one, and hathe broken the [j] stoppe of the partition wall,

15 In abrogating through his [k] flesh the hatred, that is, the Law of commandements which stand th in ordinances, for to make of twaine one newe man in him self, so making peace,

16 And that he might reconcile bothe vnto God in one [l] bodie by his [m] crosse, & slaye hatred thereby,

17 And came, and preached peace to you which were a farre of, and to them that were nere.

18 *For through him we bothe haue an entrance vnto the Father by one Spirit.

19 Now therefore ye are no more stragers and foreners: but citizens with ỳ Saintes, and of the housholde of God,

20 And are buylt vpon the fundacion of the Apostles and Prophetes, Iesus Christ him self being the chief corner stone,

1 FOR this cause, I Paul am the [a] prisoner of Iesus Christ for you Gentiles,

4 Whereby when ye read, ye may know mine vnderstanding in the mysterie of Christ:

5 Which in other ages was [d] not opened vnto the sonnes of men as it is now reueiled vnto his holie Apostles & Prophetes by the Spirit,

6 That the Gentiles shulde be inheriters also, and of the same bodie, & partakers of his promes in Christ by the Gospel,

7 Whereof I am made a minister by ỹ gifte of the grace of God giuen vnto me * through the working of his power.

8 Euen vnto me the least of all Saintes is this grace giuen, that I shulde preache among the Gentiles the vnsearcheable riches of Christ,

9 And to make cleare vnto all men what ỹ felowship of the *mysterie is, which from the beginning of the worlde hathe bene hid in God, who hathe created all things by Iesus Christ,

10 To the intent, that now vnto [e] principalities and powers in heauenlie places might be knowen [f] by the Church the manifolde wisdome of God,

11 According to the eternal purpose, which he wroght in Christ Iesus our Lord.

12 By whome we haue boldnes and entrance with confidēce, by faith in him.

13 Wherefore I desire that ye faint not at my tribulatiōs for your sakes, which is your glorie.

14 For this cause I bowe my knees vnto the Father of our Lord Iesus Christ,

15 (Of whome is named the whole [g] familie in [h] heauen and in earth)

16 That he might graūte you according to the riches of his glorie, that ye may be strengthened by his Spirit in the inner man,

17 That Christ may dwell in your [i] herts by faith, that ye, being rooted and grounded in loue,

18 May be able to comprehend with all Saintes, what is the [k] breadth, & length, and depth, and height:

19 And to knowe the loue of Christ, ẅ passeth knowledge, that ye may be filled with all [l] fulnes of God.

20 *Vnto him therefore that is able to do exceading abundantly aboue all ỹ we aske or thinke, according to the power that worketh in [m] vs,

CHAP. IIII.

He exhorteth them vnto mekenes, long suffering, vnto loue & peace, 3 Euerie one to serue & edifie another with the gift that God hathe giuen him, 14 To beware of strange doctrine. 22 To lay aside the olde conuersation of gredie lustes, & and to walke in a newe life.

Ephes. Dom. 1 post Trinitatis.

1 I *Therefore, being prisoner in the [a] Lord, praye you that ye walke worthie of the vocation whereunto ye are called,

2 With all humblenes of minde, & mekenes, with long suffring, supporting one another through loue,

3 Endeuoring to kepe the vnitie of the Spirit in the bonde of peace.

4 There is [b] one bodie, and one [c] Spirit, euen as ye are called in one hope of your vocation.

5 There is one Lord, one Faith, one Baptisme,

6 *One God & Father of all, which is [d] aboue all, & [e] through all, & in you all.

7 *But vnto euerie one of vs is giuē grace, according to the measure of ỹ [f] gift of Christ.

10 He that descended, is euen the same that ascended farre aboue all heauēs, ỹ he might fill [h] all things).

11 *He therefore gaue some to be Apostles, and some Prophetes, and some Euangelistes, and some Pastours, & Teachers,

12 For ỹ [i] gathering together of ỹ Saintes ỹ for ỹ worke of ỹ ministerie, [k] & for ỹ edification of the bodie of Christ,

13 Til we all mete together (in the vnitie of faith and knowledge of the Sonne of God) vnto a [l] perfite man, & vnto the measure of the age of the fulnes of Christ,

14 That we hence forthe be no more children wauering and caryed about ẅ euerie winde of doctrine, by the deceit of mē, and with craftines, whereby they laye in waite to deceiue.

THE EPISTLE OF

Paul to the Philippians.

THE ARGVMENT.

PAul being warned by the holie Goſt to go to Macedonia plãted firſt a Church at Philippia citie of the ſame coũtrey: but becauſe his charge was to preache the Goſpel vniuerſally to all the Gentiles, he trauailed frõ place to place, til at the length he was taken priſoner at Rome, whereof the Philippians, being aduertiſed, ſent their miniſter Epaphroditus with relief vnto him: who declaring him the ſtate of the Church, cauſed him to write this Epiſtle, wherein he commendeth them that they ſtode manfully againſt the falſe apoſtles, putting them in minde of his good wil towarde them, and exhorteth them that his impriſonment make them not to ſhrinke: for the Goſpel thereby was confirmed and not diminiſhed: eſpecially he deſireth them to flee ambition, and to embrace modeſtie, promiſing to ſend Timotheus vnto them, who ſhulde inſtruct them in matters more amply: yea, and that he him ſelf wolde alſo come vnto them, adding likewiſe the cauſe of their miniſters ſo long abode. And becauſe there were no greater enemies to the croſſe then the falſe apoſtles, he confuteth their falſe doctrine, by prouing onely Chriſt to be the end of all true religion, with whome we haue all thing, and without whome we haue nothing, ſo that his death is our life, and his reſurrection our iuſtification. After this followe certeine admonitions both particular and general, with teſtification of his affection towarde them, and thankeful accepting of their benevolence.

CHAP. II.

3 He exhorteth them aboue all things to humilitie, whereby pure doctrine is chiefly maintened. 19 Promising that he and Timotheus wil spedely come vnto them, 27 And excuseth the long tarying of Epaphroditus.

IF there be therefore anie a consolation in Christ, if anie comfort of loue, if anie felowship of the Spirit, if anie cõpassion and mercie,
2 Fulfil my ioye, ỹ ye be like minded, hauing the same loue, being of one accorde, and of b one iudgement,

24 And trust in the Lord, that I also my self shal come shortly.
25 But I supposed it necessarie to send my brother Epaphroditus vnto you, my cõpanion in labour, and fellowe souldier, euen your messenger, and he that ministred vnto me suche things as I wanted.
26 For he longed after all you, and was ful of heauines, because ye had heard, ỹ he had bene sicke.
27 And no doute he was sicke, verie nere vnto death: but God had mercie on him, & not on him onely, but on me also, lest I shulde haue sorowe vpon sorowe.

THE EPISTLE OF Paul to the Colosſians.

THE ARGVMENT.

In this Epistle S. Paul putteth difference betwene the liuelie, effectual and true Christ, and the fained, contrefait and imagined Christ, whome the false apostles taught. And first, he confirmeth the doctrine which Epaphras had preached, wisshing them increase of faith, to esteme the excellencie of Gods benefite towarde them, teaching them also that saluacion, and whatsoeuer good thing can be desired, standeth onely in Christ, whome onely we embrace by the Gospel. But forasmuche as the false brethren wolde haue mixed the Law with the Gospel, he toucheth those flatterers vehemently, and exhorteth the Colosſians to staye onely on Christ, without whome all things are but mere vanitie. And as for Circumcision, abstinence from meates, external holines, worshiping of Angels as meanes whereby to come to Christ, he vtterly condemneth, shewing what was the office & nature of ceremonies, which by Christ are abrogate: so that now the exercises of the Christians stande in mortification of the flesh, newnes of life, with other like offices appertayning bothe generally & particularly to all the faithful.

CHAP. I.

1 He giueth thankes vnto God for their faith, 7 Confirmeth the doctrine of Epaphras, 9 Praieth for the increase of their faith. 13 He sheweth vnto the the true Christ, and discouereth the cõtrefait Christ of the false apostles. 25 He approueth his autoritie & charge, 28 And of his faithful executing of ſ same.

1 PAul an Apostle of Iesus Christ, by the wil of God & Timotheus our brother,

2 To them, which are at [a] Colosſe, Saintes & faithful brethren in Christ: Grace be with you, & peace from God our Father, and from the Lord Iesus Christ.

3 We giue thankes to God euen the Father of our Lord Iesus Christ, alwaies praying for you:

4 Since we heard of your faith [b] in Christ Iesus, and of your loue towarde all Saintes,

5 For a Which was a citie of phrygia.

b For without Christ there is no faith to be saued by, but onely a vaine opinion.

5 For the hopes sake, which is layed vp for you in heauē, whereof ye haue heard before by the worde of trueth, which is the Gospel.

6 Which is come vnto you, euen as it is vnto all the worlde, and is fruteful, as it is also among you, from the day, that ye heard and truely knewe the grace of God,

7 As ye also learned of Epaphras our deare felowe seruant, which is for you a faithful minister of Christ:

8 Who hathe also declared vnto vs your loue, which ye haue [c] by the Spirit.

c Which cometh of the holie Gost.

9 For this cause we also, since the daye we heard of it, cease not to pray for you, and to desire that ye might be fulfilled with knowledge of [d] his wil, in all wisdome, & spiritual vnderstanding, d That is, Gods. Ephes.4.1. philip.1,27. 1.thes.2 12. 1.Cor.1,5.

10 * That ye might walke worthie of the Lord, and please him in all things, being * fruteful in all good workes, and increasing in the knowledge of God,

11 Strengthened with all might through his glorious power, vnto all pacience, & long suffring with ioyfulnes.

12 Giuing thankes vnto the Father, which hathe made vs mete to be partakers of the inheritance of the Saintes in light,

13 Who hathe deliuered vs from ỹ power of darkenes, and hathe trāslated vs into the kingdome *of his deare Sonne,

16 * For by him were all things created, which are in heauen, and which are in earth, things visible and inuisible: whether they be Thrones, or Dominions, or Principalities, or Powers; all things were created by him and for him,

17 And he his before all things, and in him all things consist.

18 And he is the head of the bodie of the Church: he is the beginning, * & [g] the first borne of the dead, that in all things he might haue the preeminence.

g He that rose first againe frō the dead to take possession of life euerlasting: & rising may be called a new birth. 1.Cor.15,20. reuel.1,5, Iohn.1,14. chap.2 9.

19 *For it pleased the Father, that in him shulde all [h] fullnes dwell, h That the Church, which is his bodie, might receiue of his abundance.

20 And by him to reconcile [i] all things vnto him self, and to set at peace through the blood of his crosse bothe the things in earth, and the things in heauen.

i That is, the whole Church.

21 And you which were in times past strangers and enemies, becaus your mindes were set in euil workes, hathe he now also reconciled,

9 *For in him dwelleth all the fulnes of the [e] Godheade ||bodely.

10 And ye are compleate in him, which is the head of all Principalitie and Power:

11 In whome also ye are circumcised with *circumcision made without hands, by putting of the sinfull bodie of the flesh, through the circumcision[f] of Christ,

12 In that ye are *buried w him through baptisme, in whome ye are also raised vp together through * the faith [g] of the operation of God, which raised him from the dead.

13 *And ye which were dead in sinnes, and in the vncircumcisiō of your flesh, hathe he quickened together with him, forgiuing || you all your treſpaces.

14 And putting out the *¶ [h] handwriting of ordinances that was against vs, which was contrarie to vs, he euen toke it out of the way, & fastened it vpō the crosse,

15 And hathe [i] spoiled the Principalities, and Powers, and hathe made a shewe of them openly, and hathe triumphed ouer them in the same crosse.

16 Let no man therefore condemne you in meat and drinke, or in respect of an [k] holie day, or of the new moone, or of the Sabbath dayes,

17 Which are but a shaddowe of things to come: but the bodie is in Christ.

18 *Let no man [l] at his pleasure [m] beare rule ouer you by humblenes of minde, & worshiping of Angels, aduancing him self in those things which he neuer sawe, rashly puft vp with his fleshlie minde,

19 And holdeth not the head, whereof all the bodie furnished and knit together by iointes and bandes, encreaseth with the increasing of God.

20 Wherefore if ye be dead with Christ from the ordinances of the worlde, why, as though ye liued in the worlde, are ye burdened with traditions?

21 As, Touche not, Taste not, Handel not.

1 He sheweth where we shulde seke Christ. 5 He exhorteth to mortification, 10 To put of the olde mā & to put on Christ. 12 To the which he addeth exhortations bothe general and particular to charitie & humilitie.

1 IF ye then be [a] risen with Christ, seke those things which are aboue, where Christ sitteth at the right hand of God.

2 Set your affections on things which are aboue, and not on things, which [b] are on the earth.

3 For ye are [c] dead, and your life is hid with Christ in God.

4 When Christ which is our life, shal appeare, then shal ye also appeare with him in glorie.

5 *[d] Mortifie therefore your members which are on the earth, fornication, vnclennes, the inordinate affection, euil concupiscence, & couetousnes which is idolatrie.

6 For the which things sakes the wrath of God cometh on the children of disobedience.

7 Wherein ye also walked once, when ye liued in them.

8 *But now put ye away euen all these things, wrath, angre, maliciousnes, cursed speaking, filthie speaking, out of your mouth.

9 Lie not one to another, seing that ye haue put of the olde man with his workes,

10 And haue put on the newe, which is renewed in knowledge * after the image of him that created him,

11 Where is nether Grecian nor Iewe, circumcision nor vncircumcision, Barbarian, Scythian, bonde, fre: but Christ is all and in all things.

12 Now therefore as the elect of God, [e] holie & beloued, put on || tender mercie, kindnes, humblenes of minde, mekenes, long suffring:

13 Forbearing one another, and forgiuing one another, if anie man haue a quarel to another: euen as Christ forgaue you, euen so do ye.

14 And aboue all these things put on loue, which is the bonde of perfectnes.

15 And let ỹ peace of God [f] rule in your hearts, to the which ye are called in one bodie, and be ye [g] amiable.

16 Let the [g] worde of Christ dwell in you plenteously in all wisdome, teaching & admonishing your owne selues, in [h] psalmes, and hymnes, and spiritual songs, singing with a* || grace in your hearts to the Lord.

17 *And whatsoeuer ye shal do, in worde or dede, do all in the Name of the Lord Iesus, giuing thankes to God euen the Father by him.

THE FIRST EPISTLE
of Paul to the Thessalonians.

THE ARGVMENT.

After that the Thessalonians had bene wel instructed in the faith, persecution, which perpetually followeth the preaching of the Gospel, arose, against the which although they did constātly stand yet S. Paul (as moste careful for them) sent Timothie to strēgthen them, who sone after admonishing him of their estate, gaue occasion to the Apostle to confirme them by diuers arguments to be constant in faith, & to suffer whatsoeuer God calleth them vnto for the testimonie of the Gospel, exhorting them to declare by their godlie liuing the puritie of their religion. And as the Church cānot be so purged, that some cockle remaine not amōg the wheat, so there were among them wicked men, which by mouing vaine and curious questions to ouerthrowe their faith, taught falsely, as touching the point of the resurrection from the dead:

Whereof he briefly instructeth them what to thinke, earnestly forbidding them to seke curiously to knowe the times, willing them rather to watche left the sudden comming of Christ come vpon them at vnwares: and so after certeine exhortacions, and his commendations to the brethren, he endeth.

CHAP. I.

2 He thanketh God for them, that they are so stedfast in faith & good workes, 6 And receiue the Gospel with suche earnestnes. 7 That they are an example to all others.

1 PAul and Siluanus, & Timotheus, vnto ȳ Church of the Thessalonians, which is in [a] God the Father, and in ȳ Lord Iesus Christ: Grace be with you, and peace from God our Father, & from the Lord Iesus Christ.

a For there is no Church ẅ is not ioyned together in God.

2 * We giue God thankes alwayes for you all, making * mention of you in our prayers.

2. Thess. 1,3. Philip. 1,3.

3 Without ceasing, remembring your [b] effectual faith, & [c] diligent loue & the pacience of your hope in our Lord Iesus Christ in the sight of God euen our Father, b Which declareth it selfe by moste liuelie rutes.

c Whereby you declared your selues moste readie and painful to helpe the poore.

4 Knowing, beloued brethrē, that ye are elect of God.

5 For our [d] Gospel was not vnto you in worde onely, but also in power and in the holie Gost, & in muche assurance, as ye knowe after what maner we were among you for your sakes.

d The effectual preaching of ȳ Gospel is an euident toke of our election.

6 And ye became followers of vs, and of the Lord, and receiued the worde in muche affliction, with [e] ioye of the holie Gost, e To beleue, & to be fully persuaded to haue the gifts of the holie Gost, and ioyfully to suffer for Christs sake, are most certeine signes of our election.

7 So ȳ ye were as [f] ensamples to all that beleue in Macedonia and Achaia.

f Or, paternes.

8 For from you sounded out ȳ worde of the Lord, not in Macedonia & in Achaia onely: but your faith also which is towarde God, spred abroade in all quarters, that we nede not to speake any thing.

f To wit, all ȳ faithful.

9 For [f] they them selues shewe of you what maner of entring in we had vnto you, and how ye turned to God from idoles, to serue the [g] liuing and true God, g For idoles are dead things and onely fained fantasies.

10 And to loke for his Sonne from heauen, whome he raised from the dead, euen Iesus which deliuereth vs from the [h] wrath to come.

h Which he shal execute vpon ȳ wicked.

CHAP. II.

6 To the intent they shulde not faint vnder the crosse, 2 He commendeth his diligence in preaching, 13 And theirs in obeying. 18 He excuseth his absence, that he colde not come and open his heart to them.

1 FOr ye your selues knowe, brethren, that our entrance in vnto you was not in [a] vaine, a Not in outwarde shewe & in pompe, but in trauel & in ȳ feare of God. Act. 16,22.

2 But euen after that we had suffred before, and were shamefully entreated at *Philippi (as ye knowe) we were bolde [b] in our God to speake vnto you the Gospel of God with muche striuing.

b By his helpe and grace. 2. Cor. 4. 2. Cor. 2. 17.

3 For our exhortacio was not by deceit, nor by vnclennes, nor by guile.

4 But as we were alowed of God, that the Gospel shulde be committed vnto vs, so we speake, not as they that [c] please men but God, which trieth our hearts.

c Which declareth a naughtie conscience.

5 Nether yet did we euer vse flattering wordes, as ye know, nor colored couetousnes, God is recorde.

6 Nether soght we praise of men, nether of you, nor of others,

Or, in autoritie.

7 When we might haue bene [d] chargeable, as the Apostles of Christ: but we were gētle amōg you, euen as a [d] nource cherisheth her children.

d He humbled him self to supporte all things without all respecte of lucre: euen as ȳ tēder mother ẅ nourceth her children, and thinketh no office to vile for her childrēs sake. Act. 20, 34. 1. cor. 4, 14. 2. thes. 3, 8.

8 Thus being affectioned towarde you, our good wil was to haue dealt vnto you, not the Gospel of God onely, but also our owne soules, becausse ye were dere vnto vs.

9 For ye remember, brethren, * our labour & trauail: for we laboured day & night, becausse we wolde not be chargeable vnto anie of you, & preached vnto you the Gospel of God.

10 Ye are witnesses, and God also, how holily, & iustly, & vnblameably we behaued our selues among [e] you that beleue.

e For it is not possible to auoide the reproches of the wicked, which euer hate good doings.

11 As ye knowe how that we exhorted you, and comforted, and besoght euerie one of you (as a father his children)

12 That ye * wolde walke worthie of God, who hathe called you vnto his kingdome and glorie.

Eph. 4, 1. philip. 1, 27. col. 1, 10.

13 For this cause also thanke we God without ceasing, that when ye receiued of vs the worde of the preaching of God, ye receiued it not as the worde of men, but as it is in dede the worde of God, ẅ also worketh in you that beleue.

14 For brethren, ye are become followers of the Churches of God, which in Iudea are in [f] Christ Iesus, becausse ye haue also suffred the same things of your owne countrey men, euen as they haue of the Iewes, f In his Name and vnder his protection.

15 Who bothe killed the Lord Iesus and their owne Prophetes, & haue persecuted vs, and God they please not, and are contrarie [g] to all men, g And wolde hinder all men from their saluacion.

16 And forbid vs to preache vnto the Genti-

Gentiles, that they might be saued, to [h] fulfil their sinnes alwais: for the wrath of God is [i] come on them, to the vtmoste.

17 Forasmuche brethren, as we were kept from you for a season, concerning sight, but not in the heart, we * enforced the more to se your face with great desire.

18 Therefore we wolde haue come vnto you (I Paul, at least once or twise) but Satan hindered vs.

19 For what is our hope or ioye, or crowne of reioycing? are [k] not euen you it in the presence of our Lord Iesus Christ at his comming?

20 Yes, ye are our glorie and ioye.

CHAP. III.

2 He sheweth how greatly he was affectioned towarde them bothe in that he sent Timo-theus to them, 10 And also prayed for them.

1 WHerefore since we colde no lōger forbeare, we thoght it good to remaine at Athens [a] alone,

2 *And haue sent Timotheus our brother & minister of God, and our labour fellow in the Gospel of Christ, to stablish you, and to comfort you touching your faith,

3 That no man shulde be moued ẅ these afflictions: for ye your selues knowe, that we are appointed thereunto.

4 For verely when we were with you, we tolde you before that we shulde suffre tribulations, euen as it came to passe, and ye knowe it.

5 Euen for this cause, when [b] I colde no longer forbeare, I sent him that I might knowe of your faith, lest the [c] tempter had tempted you in any sorte, and that our labour had bene in vaine.

6 But now lately when Timotheus came from you vnto vs, and broght vs good tidings of your faith & loue, and that ye haue good remembrance of vs alwayes, desiring to se vs, as we also do
you,

7 Therefore, brethren, we had consolation in you, in all our affliction and ne-cessitie through your faith.

8 For now are we [d] aliue, if ye [e] stand fast in the Lord.

9 For what thankes can we recompense to God againe for you for all the ioye where with we reioyce for your sakes before our God?

10 Night and day * praying excedingly that we might se your face, & might [f] accōplish that which is lacking in your faith?

11 Now God him self, euen our Father, and our Lord Iesus Christ, guide our iorney vnto you,

12 And the Lord increase you & make you abunde in loue one towarde another, and towarde all men, euen as we do towarde you:

13 * To make your hearts stable and vnblameable in holines before God euen our Father, at the comming of our Lord
Iesus Christ with all his Saints.

CHAP. IIII.

*1 He exhorteth them to holines, 6 Innocencie,
9 Loue, 11 Labour, 13 And moderation in lamenting for the dead, 17 Describing the ende of the resurrection.*

1 AND furthermore we beseche you, brethren, & exhorte you in ỹ Lord
Iesus that [a] ye increase more and more, as ye haue receiued of vs, how ye ought to walke, and to please God.

2 For ye knowe what [b] commandements we gaue you by the Lord Iesus.

3 * For this is the wil of God euen your sanctification, [c] & that ye shulde absteine from fornication,

4 That euerie one of you shulde know, how to possesse his [d] vessel in holines & honour,

5 And not in the lust of concupiscence, euen as the Gentiles which knowe not God:

6 * That no man oppresse or defraude his brother in any matter: for the Lord is a venger of all suche things, as we also haue tolde you before time and testified.

7 * For God hathe not called vs vnto vn-clennes, but vnto holines.

8 He therefore that despiseth [e] these things, despiseth not man, but God who hathe euen giuen * you his holie Spirit.

9 But as touching brotherlie loue, ye nede not that I write vnto you: * for ye are taught of God to loue one another.

10 Yea, & that thing verely ye do vnto all the brethrē, which are throughout all Macedonia: but we beseche you, brethren, that ye increase more and more,

11 * And that ye studie to be quiet, and to medle with your owne busines, & to worke with your [f] owne hands, as we cōmanded you,

12 That ye may behaue your selues honestly towarde them that [g] are without, & that nothing be [h] lacking vnto you.

13 ¶ I wolde not brethren, haue you igno rant concerning them which are a sle pe, that ye [i] sorowe not euen as other ẅ haue no hope.

CHAP. V.

He enformeth them of the day of iudgemẽt & comming of the Lord, 6 Exhorting them to watch, 12 And to regard suche as preache Gods worde among them.

BVt of the a times & seasons, brethẽ, ye haue no nede that I write vnto you.

2 For ye your selues knowe perfitely, that the * day of the Lord shal come, euen as a thefe in the night.

3 For when they shal say, Peace, and safetie then shal come vpon them sudden destruction, as the b trauail vpon a woman with childe, and they shal not escape.

4 But ye, brethren, are not in darkenes, that that day shulde come on you, as it were a thefe.

5 Ye are all the childrẽ of light, and the children of the day: we are not of the night nether of darkenes.

6 Therefore let vs not c slepe as do other, but let vs d watch and be sober.

7 For they that slepe, slepe in the night, & they that be dronken, are dronken in the night.

8 But let vs which are of the e day, be sober, *putting on the brest plate of faith & loue, & of the hope of saluation for an helmet.

9 For God hathe not appointed vs vnto wrath, but to obteine saluatiõ by the meanes of our Lord Iesus Christ,

10 Which dyed for vs, that whether we wake or f slepe, we shulde liue together with him.

11 Wherefore exhorte one another, & edifie one another, euen as ye do.

12 Now we beseche you, brethren, that ye knowe them, which labour among you, & are ouer you in the Lord, and g admonish you,

13 That ye haue them in singular loue for h their workes sake. Be at peace among your selues.

14 We desire you, brethren, admonish them that are vnrulie: comfort the feble minded: beare with the weake: be pacient to warde all men.

15 *See that none recompense euil for euil vnto any man: but euer follow that which is good, bothe towarde your selues, and towarde all men.

THE ARGVMENT.

LEst the Thessalonians shulde thinke that Paul neglected them, because he went to other places, rather then came to them, he writeth vnto them and exhorteth them to pacience and other frutes of faith, nether to be moued with that vaine opinion of suche as taught that the cõming of Christ was at hand, forasmuche as before that day there shulde be a falling away fro true religion, euen by a great parte of the worlde, and that Antichrist shulde reigne in the Temple of God: finally commending him self to their prayers, & encouraging them to constancie, he willeth them to correct suche sharpely, as liue idelly of other mens labours, whome, if they do not obey his admonitions, he commandeth to excommunicate.

CHAP. I.

3 He thanketh God for their faith, loue and patience. 11. He praieth for the encrease of the same, 12 And sheweth what frute shal come thereof.

1 PAul and Siluanus, and Timotheus vn to the Church of ỹ Thessalonians, which is in God our Father, and in the Lord Iesus Christ:

2 Grace be with you, and peace frō God our Father, and from the Lord Iesus Christ.

1. Thess. 1, 2.

3 *We oght to thanke God alwayes for you brethren, as it is mete, because that your faith groweth excedingly, and the loue of euerie one of you towarde another abundeth,

4 So that we our selues reioyce of you in the Churches of God, because of your [a] pacience and faith in all your persecutions and tribulations that ye suffre,

5 Which is a [b] token of the righteous iudgement of God, that ye may be coūted worthie of the kingdome of God, for the which ye also suffre.

6 For it is a righteous thing with God, to recompense tribulacion to them that trouble you,

7 And to you which are troubled, rest with vs *when the Lord Iesus shal shewe him self from heauen with his [c] mightie Angels,

8 In flaming fyre, rendring vengeance vnto them, that do not knowe God, & which obey not vnto the Gospel of our Lord Iesus Christ,

9 Which shalbe punished with [d] euerlasting perdition, from the presence of the Lord, and from the glorie of his power.

10 When he shal come to be glorified in his Saintes, and to be made marueilous in all them that beleue (because our testimonie to warde you was beleued) in that day.

11 Wherefore, we also praye alwayes for you, that our God may make you worthie of his calling, and fulfil [e] all the good pleasure of his goodnes, & the [f] worke of faith with power.

12 That ỹ Name of our Lord Iesus Christ may be [g] glorified in you: & ye in him, according to the grace of our God, and of the Lord Iesus Christ.

a Which procedeth of your faith as a moste notable frute. Iude 6.

b The faithful by their afflictions se, as in a cleare glasse the end of Gods iust iudgement, whe as they shal reigne w Christ w haue suffered w him, and ỹ wicked shal feele his extreme wrath and vengeance. 2 Thess. 1, 5, 6.

c By whome he declareth his might.

d As God is euerlasting, so shal their punishment be euerlasting: and as he is moste mightie of power so shal their punishment be moste sore.

e The free beneuolence of Gods goodnes, comprehendeth his purpose, his predestination and vocation ỹ worke of faith conteineth our iustification, to the w God addeth glorificatiō: and all these he worketh of his mere grace through Christ.

f Faith is Gods wonderful worke in vs.

g As the head w the bodie.

CHAP. II.

3 He sheweth them that the day of the Lord shal not come, til the departing from the faith come first, 9 And the kingdome of Antichrist. 15 And therefore he exhorteth them not to be deceiued, but to stand stedfast in the things that he hathe taught them.

1 NOw we beseche you, brethren, by the comming of our Lord Iesus Christ, and by our assembling vnto him,

2 That ye be not suddenly moued from your minde, nor troubled nether by [a] spirit, nor by [b] worde, nor by letter, as it were from vs, as though the daye of Christ were at hand.

3 *Let no man deceiue you by any meanes: for that day shal not come, except there come a [c] departing first, and that that [d] man of sinne be discloſed, euen ỹ sonne of [e] perdition,

4 Which is an aduersaire, and exalteth him self against all that is called God, or that is worshipped: so that he doeth sit as God in the Temple of God, shewing him self that he is God.

5 Remember ye not, that when I was yet with you, I tolde you these things?

6 And nowe ye knowe what [f] withholdeth, that he might be reueiled in his time.

7 For the mysterie of iniquitie doeth alreadie [g] worke: onely he which [h] now withholdeth, shal let til he be takē out of the waye.

8 And then shal the wicked man be reueiled, *whome the Lord shal cōsume with the [i] Spirit of his mouth, and shal abolish with the brightnes of his comming,

9 Euen him whose [k] comming is by the working of Satan, with all power and signes and lying wonders,

10 And in all deceiueablenes of vnrighteousnes, among them that [l] perish, because thei receiued not the loue of ỹ trueth, that they might be saued.

11 And therefore God shal send them strong delusion, that they shulde beleue lyes,

12 That all they might be dāned which beleued not the trueth, but had [m] pleasure in vnrighteousnes.

13 But we oght to giue thankes alwaye to God for you, brethren [n] beloued of the Lord, because that God hathe from [o] ỹ beginning chosen you to saluacion, through sanctification of the Spirit, and the faith of [p] trueth.

14 Whereunto he called you by [q] our Gospel, to obteine the glorie of our Lord Iesus Christ.

d This wicked Antichrist comprehendeth the whole succession of the persecuters of ỹ Church & all ỹ abominable kingdome of Satan, whereof some were bearers, some lyons, others leopardes, as Daniel describeth thē, and is called ỹ mā of sinne because he setteth him self vp against God.

e Who as he destroyeth others, so shal be destroyed him self.

Isa. 11, 4.

f Because the false apostles had persuaded after a sorte the Thessalonians, ỹ the day of the Lord was nere, and so the redemption of the Church, Paul teacheth them to loke for this horrible dissipation before & therefore rather to prepare them selues to patience, then to rest and quietnes: for as yet there was a let, that is, that the Gospel shulde be preached throughout all, Mat. 24, 14.

1 He desireth them to pray for him, that the Gospel may prosper, 6 And giueth them warning to reproue the idle, 16 And so wisheth them all wealth.

1 FVrthermore, brethren, *pray for vs, that the worde of ỹ Lord may haue fre passage, and be glorified, euen as it is with you,

2 And that we may be deliuered from vnreasonable and euil men: for all men haue not[a] faith,

3 But the Lord is faithful, which wil stablish you, and kepe you from[b] euil.

4 And we are persuaded of you through the Lord, that ye bothe do, and wil do the things which we[c] commande you.

5 And the Lord guide your hearts to the loue of God, & the wayting for of Christ.

6 We commande you, brethren, in the Name of our Lord Iesus Christ, that ye withdrawe your selues from euerie brother that walketh inordinately, and not after the[d] instruction, which he receiued of vs.

7 For ye your selues knowe *how ye ought to folowe vs: * for we behaued not our selues inordinately among you,

8 Nether toke we bread of anie man for noght: but we wroght with labour & trauaile night & day, because we wolde not be chargeable to anie of you.

9 Not but that we had autoritie, * but ỹ we might make our selues an ensample vnto you to folowe vs.

10 For euen when we were with you, this we warned you of, that if there were anie, which wolde not[e] worke, that he shulde not eat.

11 For we heard, that there are some which walke among you inordinately, and worke not at all, but are busiebodies.

12 Therefore them that are suches, we commade and exhorte by our Lord Iesus Christ, that they worke with quietnes and eat their owne bread.

13 *And ye, brethren, be not wearie in wel doing.

14 If anie man obey not our sayings, note him by a lettre, * and haue no companie with him, that he maie be ashamed.

15 Yet count him not as an[f] enemie, but admonish him as a brother.

16 Now the Lord of peace giue you peace al waies by all meanes. The Lord be with you all.

THE FIRST EPISTLE

of Paul to Timotheus.

THE ARGVMENT.

IN writing this Epistle Paul semed not onely to haue respect to teache Timotheus, but, chiefly to kepe ether in awe, which wolde haue rebelled against him because of his youth. And therefore he doeth arme him against those ambitious questionistes, which vnder pretence of zeale to the Law, disquieted the godlie with foolish and vnprofitable questions, wherebi they declared, that professing the Law they knewe not what was the chief end of the Law. And as for him self, he so confesseth his vnworthines, that he sheweth to what worthines the grace of God hathe preferred him: and therefore he willeth praiers to be made for all degrees and sortes of men, because that God by offring his Gospel and Christ his Sonne to them all, is indifferent to euerie sorte of men, as his Apostleship, which is peculiar to the Gentiles, witnesseth. And forasmuche as God hathe left ministers as ordinarie meanes in his Church to bring men to saluacion, he describeth what maner of men they ought to be, to whome the mysterie of the Sonne of God manifested in flesh is committed to be preached. After this he sheweth him what troubles the Church at all times shal sustaine, but specially in the latter dayes, when as vnder pretence of religion men shal teache things contrarie to the worde of God. This done, he teacheth what widdowes shulde be receiued or refused to minister to the sicke: also what Elders ought to be chosen into office, exhorting him nether to be hastie in admitting, nor in iudging anie: also what is the duetie of seruantes, the nature of false teachers, of vaine speculations, of couetousnes, of riche men, and aboue all things he chargeth him to beware false doctrine.

CHAP. I.

1 He exhorteth Timotheus to waite vpon his office, namely to se that nothing be taught but Gods worde, &c. 5 Declaring that faith, with a good conscience, charitie & edification are the end thereof. 20 And admonisheth of Himeneus and Alexander.

PAul an Apostle of Iesus Christ, by the [n] commandement of God our Sauiour, and of our Lord Iesus Christ *our hope,

2 * Vnto Timotheus my [a] natural sonne in the faith: Grace, mercie, & peace from God our Father, & from Christ Iesus our Lord.

3 As I besought thee to abide stil in Ephesus, when I departed into Macedonia, so do, that thou maiest commande some, that thei teache none other doctrine,

4 Nether that they giue hede to *fables and genealogies, * which are endles, which brede questiones rather then godlie edifying which is by faith.

5 For *the [b] end of the [#] commandement is loue out of a pure heart, and of a good conscience, and of faith vnfained.

6 From the which things some haue erred, and haue turned vnto vaine iangling.

7 They wolde be doctours of the Law, and yet vnderstand not what they speake, nether whereof they affirme.

8 *And we knowe, that the Law is good, if a man vse it lawfully,

9 Knowing this, that the Law is not giuen vnto a [c] righteous man, but vnto the lawles and disobedient, to the vngodlie, and to [d] sinners, to the vnholie, and to ỹ prophane, to murtherers of fathers and mothers, to manslayers,

10 To whoremongers, to buggerers, to [e] men stealers, to liers, to the periured, & if there be anie other thing, that is contrarie to wholsome doctrine,

11 Which is according to the glorious Gospel of the * blessed God, which is committed vnto me.

12 Therefore [f] I thanke him, which hathe made me strong, that is, Christ Iesus our Lord: for he counted me faithful, and put me in his seruice:

13 When before I was a blasphemer, and a persecuter, and an oppresser: but I was receiued to mercie: for I did it [g] ignorantly through vnbeliefe.

14 But the grace of our Lord was exceding abundant with [h] faith and [i] loue, which is in Christ Iesus.

15 This is a [n] true saying, and by all meanes worthie to be receiued, that * Christ Iesus came into the worlde to saue sinners, of whome I am chief.

16 Notwithstanding, for this cause was I receiued to mercie, that Iesus Christ shulde first shewe on me all long suffring vnto the ensample of thē, which shal in time to come beleue in him vnto eternal life.

17 [k] Now vnto the King euerlasting, immortal, inuisible, vnto God onely wise, be honour and glorie for euer, and euer, Amen.

18 This commandement commit I vnto thee, sonne Timotheus, according to ỹ [l] prophecies, which went before vpon thee, that thou by them shuldest * fight a good fight,

19 Hauing [m] faith and a good conscience, which some haue put away, and as concerning faith, haue made shipwracke.

20 Of whome is Himeneus, and Alexander, * whome I haue [n] deliuered vnto Satan, that thei might learne not to blaspheme.

CHAP. II.

1 He exhorteth to pray for all men, 4 Wherefore, 8 And how. 9 As touching the apparel and modestie of women.

1 I Exhorte therefore, that first of all supplicacions, praiers, intercessions & giuing of thankes be made for [a] all men,

2 For [b] Kings, and for all that are in autoritie, that we may lead a quiet and a peaceable life, in all godlines and honestie.

3 For this is good and acceptable in the sight of God our Sauiour,

4 * Who wil that [c] all men shalbe saued, & come vnto the knowledge of the trueth.

5 For there is one God, and one [d] Mediator betwene God & man, which is the [e] man Christ Iesus,

6 Who gaue him self a [f] raunsome for all [g] men, to be a [h] testimonie in due time,

7 * Whereunto I am ordeined a preacher & an Apostle (I speake ỹ trueth in Christ, and lie not) euen a teacher of the Gentiles in faith and veritie.

h Which ỹ prophetes testified, ỹ Christ shulde offre redemption of man at the time that God had determined.

CHAP. III.

He declareth what is the office of ministers, 11 And as touching their families, 15 The dignitie of the Church, 16 And the principal point of the heauenlie doctrine.

Tit. 2. 6.

1 THis is a true saying, * If any man a desire the office of a b bishoppe, he desireth c a worthie worke.

2 A bishop therefore must be vnreproueable, the housband of d one wife, watching, sober, modest, harberous, apt to teache,

3 Not giuen to wine, no striker, not giuẽ to filthie lucre, but gentle, no fighter, not couetous,

4 One that can rule his owne house honestly, hauing children vnder obedieẽce with all e honestie.

5 For if any can not rule his owne house, how shal he c care for the Church of God?

6 He may not be a yong f scholer, lest he being puffed vp fall into the g condemnation of the deuil.

7 He must also be wel reported of, euen of them which are h without, lest he fall into i rebuke, and the snare of the deuil.

8 Likewise must deacons be honest, not double tongued, not giuen vnto muche wine, nether to filthie lucre,

1 With a feruẽt zeale to profit the Church of God, wherefoeuer he shal call him

b Whether he be pastor or Elder.

c Bothe for ỹ difficultie of ỹ charge and also the excellencie thereof, and the necessitie of the same.

e Or, reuerence.

c If it be requisite ỹ a man shul de take care in gouerning his owne house, how muche more are they bouñde to be careful which shal gouerne ỹ Church of God?

f In ỹ doctrine of faith.

g Lest being proude of his degree he be likewise cõdemned as ỹ deuil was for lifting vp him self by pride.

h That is, no mã may haue any thing iustely to lay to his charge.

i As being defamed, shulde become impudent, & do muche harme.

9 *Hauing the mysterie of the faith in pure conscience.

10 And let them first be proued: then let them minister, if they be founde blameles.

11 Likewise their l wiues must be honest, not euil speakers, but sober, and faithful in all things.

12 Let the deacons be the housbands of one wife, and suche as can rule their children wel, and their owne households.

13 For they that haue ministred wel, get them selues a m good degree, & great n libertie in the faith, which is in Christ Iesus.

14 These things write I vnto thee, trusting to come very shortely vnto thee.

15 But if I tary long, that thou maist yet knowe, how thou oghtest to behaue thy self in the house of God, which is the Church of the liuing God, the o pillar & grounde of trueth.

16 And without controuersie, great is ỹ mysterie of godlines, which is, God is manifested in the flesh, p iustified in the Spirit, q sene of Angels, preached vnto the Gentiles, beleued on in the worlde, and receiued vp in r glorie.

11 These things commande and teache.

12 Let no man despise thy youth, but be vnto them that beleue, an ensample, in worde, in conuersation, in loue, in [g] spirit, in faith, & in purenes.

16 Take hede vnto thy self, and vnto learning: continue therein: for in doing this thou[k] shalt bothe saue thy self, and them that heare thee.

CHAP. V.

He teacheth him how he shal behaue him self in rebuking all degrees. 3 An ordre concerning widowes. 17 The establishing of ministers. 23 The gouernance of his bodie, 24 And the iudgement of sinnes.

REbuke not an elder, but exhort him as a father, & the yonger men as brethren,

2 The elder women as mothers, ẏ yonger as sisters, with all purenes.

3 [a] Honour widowes, which are widdowes in dede.

4 But if any widowe haue children or nephewes, let[b] them learne first to shewe godlines towarde their owne house, and to recompense their kinred: for that is an honest thing and acceptable before God.

5 And she that is a widowe[c] in dede and left alone, trusteth in God, & continueth in supplications and prayers night and day.

6 But she ẏ liueth in pleasure, is[d] dead, while she liueth.

7 These things therefore commande, ẏ they may be blameles.

8 If there be any that prouideth not for his owne, & namely for them of his household, he denieth the faith, and is worse then an infidel.

9 Let not a widowe be taken into the nomber vnder thre score yere olde, that hathe bene the wife of[e] one housband,

10 And wel reported of for good werkes: if she haue nourished her children, if she haue lodged the strangers, if she haue washed the Saintes fete, if she haue ministred vnto them which were in aduersitie, if she were continually giuē vnto euerie good worke.

11 But refuse the yonger widowes: for when they haue begonne to waxe[f] wanton against Christ, they wil marie,

12 Hauing[g] damnation, because they haue broken the[h] first faith.

13 And likewise also being ydle they learne to go about from house to house: yea, they are not onely ydle, but also prattelers and [*] busibodies, speaking things which are not comelie.

14 I wil therefore that the yonger women marie, and beare children, & gouerne the house, and giue none occasion to the aduersarie to speake euil.

15 For certeine are already turned backe after Satan.

16 If any faithful man, or faithful womā haue widowes, let them minister vnto them, and let not the Church be charged, that there may be sufficient for thē that are widowes in[i] dede.

17 ¶ The Elders that rule wel, are worthie of * double honour, specially they which labour in the worde and doctrine.

18 For the Scripture saith, * Thou shalt not mousel the mouth of the oxe that treadeth out the corne: and, * The labourer is worthie of his wages.

THE SECONDE EPISTLE of Paul to Timotheus.

THE ARGVMENT.

THe Apostle being now ready to confirme that doctrine with his blood, which he had professed and taught, encourageth Timotheus (& in him all the faithful) in the faith of the Gospel & in the constant & sincere confession of the same: willing him not to shrinke for feare of afflictions, but patiently to attende the office of a good housband men, which at length receiue the frutes of their labours, & to cast of all feare & care, as souldiers do which seke onely to please their captein. Shewing him briefly the summe of the Gospel which he preached, commanding him to preache the same to others, diligently taking hede of contentions, curious disputations & vaine questions, to the intent that his doctrine may altogether edifie. Cōsidering that the exāples of Hymeneus & Philetus which subuerted the true doctrine of the resurrectiō, were so horrible: & yet to the intēt that no mā shulde be offended at their fall, bringeth men of authoritie and in estimatiō, he sheweth that all that professe Christ, are not his & that the Church is subiect to this calamitie that the euil must dwell among the good til Gods trial come: yet he reserueth them whome he hathe elected, euen to the end. And that Timotheus shulde not be discouraged by the wicked, he declareth what abominable mē, & dangerous times

shal

shal followe, willing him to arme him self with the hope of the good yssue that God wil giue vnto his, and to exercise him self diligently in the Scriptures, bothe against the aduersaries, and for the vtilitie of the Church, desiring him to come to him for certeine necessarie affaires, and so with his and others salutations endeth.

CHAP. I.

1 Paul exhorteth Timothe us to stedfastnes & patience in persecution, and to continue in the doctrine, that he had taught him, 12 Whereof his bonds and afflictions were a gage. 16 A commendation of Onesiphorus.

1 PAul an Apostle of Iesus Christ, by the wil of God,[a] accor ding to the promes of life, which is in CHRIST IESVS,
2 To Timotheus my beloued sonne: Gra ce, mercie & peace from God the Father, and from Iesus Christ, our Lord.
3 I thanke God, * whome I serue from mine[b] elders with pure conscience, that without ceasing I haue remembrance of thee in my prayers night and day;
4 Desiring to se thee, mindful of thy tea res, that I may be filled with ioye:
5 When I call to remembrance the vnfained faith that is in thee, ẅ dwelt first in thy grandmother Lois, and in thy mother Eunice, & am assured that it dwelleth in thee also.
6 Wherefore, I put thee in remembrance that thou[c] stirre vp the gifte of God which is in thee, by the putting on of [d]mine hands.
7 For God hathe not giuen to vs the Spirit of[e] feare, but of power, and of lo ue, and of a sounde minde.
8 Be not therefore ashamed of the testimonie of our Lord, nether of me his prisoner: but be partaker of the afflictions of the Gospel, according to the power of God,
9 Who hathe saued vs, and called vs ẅ an * holie calling, not according to our *workes, but according to his owne purpose and grace, which was giuen to vs through Christ Iesus before the *worlde was,
10 But is now made manifest by the[f] ap pearing of our Sauiour Iesus Christ, who hathe abolished death, and hathe brought life and immortalitie vnto light through the Gospel.
11 *Whereunto I am appointed a preacher, and Apostle, and a teacher of the Gentiles.
12 For the which cause I also suffre these things, but I am not ashamed: for I kno we whome I haue beleued, & I am per suaded that he is able to kepe that ẅ I haue[g] committed to him against that day.
13 Kepe the true paterne of the wholsome wordes, which thou hast heard of me in faith and loue which is in Christ Iesus.
14 That[h] worthie thing, which was committed to thee, kepe through the holie Gost, which dwelleth in vs.
15 This thou knowest, that all they ẅ are in Asia, be turned from me: of ẅ for te are Phygellus and Hermogenes.
16 The Lord giue mercie vnto the house of Onesiphorus: for he oft refreshed me, & was not ashamed of my chaine.
17 But when he was at Rome, he soght me out verie diligently, & founde me.
18 The Lord graunt vnto him, that he may finde mercie with the Lord at that day, and in how manie things he hathe ministred vnto me at Ephesus, ẏ knowest verie wel.

CHAP. II.

1 He exhorteth him to be constant in trouble, to suffer manly, & to abyde faste in the wholsome doctrine of our Lord Iesus Christ, 11 Shewing him the fidelitie of Gods counsel touching the saluation of his, 19 And the marke thereof.

1 THou therefore, my sonne, be strōg in the grace that is in Christ Iesus.
2 And what things thou hast heard of me, [e]by manie witnesses, the same deliuer to faithful men, which shalbe able to[a] teache other also.
3 Thou therefore suffer affliction as a good souldier of Iesus Christ.
4 No man that warreth, entangleth him self with[b] the affaires of this life, becau se he wolde please him that hathe chosen him to be a souldier.
5 And if anie man also striue for a maste rie, he is not crowned, except he striue as he ought to do.
6 The husband man[c] must labour before he receiue the frutes.

12 If we suffer, we shal also reigne with him:
*if we deme him, he also wil deme vs.
13 If *we beleue not, yet abideth he faithful: he can not deme him self.
14 Of these things put them in remembrance, and protest before the Lord, ý they striue not about wordes, which is to no profit, but to the peruerting of ý hearers.
15 Studie to shewe thy self approued vn to God, a workeman that needeth not to be ashamed, [f] diuiding the worde of trueth aright:
16 *Sta[e] prophane, and vaine bablings: for they shal encrease vnto more vngodlines.
17 And their worde shal fret as a cancre: of ẃ sorte is Hymeneus and Philetus,
18 Which as concerning the trueth haue erred, saying that the resurrection is past already, and do destroye the faith of certeine.
19 But the fundation of God remaineth sure, and hathe this seale, [g] The Lord knoweth who are his, and let euerie one that calleth on the Name of Christ, departe from iniquitie.
20 Notwithstanding in a [h] great house are not onely vessels of golde and of siluer, but also of wood and of earth, & some for honour, and some vnto dishonour.
21 If anie man therefore purge him self from [i] these, he shalbe a vessel vnto honour, sanctified, & mete for the Lord, and prepared vnto euerie good worke.
22 Flee also from the lustes of youth, & follow *e after righteousnes, faith loue, & peace, with them that * call on the Lord with pure heart.
23 *And put away foolish, and [k] vnlearned questions, knowing that they engẽdre strife.
24 But the seruant of the Lord must not striue, but must be gentle towarde all men apt to teache, [l] suffring the euil men patiently,
25 Instructing them with mekenes that are contrarie[m] minded, prouing if God at anie time wil giue them repentance, that they may knowe the trueth,
26 And[n] that they may come to amẽdement out of the snare of the deuil, ẃ are taken of him at his wil.

CHAP. III.

1 He prophecieth of the perilous times, 2 Setteth out hypocrites in their colours. 12 Sheweth the state of the Christians, 14 And how to auoide dangers. 16 Also what profit cometh of the Scriptures.

THis knowe also, that in the * last dayes shal come perilous times.
2 For[a] men shalbe louers of their owne selues, couetous, bosters, proude, cursed speakers, disobedient to parents, vnthankeful, vnholie,
3 Without natural affection, trucebreakers, false accusers, intemperate, fierce, despicers of them which are good,
4 Traitours, headie, high minded, louers of pleasures more then louers of God,
5 Hauing a shewe of godlines, but haue denied the power thereof: turne away therefore from suche.
6 For of this sorte are they which[b] crepe vnto houses, and lead captiue simple women laden with sinnes, and led ẃ diuers lustes,
7 Which women are euer learning, and are neuer able to come to ý knowledge of the trueth.
8 *And as Iannes and Iambres withstode Moses, so do these also resiste the trueth, men of [c] corrupte mindes, reprobate cõcerning the faith.
9 But they shal preuaile no longer: for their madnes shalbe euident vnto all men, as theirs also was.
10 ¶ But thou hast fully knowen my do[d]ctrine, maner of liuing, [d] purpose, faith, long suffering, loue, pacience,
11 Persecutions, & afflictions which came vnto me at *Antiochia, at Iconium, and at Lystri, which persecutions I suffered: but from them all the Lord deliuered me.
12 Yea, and all ý wil liue godly in Christ Iesus, shal suffer persecution.
13 But the euil men and [e] deceiuers, shal waxe worse and worse, deceiuing, and being deceiued.
14 But continue thou in the things ẃ ý hast learned, and art persuaded thereof, knowing of whome thou hast learned them:
15 And that thou hast knowen the holie Scriptures of a childe, ẃ are able to make thee wise vnto saluatiõ through the faith which is in Christ Iesus.

THE EPISTLE OF

Paul to Titus.

THE ARGUMENT.

When Titus was left in Creta to finish that doctrine which Paul had there begonne, Satan stirred vp certeine which went about not onely to ouerthrowe the gouernement of the Church but also to corrupt the doctrine: for some by ambitio wolde haue thrust in themselues to be pastours: others vnder pretext of Moses Law brought in manie trifles. Against these two sortes of men Paul armeth Titus first teaching him what maner of ministers he ought to chose, chiefly requiring that they be men of sounde doctrine to the intent they might resist the aduersaries, & amongs other things he noteth y Iewes which put a certeine holines in meates and suche outwarde ceremonies, teaching them which are the true exercises of a Christian life, & what things apperteine to euerie mans vocation. Against the which if anie man rebelle or els doeth not obey, he willeth him to be auoyded.

CHAP. I.

5 He aduertiseth Titus touching the gouernement of the Church. 7 The ordonance & office of ministers. 12 The nature of y Cretians, & of them which sowe abroade Iewish fables and inuentions of men.

PAul a[l] seruāt of God and an Apostle of IESVS CHRIST according to [a]y faith of Gods elect and the knowledge of y trueth, [w] is according to godlines,
*Or, minister.
a That is, to preache y faith, to increase their knowledge, to teache them to liue godly y at length they may obteine eternal life.
2 Vnder the hope of eternal life, which God that can not lie, hathe [b] promised before the *worlde began:
Rom. 16, 25 ephe. 3, 9 col. 1, 26 2. tim. 1, 10 1. pet. 1, 20
3 But hathe made his worde manifest in due time through y preaching, which is *committed vnto me, according to the commandement of God our [c] Sauiour:
Gal. 1, 1
b Hathe willingly, and of his owne mere liberalitie promised without foreseing workes as a cause to moue hī to this fre mercie.
c Who bothe
giueth life and preserueth life.

4 To Titus my natural[d] sonne accordig to the commune faith, Grace, mercie and peace from God the father, and from the Lord Iesus Christ our Sauiour.

5 For this cause left I thee in Creta, that thou shuldest continue to redresse the things that remaine, and shuldest ordeine Elders in euerie citie, as I appointed thee,

6 *If anie[e] be vnreproueable, the husband of one wife, hauing faithful children, which are not sclandered of riote, nether are disobedient.

7 For a bishop must be vnreproueable, as [f]Gods stewarde, not[g] frowarde, not angrie, not giuen to wine, no striker, not giuen to filthie lucre,

8 But harberous, one ý loueth [h]goodnes, wise, [i]righteous, [k]holie, temperate,

9 Holding fast the faithful worde according to doctrine, that he also may be able to exhorte with wholsome doctrine, and improue thē that say against it.

10 For there are manie disobedient and vaine talkers and deceiuers of mindes, chiefly they of the[l] Circumcision,

11 Whose mouths must be stopped, ẃ subuert whole houses, teaching things, which thei ought not, for filthie lucres sake.

12 One of them selues, euen one of their owne[k] prophetes said, The Cretians are alwaies lyars, euil beastes, slowe bellyes.

13 This witnes is true: wherefore rebuke them sharpely, that they may be sounde in the faith,

14 And not taking hede to Iewish fables & commandements of men, that turne from the trueth.

15 Vnto the pure * are all things pure, but vnto them that are defiled, & vnbeleuing, is nothing pure, but euē their mindes and consciences are defiled.

CHAP. II.

He commendeth vnto him the wholsome doctrine, and telleth him how he shal teache all degrees to behaue them selues.
11 Through the benefite of the grace of Christ.

BVt speake thou the things which become [a] wholsome doctrine,

That the Elder men be sobre, honest, discrete, sounde in the faith, in loue, & in patience:

The Elder women likewise, that they be in suche behauiour as becometh holines, not false accusers, not giuen to muche wine, but teachers of honest things,

That they may instruct the yong women to be sobre minded, that they loue their housbands, that thei loue their children,

That thei be discrete, chast, [b] keping at home, good and * subiect vnto their housbands that the worde of God be not euil spoken of.

Exhorte yong men likewise, ý thei be sobre minded.

Aboue all things shewe thy self an ensample of good workes with vncorrupt doctrine, with grauitie, integritie,

And with the wholsome worde, ẃ can not be reproued, ý he which withstandeth, may be ashamed, hauing nothing concerning you to speake euil of.

*Let seruants be subiect to their masters, and please them in all things, not answering againe, Nether pykers, but that they shewe all good faithfulnes, that they may adorne the doctrine of God our Sauiour in all things.

THE EPISTLE OF

Paul to Philemon.

THE ARGUMENT.

Albeit the excellencie of Pauls ſpirit wonderfully appeareth in other his Epiſtles, yet this Epiſtle is a great witnes, & a declaration of ý ſame. For farre paſſing the baſenes of his matter, ſteeth as it were vp to heauen, and ſpeaketh with a diuine grace & maieſtie. Oneſimus ſeruant to Philemon bothe robbed his maſter, and fled away, whome Paul hauing wonne to Chriſt, ſent againe to his maſter, earneſtly begging his pardone, with moſte waightie arguments proouing the duetie of one Chriſtian to another, & ſo with ſalutations endeth.

CHAP. I.

He reioyceth to heare of the faith and loue of Philemon, 9 Whome he deſireth to forgiue his ſeruant Oneſimus, and louingly to receiue him againe.

1 PAul a priſoner of Ieſus Chriſt, and our brother Timotheus, vnto Philemon our dere friend, and followehelper,
2 And to our dere ſiſter Apphia, and to Archippus our felowe ſouldier, and to ý Church that is in thine houſe:
3 Grace be with you, and peace from God our Father, and from the Lord Ieſus Chriſt.
4 I * giue thankes to my God, making mencion alwaies of thee in my prayers.
5 (When I heare of thy loue & faith ẅ thou haſt towarde the Lord Ieſus, and towarde all Saintes)
6 That the [a] felowſhip of thy faith may be made fruteful, and that whatſoeuer good thing is in you [b] through Chriſt Ieſus, may be knowen.
7 For we haue great ioye and conſolation in the loue, becauſe by thee, brother, the Saintes [c] hearts are comforted.
8 Wherefore, thogh I be verye bolde in Chriſt to commande thee that which is conuenient,
9 Yet for loues ſake I rather beſeche thee, thogh I be as I am, euen Paul aged, and euen now a priſoner for Ieſus Chriſt.

15 It may be that he therefore [d] departed for a season, that thou shuldest receiue him for euer,

17 If therefore thou counte our things f commune, receiue him as my self.
18 If he hathe hurt thee, or oweth thee ought, that put on mine accountes.
19 I Paul haue writtē this with mine owne hand: I wil recompense it, albeit I do not say to thee, that thou owest vnto me euen thine owne self.
20 Yea, brother, let me obteine this pleasure of thee in the Lord: comforte my bowels in the Lord.
21 Trusting in thine obedience, I wrote vnto thee, knowing that thou wilt do euen more then I say.
22 Moreouer also prepare me lodging: for I trust through your prayers I shalbe giuen vnto you.
23 There salute thee Epaphras my fellowe prisoner [h] in Christ Iesus.

THE EPISTLE TO

the Ebrewes.

THE ARGVMENT.

For asmuche as diuers, bothe of the Greke writers & Latines witnesse, that the writer of this epistle for iuste causes wolde not haue his name knowen, it were curiositie of our parte to labour muche therein. For seing the Spirit of God is the autor thereof, it diminisheth nothing the autoritie, although we knowe not with what penne he wrote it. Whether it were Paul (as it is not like) or Luke, or Barnabas, or Clement, or some other, his chief purpose is to persuade vnto the Ebrewes (whereby he principally meaneth them that abode at Ierusalem, and vnder them all the rest of the Iewes) that Christ Iesus was not onely the redemer, but also that at his comming all ceremonies must haue an end: for asmuche as his doctrine was the conclusion of all the prophecies, and therefore not onely Moses was inferior to him, but also the Angels: for they all were seruants, & he the Lord, but so Lord, that he hathe also taken our flesh, & is made our brother to assure vs of our saluation through him self: for he is that eternal Priest, whereof all the Leuitical Priests were but shadowes, & therefore at his comming they ought to cease, & all sacrifices for sinne to be abolished, as he proueth from the seuenth chap. ver. 11. vnto the 12. chap. ver. 18. Also he was that Prophet of whome all ỹ Prophetes in time past witnessed, as is declared from the 12. chap. ver. 18. to the twentie & fiue verse of ỹ same chap. yea, & is the King to whome all things are subiect, as appeareth fro that ver. 25. to the beginning of the last chap. Wherefore according to the examples of the olde fathers we must constantly beleue in him, that being sanctified by his iustice, taught by his wisdome, & gouerned by his power, we may stedfastly, & courageously persuere euen to the end in hope of that ioye that is set before our eyes, occupying our selues in Christian exercises that we may bothe be thankeful to God, and ductiful to our neighbour.

CHAP. I.

1 He sheweth the excellencie of Christ. 4 Aboue the Angels, 7 And of their office.

1 AT sondrie times & in diuers maners [a] God spake in the olde time to our fathers by ỹ Prophetes.
2 In these [b] last dayes he hathe spokē vnto vs by his Sonne, whome he hathe made heir of all things, [c] by whome also he made the worldes,
3 * Who being the brightnes of ỹ glorie, and the [d] ingraued forme of his persone, and bearing vp all things by his mightie worde, hathe by him self [e] purged our sinnes, & sitteth at the right hand of ỹ maiestie in ỹ higheste places,
4 And is made so muche more excellēt then ỹ Angels in as muche as he hathe obteined a more excellent name then thei.
5 For vnto which of the Angels said he at anie time, * Thou art my Sonne, & this day begate I thee? & againe, I* wil be his Father, & he shalbe my sonne?
6 And againe when he bringeth in his first begotten Sonne into the worlde, he saith, * And let all the Angels of God worship him,
7 And

a God, who is euer constant, & merciful to his Church, declared his wil in time past, not all at once, or after one sorte, but frō time to time, & in sondrie sortes: but now last of all he hathe fully declared all trueth to vs by his Sonne.

b So ỹ now we may not credit anie new reuelations after his.

c He entreateth here of Christ, bothe as touching his persone, w̄ is verie God, & verie man, by whome all things are made, & also as touching his office, whereby he is King, prophet and priest.

CHAP. II.

1 He exhorteth vs to be obedient vnto ỹ new Law which Christ hath giuen vs, 9 And not to be offended at the infirmitie & lowe degre of Christ, 10 Because it was necessarie ỹ for our sakes he shulde take suche an humble state vpon him, that he might be like vnto his brethren.

1 VVHerefore we ought diligently to giue hede to the things ẅ we haue heard, lest at anie [a] time we shulde let them slippe.
2 For if the [b] worde spoken by Angels was stedfaste, and euerie transgression, & disobedience receiued a iuste recōpense of rewarde,
3 How shal we escape, if we neglect so [c]great saluation, which at the first began to be preached by the Lord, and afterwarde was confirmed vnto vs by [d]them that heard him,
4 *God bering witnes thereto, bothe ẅ signes and wonders, and with diuers miracles, and giftes of the holie Gost, according to his owne will?
5 For he hathe not put in subiection vnto the Angels the [e] worlde to come, whereof we speake.
6 But*[f] one in a certeine place witnessed, saying, *What is man, that thou shuldest be mindeful of him? Or the sonne of man that thou woldest consider him?
7 Thou madest him a litle inferior to the Angels: thou crownedst him with [g]glorie and honour, & hast set him aboue the workes of thine hands.
8 *Thou hast put all things in subiection vnder his fete. And in that he hathe put all things in subiection vnder him, he left nothing that shulde not be subiect vnto him. [h] But we yet se not all things subdued vnto[i] him.
9 But we se Iesus [k]crowned with glorie & honour, which was made a litle inferior to the Angels through the suffering of death, that by Gods grace he might taste death for all men.
10 For it became him, for whome are all things, & by whome are all things, seing ỹ he broght manie children vnto glorie, that he shulde consecrate ỹ [l]Prince of their saluation through [m]afflictions.
11 For he that sanctifieth, & they ẅ are sanctified, are all [n] of one: wherefore he is not ashamed to call them brethren,
12 Saying,* *I wil declare thy Name vnto my [o] brethren: in the middes of the Church wil I sing praises to thee.
13 And againe, I wil put my [p] trust in him. And againe, *[q] Beholde, here am I, & the children which God hathe giuen me.
14 Forasmuche then as the children were partakers of flesh and bloode, he also him self likewise toke parte with them, that he might destroye* through death, him that had the power of death, that is the deuil,
15 And that he might deliuer all them, ẅ for feare of [r] death were all their life time subiect to bondage.
16 For he in no sorte toke the [s] Angels, but he toke the seed of Abraham.
17 Wherefore [t] in all things it became him to be made like vnto his brethrē, that he might be merciful, and a faithful high Priest in things concerning God, that he might make reconciliation for the sinnes of the people.
18 For in that he [v] suffered, & was tempted, he is able to succour them that are tempted.

n The head & ỹ members are of one nature: so Christ ẅ sanctifieth vs, & we ẅ are sanctified, are all one by ỹ vnion of our flesh.

CHAP. III.

1 He requireth them to be obedient vnto the worde of Christ, 3 Who is more worthie then Moses. 12 The punishment of suche as wil harden their hearts & not beleue, that they might haue eternal rest.

1 THerefore holie brethren, partakers of the heauenlie vocation, [a]consider the Apostle & high Priest of our [b]profession Christ Iesus:
2 Who was faithful to him that hathe appointed [c] him, euen as* Moses was in all his house.

a Take hede to his wordes and receiue him.
b Of ỹ doctrine ẅ we beleue, & ought to confesse
c To be ỹ ambassadour and high priest.
Nom.12,7

3 For this man is counted worthie of more glorie then Moses, in asmuche as he which hathe buylded the house, d hathe more honour then the house.
4 For euerie house is buylded of some man, and he that hathe buylt all thigs, is e God.
5 Now Moses verely was faithful in all his house, as a seruant, for a witnes of ỹ things which shulde be spoken after.
6 But Christ is as the Sonne, ouer his owne house, whose f house we are, if we holde fast the confidence and the reioycing of the hope vnto the end.
7 Wherefore, as the holie Gost saith, * To day if ye shal heare his voyce,
8 Harden not your hearts, as in the g prouocation, according to the day of the tentation in the wildernes,
9 Where your fathers tempted me, proued me, and sawe my workes fortie yeres long.
10 Wherefore I was grieued with that generatiō, and said, They erre euer in their heart, nether haue they knowen my wayes.
11 Therefore I sware in my wrath, h If thei shal enter into my i rest.
12 Take hede brethren, lest at anie time there be in anie of you an euil heart, & vnfaithful, to departe away from the liuing God.
13 But exhorte one another daily, while it is called k To day, lest anie of you be hardened through the deceitfulnes of sinne.
14 For we are made partakers of Christ, if we kepe sure vnto the end ỹ l beginning, wherewith we are vpholden,
15 So long as it is said, To day if ye heare his voyce, harden not your hearts, as in the prouocation.
16 For some when they heard, prouoked m him to angre: howbeit, not all ỹ came out of Egypt by Moses.
17 But with whome was he displeased fortie yeres? Was he not displeased with them that sinned, * whose l carkeises fell in the wilderne?
18 And to whome sware he that they shulde not enter into his rest, but vnto them, that obeyed not?
19 So we se that they colde not enter in because of vnbeliefe.

d Moses was but parte of ỹ house, ỹ is, of ỹ Church whereof the pastours are ỹ liue lie stones, but Christ buylded it, & layed ỹ stones: therefore he deserueth more praise.
e That is, Christ: for Christ is ỹ fundation, & head of his Church: he is our brother, and Lord: he is ỹ Sonne of God, & verie God, working all things by his owne power.
f For in obeyig ỹ Sonne we are made ỹ house of God.

CHAP. IIII.

2 The worde without faith is vnprofitable. 3 The Sabbath or rest of the Christians. 6 Punishement of vnbeleuers. 12 The nature of the worde of God.

1 LEt vs feare therefore, lest at anie time by forsaking the promes of entring into his rest anie of you shulde seme to be depriued.
2 For vnto vs was the Gospel preached as also vnto them; but the worde that they heard, profited not them, because it was not a mixed with faith in those that heard it.
3 For we ẅ which haue beleued, do enter into rest, as he said to the other, As I haue sworne in my wrath, If b they shal enter into my rest, although c ỹ workes were finished from the fundation of the worlde.
4 For he spake in a certeine place of ỹ seuēth day on this wise, * And God did rest the seuenth day from all his workes.
5 And in this place againe, If they shal enter into my rest.
6 Seing therefore it remaineth that some must enter thereinto, and they to whome it was first preached, entred not therein for vnbeleues sake:
7 Againe he appointed d in Dauid a certeine day by To day, after so long a time, saying, as it is said, * This day if ye heare his voyce, harden not your hearts.
8 For e if Iesus had giuen them rest, then wolde he not after this day haue spokē of another.
9 There remaineth therefore a rest to ỹ people of God.
10 For he that is entred into his rest, f hathe also ceased from his owne workes, as God did from his.
11 Let vs studie therefore to entre into that rest, lest anie man fall after ỹ same ensample of disobedience.
12 For the worde of God is liuelie, and mightie in operation, and sharper then anie two edged sworde, and g entreth through, euen vnto the diuiding a sonder of the h soule & the i spirit, and of ỹ ioynts, and the marie, and is a discerner of the thoghtes and the intentes of the heart.
13 Nether is there anie creature, which is not manifest in his sight: but all thigs are naked & k open vnto his eyes, l with whome we haue to do.
14 Seing then that we haue a great hie Priest, which is entred into heauen, e*uen* Iesus the Sonne of God, let vs holde fast our profession.
15 For we haue not an hye Priest, which can not be touched with the feling of our infirmities, but was in all things tempted in like sorte, yet without sinne.
16 Let vs therefore go boldely vnto ỹ throne of grace, that we may receiue mercie, and finde grace to helpe in time of nede.

CHAP. V.

CHAP. V.

He compareth Iesus Christ with the Leuitical Priests, shewing wherein they ether agree or dissent. 11 Afterwarde he reproueth the negligence of the Iewes.

1 FOr euerie hie Priest is taken from among men, and is [a] ordeined for me, in things perteining to God, that he may offer bothe [b] giftes & [c] sacrifices for sinnes,

2 Which is able sufficiently to haue cõpassion on them [d] that are ignorant, & that are out of the way, because that he also is compassed with infirmitie,

3 And for thesames sake he is boũde to offer for sinnes, as wel for his owne parte, as for the peoples.

4 *And no man taketh this honour vnto him self, but he that is called of God, as was Aaron.

5 So likewise Christ toke not to him self this honour, to be made the hie Priest, but he that said vnto him, * Thou art my Sonne, this day begate I thee, gaue it him.

6 As he also in another place speaketh, * Thou art a Priest for euer after the [e] order of Melchi-sedec.

7 Which in the [f] dayes of his flesh did offer vp prayers and supplications, with [g] strong crying and teares vnto him, that was able to saue him from death, and was also heard [h] in that which he feared.

8 And thogh he were the Sonne, yet learned he obedience, by the things ẅ he suffred.

9 And being consecrate was made the autor of eternal saluation vnto all them that obey him:

10 And is called of God an hie Priest after the order of Melchi-sedec.

11 [i] Of whome we haue many things to say, which are hard to be vttered, because ye are dull of hearing.

12 For when as concerning the time ye ought to be teachers, yet haue ye nede againe that we teache you the first [l] principles of the worde of God: and are become such e as haue nede of [k] milke, and not of strong meat.

13 For euerie one that vseth milke, is in experte in the [l] worde of righteousnes: for he is a babe.

14 But strong meat belongeth to them that are of age, which through long custome haue their wittes exercised, to discerne bothe good and euil.

CHAP. VI.

1 He procedeth in reproving them, and exhorteth them not to faint, 12 But to be stedfast & patient, 18 Forasmuche as God is sure in his promes.

1 THerefore, leauing the doctrine of ỹ [a] beginning of Christ, let vs be led forward vnto perfection, not laying againe the fundation [b] of repentance from dead workes, and of faith towarde God,

2 Of the doctrine of [c] baptismes, & laying on of hands, and of the resurrection from the dead, and of eternal iudgement.

3 And this wil we do [d] if God permit.

4 *For it is impossible that they, which were once lightened, and haue tasted of the heauenlie gift, and were made partakers of the holie Gost,

5 And haue tasted of the good worde of God, and of the powers of the worlde to come,

6 If they fall away, shulde be renued againe by repentance: seing they [e] crucifie againe to them selues the sonne of God & make a mocke of him.

7 For the earth which drinketh in the raine that cometh ofte vpõ it, and bringeth forthe herbes mete for them by whome it is dressed, receiueth blessing of God.

8 But that which beareth thornes & briars, is reproued, and is nere vnto cursing whose end is to be burned.

9 But beloued, we haue persuaded our selues better things of you, and suche as accompanie saluation, thogh we thus speake.

10 For God is not vnrighteous, that he shulde forget your worke, and labour of loue, which ye shewed towarde his Name, in that ye haue ministred vnto the Saintes, & yet minister.

11 And we desire that euerie one of you shewe the same diligence, to the [f] ful assurance of hope vnto the end,

12 That ye be not slothful, but followers of [g] them, which through faith and patience, inherite the promises.

13 For when God made the promes to Abraham, because he had no greater to sweare by, he sware by him self,

14 Saying, *Surely I wil abundantly blesse thee and multiplie thee maruelously.

15 And so after that he had taryed paciently, he enioyed the promes.

16 For men verely sweare by him that is greater then them selues, and an othe for confirmation is among them an end of all strife.

17 So God willing more [h] abundantly to shewe vnto the heires of promes the stablenes of his counsel, bounde him self by an othe,

18 That by [i] two immutable things, wherein it is vnpossible that God shulde lye, we might haue strong consolation, which haue our refuge to holde fast the hope that is set before vs,

CHAP. VII.

1 He compareth the Priesthode of Christ vnto Melchi-sedec. 11 Also Christs Priesthode with the Leuites.

Gen.14,18.

FOr this Melchi-sedec* was King of Salem, the Priest of the most hie God, who met Abrahā, as he returned from the slaughter of the Kings, and blessed him:
2 To whome also Abraham gaue the tithe of all things: who first is by interpretation King of righteousnes: after that, he is also King of Salem, that is, King of peace,
3 Without a father, without mother, without kired, and hathe nether beginning of his dayes, nether end of life: but is likened vnto the Sonne of God, and continueth a Priest for euer.
4 Now consider how great this man was, vnto whome euen the b Patriarke Abraham gaue the tithe of the spoiles.
5 For verely they which are the children of Leui, which receiue the office of the Priesthode, haue a *c commandement to take, according to the Law, tithes of the people (that is, of their brethren) though they d came out of the loynes of Abraham.
6 But he whose kinred is not counted among them, c receiued tithes of Abraham, and blessed him that had ý promises.
7 And without all contradiction ý lesse is blessed of the greater.
8 And here men that dye, receiue tithes: but there he receiueth them, of whome it is witnessed, that he f liueth.
9 And to say as the thing is, Leui also which receiueth tithes, payed tithes in Abraham.
10 For he was yet in the loines of his father Abraham, when Melchi-sedec met him.
11 If therefore perfection had bene by the Priesthode of the Leuites (for vnder it the Law was established to the people) what neded it furthermore, that another Priest shulde rise after the order of Melchi-sedec, & not to be called after the order of Aaron?
12 For if the Priesthode be changed, then of necessitie must there be a change of the g Law.
13 For he of whome these things are spoken, perteineth vnto another tribe, whereof no man serued at the altar.
14 For it is euident, that our Lord sprōg out of Iuda, concerning the which tribe Moses spake nothing, touching ý Priesthode.
15 And it is yet a more euident thing, because that after ý similitude of Melchi-sedec, there is risen vp another Priest,
16 Which is not made Priest after the Law h of the carnal commandement, but after the power of the endles life.
17 For he testifieth thus, * Thou art a Priest for euer, after the order of Melchi-sedec.
18 For ý commandement that went afore, is disanulled, because i of the weakenes thereof, and vnprofitablenes.
19 For the Law made nothing perfite, but " the bringing in of a better hope made perfite, whereby we drawe nere vnto God.
20 And forasmuche as it is not without an othe (for these are made Priests without an othe:
21 But this, he is made with an othe by him that said vnto him, * The Lord hathe sworne, & wil not repent, Thou art a Priest for euer, after the order of Melchi-sedec)
22 By so muche is Iesus made a suretie of a better " Testament.
23 And among them many were made Priests, because they were not suffred to endure, by the reason of death.
24 But this man, because he endureth euer, hathe an k euerlasting Priesthode.
25 Wherefore, he is able also l perfitely to saue them that come vnto God by him, seing he euer liueth, to make intercession for them.
26 For suche an hie Priest it became vs to haue, which is holie, harmeles, vndefiled, separate from sinners, and made hier then the heauens:
27 Which neded not daily as those hie Priests to offer vp sacrifice, * first for his owne sinnes, and then for the peoples: for that did he m once, when he offred vp him self.
28 For the Law maketh men hie Priests, which haue infirmitie: but the worde of the othe that was n since the Law, maketh the Sonne, who is consecrated for euermore.

CHAP. VIII.

6 He proueth the abolishing aswel of the Leuitical Priesthode, as of the olde Couenant by the spiritual & euerlasting Priesthode of Christ. 8. And by the new Couenant.

1 NOw of the things which we haue spoken, this is the summe, that we haue

a So called, because that Moses maketh no mencion of his parets or kinsfolkes, but as he had bene suddenly sent of God into the worlde to be a figure of Christ our euerlasting Priest, & shortely taken out of the world againe, so Christ as touching his humanitie had no father, and 5 concerning his diuinitie, no mother.

c The Leuites had commandement to receiue that, which Abraham gaue frely to Melchi-sedec.
d Was begotten of Abraham.
e The Leuites receiued tithes of their brethren, but Melchi-sedec of Abraham, the patriarke: therefore his priesthode is more excellent thē the Leuitical.
f Because there is no mētion of his death.
g The Lawe and ý Priesthode are bothe of one condition: so that bothe Aarons & Moses office perteine to Christ, which is priest & Lawmaker.

h Which stode in outwarde and corporal ceremonies. Psal.110,4. chap.5,6.

3 For [d] euerie hie Priest is ordeined to offer bothe giftes and sacrifices: wherefore it was of necessitie, that this man shulde haue some what also to offer.

4 For he were not a Priest, if he were on the earth, seing there are Priests that according to the Law offer giftes,

5 Who serue vnto the paterne & shadowe of heauenlie things, as Moses was warned by God, when he was about to finish the Tabernacle. *Se, said he, that thou make all things according to the [e] paterne, shewed to thee in the mount.

6 But now our hie Priest hathe obteined a more excellent office, in asmuche as he is the Mediator of a better [f] Testament, which is established vpon better promises.

7 For if that first Testament had bene fauteles, no place shulde haue bene soght for the seconde.

8 For in rebuking them he saith, * Beholde, the dayes wil [f] come, saith the Lord, when I shal make with the house of Israel, and with the house [g] of Iuda a new Testament:

9 Not like the Testament that I made w their fathers, in the day that I toke them by the hand, to leade them out of the land of Egypt: for they [h] continued not in my Testament, and I regarded them not, saith the Lord.

10 For this is the Testament that I wil make with the house of Israel, After those dayes, saith the Lord, I wil put my lawes in their minde, and in their heart I wil write thē, and I wil be their God, and they shalbe my people,

11 And they shal not [i] teache euerie man his neighbour & euerie man his brother, saying, Knowe the Lord: for all shal knowe me, from the least of them to the greatest of them.

12 For I wil be merciful to their vnrighteousnes, and I wil remember their sinnes and their iniquities no more.

13 In that he saith a newe Testament, he hathe abrogate ỹ olde: now that which is disanulled & waxed olde, is readie to vanish away.

CHAP. IX.

1 How that the Ceremonies and sacrifices of the Lawe are abolished. 11 By the eternitie and perfection of Christs sacrifice.

1 THen the first [n] Testament had also [n] ordinaces of religion, and a [a] worldlie Sanctuarie.

2 For the first * Tabernacle was made, wherein was the candlesticke, and the table, & the shewbread, which Tabernacle is called the Holie places.

3 And after the [b] seconde vaile was the Tabernacle, which is called the Holiest of all,

4 Which had the golden senser, and the Arke of the Testament ouerlaide rounde about with gold, wherein the golden pot which had Manna, was, and *Aarons rodde that had budded, and the * tables of the Testament.

5 *And ouer the Arke were the glorious Cherubims, shadowing the [n] mercie seat: of which things we wil not now speake particularly.

6 Now when these things were thus ordeined, the Priests went alwayes into the first Tabernacle, & accomplished the seruice.

7 But into the second went the * hie Priest alone, once euerie yere, not without blood which he offered for him self, and for the [n] ignorances of the people.

8 Whereby the holie Gost this signified, that the [c] way into the Holiest of all was, not yet opened, while as yet the first Tabernacle was standing,

9 Which was a figure for the time present, wherein were offred giftes and sacrifices that colde not make [n] holie, cōcerning the conscience, [d] him that did the seruice,

10 Which onely stode in meats and drinkes, and diuers washings, and [e] carnal rites, vntil the time of [f] reformation.

11 But Christ being come an hie Priest of good things to come, by a greater and a more perfite [g] Tabernacle, not made with hands, that is, not of this buylding, 12 Nether by the blood of goates and calues: but by his owne blood entred he in once vnto the [h] holie place, [i] and obteined eternal redemption for vs.

13 *For if the [k] blood of bulles & of goates & the asshes of an heifer, sprinkling them that are vncleane, sanctified as touching the purifying of the [l] flesh,

14 How muche more shal the * blood of Christ which through the eternal Spirit offred him self without spot to God, purge your conscience from [m] dead workes, to * serue the liuing God?

the transgressions that were in the n former Testament, they which were called, might receiue the promes of eternal enheritance.

16 For where a testament is, there must be the death of him that made the testament.

17 * For the o testament is confirmed when men are dead: for it is yet of no force as long as he that made it, is a liue.

18 Wherefore nether was the first ordeined without p blood.

19 For when Moses had spoken euerie precept to the people, according to the Law, he toke the blood of calues and of goates, with water and purple wolle and hyssope, and sprinkled bothe the boke, and all the people,

20 *Saying, This is the blood of ỹ Testament, which God hathe appointed vnto you.

21 Moreouer, he sprinkled likewise the Tabernacle with blood also, and all the ministring vessels.

22 And almost all things are by the Law purged with blood, and without sheading of blood is no remission.

23 It was then necessarie, that the similitudes of heauenlie things shulde be purified with suche things: but the heauenlie things them selues are purified w̄ better q sacrifices then are these.

24 For Christ is not entred into the holie places that are made with hands, which are r similitudes of the true Sanctuarie: but is entred into very heauē, to appeare now in the sight of God for vs,

25 Not that he shulde offer him self s often, as the hie Priest entred into the Holie place euerie yere with other blood,

26 (For then must he haue often suffred since the fundacion of the worlde) but now in the t end of the worlde hathe he appeared once to put away sinne, by the sacrifice of him self.

27 And as it is appointed vnto men that they shal once dye, and after that cometh the iudgement,

28 So * Christ was once offred to take away the sinnes of u many, and vnto them that loke for him, shal he appeare the seconde time v without sinne vnto saluation.

CHAP. X.

1 The olde lawe had no power to clense awaye sinne. 10 But Christ did it with offring of his bodie once for all. 22 An exhortacion to receiue the goodnes of God thankefully with patience and stedfast faith.

1 FOr the * Laxe hauing the a shadowe of good things to b come, and not ỹ very c image of the things, can neuer w̄ those sacrifices, which they offer yere by yere continually, d sanctifie the commers thereunto.

2 For wolde they not then haue ceased to haue bene offred, because that the offerers once purged, shulde haue had no more conscience of sinnes?

3 But in those sacrifices there is a remembrance againe of sinnes euerie yere.

4 For it is vnpossible that the blood of bulles & goates shulde * take away sinnes.

5 Wherefore when he e commeth into the worlde, he saith, * Sacrifice & offring thou woldest not: but a f bodie hast thou ordeined me.

6 In burnt offrings, & sinne offrings thou hast had no pleasure.

7 Then I said, Lo, I come (In the beginning of the g boke it is written of me) that I shulde do thy wil, ô God.

8 Aboue, when he said, Sacrifice & offring, and burnt offrings, & sinne offrings thou woldest not haue, nether hadst pleasure therein (which are offred by the Law)

9 Thē said he, Lo, I come to do thy wil, ô God, he taketh away h the first, that he may stablish the i seconde.

10 By the which wil we are sanctified, euen by the offring of the bodie of Iesus Christ once made.

11 And euerie Priest appeareth daiely ministring, and oft times offreth one maner of offring, which can neuer take awaye sinne, 12 But this man after he had offred one sacrifice for sinne k, * sitteth for euer at the right hand of God.

13 And from hence forthe tarieth, * til his enemies be made his foteston.

14 For with one offring hathe l he consecrated for euer them that are sanctified.

15 For the holie Gost also beareth vs recorde: for after that he had said before,

16 * This is the Testament that I wil make vnto them after those daies, saith the Lord, I wil put my Lawes in their heart, and in their mindes I wil write them.

17 And their sinnes and iniquities wil I remember no more.

18 Now where m remission of these things is, there is no more n offring for sinne.

fathers colde not hawe by ỹ Law. m The blood alwayes fresh & liuelie, before ỹ father to sprinkle 22 Let vs drawe nere with a true heart in assurance of faith, [n] sprinkeled in our hearts from an euil conscience, and washed in ourbodies with pure water.

23 Let vs kepe the profession of our hope, without wauering (for he is faithful that promised)

24 And let vs consider one another, to prouoke vnto loue, and to good workes,

25 Not forsaking the felowship that we haue among our selues, as the maner of some is: but let vs exhorte one another, & that so muche the more, because ye se that the [o] day draweth nere.

26 * For if we sinne [p] willingly after that we haue receiued the knowledge of the trueth, there remaineth no more sacrifice for sinnes,

27 But a feareful loking for of iudgement, & violent fyre, which shal deuoure the aduersaries.

28 He that despiseth Moses Law, dyeth without mercie * vnder two, or thre witnesses.

29 Of how muche sorer punishment suppose ye shal he be worthie, which treadeth vnder fote the Sonne of God, and counteth the blood of the Testament as an vnholie thing, wherewith he was sanctified, and [q] doeth despite the Spirit of grace?

30 For we know him that hathe said, * Vengeance belongeth vnto me: I wil recompense, saith the Lord. And againe, The Lord shal [r] iudge his people.

31 It is a feareful thing to fall into the hands of the liuing God.

32 Now call to remembrance the dayes that are passed, in the which, after ye had receiued light, ye endured a great fight in afflictions,

33 Partely while you were made a gazing stocke bothe by reproches, and afflictions, and partely while ye became [s] companions of them which were [t] so tossed to and fro.

34 For bothe ye sorowed with me for my bondes, and suffred with ioye the spoyling of your goods, knowing in your selues how that ye haue in heauen a better, and an enduring substance.

35 Cast not away therefore your confidence which hathe great recompense of rewarde.

36 For ye haue nede of pacience, that after ye haue done the wil of God, ye might receiue the promes.

37 * For yet a verie litle while, and he that shal come, wil come, and wil not tarie.

38 Now the iust shal liue by faith: but if any with drawe him self, my soule shal haue no pleasure in him.

39 But we are not they which withdrawe our selues vnto perdicion, but followe faith vnto the conseruacion of the soule.

n That is hauing our hearts made pure.

CHAP. XI.

1 What faith is, and a commendacion of the same. 9 Without faith we can not please God. 16 The stedfast beleefe of the fathers in olde time.

1 NOw faith is the grounde of things, which are hoped for, and the euidence of things which are not sene.

2 For by it our elders were wel [a] reported of.

3 * Through faith we vnderstand that the worlde was ordeined by the worde of God, so that the things which we se, are not made of things, which [b] did appeare.

4 By faith Abel * offred vnto God a greater sacrifice then Cain, [c] by * the which he obteined witnes that he was [d] righteous, God testifying of his gifts: by the which faith also he being dead, yet [e] speaketh.

5 By faith was * [f] Enoch taken awaye, that he shulde not se death: nether was he founde: for God had taken him away: for before he was taken away, he was reported of, that he had pleased God.

6 But without faith it is vnpossible to please him: for he that cometh to God, must beleue that God is, and that he is [g] a rewarder of them that seke him.

7 By faith * Noe being warned of God of the things which were as yet not sene, moued with reuerence, prepared the Arke to the sauing of his housholde, through the which Arke he condemned the worlde, & was made heire of ȳ righteousnes, which is by faith.

8 By faith * Abraham, when he was called, obeyed God, to go out into a place, which he shulde afterwarde receiue for inheritance, and he went out, not knowing whether he went.

9 By faith he abode in the land of promes, as in a strange countrey, as one that dwelt in tentes with Isaac and Iacob heires with him of ȳ same promes.

10 For he loked for a citie hauing a [h] fundacion, whose buylder and maker is God.

11 Through faith * Sarra also receiued strength to conceiue sede, and was deliuered of a childe when she was past age, because she iudged him faithful which had promised.

12 And therefore sprang there of one, euen of one which was [i] dead, so many as * the starres of the skie in multitude, and as the sand of the sea shore which is innumerable f For Enochs & Elias taking vp was suche a thing, as is spoken of 1. Cor.15,51. & 1. thes.4,15.

g First God must finde vs before we can seke him: then we must seke him with a pure heart in Christ, who is reueiled in his worde: & thereby we learne to beleue Gods fre mercie towardes vs in his Sonne, through whome we obteine ȳ rewarde of his promes, & not of our desertes. *Gen.6,13. eccles.44,15. 13 All these dyed in faith, and [k] receiued not the promises, but sawe them [l] a farre of, and beleued them, and receiued them thankefully, and confessed that they were [m] strangers and pilgrimes on the earth.
14 For they that say suche things, declare plainely that they seke a countrey.
15 And if they had bene mindeful of [n] that countrey, from whence they came out, they had leasure to haue returned.
16 But now they desire a better, that is an heauenlie: wherefore God is not ashamed of them to be called their God: for he hathe prepared for them a citie.

Gen.22,10. ecclef 44,20.

Gen.47,31. [p] Or, worshiped towarde the end of his staffe.
22 By faith *Ioseph when he dyed, made mention of the departing of the children of Israel, & gaue commandement of his bones.
Gen.50,24.
23 * By faith Moses when he was borne, was hid thre moneths of his parentes, because they sawe he was a proper childe, nether feared they the Kings *commandement.

26 Esteming the rebuke of Christ greater riches then the treasures of Egypt: for he had respect vnto the recompense of the rewarde.
27 By faith he forsoke Egypt, and feared not the fiercenes of the King: for he endured, as he that sawe him which is inuisible.
Exod.12,22.
28 Through faith he ordeined the *Passeouer and the effusion of blood, lest he that destroyed the first borne, shulde touche them.

34 Quenched the violence of fyre, escaped the edge of the sworde, of weake were made strong, waxed valiant in battel, turned to flight the armies of the aliantes.
35 The [r] women receiued their dead raised to life: other also were racked, and wolde not be deliuered, that they might receiue a better resurrection.
r As Elias raised vp the widdowe of Sarepras sonne, and Eliseus the Sunamites sonne.
36 And others haue bene tryed by mockings and scourgings, yea, moreouer by bondes and prisonment.
37 They were stoned, they were hewen asunder, they were tempted, they were slayne with the sworde, they wandered vp and downe in shepes skinnes, and in goates skinnes, being destitute, afflicted, & tormented:
38 Whome the worlde was not worthie of: they wandred in wildernesses and mountaines, & dennes, & caues of the earth.
39 And these all through faith obteined good reporte, & receiued [s] not the promes, s They had not suche cleare light of Christ as we: for they loked for that which we haue therefore it were shame for vs, if at least we haue not as great constãcie as they.
40 God prouiding a better thing for vs, that they [t] without vs shulde not be made perfite.

CHAP. XII.

1 An exhortation to be patient and stedfast in trouble & aduersitie, vpon hope of euerlasting rewarde. 25 A commendation of the newe Testamẽt aboue the olde.

1 WHerefore, * let vs also, seing ỹ we are compassed with so great a [u] cloude of witnesses, cast away euerie thing that [a] presseth downe, and the sinne that [u] hangeth so fast on: let vs runne with pacience the race that is set before vs, u Or, so easely compasseth vs about.

b As being our marke.
3 Consider therefore him that endured suche speaking against of sinners, lest ye shulde be wearied and fainte in your mindes.
4 Ye haue not yet resisted vnto blood, striuing against [c] sinne.
c Which by reason of our concupiscence assaileth vs on all sides.

5 And

Prou.3,11. reuel.3,17.

5 And ye haue forgotten the consolation, which speaketh vnto you as vnto children. *My sonne, despise not the chastening of the Lord, nether faint when thou art rebuked of him.

6 For whome the Lord loueth, he chasteneth: and he scourgeth euerie sonne that he receiueth.

7 If ye endure chastening, God offreth him self vnto you as vnto sonnes: for what sonne is it whome the father chasteneth not?

8 If therefore ye be without correction, whereof all are partakers, then are ye bastardes, and not [d] sonnes.

d He concludeth that they wᵗ refuse the crosse, denie to be of the nũber of Gods children, but are bastardes.

9 Moreouer we haue had the fathers of our [e] bodies which corrected vs, and we gaue them reuerence shulde we not much rather be in subiection vnto the Father of [f] spirits, that we might liue?

e Which haue naturally begotten vs.

f As he doeth creat our spirits without any worldelie meane, so he doeth instructe and maintein them by ỹ wonderful vertue of his Spirit.

10 For they verely for a fewe dayes chastened vs after their owne pleasure: but he chasteneth vs for our profit, that we might be partakers of his holines.

11 Now no chastising for the present semeth to be ioyous, but grieuous: but afterwarde, it bringeth the quiet frute of righteousnes, vnto them which are thereby exercised.

12 Wherefore lift vp your hands wᵗ hang downe, and your weake knees,

13 And make straight steppes vnto your fete, lest [g] that which is halting, be turned out of the way, but let it rather be healed.

g Their halting partely declared their slowenes, & partely their inconstancie in doctrine: therefore they were in danger to be punished.

14 *Followe peace with all men, and holines, without the which no man shal se the Lord.

15 Take hede, that no man fall away from the grace of God: let no [h] roote of bitternes spring vp and trouble you, lest thereby many be defiled.

27 And this worde, Yet once more, signifieth the remouing of those things, which are shaken, as of things which are made with hands, that the things wᵗ are not shaken, may remaine.

28 Wherefore seing we receiue a kingdome, which can not be shaken, let vs haue grace, whereby we may so serue God, that we may please him with reuerence and feare.

THE GENERAL

Epistle of Iames.

*That is, writ to no one man, citie or countrey, but to all the Iewes generally, being now dispersed.

THE ARGVMENT.

Iames the Apostle and sonne of Alpheus wrote this Epistle to the Iewes which were conuerted to Christ, but dispersed throughout diuers countreis, and therefore he exhorteth them to patience and prayer, to embrace the true worde of God, & not to be partial, nether to boast of an idle faith, but to declare a true faith by liuelie frutes, to auoide ambition, to bridel the tongue, to rule the affections, to be humble & loue their neighbours, to beware of swearing, to vtter their faultes when they haue offended, to praye one for another, and to bring him which is out of the way, to the knowledge of Christ.

CHAP. I.

He exhorteth to reioyce in trouble, 6 To be feruent in prayer with stedfast belief, 17 To loke for all good things from aboue. 21 To forsake all vice, and thankefully to receiue the worde of God, 22 Not only hearing it, & speaking of it, but to do thereafter in dede. 27 What true religion is.

1 IAMES a seruant of God, & of the Lord IESVS CHRIST, to the twelue Tribes, ẅ are scattred abroade, salutation.
2 My brethren, counte it exceading ioye, when ye fall into diuers [ll] tentations,
3 * Knowing that the [a] trying of your faith bringeth forthe pacience.
4 And let pacience haue her [b] perfite worke, that ye may be perfite and entier, lacking nothing.
5 If any of you lacke [c] wisdome, let him aske of God, which giueth to all men liberally, and reprocheth no man, and it shalbe giuen him.
6 * But let him aske in faith, and wauer not: for he that wauereth, is like a waue of the sea, tost of the winde, and caryed away.
7 Nether

ll Or, afflictios. Rom. 5, 3.
a Afflictios trye our faith & ingedre patience.
b Our pacience ought to cõtinue to the end til ỹ working it hathe polished vs, & made vs perfect in Christ.
c To endure pacietly what soeuer God layeth vpon him.
Mat. 7, 7. mar. 11 24. luk. 11, 9. ioh. 14, 13. & 16, 23.

7 Nether let that man thinke that he shal receiue any thing of the Lord.
8 A [d] wauering minded man is vnstable in all his wayes.
9 Let the brother of lowe degree reioyce in that he is [e] exalted:
10 Againe he that is riche, in that he is made [f] lowe: for as the flower of ỹ grasse, shal he *vanish away.
11 For as when the sunne riseth with heat, then the grasse withereth, and his flower falleth away, & the beau-tie of the facion of it perisheth: euen so shal the riche man fade away in all his [n] waye.
12 *Blessed is the man, that endureth tentation: for when he is tryed, he shal receiue the crowne of life, which the Lord hathe promised to them that loue him.
13 Let no man say when he is [g] tempted,
I am tempted of God: for God can not be tempted with euil, nether tempteth he any man.
14 But euerie man is tempted, when he is drawne away by his owne concupis-cence, and is entised.
15 Then when lust hathe conceiued, it bringeth forthe sinne, and sinne when it is finished, bringeth forthe death.
16 Erre not, my deare brethren.
17 Euerie good [h] giuing, and euerie perfite gift is from aboue, and commeth downe from the Father of lights, with whome is no variablenes, [i] nether shadowing by turning.
18 Of his owne wil begate he vs with the worde of trueth, that we shulde be as ỹ first frutes of his creatures.
19 Wherefore my deare brethren, *let euerie man be [k] swift to heare, slowe to speake, & slowe to wrath.
20 For the wrath of man doeth not accomplish the [m] righteousnes of God.
21 Wherefore lay aparte all filthines, & superfluitie of maliciousnes, & receiue with mekenes the worde that is [n] graffed in you, which is able to saue your soules.
22 *And be ye doers of the worde, and not hearers onely, deceiuing your owne selues.
23 For if anie heare the worde, & do it not, he is like vnto a man, ỹ beholdeth his natural face in a [o] glasse.
24 For when he hathe considered him self, he goeth his way, & forgetteth im-mediatly what maner of one he was.
25 But who so loketh in the perfit Law of libertie, and continueth therein, he not being a forgetful hearer, but a doer of the worke, shalbe blessed [p] in his dede.
26 If anie man among you semeth religious, and refraineth not his tongue, but deceiueth his owne heart, this mans religion is vaine.
27 Pure religion & vndefiled before
God, euen the Father, is this, to visite ỹ fatherles, and widdowes in their ad-uersitie, and to kepe him self vnspotted of the worlde.

CHAP. II.

1 He forbiddeth to haue anie respect of per-sones, 5 But to regarde the poore as well as the riche. 8 To be louing and merciful, 14 And not to boast of faith where no dedes are. 17 For it is but a dead faith, where good workes followe not.

1 MY brethren, haue not the faith of our glorious Lord Iesus Christ
[a] in respect of persones.
2 For if there come into your compa-

16 And one of you say vnto them, Depart in peace: warme your selues, and fil your bellies, notwithstanding ye giue them not those things which are nedeful to the bodie, what helpeth it?
17 Euen so the faith, if it haue no workes, is dead in it self.
18 But some man might say, Thou hast the faith, & I haue workes: shewe me thy faith out of thy ‖ workes, & I wil shewe thee my faith by my workes.
19 Thou beleuest that there is one God: thou doest wel: the deuils also beleue it, & tremble.
20 But wilt thou vnderstād, ô thou vaine man, that the faith which is without workes, is dead?
21 Was not Abraham our father iustified through workes, when he offred Isaac his sonne vpon the Altar?
22 Seest thou not that y faith wroght w his workes? & through the workes was the faith made perfite.
23 And the Scripture was fulfilled which saith, * Abraham beleued God, and it was imputed vnto him for righteousnes? & he was called the friend of God.
24 Ye se then how that of workes a man is iustified, and not of faith onely.
25 Likewise also was not * Rahab the harlot iustified through workes, when she had receiued y messengers, and sent them out another waye?
26 For as the bodie without the spirit is dead, euen so the faith without workes is dead:

4 Beholde also the shippes, which thogh they be so great, and are driuen of fierce windes, yet are they turned about w a verie smale rudder, whether soeuer the gouernor listeth.
5 Euen so the tongue is a litle member, and boasteth of great things: beholde, how great a ‖ thing a litle fyre kindleth:
6 And the tongue is fyre, yea, a d worlde of wickednes: so is the tongue set among our members, that it defileth the whole bodie, and e setteth on fyre the course of nature, and it is set on fyre of hel.
7 For the whole nature of beastes, and of birdes and of creping things, and things of the sea is tamed and hathe bene tamed of the nature of man

12 Can the figge tre, my brethren, bring forthe oliues, either a vine figges? so can no fountaine make bothe salte water & swete.
13 Who is a wise man and endued with knowledge among you? let him shewe by good conuersation his workes in mekenes of wisdome.
14 But if ye haue bitter enuying and strife in your hearts, reioyce not, nether be liers against the trueth.
15 This wisdome descendeth not from aboue, but is earthlie, sensual, and diuelish.
16 For where enuying and strife is, there is sedition, and all maner of euil workes.
17 But the wisdome that is from aboue, is first f pure, then peaceable, gentle, easie to be entreated, ful of mercie and good frutes without g iudging, and without hypocrisie.

1 FRom whence are warres and contentions among you? are they not hence, euen of your lustes, that [a] fight in your members?

2 Ye luste, and haue not: ye enuie, and haue indignation, and can not obteine: ye fight and warre, and get nothing, because ye aske not.

3 Ye aske, and receiue not because ye aske a misse, that ye might consume it on your lustes.

4 Ye adulterers and [b] adulteresses, knowe ye not that the amitie of the worlde is the enimitie of God? * Whosoeuer therefore wil be a friend of the worlde, maketh him self the enemie of God,

5 Do ye thinke that the Scripture saith in vaine, The [c] spirit that dwelleth in vs, lusteth after enuie?

6 But the Scripture offereth more grace & therefore saith, * God resisteth the proude, and giueth grace to the humble.

10 *Cast downe your selues before the Lord, and he wil lift you vp.

11 Speake not euil one of another, brethren. He that speaketh euil of his brother, or he that condemneth his brother, speaketh euil of the Law, and [e] condemneth the Law: and if thou condemnest the Law, thou art not an obseruer of the Law, but a iudge.

THE FIRST EPISTLE

generall of Peter.

THE ARGVMENT.

He exhorteth the faithful to denie them selues, and to contemne the worlde, that being deliuered from all carnal affections and impediments, they may more spedely atteine to the heauenlie kingdome of Christ, whereunto we are called by the grace of God reuelled to vs in his Sonne, and haue already receiued it by faith, possessed it by hope, and are therein confirmed by holines of life. And to the intent this faith shulde not faint, seing Christ contemned and reiected almost of the whole worlde, he declareth that this is nothing els but the accomplishing of the Scriptures which testifie that he shoulde be the stombling stone to the reprobate and the sure fundacion of saluation to the faithful: therefore he exhorteth them courageously to go forwarde, considering what they were, and to what dignitie God hathe called them. After, he entreateth particular points, teaching subiects how to obey their gouernours, and seruants their masters, and how maried folkes ought to behaue them selues. And because it is appointed for all that are godlie, to suffre persecutions, he sheweth them what good ysshue their afflictions shal haue, and contrariwise what punishment God reserueth for the wicked. Last of all he teacheth how the ministers ought to behaue them selues, forbidding them to vsurpe autoritie ouer the Church: also that young men ought to be modest, and apt to learne, and so endeth with an exhortacion.

CHAP. I.

He sheweth that through the abundant mercie of God we are elect and regenerate to a liuelie hope, 7 And how faith must be tried, 10 That the saluation in Christ is no newes, but a thing prophecied of olde. 13 He exhorteth them to a godlie conuersation, for asmuche as they are now borne a newe by the worde of God.

1 PETER an Apostle of IESVS CHRIST. to [a] the strangers that dwel here and there throughout Pontus, Galacia, Cappadocia, Asia and Bithynia,

15 For so is the wil of God, that by wel doing ye may put to silence the ignorance of the foolish men,

16 As free, and not as hauing the libertie for a cloke of maliciousnes, but as the seruants of God.

17 Honour all men. * loue [f] brotherlie felowship: feare God: honour the King.

18 * Seruants, be subiect to your masters with all feare, not onely to the good and courteous, but also to the [g] frowarde.

19 *For this is thanke worthie, if a man for [h] conscience towarde God endure grief suffering wrongfully.

20 For what praise is it, if when ye be buffeted for your fautes, ye take it paciently? but and if when ye do wel, ye suffer wrong and take it paciently, this is acceptable to God.

21 For hereunto ye are called: for Christ also suffred for vs, leauing vs an ensample that ye shulde folowe his steppes.

22 *Who did no sinne, nether was there guile founde in his mouth.

23 Who whē he was reuiled, reuiled not againe: when he suffred, he threatened not, but committed it to him that iudgeth righteously.

24 * Who his owne self bare our sinnes in his bodie on the tre, that we being deliuered from sinne, shulde liue in righteousnes: by whose stripes ye were healed.

25 For ye were as shepe going astraye: but are now returned vnto the shepherd and bishope of your soules.

1 How wiues ought to ordre themselues towarde their housbands, 3 And in their apparel. 7 The duetie of men towarde their wiues. 8 He exhorteth all men to vnitie and loue, 14 And patiently to suffre trouble by the example and benefite of Christ.

1 LIkewise *let the wiues be subiect to their housbands that euen thei ý obey not the worde, may without the worde be wonne by the conuersacio of the wiues,

2 While they beholde your pure conuersacion, which is with feare.

8 Finally, be ye all of one minde: one suffre with another: loue as brethren: be pitiful: be courteous.

9 * Not rendring euil for euil, nether rebuke for rebuke: but contrarie wise blesse, knowing that ye are thereunto called, that ye shulde be [f] heires of blessing.

10 * For if anie man long after life, and to se good daies, let him refraine his tongue from euil, and his lippes ý they speake not guile.

11 *Let him eschewe euil and do good: let him seke peace, and folow after it.

12 For the eyes of the Lord are ouer the righteous, and his eares are open vnto their praiers: and the face of the Lord is vpon them that do euil.

13 And who is it that wil harme you, if ye folowe that which is good?

14 * Notwithstanding blessed are ye, if ye suffre for righteousnes sake. Yea, [h] feare not their feare, nether be troubled.

15 * But [i] sanctifie the Lord God in your hearts: and be readie alwaies to giue an answer to euerie man that asketh you a reason of the hope that is in you,

16 And that* with mekenes and reuerence, hauing a good conscience, that when they speake euil of you as of euil doers, thei may be ashamed, which blame your good conuersacion in Christ.

17 For it is better (if the wil of God be so) that ye suffer for wel doing, then for euil doing.

18 * For Christ also hathe once suffred for sinnes, the iust for the vniust, that he might bring vs to God, and was put to death concerning the flesh, but was quickened in the [k] spirit

THE SECONDE EPISTLE GENERAL OF PETER.

THE ARGVMENT.

THe effect of the Apostle here is to exhorte them which haue once professed the true faith of Christ, to stande to the same euen to the last breath: also that God by his effectual grace towardes men moueth them to holines of life, in punishing the hypocrites which abuse his Name, & in increasing his gifes in the godlie: wherefore by godlie life he being now almost at deathes dore, exhorteth them to approue their vocation, not setting their affections on worldie things (as he had oft writ vnto them) but lifting their eyes towarde heauen, as they be taught by the Gospel, whereof he is a cleare witnes, chiefly in that he heard with his owne eares that Christ was proclaimed from heauen to be the Sonne of God, as likewise the Prophetes testified. And lest they shulde promise to them selues quietnes by professing the Gospel, he warneth them bothe of troubles which they shulde susteine by the false teachers, and also by the mockers & contemners of religion, whose maners and trade he liuely setteth forthe as in a table: aduertising the faithful not onely to waite diligently for Christ, but also to beholde presently the day of his comming, and to preserue them selues vnspotted against the same.

CHAP. I.

4 Forasmuche as the power of God hathe giuen them all things perteining vnto life, he exhorteth them to flee the corruptiō of worldlie lustes. 10 To make their calling sure with good workes, and frutes of faith. 14 He maketh mētiō of his owne death, 17 Declaring the Lord Iesus to be the true Sonne of God, as he him self had sene vpō the mounte.

1 SIMON Peter a seruant and an Apostle of IESVS CHRIST, to you which haue obteined like precious faith with vs by the [a] righteousnes of our God and Sauiour Iesus Christ:
2 Grace and peace be multiplied to you, by the knowledge of God and of Iesus our Lord,
3 According as his [b] godlie power hathe giuen vnto vs all things that perteine vnto [c] life and godlines, [d] through the knowledge of him that hathe called vs [n] vnto glorie and vertue.
4 Whereby moste great, and precious promises are giuen vnto vs, that by them ye shulde be partakers of the [e] godlie nature, in that ye flee the corruption, wh is in the worlde through lust.
5 Therefore giue euen all diligence thereunto: ioyne moreouer [f] vertue with your faith: and with vertue, knowledge:
6 And with knowledge, temperance: and with temperance, pacience: and with pacience, godlines:
7 And with godlines, brotherlie kindenes: and with brotherlie kindenes, loue.
8 For if these [g] things be among you, and abunde, they wil make you that ye neither shalbe ydle, nor vnfruteful in ý knowledge of our Lord Iesus Christ:
9 For he that hathe not these things, is blinde, & [g] can not se farre of, & hathe forgotten that he was purged from his olde sinnes.
10 Wherefore, brethren, giue rather diligence

a In ý he declared him self iuste and faithful in accōplishing his promes by Christ.
b He speaketh of Christ as he is God and Sauiour.
c That is, salnation.
d The summe of our salnation and religion is to be led by Christ to ý Father, who calleth vs in the Sonne.

11 For by this meanes an entring shalbe ministred vnto you abundantly into ỹ euerlasting kingdome of our Lord & Sauiour Iesus Christ.
12 Wherefore, I wil not be negligent to put you alwais in remembrance of these things, though that ye haue knowledge, and be stablished in the present trueth.
13 For I thinke it mete as long as I am in this k tabernacle, to stirre you vp by putting you in remembrance.
14 Seing I knowe that the time is at hand that I must lay downe this my tabernacle, euen as our Lord Iesus Christ hathe *shewed me.

11 Seing therefore ŷ all these things must be dissolued, what maner persones ought ye to be ī holie cōuersatiō ād godlines,

12 Loking for, and hasting vnto ŷ comming of ŷ day of God, by the which the heauens being on fyre, shalbe dissolued, & the elements shal melt with heat?

13 But we loke for *new heauens, and a new earth, accordig to his promes, wherein dwelleth righteousnes.

14 Wherefore, beloued, seing that ye loke for suche things, be diligent that ye may be founde of him in [e] peace, without spotte and blameles.

[e] In quiet conscience.

15 *And suppose that the long suffring of our Lord is saluation, euen as our beloued brother Paul according to the wisdome giuen vnto him wrote to [f] you,

Rom 2 4.

[f] Albeit his epistles were writ to peculiar Churches, yet they conteine a general doctrine apperteining to all men.

16 As one, that in all his Epistles speaketh of these things: among the ẅ some things are [g] hard to be vnderstand, which they that are vnlearned and vnstable, *peruert, as they do also other Scriptures vnto their owne destruction.

[g] As no mā cōdemneth ŷ brightues of ŷ sunne because his eye is not able to susteine ŷ clearnes thereof: so ŷ hardenes ẅ we can not some time compas or perfectly vndestande in ŷ Scriptures, ought not to take away from vs ŷ vse of ŷ Scriptures.

*Or, wreste.

17 Ye therefore beloued, seing ye knowe these thīgs before, beware, lest ye be also plucked away ẅ the errour of ŷ wicked, and fall frō your owne stedfastnes,

18 But growe in grace, and in the knowledge of our Lord and Sauiour Iesus Christ: to him be glorie both now and for euer more. Amen.

THE FIRST EPIstle general of Iohn.

THE ARGVMENT.

After that S. Iohn had sufficiently declared how that our whole saluatiō doeth cōsiste onely in Christ, lest that any mā shulde thereby take a boldenes to sinne, he sheweth that no man can beleue in Christ, onles he doeth endeuour him self to kepe his commandements, which thing being done, he exhorteth thē to beware of false prophetes, whome he calleth Antichristes, and to tryc the spirits. Last of all he doeth earnestly exhorte them vnto brotherlie loue, and to beware of deceiuers.

CHAP. I.

1 True witnes of the euerlasting worde of God. 7 The blood of Christ is the purgation of sinne. 10 No man is without sinne,

THat which was [a] frō ý beginning, which we haue [b] heard, ẅ we haue sene ẅ our eyes, ẅ we haue loked vpon, and our handes haue handled of the Worde[c] of life.

(For ý life appeared, and we haue sene it, and beare witnes, and shewe vnto ypu ý eternall life, ẅ was [d] with the Father, and appeared vnto vs)

That, I say, ẅ we haue sene & heard, declare we vnto you, ý ye may also[e] haue felowship with vs, and that our felowship also may be with ý Father and ẅ his Sonne Iesus Christ.

And these things write we vnto you, ý your ioye may be ful.

This then is the message which we haue heard of him, and declare vnto you, that God[a] is[f] light, & in him is no darkenes.

If we say ý we haue felowship ẅ him, and walke in [g] darkenes, we lye, & do not truely.

But if we walke in the light as he is in the light, we haue felowship [h] one with another, and the* blood of Iesus Christ his Sonne clenseth vs from all sinne.

*If we say that we haue no sinne, we deceiue our selues, and trueth is not in vs.

If we[i] acknowledge our sinnes, he is faithful and iust, to forgiue vs our sinnes, & to clense vs from all vnrighteousnes.

If we say we haue not sinned, we make him a lier, and his[a] worde is not in vs.

CHAP. II.

Christ is our Aduocate. 10 Of true loue, & how it is tried. 18 To beware of Antichrist.

MY babes, these things write I vnto you, ý ye sinne not. and if any man sinne, we haue an[a] Aduocat with the Father, Iesus Christ, the Iust.

And he is the reconciliation for our sinnes: and not for ours onely, but also for the sinnes of the whole worlde.

And hereby we are sure that we[c] knowe him, if we kepe his commandements.

He ý saith, I knowe him, and kepeth not his commandements, is a lier, and ý trueth is not in him.

But he that kepeth his worde, in him is[d] the loue of God perfite in dede: hereby we knowe that we are in him.

He ý saith, he remaineth in him, ought euen so to walke, as he hathe walked.

Brethren, I write no newe[e] commandement vnto you but an olde commandement, ẅ ye haue had from the[c] beginning: the[f] olde commandement is the worde, which ye haue heard from the beginning.

Againe, a newe commandement I write vnto you, ý which is true in him, and also in you: for the darkenes is past, and the true light now shineth.

He that saith that he is in the light, and hateth his brother, is in darkenes vntil this time.

*He that loueth his brother, abideth in the light, and there is none occasion of euil in him.

But he that hateth his brother, is in darkenes, and walketh in darkenes, & knoweth not whither he goeth, because that darkenes hathe blinded his eyes.

§Litle children, I write vnto you, because your sinnes are forgiuen you for [h] his Names sake.

I write vnto you, fathers, because ye haue knowen him that is frō the beginning. I write vnto you, yong mē, because ye haue ouercome the[n] wicked.

I write vnto you, babes, because ye haue knowen ý Father. I haue writē vnto you, fathers, because ye haue knowen him, ý is from ý beginning. I haue writē vnto you, yong mē, because ye are strōg, and the worde of God abideth in you, and ye haue ouercome the[n] wicked.

Loue not the[i] worlde, nether ý things that are in the worlde. If any man loue the *worlde, the loue of the Father is not in him.

For all that is in the worlde (as the luste of the[k] flesh, the[l] luste of the eyes, & the[m] pride of life) is not of the Father, but is of the worlde.

And the worlde passeth awaye, and ý luste thereof: but he that fulfilleth the wil of God, abideth euer.

Babes, it is the last time, and as ye haue heard that Antichrist shal come, euē now are there many Antichrists: whereby we knowe that it is the last time.

[n] They went out from vs, but they were not of vs: for if they had bene of vs, they wolde haue continued with vs. But this commeth to passe, that it might appeare, that they are not all of vs.

But ye haue an[o] ointement from him, that is[p] Holie, & ye haue knowen all things.

I[q] haue not writen vnto you, because ye knowe not the trueth: but because ye knowe it, and that no lye is of the trueth.

Iesus is r Christ? the same is the Antichrist that denyeth the Father and the Sonne.

23 Whosoeuer denyeth the Sonne, the same hathe not the Father.‖

24 Let therefore abide in you that same which ye haue heard from the beginning. If that which ye haue heard from the beginning, shal remaine in you, ye also shal continewe in the Sonne, & in ỹ Father.

25 And this is the promes that he hathe promised vs, euen eternal life.

26 These things haue I writen vnto you, concerning them that deceiue you.

27 But the anointing which ye receiued of him, dwelleth in you: and ye nede not that any man teache you: but as the same t Anointing teacheth you of all things, & it is true, & is not lying, & as it taught you, ye shal abide u in him.

28 And now, v litle childrē, abide in him, that when he shal appeare, we may be bolde, and not be ashamed before him at his comming.

CHAP. III.

The singular loue of God towarde vs. 7 And how we againe ought to loue one another.

1 BEholde, what loue the Father hathe shewed on vs, that we shulde be a called the sonnes of God: for this cause the worlde knoweth you not, because it knoweth not him.

a Being made ỹ sonnes of God in Christ, he sheweth what qualities we must haue to be discerned from bastardes.

2 Dearly beloued, now are we the sonnes of God, but yet it doeth not appeare what we shalbe: and we knowe that when b he shal appeare, we shalbe c like him: for we shal se him as he is.

b That is, Christ.

c As the members and head are whichmake one perfect bodie.

3 And euerie man ỹ hathe this hope in him, purgeth him self, euē as he is pure.

4 Whosoeuer d committeth sinne, transgresseth also the Law: for sinne is the transgression of the Law.

d That is, in whome sinne doeth reigne, so that he seketh not to be sanctified.

5 And ye knowe that he appeared that he might * take away our sinnes, and in him is no sinne.

Isa. 53, 9.

1 pet. 2, 22.

6 Whosoeuer abideth in him, sinneth not: whosoeuer sinneth, hathe not sene him, neither hathe knowen him.

7 Litle children, let no mā deceiue you: he that doeth righteousnes, is righteous, as he is righteous.

John 8. 44.

8 He that * committeth sinne, is of the deuil: for the diuel sinneth frō the e beginning: for this purpose appeared ỹ Sonne of God, that he might lose the workes of the deuil.

e As appeared by Adam.

9 Whosoeuer is borne of God, sinneth not: for his f sede remaineth in him, neither can he g sinne, because he is borne of God.

f Which is the holie Gost.

g He can not be vnder ỹ power of sinne because the Spirit of God correcteth his euil and corrupt affections.

10 In this are ỹ childrē of God knowen, and the children of the deuil: whosoeuer doeth not righteousnes, is not of God, neither he that h loueth not his brother.

h He descendeth from the first table of the commandements to the seconde.

John 13, 34. & 15, 12.

Gen. 4, 8.

11 For this is the message, that ye heard from the beginning, that * we shulde loue one another.

12 Not as * Cain which was of the wicked, and slewe his brother: & wherefore slewe he him? because his owne workes were euil, and his brothers good.

13 Marueile not, my brethren, though the worlde hate you.

14 We knowe that we are translated frō death vnto life, because we i loue ỹ brethren: * he that loueth not his brother, abideth in death.

i This loue is ỹ special frute of our faith and a certeine signe of our regeneration.

16 * Hereby haue we perceiued loue, that he laid downe his life for vs: therefore we ought also to lay downe our liues for ỹ brethren.

Luk. 3, 11.

17 * And whosoeuer hathe this worldes good and seeth his brother haue nede, and shutteth vp his compassion from him, how dwelleth the loue of God in him?

18 My litle children, let vs not loue in worde, neither in tongue onely, but in k dede & in trueth.

k Which is not the cause, wherefore we are ỹ sonnes of God, but a moste certeine signe.

19 For thereby we knowe that we are of the trueth & shal before him assure our hearts.

20 For if our l heart condemne vs, God is greater then our heart, and knoweth all things.

l If our cōscience being giltie of any thing, be able to condemne vs, muche more ỹ iudgement of God w knoweth our hearts better then we our selues, is able to condemne vs.

22 * And what soeuer we aske, we receiue of him, because we kepe his commandements, and do those things which are pleasing in his sight.

23 * This is then his commandemēt, That we beleue in the Name of his Sōne Iesus Christ, and loue one another, as he gaue commandement.

24 * For he that kepeth his commandements, dwelleth in him, and he in him: & hereby we knowe that he abydeth in vs, euen by the Spirit which he hathe giuen vs.

CHAP. IIII.

1 Difference of spirits. 6 How the Spirit of God may be knowen from the spirit of errour. 7 Of the loue of God and of our neighbours.

1 DEerely beloued, beleue not euerie spirit, but trye the a spirits whether they a Them which boast that thei haue the Spirit to preache or prophecie.

they are of God: for many false Prophetes are gone out into the worlde.

2 Hereby shal ye knowe the Spirit of God, Euerie spirit that confesseth that Iesus [b] Christ is come in the flesh, is of God.

3 And euerie spirit which confesseth not that Iesus Christ is come in the flesh, is not of God: but this is the spirit of Antichrist, of whome ye haue heard, how ỹ he shulde come & [c] now already he is in the worlde.

4 Litle children, ye are of God, and haue ouercome them: for greater is he that is in you, then [d] he that is in the worlde.

5 They are of ỹ worlde, therefore speake they of the worlde, and the worlde heareth them.

6 We are of God, *he ỹ knoweth God, [e] heareth vs: he that is not of God, heareth vs not. Hereby knowe we the Spirit of trueth, and the spirit of errour.

7 Beloued, let vs loue one another: for loue cometh of God, & euerie one that loueth, is borne of God, and knoweth God.

8 He that loueth not, knoweth not God: for God is loue.

9 *In [f] this appeared the loue of God towarde vs, becaufe God sent his onely begotten Sonne into the worlde, ỹ we might liue through him.

10 Herein is loue, not that we loued God, but that he loued vs, and sent his sonne to be a [g] reconciliation for our sinnes.

11 Beloued, if God so loued vs, we ought also to loue one another.

12 *No man hathe sene God at any time. If we loue one another, God dwelleth in vs, and his loue is perfite in vs.

13 Hereby knowe we, that we dwell in him, and he in vs: becaufe he hathe giuen vs of his Spirit.

14 And we haue, sene, and do testifie, that the Father sent the Sonne to be the Sauiour of the worlde.

15 Whosoeuer [h] confesseth that Iesus is ỹ Sonne of God, in him dwelleth God, and he in God.

16 And we haue knowen, and beleued ỹ loue that God hathe [i] in vs. God is loue, & he that dwelleth in loue, dwelleth in God, and God in him.

17 Herein is the loue perfite in vs, ỹ we shulde haue boldenes in the day of iudgement: for as he is, euen so are we in this worlde.

18 There is no [k] feare in loue, but perfect loue casteth our feare: for feare hathe painfulnes: and he that feareth, is not perfect in loue.

19 We loue him, becaufe he loued vs first.

20 If anie mā say, I loue God, and hate his brother, he is a lyer: for [l] how can he that loueth not his brother whome he hathe sene, loue God whome he hathe not sene?

21 *And this commandement haue we of him, that he which loueth God, shulde loue his brother also.

CHAP. V.

1.10.13 Of the frutes of faith. 14.20 The office, autoritie, & diminitie of Christ. 21 Against images.

1 WHosoeuer beleueth that Iesus is the Christ, is [a] borne of God, & euerie one that loueth him, which begate, loueth him also which is begotten of him.

2 In this we knowe that we loue ỹ children of God, when we loue [b] God, & kepe his commandements.

3 For this is the loue of God that we kepe his commandements: and his* commandements are not [c] grieuous.

4 For all that is borne of God, ouercometh the worlde: and this is the victorie that ouercometh the worlde, euen our faith.

5 *Who is it that ouercometh the worlde, but he which beleueth that Iesus is the Sonne of God?

6 This is that Iesus Christ that came by [d] water [e] & blood, not by water onely, but by water and blood: and it is the [f] spirit, that beareth witnes: for the Spirit is [g] trueth.

7 For there are thre, which beare recorde in heauē, the Father, the Worde, and the holie Goſt: and these thre are one.

8 And there are thre, which beare recorde in the earth, the spirit and the water and the blood: and these thre agre in one.

9 If we receiue the witnes of men, the witnes of God is greater: for this is the witnes of God, which he testified of his Sonne.

10 *He that beleueth in the Sōne of God hathe the witnes || in him self: he ỹ beleueth not God, hathe made him a lyer, becaufe he beleued not the recorde, that God witnessed of his Sonne.

11 And this is the recorde, that God hathe giuen vnto vs eternal life, and this life is in his Sonne.

12 He that hathe the Sonne, hathe life: and he that hathe not the Sonne of God, hathe not life.

13 These things haue I writtē vnto you, that beleue in the Name of the Sonne of God, that ye may knowe that ye haue eternal life, and that ye may beleue in ỹ Name of the Sonne of God.

14 And this is the assurance, that we haue in him, * that if we aske anie thing according to his wil, he heareth vs.

THE SECONDE epistle of Iohn.

He writeth vnto a certeine ladie, 4 Reioycing that her children walke in the trueth, 5 And exhorteth them vnto loue, 7 Warneth them to beware of suche deceiuers as denie that Iesus Christ is come in the flesh, 8 Praieth them to continue in the doctrine of Christ, 10 And to haue nothing to do with them that bring not the true doctrine of Christ Iesus our Sauiour.

THe Elder to ý [a] elect Ladie, and her children, whome I loue in [a] ý trueth: and not I onely, but also all that haue knowen ý trueth,

2 For ý truethes sake which dwelleth in vs, and shalbe with vs for euer:

3 Grace be with you, mercie & peace from God the Father, and from ý Lord Iesus Christ the Sonne of the Father, [w] [b] trueth and loue.

4 I reioyced greatly, that I founde of thy children walking [c] in trueth, as we haue receiued a commandement of ý Father.

5 And now beseche I thee, Ladie, (not as writing a new commandemẽt vnto thee, but that same which we had from the beginning) that we * loue one another.

6 And this is the loue, that we shulde walke after his [u] commandements. This commandement is, that as ye haue heard from the beginning, ye shulde walke in it.

7 For manie deceiuers are entred into the worlde, which confesse not that Iesus Christ is come in the flesh. He that is suche one, is a deceiuer and an Antichrist.

THE THIRD EPIstle of Iohn.

He is glad of Gaius that he walketh in the trueth, 8 Exhorteth them to be louing vnto the poore Christens in their persecution, 9 Sheweth the vnkinde dealing of Diotrephes, 12 And the good reporte of Demetrius.

1 THe Elder vnto the beloued Gaius, whome I loue in the trueth.

2 Beloued, I wish chiefly that thou prospe-prosperedst & faredst wel, as thy soule prospereth.

3 For I reioyced greatly when the brethren came, and testified of the trueth that is in thee, how thou walkest in the trueth.
4 I haue no greater ioye then this, that is, to heare that my sonnes walke in [a] veritie.
5 Beloued, thou doest faithfully whatsoeuer thou doest to the brethren, & to [b] strangers,
6 Which bare witnes of thy loue before the Churches. Whome if thou bringest of their iourney as it [c] besemeth according to God, thou shalt do wel,
7 Because that for his Names sake thei went forthe, and toke nothing of the Gentiles.
8 We therefore ought to receiue suche, ẏ we might be helpers to the trueth.
9 I wrote vnto the Church: but Diotrephes which loueth to haue the preeminence among them, receiueth vs not.
10 Wherefore if I come, I wil declare his dedes which he doeth, prateling against vs with malicious wordes, and not therewith cõtent, nether he him selfe receiueth the brethren, but forbiddeth them that wolde, and thrusteth them out of the Church.
11 Beloued, folowe not that which is euil, but that which is good: he ẏ doeth wel, is of God: but he that doeth euil, hathe not [d] sene God.
12 Demetrius hathe good reporte of all men, and of the trueth it self: yea, and we our selues beare recorde, and ye know we that our recorde is true.
13 I haue manie things to write: but I wil not with ynck and pen write vnto thee.
14 For I trust I shal shortly se thee, and we shal speake mouth to mouth. Peace be with thee. The friends salute thee. Grete the friends by name.

a That is, in godlie conuersacion, as they whose bothe the knowledge & feare of God.

THE GENERAL Epistle of Iude.

THE ARGVMENT.

SAint Iude admonisheth all Churches generally to take hede of deceiuers which go about to drawe awaye the hearts of the simple people frõ the trueth of God, and willeth thẽ to haue no societie with suche, whome he setteth forthe in their liuelie colours shewing by diuers examples of the Scriptures what horrible vengeance is prepared for them: finally he comforteth the faithful and exhorteth them to perseuere in the doctrine of the Apostles of Iesus Christ.

Epla in festo Simonis & Jude.

1 IVde a seruant of IESVS CHRIST, and brother of Iames, to them which are called & sanctified [a] of God the Father, and [b] reserued to Iesus Christ:
2 Mercie vnto you, and peace and loue be multiplied.
3 Beloued, when I gaue all diligence to write vnto you of the commune saluacion, it was nedeful for me to write vnto you to exhorte you, that ye shulde earnestly [c] contende for the maintenance of the faith, which was [d] once giuen vn to the Saintes:
4 For there are certeine men crept in ẅ were before of olde [e] ordeined to this condemnation: vngodlie men they are ẅ turne the grace of our God into wantõnes, and* denye God the onelie Lord, and our Lord Iesus Christ.
5 I wil therefore put you in remẽbrance, forasmuche as ye once knewe this, how that the Lord after that he had deliuered the people out of Egypte, * destroyed thẽ afterwarde which [f] beleued not.
6 The* Angels also which kept not their first [g] estate but left their owne habitation, he hathe reserued in euerlasting chaines vnder darkenes vnto the [h] iudgement of the great daye.
7 As* Sodom and Gomorrhe, and the cities about them, which in like maner as they did, committed, and followed [i] strange flesh, are set forthe for an ensample, and suffre the vengeance of eternal fyre.
8 Likewise notwithstanding these [i] dreamers also defile the flesh, and despise gouuernement, and speake euil of them that are in autoritie.
9 Yet [k] Michael the Archangel, when he stroue against the deuil, and disputed about the bodie of Moses, durst not blame him with cursed speaking, but saith, [l] The Lord rebuke thee.
10 But these speake euil of those things, which they knowe not: and whatsoeuer things they knowe [m] naturally, as beastes, which are without reason, in those things they corrupt them selues.
11 Wo be vnto thẽ, for they haue followed ẏ way* of Cain, and are cast away by ẏ

24 Now vnto him that is able to kepe you, that ye fall not, and to present you fautles before the presence of his glorie with ioye.

25 That is, to God onely wise, our Sauiour, be glorie, and maiestie, and dominion, and power, bothe now and for euer, Amen.

THE REVELATION

*of Iohn the Diuine.

o Or, declared to Iohn.

THE ARGVMENT.

IT is manifest, that the holie Gost wolde as it were gather into this moste excellent booke a summe of those prophecies, which were writen before, but shulde be fulfilled after the comming of Christ, adding also suche things as shulde be expedient, as well to forewarne vs of the dangers to come, as to admonish vs to beware some, and encourage vs against others. Herein therefore is liuely set forthe the Diuinitie of Christ, & the testimonies of our redemption: what things the Spirit of God alloweth in the ministers, and what things he reproueth: the prouidence of God for his elect, and of their glorie and consolation in the day of vengeance: how that the hypocrites which sting like scorpions the members of Christ, shalbe destroyed, but the Lambe Christ shal defende them, which beare witnes to the trueth, who in despite of the beast and Satan wil reigne ouer all. The liuelie description of Antichrist is set forthe, whose time and power notwithstanding is limited, and albeit that he is permitted to rage against the elect, yet his power stretcheth no further then to the hurt of their bodies: and at length he shal be destroyed by the wrath of God, when as the elect shal giue praise to God for the victorie: neuertheles for a season God wil permit this Antichrist, and strompet vnder colour of faire speache and pleasant doctrine to deceiue the worlde: wherefore he aduertiseth the godlie (which are but a smale portion) to auoide this harlots slateries, and bragges, whose ruine without mercie they shal see, and with the heauenlie companies sing continual praises: for the Lambe is maried: the worde of God hathe gotten the victorie: Satan that a long time was vntied, is now cast with his ministers into the pit of fyre to be tormented for euer, where as contrariwise the faithful (which are the holie Citie of Ierusalem, & wife of the Lambe) shal enioye perpetual glorie. Read diligently, iudge soberly, and call earnestly to God for the true vnderstanding hereof.

1 THe [a] reuelation of IESVS CHRIST, which [b] God gaue vnto him, to shewe vnto his seruãts thigs which must shortely be [c] done: which he sent, and shewed by his Angel vnto his seruant Iohn,

2 Who bare recorde of the worde of God, and of ỹ testimonie of Iesus Christ, and of all things that he sawe.

3 Blessed is he that readeth, and they that heare the wordes of this [d] prophecie, and kepe those things which are written therein: for the time is [e] at hand.

4 Iohn, to the [f] seuen Churches which are in Asia, Grace be with you & peace from him Which *is, & Which was, & Which is to come, and from the [g] seuen Spirits which are before his Throne,

5 And frõ Iesus Christ, which is a *faithful witnes, & * the first begotten of the dead, and Prince of the Kings of the earth, vnto him that loued vs, & washed vs from our sinnes in his *blood,

6 And made vs *Kings and Priestes vnto God euẽ his Father, to him be glorie, & dominion for euermore. Amen.

7 Beholde, he cometh with *cloudes and euerie eye shal se him: yea, euẽ they which [h] pearced him through: and all kinreds of the earth shal waile [i] before him, Euen so, Amen.

8 I *am [i] α and ω, the beginning and the ending, saith the Lord, Which is, and Which was, and Which is to come, euen the Almightie.

9 I Iohn, euen your brother, & companion in tribulation, & in the kingdome and pacience of Iesus Christ, was in the yle called Patmos, for the [k] worde of God, and for the [l] witnessing of Iesus Christ.

10 And I was rauished in spirit on [k] the Lords day, and heard behinde me a great voyce, as it had bene of a trũpet,

11 Saying, I am [i] α and ω, the first and the last: and that which thou seest, write in a boke, & send it vnto the [m] seuen Churches which are in Asia, vnto Ephesus, and vnto Smyrna, & vnto Pergamus, & vnto Thyatira, and vnto Sardi, and vnto Philadelphia, and vnto Laodicea.

12 Then I turned backe to se the [n] voyce, that spake with me: & when I was turned, I sawe [o] seuen golden candlestickes,

13 And in the middes of the seuen candlestickes, one like vnto the [p] Sonne of man, clothed with a garment [q] downe to the feete, and girde about [r] the pappes with a golden girdle.

14 His head, and heeres were [s] white as white woll, & as snowe, and his eyes were as [t] a flame of fyre.

15 And his fete like vnto [u] fine [v] brasse, burning as in a fornace: and his [x] voyce as the sounde of many waters.

16 And he had in his right hand seuen [y] starres: and out of his mouth went a [z] sharpe two edged sworde: & his face shone as the Sunne shineth in his strength.

17 And when I sawe him, I fell at his fete as *dead: then he laid his right [a] hand vpon me, saying vnto me, Feare not: I am the * first and the last,

18 And am aliue, but I was dead: & beholde, I am aliue for euermore, Amen: & I haue ỹ [c] keyes of hel and of death.

19 Write the things which thou hast sene, and the things which are, and the things which shal come here [d] after.

20 The mysterie of the seuen starres which thou sawest [e] in my right hand, and the seuen golden candlestickes, is this, The seuen starres are the [f] Angels of the seuen Churches: & the seuen candlestickes which thou sawest, are the seuen Churches.

red, and hast not fainted.
Neuertheless, I haue some what against thee, because y hast left thy first[c] loue.
Remẽber therefore from whence y art fallen, & repent, and do y first workes: or els I wil come against thee shortly & wil remoue thy [f] candlestick out of his place, except thou amende.
But this thou hast, that thou hatest the workes of the[g] Nicolaitans, which I also hate.
Let him y hathe an eare, heare, what y Spirit saith vnto y Churches, To him that ouercometh, wil I giue to eate of y tree of[h] life which is in y middes of the Paradise of God.
¶ And vnto the[i] Angel of the Church of the Smyrnians write, I hese things saith he that is first, & last, Which was dead and is[k] aliue.
I know thy workes & [l] tribulation, and pouertie (but y art [m] riche) & I know the blasphemie of them, which say they are Iewes and [n] are not, but are y Synagogue of Satan.

CHAP. III.

He exhorteth the Churches or ministers to the true profession of faith and to watching, 12 With promises to them that persever.

1 AND write vnto the Angel of the Church [s] is at Sardi, These things saith he that hathe the seuen Spirits of God, and the seuen starres, I know thy thy workes: for thou hast a name that thou [a] liuest, but thou art dead.

2 Be awake and strengthen the things ẅ remaine, that are readie to dye: for I haue not founde thy workes perfite before God.

3 Remember therefore, how thou hast receiued and heard, and holde fast, & repent. *If therefore thou wilt not watch, I wil come on thee as a theefe, and thou shalt not knowe what houre I wil come vpon thee.

4 Notwithstanding thou hast a fewe [n] names yet in Sardi which haue not [b] defiled their garments: and they shal walke with me in white: for they are worthie.

5 He that ouercometh, shalbe clothed in white araye, and I wil not put out his name out of the *boke of life, but I wil confesse his name before my Father, & before his Angels.

6 Let him that hathe an eare, heare, what the Spirit saith vnto the Churches.

7 ¶ And write vnto the Angel of the Church which is of Philadelphia, These things saith he that is Holie and True, which hathe ỹ * [c] keye of Dauid, which openeth & no man shutteth: & shutteth and no man openeth,

8 I knowe thy workes: beholde, I haue set before thee an open [d] dore & no man can shut it: for thou hast a litel strength and hast kept my worde, and hast not denied my Name.

9 Beholde, I wil make them of the synagogue of Sata, which call them selues Iewes and are not, but do lye: beholde, I say I wil make them, that they shal come and [e] worship before thy fete, & shal knowe that I haue loued thee.

10 Because thou hast kept the worde of my pacience, therefore I wil deliuer thee from the houre of tẽtation, which wil come vpon all the world to trie thẽ that dwel vpon the earth.

11 Beholde, I come shortly: holde that which thou hast, that no man take thy [f] crowne.

12 Him that ouercometh, wil I make a pillar in the Temple of my God, and he shal go no more out: and I wil write vpon him the Name of my God, & the name of the citie of my God, which is ỹ new Ierusalem, which cometh downe out of heauen from my God, & I wil write vpon him my new Name.

13 Let him that hathe an eare, heare what the Spirit saith vnto ỹ Churches.

14 And vnto the Angel of the Church of the Laodiceans write, These things saith [g] Amen, the faithful and true witnes the [h] beginning of the creatures of God.

15 I knowe thy workes, that thou art neither colde nor hote: I wolde thou were ỹ colde or hote.

16 Therefore, because ỹ art luke warme, and nether colde nor hote, it wil come to passe, that I shal spewe thee out of my mouth.

17 For thou saist, I am [i] riche and increased with goods, and haue [k] nede of nothing, and knowest not how thou art wretched and miserable, and poore, and blinde, and naked.

18 I counsel thee to bie of me golde tryed by the fyre, that ỹ maiest be made riche, and white raiment, that thou maiest be clothed and that thy filthie nakednes do not appeare: and [l] anoint thine eyes with eye salue, that thou maist se.

19 As manie as I loue, I * rebuke and chasten: be [m] zealous therefore and amende.

20 Beholde, I stand at the dore, and knocke. If anie man heare my voyce and open the dore, I wil come in vnto him and wil suppe with him, and he with me.

21 To him that ouercometh, will I grante to sit with me in my [n] throne, euen as I ouercame, and sit with my Father in his throne.

CHAP. V.

1 He seeth the Lambe opening the boke, 8.14 And therefore the foure beasts, the 24. elders, and the Angels praise the Lambe, & do him worship. 9 For their redemption and other benefites.

1 AND I sawe in the right hãd of him that sate vpon the throne, a a Boke written within, and on the backeside, sealed with bseuen seales.
2 And I sawe a strong Angel ŵ preached with a loude voyce, Who is worthie to open the boke, and to lose the seales thereof?
3 And no man in heauen, nor in earth, nether vnder the earth, was able to open the Boke nether to loke thereon.
4 Then I wept muche, because no man was founde worthie to open, and to reade the Boke, nether to loke thereon.
5 And one of the elders said vnto me, Wepe not: beholde, the *lyon which is of the tribe of Iuda, the rote of Dauid, hathe obteined to opẽ the Boke, and to lose the seuen seales thereof.
6 Then I behelde, and lo, in the middes of the throne, and of the foure beasts, & in the middes of the elders, stode ca Lambe as though he had bene killed, which had dseuen hornes, & eseuen eyes, ŵ are the seuen spirits of God, sent into all the worlde.
7 And he came, and toke the Boke out of the right hand of him that sate vpon the throne.
8 And when he had taken the Boke, the foure beasts and the foure and twentie elders f fell downe before the Lambe, hauing euerie one harpes and golden viales full of odours, which are the g prayers of the Saintes,
9 And they sung a new song, sayīg, Thou art worthie to take the Boke, and to open the seales thereof, because thou wast killed, and hast h redemed vs to God by thy blood out of euerie kinred, and tongue, and people, and nation,
10 And hast made vs vnto our God *Kings and Priests, and we shal i reigne on the earth.
11 Then I behelde, and I heard the voyce of manie Angels rounde about the throne, and about the beasts and the elders, & there were *thousãd thousands,
12 Saying with a loude voyce, Worthie is the *Lambe that was killed to receiue power and riches, and wisdome, and strength, & honour, and glorie, and praise.
13 And all the creatures ŵ are in heauen, and on ý earth and vnder the earth, and in ý sea, & all that are in them, heard I, saying, Praise & honour, and glorie, and power be vnto him, that sitteth vpõ the throne, & vnto the Lambe for euermore.

CHAP. VIII.

1 The seuenth seale is opened: there is silence in heauen. 6 The foure Angels blowe their trumpettes, and great plagues followe vpon the earth.

AND when he had opened the [a] seuenth seal, there was [b] silence in heauen about halfe an houre.

2 And I sawe the seuen Angels, which stode [c] before God, and to them were giuen seuen trumpettes.

3 Then another Angel came and stode before the altar hauing a golde censer, and muche odours was giuen vnto him, that he shulde offre with the prayers of all Saintes vpon the golden altar, which is before the throne.

4 And the smoke of the odours with the prayers of the Saintes, went vp before God, out of the Angels hand.

5 And the Angel toke the censer, and filled it with [d] fyre of the altar, and cast it into the [e] earth, and [f] there were voyces, and thundrings, and lightenings, and earthquake.

6 Then the seuen Angels, which had the seuen trumpettes, prepared them selues to blowe the trumpettes.

a Vnder the fyft seale he touched in general the corruption of the doctrine: but vnder the seuenth he shewthe ẏ great danger thereof, & what troubles, sectes & heresies hathe bene & shalbe brought into the Church thereby.

b That ẏ hearers might be more attentiue.

c He sheweth the onelie remedie in our afflictions, to wit, to appeare before the face of God by the meanes of Iesus Christ, who is the Angel, the sacrifice, and ẏ priest, which presenteth our prayers, which remaine yet in earth, before the altar and d trine maiestie of God.

d He meaneth by fyre the grace of God whereby we are purged & made cleane, Isa. 6, 6.

e He poureth the graces of the holie Goſt into the hearts of the faithful.

f When this grace is declared, maruelous rebellions arise against it by reason of the wicked, which can nether abide to heare their sinnes touched, nor mercie offred.

7 So the first Angel [g] blewe the trumpet, and there was haile & fyre, mingled with blood, and they were cast into the earth, and the third parte of [h] trees was burnt, & all grene [i] grasse was burnt.

8 And the seconde Angel blewe ẏ trumpet, and as it were a great [k] mountaine, burning with fyre, was cast into the sea, & the third parte of the sea became blood.

9 And the third parte of the creatures which were in ẏ sea, and had life, dyed, & the third parte of [l] shippes were destroyed.

10 Then the third Angel blewe the trumpet, & there fell [m] a great starre from heauen burning like a torche, and it fell into the third parte of the riuers, and into the fountaines of waters.

11 And the name of the starre is called wormewood: therefore the third parte of the waters became wormewood, and manie men dyed of the [n] waters, because they were made bitter.

12 And the fourthe Angel blewe the trumpet, and ẏ third parte of the [o] sunne was smitten, & the third parte of the [p] moone, and the third parte of the [q] starres, so that the third parte of them was [r] darkened: and the day was smitten, that the third parte of it colde not shine, and likewise the night.

13 And I behelde, & heard one Angel flying through the middes of heauen saying with a lowde voyce, [s] Wo, wo, wo to the inhabitants of the earth, because of the soundes to come of the trumpet of the thre Angels, which were yet to blowe the trumpettes.

p Signifying that albeit that the minister haue consolation by the worde of God, yet shal he haue sore, & grieuous enemies, which shalbe trouble some vnto him.
q Not onely meaning in his life time, but that this boke after his death shulde be as a preaching vnto all nations.

CHAP. XI.

1 The temple is measured. 3 Two witnesses raised vp by the Lord, are murthered by the beast. 11 But after receiued to glorie. 15 Christ is exalted, 16 And God praised by the 24 elders.

1 THen was giuen me a rede, like vnto a rodde, & the Angel stode by, saying, Rise and [a] mette the Temple of God, and the altar, and them that worship therein.
2 But [b] the court which is without the temple cast out, and mette it not: for it is giuen vnto the Gentiles, and the holie [c] citie shal they treade vnder fote [d] two & fortie moneths.
3 But I wil giue power vnto my [e] two witnesses, & they shal prophecie [f] a thousand, two hundreth, & threscore dayes, clothed in [g] sacke cloth.
4 These are two [h] oliue trees, & two candel stickes, standing before the God of the [i] earth.
5 And if anie man wil hurte them, fyre procedeth out of their mouthes, and deoureth their enemies: for if anie man wolde hurt them, [k] thus muste he be killed.
6 These haue power to shut [l] heauen, that it raine not in the dayes of their prophecying, & haue power ouer waters to turne them into [m] blood, and to smite the earth with all maner plagues, as often as they wil.
7 And when they haue finished their testimonie, the [n] beast that cometh out of the bottomles pit, shal make warre against them, and shal [o] ouercome them, and kill them.
8 And their corpses shal lie in the stretes of the great [p] citie, which spiritually [q] is called Sodom and Egypt, where our Lord also was crucified.
9 And they of the people and kinreds, and tongues, and Gentiles shal se their corpses thre dayes and an halfe, and shal not suffer their carkeises to be put in graues.
10 And they that dwell vpon the earth, shal reioyce ouer them and be glad, and shal send giftes one to another: for these two Prophetes [q] vexed them that dwelt on the earth.
11 But after thre dayes and an halfe, the Spirit of life comming from God, shal enter into them, & they shal [r] stand vp vpon their fete: and great feare shal come vpon them which sawe them.
12 And they shal heare a great voyce from heauen, saying vnto them, [f] Come vp hither. And they shal ascende vp to heauen in a cloude, and their enemies shal se them.
13 And the same houre shal there be a great earthquake, and the tenth parte of the citie [t] shal fall, and in the earthquake shalbe slaine in nomber seuen thousand: and the remnant shalbe afrayed, [v] and giue glorie to the God of heauen.
14 The seconde wo is past, & beholde the thirde wo wil come anone.
15 And the seuenth Angel blew ỹ trumpet, and there were great voyces in heauen, saying, The [x] kingdomes of this worlde are our Lords, and his Christs, and he shal reigne for euermore.

a Which declareth ỹ Christ Iesus wil buylde his Church and not haue it destroyed: for he measureth out his spiritual Temple.
b The Iewish temple was deuided into thre parts: the bodie of the temple ẅ is called the court, wherinto euerie man entred: the holie places where the Ieuites were: & the holiest of all, wherein to the high priest once a yere entred: in respect wherefore of these two later, the first is said to be cast out, because as a thing prophane it is neglected when the temple is measured, and yet the aduersaries of Christ boast that they are in the Temple, and that none are of the Temple, but they.
c That is, the Church of God.
d Meaning, a certeine time: for God hathe limited the times of Antichrists tyrannie.
e By two witnesses he meaneth all the preachers ỹ shulde buylde vp Gods Church, alluding to Zorubbabel and Iehoshua which were chiefly appointed for this thing, and also to this saying, In the mouthe of two witnesses standeth euerie worde.

i The Church was remoued from among the Iewes to the Gẽtiles, which were as a baren wildernes, & so it is persecuted to and fro.
k Iesus Christ & his members, as Apostles, Martyrs, & the rest of the faithfull.

AND there appeared a great wounder in heaue: A [a] woman clothed ẅ the sunne, and the [b] moone was vnder her fete, and vpon her head [c] a crowne of twelue starres.

2 And she was with childe and [d] cried trauailing in birth, & was pained readie to be deliuered.

3 And there appeared another wonder in heauen: for beholde, a great [e] red dragon hauing [f] seuen heades, and ten hornes, and seuen crownes vpon his heads:

4 And his taile drue ỹ [g] third parte of ỹ starres of heauen, and cast them to the earth. And the dragon stode before the woman, which was readie to be deliuered, to deuoure her childe when she had broght it forthe.

5 [h] So she broght forthe a man childe, ẅ shulde rule all nacions with a * rod of yron: and her sonne was taken vp vnto God and to this throne.

6 And the woman fled into [i] wildernes where she hathe a place prepared of God, that they shulde fede her there a thousand, two hundreth and threscore dayes. Epist. in festo Michaelis et totum Apoc.

7 And there was a battel in heauẽ [k] Michael and his Angels foght against the dragon, and the dragon foght and his Angels.

8 But they preuailed not, nether was their place founde anie more [l] in heauen.

9 And the great dragon, that olde serpent called the deuil and Satã, was cast out, ẅ deceiueth all the worlde: he was euen cast into the earth, and his Angels were cast out with him.

10 Then I heard a loude voyce, saying, Now is saluation in heauen, & strength and the kingdome of our God, and the power of his Christ: for the accuser of our brethren is cast downe, which accused them before our God day and night.

11 But they ouercame him by the blood of the Lambe, and by the worde of their testimonie, and they [m] loued not their liues vnto the death.

12 Therefore reioyce, ye heauens, & ye that dwell in them. Wo to the [n] inhabitants of the earth, and of the sea: for the deuil is come downe vnto you which hathe great wrath, knowing that he ha the but a short time.

13 And when the dragon sawe that he was [o] cast vnto the earth, he persecuted the woman which had broght forth the man childe.

14 But to the woman were giuen two winges of a great egle, that she might flie into the wildernes, into [p] her place, where she is nourished for a time, & times, and halfe a time, from the presence of the serpent.

15 And the [q] serpent cast out of his mouth water after the woman like a flood, that he might cause her to be caryed away of the flood.

16 But the earth holpe the woman, and the earth opened her mouth, and [r] swalowed vp the flood, which the dragon had cast out of his mouth.

17 Then the dragon was wroth with the woman, and went and made warre with the [s] remnant of her sede, which kepe the commandements of God, and haue the testimonie of Iesus Christ.

18 And I stode on the sea sande.

l For ỹ dragon was depriued of all his dignitie & had no more place in ỹ Church,

2 And the beast which I sawe, was like a [d] leopard, and his fete like a beares, & his mouth as the mouth of a lion: and the [e] dragon gaue him his power and his throne, and great authoritie.

3 And I sawe one of his [f] heads as it were wounded to death, but his [g] deadlie wounde was healed, and all the worlde wondred & followed the beast.

4 And they worshipped the dragon ẅ gaue power vnto the beast, and they [h] worshipped the beast, saying, Who is like vnto ẏ beast? who is able to warre with him?

5 And there was giuen vnto him a mouth that spake great things and blasphemies, & power was giuen vnto him, to do [i] two and fortie moneths.

6 And he opened his mouth vnto blasphemie against God, to blaspheme his Name and his tabernacle, and them ẏ dwel in heauen.

7 And it was giuen vnto him to make warre with the Saintes, and to [k] ouercome them, and power was giuen him ouer euerie [l] kinred and tongue, & natiō.

8 Therefore all that dwell vpon the earth, shal worship him, whose [m] names are not ẋ written in the Boke of life of the Lambe, which was slaine [n] from ẏ beginning of the worlde.

10 If anie lead into captiuitie, he shal go [o] into captiuitie: if anie kil with a sworde, he must be killed by a sworde: here is the pacience, & the faith of ẏ Saintes.

11 And I behelde another beast comming vp out of the [p] earth, which had two [q] hornes like ẏ Lābe, but he [r] spake like the dragon.

12 And he did all that the first [s] beast colde do before him, and he caused ẏ earth, and them which dwel therein, to worship the first beast, whose deadlie wounde was healed.

13 And [v] he did great wonders, so that he made fyre to come downe from heauen on the earth, in the sight of men.

14 And deceiued them that dwel on ẏ earth by the signes, which were permitted to him to do in the [x] sight of ẏ beast, saying to them that dwel on ẏ earth, that they shulde make the [y] image of the beast, which had the wounde of a sworde, and did liue.

15 And it was permitted to him to giue a [z] spirit vnto the image of the beast, so that the image of the beast shulde [a] speake, and shulde cause that as manie as wolde not [b] worship the image of the beast, shulde be killed.

16 And he made all, bothe small & great, riche and poore, fre and bonde, to receiue a [c] marke in their right hand or in their forheads.

17 And [d] that no man might bye or sell, saue he that had the marke, or the name of the beast, or the nomber of his name.

18 Heare is wisdome. Let him that hathe wit, count the nomber of the beast: for it is the nomber [e] of a man, and his nomber is six hundreth, threscore and six.

11 And the smoke of their torment shal ascende euermore: and they shal haue no rest day nor night, which worshippe the beast and his image, and whosoeuer receiueth the print of his name.

12 Here is the patience of p Saintes: here are they that kepe the commandemẽts of God, and the faith of Iesus.

13 Then I heard a voyce from heauen, saying vnto me, Write, q Blessed are ý dead, which hereafter dye in ý r Lord. Euen so saith the Spirit: for they rest from their labours, and their workes followe them.

14 ¶ And I loked, and beholde, a white ſcloude, and vpon the cloude one sitting like vnto the Sonne of man, hauing on his head a golden crowne, & in his hand a sharpe sickle.

15 And another Angel came out of the Temple, crying with a loude voyce to him that sate on the cloude, * Thrust in thy sickle & reape: for the time is come to reape: for the harueſt of the earth is ripe.

16 And he that sate on ý cloude, v thrust in his sickle on the earth, and the earth was reaped.

17 Then another Angel came out of the temple, which is in heauen, hauing also a sharpe sickle.

18 And another Angel came out from the x altar, which had power ouer fyre, and cryed with a lowde crye to him that had the sharpe sickle, & said, Thrust in thy sharpe sickle, & gather the clusters of the vineyarde of the earth: for her grapes are ripe.

19 And the Angel thrust in his sharpe sickle on the earth, and cutte downe ý vines of the vineyarde of the earth, & cast them into the great wine presse of the wrath of God.

20 And the y wine presse was troden without the citie, and blood came out of the wine presse, vnto ý z horse bridles by the space of a thousand and six hundreth furlongs.

CHAP. XVII.

1 The description of the great whore. 8 Her sinnes and punishment. 14 The victorie of the Lambe.

1 THen there came[a] one of the seuen Angels, which had the seuen viales, and talked with me, saying vnto me, Come: I wil shewe thee the damnation of the great[b] whore that sitteth vpon many[c] waters,

2 With whome haue committed fornication the Kings of the earth, and the inhabitants of the earth are drunken ẅ the wine of her fornication.

3 So he caried me away into the wildernes in the Spirit, and I sawe a woman sit vpon a skarlat coloured[d] beast, full of names of[e] blasphemie, which had seuen heads, and ten hornes.

4 And the[f] woman was araied in purple and skarlat, and guilded with golde, and precious stones, and pearles, & had a cup of golde in her hand, ful of abominatiõs, and filthines of her fornication.

5 And in her forhead was a name written, [h] A Mysterie, great Babylon, ỹ mother of whoredomes, & abominations of the earth.

6 And I sawe the woman drunken with the blood of Saintes, & with the blood of the Martyrs of Iesus: & when I sawe her, I wondred with great maruell.

7 Then the Angel said vnto me, Wherefore maruellest thou? I wil shewe thee the mysterie of the woman, and of the beast, that beareth her, which hathe seuen heads, & ten hornes.

8 The[i] beast that thou hast sene, was, & is not, and shal ascende out of the bottomles pit, and shal go into perdition, and they that dwell on the earth, shal wondre (whose names are not written in the Boke of life from the fundacion of the worlde) when they beholde the beast that was, and his not, and yet is.

9 Here is the minde that hathe wisdome. The seuẽ heads are[k] seuẽ mountaines, where on the woman sitteth: they are also[l] seuen Kings.

10 Fiue are fallen, and one is, and another is not yet come: and when he cometh, he must continue a short space.

11 And the beast that was, and is not, is euen the[m] eight, and is one of the seuẽ, and shal go into destruction.

12 And the ten hornes which thou sawest, are ten Kings, which yet haue not receiued a kingdome, but shal receiue power, as Kings at one houre with the beast.

13 [n] These haue one minde, and shal giue their power, and autoritie vnto the beast.

14 These shal fight with the Lambe, & the Lambe shal [o] ouercome them: for he is Lord of Lords, and King of Kings: & they that are on his side, called, and chosen, and faithful.

15 And he said vnto me, The waters ẅ thou sawest, where the whore sitteth, are people, and multitudes, and nacions and tongues.

16 And the[p] ten hornes which thou sawest vpon the beast, are they that shal hate the whore, and shal make her desolate and naked, & shal eat her flesh, & burne her with fyre.

17 For God hathe[q] put in their hearts to fulfil his wil, & to do with one consent for to giue their kingdome vnto the beast, vntil the wordes of God be ful filled.

18 And the woman which thou sawest, is the great citie, which reigneth ouer ỹ Kings of the earth.

3 For[c] all nations haue dronken of the wine of the wrath of her fornication, and the Kings of the earth haue committed fornication with her, and the marchants of the earth are waxed riche of the abundance of her pleasures.

3. 24 The blessed estate of the godlie. 8. 27 And the miserable condition of the wicked. 11 The description of the heauenlie Ierusalem, & of the wife of the Lãbe.

AND I sawe *a new heauen, & a new earth: [a] for *the first heauen, and the first earth were [b] passed away, and there was no more sea.

2 And I Iohn sawe the [c] holie citie newe Ierusalem come[d] downe from God out of heauen, prepared as a bride trimmed for her housband.

3 And I heard a great voyce out of heauen saying, Beholde, the Tabernacle of God is with men, and he[e] wil dwell with them: and they shalbe his people, and God him self shalbe their God [w] them.

4 *And God shal wipe [e] away all teares from their eyes: & there shalbe no more death, nether sorowe, nether crying, nether shal there be anie more paine: for the first things are passed.

5 And he that sate vpon the throne, said, *Beholde, I make all things new: and he said vnto me, Write: for these wordes are faithful and true:

6 And he said vnto me, *It is done, I am α and ω, the beginning & the end. I wil giue to him that is a thirst, of the [f] well of the water of life frely.

7 He that ouercometh, shal inherit all things, and I wil be his God, and he shalbe my sonne.

8 But the [g] feareful and vnbeleuing, and the abominable, and murderers, and whoremongers, and sorcerers, and idolaters, and all liars shal haue their parte in the lake, which burneth with fyre and brimstone, which is the seconde death.

b For all things shalbe purged from their corruption, & [y] faithful shal enter into heauen with their head Christ

9 And there came vnto me one of the seuen Angels, which had the seuen vials ful of the seuen last plagues, & talked with me, saying, Come: I wil shewe thee the[i] bride, the Lambes wife.

10 And he caryed me away in the spirit to a great and an hie mountaine, and he shewed me the great[k] citie, holie Ierusalem, [l] descending out of heauẽ frõ God,

11 Hauing the glorie of God: and her shining was like vnto a stone most precious, as a[m] Iasper stone cleare as cristal:

12 And had a great[n] wall an hie, and had twelue [o] Gates, & at [y] gates twelue Angels, & the names written, [w] are the twelue tribes of the children of Israel

13 On the East parte there were thre gates, & on the Northside thre gates, on the Southside thre gates, & on the Westside thre gates.

14 And the wal of the citie had twelue fundacions, and in them the names of the Lambs twelue[p] Apostles.

15 And he that talked with me, had a golden rede to measure the citie with all, and the gates thereof, and the wall thereof.

16 And the citie lay foure square, & [y] length is as large as the bredth of it, & he measured the citie with the rede twelue thousand furlongs: & the lẽgth and the bredth, & the height of it are equal.

17 And he measured the wall thereof, an hundreth, fortie and foure cubites, by the measure of man, that is, of the Angel.

18 And the buylding of the wall of it was of Iasper: and the citie was pure golde like, vnto cleare glasse.

19 And the fundacions of the wall of [y] citie were garnished with all maner of precious stones: the first fundacion was Iasper: the second of Saphire: the third of a Chalcedonie: the fourth of an Emeraude:

20 The fift of a Sardonix: the sixt of a Sardius: the seuenth of a Chrysolite: [y] eight of a Beryl: the ninth of a Topaze: the tenth of Chrysoprasus: the eleuenth of a Iacinth: the twelueth an Amethist.

21 And the twelue gates were twelue pearles, & euerie gate is of one pearle, and the strete of the citie is pure gold, as shining glasse.

22 And I sawe no Temple therein: for [y] Lord God almightie and the [q] Lambe are the Temple of it.

CHAP. XXII.

1 The riuer of the water of life. 2 The fruitfulnes & light of the citie of God. 6 The Lord giueth euer his seruants warning of things to come. 9 The Angel wil not be worshipped. 18 To the worde of God may nothing be added, nor diminished therefrom.

1 AND he shewed me a pure[a] riuer of water of life, cleare as crystal, proceding out of the throne of God, & of the Lambe.
2 In the[b] middes of the strete of it, and of either side of the riuer, was the tre of life, which bare twelue maner of frutes, & gaue frute euerie[c] moneth: and the leaues of the tre serued to heale the [d]nacions with.
3 And there shalbe no more curse, but the throne of God and of the Lambe shalbe in it, and his seruants shal serue him.
4 And they shal se his face, and his Name shalbe in their forheades.
5 *And there shalbe no[e] night there, & they nede no candle, nether light of ỹ sunne: for the Lord God giueth them light, and they shal reigne for euermore.
6 And he said vnto me, These wordes are faithful and true: & the Lord God of the holie Prophetes sent his Angel to shewe vnto his seruants the things ẅ must shortely be fulfilled.
7 Beholde, I come shortely. Blessed is he that kepeth the wordes of the prophecie of this boke.
8 And I am Iohn, which sawe and heard these things: and when I had heard & sene, *I[f] fell downe to worship before the fete of the Angel, which shewed me these things.
9 But he said vnto me, See ỹ do it not: for I am thy felowe seruant, & of thy brethren ỹ Prophetes, & of them ẅ kepe the wordes of this boke: worship God.
10 And he said vnto me, [g] Seale not the wordes of the prophecie of this boke: for the time is at hand.
11 He that is vniust, let him be vniust stil: & he which is filthie, let him be filthie stil: and he that is righteous, let him be righteous stil: and he that is holie, let him be holie stil.
12 And beholde, I come shortely, & my rewarde is with me, * to giue euerie man according as is worke shalbe.
13 I am α and ω, the beginning and the end, the first and the last.
14 Blessed are they, that do his commandements, that their right may be in ỹ [h]tre of life, and may entre in through the gates into the citie.
15 For without shalbe dogges and enchãters and whoremongers, and murtherers, and idolaters, and whosoeuer loueth or maketh [i]lyes.
16 I Iesus haue sent mine Angel to testifie vnto you these things in the Churches I am the roote & the [k]generation of Dauid, and the bright morning [l]starre.
17 And the Spirit and the bride say, Come. And let him that heareth, say, [m]Come: and let him that is [n]thirst, come: & *let whosoeuer[o] wil, take of the water of life frely.
18 For I protest vnto euerie man that heareth the wordes of the prophecie of this boke, *if any man shal adde vnto these things, God shal adde vnto him the plagues, that are writen in this boke.
19 And if any man shal diminish of the wordes of the boke of this prophecie, God shal take away his parte out of the Boke of life, and out of the holie citie, and from those things which are writen in this boke.
20 He which testifieth these things, saith, [p]Surely, I come quickely. Amen. Euen so [q]come, Lord Iesus.

The end of the table.

A PERFITE SVPPVTATION OF THE YERES AND TIMES FROM ADAM VNTO Christ, proued by the Scriptures, after the collection of diuers autors.

The summe of the yeres of the first age.

FRom Adam vnto Noes flood are yeres 1656.
For when Adam was a 130 yere olde, he begate Seth.
Seth being 105 yeres, begate Enos.
Enos being 90 yeres, begate Cainan.
Cainan being 70 yeres, begate Mahalaleel.
Mahalaleel being 65 yeres, begate Iared.
Iared at the age of a 162 yeres, begate Enoch.
Enoch being 65 yeres, begate Mathuselah.
Mathuselah at the age of 187 yeres, begate Lamech.
Lamech being 182 yeres, begate Noe.
Noe at the comming of the flood was 600 yeres olde, as appeareth in seuenth of Genesis.

The whole summe of the yeres are 1656.

FRom the said flood of Noe vnto Abrahams departing from Chalde were 363 yeres, and ten dayes.
For the said flood continued one whole yere and ten dayes.
Sem (which was Noes sonne) begate Arphaxat two yeres after that.
Arphaxat begate Salah whē he was 35 yeres olde.
Salah being 30 yeres olde, begate Heber.
Heber at his age of 34 begate Phalech.
Phalech being 30 yeres, begate Regu.
Regu being 32 yeres, begate Saruch.
Saruch being 30 yeres, begate Nahor.
Nahor being 29 yeres, begate Thare.
Thare being 70 yeres, begate Abraham.
And Abrahā departed from Chalde when he was 70 yeres olde.

These said yeres accounted are 363 yeres, & ten dayes.

FRom Abrahams departing from Vr in Chalde vnto the departing of the children of Israel frō Egypt are 430 yeres, gathered as followeth.
Abrahā was in Charran siue yeres, and departed in the 75 yere.
He begate Isaac when he was 100 yeres olde, and in the 25 yere of his departing.
Isaac begate Iakob when he was 60 yeres olde.
Iakob went into Egypt with all his familie, whē he was 130 yere olde.
Israel was in Egypt 220 yeres, which remaine from that time.
Then rebato 80 yeres from this: for so olde was Moses when he cōducted the Israelites from Egypt.
So the rest of the yeres, that is to say 130, are deuided betwixt Amram and Chath.
Then Chath begate Amram at his age of 67 yeres.
Amram being 56 yeres, begate Moses, who in the 80 yere of his age departed with the Israelites from Egypt.
So this supputation is the 430 yeres mencioned in the 12. of Exod. & the 3. to the Galatians.

FRom the going of the Israelites from Egypt vnto the first buylding of the Temple are 480 yeres, after this supputation and accounte.
Moses remained in ý desert or wildernes 40 yeres.
Iosue & Othoniel ruled 40 yeres.
Aioth 70 yeres.
Debora 40 yeres.
Gedeon 40 yeres.
Ambimelech 3 yeres.
Thela 23 yeres.
Iair 22 yeres.
Then were they without a captaine vnto the 18 yere of Iepthe.
Iepthe 6 yeres.
Ambissam 7 yeres.
Elom 10 yeres.
Abaton 8 yeres.
Sampson 20 yeres.
Heli Iudge and Priest 44 yeres.
Samuel & Saul reigned 40 yeres.
Dauid was King 40 yeres.
Salomon in the 4 yere of his reigne begā ý buylding of the Temple.

These

These are the 480 yeres mencioned in the first of the Kings, & the 6 chap.

FRom the first buylding of the Temple vnto the captiuitie of Babylō are 419 yeres & an halfe.
Salomon reigned yet 36 yeres.
Roboam 17 yeres.
Abia 3 yeres.
Asa 41 yeres.
Iosaphat 25 yeres.
Ioram 8 yeres.
Ochasias one yere.
Athalia the Quene 7 yeres.
Ioas 40 eyeres.
Amasias 29 yeres.
Ozias 52 yeres.
Ioathan 16 yeres.
Achas 16 yeres.
Ezechias 29 yeres.
Manasses 55 yeres.
Amon 2 yeres.
Iosias 31 yeres.
Ioachas 3 moneths.
Eliacim 11 yeres.
Ioachim, Iechonias 3 moneths.

And here beginneth the captiuitie of Babylon.

The summe of these yeres are 419 yeres.

IEruſalem was reedified & buylded againe after the captiuitie of Babylon 143 yeres.
The captiuitie continued 70 yeres.
The children of Israel were deliuered and restored to their fredome in the first yere of Cyrus.
The Temple was begonne to be buylded in the 2 yere of the said Cyrus, & finished in the 46 yere, which was the 6 yere of Darius. After that Darius had reigned 20 yere, Nehemias was restored to libertie, and went to buylde the citie, which was finished in the 32 yere of the said Darius.
All the yeres from the buylding of the Temple againe are 26 yeres.

The whole summe of yeres amount to 143 yeres.

The End.

FRom the reedifying of the citie vnto the cōming of Christ, are 483 yeres, after this supputation or nombring.
It is mencioned in the 9 of Daniel that Ieruſalem shulde be buylt vp againe, and that from that time vnto he comming of Christ are 67 weekes, & euerie weeke is reckoned for seuē yeres. So 67 weekes amount to 483 yeres. For frō the 32 yere of Darius vnto the 42 yere of Augustus, in the which yere our Sauiour Christ was borne, are iust and complet so many yeres, whereupon we recken, that from Adam vnto Christ are 3974 yeres, six moneths and ten dayes, and from the byrth of Christ vnto this present yere, is 1560.
Then the whole summe and nombер of yeres from the beginning of the worlde vnto this present yere of our Lord God 1560 are iust 5534, 6 moneth, and the said olde ten dayes.

IOSHVA CHAP. 1. VERS. 8.

Let not this boke of the Law departe out of thy mouth, but meditate therein daye and night, that thou mayest obserue and do according to all that is written therein: so shalt thou make thy way prosperous, and then shalt thou haue good succesſe.

AT GENEVA,

PRINTED BY IOHN CRESPIN.

M. D. LXIX.

A TREATISE MADE BY ATHANASIVS THE GREAT,

VVHERIN IS SET FORTH, HOVV, AND in what manner ye may vse the Psalmes, according to thaffecte of the minde; of gladnesse, or sorow: accordingly. Which Psalmes ye shal vse for prayer, which for thankesgeuing, vvhich for rehearsall of Gods vvonderfull actes, to the prayse of his name. Also ye may see in them, hovv God hath holpen his chosen people from time to time, and neuer forsoke them.

THe whole Scripture vniuersallye, is as it were a diuine maistres, teaching both vertue & true fayth: but the booke of the Psalmes hath ouer & besides that in a maner an expresse image of the state & condition of soules. For as he which goeth to a kyng, cõposeth fyrst his behauiour, & setteth in order hys wordes, least he should be counted rusticall & rude: so thys diuine booke, fyrst by chose of all motions, wherwith the soule is affected, warneth them, frameth and instructeth by diuers formes of speaking, all such as couet vertue, and desyre to knowe the life of the Sauiour. It is easie therfore for euery man to finde out the Psalmes, the motion and state of his owne soule and by that meanes, hys owne figure and proper erudition.

More ouer with what wordes he may please God, and with what wordes he may correct hym selfe, and geue God thankes, least if he speake that thyng whiche is not leefull he fall into impietie. For not alone of dedes but also of euery worde must we geue accounte before the iudge. Wherfore if thou wilt pronounce any man happy and blessed: thou hast how and wherfore, and whom thou mayest call happy, in the Psalmes, as you may see in the first Psalme, 32. Psalme 41. 112. 116. 128. Psalmes.

If thou wilt complaine of the laying awayte of the Iewes againste the Sauiour, say the secõd Psalme.

If thyne acquaintaunce persecute thee and many ryse agaynst thee, thou haste the thyrd Psalme.

If thou being troubled on thys sort, hast called vpon the Lorde, and because he hath heard thee, thou wouldest geue hym thankes, sing the 4. and 115. Psalms.

If thou perceauest wayte to be layde for thee of euil willers and desiereste that thy prayer should be heard, sing the 5. Psalme.

If thou feelest the threatninges of God, and therby perceauest thy selfe to be dismayd, thou mayst say the 6. and 37. Psalmes.

If any consult or conspire againste thee, as Achitophel agaynst Dauid, and some man tell it thee, sing the 7. Psalme.

When thou considerest the grace of our Sauiour euery where spred abroad, and mankynd restored vnto health, then if thou wilt talke to the Lord, sing the 8. Psalme.

If agayne thou wilt sing of the wonderous workes of God, geuing God thankes, thou hast the 8. Psalme, and the 81. Psalme.

If thou wilt haue thyne enemye stopped and driuen backe, and neuertheles the creature to be saued, not trusting in thy selfe but in Gods sonne, say the 9. Psalme.

If any man wil make thee afrayd, thou with trust in the Lord, sing the 10. Psalme.

If thou see the pride and malice of manye to abounde, so that nothyng which is good, & Godlly is regarded amongst men, flye thou vnto the Lorde and saye the 11. Psalme.

If the lyings in wayte of enemyes continue still, do not forget thy selfe as though the Lord set nought by thee, but call vpon the Lord, singing the 26. Psalme.

If thou heare any man blaspheming and speaking ill againste the prouidence: be not thou partaker of their wickednesse, but flying vnto God, saye the 14. Psalme, and 53. Psalme.

If thou wilt knowe after what sort the life of a citizen of the kingdome of heauen is, sing the 15. Psalme.

If thou haste neede of prayer for them whiche withstand thee and compasse thy soule aboute, sing the 17. Psalme, and 56. 89. and 142. Psalme.

If thou wilt know how Moyses prayed, thou hast the 90. Psalme.

If thou art escaped from enemies, and deliuered from them whiche persecute thee, syng the 18. Psalme.

If thou marueilest at thorder of thyngs created, and the grace of the diuyne prouidence, sing the. 19. 26. 27. Psalme.

If thou seest any men troubled, comfort thē, and praying for thē, say the wordes of the 20. Psalme.

If thou seest thy self kept of the Lord and that thou prospereſt, reioyce and sing the 23. Psalme.

If thine enemyes rush vpon thee, lift vp thy soule to god and say the 25. Psalme, and thou shalt see them worke wickednes in vayne.

If thine enemies perseuer and continue and with bloudy hands seeke to seduce thee or kil thee geue not iudgement vnto man for all humaine things are suspect. But requiering god to be iudge, who is thonely iudge, say the 26. Psalme, and 35, 34. Psalmes.

If thine enemyes cruelly curse thee, and multiplye, as it were an hoste with despite: feare not, no more thē though thou were nothing in daunger at all, and sing the 46. Psal.

If againe they be impudēt, which lie in waite, set thou nothing by them, but sing vnto the Lord that which is in the 47. Psalme.

If thou wilt know how thou ought to go vnto the Lorde, when thou wilt geue him thanks: playnly thou shalt vnderstand and sing the 48. Psalme.

Furthermore when thou renuest thy house and soule, which receaueth the Lord, & the sensibile house in whiche thou bodely dwellest: geue thankes & say the 49. and 127. Psalme.

If thou see thy kinsmen and frends hate thee for the truth: leaue not of thy loue, neyther feare such aduersaries, but think what is to come, and sing the 31. Psalme.

If thou seest them that be christened, deliuered from the corruptible birth, marueiling at the deuine bounteousnes, sing the 31. Psalme.

If thou wilt singe with the iust men, and remembring them which liue aryght, sing the 33. Psalme.

If thou hast fallen amongest enemies, and wisely escaped them, and fledde from theyr snares, and therfore wilt geue thankes, call together the meeke and sing with them the 34. Psalme.

If thou se the wicked striue to doo mischefe, thinke not that sinne is naturallye in them, as certaine heretikes helde an opinion: but say the 36. Psalme.

If thou see the euill worke vnrighteousnesse and beare them selues lofty against the lower sort, and desirest to warne some therof, sing the 37. Psalme.

If thou hast determined to take hede vnto thy selfe, and seest the aduersary, lying in waite, who is most earnest agaynst such and wouldest arme thy self against hym, sing the 59. Psalme.

If thou seest many poore men and beggers and wouldest pitie them: thou mayst both trye them whiche are now pitied already and exhort other to do the same, saying the 41. Psalme.

If thou hast a desire towarde God, and hearest the enemies vpbrayding, let it not dismaye thee, but vnderstanding immortall fruite, whiche springeth of this desire, comfort thy soule with hope toward God and with this reliefe, and mitigate the griefes of lyfe, saying the 41. Psalme.

If thou wilt often call to remembraunce the benefites of God, whiche he shewed to the fathers both in the going out of Egypt and in the wildernes, and how God was good to them, but they were vnthankfull: thou hast the 44. Psalme, the 79. 80, 102. 106. 107. 114. Psalmes.

If flying vnto God thou haste escaped such things as were spoken agaynst thee, and wouldest geue thankes vnto God, and declare his liberalytie and goodnes towardes thee, then thou hast the 46. Psalme.

If thou hast sinned and being turned, fallest to repentaunce, and wouldest obtaine mercy, thou hast the wordes of confession in the 31. Psalme.

If thou hast suffred a false accusation before an euil king, and seest the enemy to boast: go aside and say the 52. Psalme.

If any persecute thee, and quarell: willing to betraye thee, lyke as the Pharisies dyd Christ, and straungers Dauid, abash not thy self, but with trust in the Lorde, sing the 34. Psalme and the 56.

If persecution chaunce, and the persecutour vnwares enter into the caue where thou art hyd, feare not, for thou hast in thys strayte profitable words, both for comfort and for remembrance of the thynges, in the 57. Psalme, and 142.

If he that lieth in wayte of thee, haue commaunded to watch and beset thy house, and thou hast escaped, geue thankes vnto God, and in the tables of thy soule graue the thing, and say the 65. Psalme.

If the enemyes which trouble thee, vpbrayde thee, & with many wordes backebyte thee, which seme to be frendes, and in the exercise of this thy crosse thou art somewhat weake: thou mayst call vpon the same also, saying the 4. Psalme.

Against hypocrites and such as bragge to a mans face, say to conuert them withall, the 18. Psalme.

If they sharply rush vpon thee: and would catch thy soule, set against them thy subiection vnto God ward, and be of good comfort, for the fearcer they ar, the more shal they be subiect vnto God, say thou the 62. Psalme.

If to auoyd persecution, thou flee into the desert, feare not as though thou were there alone and desolate: but hauing God, and in the dawning of the day, rysing to hym, sing the 63. Psalme.

If the enemies make thee afrayde and cease not to sow deceites, and search alwayes agaynst thee: although they be neuer so many, cease not for all that, for theyr nets shall be like shaftes of litle children, if thou sing the 64. 68. 70. 71. Psalmes.

If thou wilt sing of God, and his prayse, thou hast the 65. Psalme.

If thou wilt instruct any man in the mystery of

ry of the resurrection, thou hast the 80. Psalme. If thou aske mercy of God, sing the 67. Psalme.

If thou seest the wicked prosper in peace, be not so offended that thou be moued, but say the 75. Psalme.

If God be angry with his people, thou hast wordes wherwith thou mayst comfort thee in the same, in the 74. Psalme.

If thou thinkest expedient to confesse thee, sing the 71.75.92.105.106.108. 111.118.136. and 138. Palmes.

If thou wilt rebuke a Gentile and an heretike, namely such a one as knoweth not God, thou mayst with intelligence sing and say that which is in the 86. Psalme.

If thenemies haue taken thy refuges, & thou art in great distres, although thou art troubled, yet despaire not, but pray, and if when thou criest, thou art heard, geue thankes vnto God, saying that which is in 77. Psalme.

If the enemies holde on and continue, breaking in and defiling the house of God, and killing the saincts, and castyng theyr bodies to the foules of the ayre, feare not theyr cruelty but suffering with them that suffer affliction, say the 79. Psalme.

If thou wilt sing to the Lord in solemnitie, call together the seruantes of God, and sing the 81. and the 65. Psalme.

If the enemies be gathered together euery where, and threaten the house of the Lorde, conspiring against godlines, let not the multitude and power of them dismay thee, thou hast as it were an author of hope, the words which are in the 83. Psalme.

If thou see the house of god and his euerlasting tabernacles, and haste a mind or affection towarde them as had the Apostle: saye the 84. Psalme.

If rancor he stinted, and captiuitie released: thou hast to geue God thankes with all the, 85. Psalme, and 116.

If thou wilt know discorde of the catholyke Church against diuisions and wouldest conuert them, thou mayst say that which is in the 87. Psalme.

If thou wilt moue thy selfe and other to true religion, and perswade that the hope in God maketh not the sowle ashamed, but rather put away all feare, prayse God, saying the 91. Psalme.

If thou wilt sing vpon the Sabboth, thou hast the 92. Psalme.

If thou wilt geue thanks vpon the Sonday, thou hast in the 13. Psalme.

If thou wilt geue thankes in the second Sabboth, syng the 95. Psalme.

If thou wilt sing vpon the day of preparation, thou hast a forme of prayse in the 93. Psalme: and therefore a songe of reioycyng ought to be song vnto God himselfe.

If there haue bene imprisonment, and the house wasted, and builded agayne, sing that which is in the 96. Psalme.

If the land haue ben vexed of the enemies and whiles the Lord ruleth and raigneth, it be at quiet, thou hast to sing the 97. Psalme.

If thou wilt sing vpon the fourth Sabboth, thou hast the 94. Psalme, for then he being betrayed, began to reuēge death, and to triumphe ouer the same.

Therefore when thou redest the Gospel, and seest the Iewes consulting against the Lord & the Lord hymself standing boldlye on our syde against the deuil: sing that which is in the 94. Psalme, as is next before sayd.

If thou markest the prouidence of the Lord in all thynges, as the Lorde of the same, and wouldest instructe any with the fayth and obedience therof, when thou hast perswaded them fyrst to acknowledge, synge the 100. Psalme.

If thou knowest power in hym to iudge, and that God iudgeth, myngling iudgement with mercy and hast a desire to attayne vnto it, thou haste for this purpose wordes in the 102. Psalme.

If because of thimbecillity of our nature, thou art, after the maner of a phisition sicke and weary of the manifolde meschiefes of life, and wouldest comfort thy selfe: thou hast the 102. Psalme.

For asmuch as it is mete and conuenient alwayes and in all things to geue God thanks when thou wilt prayse him, thou hast wherwith to exhort thy soule, the 103. Psalme.

If thou wilt prayse God, and know how to prayse him for any thing, and what wordes he that prayseth ought to vse, thou hast 113.127. 146.133.147.148.149.150. Psalme.

If thou hast faith, as the Lord hath sayd, and beleuest in those things which thou speakest when thou prayest, say the 96. Psalme.

If thou be captiuated with straunge cogitations, and hast perceiued thy selfe to be led out of the way and art sory therfore, cease frō hēce forth and staying there where thou perceauedst thy selfe to sinne, sit, and mourne also, as the people did, saying the 137. Psalme.

If thou suppose temptations to be for thy tryall, geue thankes after the temptacion vnto God, saying the 139. Psalme.

If thou art agayne caught of thyne enemyes, and wouldest be delyuered, saye 140. Psalme.

If thou wilt make thy prayers, say the 5. Psalme, and the 141.142.143.144. Psalme.

If any enemy and tyrant be rysen vp agaynst the people, feare thou no more then Dauid did Goliath, but with Dauid beleue and sing the 144 Psalme.

If thou call to remembraunce the goodnes of God toward thee and all men, and wouldest prayse God, say the 83. Psalme.

If thou wilt sing vnto the Lord, thou hast, to say in the 96. and in the 98. Psalmes.

If thou being but a meane man, peraduenture art set before thy brethren in some thing, puffe not vp thy self in pryde against them, but geue the praise to God, and synge the 52. or the 131. Psalme.

If thou wilt syng obedience, thou hast the 105. and the 106.107.111.112.113.114.115.116.117.118.

119.134.145.147.148.149.150.Pſalmes.

If thou wilt ſyng particularly of the ſauior, thou haſte of hym in euery Pſalme:but ſpecially in the 25.and the 110.Pſalme.

Such Pſalmes as ſhew his lawfull generacion, of the Father, and his preſence, are the 11. Pſalme.

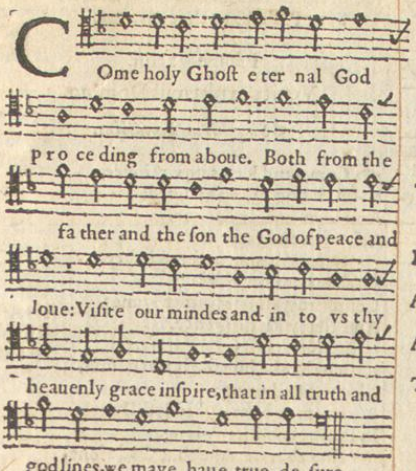
¶FINIS.

Veni

Veni Creator.



Thou art the very comforter,
In all wo and distresse:
The heauenly gift of God most high,
Which no tong can expresse.
The fountaine and the liuely spring,
Of ioy celestiall:
The fyre so bright, the loue so cleare,
And vnction spirituall.

Thou in thy giftes art manifold.
Wherby Christes church doth stand.
In faythfull heartes writing thy law,
The fynger of Gods hand.
According to thy promyse made
Thou geuest speech of grace:
That through thy helpe the prayse of God
May stand in euery place.

O holy Ghost into our wittes,
Send down thy heauenly light:
Kindle our hartes with feruent loue,
To serue God day and night.
Strength and stablish all our weaknes,
So feble and so frayle:
That neither flesh, the world, nor deuill,
Agaynst vs do prenayle.

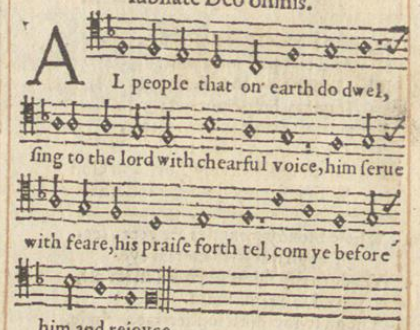
Put backe our enemyes far from vs,
And graunt vs to obteyne:
Peace in our harts with God and man.
Without grudge or disdayne.
And graunt (O Lord) that thou beyng,
Our leader and our guide:
We may eschew the snares of synne,
And from thee neuer slyde.

To vs such plenty of thy grace,
Good Lord graunt we thee pray:
That thou mayst be our comforter,
At the last dreadfull day.
Of all stryfe and dissention,
O Lord dissolue the bandes,
And make the knottes of peace and loue
Throughout all christen landes.

Graunt vs (O Lord) through thee to know,
The father of all might:
That of hys deare beloued sonne,
We may attaine the sight.
And that with perfect fayth also,
We may acknowledge thee:
The spirit of them both alway,
One God in persons three.

Laude and prayse be to the father.
And to the sonne equall:
And to the holy sprite also,
One God coeternall.
And pray we that the onely Sonne,
Vouchfafe hys sprite to send:
To all that do professe hys name,
Vnto the worldes end.

Psalme 100.
Iubilate Deo omnis.

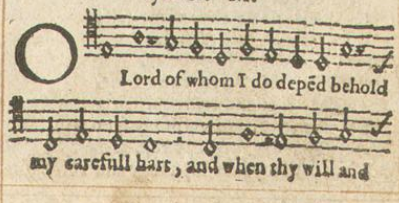


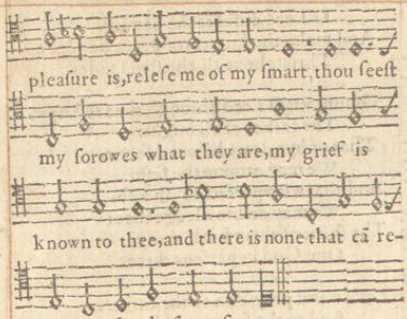
3 The Lord ye know is God in deede,
Without our ayde he did vs make:
We are his folke he doth vs feede,
And for his shepe he doth vs take.

4 Oh enter then his gates with prayse
Approch with ioye his courtes vnto:
Prayse, laud, and blesse hys name alwayes
For it is semely so to do.

5 For why? the Lord our God is good,
His mercy is for euer sure:
His truth at all tymes firmely stoode,
And shall from age to age endure.

The humble sute of the synner. M.





But onely thou whoſe ayde I craue,
Whoſe mercy ſtill is preſt:
To eaſe all thoſe that come to thee,
For ſuccor and for reſt.
And ſith thou ſeeſt my reſtles eyes,
My teares and grieuous grone:
Attend vnto my ſute (O Lord)
Marke well my plaint and mone.

For ſynne hath ſo incloſed me,
And compaſt me about:
That I am now remedileſſe
If mercy helpe not out:
For mortall man can not releaſe,
Or mitigate this payne:
But euen thy Chriſt my Lord and God
Which for my ſynnes was ſlaine.

Whoſe bloudy woundes are yet to ſee,
Thogh not with mortal eye:
Yet doth thy ſaintes behold them all,
And ſo I truſt ſhal I.
Thogh ſynne doth hinder me a whyle,
When thou ſhalt ſee it good:
I ſhall enioy the ſight of hym,
And ſee his woundes and blood.

And as thine Angels and thy ſaintes
Do now behold the ſame:
So truſt I to poſſes that place,
With them to prayſe thy name.
But whiles I liue here in this vale,
Where ſynners do frequent:
Aſsiſt me euer with thy grace,
My ſynnes ſtill to lament.

Leaſt that I tread in ſynners trace,
And geue them my conſent:
To dwel with them in wickednes,
Wherto nature is bent.
Onely thy grace muſt be my ſtay,
Leaſt that I fall down flat:
And being down, then of my ſelf,
Can not recouer that.

Wherfore this is yet once againe,
My ſute and my requeſt:
To graunt me pardon for my ſynne,
That I in thee may reſt,
Then ſhall my hart, my tonge and voice,
Be inſtrumentes of prayſe:
And in thy church and houſe of ſaintes,
Syng Pſalmes to thee alwayes.

Pſalme xciiii.

Venite exultemus Domino.

¶ Sing this as Benedictus.

O Come, and let vs now reioyce,
And ſing vnto the Lord:
And to our onely ſauiour,
Alſo with one accord.
O let vs come before his face.
With inward reuerence:
Confeſsing all our former ſynnes,
And that with diligence.

To thanke him for his beneſites,
Alway diſtributing:
Wherfore to hym right ioyfully:
In Pſalmes now let vs ſyng.
And that becauſe that God alone,
Is Lord magnificent.
And eke aboue all other Gods,
A king omnipotent.

His people doth not he forſake
At any tyme or tyde:
And in his hand are all the coaſtes,
Of all the world ſo wyde.
And with his louing countenance
He looketh euery where,
And doth behold the tops of all,
The mountaines far and nere.

The ſea and all that is therein
Are his, for he them made:
And eke his hand hath faſhioned,
The earth which doth not fade.
O come therfore and worſhip hym,
And down before hym fall:
And let vs wepe before the Lord,
The which hath made vs all.

He is our God, our Lord and king,
And we hys people are:
Hys flocke and ſhepe of hys paſture,
On whom he taketh care.
Thys day, if ye do heare his voyce,
Yet harden not your hart:
As in the bitter murmuring,
When ye were in deſert.

Which thyng was of theyr negligence
Committed in the tyme:
Of trouble in the wilderneſs,
A great and grieuous cryme.
Where as your fathers tempted me,
And tryed euery way:
They proued me, and ſaw my workes,
What I could do or ſay.

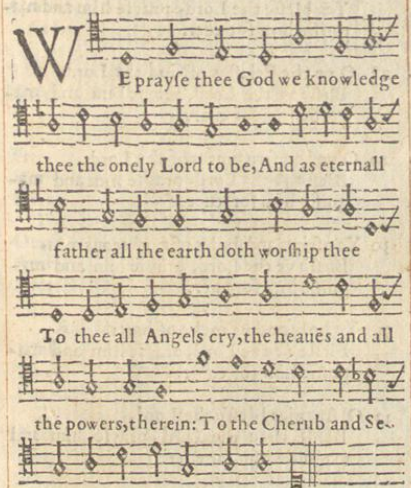
Theſe forty yeares I haue bene greued
With thys generacion:
And euermore I ſayd they erred,

In theyr imaginacion.
Wherwith theyr harts wer sore combred,
Long tyme and many dayes:
Wherfore I know assuredly,
They haue not knowen my wayes.

To whom I in myne anger swore,
That they should not be blest:
Nor see my ioy celestiall,
Nor enter in my rest.
¶Gloria patri.

All laud and prayse be to the Lord
O that of myght art most:
To God the father and the sonne,
And to the holy Ghost.
As it in the beginning was,
For euer heretofore
And is now at this present tyme,
And shalbe euermore.

The songe of S Ambrose, called, Te Deum.



O Holy-Holy-Holy Lord,
Of Sabboth Lord the God:
Through heauē and earth thy prayse is spread
And glorious abroad.
Thapostles glorious company,
Yeld prayses vnto thee:
The Prophets goodly fellowe ship,
Prayse thee continually.

The noble and victorious host,
Of Martyrs sound thy prayse:
The holy church throughout the world,
Doth knowledge thee alwayes.
Father of endles maiestie
They do acknowledge thee:
Thy Christ, thyne honorable, true
And onely sonne to bee.

The holy Ghost the comforter,
Of glory thou art king:
O Christ, and of the father art
The sonne euerlasting.
When synfull mans decay in hand,
Thou tookest to restore:
To be inclosed in Virgins wombe,
Thou diddest not abhorre.

When thou hadst ouercome, of death
The sharpe and cruell myght:
Thou heauens kingdome didst set ope,
To eche beleuing wight.
In glory of the father, thou
Doest sit on Gods right hand:
We trust that thou shall come our iudge,
Our cause to vnderstand.

Lord helpe thy seruants whom thou hast,
Bought with thy precious blood:
And in eternall glory set
Them with thy saintes so good.
O Lord do thou thy people saue.
Blesse thine inheritaunce,
Lord gouerne them, and Lord do thou,
For euer them aduaunce.

We magnifye thee day by day:
And world without end
Adore thy holy name. O Lord
Vouchsafe vs to defend
From sinne thys day haue mercy Lord,
Haue mercy on vs all:
And on vs as we trust in thee,
Lord let thy mercy fall.

O Lord I haue reposed all
My confidence in thee:
Put to confounding shame therfore,
Lord let me neuer bee.

¶The song of the three children praysing God, prouoking all creatures to do the same.

2 O ye the angles of the Lord,
Blesse ye the Lord, prayse hym and magnify hym for euer.

3 O ye the starry heauens hye,
Blesse ye the Lord prayse hym and magnify hym for euer.

4 O ye waters aboue the sky,
Blesse ye the Lord, prayse hym and magnify hym for euer.

5 O all ye poxers of the Lord,
Bleſſe ye the Lord, prayſe hym and magnyfy hym for euer.

6 O ye the ſhininh ſunne and monne.
Bleſſe ye the Lord prayſe hym and magnify hym for euer.

7 O ye the gliſtring ſtarres of heauen,
Bleſſe ye the Lord, prayſe hym and magnify hym for euer.

8 O ye the ſhowers and dropping dew
Bleſſe ye the Lord, prayſe hym and magnify hym for euer.

9 O ye the blowing windes of God,
Bleſſe ye the Lord, prayſe hym and magnify hym for euer.

10 O ye the fyre and warming heat,
Bleſſe ye the Lord, prayſe him and magnify hym for euer.

11 Ye winter and the ſummer tide,
Bleſſe ye the Lord, prayſe hym and magnify hym for euer.

12 O ye the dewes and binding froſtes,
Bleſſe ye the Lord, prayſe hym and magnify hym for euer.

13 O ye the froſt and chilling cold,
Bleſſe ye the Lord, prayſe hym and magnify hym for euer.

14 O ye the congeled yſe and ſnow,
Bleſſe ye the Lord, prayſe hym and magnify hym for euer.

15 O ye the nightes and lightſome dayes,
Bleſſe ye the Lord, prayſe hym and magnify hym for euer.

16 O ye the darknes and the light,
Bleſſe ye the Lord, prayſe hym and magnify hym for euer.

17 O ye the lightnings and the cloudes,
Bleſſe ye the Lord, prayſe hym and magnify hym for euer.

18 O let the earth eke bleſſe the Lord,
Yea bleſſe the Lord, prayſe hym & magnify hym for euer.

19 O ye the mountaynes and the hilles,
Bleſſe ye the Lord prayſe hym and magnify hym for euer.

20 O all ye grene things on the earth,
Bleſſe ye the Lord, prayſe hym and magnify hym for euer.

21 O ye the euer ſpringing wels
Bleſſe ye the Lord, prayſe hym and magnifie him for euer.

22 O ye the ſeas and ye the floudes,
Bleſſe ye the Lord, prayſe him and magnifie him for euer.

23 Whales and all that in the waters moue,
Bleſſe ye the Lord, prayſe him and magnifie him for euer.

24 O all ye flying foules of ayre,
Bleſſe ye the Lord, prayſe him and magnifie him for euer.

25 O all ye beaſtes and cattaile eke,
Bleſſe ye the Lord, prayſe him and magnifie him for euer.

26 O ye the children of mankynd,
Bleſſe ye the Lord, prayſe him and magnifie him for euer.

27 Let Iſraell eke bleſſe the Lord,
Yea bleſſe the Lord, prayſe him and magnifie him for euer.

28 O ye the Prieſtes of God the Lord,
Bleſſe ye the Lord, prayſe him and magnifie him for euer.

29 O ye the ſeruauntes of the Lord,
Bleſſe ye the Lord, prayſe him and magnifie him for euer.

30 Ye ſpirites and ſoules of ryghteous men,
Bleſſe ye the Lord, prayſe him and magnifie him for euer.

31 Ye holy and ye meke of hart:
Bleſſe ye the Lord, prayſe him and magnifie him for euer.

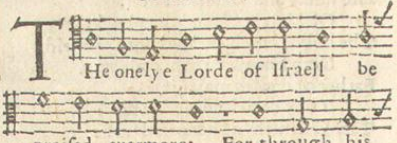
32 O Ananias bleſſe the Lord,
Bleſſe thou the Lord, prayſe him and magnifie him for euer.

O Azarias bleſſe the Lord,
Bleſſe thou the Lord, prayſe him and magnifie him for euer.

And Miſaell bleſſe thou the Lord,
Bleſſe thou the Lord, prayſe him and magnifie him for euer.

Finis,

The ſong of Zacharias, called Benedictus.



In Dauids house his seruant true,
According to his inde:
And also his anoynted king,
As we in scripture finde.
As by his holy Prophets all
Oft times he did declare:
The which were since the world began,
His way for to prepare.

That we might be deliuered,
From those that make debate:
Our enemies, and from the handes,
Of all that do vs hate.
The mercy which he promised,
Our fathers to fulfyll,
And thinke vpon his couenant made,
According to his wyll.

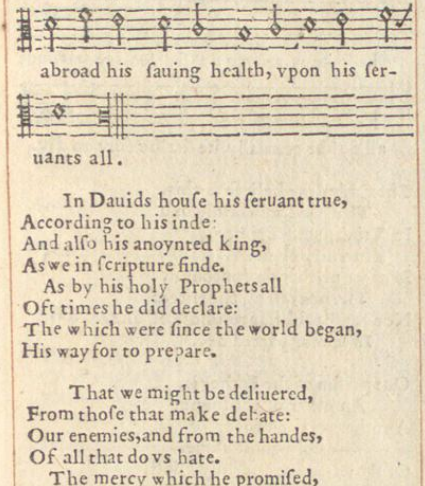
And also to performe the othe,
Which he before had sworne:
To Abraham our father deare,
For vs that were forlorne.
That he would geue him selfe for vs,
And vs from bondage bring:
Out of the handes of all our foes,
To serue our heauenly kyng.

And that without all maner feare,
And eke in ryghteousnes:
And also for to lead our lyfe,
In stedfast holynes.
And thou (O child) which now art borne,
And of the Lord elect:
Shalt be the Prophete of the hiest,
His wayes for to direct.

For thou shalt go before his face,
For to prepare his wayes:
And also for to teach his will,
And pleasure all thy dayes.
To geue them knowledge, how that theyr
Saluation is nere,
And that remission of theyr sinnes,
Is through his mercy mere.

Wherby the day spryng from an hye
Is come, vs for to visite:
And those for to illuminate
Which do in darknes sit.
To lighten those that shadowed be
With death and eke oppreste:
And also for to guide their feete,
The way to peace and rest.

The song of blessed Mary, called Magnificat.



For now behold al nacions,
And generations all:
From this time foorth for euermore,
Shall me right blessed call.
Because he hathme magnified,
Which is the Lord of might:
Whose name be euer sanctified,
And praysed day and night.

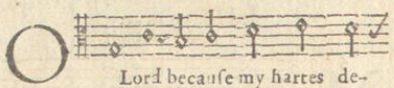
For with his mercy and his grace,
All men he doth inflame:
Throughout al generacions,
To such as feare his name.
He shewed strength with his great arme
And made the proud to start:
With all imaginacions,
That they bare in their hart.

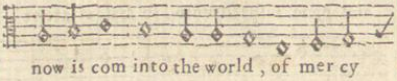
He hath put downe the mighty ones.
From their supernall seate:
And did exalt the meeke in hart,
As he hath thought it meete.
The hungry he repleniished,
With al thinges that were good:
And through his power he made the rich
Oft times to want their food.

And calling to remembrance,
His mercy euery deale:
Hath holpen vpassistantly,

His seruaunt Israel.
According to his promise made,
To Abraham before:
And to his seede successiuely,
To stand for euermore.

¶The song of Simeon called Nunc dimittis.





Thou suffereſt thy seruaunt now,
In peace for to depart:
Accordyng to thy holy word,
Which lyghteneth my hart.
Bycause mine eyes, which thou haſt made
To geue my body lyght:
Haue now beheld thy sauyng health,
Which is the Lord of myght.

Whom thou mercifully haſt set,
Of thine aboundant grace:
In open sight and visible,
Before all peoples face:
The Gentils to illuminate,
And Sathan ouer quell:
And eke to be the glorie of,
Thy people Israell.

¶The Symbole, or Crede of Athanasius, called Quicunque vult.

The Catholike beliefe is this,
That God we worship one
In Trinity: and Trinity
In vnity alone.
So as we neither do confound,
The persons of the three:
Nor yet the substance whole of one,
In sunder parted bee.

One person of the Father is,
An other of the sonne:
An other person proper of
The holy ghost alone.
Of father, Sonne and holy ghost,
But one the Godhead is:
Like glory, coeternall eke
The maiesty like wise.

Such as the Father is, such is
The Sonne in eche degree:
And such also we doo beleue
The holy Ghost to be.
Vncreate is the Father, and Vncreate is the Sonne:
The holy Ghost vncreate, so
Vncreate is eche one.

Incomprehensible Father is,
Incomprehensible Sonne:
And comprehensible also is
The holy Ghost of none.
The Father is eternall, and
The Sonne is eternal, so
And in lyke sorte eternal is
The holy Ghost also.

And yet though we beleue that eche
Of these eternalls be:
Yet there but one eternall is,
And not eternals three.
As ne incomprehensible we,
Ne yet vncreate three:
But one incomprehensible, one
Vncreate hold to bee:

Almighty so the father is,

The ſonne almighty ſo:
And in lyke ſorte almightie is,
The holy Ghoſt alſo.
And albeit that euery one
Of theſe almighty be:
Yet there but one almyghty is,
And not almightyes three.

The Father God is, God the Sonne,
God holy Ghoſt alſo:
Yet are there not three Gods in all,
But one God and no mo.
So lykewiſe Lord the Father is,
And Lord alſo the Sonne,
And Lord the holy Ghoſt, yet are
There not three Lordes, but one.

For as we are compeld to graunt,
By Chriſtian verity,
Eche of the perſons by hym ſelfe,
Both God and Lord to be:
So Catholike religion
Forbiddeth vs alway,
That eyther Gods be three, or that
There Lordes be three to ſay.

Of none thee Father is, ne made,
Ne create, nor begot:
The ſonne is of the Father, not
Creat, ne made, but got.
The holy Ghoſt is of them both,
The Father and the Sonne.
Ne made, ne creat, nor begot,
But doth procede alone.

So we one Father hold, not three:
One Sonne alſo not, three:
One holy Ghoſt alone, and not
Three holy Ghoſts to be:
None in this Trinitie before,
Nor after other is:
Ne greater any than the reſt,
Ne leſſer be lykewiſe.

But euery one among them ſelues
Of all the perſons three,
Together coeternal all,
And all coequall be.
So vnity in Trinitie,
As ſayd it is before:
And Trinity in vnity,
In all things we adore.

Therfore what man ſo euer that
Saluation will attayne:
This faith touching the Trinity,
Of force he muſt retayne.
And needefull to eternal lyfe,
It is that euery wyght.
Of the becommyng fleſh of Chriſt,
Our Lord beleue a right.

For this the right fayth is, that we Beleue, and eke beknowe:
That Chriſte our Lord the ſonne of God,
Is God and man alſo.

God, of this Fathers ſubſtaunce got,
Before the world began:
And of his mothers ſubſtance, borne
In world a very man.

Both perfect God, and perfect man,
In one, one Ieſus Chriſt:
That doth of reaſonable ſoule,
And humane fleſh ſubſiſt.
Thouching his Godhead, egall with His Father God is hee:
Touching his manhod, lower then
His Father in degree.

Who though he be both very God,
And very man alſo:
Yet is he but one Chriſt alone,
And is not perſons two.
One, not by turning of Godhead
Into the fleſh of man:
But by taking manhood to God,
This being one, began.

All one, not hy confounding of
The ſubſtance into one:
But onely by the vnity
That is of one perſone.
For as the reaſonable ſoule
And fleſh, but one man is:
So in one perſon God and man,
Is but one Chriſt likewiſe.

Who ſuffred for to ſaue vs all,
To hell he did deſcend:
The third day roſe agayn from death,
To heauen he did aſcende.
He ſittes at the right and of God
Thalmighty father there:
From thence to iudge the quicke and dead,
Agayne he ſhall retire.

At whoſe returne all men ſhall ryſe,
With bodyes new reſtorde:
And of their owne workes they ſhall giue
Accompt vnto the Lord.
And they into eternal lyfe
Shall go that haue done well,
Who haue done ill, ſhall go into Eternall fire to dwell.

This is the catholike beliefe,
Who doth not faithfully
Beleue theſame, without all doubt,
He ſaued cannot be.
To Father, Sonne, and holy Ghoſt,
All glory be therfore,
As in begynning was, is now,
And ſhalbe euermore.

¶The Lamentacion of a Synner.

Lord turne not awaye thy face, from hym that lyeth proſtrate:

Lamentyng fore his ſinnefull life, before thy mercye gate. Whyche gate thou openeſt wyde to thoſe that do lament there ſinne, ſhut not that gate againſt me Lord, but let me enter in.

And call me not to myne accomptes,
How I haue liued here.
For then I know right well (O Lord)
How vile I ſhall appeare.
I neede not to confeſſe my life,
I am ſure thou canſt tell:
What I haue bene, and what I am,
I know thou knoweſt it well.

O Lord thou knoweſt what things be paſt
And eke the thinges that bee:
Thou knoweſt alſo what is to come,
Nothing is hid from thee.
Before the heauens and earth were made
Thou knoweſt what thinges were then:
As all thinges els that hath bene ſince,
Among the ſonnes of men.

And can the things that I haue do n
Be hidden from thee then?
Nay nay, thou knoweſt them all (O Lord)
Where they were done and when.
Wherfore with teares I come to thee,
To begge and to entreat:
Euen as the child that hath done euill,
And feareth to be beat.

So come I to thy mercy gate,
Where mercy doth abounde:
Requiryng mercy for my ſinne
To heale my deadly wound.
O Lord I neede not to repete,
What I do begge or craue:
Thou knoweſt (O Lord) before I aſke,
The thing that I would haue.

Mercy good Lord, mercy I aſke,
This is the totall ſumme:
For mercy Lord is all my ſute,
Lord let thy mercy come.

¶ The Lordes Prayer, or Pater noſter.

earth, euen as the ſame in heauen is, geue vs (O Lord) our dayly bread this day: As we forgeue our detters ſo, Forgeue our dets we pray. Into temptation lead vs not. From euil make vs free,

For kingdome, power, and glory thyne both now and euer be.

Of any thing in heauen aboue,
Nor in the earthe belowe,
Nor in waters beneath the earth,
To them thou ſhalt not bow.

Nor ſhalt them ſerue. The Lord thy God
A Ialious God am I:
That puniſh parentes faultes vnto,

To thouſands of ſuch as me loue,
And my preceptes obey.

The name thou of the Lord thy God,
In vayne ſhalt neuer vſe:
For him that takes his name in vayne,
The Lord ſhall not excuſe.
Remember that thou holy kepe,
The ſacred Sabboth day:
Sixe dayes thou labour ſhalt, and do
Thy nedefull workes alway.

The ſeuenth day is ſet by the Lord,
Thy God to reſt vpon.
No worke then ſhalt thou do in it,
Ne thou nor yet thy ſonne,
Thy daughter, ſeruant nor handmayd,
Thine oxe nor yet thyne aſſe,
Nor ſtraunger that within thy gates,
Hath his abyding place.

For in ſixe dayes God heauen and earth,
And all therin did make:
And after thoſe his reſt he did,
Vpon the ſeuenth day take.
Wherfore he bleſt the day that he,
For reſting did ordeine:
And ſacred to him ſelfe alone,
Appoynted to remayne.

Yelde honor to thy parentes, that Prolongde thy dayes may be:
Vpon the land the which the Lord,
Thy God hath geuen thee.
Thou ſhalt not murther. Thou ſhalt not Commit adultery:
Thou ſhalt not ſteale. Nor wytnes falſe
Againſt thy neighbour be.

Thou ſhalt not couet houſe that to Thy neighbour doth belong:
Ne couet ſhalt in hauing of
His wyfe to do him wrong.
Nor his man ſeruaunt, nor his mayde,
Nor oxe, nor aſſe of his:
Nor any other thing that to Thy neighbour proper is.

The complaint of a ſynner.

Where righteouſnes doth ſay, Lord for my ſinnefull part. In wrath thou ſhouldeſt me pay, vengeance for my deſert.
I can it not denye, but needes I muſt confeſſe, how that continually e thy lawes
I doo tranſgreſſe, thy lawes I doo tranſgreſſe.

But if it be thy will,
With ſinners to contend:
Then all thy flocke ſhall ſpill,
And be loſt without end
For who liueth here ſo right,
That rightly he can ſay
He ſynnes not in thy ſight,
Full oft and euery day?

Thy ſcripture playne tels me,
The rightwiſe man offendth
Seuen tymes a day in thee,
Wheron thy wrath dependth,
So that the ryghtwiſe man:
Doth walke in no ſuch path,
But he falth now or than,
In daunger of thy wrath.

Then ſithe the caſe ſo ſtandes
That euen the man right wiſe
Falth oft in ſinfull bandes,
Wherby thy wrath may ryſe,
Lord I that am vniuſt,
And rightwiſenes none haue,
Whereto then ſhall I truſt,
My ſinfull ſoule to ſaue?

But truely to that poſt,
Wherto I cleaue and ſhall:
Which is thy mercy moſt,
Lord let thy mercy fall.
And mitigate thy moode,
Or els we periſhe all:
The price of this thy bloud,
Wherin mercy I call,

The Scripture doth declare
No droppe of blood in thee:
But that thou didſt not ſpare,
To ſhed eche drop for mee.
Now let thoſe drops moſt ſwete,
So moiſt my heart ſo dry,
That I with ſinne replete,
May liue, and ſinne may dye.

That beyng mortified,
This ſinne of myne in me:
I may be ſanctified,
By grace of thyne in thee,
So that I neuer fall,
Into ſuch mortall ſinne,
That my foes infernal:
Reioyce my death therin.

But vouchſafe me to kepe,
From thoſe infernall foes:
And from that lake ſo deepe,
Where as no mercy growes.
And I ſhall ſing the ſonges,
Confirmed with the iuſt:
That vnto thee belonges,
Which art myne onely truſt.

PSALMES OF Dauid.

PSALME I. T. S.

Beatus vir qui non abiit.

¶ Whether it was Esdras, or any other that gathered the Psalmes into a booke, it semeth he did set this psalme first in maner of a preface, to exhorte al godly men to studye and meditate the heauenly wisedome. For the effect therof is that they be blessed that gyue them selues wholye all their lyfe to Gods lawes and that the wicked contemners of God, thoughe they seeme for a whyle fortunate, yet at length shall come to miserable destruction.

He mā is blest that hath not bēt to wicked rede his eare: Nor led his lyfe as sinners do, nor sat in scorners chayre. 2. But in the law of God the Lord doth set his whole delight: And in that law doth exercise him self both day and night.

3 He shalbe lyke the trēe that groweth
Fast by the riuer side:
Which bringeth forth most pleasant fruite.
In her due time or tide.
Whose leafe shall neuer fade nor fall,
But florish styll and stand:
Euen so all thinges shall prosper well,
That this man takes in hand.

4 So shall not the vngodly men,
They shalbe nothing so:
But as the dust which from the earth.
The wyndes driue to and fro.

5 Therfore shall not the wicked men,
In iudgement stand vp right:
Nor yet the sinners with the iust,
Shall come in place or sight.

6 For why? the way of godly men,
Vnto the Lord is knowen:
And eke the way of wicked men,
Shall quite be ouerthrown.

PSALME II. T. S.

Quare fremuerunt gentes.

¶ The Prophete reioyseth, that notwithstandyng hys enemyes rage, and worldly power: yet God wil contineue his kingdome for euer, and aduaunce it euen to the vtmost end of the worlde, And therfore he exhorteth kinges and rulers, that settyng vayne glorye a parte, they would humbly submit them selues vnder Gods yoke, for it is vayne to resist. Herein is signified Christ and his kyngdome.

Sing this as the first Psalme.

WHy did the gentils tumultes rayse?
What rage was in their brayne:
Why did the Iewish people muse,
Seyng all is but vayne?

2 The kyngs and rulers of the earth,
Conspire and are all bent.

Agaynſt the Lord and Chriſt his ſonne
Whiche he among vs ſent.

3 Shall we be bound to them ſay they?
Let all their bondes be broke:
And of theyr doctrine and their law
Let vs reiect the yoke.
4 But he that in the heauen dwelleth,
Their doyng will deride:
And make them all as mocking ſtockes
Throughout the worlde ſo wide.

5 For in his wrath the Lord will ſay,
To them vpon a day:
And in his fury trouble them,
And then the Lord will ſay:
6 I haue annoynted hym my kyng,
Vpon my holy hill:
I will therfore Lord preach thy lawes
And eke declare thy will.

7 For in this wiſe the Lord him ſelf,
Did ſay to me, I wotte:
Thou art my deare and onely ſonne,
To day I thee begotte.
8 All people I will geue to thee,
As heires at thy requeſt:
The endes and coaſtes of all the earth,
By thee ſhalbe poſſeſt.

9 Thou ſhalt them bruſe, euen with a mace
As men vnderfoote trode:
And as the potters ſheardes ſhalt breake
Them with an yron rodde.
10 Now ye, O kynges, and rulers all,
Be wiſe therfore and learnde.
By whom the matters of the world
Be iudged and diſcernd.

11 See that ye ſerue the Lord aboue,
In tremblyng and in feare:
See that with reuerence ye reioyce,
To him in lyke maner.
12 See that ye kiſſe and eke embrace,
His bleſſed ſonne I ſay:
Leaſt in his wrath ye ſodenly,
Periſh in the mid way.

13 If once his wrath neuer ſo ſmall,
Shall kindle in his breſt:
Oh then all they that truſt in Chriſt,
Shall happy be and bleſt.

PSALME III. T. S.

Domine quid multiplicati.

¶ Dauid being perſecuted, and driuen out of his kingdome by his owne ſonne Abſalon, was greatly tormented in minde, for his ſonne againſt God: and therfore calleth vpon God and waxeth bold through his promiſes, againſt the great terrors of his enemies, yea and againſt death it ſelfe, whiche he ſaw preſent before his eyes. Finally he reioyſeth for the good ſucceſſe and victory that God gaue him and all the Churche, ouer his enemies.

4 Then with my voyce vpon the Lord,
I did both call and cry:
And he out of his holy hill,
Did heare me by and by.
5 I layd me downe, and quietly,
I ſlept and roſe agayne:
For why? I know aſſuredly,
The Lord will me ſuſteyne.

6 If ten thouſand had hemd me in,
I could not be afrayd:
For thou art ſtill my Lord my God,
My ſauiour and my ayde.
7 Riſe vp therfore, ſaue me my God
For now to thee I call:
For thou haſt broke the chekes and teeth
Of theſe wicked men all.

8 Saluacion onely doth belong,
To thee O Lord aboue:
Thou dooſt beſtow vpon thy folke,
Thy bleſsing and thy loue.

PSALME IIII. T. S.

Cum inuocarem.

¶ When Saule perſecuted hym, he called vpon God truſting moſt aſſuredly in his promiſe, and therfore boldly reproueth his enemies, who by wilfull malice reſiſted his dominion. And finally preferreth the fauour of God of God before all worldy treasures. Let vs lykewyse learne to truste in Gods promyses, when we are afflicted with any kynde of crosse and so we shall neither feare our enemyes, nor yet be ouercome with temptacions.

¶ Sing this as the first tune,

O God that art my ryghteousnes
Lord heare me when I call.
Thou hast set me at liberty,
When I was bonde and thrall.
2 Haue mercy Lord therfore on me,
And graunt me this requeste:
For vnto thee vncessantly,
To cry I will not reste.
3 O mortall men how long will ye,
My glory thus despise?
Why wander ye in vanity,
And follow after lyes?
4 Know ye that good and godly men,
The Lord doth take and chuse:
And when to hym I make my plaint,
He doth me not refuse.
5 Sin not, but stand in awe therfore
Examine well your hart:
And in your chamber quietly,
See you your selues conuert.
6 Offer to God the sacrifice,
Of righteousnes I say:
And looke that in the lyuing Lord,
You put your truste alway.
7 The greater sort craue worldly goods,
And riches do embrace:
But Lord graunt vs thy countenance,
Thy fauour and thy grace.
8 For thou therby shalt make my hart,
More ioyfull and more glad:
Then they that of their corne and wine
Full great encrease haue had.
9 In peace therfore lye downe will I
Taking my rest and sleepe:
For thou onely wilt me (O Lord)
Alone in safety keepe.

PSALME V. T. S.

Verba mea auribus percipe.

¶ Dauid hauing suffred great calamity, as well by Doeg and Achitophel Saules flatterers, as by other infinite enemyes, calleth to god for succor, shewing how requisit it is that God should punish the malicious enuie of his aduersaries. After being assured of prosperous successe, he conceiueth comfort, concluding that when God shal deliuer him, others also shalbe partakers of the same mercies.

¶ Sing this as the iii. Psalme.

INcline thine eares vnto my wordes,
O Lord, my plaint consider.
2 And heare my voyce my kyng my God,
To thee I make my prayer.
3 Heare me betyme (Lord) tary not,
For I will haue respect:
My prayer early in the morne,
To thee for to direct.
4 And I will truste through patience,
In thee my God alone:
That art not pleased with wickednesse,
And ill with thee dwelth none.
5 And in thy sight shall neuer stand,
These furious fooles (O Lord)
Vayne workers of iniquity,
Thou hast alwayes abhord.
6 The lyers and the flatterers.
Thou shalt destroy them then:
And God will hate the bloud thrysty,
And the deceytfull man.
7 Therfore will I come to thy house,
Trustyng vpon thy grace:
And reuerently will worship thee,
Toward thy holy place.
8 Lord lead me in thy rightuousnes,
For to confound my foes:
And eke the way that I shall walke,
Before my face disclose.
9 For in theyr mouthes there is no truth,
Theyr heart is foule and vayne:
Their throte an open sepulchre,
Their tonges do glose and fayne.
10 Destroy theyr false conspiracies,
That they may come to naught:
Subuert them in their heapes of synne,
Which haue rebellion wraught.
11 But those that put theyr truste in thee,
Let them be glad alwayes:
And render thankes for thy defence,
And geue thy name the prayse.
12 For thou with fauour wilt increase,
The iuste and righteous styll,
And with thy grace as with a shield,
Defend hym from all ill.

PSALME VI. T. S.

Domine ne in furore.

¶ Whē Dauid by hys synnes had prouoked gods wrath, and now felte not onely his hād against hym, but also cōceiued the horror of death euerlasting: he desireth forgeueneſſe, bewaylyng that if God tooke hym away in hys indignatiō, he shoulde lacke occasiō to prayse hym as he was wont to do, whilst he was amongst mē. Then sodenly feelyng Gods mercye, he sharply rebuked his enemyes which reioyseth in his affliction.

¶ Sing this as the first Psalme.

LOrd in thy wrath reproue me not,
Though I deserue thyne ire:
Ne yet correct me in thy rage,
O Lord I thee desire:
2 For I am weake therfore (O Lord)
Of mercy me forbeare:

And heale me Lord, for why: thou knoweſt:
My bones do quake for feare.

3 My ſoule is troubled very ſore,
And vexed vehemently:
But Lord, how long wilt thou delay
To cure my miſery?
4 Lord turne thee to thy wonted grace,
My ſely ſoule vp take:
Oh ſaue me not for my deſertes,
But for thy mercyes ſake.

5 For why? no man among the dead,
Remembreth thee one whit:
Or who ſhall worthip thee (O Lord)
In the infernall pit?
6 So greuous is my plaint and mone,
That I waxe wonderous faint.
All the nyght long I waſhe my bed,
With teares of my complaint.

7 My ſight is dimme and waxeth olde,
With anguiſh of my hart,
For feare of thoſe that be my foes,
And would my ſoule ſubuert.
2 But now away from me all ye,
That worke iniquitie:
For why? the Lord hath heard the voyce
Of my complaint and cry.

9 He heard onely the requeſt,
And prayer of my hart:
But it receyued at my hand,
And tooke it in good part:
And now my foes that vexed me,
The Lord will ſoone defame:
And ſodenly confounde them all,
To their rebuke and ſhame.

PSALME VII. T. S.

Domine Deus meus in te.

¶ Beyng falſely accuſed by Chus, one of Saules kinſmen, he calleth to God to be his defender, to whom he cõmendeth his innocency: Firſt ſhewing, that his cõſcience did not accuſe him of any euill towardes Saule. Nexte that it touched Gods glory to awarde ſentẽce againſt the wicked. And ſo entring in to the conſideration of Gods mercyes and promiſe, he waxeth bolde, and derideth the vaine entrepriſes of his enemies, threatnyng that it ſhall fall on theyr owne neckes, that whiche they haue purpoſed for others.

¶ Sing this as the third Pſalme.

O Lord my God, I put my truſt,
And confidence in thee:
Saue me from them that me purſue,
And eke deliuer me.
2 Leaſt like a Lion he me teare,
And rent in peeces ſmall:
Whilſt there is none to ſuccor me,
And rid me out of thrall.

3 O Lord my God if I haue done,
The thing that is not ryght:
Or els if I be founde in fault,
Or gilty in thy ſight:
4 Or to me frende rewarded euill,
Or left hym in dyſtreſſe:
Which me purſued moſt cruelly,
And hated me cauſeleſſe:

5 Then let my foes purſue my ſoule,
And eke my lyfe downe thruſt:
Vnto the earth, and alſo lay,
Myne honor in the duſt.
6 Start vp (O Lord) now in thy wrath,
And put my foes to payne.
Performe thy kyngdome promiſed,
To me which wrong ſuſteyne.

7 Then ſhall great nations come to thee,
And know thee by this thyng:
If thou declare for loue of them,
Thy ſelfe as Lord and king.
8 And thou that art of all men iudge,
O Lord now iudge thou me,
Accordyng to my ryghtuouſneſſe:
And myne integritie.

9 Lord ceaſe the hate of wicked men,
And be the iuſt mans guide:
10 By whom the ſecretes of all heartes,
Are ſearched and deſcride.
11 I take my helpe to come of God,
In all my griefe and ſmart:
That doth preſerue all thoſe that be,
Of pure and perfect hart.

12 The iuſt man and the wicked both,
God iudgeth by his power:
So that he feeles his mighty hand,
Euen euery day and houre.
13 Except he chaunge hys mynde, I dye,
For euen as he ſhould ſmite:
He whets his ſword, his bow he bends
Aymyng where he may hit.

14 And doth prepare his mortall dartes
His arrowes kene and ſharpe:
For them that do me perſecute,
Whylſt he doth meſchief warpe
15 But loe, though he in trauel be,
Of his diuelliſh forecaſt,
And of his miſchief once conceyued,
Yet bringes forth nought at laſt.

16 He digs a ditch and delues it depe,
In hope to hurt his brother:
But he ſhall into the pyt,
That he digd vp for other.
17 Thus wrong returneth to the hurt,

Of

Of hym in whom it bred:
And all the mischief that he wrought,
Shall fall vpon his hed.

18 I will geue thankes to God therfore,
That iudgeth ryghtuously:
And with my song prayse will the name
Of hym that is most hye.

PSALME VIII. T. S.

Domine Deus noster.

¶The Prophet considering the excellent liberalitie, and fatherly prouidence of God towardes man, whom he madeas it were, a God ouer all his workes, doth not onely geue greate thakes, but is astonished with the admiracion of the same, as one, nothing able to compasse such great mercyes, and so endeth.

¶Sing this as the iii. Psalme.

O God our Lord how wonderfull,
Are thy workes euery where:
Whose fame surmounts in dignitie,
Aboue the heauens cleare?
2 Euen by the mouthes of sucking babes
Thou wylt confounde thy foes:
For in these babes thy might is sene,
Thy graces they disclose.

5 And when I see the heauens hye,
The workes of thyne owne hand:
The Sunne, the Moone and all the starres,
In order as they stand:
4 What thing is man (Lord) thinke I then,
That thou doost him remember?
Or what is mans posteritie,
That thou doost it consider?

5 For thou hast made hym litle lesse,
Then angels in degree:
And thou hast crowned him also,
With glory and dignitie.
6 Thou hast preferd him to be Lord,
Of all thy workes of wonder:
And at his feete hast set all things,
That he should kepe them vnder.

7 As sheepe and neate and al beastes els,
That in the fieldes do feede:
8 Foules of the ayre, fish in the sea,
And all that therin breede
9 Therfore must I say once agayn,
O God that art our Lord:
How famous and how wonderfull,
Are thy workes through the world?

PSALME IX. T. S.

Confitebor tibi Domine.

¶After he had giuen thākes to God, for the sundry victoryes that he had sente hym against his enemies, and also proued by manifolde experience how ready God was at hand in all his troubles, he being now likewise in daunger of new enemies, desireth God to help him, according to his wont, and destroy the malicious arrogancy of hys aduersaires.

¶Sing this as the iii. Psalme.

WIth hart and mouth, vnto the Lord,
Will I sing laud and prayse:
And speake of all thy woūdro⁹ workes
And them declare alwayes.
2 I will be glad and much reioyce,
In thee (O God) most hye:
And make my songs extoll thy name
Aboue the starry skye.

3 For that my foes are driuen backe,
And turned vnto flight:
They fall downe flat, and are destroyde,
By thy great force and myght.
4 Thou hast reuenged all my wrong,
My grief and all my grudge:
Thou doest with iustice heare my cause,
Most lyke a ryghteous iudge.

4 Thou doest rebuke the Heathen folke,
And wicked so confounde:
That afterward the memory,
Of them cannot be founde.

6 My foe, thou hast made good dispatch,
And all our townes destroyd:
Thou hast theyr fame with them defaste,
Through all the world so wide.

7 Know thou that he which is aboue,
For euermore shall reygne:
And in the seat of equytie,
True iudgement will maintayne.
8 With iustice he wil keepe and guyde,
The world and euery wyght:
And so will yelde with equytie,
To euery man his ryght.

2 He is protector of the poore,
What tyme they be oppresst:
He is in all aduersitye,
Theyr refuge and theyr rest.
10 And they that know thy holy name,
Therfore shall trust in thee,
For thou forsakest not theyr sute,
In theyr necessyty.

11 Synge Pſalmes therfore vnto the Lorde
That dwels in Sion hyll:
Publiſh amonge all nations,
Hys noble actes and wyll.
12 For he his mindful of the bloud,
Of thoſe that be oppreſt:
Forgettyng not the afflicted hart,
That ſeekes to hym for reſt,

13 Haue mercy(Lord)on me poore wretch
Whoſe enmyes ſtyl remayne:
Which from the gates of death are wont
To rayſe me vp agayne.
14 In Sion that I myght ſet foorth,
Thy prayſe with hart and voyce:
And that in thy ſaluation(Lord)
My ſoule myght ſtyll reioyce.

15 The Heathen ſtycke faſt in the pyt,
That they them ſelues preparde,
And in the net that they dyd ſet,
Theyr owne feete faſt are ſnared.

16 God ſhews his iudgemẽts which were good,
For euery man to marke:
When as ye ſee thee wicked man,
Ly trapt in hys owne warke.

17 The wicked and the ſynfull men,
Go downe to hell for euer:
And all the people of the world,
That will not God remember.
18 But ſure the Lord wyll not forget
The poore mans griefe and paine:
The pacient people neuer looke,
For helpe of God in vayne.

19 O Lord aryſe leaſt men preuayle,
That be of worldly might:
And let the Heathen folke receaue
Their iudgement in thy ſight.
20 Lord ſtrike ſuch terrour,feare and dread,
Into the hartes of them.
That they may know aſſuredly,
They be but mortall men.

PSALME X. T. S

Vt quid Domine receſsiſti.

¶ He complaineth of the fraud,rapine,tyranny,and all kynde of wrong, whych worldlye men vſe, aſſigning the cauſe therof, which was, that wicked men beyng as it were dronken with worldly proſperity, and therefore ſetting appart all feare and reuerence towards God,thinke they may do all things without controuling.Therfore he calleth vpon God to ſende ſome remedy againſt theſe diſperate euyls. And at length he comforteth hym ſelfe wyth helpe of deliueraunce.

¶Sing this as the third Pſalme.

WHat is the cauſe that thou(O Lord)
Art now ſo far from thyne?
And kepeſt cloſe thy countenaunce,
From vs this troublous time?
2 The poore doth periſh by the proud,
And wicked mens deſire:
Let them be taken in the craft,
That they them ſelues conſpire.

3 For in the luſtes of his own hart,
The vngodly doth delight:
So doth the wicked prayſe him ſelfe,
And doth the Lord deſpite.
4 He is ſo proud that right and wrong,
He ſetteth all apart:
Nay,nay,there is no God ſayth he,
For thus he thinkes in hart.

5 Bycauſe his wayes do proſper ſtyll,
He doth thy lawes neglect:
And with a blaſt doth puffe againſt,
Such as would hym correct.
6 Tuſh, tuſh(ſayth he)I haue no dread
Leaſt myne eſtate ſhould chaunge:
And why?for all aduerſity,
To him is very ſtraunge.

7 His mouth is ful of curſednes,
Of fraud,deceit,and guile:
Vnder his tong doth miſchiefe ſyt,
And trauel all the whyle.
8 He lyeth hyd in wayes and holes,
To ſlay the innocent:
Againſt the poore that paſſe hym by,
His cruel eyes are bent.

9 And lyke a Lion priuely,
Lyeth lurking in his den:
If he may ſnare them in his net,
To ſpoyle poore ſimple men.
10 And for the nonce full craftely,
He crucheth downe I ſay:
So are great heapes of poore men made
By his ſtrong power his pray.

11 Tuſh,God forgetteth this (ſayth he)
Therefore may I be bold:
His countenaunce is caſt aſyde,
He doth it not behold.
12 Ariſe(O Lord) O God,in whom
The poore mans hope doth reſt:
Lift vp thyne hand,forget not Lord,
The poore that be oppreſt.

13 What blaſphemy is this to thee?
Lord dooſt thou not abhorre it?
To heare the wicked in theyr hartes,
Say,tuſh thou careſt not for it?
14 But thou ſeeſt all this wickednes,
And well dooſt vnderſtand:

That

That frendles and poore fatherles,
Are left into thy hand.

15 Of wicked and malicious men,
Then breake the powre for euer:
That they with their iniquity,
May perish altogether.
16 The Lord shall raygne for euermore
As king and God alone:
And he wyl chase the Heathen folke,
Out of his land eech one.

17 Thou hearest (O Lord) the poore mās plaint.
Their prayers and request:
Theyr harts thou wylt confirme, vntil
Thyne eares to heare be prest,
18 To iudge the poore and fatherles.
And helpe them to theyr right:
That they may be no more opprest,
With men of worldly might.

PSALME XI. T. S.

In Domino confido.

¶ This Psalme containeth two partes. In the first Dauid sheweth how hard assaultes of temptacions he susteined, and in how great anguish of mynde he was, when Saul dyd persecute hym. Then next he reioyseth, that God sent hym succour in his necessity, declaring his iustice, aswel in gouerning the good and the wycked men, as the whole world.

¶ Sing this as the thrid Psalme.

IN Truste in God, how dare ye then,
Say thus my soule vntyll:
Flee hence as fast as any foule,
And hyde you in your hyll?
2 Behold the wicked bend theyr bowes,
And make their arowes prest:
To shoote in secrete, and to hurt
The sound and harmles brest.

3 Of worldly hope all stayes were shrunke
And clearely brought to nought:
Alas the iust and righteous man,
What euyl hath he wrought?
4 But he that in his temple is.
Most holy and most hye:
And in the heauen hath his seate,
Of royal maiesty:

5 The poore and simple mans estate,
Considereth in his mynde:
And searcheth out full narowly,
The maners of mankinde.
6 And wyth a cherefull countenance,
The righteous man will vse:
But in his hart he doth abhorre,
All such as mischiefe muse.

7 And on the synners casteth snares,
As thicke as any rayne:
Fire and brimstone, and whirlewindes thicke,
Appointed for theyr payne.
8 Ye see then how a righteous God,
Doth righteousnes embrace:
And to the iust and vpright man,
Sheweth forth his pleasant face.

PSALME XII. T. S.

Saluum me fac Domine.

¶ The Prophet learning the miserable estate of the people, and the decay of all good order desireth God spedely to send succour to his children. Then comforting hym selfe and others with the assurance of Gods helpe, he commendeth the constant veritie that God obserueth in keeping hys promyses, concluding that when all orders are most corrupted, then wyll God deliuer his.

¶ Sing this as the third Psalme.

HElpe Lord, for good and godly men,
Do perish and decay:
And fayth and trueth fro worldly mē,
Is parted cleane away.
2 Who so doth with his neighbour talke,
His talke is all but vayne:
For euery man bethinketh how,
To flatter, lye, and fayne.

3 But flattring and deceitful lyps,
And tonges that be so stout:
To speake proud words and make great brags
The Lord soone cut them out.
4 For they say styl we wyl preuayle,
Our tounges shal vs extolle:
Our tounges are ours, we ought to speake,
What Lord shal vs controlle?

5 But for the great complaint and cry,
Of poore and men oppreste:
Arise wyl I now (sayth the Lord)
And them restore to rest.
6 Gods woord is like to syluer pure,
That from the earth is tride:
And hath no lesse then seuen tymes,
In fire bene purified.

7 Now since thy promise is to helpe,
Lord keepe thy promise then:
And saue vs now and euermore,
From this yl kinde of men.

8 For now the wicked world is ful,
Of mischiefes manifold:
When vanity with mortal men,
So highly is extold.

PSALME XIII. T. S.

Vsquequo Domine.

¶ David (as it were) ouercomen wyth sundrye and newe afflictions, fleeth to God as hys onely refuge, and so at the length being encouraged through Gods promyses, he conceiueth most sure confidence agaynst the extreme horrores of death.

Sing this as the third Psalme.

HOw long wilt thou forget me Lord,
Shal I neuer be remembred?
How long wylt thou thy visage hide,
As though thou were offended?

2 In hart and minde how long shal I,
With care tormented be?
How long eke shall my deadly foe,
Thus triumph ouer mee?

3 Behold me now (my Lord my God)
And heare me sore oppresst:
Lighten mine eyes, least that I sleepe,
As one by death possest.

4 Least thus myne enmy say to me,
Behold I do preuayle:
Least they also that hate my soule,
Reioyce to see me quayle,

5 But for thy mercies and goodnes,
My hope shal neuer start:
In thy relieue and sauing health,
Right glad shalbe my hart.

6 I wyl geue thankes vnto the Lord,
And prayses to him sing
Because he hath heard my request,
And graunted my wishing.

PSALME XIIII. T. S.

Dixit insipiens in corde.

¶ He describeth the peruerse nature of menne whyche were so growne to lycentiousnes, that God was brought to vtter contempt: for the which thing although he was greatlye greued, yet being persuaded that God wold send some present remedye, he comforteth hym selfe and others.

3 They went all wyde, and were corrupt,
And truly there was none:
That in the world dyd any good,
I say there was not one.

4 Is all their iudgement so far lost,
That al woorke mischiefe styll:
Eating my people euen as bread,
Not one to seeke Gods wyll?

5 When they thus rage, then sodenly
Great feare on them shall fall:
For God doth loue the righteous men,
And wyl mayntayn them all.

6 Ye mocke the doinges of the poore,
To their reproch and shame:
Because they put their trust in God,
And cal vpon his name:

7 But who shall geue thy people health,
And when wylt thou fulfil.
The promise made to Israel,
From out of Sion hil?

8 Euen when thou shalt restore agayne,
Such as were captiues lad:
Then Iacob shall therin reioyce,
And Israel shall be glad.

PSALME XV. T. S.

Domine quis.

¶ This Psalme teacheth on what condition God did chuse the Iewes for his peculiar people, and wherefore he

he placed his name amonge them, which was, to the intent that they by lyuing vprightlye and godlye, myght wytnes that they were hys special and holy people.

¶ Sing this as the xiiii. Pſalme.

O Lord with in thy tabernacle,
Who ſhal inhabite ſtyll?
Or whome wylt thou receyue to dwel,
In thy moſt holy hyll?
2 The man whoſe lyfe is vncorrupt.
Whoſe workes are inſt and ſtraite
Whoſe hart doth thinke the very truth,
Whoſe toung ſpeakes no diſceit.

3 Nor to his neyghbour doth none yll,
In body, goods, or name:
Nor wyllingly doth moue falſe tales,
Which might empeire the ſame:
4 That in his hart regardeth not,
Malicious wicked men.
But thoſe that loue and feare the Lord,
He maketh much of them.

5 His othe and all his promyſes,
That keepeth faythfully:
Although he make his couenant ſo,
That he doth looſe therby.
6 That putteth not to vſury,
His money and his coyne:
Ne for to hurt the innocent,
Doth bribe or els purloyne.

7 Who ſo doth all thinges as ye ſee,
That here is to be done:
Shal neuer periſh in this world,
Nor in the world to come.

PSALME XVI. T. S.

Conſerua me.

¶ Dauid prayeth to God for ſuccour not for hys workes, but for his faythes ſake, proteſting that he hateth all idolatrye, taking God onely for his comfort and felicity: who ſuffereth hys to lacke nothing.

¶ Sing this as the xiiii. Pſalme.

LOrd keepe me, for I truſt in thee:
And doo confeſſe in deede.
Thou art my God, and of my good,
O Lord thou haſt no neede.
2 I geue my goodnes to thy ſaintes,
That in the world do dwell:
And namely to the faythfull floke
In vertue that excell.

3 They ſhal heape ſorowes on theyr heads
Which run as they were mad:
To offer to the Idol Gods,
Alas it is to bad.
4 As for their bloudy ſacrifice,
And offringes of that ſorte:
I wil not touch, nor yet therof
My lyps ſhall make reporte.

5 For why? the Lord the porcion is,
Of mine inheritaunce:
And thou art he that dooſt maintaine,
My rent, my lot, my chaunce.
6 The place wherin my lot did fall,
In beauty did excell.
Myne heritage aſsignde to me,
Doth pleaſe me wondrous well.

7 I thanke the Lord that cauſed me,
To vnderſtand the right:
For by his meanes my ſecrete thoughts,
Doo teache me euery night.
8 I ſet the Lord ſtyll in my ſight,
And truſt him ouer all:
For he doth ſtand on my right hand,
Therfore I ſhall not fall.

9 Wherefore my hart and tong alſo,
Doth both reioyce together:
My fleſh and body reſt in hope,
When I this thing conſider:
10 Thou wylt not leaue my ſoule in graue,
For Lord thou loueſt mee:
Nor yet wylt geue thyne holy one,
Corruption for to ſee.

11 But wylt teach me the way to lyfe,
For all treaſures and ſtore:
Of perfect ioy are in thy face,
And power for euermore.

PSALME XVII. T. S.

Exaudi Domine iuſtitiam.

¶ Here he complaineth to God of the cruell pride and arrogancy of Saul and the reſt of his enemyes, who thus raged without any cauſe giuen on his part. Therfore he deſireth God to reuenge his innocency, and deliuer him. This Pſalme ought diligentlye to be noted of ſuch as receiue euyl for well doing.

¶Sing this as the the xiiii.Pſalme.

O Lord geue eare to my iuſt cauſe,
Atten I when I complayne:
And heare the prayers that I put foorth,
With lyps that do not fayne.
2 And let the iudgement of my cauſe,
Procede alwayes from thee:
And let thyne eyes behold and cleare,
This my ſimplicitie.

3 Thou haſt wel tride me in the night,
And yet couldeſt nothing finde:
That I haue ſpoken with my tong,
That was not in my mynde.
4 As from the workes of wicked men,
And pathes peruerſe and yll:
For loue of thy moſt holy woorde,
I haue refrayned ſtyll.

5 Then in thy pathes that be moſt pure,
Stay me(Lord)and preſerue:
That from the way wherin I walke,
My ſteps maye neuer ſwarue.
6 For I doo call to the(O Lord)
Suerly thou wylt me ayde:
Then heare my prayer,and wey right well,
The woordes that I haue ſayde.

7 O thou the Sauiour of all them,
That put their truſt in thee:
Declare thy ſtrength on them that ſpurne,
Agaynſt thy maieſty.
8 O keepe me Lord as thou woulſt kepe
The apple of thyne eye:
And vnder couert of thy wynges,
Defend me ſecretly.

¶The ſecond part.
9 From wycked men that trouble me,
And dayly me anoy:
And from my foes that go about,
My ſoule for to deſtroy:
10 Which wallow in theyr worldly wealthe
So full and eke ſo fat:
That in theyr pryde they do not ſpare,
To ſpeake they care not what.

11 They lye in wayte where we ſhould paſſe,
With craft me to confound:
And muſing miſchiefe in their myndes,
To caſt me to the ground.
12 Much lyke a Lyon greedely,
That would his pray embrace,
Or lurking lyke a Lyons whelpe,
Within ſome ſecrete place.

13 Vp Lord with haſt preuent my foe,
And caſt hym at thy feete:
Saue thou my ſoule from the yll man,
And with thy ſword hym ſmyte.
14 Deliuer me Lord by thy power,
Out of theſe tyrants handes:
Which now ſo long tyme raygned haue,
And kept vs in theyr bandes.

15 I meane from worldly men,to whom
All worldly goods are ryfe:
That haue no hope or part of ioy,
But in this preſent lyfe.
16 Thou of thy ſtore their bellies filſt,
With pleaſures to their mynde:
Theyr children haue inough,and leaue
To theyrs the reſt behinde.

17 But I ſhall with pure conſcience,
Behold thy gracious face:
So when I wake I ſhalbe full,
With thyne Image and grace.

PSALME XVIII. T. S.

Diligam te Domine.

¶ This Pſalme is the firſt begynnyng of Dauids ſalutatiõs and thankes geuing on the entring into his kingdome, wherin he extolleth and prayſeth moſt highly the marueilous mercyes and graces of God, who hath both preſerued and defendeth hym. he ſetteth forth the image of Chriſtes kingdome, paynted in his kingdome: that the faithfull may be aſſured, that Chriſt ſhal alwayes enquire and ouercome by the vnſpeakeable power of his father, thoughe all the whole world ſay there agaynſt.

all my health.

3 When I ſing laud vnto the Lord,
Moſt worthy to be ſerued:
Then from my foes I am right ſure,
That I ſhalbe preſerued.
4 The panges of death did compas me,
And bound me euery where:
The flowing waues of wickednes,
Did put me in great feare.

5 The ſlie and ſuttle ſnares of hell,
Were round about me ſet:
And for my death there was preparde,
A deadly trapping net.
6 I thus beſet with payne and griefe,
Did pray to God for grace:
And he forthwith did heare my plaint,
Out of his holy place.

7 Such is his power, that in his wrath
He made the earth to quake:
Yea the foundacion of the mount
Of Raſan for to ſhake.
8 And from his noſtels came a ſmoke,
When kindled was his ire:
And from his mouth came kyndled coales
Of hot conſuming fire.

9 The Lord deſcended from aboue,
And bound the heauens hye:
And vnderneath his feete he caſt,
The darkenes of the ſkye.
10 On Cherub, and on Cherubins,
Full royally he rode:
And on the winges of all the wyndes,
Cam flying all abrode.

¶ The ſecond part.

11 And like a den moſt darke he made
His den and ſecret place:
With waters blacke, and ayry cloudes,
Enuironed he was:
12 But when the preſence of his face,
In brightnes ſhall appeare:
Then cloudes conſume, and in their ſtede,
Come hayles and coales of fire.

13 The ſe fyry dartes and thunderboltes,
Diſperſe them here and there:
And with his often lyghteinges,
He puts them in great feare:
14 Lord at thy wrath and threatenings,
And at thy chiding cheare:
The ſprings and the foundacions,
Of all the world appeare.

15 And from aboue the Lord ſent downe
To fetche me from below:
And pluckt me out of waters great,
That would me ouerflow.
16 And me deliuerd from my foes,
That would haue made me thrall:
Yea from ſuch foes as were to ſtrong,
For me to deale with all.

17 They did preuent me to oppreſſe,
In tyme of my great griefe:
But yet the Lord was my defence,
My ſuccor and reliefe.
18 He brought me foorth in open place,
Where as I might be free:
And kepte me ſafe, bycauſe he had
A fauour vnto me.

19 And as I was an innocent,
So did he me regarde:
And to the cleannes of my handes,
He gaue me my reward.
20 For that I walked in his wayes,
And in his pathes haue trod:
And haue not wauered wickedly,
Againſt my Lord my God.

¶ The third part.

21 But euermore I haue reſpect,
To his law and decree:
His ſtatutes and commaundementes,
I caſt not out fro mee.
22 But pure, and cleane, and vncorrupt,
Appearde afore his face:
And did refraine from wickednes,
And ſinne in any caſe.

23 The Lord therfore will me rewarde,
As I haue done aright.
And to the cleannes of my handes,
Appearing in his ſight.
24 For Lord, with him that holy is,
Wilt thou be holy to:
And with the good and vertuous men,
Right vertuouſly wilt do.

25 And to the louyng and elect,
Thy loue thou wylt reſerue:
And thou wylt vſe the wicked men,
As wicked men deſerue.
26 For thou dooſt ſaue the ſimple folke,
In trouble when they lye:
And dooſt bryng downe the countenance
Of them that looke full hye.

27 The Lord will lyght my candle ſo,
That it ſhall ſhine full bright:
The Lord my God wyll make alſo,
My darknes to be lyght
28 For by thy helpe an hoſt of men,
Diſcomfit (Lord) I ſhall:
By thee I ſcale and ouerleape,
The ſtrength of any wall.

29 Vnſpotted are the wayes of God,
His word is purely tride:
He his a ſure defenſe to ſuch,
As in his fayth abyde.

30 For who is God? except the Lord,
For other there is none:
Or els who is omnipotent,
Sauyng our God alone?

¶ The fourth part

31 The God that girdeth me with ſtrength,
Is he that I did meane:
That all the wayes wherin I walked,
Did euermore keepe cleane.
32 That made my feete lyke to the Harts
In ſwiftnes of my pace,
And for my ſurety brought me foorth,
Into an open place.

33 He did in order put my handes
To battaile and to fight:
To breake in ſunder bars of braſſe,
He gaue myne armes the might.
34 Thou reacheſt me my ſauing health,
Thy right hand is my tower:
Thy loue and familiarity,
Doth ſtill increaſe my power.

35 And vnder me thou makeſt playne,
The way where I ſhould walke
So that my feete ſhall neuer ſlyp,
Nor ſtumble at a balke.
36 And fiercely I purſue and take
My foes that me annoyde:
And from the field do not returne,
Till they be all deſtroyde.

37 So I ſuppres and wounde my foes,
That they can ryſe no more:
For at my feete they fall downe flat,
I ſtrike them all ſo ſore.
38 For thou dooſt gird me with thy ſtrength,
To war in ſuch a wyſe:
That they be all ſcattred abrode,
That vp againſt me ryſe:

39 Lord thou haſt put into my handes,
My mortall enmyes yoke:
And all my foes thou dooſt deuide,
In ſunder with thy ſtroke.

40 They cald for helpe, but none gaue eare,
Nor helpt them in reliefe:
Yea to the Lord they cald for helpe,
Yet heard he not their griefe.

¶ The fift part

41 And ſtill like duſt before the wynde,
I driue them vnder feete:
And ſweepe them out like filthy clay,
That ſticketh in the ſtreete.
42 Thou keepeſt me from ſedicious folke,
That ſtill in ſtryfe be led:
And thou dooſt of the Heathen folke,
Appoint me to be head.

43 A people ſtraunge to me vnknowen,
And yet they ſhall me ſerue:
And at the firſt obey my word,
Where as myne own will ſwarue.
44 I ſhalbe irkſome to mine own,
They will not ſee my light:
But wander wyde out of their wayes,
And hide them out of ſight.

45 But bleſſed be the lyuing Lord,
Moſt worthy of all prayſe:
That is my rocke and ſauyng health,
Prayſed be he alwayes.
46 For God it is that gaue me power,
Reuenged for to be:
And with his holy word ſubdude,
The people vnto me.

47 And from my foe me deliuered,
And ſet me hyer then thoſe
That cruell and vngodly were,
And vp againſt me roſe.
48 And for this cauſe, O Lord my God,
To thee geue thankes I ſhall:
And ſing out prayſes to thy name,
Among the Gentiles all.

49 That gaueſt great proſperity,
Vnto the kyng I ſay:
To Dauid thyne annointed king,
And to his ſeede for aye.

PSALME XIX. T. S.

Cæli enarrant gloriam.

¶ To the intent he might moue the faithfull to a deper conſideration of Gods glory, he ſetteth before theyr eyes the moſte exquiſite worke manſhip of the heauens, with their proporcion and ornamentes. And afterward calleth them to the law wherein God hath reueled him ſelfe more familiarly to his choſen people. The whyche peculiar grace by commēding the law, he ſetteth forth more at large, and in the end he concludeth with a prayer.

¶ Sing this as the xliii. Pſalme.

THe heauens and the firmament,
Do wonderouſly declare:
The glory of God omnipotent.
His workes and what they are.
2 The wondrous workes of God appeare
By euery dayes ſucceſſe:
The nightes which likewiſe their race run,
The ſelfe ſame thing expreſſe.

3 There is no language tong or ſpeche,
Where their ſound is not heard:
In all the earth and coaſtes therof,

Their

Their knowledge is conferd,
4 In them the Lord made for the sunne
A place of great renome:
Who like a bridegrome ready trimde,
Doth from his chamber come.

5 And as a valiant champion,
Who for to get a prise:
With ioy doth hast to take in hand,
Some noble enterprise.
6 And all the sky from end to end,
He compasseth about:
Nothyng can hide it from his heate,
But he wyll finde it out.

7 How perfect is the law of God,
How is his couenant sure.
Conuerting soules, and makyng wise,
The simple and obscure.
8 Iust are the Lordes commaundements
And glad both hart and mynde:
His preceptes pure and geueth light,
To eyes that be full blynde.

9 The feare of God is excellent,
And doth endure for euer:
The iudgements of the Lord are true,
And ryghteous altogether,
10 And more to be embraced alwayes,
Then fined gold I saye:
The hony and the hony combe,
Are not so sweete as they.

11 By them thy seruant is forewarnde.
To haue God in regarde:
And in performance of the same,
There shalbe great rewarde.
12 But Lord what earthly man doth know
The errors of this lyfe?
Then clense my soule from secrete synnes,
Which are in me most ryfe.

13 And keepe me that presumptuous sins,
Preuayle not ouer me:
And then shall I be innocent,
And great offences flee,
14 Accept my mouth and eke my hart,
My wordes and thoughtes echone:
For my redeemer and my strength,
O Lord thou art alone.

PSALME XX. T. S.

Exaudiet te Dominus.

¶ A prayer of the people vnto God, that it wold please him to heare their king, and receyue his sacrifice, which he offred before he went to battell against the Ammonites, declaryng how that the Heathen put their truste in horses and charietes, but they truste onely in the name of the Lord their God. Wherefore the other shall fall, but the Lorde will saue the king and his people.

¶ Sing this as the.xiii Psalme.

IN trouble and aduersity,
The Lord God heare thee still:
The maiesty of Iacobs God,
Defend thee from all yll.
2 And send thee from his holy place,
His helpe at euery neede,
And so in Sion stablishe thee,
And make thee stroug in deede.

3 Remembring well the sacrifice,
That now to him is done,
And so receyue right thankefully,
Thy burnt offringes echone,
4 Accordyng to thy hartes desire,
The Lord graunt vnto thee,
And all thy counsell and deuise,
Full well performe may hee.

5 We shall reioyce when thou vs saueste,
And our banners display
Vnto the Lord, which thy requestes,
Fulfilled hath alway.
6 The Lord will his annointed saue,
I know well by his grace,
And send him health by his right hand,
Out of his holy place.

7 In charrets some put confidence,
And some in horses truste,
But we remember God our Lord,
That keepeth promise iuste.
They fall down flat, but we do rise,
And stand vp stedfastly,
8 Now saue and helpe vs, Lord and king,
On thee when we do cry.

PSALME XXI. T. S.

Domine in virtute tua.

¶ Dauid in the person of the people prayseth God for the victory which he gaue them against the Sirians and Ammonites. 1. Samuel xxi. Wherin he had the riche crown of the king of Ammon set vpon his head. ii Samuel xii. and was indued with the manifolde blessings of God, and contrariwise his enemies destroyed.

Lord how ioyfull is the king in thy strēgth, and thy power, How vehement-ly doth he reioyce, in thee his ſauior. For thou haſt geuen vnto hym, hys godly harts deſire, to him nothing haſt thou denide, of that he did require.

3 Thou didſt preuent him with thy giftes
And bleſsings manifold:
And thou haſt ſet vpon his head,
A crowne of perfect gold.
4 And when he aſked lyfe of thee,
Therof thou madeſt hym ſure:
To haue long lyfe, yea ſuch a life,
As euer ſhould endure.

5 Great is his glory by thy helpe,
Thy benefite and ayde:
Great worſhip and great honour both,
Thou haſt vpon him layde.
6 Thou wilt geue him felicity,
That neuer ſhall decay:
And with thy chearefull countenance,
Wilt comfort him alway.

7 For why? the kyng doth ſtrongly truſt,
In God for to preuayle:
Therfore his goodneſs and his grace
Will not that he ſhall quayle.
8 But let thyne enmies feele thy force,
And thoſe that thee withſtand:
Finde out thy foes, and let them feele,
The power of thy right hand.

9 And like an ouen burne them Lord,
In fiery flame and fume:
Thine anger ſhall deſtroy them all,
And fire ſhall them conſume.
10 And thou wylt roote out of the earth,
Their fruit that ſhould increaſe,
And from the number of thy folke,
Their ſeede ſhall end and ceaſe.

11 For why? much miſchiefe did they muſe,
Againſt thy holy name:
Yet dit they fayle, and had no power,
For to performe the ſame.
12 But as a marke thou ſhalt them ſet,
In a moſt open place:
And charge thy bowſtringes readyly,
Againſt thine enimies face.

13 Be thou exalted Lord therfore,
In thy ſtrength euery houre.
So ſhall we ſing right ſolemly,
Prayſing thy might and power.

PSALME XXII. T. S.

Deus Deus meus, ad te de luce.

¶ Dauid complayneth him ſelfe to be broght into ſuch extremities, that he is lyke a mã deſperate and paſt all hope, after declareth whereof, he recouereth him ſelf from the bottomleſſe pit of temptacions. And vnder hys owne perſon he ſetteth foorth the figure of Chriſt, whom he did foreſee in the ſpirit of prophecye. So thys pſalme after two ſortes doth declare that prophecy af Eſay: he was taken foorth of priſon and iuggement..

¶ Sing this as the xxi. Pſalme.

O God my God, wherfore dooſt thou,
Forſake me vtterly:
And helpeſt not when I doo make,
My great complaint and cry?
2 To thee my God euen all day long,
I do both cry and call:
I ceaſe not all the nighte, and yet
Thou heareſt not at all.

3 Euen thou that in thy ſanctuary,
And holy place dooſt dwell:
Thou art the comfort and the ioy,
And glory of Iſrael.
4 And he in whom our fathers old,
Had all their hope for euer:
And when they put their truſt in thee,
So didſt thou them deliuer.

5 They were deliuerd for euer, when,
They called on thy name:
And for the fayth they had in thee,
They were not put to ſhame.
6 But I am now become a worme,
More like then any man:
And outcaſt whom the people ſcorne,
With all the ſpight they can.

7 An me deſpiſe as they behold,
Me walking on the way:
They grin, they mow, they nod theyr heds,

And

And in this wyse they say,
8 This man did glory in the Lord,
His fauour and his loue:
Let in redeme and helpe in now,
His power if he wil proue.

9 But Lord out of my mothers wombe,
I came by thy requeſt:
Thou didſt preſerue me ſtill in hope,
Whyle I did ſucke her breſt,
10 I was committed from my birth,
With thee to haue abode:
Since I was in my mothers wombe.
Thou haſt bene euer my God.

¶ The ſecond part.

11 Then Lord depart not now from me,
In this my preſent griefe:
Since I haue none to be my helpe,
My ſuccour and reliefe,
12 So many Buls do compaſſe me,
That be full ſtrong of head:
Yea Buls ſo fat as though they had,
In Baſan fielde bene fed.

13 They gape vpon me gredely,
As though they would me ſlay:
Much lyke a Lion roring out,
And ramping for his pray.
14 But I droope downe like water ſhed,
My iointes in ſunder breake:
My hart doth in my body melt,
Like waxe againſt the heate.

15 And like a potſhard drieth my ſtrength,
My toung it cleaueth faſt
Vnto my iawes, and I am brought
To duſt of death at laſt.
16 And many dogs do compas me,
And wicked counſell eke:
Conſpire againſt me curſedly,
They pearce my handes and feete.

17 I was tormented, ſo that I Might all my bones haue told:
Yet ſtyll vpon me they do looke.
And ſtyll they me behold.
18 My garmentes they deuided eke,
In partes among them all:
And for my coate they did caſt lots
To whom it might befall.

19 Therfore I pray thee be not farre
From meat my great neede:
But rather ſith thou art my ſtrength,
To helpe me (Lord) make ſpeede,
20 And from the ſword (Lord) ſaue my ſoule
By thy myght and thy power:
And keepe my ſoule, thy darling deare,
From dogs that would deuour.

21 And from the Lions mouth that would Me all in ſunder ſhiuer:
And from the hornes of Vnicornes,
Lord ſafely me deliuer
22 And I ſhall to my brethren all,
Thy maieſty record:
And in thy church ſhall prayſe thy name
Of thee the liuing Lord.

¶ The third part.

23 All ye that feare him praiſe the Lord:
Thou ſeede of Iacob honor him.
And with all reuerence poſsible,
Thou ſeede of Iſrael worſhip him,
24 For he deſpiſeth not the poore,
He turneth not away
His countenance, when they do call,
But graunteth to their cry.

25 Among the flocke ſhal feare the Lord,
I wyll therfore proclayme
Thy prayſe, and keepe thy promiſe made,
For ſetting forth thy name.
26 The poore ſhall eate and be ſuffiſde,
And thoſe that do their deuer.
To know the Lord, ſhall prayſe his name:
Their hartes ſhall liue for euer.

27 All coaſtes of earth ſhall prayſe the Lord
And turne to him for grace.
The Heathen folke ſhall worſhip him,
Before his bleſſed face.
28 The kingdome of the Heathen folke,
The Lord ſhall haue therfore:
And he ſhalbe their gouernor,
And king for euermore.

29 The riche men of his godly gifts,
Shall feede and taſte alſo:
And in his preſence worſhip him,
And bow their knees full low,
30 And all that ſhall go down to duſt,
Of lyfe by him muſt taſte:
My ſeede ſhall ſerue and prayſe his name,
Whyle any world ſhal laſt.

31 My ſeede ſhall plainly ſhew to them
That ſhalbe borne hereafter
His iuſtice and his righteouſnes,
And all his workes of wonder.

PSALME XXIII. VV. VV.

Dominus regit me.

¶ Byeauſe the Prophet had proued the great mercies of God at diuers times, and in ſundry manners: he gathereth a certayne assurauncе, fully perswading him selfe that God will continue the verye same goodnes towardes him for euer.

¶Sing this as the. xiii. Psalme.

THe Lord is onely my support,
And he that doth me feede:
How can I then lacke any thing,
Wherof I stand in neede?
2 He doth me fold in coates most safe,
The tender grasse fast by:
And after driues me to the streames,
Which run most pleasantly.

3 And when I feele my selfe nere lost,
Then doth he me home take:
Conducting me in his right pathes,
Euen for his own names sake.
4 And though I were euen at deathes dore
Yet would I feare none yll:
For with thy rod and shepherds crooke
I am comforted stylll.

5 Thou hast my table richly deckt,
In despite of my foe:
Thou hast my head with baulme refresht,
My cup doth ouerflo.
6 And finally while breath doth last,
Thy grace shall me defend:
And in the house of God wyll I
My lyfe for euer spend.

¶An other by Thomas Sternhold.

MY shepherd is the liuing Lord,
Nothing therfore I neede:
In pastors fayre, with waters calme,
He set me for to feede,
2 He did conuert and glad my soule:
And brought my minde in frame:
To walke in pathes of righteousnes,
For his most holy name.

3 Yea though I walke in vale of death,
Yet wyll I feare none yll:
Thy rod, thy staffe, doth comfort me,
And thou art with me stylll,
4 And in the presence of my foes,
My table thou shalt spread:
Thou shalt (O Lord) fil full my cup,
And eke annoynt my head.

5 Through all my lyfe thy fauour is
So frankly shewed to me:
That in thy house for euermore,
My dwelling place shalbe.

PSALME XXIIII. I. H.

Domini est terra.

¶ Because the grace of God was then to be vttered in the temple, more glorious then before it had bene in the Tabernacle, Dauid geueth it a more glorious title, and with exclamacion setteth foorth the honor therof, stirring vs to the consideracion of the eternall mansions prepared for vs in the heauens, wherof this was a shadow and figure.

¶Sing this as the xxi. Psalme.

THe earth is all the Lords, with all
Her store and forniture:
Yea his is all the world, and all
That there in do indure.
2 For he hath fastly founded it,
Aboue the sea to stand:
And layd alow the liquid flouds,
To flow beneath the land.

3 For who is he (O Lord) that shall Ascend into thy hyll?
Or passe into thy holy place,
There to continue stylll?
4 Whose hands ar harmles, and whose hart
No spot there doth defile:
His soule not set on vanity,
Who hath not sworne no guile.

5 Him that is such a one, the Lord
Shall place in blissfull plight:
And God his God, and Sauiour
Shall yeld to him his right.

6 This is the brood of trauelers,
In seeking of his grace:
As Iacob did the Israelite,
In that time of his race.

7 Ye princes open your gates, stand open
The euerlasting gate:
For there shall enter in therby,
The king of glorious state.
8 What is the king of glorious state?
The strong and myghty Lord:
The mighty Lord in battails stout,
And triall of the sword.

9 Ye Princes open your gates, stand open
The euerlasting gate:
For there shall enter in therby,
The king of glorious state.
10 What is this thing of glorious state?
The Lord of hostes it is:
The kingdome of the royalte,
Of glorious state his is.

PSAL-

Ad te Domine leuaui.

¶ The Prophet touched with the consideracion of his sinnes, and also greued with the cruel malice of his enemies, prayeth to God most feruently to haue his sinnes forgeuen, especially such as he had cõmitted in his youth. He beginneth euery verse according to the Ebrue letters, ii. or. iii. except.

3 And let them not be ouerthrowen, that put their trust in thee.

But shame shall them befall,
Which harme them wrongfully:
4 Therfore thy pathes and thy right wayes,
Vnto me Lord descry.
5 Direct me in thy trueth,
And teach me I thee, pray:
Thou art my God and Sauiour,
On thee I wayte alway.

6 Thy mercies manifold,
I pray thee Lord remember:
And eke thy pity plentifull,
For they haue bene for euer.
7 Remember not the faultes,
And frailty of my youth,
Remember not how ignorant.
I haue bene of thy trouth.

Nor after my desertes,
Let me thy mercy finde:
But of thine own benignity,
Lord haue me in thy minde.
8 His mercy is full sweete,
His truth a perfect guide:
Therfore the Lord wyll synners teach,
And such as go a side.

9 The humble he wyll teach,
His preceptes for to keepe:
He will direct in all his wayes,
The lowly and the meeke.
10 For all the wayes of God,
Are trueth and mercy both:
To them that keepe his testament,
The witnes of his troth.

¶ The seconde part.

11 Now for thy holy name,
O Lord I thee intreate:
To graunt me pardon for my synne.
For it is wondrous great:
12 Who so doth feare the Lord,
The Lord doth him directe
To lead his life in such a way,
As he doth best accept.

13 His soule shall euermore,
In goodnes dwell and stand:
His seede and his posteritye.
Inherite shall the land.
14 All those that feare the Lord,
Know his secret intent:
And vnto them he doth declare,
His wyll and testament.

15 Myne eyes and eke my hart,
To him I wyll aduaunce:
That plucke my feete out of the snare,
Of sinne and ignorance.
16 Wyth mercy me beholde:¶
To thee I make my mone:
For I am poore and desolate,
And comfortles alone.

17 The troubles of mine hart,
Are multiplied in deede:
Bring me out of this misery,
Necessitie and neede.
18 Behold my pouerty,
Myne anguish and my payne:
Remit my synne and myne offence,
And make me cleane agayne.

19 O Lord behold my foes,
How they doo still increase:
Pursuing me with deadly hate,
That fayne would lyue in peace.
20 Preserue and keepe my soule,
And eke deliuer me:
And let me not be ouer throwne,
Because I trust in thee.

21 Let my simple purenes,
Me from myne enmies shend:
Because I looke as one of thine,
That thou wouldst me defend.
22 Deliuer Lord thy folke,
And send them some reliefe:
I meane thy chosen Israel,
From all their payne and griefe.

Iudica me Domine.

¶ Dauid oppressed with many iniuries, finding no helpe in the world, calleth for aide from God: and assured of his integritie towardes Saule, desireth God to be his iudge and to defend his innocecy, causeles afflicted. Finally he maketh mention of his sacrifice which he will offer for his deliuerance, and desireth to be in the company of the faithfull in the congregacion of God, whence he was banished by Saul, promising integritie of lyfe, and open prayses and thanke geuing.

¶ Sing this as the xviii. Psalme.

LOrd be my iudge, and thou shalt see
My pathes be right and plaine:
I trust in God, and hope that he
Will strength me to remaine.
2 Proue me my God, I thee desire,
My wayes to search and try:
As men do proue their gold with fire,
My raynes and hart espy.

3 Thy goodnes layd before my face,
I durst behold alwayes:
For of thy truth I treade the trace,
And will do all my dayes.
4 I do not lust to haunt or vse,
With men whose deedes are vayne:
To come in house I doo refuse,
With the deceitfull trayne.

5 I much abhorre the wicked sorte,
Their deedes I do despise:
I do not once to them resorte,
That hurtfull thinges deuise.
6 My handes I wash, and do procede
In woorkes that walke vpright:
Then to thy aultar I make speede,
To offer there in sight.

7 That I may speake and preach the prayse,
That doth belong to thee:
And so declare how wondrous wayes,
Thou hast bene good to mee.
8 O Lord thy house I loue most deere,
To me it doth excell:
I haue delight and would be neare,
Where as thy grace doth dwell.

9 Oh shut not vp my soule with them,
In synne that take their fyll:
Nor yet my lyfe among those men,
That seeke much bloud to spyl.
10 Whose hands ar heapt with craft and guile
Their life therof is full:
And their right hand with wrench and wyle
For bribes doth plucke and pull.

11 But I in rightuousnes entend,
My tyme and dayes to serue:
Haue mercy Lord, and me defend,
So that I do not swarue:
12 My foote is stayed for all assayes,
It standeth well and ryght:
Wherfore to God will I geue prayse,
In all the peoples sight.

PSALME XXVII. I. H.

Dominus illuminatio.

¶ Dauid maketh this Psalme, beyng deliuered from great perils, as appeareth by the prayses and thanke geuing annexed: wherin we may see the constant fayth of Dauid against the assaultes of all enemies, and also the end wherfore he desireth to liue and to be deliuered, onely to worship god in his congregation: Hereby he promised him self assurance, though father and mother forsake him, he teacheth this to be the onely way, to see the good thinges in the lande of the liuing, and after his example he exhorteth to fayth and to attend vppon the Lord.

¶ Sing this as the xviii. Psalme.

THe Lord is both my health and lyght,
Shall man make me dismayde:
Sith God doth geue me strength and might,
Why should I be afrayde?
2 Whyle that my foes with all their strength
Begyn with me to brawle:
And thinke, to eate me vp at length.
Them selues haue caught the fall.

3 Though they in camp against me lye,
My hart is not afrayde
In battell pight if they will trye
I trust in God for ayde.
4 One thing of God I do require,
That he will not denie:
For whiche I prays, and will desire,
Till he to me applye

5 That I within his holy place,
My life throughout may dwell:
To see the beauty of his face.
And vewe his temple well.
6 In tyme of dread he shall me hide,
Within his place most pure:
And keepe me secret by his side,
As on a rocke most sure.

7 At length I know the Lords good grace
Shal make me strong and stoute:

My

My foes to foyle and cleane deface,
That compas me about.
8 Therfore within his house will I
Geue sacrifice of prayse:
With Psalmes and songes I will apply,
To laude the Lord alwayes.

¶ The second part.

9 Lord heare the voyce of my request,
For which to thee I call:
Haue mercy (Lord) on me oppreſt,
And sende me helpe withall.
10 My hart doth knowledge vnto thee,
I sue to haue thy grace:
Then seeke my face, sayest thou to mee:
Lord I will seeke thy face.

11 In wrath turne not thy selfe away,
Nor suffer me to slide:
Thou art my helpe still to this day,
Be still my God and guide.
12 My parents both their sonne forsooke,
And cast me of at large:
And then the Lord him selfe yet tooke,
Of me the cure and charge.

13 Teach me O God the way to thee:
And leade me on foorth right:
For feare of such as watch for mee,
To trap me if they myght.
14 Do not betake me to the will,
Of them that be my foes:
For they surmise agaynst me still,
False witnes to depose.

15 My hart would faint, but that in me
This hope is fixed fast:
The Lord Gods good grace shall it see
In life that aye shal last.
16 Trust still in god, whose whole thou art
His will abyde thou must:
And he shall ease and strength thy hart,
If thou in him do trust.

PSALME XXVIII. T. S.

Ad te Domine clamabo.

¶ Beyng in greate feare and penſuenes to ſee God dishonored by the wicked men, he deſireth to be rid of thē, and cryeth for vengeaunce againſt thē and at length aſſureth him ſelfe, that God hath heard his prayer, vnto whoſe tuition he commendeth all the faythfull.

¶ Sing this as the xxi. Psalme.

THou art (O Lord) my strēgth and stay,
The succour which I craue:
Neglect me not, least I be lyke,
To them that go to graue.
2 The voyce of thy suppliant heare,
That vnto thee doth cry:
When I lift vp my handes vnto
Thy holy arke most hye.

3 Repute not me among the sort,
Of wicked and peruert,
That speake right faire vnto their frendes
And thinke full ill in hart.
4 According to their handy worke,
As they deserue in deede:
And after their inuentions
Let them receaue their meede:

5 For they regard not hyng Gods workes
Hys law ne yet his lore:
Therefore will he them and their seede,
Destroy for euermore.
6 To render thankes vnto the Lord,
How great a cause haue I:
My voyce, my prayer, and my complaint,
That heard so willingly?

7 He is my shield and fortitude,
My buckler in distresse:
My hope, my helpe, my hartes reliefe:
My song shall him confesse.
8 He is our strength and our defence,
Our enmyes to resist:
The health and the saluation,
Of his elect by Christ.

9 Thy people and thine heritage,
Lord blesse, guide, and preserue,
Increase them Lord and rule their hartes,
That they may neuer swarue

PSALME XXIX. T. S.

Afferte Domini.

¶ An excellent Pſalme, wherin the prophet exhorteth the verye princes and rulers of the world (which other wiſe for the moſt parte thinke there is no God) at the leaſt to feare him for the thunders and tempeſts, for feare whereof all creatures tremble. And though therby god threatneth ſinners, yet is he alwayes merciſull to his, and moueth them thereby to prayſe his name.

¶ Sing this as the xxi. Psalme.

GEue to the Lord ye potentates,
Ye rulers of the world:
Geue ye all prayse, honor and strēgth,
Vnto the liuyng Lord.
2 Geue honor to his holy name,
And honor him alone:
Worship him in his maiestie,

Within his holy throne.

3 His voyce doth rule the waters all,
Euen as him selfe doth pleaſe:
He doth prepare the thunder clappes,
And gouernes all the ſeas:
4 The voyce of God, is of great force,
And wondrous excellent:
It is moſt mighty in effect,
And much magnificent.

5 The voyce of God doth rent and breake
The Cedre trees ſo long:
The Cedre trees of Libanus,
Which are moſt hie and ſtrong.
6 And makes them leape like as a Calfe,
Or els the Vnicorne:
Not onely trees, but mountaines great,
Wheron the trees are borne.

7 His voyce deuides the flames of fire
And ſhakes the wildernes:
8 It makes the deſert quake for feare,
That called is Cades.
9 It makes the Hindes for feare to calue,
And makes the couert playne:
Then in his temple euery man,
His glory doth proclayme.

10 The Lord was ſet aboue the floudes,
Ruling the ragyng ſea:
So ſhall he raigne, as Lord and kyng,
For euer and for aye.
11 The Lord will giue his people power,
In vertue to increaſe:
The Lord will bleſſe his choſen folke,
With euerlaſtyng peace.

PSALME XXX. I. H.

Exaltabo te Domine.

¶ When Dauid ſhoulde haue dedicated his houſe to the Lord, he fell ſo extreme ſicke, that he was without all hope of life, and therfore after his recouery, he rendreth thankes to God, exhortyng others to the lyke, and learne by his example, that God is rather mercifull then ſeuere and rigorous towardes his children, and alſo that the fall from proſperitye to aduerſitye is ſodaine. This done, he returneth to prayer, promyſſing to prayſe God for euer.

3 Of thy good will thou haſt cald backe,
My ſoule from hell to ſaue:
Thou didſt reuiue when ſtrength did lacke,
And kept me from the graue.
4 Sing prayſe ye ſaintes that proue and ſee,
The goodnes of the Lord:
In memory of his maieſtie,
Reioyce with one accode.

5 For why his anger but a ſpace,
Doth laſt and ſlake agayne:
But in hys fauour and his grace,
Alwayes doth lyfe remaine.
Though gripes of griefe, and panges ful ſore,
Shall lodge with vs all nyght:
The Lord to ioy ſhall vs reſtore.
Before the day be light.

6 When I enioyde the world at will,
Thus would I boaſt and ſay:
Tuſh I am ſure to feele none ill,
This wealth ſhall not decay.
7 For thou (O Lord) of thy good grace,
Hadſt ſent me ſtrength and ayde:
But when thou turnſt away thy face,
My mynde was ſore diſmayde.

8 Wherfore agayne yet did I cry,
To thee, O Lord of might:
My God with playntes I did apply,
And prayde both day and night:
9 What gayne is in my bloud ſayd I,
If death deſtroy my dayes:
Doth duſt declare thy maieſty,
Or yet thy truth doth prayſe?

10 Wherfore my God ſome pitie take
O Lord I thee deſire:

Do not this simple soule forsake,
Of helpe I thee require.
11 Then didst thou turne my grief and wo,
Vnto a cherefull voyce:
The mournyng weede thou tookst me fro
And madst me to reioyce.
12 Wherfore my soule incessantly,
Shal sing vnto thy prayse:
My Lord my God, to thee will I,
Geue laude and thankes alwayes.

PSALME XXXI. I. H.

In te Domine speraui.

¶ Dauid deliuered from some greate daunger, in the desert of Maon, or els where, first rehearseth what meditation he had by the power of faith, when death was before his eyes, his enemy beyng ready to take hym: then he adioyned the faur of God alwayes to be ready to those that feare hym. Finally he exhorteth all the faithfull to trust in God, and to loue hym, bycause he preserueth and strengtheneth them, as they may see by hys example.

¶ Sing this as the xviii. Psalme.

O Lord I put my trust in thee,
Let nothing worke me shame:
As thou art iust deliuer mee:
And set me quite from blame.
2 Heare me (O Lord) and that anone:
To helpe me make good speede,
Be thou my rocke and house of stone,
My fence in tyme of neede.

3 For why as stones thy strength is tride
Thou art my fort and tower:
For thy names sake be thou my guide,
And leade me in thy power.
4 Plucke foorth my feete, and break the snare
Which they for me haue layde:
Thou art my strength, and all my care
Is for thy might and ayde.

5 Into thy handes Lord I commit,
My sprite whiche is thy due:
For why thou hast redemed it,
O Lord thou God most true.
6 I hate such folke as will not part
From thinges to be abhord:
When they on trifles set their hart,
My trust is in the Lord.

7 For I will in thy mercy ioy,
I see it doth excell:
Thou seest when ought would me annoy
And knowest my soule full well.
8 Thou hast not left me in their hand,
That would me ouercharge:
But thou hast set me out of band,
To walke abroad at large.

¶ The second part.

9 Greate griefe (O Lord) doth me assayle
Some pitie on me take:
Myne eyes waxe dim, my might doth fayle,
My wombe for wo doth ake.
10 My life is worne with griefe and payne
My yeares in wo are past:
My strength is gone, and through disdayne
My bones corrupt and wast.

11 Among my foes I am a scorne
My frendes are all dismayde:
My neighbors and my kinsmen borne
To see me are afrayd.
12 As men once dead are out of minde,
So am I now forgot:
As small effect in me they finde,
As in a broken pot.

13 I heard the bragges of all the rout,
Their threates my mind dyd fray:
How they conspird and went about.
To take my life away.
14 But (Lord) I trust in thee for ayde,
Not to be ouertrod.
For I confesse and still haue sayd,
Thou art my Lord and God.

15 The length of all my lyfe and age,
O Lord, is in thy hand:
Defend me from the wrathes and rage
Of them that me withstand.
16 To me thy seruaunt (Lord) expresse
And shewe thy ioyfull face:
And saue me Lord for thy goodnes,
Thy mercy and thy grace.

¶ The thyrd part.

17 Lord let me not be put to blame,
For that on thee I call:
But let the wicked beare their shame,
And in the graue to fal.
18 Oh how great good hast thou in store,
Layde vp full safe for them:
That feare and trust in thee therfore,
Before the sonnes of men?

19 Thy presence shal them fence and guide,
From all proud bragges and wrongs:
Within thy place thou shalt them hyde
From all the strife of tonges.
20 Thankes to the Lord that hath declard
On me his grace so farre:
Me to defend with watche and ward,
As in a towne of warre.

21 Thus did I say both day and night,
When I was sore oppresst:

Loe,I was cleane cast out of sight,
Yet heardst thou my request.
22 Ye saintes loue ye the Lord,I say,
The faithfull he doth guide:
And to the proude he will repay,
According to their pride.
23 Be strong,and God shall stay your hart
Be bolde and haue a lust:
For sure the Lord will take your part
Sith ye on hym do trust.

PSALME XXXII. T. S.

Beati quorum remissæ.

¶ Dauid punished with greuous sickne for his synnes,counteth them happy to whom God doth not impute theyr transgressions. And after that he had confessed his synnes and obteyned pardon, he exhorteth the wicked men to lyue godly,and the good to reioyse.

¶Sing this as the. xxx.Psalme.

THe man is blest,whose wickednes,
The Lord hath cleane remitted:
And he whose sinne and wretchednes,
Is hid and also couered.
2 And blest is he to whom the Lord,
Imputeth not his sinne:
Which in his hart hath hid no guile,
Nor fraude is founde therin.

3 For whilst that I kept close my sinne,
In silence and constraint:
My bones did weare and waste away,
With dayly mone and plaint.
4 For nyght and day thy hand one me
So greuous was and smart:
That all my bloud and humours moist,
To drines dyd conuert.

5 I did therfore confes my fault,
And all my sinnes discouer:
Then thou(O Lord)didst me forgeue,
And all my sinnes passe ouer.
6 The humble man shall pray therfore,
And seeke thee in due tyme:
So that the floodes of waters great,
Shall haue no power on him.

7 When trouble and aduersity,
Do compasse me about:
Thou art my refuge and my ioy,
And thou doost ryd me out.
8 Come hither and I shall thee teach,
How thou shalt walke a ryght
And will thee guide,as I my selfe,
Haue learnde by proofe and sight.

9 Be not so rude and ignoraunt,
As is the Horse and Mule:
Whose mouth without a rayne or byt,
From harme thou canst not rule.
10 The wicked man shall manifold,
Sorowes and griefe sustayne:
But vnto him that trustes in God,
His goodnes shall remaine.

11 Be mery therfore in the Lord,
Ye iust lift vp your voyce:
And ye of pure and perfect hart,
Be glad and eke reioyce,

PSALME XXXIII. I. H.

Exultati iusti in Domino.

¶ He exhorteth good men to prayse God,for that he hath not onely created all thinges, and by his prouidence gouerneth the same:but also is faithful in his promises. He vnderstandeth mans hart,and scattereth the counsell of the wicked. So that no man can be preserued by anye creature or mans strength, but they that put theyr confidence in his mercy,shalbe preserued from all aduersity.

¶Sing this as the xxx.Psalme.

YE righteous in the Lord reioyce,
It is a seemely sight:
That vpright men with thankefull voyce
Should prayse the God of might.
2 Praise ye the Lord with harpe and song,
In Psalmes and pleasant thinges:
With Lute and instrument among,
That soundeth with ten strings.

3 Sing to the Lord a song most new,
With courage geue hym prayse:
For why his woord is euer true,
His woorkes and all his wayes.
4 To iudgement,equity,and right,
He hath a right good wyll:
And with his giftes he doth delight,
The earth throughout to fyl.

5 For by the woord of God alone,
The heauens all were wrought:
Their hostes and powers euerychone,
His breath to passe hath brought.
6 The waters great gathered hath he,
On heapes within the shore:
And hid them in the depth to be,
As in an house of store.

7 All men on earth both least and most,
Feare

Feare God, and keepe his law:
Ye that inhabite in ech coast,
Dread him and stand in aw.
8 What he commaunded wrought it was,
At once with present speede:
What he doth wyl is brought to pas,
With full effect in deede.

9 The counsels of the nacions rude,
The Lord doth driue to nought
He doth defeate the multitude:
Of their deuice and thought.
10 But his decrees continue styll,
They neuer slake or swage:
The mocions of his mynde and wyll,
Take place in euery age.

¶ The second part.

11 And blest are they to whom the Lord,
As God and guide is knowne:
Whom he doth chuse of mere accord,
To take them as his owne.
12 The Lord from heauen cast his syght,
On men mortall by birth.
13 Considering from his seat of myght,
The dwellers of the earth.

14 The Lord I say, whose hand hath wroght
Mans hart, and doth it frame:
For he alone doth know the thought,
And woorking of the same.
15 A king that trusteth in his host,
Shall nought preuayle at length:
The man that of his might doth boast,
Shal fall for all his strength.

16 The troupes of horsmen eke shall faile,
Their sturdy steedes shall sterue:
The strength of horse shall not preuaile,
The Rider to preserue.
17 But lo, the eyes of God entende.
And watch to ayde the iust:
With such as feare him to offend,
And on his goodnes trust.

18 That he of death and all distres,
May set their soule from dreades
And if that dearth the land oppres,
In hunger them to feede.
19 Wherefore our soule doth styll depend,
On God our strength and stay:
He is the shield vs to defend,
And driue all dartes away.

20 Our soule in God hath ioy and game.
Reioycing in his might:
For why? in his most holy name,
We hope and much delight.
21 Therfore let thy goodnes (O Lord)
Styll present with vs be:
As we alwayes with one accord.
Doo onely trust in thee.

PSALME XXXIIII. T. S.

Benedicam Domino.

¶ After Dauid had escaped Achis, accordyng as it is writen in the 1. Samuel 21. whom in this title he calleth Abimelech (whych was a generall name to all the kinges of the Philistimes) he prayseth God, for his deliueraance prouyding all others by his example to trust in God, to feare and serue hym, who defendeth the godly with his angels, and vtterlye destroyeth the wicked in their synnes.

¶ Sing this as the xxx. Psalme.

I Wyll geue laud and honor both,
Vnto the Lord alwayes:
And eke my mouth for euermore,
Shal speake vnto his prayse.
2 I doo delite to laud the Lord,
In soule and eke in voyce:
That humble men and mortified,
May heare and so reioyce.

3 Therfore see that ye magnify,
With me the liuing Lord:
And let vs now exalt his name,
Together with one accorde.
4 For I my selfe besought the Lord,
He answered me agayne:
And me delyuered incontinent,
From all my feare and payne.

5 Who so they be that hym beholde,
Shall see his lyght most cleare:
Their countenance shall not be dasht,
They neede it not to feare.
6 This sely wretch for some reliefe,
Vnto the Lord did call:
Who did him heare without delay,
And ryd him out of thrall.

7 The angell of the Lord doth pitch,
His tentes in euery place:
To saue all suche as feare the Lord,
That nothing them deface.
8 Taste and consider well therefore,
That God is good and iust.
O happy man that maketh hym,
His onely stay and trust.

9 Feare ye the Lord his holy ones,
Aboue all earthly thing:
For they that feare the liuing Lord,
Are sure to lacke nothing.
10 The Lions shalbe hungerbit,
And pinde with famine much:
But as for them that feare the Lorde,
No lacke shalbe to such.

¶ The second part.

11 Come nere therfore my children deare,
And to my wordes geue eare:
I shall you teach the perfect way,
How ye the Lord should feare.
12 Who is that man that would liue long,

And lead a bleſſed life?
13 Se thou refrayne thy tong and lyps,
From all deceit and ſtrife.

14 Turne backe thy face from doing yll,
And do the godly deede:
Inquire for peace and quietnes,
And follow it with ſpeede.
15 For why? the eyes of God aboue,
Vpon the iuſt are bent:
His eares likewiſe doo heare the playne,
Of the poore innocent.

16 But he doth frown and bend his browes,
Vpon the wicked traine:
And cut away the memory,
That ſhould of them remayne.
17 But when the iuſt doth call and cry,
The Lord doth heare them ſo:
That out of payne and miſery,
Forthwith he lets them go.

18 The Lord is kinde and ſtraight at hand,
To ſuch as be contrite:
He ſaues alſo the ſorowful,
The meeke and poore in ſpirite.
19 Ful many be the miſeries,
That righteous men do ſuffer:
But out of all aduerſities,
The Lord doth them deliuer.

20 The Lord doth ſo preſerue and keepe,
His wery bones alway:
That not ſo much as one of them,
Doth periſh or decay.
21 The ſynne ſhall ſlea the wicked man,
Which he himſelfe hath wrought:
And ſuch as hate the righteous man,
Shall ſoone be brought to nought.

22 But they that ſerue the liuing Lord,
The Lord doth ſaue them ſound:
And who that put their truſt in hym,
Nothing ſhall them confound.

PSALME XXXV. T. S.

Iudica Domine nocentes.

¶ So long as Saul was enemy to Dauid, all that had any authority vnder him, to flatter theyr king, did alſo moſt cruelly perſecute Dauid: againſt whom he prayeth God to plead and to auenge his cauſe, that they may be taken in their nets and ſnares whiche they layde for hym, and hys innocency may be declared. And that the innocent whych taketh parte with hym, may reioyce and prayſe the name of the Lord that thus delyuereth hys ſeruant. And ſo he promyſeth to ſpeake forth the iuſtice of the Lord, and to magnifie hys name all the dayes of hys life.

3 Gird on thy ſword, and ſtop the way,
My enmies to withſtand:
That thou vnto my ſoule do ſay,
Lo I thy helpe at hand.
4 Confound them with rebuke and blame,
That ſeeke my ſoule to ſpyll:
Let them turne backe and flee with ſhame,
That thinke to worke me yll.

5 Let them diſperſe and flee abrode,
As wynde doth driue the duſt:
And that the angel of our God.
Their might away may thruſt.
6 Let al their wayes be voyde of light,
And ſlippery like to fall:
And ſend thine Angell with thy myght,
To perſecute them all.

7 For why? without my fault they haue
In ſecret ſet theyr grin:
And for no cauſe haue digd a caue,
To take my ſoule therin.
8 When they thinke leaſt and haue no care,
O Lord deſtroy them all,
Let them be trapt in their own ſnare,
And in their meſchiefe fall.

9 And let my ſoule, my hart and voyce.

In

In God haue ioy and wealth:
That in the Lord I may reioyce,
And in his sauing health,
10 And then my bones shall speake and say,
My partes shall all agree:
O Lord though they doo seeme ful gay,
What man is like to thee?

¶ The seconde part.

11 Thou doost defend the weake from them,
That are both stout and strong:
And ryd the poore from wicked men,
That spoyle and do them wrong.
12 My cruel foes against me rise,
To witnes thinges vntrue:
A l to accuse me they deuise,
Of that I neuer knewe.

13 Where I to them did owe good wyll,
They quyt me with disdayne:
That they should pay my good with yll,
My soule doth sore complayne:
14 When they wer sick I mourn'd therfore
And clad my selfe in sacke:
Wyth fasting I did faynt full sore,
To pray I was not slacke.

15 As they had bene my brethren deare,
I did my selfe behaue:
As one that maketh wofull chere,
About his mothers graue.
16 But they at my disease dyd ioye,
And gather on a rout:
Yea abiect slaues at me dyd ioy,
Wyth mockes and checkes ful stout.

17 The belly Gods and flattring trayne,
That all good thinges deride:
At me doo gryn wyth great disdayne,
And plucke theyr mouth asyde.
18 Lord when wilt thou amend this geare
Why doost thou stay and pause?
Oh ryd my soule myne onely deare,
Out of these Lyons clawes.

19 And then wyll I geue thankes to thee
Before thy church alwayes:
And where as most of people bee,
There wyll I shew thy prayse.
20 Let not my foes preuayle on me,
Which hate me for no fault:
Nor yet to wynke or turne theyr eye,
That causeles me assault.

¶ The thyrd part.

21 Of peace no woord they thinke or say,
Their talke is all vntrue:
They styll consult and would betray,
All those that peace ensue.
22 With open mouth they run at me.
They gape, they laugh, they leere:
Well, well, say they, our eye doth see,
The thing that we desire.

25 But Lord thou seest what wayes they take Cease not this geare to mend:
Be not far of, nor me forsake,
As men that fayle their frend.
24 Awake, aryse, and styrre abrod,
Defend me in my right:
Reuenge my cause my Lord my God,
And ayd me with thy might.

25 According to thy righteousnes,
My Lord God set me free:
And let not them their pride expresse,
Nor triumph ouer me.
26 Let not their harts reioyce and cry,
There, there, this geere goeth trim:
Nor geue them cause to say on hye:
We haue our wyll of hym.

27 Confound them with rebuke and shame
That ioy when I do mourne:
And pay them home with spite and blame,
That brag at me with scorne.
28 Let them be glad and eke reioyce,
Which loue mine vpright way:
And they all tymes with hart and voyce,
Shall prayse the Lord and say.

29 Great is the Lord, and doth excell,
For why he doth delight:
To see his seruantes prosper well,
That is his plesant sight.
30 Wherfore my toung I will apply,
Thy righteousnes to prayse:
Vnto the Lord my God wyll I,
Sing laud with thankes alwayes.

PSALME XXXVI. I. H.

Dixit iniustus vt.

¶ Dauid greuously vexed by the wicked, doth complaine of their malice and wyckednes. Then he turneth to consider the vnspeakeable goodnes of God towards all creatures: but specially towardes his children, that by faith therof he may be comforted and assured of his deliueraunce by this ordinarye course of Gods worke, who in the end destroyeth the wicked, and saueth the iust.

¶ Sing this as the xxxv. Psalme.

THe wicked with his workes vniust,
Doth thus perswade his hart:
That of the Lord he hath no care,
His feare is set aparte,
2 Yet doth he ioye in his estate,
To walke as he began:
So long til he deserue the hate
Of God and eke of man.

3 His wordes are wicked, vile and naught,
His tong no truth doth tell:
Yet at no hand will he be taught
Which way he may doo well.
4 When he should slepe, then doth he muse
His mischiefe to fulfill:
No wicked wayes doth he refuse,
Nor nothing that is ill.

5 But Lord thy goodnes doth ascend
Aboue the heauens hye:
So doth thy truth it selfe extend,
Vnto the cloudye skye.
6 Much more then hils, so high and steepe
Thy iustice is exprest:
Thy iudgements like to seas most deepe
Thou sauest both man and beast.

7 Thy mercy is aboue al thinges,
O God it doth excell:
In trust wherof as in thy wynges,
The sonnes of men shal dwell.
8 Within thy house they shalbe fed,
With plenty at their wyll:
Of all delight they shalbe sped,
And take therof their fyll.

9 For why? the wel of life so pure,
Doth ouerflow from thee:
And in thy light we are full sure,
The lasting light to see.
10 From such as thee desire and know,
Let not thy grace depart:
Thy righteousnes declare and shew
To men of vpright hart.

11 Let not the proud on me preuayle,
O Lord of thy good grace:
Nor let the wicked me assayle,
To throw me out of place.
12 But they in their deuise shall fall,
That wicked workes maintaine:
They shalbe ouerthrowne wyth all,
And neuer ryse agayne.

PSALME XXXVII. VV. VV.

Noli æmulari in malign.

¶ Bicause the Godly should not wonder to see wicked men prosper in this world, the prophet sheweth that all thinges, shalbe graunted according to theyr harts desire, to the that loue and feare God: and they that doo the contrary, although they seme to florish for a time, shall at length perish.

¶Sing this as the. xxx. Psalme.

GRudge not to see the wicked men,
In wealth to flouriſh ſtyll:
Nor yet enuy ſuche as to yll,
Haue bent and ſet their wyll.
2 For as grene graſſe and flouriſhing herbes
Are cut and wither away:
So ſhal their great proſperity,
Soone paſſe, vade and decay.

3 Truſt thou therfore in God alone,
To doo well geue thy mynde:
So ſhalt thou haue the land as thine,
And there ſure foode ſhalt finde.
4 In God ſet all thy harts delight,
And looke what thou wouldeſt haue:
Or els canſt wiſh in all the world,
Thou needſt it not to craue.

5 Caſt both thy ſelfe and thine affaires
On God with perfect truſt:
And thou ſhalt ſee with patience,
Theffect both ſure and iuſt.
6 The perfect life and godly name,
He will cleare as the light:
So that the ſunne euen at noone dayes
Shall not ſhine halfe ſo bright.

7 Be ſtill therfore, and ſtedfaſtly
On God ſee thou wayte then:
Not ſhrinking for the proſperous ſtate,
Of lewde and wicked men.
8 Shake of diſpite, enuy, and hate,
At leaſt in any wiſe:
Their wicked ſteppes auoyde and flie,
And folow not their guiſe.

9 For euery wicked man will God,
Deſtroy both more and leſſe:
But ſuch as truſt in hym are ſure
The land for to poſſeſſe.
10 Watch but a while, and thou ſhalt ſee,
No more the wicked trayne:
No not ſo much, as houſe or place,
Were once he did remayne.

¶The ſecond part.

11 But merciſull and humble men,
Enioy ſhall ſea and land:
In reſt and peace they ſhall reioyce,
For nought ſhall them withſtand.
12 The leud men and malicious,
Againſt the iuſt conſpire:
They gnaſh theyr teeth at him, as men
Which do his bane deſire.

13 But while that leude men thus do thinck
The Lord laughes them to ſcorne:
For why he ſeeth theyr terme approche,
When they ſhall ſigh and mourne.
14 The wicked haue theyr ſword out drawen
Their bow eke haue they bent:
To ouerthrow and kill the poore,
As they the ryght way went.

15 But

15 But the ſame ſword ſhall pearſe their harts:
Which was to kill the iuſt:
Likewiſe the bow ſhall breake to ſhiuers,
Wherin they put theyr truſt.
16 Doubtles the iuſt mans poore eſtate,
Is better a great deale more:
Then all theſe leude and worldly mens
Rich pompe and heaped ſtore.

17 For be their power neuer ſo ſtronge,
God will it ouerthrowe:
Where contrary he doth preſerue,
The humble men and lowe.
18 He ſeeth by his great prouidence,
The good mens trade and way:
And will geue them inheritaunce,
Which neuer ſhall decay.

19 They ſhall not be diſcouraged,
When ſome are hard beſted:
When other ſhalbe hunger bit,
They ſhall be clad and fed.
20 For whoſoeuer wicked is,
And enmie to the Lord:
Shall quaile, yea melt euen as lambes greaſe
Or ſmoke that fleeth abrode.

¶ The thyrd part.

21 Behold the wicked boroweth much
And neuer payeth agayne:
Wheras the iuſt by liberall giftes,
Makes many glad and fayne.
22 For they whom god doth bles, ſhal haue
The land for heritage:
And they whom he doth curſe likewiſe,
Shall periſh in his rage.

23 The Lord the iuſt mans wayes doth guide
And geues him good ſucceſſe:
To euery thing he takes in hand,
He ſendeth good addreſſe.
24 Though that he fall yet is he ſure
Not vtterly to quayle:
Becauſe the Lord ſtretches out his hand
At neede and doth not fayle.

25 I haue ben yong and now am olde,
Yet did I neuer ſee:
The iuſt man left, or els his ſeede,
To begge for miſery.
26 But geues alwayes moſt liberally,
And lendes wheras is neede:
His children and poſteritie,
Receyue of God their meede.

27 Flee vice therfore and wickednes,
And vertue do embrace,
So God ſhall graunt thee long to haue
In earth a dwelling place:

28 For God ſo loueth equity,
And ſheweth to his ſuch grace:
That he preſerues them euermore,
But ſtroyes the wicked race.

29 Where as the good and godly men,
Inherite ſhall the land.
Hauing as Lordes all thing therin,
In theyr owne power and hand.
30 The iuſt mans mouth doth euer ſpeake
Of matters wiſe and hye:
His tong doth talke to edifie,
With truth and equitie.

31 For in his harte the law of God
His Lord doth ſtill abyde:
So that where euer he goeth or walkes,
His foote can neuer ſlide.
32 The wicked like a rauenyng woulfe
The iuſt man doth beſet:
By all meanes ſeekyng hym to kill,
If he fall in his net.

¶ The fourth part.

33 Though he ſhould fall into his handes
Yet God would ſuccor ſend:
Though men agaynſt him ſentence geue,
God would hym yet defend.
34 Wayt thou on God, and keepe his way
He ſhall preſerue thee then:
The earth to rule, and thou ſhalt ſee
Deſtroyd theſe wicked men.

35 The wicked haue I ſene moſt ſtrong
And placed in hye degree:
Flooriſhing in all wealth and ſtore,
As doth the Laurel tree.
36 But ſodenly he paſſed away,
And lo he was quite gone:
Then I him ſought, but could ſcarce finde,
The place where dwelt ſuch one.

37 Marke and behold the perfite man
How God doth him increaſe:
For the iuſt man ſhall haue at length,
Great ioy with reſt and peace.
38 As for tranſgreſſours, wo to them,
Deſtroyde they ſhall all bee:
God will cut of their buddyng race,
And riche poſteritie.

39 But the ſaluacion of the iuſt,
Doth come from God aboue:
Who in their trouble ſends them ayde
Of his mere grace and loue.
40 God doth them helpe, ſaue, and deliuer
From leud men and vniuſt:
And ſtill will ſaue them, whilſt that they
In him do put their truſt.

PSALME XXXVIII. T. S.

Domine ne in furore.

¶ David lying ſycke of ſome grieuous diſeaſe, acknowledgeth hym ſelfe to be chaſtiſed of the Lorde for his synnes, and therfore prayeth God to turne away his wrath, hee vttereth the greatnes of his griefe by manye wordes and circumstances, as wounded with the arrowes of Gods ire, forsaken of his friendes, euill intreated of his enemies, but in the end with firme confidence he commendeth his cause to God, and hopeth for speedy helpe at his hande.

¶ Sing this as the.xxxv. Psalme.

PVt me not to rebuke, O Lord,
In thy prouoked ire:
Ne in thy heauy wrath, O Lord,
Correct me I desire.
2 Thine arrowes do sticke fast in me,
Thy hand doth greffe me sore.
3 And in my flesh no health at all
Appeareth any more.

And all this is, by reason of Thy wrath that I am in:
Nor any rest is in my bones,
By reason of my sinne.
4 For lo my wicked doyngs Lord,
Aboue my head are gone:
As greater lode then I can beare,
They lye me sore vpon.

5 My woundes stincke, and are festred so,
As lothsome is to see:
Which all through mine own foolishnes
Betideth vnto mee.
6 And I in carefull wise am brought,
In trouble and distres:
That I go wayling all the day
My dolefull heauines.

7 My loynes are fild with sore disease,
My flesh hath no whole part:
I feable am, & broken sore,
I rore for grief of hart.
9 Thou knowest Lord my desire, my grones
Are open in thy sight:
10 My hart doth pant, my strength hath faild
Myne eyes haue lost their light.

11 My louers and my wonted friendes,
Stand looking on my wo:
And eke my kinsmen far away,
Are me departed fro.
12 They that did seeke my life laid snares,
And they that sought the way
To do me hurt, spake lyes, and thought
On treason all the day.

¶ The second part.
13 But as a deafe man I became,
That cannot heare at all:
14 And as one dumme that opens not,
His mouth to speake with all.
15 For all my confidence, O Lord,
Is wholy set on thee:
16 O Lord, thou Lord that art my God,
Thou shalt geue eare to me.

This I dyd craue, that they my foes
Triumphe not ouer me:
17 For when my foote dyd slyp, then they Did ioy my fall to see.
And truly I poore wretch am set
In plage a wofull wight:
And eke my griefefull heauynes,
Is euer in my sight.

18 For whyle that I my wyckednes,
In humble wyse confesse.
And whyle I for my sinfull deedes
My sorrow do expresse:
19 My foes do still remayne alyue,
And mighty are also:
And they that hate me wrongfully,
In number hugely grow.

20 They stand agaynst me, that my good
With euil do repay:
Bycause that good and honest thinges,
I do ensue alway.
21 Forsake me not, O Lord my God,
Be thou not far away:
22 Hast me to helpe, my Lord my God,
My safety and my stay.

PSALME XXXIX. I. H.

Dixi custodiam.

¶ Dauid vttereth with what greate griefe and bytternes of mynde he was driuen to these outragious complayntes of hys infirmities, for he confesseth that whē he had determined sylence, that he brast foorth yet into woordes that he woulde not, throughe the greatnes of his griefe. Thē he rehearseth certayne requestes whiche tast of infirmitye of man and mixeth wyth them many prayers, but all to shewe a mynd wonderfullye troubled, that it may plainly appeare howe he dyd striue myghtelye against death and desperacion.

¶ Sing this as the xxxv. Psalme.

I Said I will looke to my wayes,
For feare I should go wrong:
I will take heede all tymes, that I
Offend not in my tong
2 As with a byt I will keepe fast,
My mouth with force and might:

Not

Not once to whisper all the while
The wicked are in sight.

I held my tong and spake no word,
But kept me close and still:
Yea from good talke I did refrayne,
But sore against my wyll:
4 My hart waxt whot within my brest,
With musing, thought, and dout:
Which did increase and stirre the fyre,
At last these wordes brast out.

5 Lord, number out my life and dayes,
Which yet I haue not past:
So that I may be certified,
How long my life shall last.
6 Lord, thou hast poynted out my lyfe,
In length much like a span:
Mine age is nothing vnto thee,
So vayne is euery man.

7 Man walketh like a shade, and doth
In vayne him selfe annoy:
In getting goods, and cannot tell,
Who shall the same enioy.
10 Now Lord sith things this wise do frame,
What helpe do I desire?
Of truth my hope doth hang on thee,
I nothing els require.

¶ The second part.

9 From all the sinnes that I haue done,
Lord quit me out of hande:
And make me not a scorne to fooles,
That nothing vnderstand.
10 I was as dumme, and to complaine,
No trouble might me moue:
Bycause I know it was thy worke,
My patience for to proue.

11 Lord take from me thy scourge and plage,
I can them not withstand:
I faynt and pyne away for feare,
Of thy most heauy hand.
12 When thou for sinne doost man rebuke,
He waxeth wo and wan:
As doth a cloth, that mothes haue fret,
So vayne a thyng is man.

13 Lord heare my sute, and geue good heede,
Regarde my teares that fall:
I soiourne lyke a straunger here,
As did my fathers all.
14 Oh spare à lytle, geue me space
My strength for to restore:
Before I go away from hence,
And shall be sene no more:

PSALME XL. I. H.

Expectans expectaui.

¶ Dauid deliuered from great daunger, doth magnifie and prayse the grace of God for his deliuerance, and commendeth his prouidence towardes all mankinde. Then doth he promise to geue hym self wholy to Gods seruice, and so declareth how God is truely worshipped. Afterward he geueth thankes and prayseth God, and hauing complained of his enemies with good courage, he calleth for ayde and succour.

¶ Sing this as the xxxv. Psalme.

I Wayted long and sought the Lord,
And paciently did beare:
At length to me he did accord,
My voyce and cry to heare.
2 He pluckt me from the lake so deepe,
Out of the mire and clay:
And on a rocke he set my feete,
And he dyd guide my way,

3 To me he taught a Psalme of prayse,
Which I must shew abrode:
And sing newe songes of thankes alwayes,
Vnto the Lord our God.
4 When all the folke these things shall see,
As people much afrayde:
Then they vnto the Lord will flee,
And trust vpon his ayde.

5 O blest is he whose hope and hart
Doth in the Lord remayne:
That with the proud doth take no part
Nor such as lye and fayne.
6 For Lord my God thy woundrous deedes
In greatnes far do passe:
Thy fauour towardes vs exceedes
All things that euer was.

7 When I entend and do deuise,
Thy workes abrode to shew:
To such a reckning they do ryse,
Therof no end I know.
8 Burnt offerings thou delightst not in
I know thy whole desire:
With sacrifice to purge his sinne,
Thou doost no man require.

9 Meate offering and sacrifice,
Thou wouldst not haue at all:
But thou O Lord hast open made,
Mine eares to heare withall.
10 But then sayd I behold and looke,
I come a meane to be:
For in the volume of the booke,
Thus it is sayd of me:

11 That I, O God, O God should do thy minde
Which thyng doth lyke me well:
For in my hart thy law I finde,

Fast placed there to dwell.
12 Thy Iustice and thy righteousnes,
In great resorts I tell:
Behold, my tong no tyme doth cease,
O Lord thou knowest full well.

¶The second part.
13 I haue not hid within my brest,
Thy goodnes as by stealth:
But I declare and haue expreſt
Thy truth and sauyng health.
14 I kept not close thy louing minde,
That no man should it know:
The trust that in thy truth I finde,
To all the Church I showe.

For I with mischefes many one
Am sore beset about:
My sinnes encrease and so come on
I can not spy them out.
15 For why in number they exceede
The heares vpon my head:
My hart doth faynt for very dreede,
That I almost am deade.

16 With speed send helpe and set me free,
O Lord I thee require:
Make hast with ayde to succour mee,
O Lord at my desire.
17 Let them sustayne rebuke and shame,
That seeke my soule to spill:
Driue backe my foes and them defame,
That wish and would me yll.

18 For their yll feates do them discry
That would deface my name:
Alwayes at me they rayle and cry,
Fye on him, fye for shame.
19 Let them in thee haue ioy and wealth,
That seeke to thee alwayes:
That those that loue thy sauyng health,
May say, to God be prayse.

20 But as for me I am but poore,
Oppreſt and brought full low:
Yet thou O Lord wilt me restore
To health full well I know.
21 For why thou art my hope and trust,
My refuge, helpe, and stay:
Wherfore my God, as thou art iust,
With me no time delay.

PSALME XLI. T. S.

Beatus qui intelligit.

¶ Dauid being greuously afflicted, blesseth the that pitie his case, and complayneth of the treason of his own friendes and familiars, as came to passe in Iudas. Iohn. xv. After hee feeling the great mercies of God gently chastising him and not sufferyng his enemies to triumphe agaynst him, geueth most harty thankes vnto God.

3 And in his bed when he lyeth sycke,
The Lord wyl him restore:
And thou (O Lord) wyl turne to health,
His sicknes and his sore.
4 Then in my sicknes thus say I,
Haue mercy Lord on mee:
And heale my soule, which is full wo,
That I offended thee,

5 Mine enmies wished me yll in hart,
And thus of me did say:
When shall he dye, that all his name,
May vanish quite away?
6 And when they come to visit me,
They aske if I do well:
But in their hartes mischiefe they hatch,
And to their mates it tell.

7 They byte their lyps, and whysper so
As though they would me charme:
And cast their fetches how to trap
Me with some mortall harme.
8 Som greuous sin hath brought him to
This sicknes, say they playne:
He is so low, that without doubt,
Rise can he not againe.

9 The man also that I dyd trust,
With me did vse disceit:
Who at my table ate my bread,
The same for me layd wayte.
10 Haue mercy Lord on me therfore,
And let me be preserued:
That I may render vnto them,
The thinges they haue deserued.

11 By this I know assuredly,
To be beloued of thee:
When that myne enemies haue no cause,
To triumphe ouer mee.
12 But in my right thou hast me kept,
And maintayned alway:
And in thy presence, place assignde,
Where I shall dwell for aye.

18 The Lord the God of Israell,
Be praysed euermore:
Euen so be it (Lord) will I say:
Euen so be it therfore.

PSALME XLII. I. H.

Quemadmodum desiderat.

¶ The Prophet gremously complaineth that being letted by his persecutours, he could not be present in the congregation of Gods people, protesting, that although he was separat in body from them: yet his hart was thither affectioned. And last of all he sheweth that he was not so far ouercome with these sorowes and thoughtes, but that he continually put is confidence in the Lord.

¶Sing this as the xxx. Psalme.

LIke as the hart doth breath and bray,
The well springs to obteyne:
So doth my soule desire alway,
With the Lord to remayne.
2 My soule doth thirst and would draw neare
The liuing God of might:
O when shall I come and appeare,
In presence of his sight?

3 The teares all times are my repast,
Which from mine eyes do slide:
When wicked men cry out so fast,
Where now is God thy guide?
4 Alas what grief is it to thinke,
What fredome once I had?
Therfore my soule as at pits brinke,
Is most heauy and sad.

When I did marche in good aray,
Furnished with my trayne:
Vnto the temple was our way,
With songes and harts most fayne.
5 My soule why art thou sad alwayes,
And freatst thus in my brest?
Trust still in God, for him to prayse,
I hold it euer best.

By him haue I succour at neede,
Against all payne and grief:
He is my God, which with all speede,
Will hast to send relief:
6 And this my soule within me (Lord)
Doth faynt to thinke vpon:
The land of Iordan, and record
The litle hill Hermon.

7 One grief an other in doth call,
As cloudes burst out their voyce:
The flouds of euill that do fall,
Runne ouer me with noyce.
8 Yet I by day felt his goodnes,
And helpe at all assayes:
Likewise by night I did not cease,
The liuyng God to prayse.

9 I am perswaded thus to say,
To him with pure pretence:
O Lord thou art my guide and stay,
My rocke and my defence.
Why do I then in pensiuenes,
Hangyng the head thus walke:
While that mine enmies me oppres,
And vexe me with their talke?

10 For why? they pearse mine inward partes
With panges to be abhord:
When they cry out with stubburne harts,
Where is thy God, thy Lord?
11 So soone why doost thou faint and quayle,
My soule with paynes oppresst?
With thoughts why doost thy selfe assayle,
So sore within my brest?

12 Trust in the Lord thy God alwayes,
And thou the tyme shalt see:
To geue him thankes with laud and prayse
For health restorde to thee.

PSALME XLIII. T. S.

Iudica me Deus.

¶ He prayeth to be deliuered from them whiche conspire with Absalon, to the ende that he might ioyfully prayse God in his holy congregacion.

¶Sing this as the xxxv. Psalme.

IVdge and reuenge my cause, O Lord,
From them that euill be:
From wicked and deceitfull men,
O Lord delyuer me.
2 For of my strength thou art the God,
Why putst thou me thee fro?
And why walke I so heauely,
Oppressed with my fo?

3 Send out thy lyght and eke thy truth,
And lead me with thy grace:
Which may conduct me to thy hyll,
And to thy dwelling place.
4 Then shall I to the aulter go,
Of God my ioy and cheare:
And on my harpe geue thankes to thee,
O God, my God most deare.
5 Why art thou then so sad my soule,
And fretst thus in my brest?
Still trust in God, for him to prayse,
I hold it alwayes best.
By him I haue deliueraunce,
Against all paynes and grief:
He is my God, which doth alwayes,
At neede send me relief,

PSALME XLIIII. T. S.

Deus auribus nostris.

¶ A moste earnest prayer made in the name of the faithfull, when they are afflicted by their enemies for sustayning the quarell of Gods word, according to the exposition of saint Paule. Roma. viii.

3 They conquered not by sword nor strength
The land of thy behest:
But by thy hand thy arme and grace,
Because thou louedst them best.
4 Thou art my kyng (O God) that holpe
Iacob in sundry wise:
5 Led with thy power, we threw down such
As did against vs rise.

6 I trusted not in bow ne sword,
They could not saue me sounde:
7 Thou kepest vs from our enmies rage,
Thou dist our foes confound.
8 And still we boast of thee our God,
And prayse thy holy name:
9 Yet now thou goest not with our host,
But leauest vs to shame.

10 Thou madest vs flee before our foes,
And so were ouer trode:
Our enmies robde and spoilde our goods
When we were sparst abrode.
11 Thou hast vs geuen to our foes,
As sheepe for to be slayne:
Amongst the Heathen euery where,
Scattered we do remayne.

12 Thy people thou hast sold like slaues,
And as a thyng of nought:
For proffit none thou hadst therby,
No gayne at all was sought.
13 And to our neighbours thou hast made
Of vs a laughing stocke:
And those that round about vs dwell,
At vs do grinne and mocke.

¶ The second part.

14 Thus we serue for none other vse,
But for a common talke:
They mock, they scorne, and nod theyr hed,
Where euer they go or walke.
15 I am ashamde continually,
To heare these wicked men:
Yea so I blush that all my face,
With red is couered then.

16 For why? we heare such sclandrous wordes
Such false report and lyes:
That death it is to see theyr wronges,
Their threatnings and their cryes.
17 For all this we forgot not thee,
Nor yet thy couenant brake:
18 We turnd not backe our harts from thee
Nor yet thy pathes forsake.

19 Yet thou hast trod vs downe to dust,
Where dennes of Dragons be:
And couered vs with shade of death,
And great aduersite.
20 If we had our Gods name forget,
And helpe of idols sought:
21 Would not God then haue tride this out,
For he doth know our thought.

22 Nay,

22 Nay, nay, for thy names sake, O Lord
Alwayes are we slayne thus:
As sheepe vnto the shambles sent,
Right so they deale with vs.
23 Vp Lord, why slepest thou awake,
And leaue vs not for all:
24 Why hidest thou thy countenance,
And doost forget our thrall.
25 For downe to dust, our soule is brought,
And we now at last cast:
Our belly lyke as it were glude,
Vnto the ground cleaues fast.
26 Ryse vp therfore for our defence,
And helpe vs Lord at neede:
We thee besech for thy goodnes,
To rescue vs with speede.

¶ The maiestie of Salomon, his honour, strength, beauty, riches and power are praysed, and also his mariage with the Egyptians, being an heathen woman is blessed, if that she cã renounce her people, and the loue of her countrey, and geue her selfe wholy to her husbande, vnder the which figure the wõderfull maiestie, and the encrease of the kingdome of his Christ and the Churche hys spouse now taken of the Gentiles is described.

¶ Sing this as the .xxv. Psalme.

MY hart doth take in hand.
Some godly song to syng:
The prayse that I shall shew therin
Pertayneth to the king.
2 My toung shalbe as quicke
His honor to endite:
As is the pen of any scribe,
That vseth fast to write.

3 O fayrest of all men,
Thy speech is plesant pure,
For God hath blessed thee with giftes
For euer to endure.
4 About thee gird thy sworde,
O prince of might elect:
With honour glory and renome,
Thy person pure is dect.

5 Go forth with goodly speede,
In meekenes, truth and right:
And thy right hand, shall thee instruct
In workes of dreadfull might.
6 Thyne arrowes sharpe and kene
Their hearts so sore shall sting:
That folke shall fall and kneele to thee,
Yea all thy foes, O king.

7 Thy royal seat, O Lord,
For euer shall remayne:
Bycause the scepter of thy realme,
Doth ryghteousnes maintayne.
8 Bycause thou louest the right,
And doost the ill detest:
God euen thy God hath poynted thee,
With ioy aboue the rest.

9 With mirth and sauours swete
Thy clothes are all be spreade:
When thou doost from thy palace pas,
Therin to make thee glad.
10 Kynges daughters do attend,
In fine and riche araye:
At thy right hand, the Queene doth stand
In golde and garmentes gaye.

¶ The second part.

11 O daughter take good heede,
Encline and geue good eare:
Thou must forget thy kindred all,
And fathers house most deare.
12 Then shall the kyng desire,
Thy beauty faire and trim:
For why he is the Lord thy God,
And thou must worship him.

13 The daughters then of Tire,
With gifts full rich to see:
And all the wealthy of the land,
Shall make theyr sute to thee.
14 The daughter of the king
Is glorious to behold:
Within his closet he doth sit,
All deckt in beaten gold.

15 In robes well wrought with needle,
With many a pleasaunt thyng:
With virgins fayre on her to wayte,
She commeth to the kyng.
16 Thus are they brought with ioy,
And mirth on euery side:
Into the palace of the king,
And there do they abyde.

17 In steede of Parentes left,
(O Queene) the chaunge so standes:
Thou shalt haue sonnes whom thou maist se:
As princes in all landes.
18 Wherfore thy holy name,
All ages shall record:
The people shall geue thankes to thee
For euermore, O Lord.

THe Lord is our defence and ayde, the strength wherby we stand, when we with though hilles so high and stepe, be thrust & hurled here and there, within the sea so depe.

3 No though the waues do rage so sore,
That all the bankes it spils:
And though it ouerflow the shore,
And beate downe mighty hils.
4 For one fayre floud, doth send abrode,
His pleasaunt streames a pace:
To fresh the citie of our God,
And wash his holy place.

5 In midst of her the Lord doth dwell:
She can no whit decay:
All thinges agaynst her that rebell,
The Lord will truly stay.
6 The Heathen flock, the kingdoms feare,
The people make a noyse,
The earth doth melt and not appeare,
When God puts forth his voyce.

7 The Lord of hostes, doth take our part,
To vs he hath an eye:
Our hope of health with al our hart,
On Iacobs God doth lye.
8 Come heare and see, with mind & thought
The working of our God:
What wonders he him self hath wrought
Throughout the earth abrod.

9 By him all wars are husht and gone,
Which countreys did conspire:
The bowes he brake and speares echone,
Their charets brent with fire.
10 Leaue of therfore (sayth he) and know,
I am a God most stout:
Among the Heathen high and low,
And all ỹ earth throughout.

11 The Lord of hostes doth vs defend,
He is our strength and tower:
On Iacobs God do we depend,
And on his mighty power.

¶ The Prophet exhorteth all people to the worshipe of the true and euerliuing God, commending the mercies of God toward the posterity of Iacob, and after prophecieth of the kingdome of Christ, in this time of the Gospell.

¶Sing this as the. xlvi. Psalme.

YE people all in one accord,
Clap handes and eke reioyce:
Be glad and syng vnto the Lord,
With sweete and pleasant voyce:
2 For hye the Lord and dreadfull is,
With wonders manyfold:
A mighty king he is truly,
In all the earth extold.

3 The people shall he make to be,
Vnto our bondage thrall:
And vnderneath our feete he shall,
The nacions make to fall.
4 For vs the heritage he chose,
Which we possesse alone:
The flouryng worship of Iacob,
His welbeloued one.

5 Our God ascended vp on hye,
With ioy and pleasaunt noyce:
The Lord goeth vp aboue the sky,
With trompets royall voyce.
6 Sing prayses to our God, sing prayse,
Sing prayses to our King:
For God is king of all the earth,
And skilfull prayses sing.

7 God on the Heathen reignes and sits
Vpon his holy throne:
The princes of the people haue,
Them ioyned euery one.

¶Sing this as the xlvi. Pſalme.

GReat is the Lord and with great prayſe
To be aduaunced ſtill,
Within the citie of our Lord
Vpon his holy hyll.
Mount Sion is a pleaſaunt place,
It gladdeth all the land:
The citie of the mighty king,
On her north ſide doth ſtand.

Within the pallaces therof,
God is a refuge knowen:
For loe the kinges were gathered, and
Together eke were gone.
But when they dyd behold it ſo,
They woundred, and they were
Aſtoyned much, and ſodenly
Were driuen backe with feare.

Great terrour there on them did fall,
For very wo they cry,
As doth a woman when ſhe ſhall
Go trauayle by and by,
As thou with extreme winde the ſhips
Vpon the ſea dooſt breake:
So they were ſtayde, and euen as
We heard our fathers ſpeake.

So in the citie of the Lord,
We ſawe as it was told,
Yea in the citie which our Lord
For euer will vphold.
O Lord we wayte and doattende
On thy good helpe and grace:
For which we do all tymes attende,
Within thy holy place.

O Lord accordyng to thy name
For euer is thy prayſe:
And thy ryght hand, O Lord, is full
Of righteouſnes alwayes,
Let for thy Iudgements Sion mount,
Fulfilled be with ioyes:
And eke of Iuda graunt O Lord,
The daughter to reioyſe:

Go walke about all Syon hyll
Yea round about her go:
And tell the towers that therupon
Are builded on a row.
And marke ye well her bulwarkes all,
Behold her towers there:
That ye may tell therof to them,
That after ſhalbe here.

For this God is our God, our God
For euermore is he:
Yea and vnto the death alſo
Our guider ſhall he be.

PSALME XLIX. T. S.

Audite hæc omnes.

¶ The holy Ghoſt calleth all men to the conſideration of mans life. ſhewing them not to be moſt happy, that are moſt welthy, and therfore not to be feared: but contrariwiſe he lifteth vp our myndes to conſider howe all thinges are ruled by gods prouidence, who as he iudgeth theſe wordly miſteries to euerlaſting tormentes: ſo doeth he preſerue his, and will reward them in the day of the reſurrection. 1. Theſ 1.

¶Sing this as the xlv. Pſalme.

ALl people harken and geue eare,
To that that I ſhall tell:
2 Both high & low, both rich & poore.
That in the world do dwell.
3 For why? my mouth ſhall make diſcoorſe
Of many things right wiſe:
In vnderſtandyng ſhall my hart,
His ſtudy exerciſe.

6 I will incline myne eare to know
The parables ſo darke:
And open all my doubtfull ſpeech,
In metre on my harpe.
5 Why ſhould I feare afflictions,
Or any carefull toyle?
Or els my foes which at my heeles,
Are preſt my lyfe to ſpoyle?

4 For as for ſuch as riches haue,
Wherin their truſt is moſt:
And they which of their treaſures great,
Themſelues do brag and boaſt:

7 There is not one of them that can,
His brothers death redeeme:
Or that can geue a price to God,
Sufficient for hym.

8 It is to great a price to pay,
None can therto attayne:
9 Or that he might hys lyfe prolong,
Or not in graue remayne.
10 They see wyse men as well as fooles,
Subiect vnto deathes handes:
And being dead, strangers possesse,
Their goods, theyr rents, their lands.

12 Their care is to build houses faire:
And so determine sure:
To make their name right great in earth
For euer to endure.
12 Yet shall no man alwayes enioy,
High honour, wealth and rest:
But shall at length tast of deathes cup,
As well as the brute beast.

¶ The second part.

13 And though they trye their foolish thoughtes
To be most leud and vayne:
Their children yet approue theyr talke,
And in like sinne remayne.
14 As sheepe into the folde are brought,
So shall they into graue.
Death shall them eate, and in that daye
The iust shall Lordship haue.

Their image, and theyr royall port.
Shall fade and quite decay:
When as from house to pit they passe,
With wo, and weale awaye,
15 But God will suerly preserue me,
From death and endles payne,
By cause he will of his good grace,
My soule receyue agayne.

16 If any man waxe wonderous riche,
Feare not I saye, therfore,
Although the glory of his house,
Increaseth more and more.
17 For when he dyeth, of all these thinges
Nothing shall he receiue:
His glory will not folow him,
His pompe will take her leaue.

18 Yet in this lyfe he takes him selfe,
The happiest vnder sunne:
And others lykewise flatter him,
Saiyng all is well done.
19 And presuppose he lyue as long.
As did his fathers old:
Yet must he needs at length geue place,
And be brought to deathes fold.

22 Thus man to honor God hath cald,
Yet doth he not consider.
But like brute beastes so doth he lyue,
Which turne to dust and pouder.

PSALME L. I. H.

Deus Deorum.

¶ He prophecieth how God will call all nacions by the Gospell, and require no other sacrifices of his people, but confession of his benefites, and thankes geuing, and how he detesteth all such as seme zelous of Ceremonies, and not of the pure word of God onely.

3 Our God shall come in hast,
To speake he shall not doubt:
Before him shall the fire wast,
And tempest round about.
4 The heauens from on hye,
The earth below likewise:
He wyll call forth to iudge and try
His folke he doth deuise.

5 Bring forth my sayntes (sayth he)
My faithfull flocke so deare:
Which are in band and league with me,
My law to loue and feare.
6 And when these thinges are tride,
The heauens shall record:
That God is iust, and all must bide
The iudgement of the Lord.

7 My people O geue heede,
Israel to thee I cry:
I am thy God, thy helpe at neede,
Thou canst it not deny.

8 I do not say to thee,
Thy sacrifice is slacke:
Thou offrest dayly vnto me,
Much more then I do lacke.

9 Thinkest thou that I doo neede,
Thy cattel yong or old?
Or els so much desire to feede,
On goates out of thy fold?
10 Nay, all the beastes are mine,
In woodes that eate their fils:
And thousands more of neate and kine,
That runne wilde in the hils.

11 The birdes that builde on hie,
In hils and out of sight:
And beastes that in the fields do lye,
Are subiect to my might:
12 Then though I hungred sore,
What neede I ought of thine?
Sith that the earth, with her great store
And all therin is myne.

13 To bullockes flesh haue I such minde,
To eate it, doost thou thinke?
Or such a sweetnes do I finde,
The bloud of goates to drinke?
14 Geue to the Lord his prayse,
With thankes doo him apply:
And see thou pay thy vowes alwayes
Vnto the God most hye.

15 Then seeke and call to mee,
When ought would work thee blame
And I will sure deliuer thee,
That thou maist prayse my name.
16 But to the wicked traine,
Which talke of God eche day,
And yet theyr woorkes are foule and vayne,
To them the Lord will say:

17 With what a face darest thou,
My woord once speake or name:
Why doth thy talke my lawe allow?
Thy deedes deny the same.
18 Where as for to amend
Thy lyfe thou art so slacke,
My woord the which thou doost pretend,
Is cast behind thy backe.

19 When thou a theefe doost see
By theft to lyue in wealth,
With him thou runnest, and doost agree,
Lykewise to thryue by stealth,
20 When thou doost them behold,
That wiues and maydes defile:
Thou likest it well and waxest bold
To vse that lyfe most vile.

21 Thy lippes thou doost applye,
To slaunder and defame:
Thy tong is taught to craft and lye,
And still doth vse the same.
22 Thou studiest to reuile,
Thy frendes to thee so neare:
With slaunder thou wouldest needes defile
Thy mothers sonne most deare.

23 Here at while I do winke,
As though I did not see:
Thou goest on styll and so doost thinke
That I am like to thee,
24 But sure I wyl not let
To strike when I beginne:
Thy faultes in order I wyl set,
And open all thy sinne.

25 Marke this I you require,
That haue not God in mynde:
Least when I plage you in myne yre
Your helpe be far to finde.
26 He that doth geue to mee
The sacrifice of prayse:
Doth please me wel, and he shal see,
To walke in godly wayes.

i. Miserere mei Deus.

¶ When Dauid was rebuked by the Prophet Nathan for hys great offences, he did not onely, acknowledge the same to God, with protestation of his naturall corruption and iniquitie, but also left a memoriall thereof to his posteritie. Therfore first he desireth God to forgeue his sinnes, and renew in him his holy spirite: with promise that he wyll not be vnmindfull of those great graces. Finally fearing least God would punishe the whole churche for his faulte: he requireth that he would rather increase his graces towardes the same.

crime and bloudy fact.

2 Remorse and sorow do constrayne,
Me to acknowledge myne exces:
3 Mi sinne alas doth still remayne,
Before my face without reles.
4 For thee alone I haue offended,
Committing euill in thy sight
And if I were therfore condemned.
Yet were thy iudgement iust and right,

5 It is to manifest alas,
That first I was conceiued in sinne
Yea of my mother so borne was,
And yet vile wretch remayne therin,
6 Also behold Lord thou doost loue,
The inward truth of a pure hart:
Therfore thy wisdom from aboue,
Thou hast reueled me to conuert.

7 If thou with Isope purge this blot,
I shalbe cleaner then the glasse:
And if thou wash away my spot,
The snowe in whitenes shall I passe,
8 Therfore (O Lord) such ioye me send,
That inwardly I may find grace:
And that my strength may now amend,
Which thou hast swaged for my trespace.

9 Turne backe thy face and frowning ire,
For I haue felt inough thy hand:
And purge my sinne I thee desire,
Which do in number pas the sand.
10 Make new my hart within my brest,
And frame it to thy holy wyll:
Thy constant sprite in me let rest,
Which may these raging enmies kill.

¶ The second part.

11 Cast me not (Lord) out from thy face,
But speedely my torments ende:
Take not from me thy sprite and grace,
Which may from daungers me defend.
12 Restore me to those ioyes agayne,
Which I was wont in thee to finde:
And let me thy free sprit retayne,
Which vnto thee may stirre my mynd.

13 Thus when I shall thy mercyes know
I shall instruct others therin:
And men that are likewise brought low
By myne ensample shall flee sinne,
14 O God that of my health art Lord
Forgeue me this my bloudy vice:
My harte and tounge shall then accorde,
To sing thy mercies and iustice.

15 Touch thou my lyps, my tong vntie
(O Lord) which art the onely kay:
And then my mouth shall testifie
Thy woundrous workes & prayse alway
16 And as for outward sacrifice:
I would haue offred many one:
But thou estemest them of no prise,
And ther in pleasure takst thou none.

17 The heauy hart, the mynd oppress,
O Lord thou neuer doost reiect:
And to speake truth it is the best,
And of all sacrifice the effect.
18 Lord vnto Sion turne thy face,
Poure out thy mercyes on thy hyll:
And on Ierusalem thy grace,
Buyld vp the walles and loue it styll.

19 Thou shalt accept then our offringes,
Of peace and righteousnes I say:
Yea calues and many other things,
Vpon thyne alter will we lay.

¶ Another of the same by T. N.

¶ Sing this as the Lamentation.

HAue mercy on me, God, after
Thy great aboundyng grace:
After thy mercies multitude:
Do thou my sinnes deface.
Yet wash me more from mine offence
And clense me from my sin:
For I beknowe my faultes, and still,
My sinne is in myne eyne.

Agaynst thee, thee alone I haue
Offended in this case,
And euill haue I done before,
The presence of thy face:
That in the thinges that thou doost say,
Vpright thou mayst be tride:
And eke in iudging, that the dome
May passe vpon thy side.

Behold in wickednes my kinde
And shape I did receyue:
And loe my sinfull mother eke,
In sinne did me conceyue.
But loe the truth in inward parts
Is pleasaunt vnto thee:
And secretes of thy wisedome thou
Reueled hast to me.

With Isope Lord, besprinckle me,
I shalbe clensed so:
Yea washe thou me, and so I shall
Be whiter then the snow.
Of ioy and gladnes make thou me
To heare the pleasing voyce,
That so the broosed bones, which thou
Hast broken, may reioyce.

From

From the beholding of my sinnes,
Lord turne away thy face:
And all my dedes of wickednes
Do vtterly deface.
O God creat in me a hart
Vnspotted in thy sight:
And eke within my bowels, Lord,
Renew a stable sprite.

Ne cast me from thy sight, nor take
Thy holy sprite awaye:
The comfort of thy sauing helpe,
Geue me agayne, I pray:
With thy free sprite establish me,
And I will teach therfore
Sinners thy wayes, and wicked shall
Be turnde vnto thy lore.

O God that art God of my health,
From bloud deliuer mee:
That prayses of thy righteousnes,
My tong may sing to thee.

My lips that yet fast closed be,
Do thou O Lord vnlose:
The prayses of thy maiesty
My mouth shall so disclose.

I would haue offred sacrifice,
If that had pleased thee:
But pleased with burnt offringes,
I know thou wilt not bee.
A troubled sprite is sacrifice
Delightfull in Gods eyes:
A broken and an humbled hart.
God, thou wilt not despise.

In thy good will deale gently Lord,
To Sion and with all
Graunt that of thy Ierusalem
Vprerd may be the wall,
Burnt offrings gifts and sacrifice,
Of iustice in that day
Thou shalt accept, and calues they shal
Vpon thyne altar lay.

Quid gloriaris in malitia.

¶ Dauid describeth the arrogant tyrannye of his aduersary Doeg, Saules chiefe shepherd, who by false surmises caused Achimelech, with the rest of the priestes to be slayne, Dauid prophecieth his destruction, and encourageth the faithfull to put their confidence in God, whose iudgemẽts are most sharpe agaynst his aduersaries. And finallye he rendreth thankes to God for his deliueraunce. In this Psalme is lively set foorth the kingdome of Antichrist.

5 On mischief why setst thou thy mynde,
And wilt not walke vpright?
Thou hast more lust false tales to finde,
Then bring the truth to light.
4 Thou doost delite in fraud and guile,
In mischief, bloud, and wrong:
Thy lips haue learnde the flattring stile,
O false deceitfull tong.

5 Therfore shall God for euer confound,
And plucke thee from thy place:
Thy seede roote out from of the ground,
And so shall thee deface
6 The iust when they behold thy fall,
With feare will prayse the Lord:
And in reproche of thee withall,
Cry out with one accord.

7 Behold the man which would not take
The Lord for his defence:
But of his goods his God did make,
And trust his corrupt sence.
8 But I an Oliue fresh and greene,
Shall spring and spred abroade:
For why my trust all times hath bene,
Vpon the liuing God.

9 For this therfore will I geue prayse,
To thee with hart and voyce:
I will set forth thy name alwayes,
Wherin thy saintes reioyce.

Dixit insipiens in corde.

¶ The Prophet describeth the crooked nature, the cruelty, and punishment of the wicked, when they looke not for it, and desireth the deliuerance of the godly, that they may reioyce together.

¶ Sing this as the xlv. Psalme.

THe foolish man in that whiche he
Within his hart hath sayd,
That there is any God at all,
Hath vtterly denayde:
They are corrupt, and they also
A haynous worke haue wrought:
Among them all there is not one,
Of good that worketh ought.

The Lord lookt downe on sonnes of men,
From Heauen all abrode,
To see if any were that would Be wise and seeke for God.
They are gone all out of the way,
They are corrupted all:
There is not one doth any good,
There is not one at all.

Do not all wicked workers know,
That they do feede vpon
My people as they feede on bread?
The Lord they call not on.
Euen there they were afrayde, and stoode
With trembling all dismayde:
Where as there was no cause at all
Why they should be afrayde.

For God his bones that thee besedge
Hath scatered all abrode:
Thou hast confounded them, for they Reiected are of God.
O Lord geue thou thy people health,
And thou, O Lord fulfill
Thy promyse made to Israell
From out of Syon hyll.

When God his people shall restore,
That erst was captiue lad:
Then Iacob shall therin reioyse
And Israell shall be glad.

GOd saue me for thy holy name
And for thy goodnes sake:
Vnto the strength Lord of the same
I do my cause betake.

To thee when I do pray:
Bow downe thy selfe to me and heare
The wordes that I do say.

3 For straungers vp agaynst me ryse
And tyrauntes vexe me styll:
Which haue not God before their eyes
They seeke my soule to spill.
4 But loe my God doth geue me ayde,
The Lord is straight at hande
With them by whom my soule is stayde
The Lord doth euer stande.

5 With plages repaye agayne all those
For me that lye in wayte:
And with thy truth destroy my foes,
With their owne snare and bayte.
6 And offring of free hart and wyll
Then I to thee shall make?
And prayse thy name, for therin still Great comfort I do take.

7 O Lord at length do set me free,
From them that craft conspire:
And now myne eye with ioy doth see
On them my harts desire.

PSALME LV. I. H.

Exaudi Deus orationem.

¶ Dauid beyng in great heauynes and distres complaineth of the cruelty of Saul, and of the falshod of his familiar acquaintaunce, vttering most ardent affections to moue the Lord to pitye him. After beyng assured of deliuerance, he setteth foorth the grace of God, as though he had already obtained his request.

¶ Sing this as the xxxv. Psalme.

O God geue eare and do apply,
To heare me when I pray:
And when to thee I call and cry,
Hide not thy selfe away.
2 Take heede to me, graunt my request,
And answere me agaynes

With

With plaints I pray, full sore oppreſt,
Great grief doth me conſtrayne.

3 Bycauſe my foes with threates and cries
Oppres me through deſpight:
And ſo the wicked ſorte likewiſe
To vexe me haue delight.
4 For they in counſell do conſpire,
To charge me with ſome yll:
So in theyr haſty wrath and ire
They do purſue me ſtill.

5 My hart doth faint for want of breath,
It panteth in my breſt:
The terrours and the dread of death,
Do worke me much vnreſt.
6 Such dreadfull feare on me doth fall,
That I ther with do quake:
Such horrour whelmeth me with all,
That I no ſhift can make.

7 But I do ſay, who wyl giue me,
The ſwift and plaſant winges
Of ſome fayre Doue that I may flee,
And reſt me from theſe things?
8 Lo then I would go farre away,
To flye I would not ceaſe:
And I would hide my ſelfe, and ſtay
In ſome great wyldernes.

9 I would be gone in all the haſt,
And not abyde behynde:
That I were quite and ouer paſt
Theſe blaſtes of boiſtrous winde.
10 Deuide them Lord, and from them put
Their diueliſhe double tong:
For I haue ſpide theyr city full,
Of rauine, ſtrife and wrong.

11 Which things, both night & day throughout
Do cloſe her as a wall:
In midſt of her is miſchiefe ſtoute,
And ſorrow eke with all.
12 Her priuy partes are wicked playne,
Her deedes are much to vyle:
And in her ſtreetes there doth remayne,
All crafty fraud and guyle.

¶ The ſecond part.

13 If that my foes did ſeeke my ſhame,
I might it well abyde.
From open enmies checke and blame
Some where I could me hide.
14 But thou it was my fellow deare,
Which friendſhip didſt pretend:
And didſt my ſecret counſell heare,
As my familiar friend.

15 With whom I had delight to talke,
In ſecret and abrode:
And we together oft did walke,
Within the houſe of God.
16 Let death in haſt vpon them fall,
And ſend them quicke to hell:
For miſchief raygneth in their hall,
And parlour where they dwell.

17 But I vnto my God do cry,
To him for helpe I flee:
The Lord doth heare me by and by,
And he doth ſuccour mee.
18 At morning, noone and euening tyde,
Vnto the Lord I pray:
When I ſo inſtantly haue cryde,
He doth not ſay me nay.

19 To peace he ſhall reſtore me yet,
Though war be now at hand,
Although the number be full great
That would agaynſt me ſtand,
20 The Lord that firſt and laſt doth raigne
Both now and euermore,
Wil heare when I to him complayne,
And puniſh them full ſore.

21 For ſure there is no hope that they
To turne will once accord:
For why, they will not God obey,
Nor do not feare the Lord.
22 Vpon theyr frends they layd their handes
Which were in couenant knit:
Of frendſhip to neglect the bandes
They paſſe or care no whyt.

23 While they haue war within their hart
As butter are theyr wordes.
Although his wordes wer ſmooth as oyle,
They cut as ſharpe as ſwordes.
24 Caſt thou thy care vpon the Lord,
And he ſhall nouriſh thee:
For in no wyſe will he accord
The iuſt in thrall to ſee.

25 But God ſhall caſt them deepe in
That thirſt for bloud alwayes:
He will no guilefull man permit,
To lyue out halfe his dayes:
26 Though ſuch be quite deſtroide and gone
In thee (O Lord) I truſt:
I ſhall depend thy grace vpon,
With all my hart and luſt.

PSALME LVI. I. H.

Miſerere mei.

¶ Dauid beyng brought to Achis the kynge of Gath, 2. Sam. 21. 12. complaineth of his enemies, demaundeth ſuccor, putteth his truſt in God & his promiſes, and promiſeth to performe hys vowes which he had taken vpon him, wherof this was the effect to prayſe God in his Churche.

¶Sing this as the Lamentation.

HAue mercy Lord on me I pray,
For man wolde me deuoure:
He fighteth with me day by day,
And troubleth me eche houre.
2 Myne enmies dayly enterprise
To swalow me outryghte:
To fight against me many ryse,
O thou most high of might.

3 When they would make me most afrayd
With boast and brags of pride:
I trust in thee alone for ayde,
By thee will I abyde.
4 Gods promise I do minde and prayse,
O Lord I sticke to thee:
I do not care at all assayes,
What flesshe can do to mee.

5 What thinges I either did or spake,
They wrast them at theyr will:
And all the counsell that they take,
Is how to worke me ill.
6 They all consent them selues to hide,
Close watche for me to lay:
To spye my pathes, and snares haue tride
To take my life away.

7 Shall they thus scape on mischef set?
Thou God on them wilt frowne:
For in his wrath he doth not let:
To throw whole kingdomes downe,
8 Thou seest how oft they made me flee
And on my teares doost looke:
Reserue them in a glas by thee,
And write them in thy booke.

9 When I do call vpon thy name,
My foes away do start,
I well perceaue it by that same,
That God doth take my part.
10 I glory in the word of God,
To prayse it I accord:
With ioy will I declare abrode,
The promise of the Lord.

11 I trust in god, and yet I say,
As I afore beganne:
The Lord he is my helpe and stay,
I do not care for man.
12 And will performe with hart so free
To God my vowes alwaies:
And I o Lord all tymes to thee,
Wil offer thankes and prayse.

13 My soule from death thou doost defend
And keepe my feete vpright,
That I before thee may ascend,
With such as lyue in light.

PSALME LVII. I. H.

Miserere mei.

¶ Dauid being in the desert of Ziph, where the inhabitauntes did betray him, and at length in the same Caue with Saul, calleth moste earnestlye vnto God, with full confidence that he will performe his promes, and take his cause in hand: Also that he will shew his glory in the Heauens and the earth agaynst his ernell enemies. Therfore doth he render laude and prayse.

¶ Sing this as the xliiii. Psalme.

TAke pitie for thy promise sake,
Haue mercy Lord on mee:
For why my soule doth her betake
Vnto the helpe of thee.
2 Within the shadow of thy winges
I set my selfe full fast:
Till mischief, malice, and like thinges,
Be gone and ouerpast.

3 I call vpon the God most hie,
To whom I sticke and stand:
I meane the God that will stand by
The cause I haue in hand.
4 From heauen he hath sent his ayde,
To saue me from their spight:
That to deuoure me haue assayde,
His mercy truth and might.

5 I leade my lyfe with Lions fell,
All set on wrath and ire:
And with such wicked men I dwell,
That freate like flames of fire.
6 Their teeth are speares and arrowes long
As sharpe as I haue seene:
They wound and cut, with their quick tong,
Like swordes and weapons kene.

7 Set vp and shew thy selfe O God
Aboue the heauens bright:
Exalt thy prayse on earth abroade,
Thy maiestye and might.
8 They laye theyr net and doo prepare,
A pryuy caue and pit:
Wherin they thinke my soule to snare,
But they are fallne in it.

9 My hart is set to laude the Lord,
In him to ioy alwayes:
My hart I say doth well accorde
To sing his laude and prayse.
10 Awake my ioye, awake I saye,
My lute, my harpe and strynge:
For I my selfe before the day,
Will ryse, reioyce and sing.

11 Among the people I will tell,
The goodnes of my God:
And shew his prayse that doth excell,
In Heathen lands abroade.
12 His mercy doth extend as farre,
As heauens all are hie:
His truth as high as any starre,
That standeth in the skie.

13 Set forth and shew thy selfe O God,
Aboue the heauens bright:
Extoll thy prayse on earth abroade,
Thy maiestie and might.

PSALME LVIII. I. H.

Si verè vtique.

¶ He describeth the malice of his enemies, the flatterers of Saule, who both secretly and openlye sought his destruction, from whom he appealeth to Gods iudgement, shewing that the iust shall reioyce, when they see the punishment of the wicked, to the glory of God.

¶Sing this as the xlviii. Psalme.

YE rulers that are put in trust,
To iudge of wrong and right:
Be all your iudgements true and iust
Not knowing neede or myght.
2 Nay in your harts ye marke and muse,
In mischiefe to consent:
And where ye should true iustice vse,
Your hands to bribes are bent.

3 This wicked sort from theyr byrth day
Haue erred on this wyse:
And from theyr mothers wombe alway,
Haue vsed craft and lyes.
4 In them the poyson and the breath,
Of Serpents doo appeare:
Yea lyke the Adder that is deafe,
And fast doth stop his eare.

5 Because he will not heare the voyce,
Of one that charmeth well:
No though he were the chiefe of choice,
And dyd therin excell.
6 O God breake thou theyr teth at once,
Within theyr mouth throughout:
The tuskes that in their great chaw bones
Like Lions whelpes hang out.

7 Let them consume awaye and wast,
As water runs forth right:
The shaftes that they doo shoote in hast,
Let them be broke in flight.
8 As Snailes do wast within the shel,
And vnto slime do run:
As one before his tyme that fel,
And neuer saw the sunne.

9 Before the thornes that now are yong
To bushes byg shall grow:
The stormes of anger waxing strong:
Shall take them ere they know.
10 The iust shall ioy, it doth them good,
That God doth vengeaunce take:
And they shall wash theyr feete in blood,
Of them that him forsake.

11 Then shall the world shew forth and tell
That good men haue reward:
And that a God in earth doth dwell,
That iustice doth regard.

PSALME LIX. I. H.

Eripe me.

¶ Dauid being in great daunger of Saul, who sent to slaye him in his bed, prayeth vnto God, declareth his innocency, and theyr furye, desyring God to destroye all those that syn of malicious wickednes. Whom though hee kepe alyue for a tyme to exercise his people, yet in the end he will consume them in his wrath, that he may be knowen to bee the God of Iacob to the worldes end. For this hee syngeth prayses to God, assured of hys mercyes.

3 For lo they wayte my ſoule to take,
They rage agaynſt me ſtyll:
Yea, for no fault that I did make,
I neuer dyd them yll.
4 They runne and doo their ſelues prepare,
When I no whyt offend
Ariſe and ſaue me from their ſnare,
And ſee what they entend.

5 O Lord of hoſtes of Iſrael,
Ariſe and ſtrike all landes:
And pitie none that doth rebell,
And in their miſchief ſtands.
6 At night they ſtirre and ſeeke about,
As houndes they houle and grenne
And all the citie cleane throughout,
From place to place they renne.

7 They ſpake of me with mouth alwaye
But in theyr lippes were ſwordes:
They greede my death, and then would ſay
What? none doth heare our wordes.
8 But Lord thou haſt their wayes eſpide
And laught therat a pace:
The Hethen folke thou ſhalt deride,
And mocke them to their face.

9 The ſtrength that doth my foes withſtand
(O Lord) doth come of thee:
My God he is my helpe at hand,
A forte of fence to me:
10 The Lord to me doth ſhew his grace
In great aboundance ſtyll:
That I may ſee my foes in caſe,
Such as my hart doth will.

11 Deſtroy them not at once (O God)
Leaſt it from minde doo fall:
But with thy ſtrength driue them abroad
And ſo conſume them all.
12 For theyr ill wordes and truthles tong
Confound them in theyr pryde:
Their wicked othes with lyes and wrong
Let all the world deryde.

13 Conſume them in thy wrath O Lord
That nought of them remaine:
That men may know throughout the world
That Iacobs God doth reigne.
14 At euening they returne a pace,
As dogges they grinne and crye
Throughout the ſtreetes in euery place
They renne about and ſpye.

15 They ſeeke about for meate I ſay,
But let them not be fed:
Nor finde an houſe wherin they may,
Be bolde to put theyr head.
16 But I will ſhew thy ſtrength abroad,
Thy goodnes I will prayſe:
For thou art my defence and God,
At neede in all aſſayes.

17 Thou art my ſtrength, thou haſt me ſtaid
O Lord I ſing to thee:
Thou art my forte my fence and ayde,
A louing God to me.

PSALME LX. I. H.

Deus repuliſti.

¶ Dauid being now king ouer Iudah, and hauing had manye victories, ſheweth by euident ſygnes, that God elected hym kynge, aſſuring the people that God wyll proſper them yf they approue the ſame: After hee prayeth vnto God to finiſhe that that hee hath begon.

¶ Sing this as the lix. Pſalme.

O Lord thou dydſt vs cleane forſake,
And ſcattredſt vs abrode:
Such great diſpleaſure thou dydſt take,
Returne to vs (O God)
2 Thy might doth moue the land ſo ſore,
That it in ſunder brake:
The hurt therof (O Lord) reſtore,
For it doth bow and quake.

3 With heauy chaunce thou plagedſt thus,
The people that are thine:
And thou haſt geuen vnto vs
A drinke of deadly wine.
4 But yet to ſuch as feare thy name
A token ſhall enſue:
That they may triumphe in the ſame,
Bicauſe thy word is true.

5 So that thy might may keepe and ſaue
Thy folke that fauour thee:
That they thy help at hand may haue
O Lord graunt this to me.
6 The Lord did ſpeake from his own place
This was his ioyfull tale:
I will deuide Sichem by pace.
And meete out Succothes vale.

7 Galaad is geuen to my hand,
Manaſſes mine beſide:
Ephraim the ſtrength of all my land,
My lawe doth Iuda guide:
8 In Moab I will waſhe my feete,
Ouer Edom throw my ſhoo:
And thou Paleſtine oughteſt to ſeeke,
For fauour me vnto.

9 But who will bringe me at this tyde
Vnto the citye ſtrong?
Or who to Edom will me guide,

So

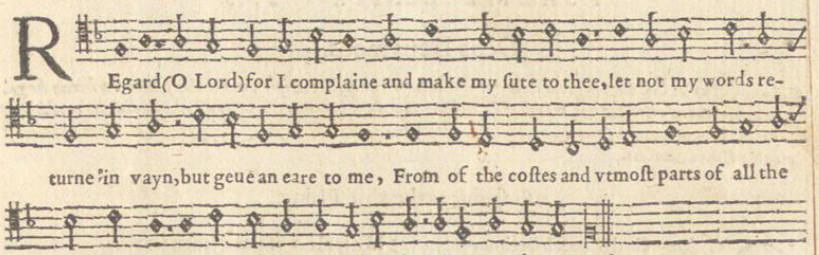
So that I go not wrong?
10 Wilt thou my God, which didst forsake
Thy folke theyr land and coastes,
Our warres in hand thou wouldst not take
Nor walke among our hoste.

11 Geue ayde O Lord, and vs releue
From them that vs disdayne:
The help that hostes of men can geue
It is but all in vayne.
12 But through our God, we shall haue might
To take great thinges in hand:
He will treade downe and put to flight
All those that vs withstand.

PSALME LXI. I. H.

Exaudi Deus orationem.

¶ Whether that he were in daunger of the Amonites, or beyng pursued of Absalon, here he cryeth to be hard and delyuered, and confirmed in his kingdom. He promiseth perpetuall prayses.



Egard (O Lord) for I complaine and make my sute to thee, let not my words returne in vayn, but geue an eare to me, From of the costes and vtmost parts of all the earth abrode, in grief and anguish of my hart I cry to thee O God.

3 Vpon the rocke of thy great power
My woful mynde repose:
Thou art my hope, my fort, and tower,
My fence agaynst my foes.
4 Within thy tent I lust to dwel,
For euer to endure:
Vnder thy wynges I know right wel,
I shalbe safe and sure.

5 The Lord doth my desire regarde,
And doth fulfyll the same:
With godly gyftes wyll he rewarde
All them that feare hys name.

6 The king shall he in health maintayne,
And so prolong hys dayes,
That he from age to age shall raigne,
For euermore alwayes.

7 That he may haue a dwelling place,
Before the Lord for ayde:
O let thy mercy truth and grace,
Defend hym from decay.
8 Then shall I sing for euer styll,
With prayse vnto thy name:
That all my vowes I may fulfyl,
And dayly pay the same.

PSALME LXII. I. H.

Nonne Deo subiecta.

¶ David declareth by hys example, and by the nature of God, that he must trust in God alone: and therunto exhorteth all people seing that all is vanity, and without God all goeth to nought, and we are alwayes taught that God onely is of power to saue, and that he rewardeth man according to his woorkes.

¶ Sing this as the lxi. Psalme.

MY soul to God shall geue good heede,
And him aloue entend:
For why my health and hope to speed
Doth whole on him depend.
2 For he alone is my defence,
My rocke, my health, and ayde:
He is my stay that no pretence,
Shall make me much dismayde.

3 O wicked folke how long wyll ye,
Vse craftes? sure ye must fall:
For as a rotten hedge ye be,
And like a tottring wall.

4 Whom God doth loue ye seeke alwayes
To put hym to the worse:
Ye loue to lye, wyth mouth ye prayse,
And yet your hart doth curse.

5 Yet stil my soule doth whole depend,
On God my chiefe desire:
From all false feates me to defend,
None but him I require.
6 He is my rocke, my strength, my tower,
My health is of his grace:
He doth support me that no powre
Can moue me out of place.

4 God is my glory and my health,
My soules desire and lust:
My fort my strength, my stay, my welth,
God is mine onely trust.
8 Oh haue your hope in him alway,
Ye folke with one accord:
Powre out your harts to hym, and say,
Our trust is in the Lord.

9 The sonnes of men deceitfull are
On balaunce but a sleyght:
With thinges most vayne doo them compare
For they can keepe no weyght

10 Trust not in wrong, robbry, or stealth,
Let vayne delytes be gon:
Though goods wel got flow in with welth
Set not your hartes theron.

11 The Lord long sith one thing doth tell,
Which here to minde I call:
He spake it oft, I hard it well:
That God alone doth all.
12 And that thou (Lord) art good and kinde.
Thy mercy doth exceede:
So that all sortes with thee shall synde,
According to their deede.

PSALME LXIII. T. S.

Deus Deus meus.

¶ Dauid after he had bene in great daunger of Saul, in the deserte Ziph, made this psalme: wherein he geueth thankes, to God for hys wonderfull deliueraūce, in whose mercies he trusted, euen in the myddest of his miseries: propheciyng the destruction of Gods enemies, and contrarywise, happynes to all them that trust in the Lord. i. Sam. iii.

¶ Sing this as the xliiii. Psalme.

O God, my God, I watch betime,
To come to thee in hast:
For why? my soule and body both,
Doth thirst of thee to tast.
And in this barren wyldernes,
Where waters ther are none,
My flesh is parched for thought of thee,
For thee I wysh alone.

2 That I might see yet once agayne,
Thy glory, strength, and might:
As I was wont it to beholde,
Within the temple bryght.
3 For why? thy mercies far surmount
This life and wretched dayes:
My lyppes therfore shall geue to thee
Due honor, laude and prayse.

4 And whylst I lyue, I wyll not fayle,
To worship thee alway:
And in thy name I shall lyft vp,
My handes when I doo pray.

5 My soule is fild as with marowe,
Which is both fat and sweete:
My mouth therfore shall sing such songes,
As are for thee most meete.

6 When as in bed, I thinke on thee,
And eke all the night tide.
7 For vnder couert of thy wynges
Thou art my ioyfull guide.
8 My soule doth surely sticke to thee,
Thy ryght hand is my power:
9 And those that seeke my soule to stroy,
Them death shall soone deuour.

10 The swoord shall them deuoure eheone,
Their carcases shall feede:
The hungry Foxes which doo runne.
Their praye to seeke at neede.
11 The king and all men shall reioyce,
That doo profes Gods woord:
For lyers mouthes shall then be stopt,
Which haue the truth disturbde.

PSALME LXIIII. I. H.

Exaudi Deus vocem.

¶ Dauid prayeth against the false reporters and slaunderers: he declareth their punishment and destruction, to thee comfort of the iust and the glory of God.

¶ Sing this as the xviii. Psalme.

O Lord vnto my voyce geue eare,
With plaint when I doo pray:
And ryd my lyfe and soule fro feare,
Of foes that threat to slay:
2 Defend me from that sort of men,
Which in deceites doo loorke:
And from the frowning face of them,
That all yll feates doo woorke.

3 who whet their tonges as we haue sene
Men whet and sharpe their swoords:
They shoote abroade their arrowes kene,
I meane most bitter woords.
4 With priuy sleight shote they their shaft
The vpright man to hyt:
The iust vnware to strike by craft,
They care and feare no whyt.

5 A wicked worke haue they decreed,
In counsell thus they cry:
To vse deceit let vs not dread,
What? who can it espie?
6 What wayes to hurt they talke and muse,
All tymes with in their hart:
They all consult what feates to vse.
Ech doth inuent his part.

7 But yet all this shall not auayle,
When they thinke least vpon:
God with his dart shall them assayle,
And wound them euery one.

8 Their crafts and their ill tongs withall,
Shall worke them selues such blame:
That they which then behold their fall,
Shall wonder at the same.

9 Then all that see shall know right well,
That God the thing hath wrought:
Shall prayse his wittie workes, and tell
What he to passe hath brought.
10 Yet shall the iust in God reioyce,
Still trusting in his might:
So shall they ioy with mind and voyce
Whose hart is pure and ryght.

PSALME LXV I. H.

Te decet hymnus.

¶ A prayse and thankesgeuing vnto god by the faithfull, who are signified by Sion, and Ierusalem, for the chosing, preseruation, and gouernaunce of them, and for the plentifull blessings poured forth vpon all the earth.

¶Sing this as the xxx.Psalme.

THy prayse alone, O Lord, doth reigne,
In Syon thyne owne hill,
Their vowes to thee they do maintay-
And their behestes fulfill. (ne
2 For that thou doost their prayer heare,
And doost therto agree:
Thy people all both far and neare,
With trust shall come to thee.

3 Our wicked life so farre excedes,
That we should fall therin:
(But Lord) forgeue our great misdeedes,
And purge vs from our sinne.
4 The man is blest whom thou doost chuse
Within thy court to dwell:
Thy house and temple he shall vse,
With pleasures that excell.

5 Of thy great iustice heare vs God,
Our health of thee doth ryse:
The hope of all the earth abroad,
And the sea costes likewyse.
6 With strength thou art beset about,
And compast with thy power.
Thou makst the mountaynes strong and stout,
To stand in euery shower.

7 The swelling seas thou doost asswage,
And make their streames full still:
Thou doost restraine the peoples rage,
And rule them at thy wil.

8 The folke which dwell full far on earth,
Shall dreade thy signes to see:
Which morne and euen in great myrth,
Do passe with prayse to thee.

9 When that the earth is chapt and dry,
And thyrsteth more and more:
Then with thy drops thou doost apply
And much encrease her store.
10 The floud of God doth ouerflow,
And so doth cause to spring
The seede and corne which men do sowe
For he doth guide the thing,

11 With wheate thou doest her forowes fill,
Wherby her cloddes do fall:
Thy drops to her, thou doost distill,
And bles her frute withall.
12 Thou deckst the earth of thy good grace
With fayre and pleasaunt crop.
Thy cloudes distil their dew a pace,
Great plenty they do drop.

13 Wherby the desert shall begin
Full great encrease to bryng:
The litle hils shall ioy therin,
Much frute in them shall spring.
14 In places plaine the flocke shall feede
And couer all the earth:
The valies with corne shall so exceede
That men shall sing for mirth.

PSALME LXVI. T. S.

Iubilate Deo omnis terra.

¶ He prouoketh all men to prayse the Lord, and to consider his workes, rehearsinge two thinges most wonderfull. He setteth forth the power of god to affray the rebels, and sheweth howe God hath deliuered Israell from great bondage and afflictions, he promiseth to geue sacrifice, and prouoketh all men to hearke what God hath done for him, and to prayse hys name.

¶Sing this as the xviii. Pſalme.

YE men on earth in God reioyce,
With prayſe ſet forth his name:
Extol his might with hart and voyce
Geue glory to the ſame.
2 How wonderfull, O Lord, ſay ye,
In all thy workes thou art,
Thy foes for feare do ſeke to thee.
Full ſore againſt their hart.

3 All men that dwell the earth throughout:
Do prayſe the name of God:
The laud therof the world about,
Is ſhewed and ſet abroad.
4 All folke come forth beholde and ſee,
What things the Lord hath wrought:
Marke well the wondrous workes that hee,
For man to paſſe hath brought.

5 He layd the ſea lyke heapes on hye,
Therin away they had:
On foote to paſſe both fayre and drie,
Wherof their harts were glad.
6 His might doth rule the world alway,
His eyes all things beholde:
All ſuch as would him diſobey,
By him ſhalbe controld.

7 Ye people geue vnto our God,
Due laud and thankes alwayes:
With ioyfull voyce declare abroad,
And ſing vnto his prayſe.
Which doth endue our ſoule with ly fe,
And it preſerue with all,
He ſtayeth our feete, ſo that no ſtrife,
Can make vs ſlip or fall.

9 The Lord doth proue our dedes with fire,
If that they will abide:
As workemen do when they deſire.
To haue their metals tride.
10 Although thou ſuffer vs ſo long,
In priſon to be caſt:
And there with chaynes and fetters ſtrong
To lye in bondage faſt.

¶The ſecond part.

11 Although I ſay thou ſuffer men,
On vs to ryde and raigne:
Though we through fire and water ren,
Of very griefe and paine:
12 Yet ſure thou dooſt of thy good grace,
Diſpoſe it to the beſt:
And bring vs out into a place,
To liue in wealth and reſt.

13 Vnto thy houſe reſort will I,
To offer and to pray:
And there I wyll my ſelf apply,
My vowes to thee to pay.
14 The vowes that with my mouth I ſpake
In all my griefe and ſmart:
The vowes I ſay which I did make
In dolor of my hart.

15 Burnt offring I will geue to thee,
Of Oxen fat and Rammes:
No other ſacrifice ſhalbe,
Of bullockes, goates and lambes.
16 Come forth and harken here full ſoone,
All ye that feare the Lord:
What he for my poore ſoule hath doone,
To you I will record.

17 Full oft I call vpon his grace,
Thys mouth to him doth cry.
And thou my tong make ſpeede a pace,
To prayſe him by and by.
18 But if I feele my hart within:
In wicked woorkes reioyce:
Or if I haue delite to ſinne,
God will not heare my voyce.

19 But ſurely God my voyce hath heard,
And what I do require:
My prayer he doth well regard,
And graunteth my deſire.
20 All prayſe to him that hath not put,
Nor caſt me out of mynde:
Nor yet his mercy from me ſhut,
Which I do euer finde.

PSALME LXVII. I. H.

Deus miſereatur.

¶ A ſwete prayer for all the faithfull to obteyne the fauour of God, and to be lyghtned with his countenance, to the end that hys waye and iudgements may be knowen throughout the earth. A reioyſing that god is the gouernor of all nations.

¶Sing this as the xxx. Pſalme.

HAue mercy on vs, Lord,
And graunt to vs thy grace:
To ſhewe to vs do thou accord,
The brightnes of thy face.
2 That all the earth may know:
Thy way to godly wealth:
And all the nations on a row,
May ſee thy ſauing health.

3 Let all the world, O God,
Geue prayſe vnto thy name:
O let the people all abroad,
Extoll and laud the ſame.
4 Throughout the world ſo wyde

Let

For thou with truth and ryght dooſt guide
The nacions of the earth.

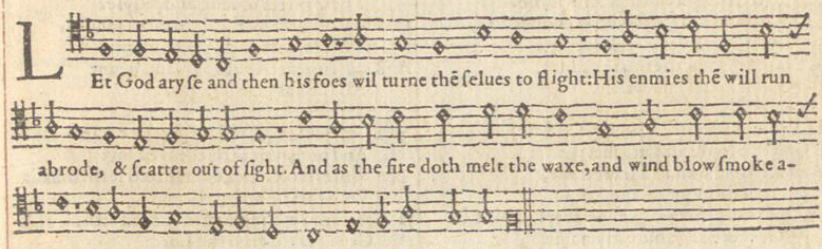
5 Let all the world, O God,
Geue prayſe vnto thy name:
Oh let the people all abroad,
Extoll and laud the ſame.
6 Then ſhall the earth encreaſe,
Great ſtore of frute ſhall fall:
And then our God, the God of peace,
Shall bleſſe vs eke with all.

God ſhall vs bleſſe, I ſay,
And then both farre and neare,
The folke throughout the earth alway,
Of him ſhall ſtand in feare.

PSALME LXVIII. T. S.

Exurgat Deus.

¶In this Pſalme Dauid ſetteth forth as in a glas the wonderfull mercies of God towards his people who by all meanes and moſt ſtraunge ſorties declareth hym ſelfe to them. And therfore gods church by reaſon of his promiſes, graces and victories doth excell without cõpariſon all worldly things: he exhorteth therfore all men to prayſe God for euer.



But righteous men before the Lord,
Shall hartely reioyce:
3 They ſhalbe glad and mery all,
And chearefull in their voyce.
4 Sing prayſe, ſing prayſe vnto the Lord
Who rydeth on the ſkie:
Extoll this name of Iah our God,
And him do magnifie.

5 That ſame is he that is aboue,
Within his holy place:
That father is of fatherles,
And iudge of widowes caſe.
6 Houſes he geues and iſſue both,
Vnto the comfortles:
He bryngeth bondmen out of thrall,
And rebels to diſtres.

7 When thou didſt march before thy folk,
The Egyptians from among:
And brought them through the wildernes,
Which was both wide and long:
8 The earth did quake the rain pourd down,
Heard were great claps of thunder:
The mount Sinay ſhooke in ſuch ſort,
As it would cleaue a ſunder.

9 Thyne heritage with drops of raine,
Abundantly was waſht:
And if ſo be it barren waxt,
By thee it was refreſht.
10 Thy choſen flocke doth there remayne,
Thou haſt preparde that place:
And for the poore thou dooſt prouyde,
Of thyne eſpeciall grace.

¶ The ſecond part.
11 God will geue women cauſes iuſt,
To magnifie his name:
When as his people triumphes make,
And purchaſe brute and fame,
12 For puiſſant kings for all their power:
Shall flee, and take the foyle:
And women which remayne at home,
Shall helpe to part the ſpoyle.

13 And though you wer as black as pitch,
Your hew ſhould paſſe the doue:
Whoſe winges and fethers ſeme to haue,
Siluer and gold aboue.
14 When in this land God ſhall triumphe
Ouer kinges both hye and low,
Then ſhall it be like Salmon hill,
As white as any ſnow.

15 Though Baſan be a frutefull hill,
And in height others paſſe?
Yet Sion Gods moſt holy hill,
Doth farre excell in grace.
16 Why brag ye thus, ye hils moſt high,
And leape for pryde together?
This hill of Sion God doth loue,
And there will dwell for euer.

17 Gods army is two millions,
Of warriours good and ſtrong:
The Lord alſo in Sinai,
Is preſent them among.

18 Thou didst (O Lord) ascend on hygh,
And captyues led them all:
Which in tymes past thy chosen flocke,
In pryson kept and thrall.

Thou madest them tribute for to pay,
And such as dyd repyne,
Thou didst subdue, that they might dwell
In thy temple diuine.
19 Now praysed be the Lord for that
He poures on vs such grace:
From day to day he is the God
Of our health and solace.

¶ The thyrde part.
20 He is the God from whom alone,
Saluacion commeth plaine:
He is the God by whom we scape
All daungers, death and paine.
21 Thus God will wound his enmies hed,
And breake the heary scalpe
Of those that in their wickednes,
Continually do walke.

22 From Basan will I bryng (sayd he)
My people and my sheepe:
And all mine own as I haue done,
From daunger of the deepe.
23 And make them dip their feete in bloud,
Of those that hate my name:
And dogs shall haue their tongs embrude,
With lickyng of the same.

24 All men may see how thou (O God)
Thyne enmies doost deface.
And how thou goest as God and king,
Into thy holy place.
25 The singers go before with ioy,
The minstrels follow after:
And in the midst the damsels play,
With timbrell and with taber.

26 Now in the congregations,
(O Israell) prayse the Lord:
And Iacobs whole posteritie,
Geue thankes with one accord,

7 Their chiefe was litle Beniamin,
But Iuda made their host:
With Zabulon, and Neptalim,
Which dweld about their cost.

28 As God hath geuen power to thee,
So (Lord) make firme and sure,
The thyng that thou hast wrought in vs
For euer to endure.
29 And in thy temple giftes will we Geue vnto thee (O Lord:)
For thyne vnto Ierusalem,
Sure promyse made by word.

¶ The fourth part.
Yea and straunge kings to vs subdude,
Shall do lyke in those dayes:
I meane to thee they shall present,
Their giftes of laud and prayse.
30 He shall destroy the spearmens rancks,
Their calues and buls of might:
And cause them tribute pay, and daunt
All such as loue to fight.

31 Then shall the Lords of Egypt come
And presentes with them bryng:
The Mores most blacke shal stretche their hads
Vnto their Lord and king.
32 Therfore ye kingdomes of the earth,
Geue prayse vnto the Lord:
Sing Psalmes to God with one consent,
Therto let all accord.

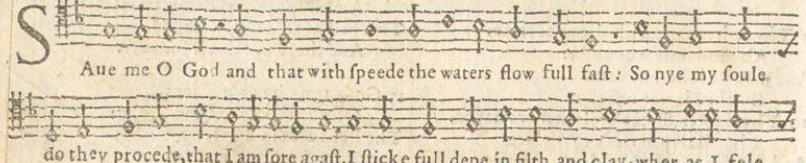
33 Who though he ryde and euer hath,
Aboue the heauens bryght:
Yet by the fearefull thunder claps,
Men may well know his myght.
34 Therfore the strength of Israell,
Ascribe to God on hye:
Whose might and power doth far extend
Aboue the cloudy skye.

35 O God thy holines and power,
Is dread for euermore:
The God of Israell geueth vs strength,
Praysed be God therfore.

PSALME LXIX. I. H.

Saluum me fac.

¶ The complaintes, prayers, feruent zele, & great anguish of Dauid is set foorth as a figure of Christ, and all his membres: the malicious cruelty of the enemies & their punishment also, where Iudas and suche traitours are accursed. Then gathered he courage in his afflictiõs and offereth praises vnto god which are more acceptable then all sacrifices, wherof all the afflicted may take comfort. Finally he doth prouoke all creatures to prayses, prophecying of the kingdome of Christ, and the building of Iuda, where all the faithfull and their sede shall dwell for euer.



no ground: I fall into ſuch flouds I ſay, that I am lyke be drounde.

3 With criyng oft I faint and quaile,
My throte is horſe and dry:
With looking vp my ſight doth fayle,
For helpe to God on hye.
4 My foes that giltles do oppres
My ſoule, with hate are led:
In number ſure they are no les,
Then heares are on my hed.

5 Though for no cauſe they vexe me ſore
They proſper and are glad:
They do compell me to reſtore,
The things I neuer had.
6 What I haue done for want of wit,
Thou Lord all tymes canſt tell:
And all the ſame that I commit,
To thee is knowne full well.

7 (O God) of hoſtes defend and ſtay,
All thoſe that truſt in thee:
Let no man doubt or ſhrinke away,
For ought that chaunceth mee.
8 It is for thee and for thy ſake,
That I do beare this blame:
In ſpite of thee they would me make,
To hyde my face for ſhame.

9 My mothers ſonnes, my brethren all,
Forſake me on a rowe:
And as a ſtraunger they me call,
My face they will not know,
10 Vnto thy houſe ſuch zeale I beare,
That it doth pyne me much:
Their checks and taunts at thee to heare,
My very hart doth grutch.

¶The ſecond part.

11 Though I do faſt my fleſh to chaſte,
Yea if I weepe and mone:
Yet in my teeth this geare is caſt,
They paſſe not therupon.
12 If I for grief, and payne of hart,
In ſacke cloth vſe to walke:
Then they anone will it peruert,
Therof they ieſt and talke.

13 Both hye and lowe, and all the throng
That ſit within the gate:
They haue me euer in their tong,
Of me they talke and prate.
14 The dronkards which in wine delite,
It is their chief paſtime:
To ſeeke which way to woorke me ſpite,
Of me they ſing and rime.

15 But thee the while (O Lord) I pray,
That when it pleaſeth thee:
For thy great truth thou wilt alway,
Send down thine ayde to me.
16 Pluck thou my feete out of the myre,
From drowning do me keepe:
From ſuch as owe me wrath and ire,
And from the waters deepe.

17 Leaſt with the waues I ſhould be drownd,
And depth my ſoule deuouer:
And that the pit ſhould me confound,
And ſhut me in her power:
18 O Lord of hoſtes to me geue eare,
As thou art good and kinde:
And as thy mercy is moſt deare,
Lord haue me in thy mynde.

19 And do not from thy ſeruaunt hyde
Nor turne thy face away:
I am oppreſt on euery ſide,
In haſt geue eare I ſay.
20 O Lord vnto my ſoule draw nye,
The ſame with ayde repoſe:
By cauſe of their great tyranni,
Acquite me fro my foes.

¶The thyrd part.

21 That I abyde rebuke and ſhame,
Thou knoweſt and thou canſt tell,
For thoſe that ſeeke and woorke the ſame
Thou ſeeſt them all full well.
22 When they with brags do breake my hart,
I ſeeke for helpe anone,
But finde no frendes to eaſe my ſmart,
To comfort me, not one.

23 But in my meate they gaue me gall,
To cruell for to thincke:
And gaue me in my thyrſt withall,
Strong vineger to drincke.
24 Lord turne their table to a ſnare
To take them ſelues therin,
And when they thinke full well to fare,
Then trap them in the gin.

25 And let their eyes be darke and blinde,
That they may nothing ſee
Bow downe theyr back and do them bind,
In thraldome for to bee.
26 Poure out thy wrath as hoate as fire,
That it on them may fall:
Let thy diſpleaſure in thyne ire,
Take holde vpon them all.

As deſert dry their houſe diſgrace,
Their offring eke expell.
27 That none therof poſſes their place,
Nor in theyr tents do dwell.
If thou dooſt ſtrike the man to tame,
On him they lay full ſore:

28 And if that thou do wounde the ſame
They ſeeke to hurt him more.

Then let them heape vp miſchief ſtill,
Sith they are all peruert:
29 That of thy fauor and good will,
They neuer haue no part.
30 And daſh the cleane out of the booke
Of life, of hope, of truſt:
That for their names they neuer looke,
In number of the iuſt.

¶ The fourth part.

31 Though I (O Lord) with wo and grief,
Haue bene full ſore oppreſt:
Thy helpe ſhall geue me ſuch relief,
That all ſhall be redreſt.
32 That I may geue thy name the prayſe
And ſhewe it with a ſong:
I will extoll the ſame alwayes,
With harty thankes among.

33 Which is more pleaſaunt vnto thee,
(Such minde thy grace hath borne:)
Then either Oxe, or Calfe can bee,
That hath both hoofe and horne.
34 When ſimple folke do this behold
It ſhall reioyce them ſure:
All ye that ſeeke the Lord, behold,
Your life for aye ſhall dure.

For why? the Lord of hoſtes doth heare
The poore when they complayne:
His priſoners are to him full deare,
He doth them not diſdayne.
36 Wherfore the ſkye and earth below
The ſea with floud and ſtreame:
His prayſe they ſhall declare and ſhowe
With all that lyue in them.

37 For ſure our God will Sion ſaue,
And Iudas Cities builde:
38 Much folke poſſeſſion there ſhall haue
Her ſtreetes ſhall all be filde.
Her ſeruaunts ſede ſhall kepe ſ̄ ſame,
All ages out of minde.
39 And there all they that loue his name,
A dwelling place ſhall finde.

PSALME LXX. I. H.

Deus in adiutorium.

¶ He prayeth to be ryght ſpeedely deliuered as in the lx. Pſalme. Then he deſireth the ſhame of his enemies, and the ioyfull comforte of all thoſe that ſeeke the Lord.

¶ Sing this as the lxxii. Pſalme.

O God, to me take heede.
Of helpe I thee require:
(O Lord) of hoſtes with haſt and ſpe-Helpe, helpe, I thee deſire. (de,
2 With ſhame confound them all,
That ſeeke my ſoule to ſpill,
Rebuke them backe with blame to fall
That thinke and wiſh me ill.

3 Confound them that apply,
And ſeeke to woorke me ſhame,
And at my harme, do laugh and cry,
So, ſo, there goeth the game.

4 But let them ioyfull bee,
In thee with ioy and wealth,
Which onely truſt and ſeeke to thee,
And to thy ſauyng health.

5 That they may ſay alwayes,
In mirth and one accord,
All glory, honor, laud and prayſe,
Be geuen to thee, (O Lord.)
6 But I am weake and poore,
Come Lord thyne ayde I lacke,
Thou art my ſtay and helpe, therfore
Make ſpeede and be not ſlacke.

PSALME LXXI. I. H.

In te Domine ſperaui.

¶ He prayeth in faith eſtabliſhed by the worde of the promiſe, and confirmed by the worke of God, from his youth, he deſireth now to be deliuered from the wicked and cruell man (meaning) his ſonne Abſalon, and his confederacy, and he promiſeth to be mindefull and thankefull for the ſame.

¶ Sing this as the lxix. Pſalme.

MY Lord, my God in all diſtres,
My hope is whole in thee:
Then let no ſhame my ſoule oppres,
Nor once take hold on mee.
As thou art iuſt defend me Lord,
And rid me out of drede,
Geue eare, and to my ſute accorde,
And ſend me helpe at nede.

3 Be thou my rocke, to whom I may
For ayde all tymes reſort,
Thy promiſe is to helpe alway,

Thou

Thou art my fence and fort.
4 Saue me my God from wicked men,
And from their ſtrength and power,
From folke vniuſt, and eke from them,
That cruelly deuoure.

5 Thou art the ſtay wherein I truſt,
Thou Lord of hoſtes art hee:
Yea from my youth I had a luſt,
Still to depend on thee.
6 Thou haſt me kept euen from my birth
And I through thee was borne:
Wherfore I will thee prayſe with mirth,
Both euenyng and morne.

7 As to a monſter ſeldome ſeene,
Much folke about me throng:
But thou art now and ſtill haſt bene
My fence and ayde ſo ſtrong.
8 Wherfore my mouth no time ſhal lacke
Thy glory and thy prayſe:
And eke my tong ſhall not be ſlacke,
To honor thee alwayſe.

9 Refuſe not me (O Lord) I ſay,
When age my lims doth take:
And when my ſtrength doth waſt away
Do not my ſoule forſake.
10 Among them ſelues my foes enquire,
To take me through deceit:
And they againſt me do conſpire,
That for my ſoule layd wayt.

¶ The ſecond part.

11 Lay hand and take him now (they ſayd,)
For God from him is gone:
Diſpatch him quite, for to his ayde,
I wis there commeth none.
12 Do not abſent thy ſelfe away,
(O Lord) when neede ſhalbe:
But that in tyme of grief thou may,
In haſt geue helpe to me.

13 With ſhame confound and ouerthrow,
All thoſe that ſeeke my lyfe:
Oppres them with rebukes alſo,
That fayne would woorke me ſtrife,
14 But I will patiently abyde,
Thy helpe in all aſſayes:
Still more and more eche tyme and tyde
I will ſet foorth thy prayſe.

15 My mouth thy iuſtice ſhall record,
That dayly helpe doth ſend:
But of thy benefite (O Lord)
I know no compt nor ende.
16 Yet will I go and ſeeke forth one
With thy good helpe (O God)
The ſauing health of thee alone,
To ſhew and ſet abrode.

17 For of my youth thou takeſt the care,
And dooſt inſtruct me ſtill:
Therfore thy wonders to declare,
I haue great minde and will.
18 And as in youth from wanton rage,
Thou di ſt me keepe and ſtay:
Forſake me not vnto myne age,
And tyll my head be gray.

19 That I thy ſtrength and might may ſhow
To them that now be here,
And that our ſeede thy power may know
Hereafter many a yeare.
20 O Lord thy iuſtice doth exceede,
Thy doyngs all may ſee:
Thy woorkes are wonderfull in deede,
Oh, who is lyke to thee?

21 Thou madeſt me feele afflictions ſore
And yet thou didſt me ſaue,
Yea thou didſt helpe and me reſtore,
And tookeſt me from the graue.
22 And thou myne honor dooſt encreaſe,
My dignitie maintayne,
Yea, thou dooſt make all grief to ceaſe,
And comfortſt me agayne.

23 Therfore thy faithfulnes to prayſe,
I will both lute and ſing:
My harpe ſhall ſound thy laude alwayes,
(O Iſrael's holy kyng)
24 My mouth will ioy with pleaſant voyce
When I ſhall ſing to thee,
And eke my ſoule will much reioyce,
For thou haſt made me free.

25 My tong thy vprightnes ſhall found
And ſpeake it dayly ſtill,
For grief and ſhame do them confound,
That ſought to woorke me ill.

PSALME LXXII. I. H.

Deus iudicium tuum.

¶ He prayeth that the kingdome of God by Chriſt may come vnder the perſon of Salomon, vnder whome ſhall be rightwouſnes, peace and felicitie, vnto whom all kings and all nations ſhall doo homage, whoſe name and power ſhall indure for euer.

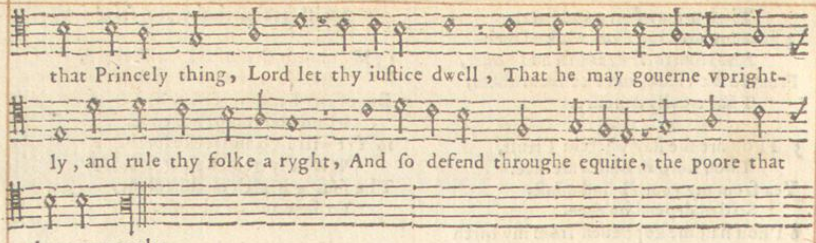
LOrd geue thy iudgments to the king therin inſtruct him well. And with his ſonne



3 And let the mountayns that are hye,
Vnto their folke geue peace:
And eke let litle hils apply,
In iuſtice to encreaſe.
4 That he may helpe the weake and poore,
With ayde and make them ſtrong:
And eke deſtroy for euermore,
All thoſe that do them wrong.

5 And then from age to age ſhall they,
Regarde and feare thy myght:
So long as Sunne doth ſhine by day,
Or els the Moone by night.
6 Lord make the kyng vnto the iuſt,
Lyke rayne to fields new mowne:
And like to droppes that lay the duſt,
And freſh the land vnſowne:

7 The iuſt ſhall flooriſh in his tyme,
And all ſhalbe at peace:
Vntill the Moone ſhall leaue to prime,
Waſt, chaunge, and to encreaſe.
8 He ſhalbe Lord of ſea and land,
From ſhoare to ſhoare throughout,
And from the flouds within the land,
Through all the earth about.

9 The people that in deſert dwell,
Shall kneele to him full thicke:
And all his enmies that rebell,
The earth and duſt ſhall licke.
10 Their Lordes of all the yles therby,
Great giftes to him ſhall bring:
The kings of Sabe and Arabie.
Geue many a coſtly thing.

¶ The ſecond part.
11 All kings ſhall ſeeke with one accord,
In hys good grace to ſtand:
And all the people of the world,
Shall ſerue him at his hand:

2 For he the needy ſorte doth ſaue,
That vnto hym do call:
And eke the ſimple folke that haue,
No helpe of man at all.

13 He taketh pitie on the poore,
That are with neede oppreſt,
He doth preſerue them euermore,
And bring their ſoules to reſt.
14 He ſhall redeme theyr lyfe from dread
From fraud, from wrong, from might:
And eke the bloud that they ſhall bleede,
Is precious in his ſight.

15 But he ſhall lyue and they ſhall bring,
To him of Sabaes gold,
He ſhalbe honored as a king
And dayly be extold.
16 The mighty mountaynes of his land,
Of corne ſhall beare ſuch throng:
That it lyke Cedre trees ſhall ſtand,
In Libanus full long.

17 Their Cities eke full well ſhall ſpeede,
The frutes therof ſhall pas,
In plenty it ſhall far exceede,
And ſpring as greene as graſſe.
18 For euer they ſhall prayſe his name
While that the Sunne is lyght,
And thinke them happy through theſame,
All folke ſhall bles his might.

19 Prayſe ye the Lord of hoſtes, and ſing
To Iſraels God eche one,
For he doth euery wondrous thyng,
Yea he him ſelfe alone.
20 And bleſſed be his holy name,
All tymes eternally,
That all the earth may prayſe the ſame,
Amen, Amen, ſay I.

PSALME LXXIII. T. S.

Quàm bonus quàm.

¶ The Prophet teacheth by his example that neither the worldlye proſperitye of the vngodlye nor yet the affliction of the good ought to diſcourage Gods children: but rather ought to moue vs to conſider our fathers prouidence, and to cauſe vs to reuerence gods iudgements. forasmuch as the wicked vaniſh away lyke ſmoke, and the godly enter into lyfe euerlaſting, in hope wherof he reſigneth hym ſelfe into Gods handes.

¶ Sing

¶Sing this as the xliiii. Pſalme.

HOw euer it be, yet God is good,
And kind to Iſraell:
And to all ſuch as ſafely kepe,
Their conſcience pure and well.
2 Yet like a foole I almoſt ſlipt,
My fete began to ſlyde:
And or I wiſt euen at a pynche,
My ſteps a wry gan glide.

3 For when I ſaw ſuch foolyſh men,
I grudgde and did diſdayne:
That wicked men all things ſhould haue
Without tormoyle or payne.
4 They neuer ſuffer panges nor griefe,
As if death ſhould them ſmite:
Theyr bodyes are both ſtout and ſtrong
And euer in good pyte.

5 And free from all aduerſitie,
When other men be ſhent:
And with the reſt they take no part,
Of plage or puniſhment:
6 Therfore preſumption doth embrace,
Their neckes as doth a chayne:
And are euen wrapt as in a robe,
With rapyne and diſdayne.

7 They are ſo fed, that euen for fat,
Theyr eyes oft tymes out ſtart:
And as for worldly goods they haue,
More then can wyſh theyr hart.
8 Theyr lyfe is moſt licentious,
Boaſting much of the wrong:
Which they haue done to ſimple men,
And euer pride among.

9 The heauens and the liuing Lord,
They ſpare not to blaſpheme:
And prate they doo of worldly thinges,
No wight they doo eſteeme.
10 The people of God oft tymes turne backe,
To ſee theyr proſperous ſtate:
And almoſt drinke the ſelfe ſame cup,
And follow the ſame rate.

¶The ſecond part.

11 How can it be that God (ſay they)
Should know and vnderſtand,
Theſe worldly thinges, ſince wicked men,
Be Lordes of ſea and land?
12 For we may ſee how wycked men,
In riches ſtyll increaſe:
Rewarded wel with worldly goods,
And lyue in reſt and peace.

13 Then why doo I from wickednes,
My fantaſy refrayne:
And waſh my hands with innocents,
And clenſe my hart in vayne?

14 And ſuffer ſcourges euery day,
As ſubiect to al blame:
And euery morning from my youth,
Suſteyne rebuke and ſhame?

15 And I had almoſt ſayd as they,
Miſliking myne eſtate:
But that I ſhould thy children iudge,
As folke vnfortunate,
16 Then I bethought me how I might,
This matter vnderſtand:
But yet the labour was to great,
For me to take in hand.

17 Vntil the time I went into Thy holy place, and then
I vnderſtoode right perfectly,
The end of all theſe men.
18 And namely how thou ſetteſt them
Vpon a ſlippry place:
And at thy pleaſure and thy wyll,
Thou dooſt them al deface.

19 Then al men muſe at that ſtraunge ſight,
To ſee how ſodenly:
They are deſtroyd, diſpatcht, conſumde,
And dead ſo horribly
20 Much like a dreame when one awakes,
So ſhall theyr wealth decay:
Theyr famous names in all mens ſight,
Shall ebbe and paſſe away.

¶The thyrd part.

21 Yet thus my hart was greued then,
My mynd was much oppreſt:
22 So fond was I and ignorant,
And in thys poynt a beaſt.
23 Yet neuertheleſſe by my ryght hand,
Thou holdeſt me alwayes faſt:
24 And with thy counſell dooſt me guide
To glorye at the laſt.

25 What thing is there that I can wyſh,
But thee in heauen aboue
And in the earth there is nothing,
Lyke thee that I can loue.
26 My fleſh and eke my hart do fayle,
But God doth fayle me neuer:
For of my hart God is the ſtrength,
My portion eke for euer.

27 And loe all ſuch as thee forſake,
Thou ſhalt deſtroy eche one:
And thoſe that truſt in any thing,
Sauing in thee alone
28 Therfore will I draw neare to God,
And euer with hym dwell:
In God alone I put my truſt.
Thy wonders will I tell.

PSALME LXXIIII. I. H.

Vt quid Deus.

¶ The faythfull complayne of the deſtruction of the church and true religion, vnder the name of Sion and the altars destroyed: And trusting in the myght and free mercies of God, by his couenaunt they require helpe and succor for the glory of Gods holy name, the saluacion of his poore afflicted seruauntes and the confusion of his proude enemyes.

¶Sing this as the lxxii. Pſalme.

WHy art thou Lord ſo long from vs,
In all thys daunger deepe?
Why doth thyne anger kindle thus,
At thyne own paſture sheepe?
2 Lord call the people to thy thought,
Which haue bene thyne ſo long:
The which thou haſt redemd and brought
From bondage ſore and ſtrong.

3 Haue mynde I ſay, and thinke vpon,
Remember it full well:
Thy pleaſaunt place, thy mount Sion,
Where thou waſt wont to dwell,
4 Lift vp thy foote and come in haſt.
And all thy foes deface:
Which now at pleaſure rob and waſt,
Within thy holy place.

5 Amyd thy congregacions all,
Thyne enmyes roare (O God)
They ſet as ſignes on euery wall,
Their banners ſplayde abroad.
6 As men with axes hew the trees,
That on the hyls doo grow:
So ſhine the byls and ſwordes of theſe,
Within thy temple now.

7 The ſeeling ſawd, the carued boordes,
The goodly grauen ſtones:
With axes, hammers, byls and ſwoordes,
They beate them downe at once.
8 Thy places they conſume with flame,
And eke in all this toyle:
The houſe appointed to thy name,
They race downe to the ſoyle.

9 And thus they ſayd within theyr hart,
Diſpatch them out of hand:
Then burnt they vp in euery part,
Gods houſes through the land.
10 Yet thou no ſigne of helpe dooſt ſend,
Our Prophetes all are gone:
To tel when this our plage ſhould end,
Among vs there is none.

11 When wilt thou lord once end this ſhame
And ceaſe thine enmyes ſtrong:
Shall they alway blaſpheme thy name,
And rayle on thee ſo long?
12 Why dooſt withdraw thy hand a backe,
And hyde it in thy lap?
O plucke it out, and be not ſlacke,
To geue thy foes a rap.

¶ The ſecond part.

13 O God thou art my king and Lord,
And euermore haſt bene:
Yea thy good grace throughout the world,
For our good helpe hath ſene.
14 The ſeas that are ſo deepe and dead,
Thy might did make them dry:
And thou didſt breake the Serpents head,
That he therin dyd dye.

15 Yea thou didſt breake the heads ſo great
Of whales that are ſo fell:
And gaueſt them to the folkes to eate,
That in the deſertes dwell.
16 Thou madeſt a ſpring with ſtreames to riſe
From rocke both hard and hye:
And eke thy hand hath made likewiſe
Deepe riuers to be dry.

17 Both day and eke the night are thine,
By thee they were begonne:
Thou ſetſt to ſerue vs with theyr ſhine,
The light and eke the ſunne.
18 Thou dooſt appoint the endes and coſtes
Of all the earth about:
Both ſummer heates, and winterfroſtes
Thy hand hath found them out.

19 Thinke on (O Lord) no time forget,
Thy foes that thee defame:
And how the fooliſh folke are ſet,
To call vpon thy name.
20 O let no cruell beaſt deuoure,
Thy Turtle that is true:
Forget not alwayes in thy power,
The poore that much do rue.

21 Regard thy couenaunt, and behold
Thy foes poſſeſſe the land:
All ſad and darke, forworne and old,
Our realme as now doth ſtand.
22 Let not the ſimple go away,
Whith diſapoynted ſhame:
But let the poore and nedie aye
Geue prayſe vnto thy name.

23 Ryſe Lord, let be by thee maintaynde,
The cauſe that is thyne owne:
Remember how that thou blaſphemde,
Art by the fooliſh one.
24 The voyce forget not of thy foes,
For they preſumyng hye:
Is more and more encreaſt of thoſe,
That hate thee ſpytefully.

¶ The faythfull do prayſe the name of the Lord whiche ſhall come to iudge at the tyme appoynted, when the

the wicked shalbe put to confusion and drinke of the cup of his wrath. Theyr pryde shalbe abated, and the righteous shall be exalted to honour.

¶Sing this as the xliiii.Psalme.

VNto thee God we will geue thankes,
We will geue thankes to thee:
Sith thy name is so neare declare
Thy wondrous workes will we.
2 I will vpryghtly iudge, when get Conuenient tyme I may:
The earth is weake and all therin,
But I her pyllers stay.

3 I dyd to the mad people say,
Deale not so furiously:
And vnto the vngodly ones,
Set not your hornes so hye.
4 I sayd vnto them, set not vp
Your raysed hornes on hye:
And see that you do with stiffe necke,
Not speake presumptuously.

5 For neither from the eastern part,
Nor from the western side:
Nor from forsaken wildernes,
Protection doth procede.
6 For why? the Lord our God he is,
The righteous iudge alone:
He putteth down the one, and sets
Another in the throne.

7 For why? a cup of mighty wyne,
Is in the hand of God:
And all the mighty wine therin,
Him self doth poure abroad.
8 And for the lees and filthy dregges,
That do remaine of it:
The wicked of the earth shall drinke
And sucke them euery whyt.

9 But I will talke of God (I say)
Of Iacobs God therfore:
And will not cease to celebrate,
His prayse for euermore.
10 In sunder breake the hornes of all,
Vngodly men will I:
But then the hornes of ryghteous men
Shalbe exalted hye.

Gloria patri.

To father, sonne, and holy ghost,
All glory be therfore:
As in beginnyng was, is now,
And shalbe euermore.

PSALME LXXVI. I. H.

In Iudæa.

¶ This Psalme setteth forth the power of God, and care for the defence of his people in Ierusalem, in the destruction of the armye Senacherib, and exhorteth the faithfull to be thankefull for the same.

¶Sing this as the lxix.Psalme.

TO all that now in Iewry dwel,
The Lord is clearely knowne:
His name is great in Israell,
A people of his owne.
2 At Salem he his tentes hath pight,
To tary there a space:
In Sion eke he hath delight,
To make his dwelling place.

3 And there he brake both shaft and bow,
The swoord, the speare, the shield,
And brake the ray to ouerthrow,
In battel on the field.
4 Thou art more worthy honour Lord,
More might in thee doth lye:
Then in the strongest of the world:
That rob on mountaines hye.

5 But now the proud ar spoild through thee,
And they are falne on sleepe:
Through men of war no helpe can bee,
Them selues they could not keepe,
6 At thy rebuke (O Iacobs God)
When thou doost them reproue:
As halfe in sleepe theyr charets stoode,
No horsmen once did moue,

7 For thou art dreadfull Lord in deede,
What man the courage hath
To bide thy sight, and doth not drede,
When thou art in thy wrath?
8 When thou doost make thy iudgemēts heard
From heauen through the ground:
Then all the earth ful sore afeard,
In silence shalbe found.

9 And that when thou (O God) doost stand
In iudgement for to speake:
To saue the afflicted of the land,
On earth that are full weake.
10 The fury that in man doth raygne,
Shall turne vnto thy prayse:
Here after Lord doo thou restrayne,
Theyr wrath and threates alwayes.

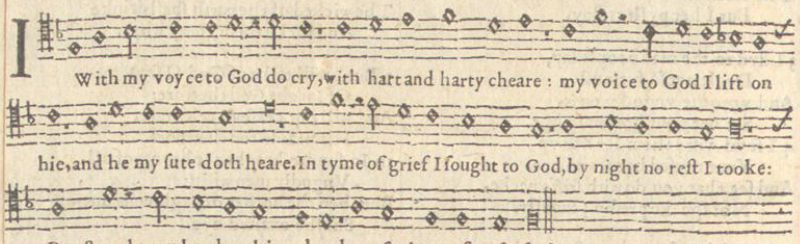
11 Make vowes and pay them to your God,
Ye folke that nye hym bee:
Bring giftes all ye that dwel abrode,

For dreadfull sure is he.
12 For he doth take both lyfe and myght
From Princes great of birth:
And full of terror is his sight,
To all the kinges on earth.

PSALME LXXVII. I. H.

Voce mea ad Dominum.

¶ The Prophet in the name of the Churche reherseth the greatnes of his afflictions and his greuous temptacion, wherby he was driuen to this end: to consider his former conuersacion, and the continuall course of Gods workes in the preseruacion of his seruaunts, and so he confirmeth his faith against these temptacions.



3 When I to thinke on God intend,
My trouble then is more:
I spake but could not make an end,
My breath was stopt so sore.
4 Thou holdst mine eyes alwayes from rest
That I alwayes awake:
With feare am I so sore oppreſt,
My speeche doth me forsake.

5 The dayes of old in minde I cast,
And oft did thinke vpon:
The tymes and ages that are past,
Full many yeares are agon.
6 By night my songes I cal to minde,
Once made thy prayse to shew:
And with my hart much talke I finde,
My sprites do search to know.

7 Wil God (sayd I) at once for all,
Cast of his people thus:
So that henceforth no tyme he shall,
Be friendly vnto vs?
8 What? is his goodnes cleane decayde,
For euer and a day?
Or is his promise now delayde,
And doth his truth decay.

9 And wyl the Lord our God forget,
His mercyes manifold?
Or shal his wrath increase so hot,
His mercy to withhold?
10 At last I sayd, my weakenes is,
The cause of this mistrust:
Gods mighty hand can helpe all this,
And chaunge it when he lust.

¶ The second part.

11 I wil regard and thinke vpon
The woorking of the Lord:
Of all his wonders past and gone,
I gladly wyl record.
12 Yea, all his workes I wyl declare,
And what he doth deuise:
To tel his factes I wyl not spare,
And eke his counsel wise.

13 Thy woorkes (O Lord) are al vpright,
And holy all abrode.
What one hath strength to match the might
Of thee, O Lord our God?
14 Thou art a God, that oft doost shew
Thy wonders euery houre:
And so doost make the people know,
Thy vertue and thy power.

15 And thine owne folke thou didst defend
With strength and stretched arme:
The sonnes of Iacob that discend,
And Ioseph es seede from harme,
16 The waters (Lord) perceiued thee,
The waters saw thee well:
And they for feare aside did flee,
The depthes on trembling fel.

17 The cloudes that were both thick and black
Did rayne ful plenteously:
The thunder in the ayre did cracke,
Thy shaftes abrode dyd flie.
18 Thy thunder in the fyre was heard,
The lightning from aboue:
With flashes great made men afeard,
The earth did quake and moue.

19 Thy wayes within the sea do lye,
Thy pathes in waters deepe:
Yet none can there thy steps espye,
Nor know thy path to keepe.
20 Thou leadst thy folke vpon the land,
As sheepe on euery syde:
Through Moyses and through Aarons hand,
Thou didst them safely gyde.

¶ He sheweth howe God of hys mercy chose hys church of the posteritie of Abraham, casting in their teth the stubburne rebellion of their fathers, that their childrē might not only vnderstand, that God of his free mercies made his couenaunt with theyr anncestors, but also seyng them so malicious and peruerse myght be ashamed and so turne wholy to God. In this Psalme the holy ghost hath comprehended, as it were the sume of all Gods benefites, to the intent the ignoraunt and grose people myght see in few wordes the effect of the whole hystories.

A Ttēd my people to my law and to my words incline: my mouth shal speake strāge parables and sentences diuine. Which we our selues haue heard and learnd, euen of our fathers old, and which for our instruction our fathers haue vs told.

4 Becausе we should not kepe it close
From them that should come after,
Who should gods power to their race prayse
And all hys workes of wonder.
5 To Iacob he commaundement gaue,
How Israell should lyue:
Willing our fathers should the same,
Vnto their chyldren geue.

6 That they and theyr posteritye
That were not sprung vp tho:
Should haue the knowledge of the law
And teach theyr seede also.
7 That they may haue the better hope
In God that is aboue:
And not forget to kepe his lawes
And hys preceptes in loue.

8 Not being as theyr fathers were Rebelling in Gods sight:
And would not frame theyr wicked harts,
To know theyr God a ryght.
9 How went the people of Ephraim
Their neighbours for to spoyle:
Shooting theyr dartes the day of war,
And yet they tooke the foyle?

10 For why, they did not kepe with God
The couenant that was made:
Nor yet would walke or lead theyr lyues
According to his trade.
11 But put into obliuion
Hys counsell and his will:
And all his workes most magnifique
Which he declared still.

¶ The second part.

12 What wonders to our forefathers
Did he him self disclose:
In Egypt land within the field
That called is Thaneos?
13 He dyd deuyde and cut the sea
That they myght passe at once:
And made the waters stand as still
As doth an heape of stones.

14 He led them secret in a cloud,
By day when it was bright.
And in the nyght when darke it was
With fire he gaue them lyght.
15 He brake the rockes in wildernes,
And gaue the people drynke:
As plentifull as when the deepes
Do flow vp to the brinke.

16 He drew out riuers out of rockes,
(That were both dry and hard)
Of such aboundance that no floudes
To them might be compared.
17 Yet for all this against the Lord
Theyr sinne they dyd encrease:
And stirred hym that is most high,
To wrath in wildernes.

18 They tempted hym within their harts
Like people of mistrust:
Requiring such a kind of meate
As serued to their lust.
19 Saying with murmuration,
In theyr vnfaithfulnes:
What? can this God prepare for vs
A feast in wildernes?

20 Beholde he strake the stony rocke,
And flouds forth with did flow,
But can he now geue to his folke
Both bread and flesh also?
21 When God heard this, he waxed wroth
With Iacob and his seede:
So did his indignation
On Israell proceede.

¶The thyrd part.

22 Becauſe they did not faythfully
Beleue and hope that he Could alwayes helpe and ſuccor them
In theyr neceſſytie.
23 Wherfore he did commaund the clouds
Forth with they brake in ſunder.
24 And raynd down Manna for them to eate
A foode of mickell wonder.

25 When earthly men with Angels foode
Were fed, at theyr requeſt:
26 He bad the eaſt winde blow away
And brought in the ſouthweſt.
27 And raind down fleſh as thick as duſt:
And foule as thicke as ſand:
28 Which he did caſt amids the place,
Where all the tentes did ſtand.

29 Then did they eate excedingly,
And all men had their fils:
Yet more and more they dyd deſire,
To ſerue their luſtes and wils.
30 But as the meat was in theyr mouthes,
His wrath vpon them fell:
31 And ſlew the floure of all theyr youth,
And choyce of Iſraell.

32 Yet fell they to theyr wonted ſinne,
And ſtill they did him greue:
For all the wonders that he wrought,
They would hym not beleue.
33 Theyr dayes therfore he ſhortened.
And made theyr honor vaine:
Their yeares dyd waſt and paſſe away,
With terrours and with payne.

34 But euer when he plaged them,
They ſought him by and by:
35 Remembring then he was theyr ſtrength
Theyr helpe and God moſt hy.
36 Though in theyr mouthes they dyd but
And flatter with the Lord ſgloſe
And with their tonges, and in their harts
Diſſembled euery word.

¶The fourth part.

37 For why? theyr harts were nothyng bent
To hym and to hys trade:
Nor yet to kepe or to performe.
The couenant that was made.
38 Yet was he ſtill ſo mercifull,
When they deſerued to dye:
That he forgaue them theyr miſdedes,
And would not them deſtroy.

Yea many a tyme he turned hys wrath,
And dyd hym ſelf auyſe,
And would not ſuffer all his whole
Diſpleaſure to aryſe.
39 Conſidering they were but fleſh,
And euen as a wynde
That paſſeth away, and can not well
Returne by hys own kynde.

4 How often tymes in wildernes,
Dyd they theyr Lord prouoke?
How dyd they moue and ſtirre theyr Lord
To plage them with his ſtroke?
41 Yet dyd they turne agayne to ſinne,
And tempted God eftſone,
Preſcribing to the holy Lord,
What thyngs they would haue done.

42 Not thinking of his hand and power
Nor of the day, when he Deliuered them out of the bondes,
Of the fierce enemy.
43 Nor how he wrought hys myracles,
(As they them ſelues beheld)
In Egypt, and the wonder that
He dyd in Zoan field.

44 Nor how he turned by his power
Their waters into bloud,
That no man myght receaue hys drynke
At riuer nor at floud.
45 Nor how he ſent them ſwarmes of flies
Which dyd them ſore annoy,
And fild theyr countreyes ful of frogges,
Which ſhould their landes deſtroy.

¶The fyft part.

46 Nor how he dyd commit their fruytes
Vnto the Caterpiller:
And all the labour of theyr hands,
He gaue to the Graſhopper,
47 With hayle ſtones he deſtroyd theyr vynes
So that they were all loſt,
And not ſo much as wyld fyg trees,
But he conſumd with froſt.

48 And yet with hayle ſtones once agayn
The Lord theyr cattell ſmote:
And all theyr flockes and heardes likewyſe,
With thunder boltes full hote.
49 He caſt vpon them in hys ire
And in his fury ſtrong:
Diſpleaſure, wrath and euill ſprytes,
To trouble them among.

50 Then to his wrath he made away,
And ſpared not the leaſt:
But gaue vnto the peſtilence
The man, and eke the beaſt.
51 He ſtrake alſo the firſt borne all,
That vp in Egypt came:
And all the chiefe of men and beaſtes,
Within the tentes of Ham.

52 But as for all his own deare folke,
He dyd preſerue and keepe.
And caryed them through wildernes
Euen lyke a flocke of ſheepe.
53 Without all feare, both ſafe and ſound,
He brought them out of thrall:
Wheras theyr foes with rage of ſea
Were ouerwhelmed all.

54 And brought them out into the coaſtes

Of

Of his own holy land:
Euen to the mount which he had got,
By his strong arme and hand.
55 And there cast out the heathen folke,
And dyd theyr land deuide:
And in the tentes he set theyr tribes
Of Israell to abyde.

56 Yet for all thys, theyr God most hygh
They styrred and tempted still:
And would not kepe hys testament,
Nor yet obey hys will.
57 But as theyr fathers turned backe,
Euen so they went astray:
Much like a bowe that would not bend,
But slip and start away.

¶ The sixt part.

58 And greued hym with theyr hil altar:
With offrings, and with fire:
And with theyr Idoles vehemently
Prouoked hym to ire,
59 Therwith hys wrath began agayne
To kindle in his brest:
The naughtines of Israell
He dyd so much detest.

60 Then he forsooke the tabernacle
Of Silo, where he was
Ryght conuersant with earthly men,
Euen as hys dwelling place.
61 Then suffred he hys myght and power
In bondage for to stand:
And gaue the honor of hys Arke
Into hys enmyes hand.

62 And did commit them to the sword,
Wroth with his heritage:
63 The younge men were deuourd with fire
Mayds had no mariage.

64 And with the sword the priests also Dyd perysh euerychone
And not a widow left alyue
Theyr death for to bemone.

65 And then the Lord began to wake,
Lyke one that slept a tyme
Or lyke a valiant man of warre,
Refreshed after wyne.
66 With Emeroides in the hinder part,
He strake his enmies all:
And put them then vnto a shame,
That was perpetuall.

67 Then he the tent and tabernacle
Of Ioseph dyd refuse:
As for the tribe of Ephraim
He would in no wyse chuse.
68 But chose the tribe of Iehuda,
Whereas he thought to dwell
Euen the noble mount Sion,
Which he dyd loue so well.

69 Whereas he dyd hys temple vse
Both sumptuously and sure
Lyke as the earth which he hath made
For euer to endure.
70 Then chose he Dauyd hym to serue,
Hys people for to kepe:
Which he tooke vp and brought away,
Euen from the foldes of sheepe.

71 As he dyd follow the ewes with yong
The Lord dyd hym auaunce:
To feede hys people of Israell,
And his enheritance.
72 Then Dauid with a faithfull hart,
His flocke and charge dyd feede:
And prudently with all his power
Dyd gouerne them in deede.

PSALME LXXIX. I. H.

Deus venerunt gentes.

¶ The Israelites complaine to God for the greate calamitie and oppression that they suffred when Antiochus destroyed their temple, and cytye Ierusalem, desiryng Gods ayde agaynst his ragyng tyranny, least Gods name and religion should be contemned among the heathen, whych shoulde see them thus forsaken and peryshe.

¶ Sing this as the lxxvii. Psalme.

O Lord the Gentyles do inuade,
Thyne herytage to spoyle:
Ierusalem an heape is made,
Thy temple they defoyle.
2 The bodyes of thy saintes most deare,
Abroad to byrdes they cast:
The flesh of them as doe thee feare
The beastes, deuoure and wast.

3 Theyr bloud throughout Ierusalem
As water spylt they haue:
So that there is not one of them,
To lay theyr dead in graue.

4 Thus are we made a laughing stocke,
Almost the world throughout:
The enmyes at vs iest and mocke
Which dwel our coastes about.

5 Wilt thou (O Lord) thus in thyne ire
Agaynst vs euer fume?
And shew thy wrath as hote as fire,
Thy folke for to consume?
6 Vpon those people poure the same,
Which dyd thee neuer know:
All realmes which call not on thy name
Consume and ouerthrow.

7 For they haue got the vpper hand,
And Iacobs seede destroyde:
His habitation and hys land,
They haue left wast and voyde,
8 Beare not in mynd our former faultes,
With spede some pity show:
And ayde vs, Lord, in all assaultes,
For we are weake and low.

9 O God that geuest all health and grace,
On vs declare the same:
Wey not our workes, our sinnes deface,
For honor of thy name.
10 Why shall the wicked still alway,
To vs, as people domme:
In thy reproch reioyce and say,
Where is theyr God become?

Require (O Lord) as thou seest good,
Before our eyes in sight:
Of all these folke thy seruants blood,
Which they spilt in despite.
11 Receaue into thy sight in hast,
The clamours, griefe and wrong
Of such as are in pryson cast
Sustayning irons strong.

Thy force and strength to celebrate
Lord set them out of band:
Which vnto death are destinate
And in theyr enmyes hand.
12 The nacions which haue bene so bold
As to blaspheme thy name:
Into theyr laps with seuen fold
Repay agayne the same.

13 So we thy folke thy pasture sheepe
Wyll prayse thee euermore:
And teach all ages for to keepe
For thee like prayse in store.

PSALME LXXX. I. H.

Qui regis Israel.

¶ A lamentable prayer to God to helpe the myseries of the church, desyring hym to consyder their first estate, when his fauour stoyned towards them, to the entent that he myghte fynysh that worke that he had begon.

¶ Sing this as the lxvii. Psalme.

THou heerd that Israell doost keepe,
Geue eare and take good heede:
Which leadest Ioseph lyke a sheepe,
And doost hym watch and feede.
2 Thou Lord I say whose seat is set
On Cherubins so bryght:
Shew forth thy self and do not let,
Send down thy beames of lyght.

3 Before Ephraim, and Beniamin,
Manasses eke likewise
To shew thy power do thou begin,
Come helpe vs Lord arise.
4 Direct our hartes vnto thy grace,
Conuert vs Lord to thee:
Shew vs the bryghtnes of thy face,
And then full safe are we.

5 Lord God of hostes of Israell,
How long wilt thou I say
Agaynst thy folke in anger swell,
And wilt not heare them pray?
6 Thou doost them fede with sorowes depe
Their bread with teares they eate,
And drinke the teares that they do wepe,
In measure full and greate.

7 Thou hast vs made a very stryfe
To those that dwell about,
And that our foes do loue of lyfe,
They laugh and iest it out.
8 O take vs Lord vnto thy grace,
Conuert our myndes to thee,
Shew forth to vs thy ioyfull face,
And we full safe shalbe.

9 From Egypt where it grew not well
Thou broughtest a vyne full deare
The heathen folke thou dydst expell
And then dydst plant it here.
10 Thou dydst prepare for it a place,
And set her rootes full fast:
That it dyd grow and spring apace
And fill the land at last.

¶ The second part.
11 The hils were couered round about
With shade that from it came:
And eke the Ceders hygh, and stout
With braunches of the same.
12 Why then didst thou her wall destroy:
Her hedge pluckt vp thou hast:
That all the folke that passe therby,
Thy vyne may spoyle and wast.

13 The Bore out of the woods so wyld,
Doth dyg and roote it out:
The furious beastes out of the field,
Deuour it all about.
14 O Lord of hostes returne agayne,
From heauen looke betyme:
Behold, and wyth thy helpe sustayne
This poore vineyard of thyne:

15 Thy plant I say, thyne Israell
Whom thy ryght hand hath set:
The same which thou didst loue so well
O Lord, do not forget.

16 They loppe and cut it downe a pace,
They burne it eke with fire:
And through the frowning of thy face
We perysh in thyne ire.

17 Let thy ryght hand be with them now
Whom thou hast kept so long:
And with the sonne of man whom thou
To thee hast made so strong.

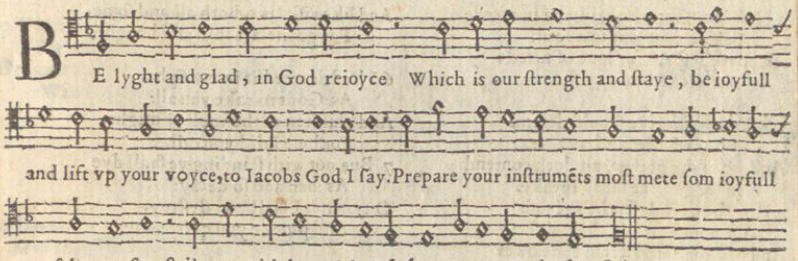
18 And so when thou hast set vs free,
And saued vs from shame:
Then will we neuer fall from thee,
But call vpon thy name.

19 O Lord of hostes through thy good grace
Conuert vs vnto thee.
Behold vs with a pleasaunt face,
And then full safe are wee.

PSALME LXXXI. I. H.

Exultate Deo.

¶ An exhortacion to prayse God both in hart and voyce for his benefites, and to worshipp him onely. God condemneth their ingratitude, and sheweth what great benefites they haue lost thorow theyr own malice.



3 Blow as it were in the new moone,
With trompets of the best,
As it is vsed to be done
At any solemne feast.
4 For thys is vnto Israell.
A statute and a trade:
A lawe that must be kept full well,
Which Iacobs God hath made.

5 Thys clause with Ioseph was decreed,
When he from Egypt came,
That as a witnes all hys sede
Should still obserue the same.
6 When God (I say) had so preparde
To bryng hym from that land,
Where as the speech which he had heard
He dyd not vnderstand.

7 I from his shoulders tooke (sayth he)
The burden cleane away,
And from the furnace quit hym free,
From burning brycke of clay.
8 When thou in griefe didst cry and call,
I holpe thee by and by,
And I dyd answere thee with all
In thunder secretly.

9 Yea at the waters, of discorde
I dyd thee tempt and proue,
Where as the goodnes of the Lord,
With muttering thou didst moue.
10 Heare O my folke, O Israell,
And I assure it thee:
(Regard and marke my words full well)
If thou wilt cleaue to me.

¶ The second part.

11 Thou shalt no God in thee reserue
Of any land abroad:
Nor in no wise to bow or serue
A straunge and forayne God.
12 I am the Lord thy God, and I
From Egypt set thee free:
Then aske of me aboundantly,
And I will geue it thee.

13 And yet my people would not heare
My voyce when that I spake:
Nor Israell would not obey,
But did me quite forsake.
14 Then dyd I leaue them to their will,
In hardnes of their hart:
To walke in their own counsels still,
Them selues they might peruert.

15 O that my people would haue heard
The wordes that I did say:
And eke that Israell would regard,
To walke within my way.
16 How sone would I confound their foes,
And bring them down full low:
And turne my hand vpon all those,
That would them ouerthrow?

17 And they that at the Lord do rage:
As slaues should seeke him tyll
But of hys folke the tyme and age
Should florishe euer still.

16 I would haue fed them with the crop
And fines of the wheate:
And make the rocke with hony drop,
That they their fils should eate.

PSALME LXXXII. I. H.

Deus stetit in synago.

¶ The Prophet declaring God to be present amongest the iudges and Magistrates, reproueth theyr partialitie and vnrighteousnes, and exhorteth them to do iustice, but seing no amendement, he desireth God to vndertake the matter, and execute iustice him self.

¶ Sing this as the lxxviii. Psalme.

A Mid the preasse with men of might
The Lord himself did stand:
To pleade the cause of truth and ryght
With iudges of the land.
2 How long (sayd he) will you proceede
False iudgement to award:
And haue respect for loue of meede
The wicked to regard:

3 Wheras of due ye should defend
The fatherles and weake:
And when the poore man doth contend
In iudgement iustly speake.
4 If ye be wyse defend the cause
Of poore men in their right:
And ryd the needy, from the clawes
Of tyrauntes force, and might.

5 But nothing will they know or learne,
In vayne to them I talke:
They will not see or ought discerne,
But still in darknes walke.
For loe euen now the time is come,
That all things fall to nought:
And likewise laws, both all and some,
For gayne are sold and bought.

6 I had decreed it in my sight,
As Gods to take you all:
And children to the most of might,
For loue I did you call.
7 But not with standing ye shall dye
As men and so decay:
O tyrantes I shall you destroy,
And plucke you quite away.

8 Vp Lord and let thy strength be known
And iudge the world with might:
For why? all nations are thine owne,
To take them as thy right.

PSALME LXXXIII. I. H.

Deus qui similis.

¶ The people of Israell pray vnto the Lord to deliuer them from their enemies, bothe at home and far of, which imagined nothing but theyr destruction: and they desire that all such wicked people may, according as God was accoustumed, be stricken with the stormy tempestes of Gods wrathe, that they may know that the Lord is most hye vpon the earth.

¶ Sing this as the lxxvii. Psalme.

DO not (O God) refrayne thy tonge,
In silence do not stay:
Withhold not Lord thy selfe so long
Nor make no more delay.
2 For why? behold thy foes and see
How they do rage and cry:
And those that beare an hate to thee,
Hold vp their heds on hie.

5 Against thy folke they vse deceite:
And craftly they enquire:
For thine elect to lye in wayte
Their counsell doth conspire.
4 Come on (sayd they) let vs expell
And plucke these folke away
So that the name of Israell
May vtterly decay.

5 They all conspire within their hart
How they may thee withstand:
Against the Lord to take a part
They are in league and band.
6 The tentes of all the Edomites,
The Ismaelites also:
The Hagarens and Moabites,
With diuers other mo.

7 Geball with Amon, and likewyse
Doth Amaleck conspire:
The Philistines agaynst thee ryse,
With them that dwell at Tire.
8 And Assur eke is well a payde
With them in league to bee:
And doth become a fence and ayde,
To Lots posteritie.

9 As thou didst to the Madianites,
So serue them Lord echone:

As to

As to Cicer, and to Iabin,
Beside the brooke kisom.
10 Whom thou in Edor didst destroy
And waste them through thy might,
That they like doung on earth did lye,
And that in open sight,

¶ The second part.

11 Make them now and their Lords appeare
Lyke Zeband Oreb than.
As Zebah and Zalmana were,
The kings of Madian.
12 Which sayd, let vs throughout the land
In all the coastes abroad,
Possesse and take into our hand,
The fayre houses of God.

13 Turn thē (O God) with stormes, as fast
As wheeles that haue no stay:
Or lyke as chaffe, which men do cast
With windes to flye away.

14 Like as the fire with rage and fume
The mighty forests spils,
And as the flame doth quyte consume
The mountaines and the hils:

15 So let the tempest of thy wrath
Vpon their neckes be layd:
And of thy stormy wind and shower
Lord make them all afrayd.
16 Lord bryng them all I thee desire
To such rebuke and shame:
That it may cause them to enquire
And learne to seeke thy name.

17 And let them euermore dayly
To shame and slaunder fall,
And in rebuke and obloquie,
To perish eke with all.
18 That they may know and feele full well
That thou art called Lord:
And that alone thou doost excell.
And raigne throughout the world.

PSALME LXXXIIII. I. H.

Quàm dilecta taber.

¶ David driuen forth of his countrey desireth most ardently to come agayne to the tabernacle of the Lorde, and the assemblye of the saintes, to prayse God: pronouncyng them blessed that may so do. Then he prayseth the courage of the people, that passe thorowe the wildernes to assemble themselues in Syon. Finally with prayse of this matter and confidence of Gods goodnes he endeth the Psalme.

¶ Sing this as the lxvii. Psalme.

HOw pleasant is thy dwelling place,
O Lord of hostes to me?
The tabernacles of thy grace
How pleasaunt Lord they be?
2 My soule doth long full sore to go
Into thy courts abrode:
My hart doth lust, my flesh also
In thee the liuing God.

3 The Sparowes find a roome to rest,
And saue them selues from wrong:
And eke the Swallow hath a nest,
Wherin to keepe her yong.
4 These birdes full nigh thyne alter maye
Haue place to sit and sing:
O Lord of hostes thou art (I say)
My God, and eke my king.

5 Oh they be blessed that may dwell
Within thy house alwayes:
For they all tymes thy factes do tell
And euer geue thee prayse.
6 Yea happy sure likewise are they
Whose stay and strength thou art:
Which to thy house do mind the way,
And seeke it in their hart.

7 As they go through the vale of teares,
They dig vp fountaynes still:
That as a spring it all appeares,
And thou theyr pits doost fill.

8 From strēgth to strength they walke full fast
No faintnes there shall bee:
And so the God of Gods at last
In Sion they do see,

9 O Lord of hostes, to me geue heede,
And heare when I do pray:
And let it through thyne eares proceede,
O Iacobs God I say.
10 O Lord our shield of thy good grace
Regard and so draw neare:
Regard (I say) behold the face
Of thyne annointed deare.

11 For why, within thy courtes one day
Is better to abyde,
Then other where to keepe or stay
A thousand dayes beside.
12 Much rather would I keepe a doore
Within the house of God:
Then in the tentes of wickednes,
To settle myne abode.

13 For God the Lord light and defence,
Wil grace and worship geue:
And no good thing shall he withhold
From them that purely liue.
14 O Lord of hostes that man is bleft,
And happy sure is hee,
That is perswaded in his breft
To trust all times in thee.

Benedixisti Domine.

¶ Because God withdrewe not hys rods from his Churche after the returne from Babylon, fyrste they put him in mynd of their deliueraunce, to the entent that he should not leaue the worke of hys grace imperfite, next they complaine of their long affliction. And thyrdly they reioyce in hope of felicitie promised for their deliueraunce, which was a figure of Christes kingdome, vnder which shoulde be perfite felicitie.

¶ Sing this as the lxxxi. Pſalme.

THou haſt bene mercifull in deede,
O Lord vnto thy land:
For thou reſtoredſt Iacobs ſeede
From thraldome out of band.
2 The wicked wayes that they were in Thou didſt them cleane remit:
And thou didſt hyde thy peoples ſin,
Full cloſe thou coueredſt it.

3 Thyne anger eke thou didſt aſſwage,
That all thy wrath was gone:
And ſo didſt turne thee from thy rage
With them to be at one.
4 O God, our health, do now conuert
Thy people vnto thee:
Put all thy wrath from vs apart,
And angry ceaſe to bee.

5 Why? ſhall thyne anger neuer end,
But ſtill procede on vs?
And ſhall thy wrath it ſelf extend Vpon all ages thus?
6 Wilt thou not rather turne therfore
And quicken vs that wee,
And all thy folke may euermore
Be glad, and ioye in thee?

7 O Lord, on vs do thou declare
Thy goodnes to our wealth:
Shew forth to vs and do not ſpare
Thyne ayde and ſauyng health.
8 I will harke what God ſayth, for he Speakes to his people peace:
And to hys ſaintes, that neuer they
Returne to fooly ſinnes.

9 For why? his health is ſtill at hand
To ſuch as him do feare:
Wherby great glory in our land
Shall dwell, and flooryſh there.
10 For truth and mercie there ſhall meete
In one, to take their place:
And peace ſhall iuſtice with hys greete,
And there they ſhall embrace.

11 As truth from earth ſhall ſpring a pace
And flooriſhe pleaſauntly:
So righteouſnes ſhall ſhew her face,
And looke from heauen hie.
12 Yea, God him ſelf ſhall take in hand
To geue vs eche good thyng,
And through the coaſtes of all our land
The earth her fruites ſhall bring.

13 Before hys face ſhall iuſtice go,
Much lyke a guide or ſtay:
He ſhall direct his ſteppes alſo,
And kepe them in the way.

PSALME LXXXVI. I. H.

Inclina Domine.

¶ Dauid ſore afflicted and forſaken of all, prayeth feruently for deliuerance. Somtimes rehearſing his miſeries, somtimes the mercies receaued, deſiring alſo to be enſtructed of the Lord, that he maye feare him alſo and glorifie hys name. He complaineth alſo of his aduerſaryes, and requireth to be deliuered from them.

¶ Sing this as the lxxxi. Pſalme.

LOrd bow thyne eare to my requeſt
And heare me by and by:
With greuous payne and griefe oppreſt
Full poore and weake am I.
2 Preſerue my ſoule, becauſe my way
And doings holy bee:
And ſaue thy ſeruaunt, O my Lord,
That puts his truſt in thee.

3 Thy mercy (Lord) on me expreſſe,
Defend me eke with all:
For through the day I do not ceaſe
On thee to cry and call.
4 Comfort (O Lord) thy ſeruaunts ſoule
That now with payne is pinde:
For vnto thee Lorde I extoll
And lift my ſoule and mynde.

5 For thou art good and bountifull,
Thy giftes of grace are free:
And eke thy mercy plentifull
To all that call on thee.
6 O Lord lykewyſe when I do praye,
Regarde and geue an eare:
Marke well the wordes that I do ſay,
And all my prayers heare.

7 In tyme when trouble doth me moue,
To thee I do complaine:
For why I know and well do proue
Thou anſwereſt me agayne.

8 Among

8 Among the Gods(O Lord)is none
With thee to be compared:
And none can do as thou alone,
The lyke hath not bene heard.

¶The second part.

9 The Gentils and the peoples all
Which thou didst make and frame,
Before thy face on knees will fall,
And glorifye thy name.
10 For why,thou art so much of might,
All power is thyne owne:
Thou workest wonders still in sight
For thou art God alone.

11 O teach me(Lord)thy way,and I
Shall in thy truth procede:
O ioyne my hart to thee so nye,
That it thy name may dreede.
12 To thee,my God,will I geue prayse,
With all my hart (O Lord)
And glorifie thy name alwayes,
For euer through the world.

13 For why,thy mercy shewed to me
Is great,and doth excell:
Thou settest my soule at libertie
Out from the lower hell.
14 O Lord ,the proud agaynst me ryse,
And heapes of men of myght:
They seeke my soule,and in no wyse
Will haue thee in their sight.

15 Thou Lord art mercifull and meeke
Full slacke and slow to wrath:
Thy goodnes is full great,and eke
Thy truth no measure hath.
16 O turne to me,and mercy graunt,
Thy strength to me apply:
O helpe and saue thine own seruaunt
Thy hand maids sonne am I.

17 On me some signe of fauour shew,
That all my foes may see,
And be ashamed because(Lord)thou
Doost helpe and comfort me.

PSALME LXXXVII. I. H.

Fundamenta eius.

¶ The holy ghost promiseth that the condition of the church , which was in misery after the captiuitie of Babylon, shoulde be restored to great excellency, so that there should be nothing more comfortable then to be numbred among the members therof.

¶Sing this as the lxxxi.Psalme.

THat citie shall full well endure,
Her ground worke still doth stay.
Vpon the holy hils full sure,
It can no tyme decay.
2 God loues the gates of Sion best,
His grace doth there abyde:
He loued them more then all the rest
Of Iacobs tents beside.

3 Full glorious thinges reported be
In Sion and abrode:
Great thinges,I say,are sayd of thee
Thou citie of our God.
4 On Rahab I will cast an eye,
And beare in minde the same:
And Babylon shall eke apply e,
And learne to know my name.
5 Loe,Palestine and Tire also,
With Ethyope lykewyse:
A people olde,full long a go
Were borne and there dyd ryse.
6 Of Sion they shall say abrode,
That diuers men of fame:
Haue their sprong vp and the hye God
Hath founded fast the same.

7 In their recordes to them it shall
Through God deuyse appeare.
Of Sion that the chiefe of all
Had his beginning there,
8 The trumpeters with such as sing
Therin great plenty bee:
My fountaines and my pleasaunt springs
Are comp ast all in thee.

PSALME LXXXVIII. I. H.

Domine Deus.

¶ A grieuous complaint of the faithfull sore afflicted by sickenes, persecution, and aduersitie being as it were left of God without any consolation. Yet he calleth on God by faith, and striueth against desperation, complaining hym selfe to bee forsaken of all earthly helpe.

LOrd God of helth the hope & stay thou art alone to me,I call & cry throughout the day, and all the nyght to thee O let my prayers sone asced vnto thy sight on hie, incline thine eare (O Lord,) entend, and harken to my cry.

3 For why? my soule with wo is fild,
And doth in trouble dwell,
My lyfe and breath almost doth yeld,
And draweth nie to hell.
4 I am estemd as one of them
That in the pit do fall:
And made as one, among those men
That haue no strength at all.

5 As one among the dead, and free
From things that here remaine:
It were more ease for me to be
With them the which are slaine:
6 As those that lye in graue, I say,
Whom thou hast cleane forgot:
The which thy hand hath cut away,
And thou regardst them not.

7 Yea lyke to one shut vp full sure
Within the lower pit:
In places darke, and all obscure,
And in the depth of it.
8 Thine anger and thy wrath likewise
Full sore on me doth lye:
And all thy stormes against me ryse
My soule to vexe and try.

9 Thou putst my frends far of from me,
And makst them hate me sore:
I am shut vp in prison fast,
And can come forth no more.
10 My sight doth fayle through griefe and wo
I call to thee (O God)
Throughout the day, my hands also
To thee I stretch abrode.

¶ The second part.

11 Doost thou vnto the dead declare
Thy wondrous workes of fame?
Shall dead to lyfe agayne repayre,
And prayse thee for the same?
12 Or shall thy louing kindnes (Lord)
Be preached in the graue?
Or shall with them that are destroyd
Thy truth her honor haue?

13 Shall they that lye in darke full low
Of all thy wonders wote?
Or there shall they thy iustice know,
Where all thinges are forgot?
14 But I (O Lord) to thee alway
Do cry and call a pace:
My prayer eke ere it be day
Shall come before thy face.

15 Why doost thou (Lord) abhorre my soule
In griefe that seeketh thee?
And now (O Lord) why doost thou hide
Thy face away from mee?
16 I am afflict as dying still,
From youth this many a yeare:
Thy terrors which do vexe mest ill
With troubled mind I beare

17 The furies of thy wrathfull rage
Full sore vpon me fall:
Thy terrors eke do not asswage,
But me oppresse with all.
18 All day they compas me about,
As water at the tide:
And all at once with streames full stout
Be set me on eche side.

19 Thou setteſt far from me my frendes,
And louers euery one:
Yea and mine old acquaintance all
Out of my sight are gone.

PSALME LXXXIX. I. H.

Misericordias Domine.

¶ With many words doth the Prophet prayse the goodnes of God, for hys testament and couenaunt that he had made betwene him and his elect by Iesu Christ the son of Dauid, then doth he complaine of the great ruine and desolation of the kyngdome of Dauid, so that to the outward appearaunce, the promis was broken. Finally he prayeth to be deliuered from his afflictions making mention of the shortnes of mans life, and confirming himself by Gods promises.

¶ Sing this as the lxvii. Psalme.

TO sing the mercies of the Lord
My tonge shall neuer spare:
And with my mouth from age to age
Thy truth I will declare.
2 For I haue sayd that mercy shall
For euermore remaine:
In that thou doost the heauens stay,
Thy truth appeareth plaine.

3 To mine elect (sayth God) I made.
A couenaunt and beheſt:
My ſeruant Dauid to perſwade
I ſwore, and dyd proteſt.
4 Thy ſeede for euer I will ſtay,
And ſtabliſh it full faſt:
And ſtill vphold thy throne alway,
From age to age to laſt.

5 The heauens ſhew with ioy and myrth,
Thy wondrous workes O Lord:
Thy ſaintes within thy church on earth,
Thy fayth and truth record.
6 Who with the Lord is equall then
In all the cloudes abrod?
Among the ſons of all the Gods
What one is lyke our God?

7 God in aſſemble of the ſaintes
Is greatly to be dread:
And ouer all that dwell about,
In terrour to be had.
8 Lord God of hoſtes in all the world
What one is lyke to thee?
On euery ſide moſt mightie Lord
Thy truth is ſene to bee.

9 The raging ſee, by thyne aduice,
Thou ruleſt at thy will:
And when the waues therof aryſe,
Thou makſt them calme and ſtill.
10 And Egypt thou Lord haſt ſubdude,
And thou haſt it deſtroyde
Yea thou thy foes with mighty arme
Haſt ſcattred all abroad.

¶ The ſecond part.

11 The heauens are thyne and ſtill haue bene
Lykewyſe the earth and land:
The world with all that is therin,
Thou foundeſt with thy hand.
12 Both North and South, with Eaſt and weſt
Thy ſelf didſt make and frame:
Both Tabor Mount and eke Hermon
Reioyce, and prayſe thy name.

13 Thine arme is ſtrong, and full of power,
All myght therin doth lye:
The ſtrength of thy right hand eche houre
Thou lifteſt vp on hye.
14 In ryghteouſnes and equitie
Thou haſt thy ſeate and place:
Mercy and trueth are ſtill with thee,
And go before thy face:

15 That folke is bleſt that knoweth a right
Thy preſent power, O God:
For in the fauour of thy ſight
They walke full ſafe abrod.
16 For in thy name throughout the day
They ioy, and much reioyce:
And through thy righteouſnes haue they
A pleaſaunt fame and noyſe.

17 For why? their glory, ſtrength and ayde
In thee alone doth lye:
Thy goodnes eke that hath vs ſtayde,
Shall lift our horne on hie.
18 Our ſtrength, that doth defend vs well
The Lord to vs doth bryng:
The holy one of Iſraell,
He is our guide and king.

19 Somtime thy will vnto thy ſaintes
In viſions thou didſt ſhow:
And thus then didſt thou ſay to them,
Thy mind to make them know.
20 A man of might haue I erect,
Your kyng and guide to be:
And ſet vp him whom I elect
Among the folke to me.

¶ The thyrd part.

21 My ſeruant Dauid I appoynt,
Whom I haue ſearched out:
And with my holy oyle anoynt
Hym king of all the route.
22 For why? my hand is ready ſtill
With him for to remayne:
And with myne arme alſo I will
Him ſtrengthen and ſuſtaine.

23 The enmies ſhall not him oppreſs,
They ſhall him not deuour:
Ne yet the ſonnes of wickednes
Of him ſhall haue no power.
24 His foes likewiſe will I deſtroy
Before his face in ſight.
And thoſe that hate hym I will plage,
And ſtrike them with my might.

25 My truth and mercy eke with all,
Shall ſtill vpon him lye:
And in my name his horne eke ſhall
Be lifted vp on hie.
26 His kyngdome I will ſet to be
Vpon the ſea and ſand:
And eke the running flouds ſhall he Embrace with his ryght hand.

27 He ſhall depend with all his hart
On me, and thus ſhall ſay:
My father, and my God thou art,
My rocke of health and ſtay.
28 As one firſt borne I will him take,
Of all on earth that ſprings:
Hys myght and honor, I ſhall make
Aboue all worldly kings.

29 My mercye ſhalbe with him ſtill,
As I my ſelf haue tolde:
My faithfull couenaunt to fulfill
My mercy I will holde.
30 And eke his ſeede will I ſuſtaine,
For euer ſtrong and ſure:
So that his ſeate ſhall ſtill remayne,
Whyle heauen doth endure.

¶ The fourth part.

31 If that his ſonnes forſake my law,

And so begin to swerue:
And of my iudgements haue none awe,
Nor will not them obserue.
32 Or if they do not vse a right
My statutes to them made,
And set all my commaundements light,
And will not keepe my trade:

33 Then with the rod will I begin
Their doings to amend.
And so with scourging for their sin,
When that they do offend.
34 My mercy yet, and my goodnes
I will not take him fro:
Nor handle hym with craftines,
And so my truth forgo.

35 But sure my couenaunt I will hold
With all that I haue spoke:
No word the which my lips haue told
Shall alter or be broke.
36 Once swore I by mine holines,
And that performe will I:
With Dauid I shall keepe promise,
To him I will not lye.

37 His sede for euermore shall raigne,
And eke hys throne of myght:
As doth the sunne it shall remaine
For euer in my sight.
38 And as the Moone with in the skye
For euer standeth fast:
A faithfull witnes from on hie,
So shall his kingdome last.

39 But now (O Lord) thou doost reiect,
And now thou chaungest cheare:
Yea thou art wroth with thine elect.
Thyne own annoynted deare.
40 The couenant with thy seruant made
Lord, thou hast quite vndone:
And down vpon the ground also
Hast cast hys royall crowne.

¶ The fift part.

41 Thou pluckst his hedges vp with might,
His walles doost thou confound:
Thou beatest eke his bulwarkes down,
And breakst them to the ground.
42 Though he is sore destroyd and torne
Of commers by throughout:
And so is made a mocke and scorne
To all that dwell about:

43 Thou their ryght hand hast lifted vp,
That hym so sore annoy:
And all his foes that him deuoure,
Loe thou hast made to ioy.
44 His swords edge thou doost take away
That should his foes withstand:
To him in warre no victory
Thou geuest, nor vpperhand.

45 Hys glory thou doost also wast,
Hys throne, his ioy and myrth:
By thee is ouerthrowne and cast.
Full low vpon the earth.
46 Thou hast cut of and made full short
His youth and lustie dayes:
And rayst of him an ill report
With shame and great dispraise.

47 How long away from me (O Lord)
For euer wilt thou turne?
And shall thine anger still alway
As fire, consume and burne?
48 O call to mind, remember then
My time consumeth fast:
Why hast thou made the sonnes of men
As things in vayne to wast?

49 What man is he that liueth here,
And death shall neuer see?
Or from the hand of hell hys soule
Shall he deliuer free?
50 Where is (O Lord) thine old goodnes
So oft declarde beforne:
Which by thy truth and vprightnes
To Dauid thou hast sworne?

51 The great rebukes to minde I call
That on thy seruants lye:
The rayling of the people all
Borne in my brest haue I.
52 Wherwith O Lord thine enemies
Blasphemed haue thy name:
The steppes of thine annoynted one
Tney cease not to defame.

53 All prayse to thee, O Lord of hostes,
Both now and eke for aye:
Through skie, and earth, in all the costes,
Amen, Amen, I say.

PSALME XC. I. H.

Domine refugium.

¶ Moyses in his prayer setteth before vs the eternall fauour of God towardes his, who are neither admonished, by the breuitie of theyr life, nor by plages, to be thankfull. Therefore Moyses prayeth God to turne their hartes, and continue his mercies towardes them and theyr posteritie for euer.

¶ Sing this as the lxxviii. Psalme.

THou (Lord) hast bene our sure defence,
Our place of ease and rest:
In all tymes past, yea so long sence
As can not be expresst.

2 Ere there was made mountaine or hill,
The earth or world abrod:
From age to age and alwayes still
For euer thou art God.

3 Thou grindeſt man through greeſe and paine
To duſt or clay, and then:
And then thou ſayeſt againe, returne
Agayne ye ſonnes of men.
4 The laſting of a thouſand yeare
What is it in thy ſight?
As yeſterday it doth appeare,
Or as a watch one night.

5 So ſoone as thou dooſt ſcatter them,
Then is their lyfe and trade
All as a ſleepe, and lyke the graſſe,
Whoſe beauty ſoone doth fade.
6 Which in the morning ſhines full bright,
But fadeth by and by,
And is cut down, ere it be nyght
All withered, dead, and dry.

7 For through thine anger we conſume,
Our might is much decayde:
And of thy feruent wrath and fume
We are full ſore afrayde.
8 The wicked works that we haue wrought
Thou ſeeſt before thyne eye:
Our priuie faultes, yea eke our thought,
Thy countenance dooſt ſpye.

9 For through thy wrath our dayes do waſt,
Therof doth nought remayne:
Our yeares conſume as words or blaſt
And are not cald agayne.
10 Our time is threeſcore yeare and ten,
That we do liue on molde:
If one ſee foureſcore, ſurely then.
We count him wondrous olde.

¶ The ſecond part.

11 Yet of this time the ſtrength and chief
The which we count vpon,
Is nothing els but painfull grief,
And we as blaſtes are gone.
12 Who once doth know what ſtrēgth is there
What might thine anger hath?
Or in hys hart who doth thee feare
According to thy wrath,

13 Inſtruct vs, Lord, to know and try,
How long our dayes remayne:
That then we may our hartes apply
True wiſedome to attayne.
14 Returne, O Lord, how long wilt thou,
Forth on in wrath proceede?
Shew fauour to thy ſeruantes now
And helpe them at their neede.

15 Refreſh vs with thy mercy ſoone,
And then our ioy ſhalbe
All times ſo long as life doth laſt
In hart reioyce ſhall we.
16 As thou haſt plaged vs before,
Now alſo make vs glad:
And for the yeares wherin full ſore
Affliction we haue had.

17 O let thy worke and power appeare,
And on thy ſeruauntes light:
And ſhew vnto their children deare,
Thy glory and thy might.
18 Lord let thy grace and glory ſtand
On vs thy ſeruants thus:
Confirme the workes we take in hand,
Lord proſper them to vs.

¶ Here is deſcribed in what aſſurance he liueth that putteth his whole truſte in God, and committeth hym ſelfe wholy to his protection in all temptations. A promiſe of God to thoſe that loue him, know hym, and truſt in hym to deliuer them, and gene them immortall glory.

¶ Sing this as the lxix. Pſalme

HE that within the ſecret place
Of God moſt hie doth dwell:
In ſhadow of the mightieſt grace
At reſt ſhall kepe him well.
2 Thou art my hope and my ſtrong hold,
I to thee Lord will ſay:
My God is he in him will I
My whole affiance ſtay.

3 He ſhall defend thee from the ſnare
The which the hunter layd:
And from that deadly plage and care
Wherof thou art afraide.
4 And with his winges ſhall couer thee,
And kepe thee ſafely there:
His fayth and truth thy fence ſhalbe
As ſure as ſhield and ſpeare.

5 So that thou ſhalt not nede, I ſay
To feare, or be affright:
Of all the ſhaftes that flye by day,
Nor terrours of the night.
6 Nor of the plage that priuely
Doth walke in darke ſo faſt:
Nor yet of that which doth deſtroy,
And at noone dayes doth waſt.

7 Yea at thy ſyde as thou dooſt ſtand,
A thouſand dead ſhalbe,
Ten thouſand eke at thy right hand,
And yet ſhalt thou be free.
8 But thou ſhalt ſee it for thy part,
Thyne eyes ſhall well regard,
That euen like to their deſert
The wicked haue reward.

9 For why (O Lord) I onely luſt
To ſtay my hope on thee,
And in the hieſt I put my truſt,
My ſure defence is hee.
10 Thou ſhalt not neede none ill to feare,
With thee it ſhall not mell,
Nor yet the plage ſhall once come neare,
Thy houſe where thou dooſt dwell.

11 For why? vnto his Angels all,
With charge commaundeth hee
That ſtill in all thy waye, they ſhall
Preſerue and proſper thee.
12 And in theyr hands ſhall thee beare vp,
Still waiting thee vpon:
So that thy foote ſhall neuer chaunce,
To ſpourne at any ſtone.

13 Vpon the Lyon thou ſhalt go,
The Adder fell and long:
And treade vpon the Lyons yong,
With Dragons ſtout and ſtrong.
14 For that he truſteth vnto me,
I will diſpatch hym quite,
And him defend, becauſe that he
Doth know my name a ryght.

15 When he for helpe on me doth cry,
An anſwere I will geue:
And from his griefe take hym will I,
In glory for to liue.
16 With length of yeares, and daies of welth
I will fulfill hys time:
The goodnes of my ſauing health
I will declare to hym.

¶This Pſalme was made tobe ſong on the Sabbaoth, to ſtyr vp the people to acknowledge God, and to prayſe hym in his workes. The Prophet reioyſeth therin. But the wicked is notable to conſyder, that the vngodly, when the is moſt floriſhing, ſhall moſt ſpedelye periſhe. In the end is deſcribed the felicitie of the iuſt, planted in the houſe of God to prayſe the Lord.

¶Sing this as the lxxxviii. Pſalme.

IT is a thing, both good and meete
To prayſe the hygheſt Lord:
And to thy name O thou moſt hie
To ſing in one accord:
2 To ſhew the kindnes of the Lord,
Betime ere day be lyght:
And eke declare his truth abrod,
When it doth draw to night.

3 Vpon ten ſtringed inſtrument,
On lute and harpe ſo ſweete,
With all the myrth you can inuent,
Of inſtrumentes moſt meete.
4 For thou haſt made me to reioyce
In things ſo wrought by thee:
And I haue ioye in hart and voyce
Thy handy workes to ſee.

5 O Lord how glorious and how great
Are all thy workes ſo ſtout?
So depely are thy counſels ſet,
That none can try them out.
6 The man vnwiſe hath not the wyt
This geare to paſſe to bring
And all ſuch fooles are nothing fit
To vnderſtand this thing.

7 When ſo the wicked at theyr will
As gras do ſpring full faſt,
They when they floriſh in their ill,
For euer ſhalbe waſt.
8 But thou art mighty (Lord moſt hye)
Yea thou dooſt raigne therfore
In euery time eternally,
Both now and euermore.

9 For why (O Lord) behold and ſee,
Behold thy foes, I ſay:
How all that worke iniquitie
Shall periſh and decay.
10 But thou like as an Vnicorne
Shalt lift my Horne on hye:
With freſh and new prepared oyle
Thyne noynted king am I.

11 And of my foes before myne eyes
Shall ſee the fall and ſhame:
Of all that vp againſt me riſe
Mine eare ſhall heare the ſame.
12 The iuſt ſhall floriſhe vpon hye
As date trees bud and blow,
And as the ceders multiply,
In Lybanus that grow.

13 For they are planted in the place,
And dwelling of our God:
Within his courtes they ſpring apace
And flooriſhe all abrode,
14 And in theyr age more fruite ſhal bring
Both fat and well beſene:
And pleaſauntly both bud and ſpring,
With boughes and braunches grene.

15 To ſhew that God is good and iuſt
And vpright is his will:
He is my rocke my hope and truſt
In him there is none il.

THe Lord as king aloft doth raigne,
In glory goodly dyght:
And he to shew his strength and maine,
Hath girt hym selfe with myght.
2 The Lord likewise the earth hath made,
And shaped it so sure:
No myght can make it moue or fade,
At stay it doth endure.

3 Ere that the world was made or wrought
Thy seat was set before:
Beyond all tyme that can be thought,
Thou hast bene euermore.

4 The flouds, O Lord, the flouds do ryse,
They roare and make a noyce:
The flouds I say did enterprise.
And lifted vp theyr voyce.

5 Yea though the stormes aryse in sight,
Though seas doo rage and swell:
The Lord is strong and more of myght,
For he on hye doth dwell.
6 And looke what promise he doth make,
His housebolde to defend:
For iust and true they shall it take
All tymes withouten end.

PSALME XCIIII. I. H.

Deus vltionum Dominus.

¶ He prayeth vnto God agaynste the violence and arroganey of tyrantes. Then doth he comfort the afflicted by the good issue of theyr afflictions, as he felt in hym self, and did see in others, and by the ruine of the wicked whom the Lord will destroy.

¶ Sing this as the lxxviii. Psalme.

O Lord thou doost reuenge all wrong,
That office longes to thee:
Sith vengeance doth to thee belong,
Declare that all may see.
2 Set forth thy self, for thou of right
The earth doost iudge and guyde:
Reward the proud and men of myght
According to theyr pryde,

3 How long shall wicked men beare sway
With lifting vp theyr voyce?
How long shall wicked men I say,
Thus triumphe and reioyce?
4 How long shall they with brags brust out
And proudly prate their fill?
Shall they reioyce which be so stout.
Whose workes are euer ill?

5 Thy flocke (O Lord) thyne heritage
They spoyle, and vexe full sore:
Against thy people they do rage,
Still dayly more and more.
6 The widowes which are comfortles
And straungers they destroy:
They slay the children fatherles,
And none doth put them by.

7 And when they take these things in hand
This talke they haue of thee:
Can Iacobs God this vnderstand?
Tush no he can not see.
8 O folke vnwise, O people rude,
Some knowledge now discerne;
Ye fooles among the multitude,
At length begin to learne.

9 The Lord which made the eare of man
He nedes of right must heare:
He made the eyen, all things must than
Before his eyes appeare.
10 The Lord doth all the world correct,
And make men vnderstand:
Shall he not then your dedes detect?
How can ye scape his hand?

¶ The second part.

11 The Lord doth know the thoughts of man
His hart he seeth full plaine:
The Lord I say, mens thoughtes doth scan
And findeth them but vayne.
12 But Lord that man is happy sure
Whom thou doost keepe in awe:
And through correction doost procure
To teach hym in thy law.

13 Wherby he shall in quiet rest
In tyme of trouble sit:
When wicked men shalbe suppreft
And fall into the pit,
14 For sure the Lord will not refuse
His people for to take.
His heritage whom he did chuse
He will no tyme forsake.

15 Vntill that iudgement be decrede,
To iustice to conuert:
That all may followe her with speede

That are of vpright hart.
16 But who vpon my part shall stand
Agaynst the cursed traine?
Or who shall ryd me from theyr hande,
That wicked workes maintaine?

17 Except the Lord had bene myne ayde,
Myne enmies to repelle:
My soule and lyfe had now bene layd
Almost as low as hell.
18 When I dyd say my foote did slyde,
And now am lyke to fall:
Thy goodnes Lord did so prouide,
To stay me vp withall.

19 When with my self I mused much
And could no comfort finde:
Then Lord thy goodnes did me touch
And that dyd ease my mind.

20 Wilt thou enhaunt thy self and draw
With wicked men to sit:
Which with pretence in steede of law
Much mischiefe do commit?

21 For they consult agaynst the lyfe,
Of righteous men and good:
And in theyr counsels they are ryfe
To shed the giltles blood.
22 But yet the Lord he is to mee
A strong defence or locke:
He is my God,to hym I flee,
He is my strength and rocke.

And he shall cause theyr mischiefes all
Them selues for to annoy:
And in their malice they shall fall,
Our God shall them destroy.

Venite exultemus Domino.

¶ An earnest exhortation to prayse God for the gouernement of the world, and the election of his Church. An admonition not to follow the rebellion of the olde fathers, that tempted God in the wyldernes, for the whiche they myghte not enter into the lande of promyse.

3 For why, the Lord he is (no doubt)
A great and mighty God:
A king aboue all Gods throughout,
In all the world abrode.
4 The secretes of the earth so deepe.
And corners of the land:
The tops of hils that are so steepe,
He hath them in his hand.

5 The sea and waters all are hys,
For he the same hath wrought:
The earth and all that therin is
Hys hand hath made of nought.
6 Come let vs bow and prayse the Lord,
Before hym let vs fall:
And kneele to hym with one accord
The which hath made vs all.

7 For why? he is the Lord our God,
For vs he doth prouide:
We are his folke, he doth vs fede,
His sheepe, and he our guide.
8 To day if ye his voyce will heare,
Then harden not your hart:
As ye with grudging many a yeare,
Prouokt me in desert.

9 Where as your fathers tempted me
My power for to proue:
My wondrous workes when they did see
Yet still they would me moue.
10 Twyse twenty yeare they dyd me greue
And I to them dyd say:
They erre in hart, and not beleue,
They haue not known my way.

11 Wherfore I sware, when that my wrath
Was kindled in my breast:
That they should neuer tread the path,
To enter to my rest.

SYng ye with prayſe vnto the Lord
New ſongs of ioy and mirth:
Syng vnto hym with one accord
All people on the earth.
2 Yea ſing vnto the Lord I ſay,
Prayſe ye his holy name:
Declare and ſhew from day to day
Saluacion by the ſame.

3 Among the heathen eke declare
His honour round about:
To ſhew his wonders do not ſpare
In all the world throughout.
4 For why? the Lord is much of myght
And worthy prayſe alway:
And he is to be dread of ryght.
Aboue all Gods, I ſay.

5 For all the Gods of heathen folke
Are Idoles that will fade.
But yet our God he is the Lord,
That hath the heauens made.
6 All prayſe and honour eke do dwell
For aye before hys face:
Both power and might lykewyſe excell
Within hys holy place.

7 Aſcribe vnto the Lord alway
(Ye people of the world)
All myght, and worſhip eke (I ſay)
Aſcribe vnto the Lord.

8 Aſcribe vnto the Lord alſo
The glory of hys name,
And eke into his courtes do go,
With giftes vnto the ſame.

9 Fall downe and worſhip ye the Lord,
Within his temple bright:
Let all the people of the world
Be fearfull at hys ſight.
10 Tell all the world, be not agaſt,
The Lord doth raygne aboue:
Yea he hath ſet the earth ſo faſt,
That it dyd neuer moue.

11 And that it is the Lord alone
That rules with princely might:
To iudge the nacions euery one,
With equity and right.
11 The heauens ſhal great ioy begyn,
The earth ſhall eke reioyce:
The ſea with all that is therein,
Shall ſhoote and make a noyſe.

13 The field ſhall ioy, and euery thing,
That ſpringeth of the earth:
The wood and euery tree ſhall ſyng,
With gladnes and with myrth.

And art exalted wondrouſly,
Aboue ech other God.

11 All ye that loue the Lord, doo this,
Hate all thinges that are ill:
For he doth keepe the soules of his
From such as would them spill.
12 And light doth spring vp to the iust,
With pleasure for his part:
Great ioy, with gladnes, mirth and lust,

A new and pleasant song: (world
For he hath wrought throughout the
His wonders great and strong.
2 With his right hand ful worthely
He doth his foes deuour:
And get hym selfe the victory,
With his own arme and power.

3 The Lord doth make the people know,
His sauing health and might.
The Lord doth make his iustice show
In all the Heathens sight.
4 His grace and truth to Israel,
In minde he doth record:
That all the earth hath seene right well
The goodnes of the Lord.

5 Be glad in hym with ioyfull voyce,
All people of the earth,
Geue thankes to God, sing and reioyce
To hym with ioy and mirth.
6 Vpon the harpe vnto him sing,
Geue thankes to hym with Psalmes:
Reioyce before the Lord our king,

¶Sing this as the lxvii. Psalme.

OHeare my prayer (Lord) and let
My cry come vnto thee
2 In tyme of trouble do not hyde,
Thy face away from mee.
Incline thyne eares to me make hast
To heare me when I call:
3 For as the smoke doth fade, so doo
My dayes consume and fall.

4 And as a hearth my bones are burnt;

My hart is ſmitten dead:
And withers as the graſſe, that I
Forget to eat my bread.
5 By reaſon of my groning voyce
My bones cleaue to my ſkin,
6 As Pellican of wyldernes,
Such caſe now am I in.

And as an Owle in deſert is,
Lo I am ſuch a one:
7 I watch, and as a Sparow on
The houſe top am alone.
8 Lo dayly in reprochfull wyſe
Myne enmies do me ſcorne:
And they that do againſt me rage,
Againſt me they haue ſworne.

9 Surely with aſhes as with bread
My hunger I haue fyld:
And mingled haue my drinke with teares
That fro myne eyes haue ſtyld.
10 By cauſe of thy diſpleaſure Lord,
Thy wrath and thy diſdayne:
For thou haſt lifted me aloft,
And caſt me downe agayne.

11 The dayes wherin I pas my lyfe
Are lyke the fleeting ſhade:
And I am withered like the graſſe,
That ſoone away doth fade.
12 But thou O Lord for euer dooſt
Remayne in ſteddy place.
And thy remembrance euer doth
Abyde from race to race.

¶ The ſecond part.

13 Thou wilt aryſe and mercy thou
To Sion wylt extend,
The tyme of mercy, now the tyme
Foreſet is come to end.
14 For euen in the ſtones therof
Thy ſeruants do delyght.
And of the duſt therof they haue
Compaſſion in theyr ſprite.

15 Then ſhall the heathen people feare
The Lordes moſt holy name:
And all the kinges on earth ſhall dread
Thy glory and thy fame.
16 Then when the Lord the mighty God
Agayne ſhall Sion reare.
And then when he moſt nobly in,
His glory ſhall appeare.

17 To prayer of the deſolate
When he hymſelfe ſhall bend:
When he ſhall not diſdayne vnto
Theyr prayers to attend:
18 This ſhalbe wryten for the age
That after ſhall ſuccede:
The people yet vncreated,
The Lordes renowne ſhall ſprede.

19 For he from his hie ſanctuarie,
Hath looked downe belowe,
And out of heauen hath the Lord
Beheld the earth alſo,
20 That of the mourning captyue hee
Myght heare the wofull cry:
And that he might deliuer thoſe
That damned are to dye.

21 That they in Sion may declare
The Lordes moſt holy name:
And in Ieruſalem ſet foorth
The prayſes of the ſame.
22 Then when the people of the land
And kingdomes with accord:
Shalbe aſſembled for to do
Their ſeruice to the Lord.

The thyrd part.

23 My former force of ſtrength he hath
Abated in the way:
And ſhorter he dyd cut my dayes.
Thus I therfore dyd ſay:
24 My God in mydſt of all my dayes,
Now take me not away:
Thy yeares endure eternallye,
From age to age for ay

25 Thou the foundacions of the earth,
Before all tyme haſt layd:
And Lord the heauens are the worke,
Which thyne own hands haue made.
26 Yea they ſhall periſh and decay,
But thou ſhalt tary ſtyll:
And they ſhall all in tyme waxe old
Euen as a garment wyll.

Thou as a garment ſhalt them chaunge,
And chaunged ſhall they bee:
27 But thou dooſt ſtyll abyde the ſame
Thy yeares doo neuer flee.
28 The children of thy ſeruantes ſhall
Continually endure:
And in thy ſight theyr happy ſeede,
For euer ſhall ſtand ſure.

PSALME CIII. T. S.

Benedic anima mea.

¶ This is a Pſalme moſt excellent, wherin the Prophet doth prouoke men and Angels, and all creatures to prayſe the Lord for his fatherly mercies, and deliuerance of his people from all euils for his prouidence ouer all things, and the preſeruacion of the faithfull.

MY ſoule geue laud vnto the Lord, my ſprite ſhall doo the ſame: and all the ſecretes of my hart, prayſe ye his holy name. Geue thanks to God for all his gifts, ſhew not thy ſelf vnkind, and ſuffer not his benefites to ſlip out of thy mynde.

3 That gaue thee pardon for thy faults
And thee reſtord agayne:
For all thy weake and frayle diſeaſe,
And healde thee of thy payne.
4 That did redeme thy lyfe from death,
From which thou couldſt not flee:
His mercy and compaſsion both
He dyd extend to thee.

5 That fild wyth goodnes thy deſire,
And dyd prolong thy youth:
Lyke as the Egle caſtes her byl,
Wherby her age renueth.
6 The Lord wyth iuſtice doth repay
All ſuch as be oppreſt:
So that theyr ſuffringes and their wrongs
Are turned to the beſt.

7 His wayes and his commaundements
To Moſes he did ſhow:
His counſels and his valiant actes,
The Iſraelites dyd know.
8 The Lord is kynd and mercyful,
When ſynners do hym greue:
The ſloweſt to conceaue a wrath,
And redyeſt to forgeue.

9 He chides not vs continually,
Though we be full of ſtrife:
Nor keepes our faultes in memory,
For all our ſynfull lyfe.
10 Nor yet according to our ſynnes
The Lord doth vs regard:
Nor after our iniquityes
He doth not vs reward.

11 But as the ſpace is wondrous great,
Twixt heauen and earth aboue:
So is his goodnes much more large,
To them that doo hym loue.
12 God doth remoue our ſynnes from vs
And our offences all:
As farre as is the ſunne ryſyng,
Full diſtant from his fall.

The ſecond part.

13 And looke what pity Parentes deare,
Vnto theyr chyldren beare:
Like pity beares the Lord to ſuch
As worſhip hym in feare.
14 The Lord that made vs knoweth our ſhape
Our mould and faſhion iuſt:
How weake and frayle our nature is,
And how we be but duſt.

15 And how the tyme of mortall men
Is lyke the withering hay:
Or lyke the floure right fayre in field
That fades full ſoone away.
16 Whoſe gloſſe and beautye ſtormy winds,
Do vtterly diſgrace:
And make that after theyr aſſaultes
Such bloſſomes haue no place.

17 But yet the goodnes of the Lord
With his ſhall euer ſtand:
Theyr childrens chyldren do receaue
His righteouſnes at hand.
18 I meane which keepe his couenant
With all their whole deſyre,
And not forget to do the thyng
What he doth them requyre.

19 The heauens hye are made the ſeate
And foote ſtoole of the Lord:
And by hys power imperiall
Hee gouernes all the world.
20 Ye aungles which are great in power
Prayſe ye and bles the Lord:
Which to obey and do his will Immediatly accorde.

21 Ye noble hoſtes and miniſters
Ceaſe not to laude hym ſtyll:
Which ready are to execute
His pleaſure and his will.
22 Ye all his woorkes in euery place,
Prayſe ye his holy name:
My hart my minde and eke my ſoule,
Prayſe ye alſo the ſame.

PSALME CIII. VV. K.

Benedic, anima mea, Domino.

¶ An excellent Pſalme to prayſe God for the creation of the worlde, and the gouernance of the ſame by hys maruelous prouidence: wherin the Prophet prayeth againſt the wicked, who are occaſions that God diminiſheth his bleſsinges.

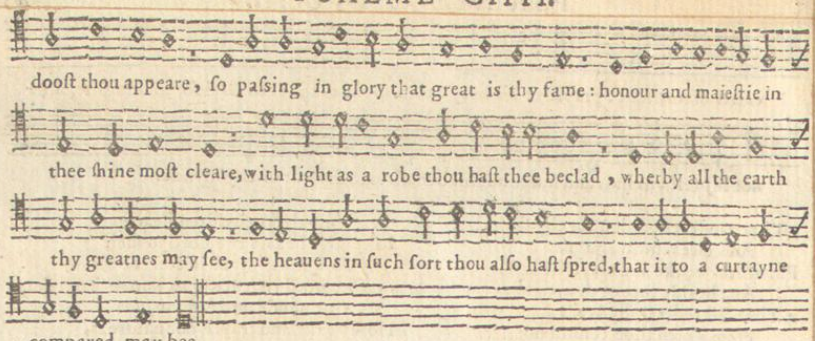
MY ſoule prayſe the Lord, ſpeake good of his name: O Lord our great God, how



3 His chamber beames lye,
In the cloudes full ſure
Which as his charet,
Are made hym to beare:
And there wyth much ſwiftnes
His courſe doth indure,
Vpon the wyngs riding
Of wynde in the ayre.
4 He maketh his ſprites
As Herauldes to go:
And lightninges to ſerue
We ſee alſo preſt:
His wyll to accompliſh
They turne to and fro,
To ſaue or conſume thinges,
As ſeemeth hym beſt.

5 He groundeth the earth
So firmly and faſt,
That it once to moue
None haue ſhall ſuch power.
6 The deepe a fayre couering
For it made thou haſt,
Which by his own nature
The hyls would deuour.
7 But at thy rebuke
The waters doo flee,
And ſo geue due place,
Thy woord to obey:
At thy voice of thunder
So fearefull they bee,
That in their great raging,
They haſt ſone away.

8 The mountaines full high
They then vp aſcend:
If thou do but ſpeake,
Thy woord they fulfill,
So likewiſe the valleyes
Moſt quickly deſcend,
Where thou them appointeſt:
Remayne they doo ſtill.
9 Their boundes haſt thou ſet
How far they ſhall runne,
So as in their rage
Not that pas they can,
For God hath appoynted,
They ſhall not returne
The earth to deſtroy more,
Which made was for man.

¶ The ſecond part.

10 He ſendeth the ſprings
To ſtrong ſtreames or lakes,
Which runne doo full ſwyft
Among the huge hils,
11 Where both the wilde aſſes,
Their thyrſt of tymes ſlakes,
And beaſtes of the mountaines
Therof drynke theyr fils.
12 By theſe pleaſaunt ſpringes
Or fountaynes full fayre,
To foules of the ayre
Abyde ſhall and dwell:
Who moued by nature:
To hoppe here and there,
Among the grene branches
Theyr ſonges ſhall excell.

13 The mountaynes to moyſt,
The cloudes he doth vſe:
The earth with his workes
Are wholy repleat:
14 So as the brute cattell
He doth not refuſe,
But graſſe doth prouide them,
And herbe for mans meat.
15 Yea bread, wine and oyle,
He made for mans ſake,
His face to refreſh,
And hart to make ſtrong.
16 The Ceders of Liban
This great Lord did make
Which trees he doth nouriſh
That grow vp ſo long.

17 In theſe may birdes build
And make there theyr neſt
In firre trees the Storkes
Remayne and abyde:
18 The hye hils are ſuccours:
For wilde Goates to reſt
And eke the rockes ſtony
For Conyes to hyde,
19 The moone then is ſet
Her ſeaſons to runne,
The dayes from the nightes

Therby

Therby to diſcerne:
And by the deſcendyng
Alſo of the ſunne,
The colde from heate alwaye
Therby we do learne,

20 When darknes doth come
By Gods will and power
Then creepe foorth do all
The beaſtes of the wood:
21 The Lions range roaryng
Their pray to deuour.
But it is thou (Lord,)
Which geueſt them foode.
22 Aſſoone as the ſunne
Is vp, they retyre.
To couche in theyr dennes
Then are they full fayne.
23 That man do his woorke may
As right doth require,
Til night come and call him,
To take reſt agayne.

¶ The thyrd part.

24 How ſundry (O Lord)
Are all thy workes found
With wiſdome full great,
They are in deede wrought
So that the whole worlde
Of thy prayſe doth ſound.
And as for thy ryches,
They paſſe all mens thought.
25 So is the great ſea,
Which large is and broade
Where thinges that crepe ſwarme,
And beaſtes of eche ſort.
26 There both myghty ſhippes ſaile,
And ſome lye at roade
The Whale huge and monſtrous
There alſo doth ſporte.

27 All thinges on thee wayte:
Thou dooſt them reliefe,
And thou in due tyme
Full well dooſt them feede,
28 Now when it doth pleaſe thee
The ſame ſo to geue,
They gather full gladly
Thoſe thinges which they neede.
Thou openeſt thyne hand,
And they find ſuch grace,
That they with good things
Are filled we ſee.
29 But ſore are they troubled,
If thou turne thy face:
For if thou their breath take,
Vile duſt then they bee.

30 Agayne when thy ſpryte
From thee doth proceede,
All things to appoint,
And what ſhall inſue,
Then are they created,
As thou haſt decreede,
And dooſt by thy goodnes
The dry earth renue.
31 The prayſe of the Lord
For euer ſhall laſt,
Who may in his woorkes,
By ryght, well reioyce.
32 His looke can the earth make
To tremble full faſt,
And likewyſe the mountayns,
To ſmoke at his voyce.

33 To this Lord and God
Sing will I alwayes:
So long as I lyue,
My God prayſe wyll I.
34 Then am I moſt certayne,
My woordes ſhall him pleaſe.
I will reioyce in hym
To him will I crye.
35 The ſinners (O Lord)
Conſume in thine ire,
And eke the peruerſe
Them roote out with ſhame.
But as for my ſoule, now
Let it ſtill thee deſire,
And ſay with the faythfull,
Prayſe ye the Lordes name.

PSALME CV. N.

¶ He prayſeth the ſinguler goodnes of God, who hath of all the people of the world choſen a peculiar people to him ſelfe, and hauing choſen them, neuer ceaſeth to do them good euen for his promiſe ſake.

¶ Sing this as the xcv. Pſalme.

GIue prayſes vnto God the Lord
And call vpon his name:
Among the people eke declare
His workes to ſpred his fame.
2 Sing ye vnto the Lord I ſaye
And ſing vnto him prayſe:
And talke of all the wondrous woorkes
That he hath wrought alwayes.
3 In honor of his holy name
Reioyce with one accord:
And let the hart alſo reioyce,
Of them that ſeeke the Lord.
4 Seeke ye the Lord and ſeeke the ſtrength
Of his eternall might,
And ſeeke his face continually,
And preſence of his ſight.

5 The wondrous workes that he hath don,
Keepe ſtill in mindfull hart:
Ne let the iudgements of his mouth
Out of your minde depart.
6 Ye that of faithfull Abraham
His ſeruant are the ſeede.
Ye his elect, the children that
Of Iacob do proceede.

7 For he, he onely is I ſay,
The mighty Lord our God,
And his moſt rightfull iudgements are
Through all the earth abroade.
8 His promiſe and his couenant,
Which he hath made to his:
He hath remembred euermore,
To thouſandes of degrees.

The ſecond part.

9 The couenaunt which he hath made,
With Abraham long ago:
And faithfull oth which he hath ſworne,
To Iſaac alſo.
10 And did confirme the ſame for law,
That Iacob ſhould obey:
And for eternall couenaunt
To Iſrael for aye.

11 When thus he ſayd, loe I to you
All Chanaan land will geue:
The lot of your inheritaunce
Wherin your ſeede ſhall lyue.
12 Although their number at that time,
Did very ſmall appeare,
Yea very ſmall, and in the land
They then but ſtraungers were.

13 Whyle yet they walke from land to land,
Without a ſure abode:
And whyle fro ſundry kingdomes they Did wander all abrode.
14 And wrong at none oppreſſors hand
He ſuffred them to take:
But euen the great and mighty kings
Reproued for their ſake.

15 And thus he ſayd: touch ye not thoſe
That myne anoynted bee:
Ne doo the Prophets any harme,
That do pertayne to mee.
16 He cald a dearth vpon the land
Of bread he ſtroyd the ſtore:
But he agaynſt theyr tyme of neede,
Had ſent a man before.

¶ The third part.

17 Euen Ioſeph which had once ben ſold,
To lyue a ſlaue in wo:
18 Whoſe feete they hurt in ſtocks, whoſe ſoule
The yron pearſt alſo:
19 Vntyll the time came, when his cauſe
Was knowne apparantly:
The mighty woord of God the Lord,
His faultles truth dyd try.

20 The king ſent and deliuered him
From priſon where he was:
The ruler of the people then,
Did freely let him pas.
21 And ouer all hys houſe he made,
Him Lord to beare the ſway:
And of his ſubſtaunce made him haue,
The rule and all the ſtay.

22 That he might to his wyll inſtruct
The Princes of his land:
And wiſdomes lore his auncient men,
Might teach to vnderſtand.
23 Then into the Egyptian land,
Came Iſrael alſo:
And Iacob in the land of Ham
Did lyue a ſtraunger tho.

24 His people he exceedingly,
In number made to flow:
And ouer all theyr enemies,
In ſtrength he made them grow.
25 Whoſe hart he turnd, that they wich haue
His people did entreat,
And did his ſeruaunts wrongfully
Abuſe with falſe deceite.

¶ The fourth part.

26 His faithfull ſeruaunt Moſes then
And Aaron whome he choſe,
He did commaund to go to them,
His meſſage to diſcloſe,
27 The wondrous meſſage of his ſigne,
Among them they did ſhew:
And wonders in the land of Ham
Then did they woorke alſo.

28 Darknes he ſent, and made it darke
In ſteede of brighter day,
And vnto his commiſsion
They did not diſobey.
29 He turnd theyr waters into blood,
He did theyr fiſhes ſlay:
30 Their land brought frogs, euen in the place
Where theyr kyng Pharao lay.

31 He ſpake, and at his voyce there came
Great ſwarmes of noyſome Flyes,
And all the quarters of theyr land
Were fild with crauling Lyce.
32 He gaue them cloud and ſtony hayle,
In ſteede of milder rayne:
And firy flames within theyr land
He ſent vnto theyr payne.

33 He ſmote theyr vines and all their trees
Wheron their figges did grow
And all the trees within their coaſtes
Downe did he ouerthrow.
34 He ſpake, then Caterpillers did
And Greſhoppers abound:
35 Which ate the graſſe in all theyr land,
And fruite of all theyr ground.

¶ The fift part.

36 The firſt begotten in theyr land,

Eke

Eke deadly dyd he ſmite
Yea the begynnyng and firſt frute,
Of all theyr ſtrength and mighte.
37 With gold and ſiluer he them brought
From Egypt land to paſſe,
And in the number of theyr tribes
No feble one there was,

38 Egypt was glad and ioyfull then
When they dyd thence depart:
For terrour and the feare of them
Was fallen vpon theyr hart.
39 To ſhroud thē from the parching heat
A cloud he did diſplay.
And fire he ſent to geue them lyght
When nyght had hid the day.

40 They aſked, and he cauſed Quayles
To rayne at theyr requeſt,
And fully with the bread of heauen
Their hunger he repreſt.
41 He opened then the ſtony rock,
And water guſhed out,
And in the dry and parched groundes,
Like riuers ranne aboute.

42 For of his holy couenaunt,
Ay mindfull was he tho,
Which to his ſeruaunt Abraham
He plighted long ago.
43 He brought his people foorth with mirth
And his elect with ioy,
Out of the cruell land where they,
Had liued in great anoy.

44 And of the Heathen men he gaue,
To them the frutefull landes,
The labors of the people eke
They tooke into theyr handes.
45 That they his holy ſtatutes mighte
Obſerue for euermore,
And faithfully obey hys lawes,
Prayſe ye the Lord therfore.

PSALME CVI. N.

¶ The people diſperſed vnder Antiochus doo magnifie the goodneſſe of God among the iuſt and repentaunt: deſiryng to be brought agayne into the lande by Gods mercifull viſitation. And after the manifold mernailes of God wrought in theyr deliueraūce foorth of Egypt and the great ingratitude of the people rehearſed, they doo praye and deſire to be gathered from among the Heathen, to the entēt they may prayſe the name of the God of Iſraell.

¶Sing this as the xcv. Pſalme.

PRayſe ye the Lord, for he is good,
His mercyes dures for ay:
2 Who can expreſſe his noble actes,
Or all his prayſe diſplay?
3 They bleſſed are that iudgement keepe
And iuſtly do alwaye:
4 With fauour of thy people, Lord
Remember me I pray

And with thy ſauyng health O Lord,
Vouchesafe to viſite me:
5 That I the great felicitie
Of thine elect may ſee.
And with thy peoples ioy I may
A ioyfull mynd poſſeſſe.
And may with thyne inheritaunce
A gloriyng hart expreſſe.

6 Both we and eke our fathers all
Haue ſinned euery one:
We haue committed wickednes,
And leudly we haue done.
7 The wonders great which thou (O Lord)
Haſt done in Egypt land
Our fathers, though they ſaw them all,
Yet did not vnderſtand.

Nor they thy mercies multitude,
Did keepe in thankfull mind:
But at the ſea, yea the red ſea,
Rebelled moſt vnkind.

8 Neuertheles he ſaued them,
For honor of his name:
That he might make his power knowne
And ſpred abrode with fame,

9 The red ſea he did then rebuke,
And foorth with it was dryde:
And as in wildernes, ſo through
The deepe he did them guide.
10 He ſaued them from the cruell hand
Of their diſpitefull foe:
And from the enmies hand he did
Deliuer them alſo.

¶The ſecond part.

11 The waters theyr oppreſſors whelmd,
Not one was left aliue:
12 Then they beleued his wordes, and prayſe
In ſong they did him geue.
15 But by and by vnthankfully
His workes they cleane forgat:
And for his counſell and his will
They did neglect to wayte.

14 But luſted in the wildernes,
With fond and gredy luſt,
And in the deſert tempted God,
The ſtay of all theyr truſt.
15 And then their wanton mindes deſire
He ſuffred them to haue.

But wasting leanneſſe therwithall
Into theyr ſoule he gaue.

16 Then when they lodged in the tentes
At Moyſes they dyd grutch,
Aaron the holy of the Lord,
So did they enuy much.
17 Therfore the earth did open wide,
And Dathan did deuoure:
And all Abirams company,
Did couer in that houre.

18 In theyr aſſembly kindled was
The hote conſumyng fire,
And wasting flame did then burn vp
The wicked in his ire.
19 Vpon the hill of Horeb they
An idole Calfe did frame.
And there the molten image they Did worſhip of the ſame.

20 Into the lykenes of a Calfe,
That feedeth on the graſſe,
Thus they their glory turned, and all
Their honor did deface.
21 And God theyr onely ſauiour,
Vnkyndly they forgot,
Which many great and myghty things
In Egypt land had wrought.

¶ The third part.

22 And in the land of Ham for them,
Moſt wondrous woorkes had done
And by the red ſea dreadfull things
Performed long agone.
23 Therfore for theyr ſo ſhewing them,
Forgetfull and vnkind,
To bring deſtruction on them all
He purpoſde in his minde.

Had not his choſen Moſes ſtoode,
Before him in the breake.
To turne his wrath, leaſt he on them
With ſlaughter ſhould him wreake.
24 They did deſpiſe the pleaſaunt land,
That he behight to geue:
Yea and the woordes that he had ſpoke
They did no whit beleue.

25 But in their tentes with grudging hart,
They wickedly repinde,
Nor to the voyce of God the Lord
They gaue an harknyng myndе.
26 Therfore againſt them lifted he
His ſtrong reuengyng hand:
Them to deſtroy in wildernes,
Yer they ſhould ſee the land.

27 And to deſtroy their ſeede among
The nations with his rod:
And through the countreys of the world
To ſcatter them abrode,
28 To Baal Peor then they did,
Adioyne themſelues alſo:
And ate the offrings of the dead:
So they forſooke hym tho.

29 Thus with theyr owne inuentions,
His wrath they did prouoke,
And in his ſo enkyndled wrath
The plage vpon them broke.
30 But Phineas ſtoode vp with zeale,
The ſinners vile to ſlaye.
And iudgement he did execute,
And then the plage did ſtay.

¶ The fourth part.

31 It was imputed vnto hym,
For righteouſnes that day,
And from thence foorth ſo compted it
From race to race for aye.
32 At waters eke of Meribah
They did him angry make:
Yea ſo farre foorth that Moſes was
Then puniſht for theyr ſake.

33 Bycauſe they vexte his ſprit ſo ſore
That in impacient heate,
His lips ſpake vnaduiſedly,
His feruor was ſo great.
34 Nor as the Lord commaunded them
They ſlew the people tho,
35 But were among the Heathen mixt,
And learnd their woorkes alſo.

36 And did their idols ſerue, which were Theyr ruine and decay.
37 To feends their ſonnes and daughters they Did offer vp and ſlay.
38 Yea with vnkyndly murdring knife
The giltles bloud they ſpilt:
Yea theyr own ſonnes and daughters bloud
Without all cauſe of gilt.

Whom they to Canaan idols then
Offred with wicked hand:
And ſo with bloud of innocentes,
Defiled was the land.
39 Thus were they ſtained with the workes
Of theyr own filthy way,
And with theyr owne inuentions
A whooryng did they ſtray.

40 Therfore againſt his people was
The Lordes wrath kindled ſore,
And euen his own inheritaunce
Therfore he did abhorre.
41 Into the handes of Heathen men
He gaue them for a pray:
And made their foes their Lordes, whom they Were forced to obey.

The fyft part.

42 Yea and their hatefull enemyes
Oppreſt them in the land:
And they were humbly made to ſtoupe
As ſubiectes to their hand.
43 Full oftentimes from thrall had he Deliuered them before:

But

But with their counsels they to wrath
Prouokt him euermore.

Therfore they by theyr wickednesse,
Were brought full low to lye:
44 Yet when he saw them in distresse,
He herkned to theyr cry.
45 He cald to minde his couenant,
Which he to them had swore,
And by his mercies multitude
Repented hym therfore.

46 And fauour he them made to finde,
Before the sight of those,
That led them captiue from theyr land.
When erst they were theyr foes.
47 Saue vs (O Lord) that art our God:
Saue vs (O Lord) we pray:
And from among the Heathen folke,
Lord, gather vs away.

That we may spred the noble prayse,
Of thy most holy name,
That we may glory in thy prayse,
And soundyng of thy fame,
48 The Lord the God of Israell,
Be blest for euermore:
Let all the people say Amen,
Prayse ye the Lord therfore.

PSALME CVII. VV. K.

¶ The Prophet exhorteth all those that are redemed by the Lorde and gathered vnto hym, to geue thankes for this mercifull prouidence of God, gouernyng all thinges at hys good pleasure, sendyng good and euill, prosperitie and aduersitie, to bringe me vnto him. Therfore, as the ryghteous threat reioyce, so shall the wicked haue theyr mouthes stopped.

¶ Sing this as the xcv. Psalme.

GEue thankes vnto the Lord our God,
For gratious is hee:
And that his mercy hath none ende,
All mortall men may see.
2 Such as the Lord redeemed hath,
With thankes should prayse his name
And shew how they from foes were freed,
And how he wrought the same.

3 He gathered them foorth of the landes,
That lay so farre about:
From East to West, from North to South,
His hand did finde them out.
4 They wandred in the wildernes.
And strayed from the way,
And found no Citie where to dwell
That serue might for theyr stay.

5 Whose thirst and honger was so great:
In these desertes so voyde:
That faintnes did them sore assault,
And eke their soules anoyde.
6 Then did they cry in their distresse,
Vnto the Lord for ayde,
Who did remoue their troublous state,
Accordyng as they prayde.

7 And by that way which was most right
He led them like a guide:
That they myght to a Citie go,
And there also abyde.
8 Let men therfore before the Lord
Confesse his goodnes then:
And shew the wonders that he doth,
Before the sonnes of men.

9 For he the emptie soule sustaynde:
Whom thyrst had made to faynte:
The hungry soule with goodnes fed
And did them eke acquainte:
10 Such as do dwell in darknesse deepe
Where they of death do wayte,
Fast bound to tast such troublous stormes
As yron chaines do threate.

¶ The second part.

11 For that against the Lordes own wordes
They sought so to rebell,
Estemyng light his counsels high,
Which do so farre excell.
12 But when he humbled them, full low
They then fell down with grief,
And none was found, so much to helpe
Wherby to get relief.

13 Then did they cry in their distresse,
Vnto the Lord for ayde:
Who did remoue their troublous state,
Accordyng as they prayde.
14 For he from darknes out them brought
And from deathes dredfull shade,
Burstyng with force the yron bandes.
Which did before them lade.

15 Let men therfore before the Lord,
Confesse his kindnesse then:
And shew the wonders that he doth,
Before the sonnes of men.
16 For he threw down theyr gates of brasse
And brake them with strong hand:
The yron barres he smote in two,
Nothing could him withstand.

17 The foolish folke great plagues do feele
And cannot from them wend:
But heape on mo to these they haue,

By cause they do offend:
18 Theyr soule so much did loth all meat
That none they could abyde:
Wherby death had them almost caught,
As they full truly tride.

19 Then did they cry in their distres,
Vnto the Lord for ayde:
Who did remoue theyr troublous state,
Accordyng as they prayde.
20 For he then sent to them his woorde,
Which health did soone restore.
And brought them from those daungers deepe
Wherin they were before.

¶The thyrd part.
21 Let men therfore before the Lord,
Confesse his kyndnesse then,
And shew the wonders that he doth,
Before the sonnes of men.
22 And let them offer sacrifice,
With thankes and also feare,
And speake of all his wondrous woorkes
With glad and ioyfull cheare.

23 Such as in shyppes or brittell barkes
Into the seas descend,
Theyr marchandise through fearful floudes
To compasse and to ende:
24 Those men are forced to behold,
The Lordes woorkes, what they bee.
And in the dangerous deepe the same,
Most merueilous they see.

25 For at his woord, the stormy winde
Ariseth in a rage:
And stirreth vp the surges so,
As nought can them assuage.
26 Then are they lifted vp so hygh,
As the cloudes they seme to gayne:
And plungyng down the depth vntill,
Theyr soules consume with payne.

27 And lyke a drunkard, to and fro,
Now here now there they reele:
As men with feare of wit bereft,
Or had of sense no feele.
28 Then did they cry in theyr distresse,
Vnto the Lord for ayde:
Who did remoue theyr troublous state.
Accordyng as they prayde.

29 For with his word the Lord doth make
The sturdy stormes to cease:
So that the great waues from theyr rage,
Are brought to rest and peace.
30 Then are men glad when rest is come
Which they so much do craue:
And are by hym in hauen brought,
Which they so fayne would haue.

¶The fourth part.

31 Let men therfore before the Lord,
Confesse his kindnes then:
And shew the wonders that he doth
Before the sonnes of men.
32 Let them in presence of the folke,
With prayse extoll his name:
And where the elders do conuent,
Let them there do the same.

33 For runnyng floods to dry desertes,
He dooth oft chaunge and turne:
And dryeth vp, as it were dust,
The springyng well and burne.
34 A frutefull land with pleasures deckt
Full barren doth he make:
When on theyr sinnes, which dwell therin
He doth iust vengeance take.

35 Agayne the wilderneſſe full rude
He maketh frute to beare:
With pleasant springs of water cleare
Though none before were there.
36 Wherin such hungry soules are set
As he doth freely chuse:
That they a City may them buylde
To dwell in for theyr vse.

37 That they may sow theyr pleasaunt land
And vineyardes also plant:
To yelde them frutes of such increase,
As none may seeme to want.
38 They multiplie excedyngly,
The Lord doth blesse them so:
Who doth also theyr brute beastes make,
By numbers great to grow.

39 But when the faithfull are low brought
By the oppressors stoute:
And minish do through many plagues,
That compasse them about.
40 Then doth he princes bryng to shame,
Which did them so oppresse,
And likewise caused them to erre,
Within the wilderneſſe.

41 But yet the poore he rayseth vp,
Out of his troubles deepe:
And oft tymes doth his trayne augment
Much lyke a flocke of sheepe.
42 The ryghteous shall behold this sight
And also much reioyce:
Where as the wicked and peruerse,
With grief shall stop theyr voyce.

43 But who is wise that now full well,
He may these things record?
For certeynly such shall perceyue,
The kyndnesse of the Lord.

PSALME CVIII. I. H.

Paratum cor meum.

¶ This Psalme is composed of two other Psalmes before, the seuen and fifty and the sixty. The matter here conte- conteyned in. That David geueth himself with hart and voyce to prayse the Lord, and assureth himself of the promises of God concernyng his kingdome ouer Israell, and his power against other nacions, who though he seeme for to forsake us for a time: yet he alone in the ende wyll cast downe our enemies.

¶Sing this as the xcv. Psalme.

O God, my hart prepared is,
And eke my tong is so:
I will aduaunce my voyce in song.
And geuyng prayse also.

2 Awake my viole and my harpe,
Sweete melody to make,
And in the mornyng I my selfe,
Ryght early will awake.

3 By me among the people (Lord)
Still praysed shalt thou bee,
And I among the Heathen folke
Will sing (O Lord) to thee.

4 Bycause thy mercy (Lord) is great
Aboue the heauens hye,
And eke thy truth doth reach the clouds
Within the lofty sky.

5 Aboue the starry heauens heyght
Exalte thy selfe (O God)
And Lord display vpon the earth
Thy glory all abrode.

6 That thy dearely beloued may
Be set at liberty:
Helpe (O my God) with thy right hand,
And harken vnto me.

7 God in his holynes hath spoke:
Wherfore my ioyes abound,
Sychem I shall diuide, and meete
The vale of Succoth ground.

8 And Gilead shall be myne own,
Manasses myne shall be:
My hed strength Ephraim, and Law
Shall Iuda geue for me.

9 Moab my washpot, and my shoo
On Edom wyll I throw:
Vpon the land of Palestine
In triumph wyll I go.

10 Who shall into the city strong,
Be guide to conduct me?
Or how by whom to Edom land,
Conueyed shall I bee?

11 Is it not thou, O God, which late
Hadst vs forsaken quite?
And thou O Lord which with our host
Didst not go forth to fight?

12 Geue vs O Lord thy sauing ayde,
When trouble doth assayle:
For all the helpe of men is vayne,
And can no whit auayle.

13 Through god we shall do valiant actes,
And worthy of renoume:
He shall subdue our enemies,
Yea he shall treade them downe.

PSALME CIX. N.

Deus laudem meam.

¶ Dauid beyng falsly accused by flatterers vnto Saule, prayeth God to helpe hym and to destroy his enemies. And vnder them he speaketh of Iudas the traitour vnto Iesus Christ and of all the lyke enemies of the children of God: & desireth so to bee delyuered, that his enemies may know the worke of God. Then doth he promise to geue prayses vnto God.

¶Sing this as the cxv. Psalme.

IN spech eles silence do not hold,
O God thy toung alwayes:
O God, euen thou I say that art
The God of all my prayse.

2 The wicked mouth and gilefull mouth,
On me disclosed bee:
And they with false and lying tong,
Haue spoken vnto me.

3 They did beset me round about,
With woords of hatefull spite:
Without all cause of my desert,
Against me did they fight.

4 For my good wyll they were my foes,
But then gan I to pray:
5 My good with yll, my frendlynes
With hate, they did repay.

6 Set thou the wicked ouer him
To haue the vpper hand:
At his right hand eke suffer thou,
His hatefull foe to stand.

7 When he is iudged, let him then,
Condemned be therin:
And let the prayer that he makes,
Be turned into syn.

8 Fewe be hys dayes, his charge also Let thou an other take:
9 His children let be fatherles,
His wyfe a wydow make.

10 Let his offspring be vagabondes,
To beg and seke their bread:
Wandring out of the wasted place,
Where erst they haue bene fed.

11 Let couetous extortion:
Catch all his goods and store,
And let the straungers spoyle the fruites
Of all his toyle before.

12 Let there be none to pitie him,
Let there be none at all:
That on his children fatherles,
Will let theyr mercy fall.

¶ The second part.

13 And so let hys posteritie,
For euer be destroyde:

Theyr name out blotted in the age,
That after shall succede.
14 Let not his fathets wickednes,
From Gods remembraunce fall:
And let not thou his mothers synne
Be done away at all.

15 But in the presence of the Lord,
Let them remayne for aye:
That from the earth their memory,
He may cut cleane away.
16 Sith mercie he forgat to shew,
But did pursue with spite:
The troubled man, and sought to slay,
The wofull harted wight.

17 As he did cursing loue, it shall Betide vnto hym so:
And as he did not blessing louc,
It shalbe far him fro.
18 As he with cursing clad him selfe,
So it like water shall:
Into hys bowels and lyke oyle
Into his bones befall.

19 As garment let it be to him,
So couer him for aye:
And as a gyrdle wherwith he Shall girded be alway.
20 Lo let this same be from the Lord,
The guerdon of my fo:
Yea and of those that euill speake,
Against my soule also.

21 And thou, O Lord that art my God,
Deale thou I say with me:
After thy name deliuer me,
For good thy mercies be.
22 Because in depth of great distresse,
I needy am and poore:
And eke within my payned brest,
My hart is wounded sore:

¶ The third part.

23 Euen so do I depart away,
As doth declining shade:
And as the grashoper so I
Am shaken of and fade.
24 With fasting long from nedefull foode
Enfeabled are my knees:
And all her fatnes hath my flesh,
Enforced bene to leese.

25 And I also a vyle reproche,
To them was made to be:
And they that did vpon me looke,
Did shake their heds at me.
26 But thou, O Lord that art my God,
Mine ayde and succour be:
Accordyng to thy mercy, Lord,
Saue and deliuer me.

27 And they shall know therby, that this
(Lord) is thy myghty hand:
And that thou, thou hast done it, Lord
So shall they vnderstande.
28 Although they curse with spite, yet thou
Shalt blesse with louing voyce:
They shall arise and come to shame,
Thy seruant shall reioyce.

29 Let them be clothed all with shame,
That enmies are to me:
And with confusion as a cloke,
Eke couered let them be.
30 But greatly I wyll with my mouth,
Geue thankes vnto the Lord,
And I among the multitude
His prayses wyll record.

31 For he with helpe at his right hand,
Will stand the poore man by:
To saue him from the men that would Condemne his soule to dye.

PSALME CX. N.

Dixit Dominus Domino.

¶ Dauid prophecieth of the power and euerlasting kingdome geuen to Christ, and of his priesthood which should put an end to the priesthood of Leui.

Sing this as the lxviii. Psalme.

THe Lord dyd say vnto my Lord:
Syt thou at my right hand:
Tyll I haue made thy foes a stoole,
Wheron thy feete shall stand.
2 The Lord shall out of Sion send
The scepter of thy might
Amyd thy mortall foes be thou,
The ruler in their sight.

And in the day on which thy raygne
And power they shall see:
3 Then hereby freewyll offrings shall
Thy people offer thee:
Yea wyth a holy worshipping,
Then shall they offer all:
Thy birthes dew is the dew that doth,
From wombe of morning fall.

4 The Lord hath sworne, and neuer wyll
Repent what he doth say:
By the order of Melchisedech
Thou art a priest for ay.
5 The Lord thy God on thy right hand,
That standeth for thy stay:
Shall wound for thee the stately kings
Vpon his wrathfull day.

6 The

6 The Heathen he shall iudge, and fyll
The place with bodyes dead
And ouer diuers Countries shall
In sunder smite the head

7 And he shall drinke out of the brooke,
That runneth in the way:
Therefore he shall lift vp on hye,
His royall head that day.

Compassion is in his eyes,
And mercy alwayes in his sight.
5 Yea pity moueth such to lend,
He doth by iudgement things expend.

And surely such shal neuer fayle

Who in the Lord sure hope doth see.
8 His hart is firme, his feare is past,
For he shal see his foes downe cast.

9 He did wel for the poore prouide,
His righteousnes doth styll remayne,
And his estate with prayse abyde.
Though that the wicked man disdayne.

So sodenly to flee:
Ye rolling waues of Iordans floud,
Why ran ye backwardly?
6 Why shooke ye hyls as Rams afrayd?
Why did your strength so shake?
Why dyd your tops as trembling Lambes,
For feare quiuer and quake.

And dread his migthy hand:
Before the face of Iacobs God,
Feare ye both sea and land.

PSALME CXV. N.

Non nobis Domine.

¶ A prayer of the faithfull, oppressed by idolatrous tyrants, against whom they desire that God would succor them: forasmuch as there is no comparison betwene hym and theyr false Gods, or idols, trusting moste constantly that God wyll preserue them in this theyr nede, seing that he hath adopted and receaued them to his fauour: promising finally e that they wyll not be vnmindfull of so great a benefite, if it woulde please God to heare their prayer, and deliuer them by hys omnipotent power.

NOt to vs Lord, not vnto vs,
But to thy name giue praise:
Both for the mercy and the truth,
That are in thee alwayes.
2 Why shall the Heathen scorners say,
Where is theyr God become?
3 Our God in heauen is, and what
He will, that hath he done.

4 Theyr idols siluer are and gold,
Worke of mens hands they bee?
5 They haue a mouth and do not speake,
And eyes and do not see
6 And they haue eares ioynd to theyr heds
And do not heare at all:
And noses eke they formed haue,
And do not smell withall.

7 And hands they haue and handle not,
And feete, and do not go.
A throte they haue, yet through the same
They make no sounde to blow.
8 Those that make them, be like to them,
And those whose trust they be:
9 O Israel trust in the Lord,
Theyr helpe and shield is he.

10 O Aarons house trust in the Lord,
Theyr helpe and shield is he:
11 Trust ye the Lord that feare the Lord,
Theyr helpe and shield is he.

12 The Lord hath myndfull bene of vs,
And will vs bles also:
On Israels and Aarons house,
His blessing he will show.

13 Them that be fearers of the Lord,
The Lord will blesse them all,
Euen he will blesse them euery one,
The great and eke the small.
14 To you I say the louing Lord,
Will multiply his grace:
To you and to the children that Shall follow of your race.

15 Ye are the blessed of the Lord,
Euen of the Lord I say:
Which both the heauen and the earth
Hath made and set in stay.
16 The heauens, yea, the heauens hye
Belong vnto the Lord:
The earth vnto the sonnes of men,
He gaue of free accord.

17 They that be dead do not with prayse,
Set foorth the Lordes renome:
Nor any that into the place,
Of silence do go downe.
18 But we will prayse the Lord our God,
From henceforth and forayr:
Sound ye the prayses of the Lord,
Prayse ye the Lord I say.

PSALME CXVI. N.

Dilexi quoniam exaudiet.

¶ Dauid being in great daunger of Saul in the desert of Maon, perceyuing the great and inestimable loue of God toward him, magnifieth such great mercies, and protesteth that he will be thankefull for the same.

¶ Sing this as the cxv. Psalme.

I Loue the Lord, bycause my voyce
And prayer heard hath he:
2 When in my dayes I cald on hym,
He bowed his eare to me.
3 Euen when the snares of cruel death
About beset me round:

When paynes of hell me caught, and when
I wo and sorow found.

4 Vpon the name of God my Lord,
Then dyd I call and say:
Deliuer thou my soule O Lord,
I do thee humbly pray.
5 The Lord is very mercyfull,
And iust he is also:
And in our God compassion
Doth plentifully flow.

6 The Lord in safety doth preserue,
All those that simple bee.
I was in wofull misery,
And he releued mee.
7 And now my soule, sith thou art safe
Returne vnto thy rest:
For largely lo the Lord to thee,
His bounty hath expreſt.

8 Bycause thou hast deliuered
My soule from deadly thrall:
My moysted eyen from mournfull teares,
My sliding feete from fall.
9 Before the Lord I in the land
Of life will walke therfore:
10 I did beleue, therfore I spake,
For I was troubled sore.

11 I sayd in my distres and feare,
That all men lyers be:
12 What shall I pay the Lord for all,
His benefites to me?
13 The wholsom cup of sauing health
I thankfully will take:
And on the Lordes name I will call,
When I my prayer make.

14 I to the Lord will pay the vowes,
That I haue hym behight:
Yea euen at this present tyme,
In all his peoples sight.
15 Right deare and precious in his sight,
The Lord doth ay esteeme
The death of all his holy ones
What euer men do deeme.

16 Thy seruaunt Lord, thy seruaunt lo,
I do my selfe confes:
Sonne of thy handmaid, thou hast broke
The bonds of my distres.
17 And I will offer vp to thee,
A sacrifice of prayse:
And I will call vpon the name,
Of God the Lord alwayes.

18 I vnto thee will pay the vowes,
That I haue him behight,
Yea euen at this present time,
In all his peoples sight:
19 Yea in the courtes of Gods own house,
And in the midst of thee
O thou Ierusalem I say,
Wherfore the Lord prayse ye.

PSALME CXVII. N.

Laudate Dominum, omnes.

¶ He exhorteth the Gentiles to prayse God, bycause he hath accomplished as well to them as to the Iewes, the promise of lyfe euerlasting by Iesus Christ.

¶ Sing this as the xcv. Psalme.

O All the nacions of the world,
Prayse ye the Lord alwayes:
And all ye people euery where,
Set foorth his noble prayse.

2 For great his kindnes is to vs,
His truth endures for ay:
Wherfore prayse ye the Lord our God
Prayse ye the Lord I say.

PSALME CXVIII. M.

Confitemini Domino quon.

¶ Dauid reiected of Saul and of the people, at the tyme appointed obtained the kindome, for the which he biddeth al them that feare the Lord, to be thankfull, and vnder his person, in all this was Christ lyuelye set foorth, who should be of his people reiected.

¶ Sing this as the xcv. Psalme.

O Geue ye thankes vnto the Lorde
For gracious is hee:
Bycause his mercy doth endure
For euer towardes thee.
2 Let Israell confesse and say,
His mercy dures for ay:
3 Now let the house of Aaron say
His mercy dures for ay.

4 Let all that feare the Lord our God,

Euen

Euen now confes and say:
The mercy of the Lord our God,
Endureth still for ay.
5 In trouble and in heauynes,
Vnto the Lord I cryde.
Which louingly heard me at length,
My sute was not denide.

6 The Lord himselfe is on my syde
I will not stand in doubt:
Nor feare what man can do to me,
When God standes me about.
7 The Lord doth take my part, whith them
That helpe to succour me:
Therfore I shall see my desire,
Vpon mine enemy.

8 Better it is to trust in God,
Then in mans mortall seede:
9 Or to put confidence in kings,
Or Princes in our neede.
10 All nations haue enclosed me,
And compassed me round:
But in the name of God shall I,
Mine enemyes confound.

11 They kept me in on euery side,
They kept me in I say:
But through the Lords most mighty name
I shall woorke theyr decay.
12 They came about me all lyke Bees,
But yet in the Lordes name:
I quentcht theyr thornes that were on fyre,
And will destroy the same.

13 Thou hast with force thrust sore at me
That I in deede might fall:
But through the Lord I found such helpe
That they were vanquisht all.
14 The Lord is my defence and strength,
My ioy, my mirth and song:
He is become for me in deede,
A sauiour most strong.

15 The right hand of the Lord our God,
Doth bring to passe great things:
e causeth voyce of ioy and health,
In righteous mens dwellings.
16 The right hand of the Lord doth bring
Most mighty things to pas:
His hand hath the preeminence,
His force is as it was.
17 I will not dye, but euer lyue,
To vtter and declare
The Lord his might and wondrous power,
His woorkes and what they are.
18 The Lord himselfe hath chastened,
And hath corrected mee.
But hath not geuen me ouer yet,
To death as ye may see.

19 Set open vnto me the gates
Of truth and righteousnes:
That I may enter into them.
The Lordes prayse to confesse.
20 This is the gate euen of the Lord,
Which shall not so be shut:
But good and righteous men alway,
Shall enter into it.

21 I will geue thankes to thee O Lord,
Bycause thou hast heard me:
And art become most louingly.
A sauiour vnto me.
22 The stone which ere this tyme among
The builders was refused:
Is now become the corner stone,
And chiefly to be vsed.

23 This was the mighty woorke of God,
This was the Lordes own fact:
And it is maruelous to behold
With eyes that noble act.
24 This is the ioyfull day in deede,
Which God hymselfe hath wrought:
Let vs be glad and ioy therein,
In hart, in mynde and thought.

25 Now helpe me Lord and prosper vs
We wish with one accord:
26 Blessed be he that comes to vs
In the name of the Lord.
27 God is the Lord that shewes vs light
Binde ye therfore with cord,
Your sacrifice to the altar,
And geue thankes to the Lord.

28 Thou art my God I will confes,
And render thankes to thee:
Thou art my God, and I will prayse
Thy mercy towardes mee.
29 O geue ye thankes vnto the Lord,
For gracious is hee:
Bycause his mercy doth endure
For euer towardes thee.

Beati immaculati in via.

¶ In this Psalme is conteyned an exquisite arte and a wonderfull vehemency in setting forth the prayses of gods law: wherin the prophet can not satisfie hym self, nor sufficiently expresse the affection which he beareth therunto: adding moreouer many notable complaintes and consolacions, wherefore it is meete that al the faythfull haue it alwaye both in hart & mouth: and in the Ebrue euery. 8. verses beg yn with one letter of the Alphabet.

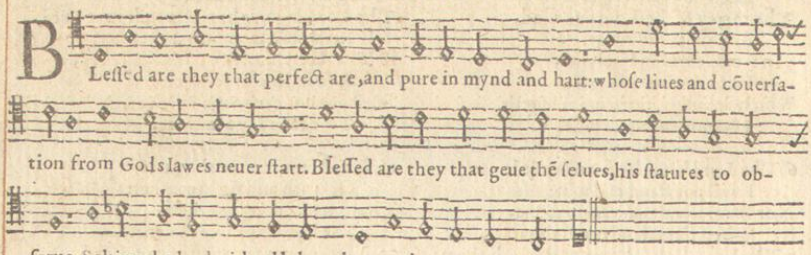
ALEPH.



3 Doutles such men go not astray,
Nor do no wicked thing:
Which stedfastly walke in his pathes,
Without any wandring.
4 It is thy will and commaundement,
That with attentiue heede:
Thy noble and diuine preceptes,
We learne and keepe in deede.

5 Oh would to God it might thee please,
My wayes so to addres:
That I might both in hart and voyce,
Thy lawes kepe and confes.
6 So should no shame my life atteine,
Whilst I thus set myne eyes:
And bend my minde alwayes to muse,
On thy sacred decrees.

7 Then will I prayse with vpright hart,
And magnifie thy name:
When I shall learne thy iudgementes iuste
And likewise proue the same.
8 And wholy will I geue my selfe,
To kepe thy lawes most right:
Forsake me not for euer (Lord)
But shew thy grace and might.

BETH.

9 By what meanes may a yong man best,
Hys lyfe learne to amend?
If that he marke and keepe thy word,
And therin hys tyme spend.
10 Vnfaynedly I haue thee sought,
And thus seeking abyde:
Oh neuer suffer me (O Lord)
From thy preceptes to slyde

11 Within my hart and secret thoughtes,
Thy wordes I haue hyd still
That I might not at any tyme,
Offend thy godly will.
12 We magnifie thy name (O Lord)
And prayse thee euermore:
Thy statutes of most worthy fame,
(O Lord) teache me therfore.

13 My lips haue neuer ceast to preache,
And publishe day and night:
The iudgements all which did procede
From thy mouth full of might.

14 Thy testimonyes and thy wayes,
Please me no lesse in deede:
Then all the treasures of the earth,
Which worldlyngs make theyr meede.

15 Of thy preceptes I wil still muse,
And therto frame my talke:
As at a marke so will I aime,
Thy wayes how I may walke.

And on thy lawes so set:
That nothing can me so far blind
That I thy wordes forget.

17 Graunt to thy seruaunt now such grace
As may my life prolong:
Thy holy word then will I keepe,
Both in my hart and tong.
18 Myne eyes which were dim and shut vp
So open and make bryght?
That of thy law and merueilous workes,
I may haue the cleare sight.

19 I am a straunger in thys earth,
Wandring now here now there:
Thy word therfore to me disclose,
My foote steps for to cleare.
20 My soule is rauisht with desyre,
And neuer is at rest:
But sekes to know thy iudgementes hye,
And what may please thee best.

21 The proud men and malicious,
Thou hast destroyd eche one:
And cursed are such as do not.
Thy hestes attend vpon.
22 Lord turne me from rebuke and shame
Which wicked men conspire:
For I haue kept thy couenauntes,
With zele as hote as fire.

23 The princes great in counsell sat,
And did agaynst me speake:
But then thy seruaunt thought how he
Thy statutes might not breake.
24 For why? thy couenants are my ioy,
And my great harts solace:
They serue in steede of counsellers,
My matters for to pas.

25 I am alas as brought to graue,
And almoſt turnd to duſt:
Reſtore therfore my life agayne.
As thy promiſe is iuſt.
26 My wayes when I acknowledged,
With mercy thou didſt heare:
Heare now eftſones, and me inſtruct,
Thy lawes to loue and feare.

27 Teach me once throughly for to know
Thy preceptes and thy lore:
Thy woorkes then will I meditate,
And lay them vp in ſtore.
28 My ſoule I feele ſo ſore oppreſt,
That it melteth for griefe:
According to thy word therfore,
Haſt Lord to ſend relief.

29 From lying and deceitfull lyps,
Let thy grace me defend:
And that I may learne thee to loue,
Thy holy lawe me ſend.
30 The way of truth both ſtrayght and ſure,
I haue choſen and found:
I ſet thy iudgements me before
Which kepe me ſafe and ſound.

31 Since then (O Lord) I forced my ſelfe,
Thy couenantes to embrace:
Let me therfore haue no rebuke,
Nor checke in any caſe.
32 Then will I runne with ioyfull cheare
Where thy word doth me call.
When thou haſt ſet my hart at large,
And ryd me out of thrall.

33 Inſtruct me (Lord) in the right trade,
Of thy ſtatutes diuine:
And it to kepe euen to the end,
My hart will I incline.
34 Graunt me the knowledge of thy law.
And I ſhall it obey:
With hart and mind, and all my myght
I will it kepe, I ſay.

35 In the right path of thy preceptes,
Guide me Lord, I require:
None other pleaſure do I wyſhe,
Nor greater thing deſire.
36 Incline my hart thy lawes to kepe,
And couenantes to embrace:
And from all filthy auaryce,
Lord ſhield me with thy grace.

37 From vayne deſyres and worldly luſtes,
Turne backe myne eyes and ſight:
Geue me the ſpirite of lyfe and power,
To walke thy wayes a ryght.
38 Confirme thy gracious promiſe, lord
Which thou haſt made to mee:
Which am thy ſeruant, & do loue,
And feare nothing but thee.

39 Reproche and ſhame which I ſo feare
From me (O Lord) expell:
For thou dooſt iudge with equitie,
And therin dooſt excell.
40 Behold my hartes deſyre is bent,
Thy lawes to kepe for aye:
Lord ſtrengthen me ſo with thy grace,
That it performe I may.

41 Thy mercyes great and manifold,
Let me obtayne (O Lorde:)
Thy ſauing health let me enioy,
Accordyng to thy word.
42 So ſhall I ſtop the ſlaunderous mouthes
Of leud men and vniuſt:
For in thy faythfull promyſes,
Standes my comfort and truſt.

43 The word of truth with in my mouth,
Let euer ſtill be preſt:
For in thy iudgements wonderfull,
My hope doth ſtand and reſt.
44 And whyle that breath within my breſt
Doth naturall lyfe preſerue:
Yea till thys world ſhalbe diſſolued,
Thy law will I obſerue.

45 So walke will I, as ſet at large,
And made free from all drede:
Becauſe I ſought how for to keepe
Thy preceptes and thy rede.
46 Thy noble actes I will deſcribe,
As things of moſt great fame:
Euen before kyngs I wyll them blaſe,
And ſhrinke no whit for ſhame.

47 I wyll reioyce then to obey,
Thy worthy heſtes and will:
Which euermore I haue loued beſt,
And ſo will loue them ſtill.

49 Thy promyſe which thou madſt to me,
Thy ſeruaunt (Lord) remember:
For therin haue I put my truſt
And confidence for euer.
50 It is my comfort and my ioy,
When troubles me aſſayle:
For were my lyfe not by thy word,
My lyfe would ſoone me fayle.

51 The proud, and ſuch as God contemne,
Styll made of me a ſcorne:
Yet would I not thy law forſake,
As he that were forlorne.
52 But cald to mind (Lord) thy great worke
Shewd to our fathers old:
Wherby I felt thy ioy ſurmount,
My griefe an hundred fold.

53 But yet, alas for feare I quoke,
Seing how wicked men
Thy law forsoke and did procure
Thy iudgement: who knoweth when?
54 And as for me I framed my songs,
Thy statutes to exalt:
When I among the straungers dwelt,
And thoughts gan me assalt.

55 I thought vpon thy name (O Lord)
By night when others sleepe:
As for thy law also I kept,
And euer will it keepe.
56 This grace I did obtaine, because
Thy couenants sweete and deare:
I did embrace, and also kept,
With reuerence and with feare.

¶ The viii. part.
HETH.

57 O God, which art my part and lot,
My comfort and my stay:
I haue decreed and promised
Thy law to kepe alway.
58 Myne earnest hart did humbly sue,
In presence of thy face:
As thou therfore hast promysed,
Lord graunt me of thy grace.

59 My lyfe I haue examined,
And tride my secret hart:
Which to thy statutes caused me,
My feete straught to conuert.
60 I dyd not stay nor linger long,
As they that slouthfull are:
But hastely thy lawes to kepe,
I dyd my selfe beware.

61 The cruell bandes of wicked men
Haue made of me theyr pray:
Yet would I not thy law forget,
Nor from thee go astray.
62 Thy righteous iudgemēt shewed toward me
So great is and so hye:
That euen at midnight will I rise,
Thy name to magnifie.

63 Companion am I to all them,
Which feare thee in their hart:
And neyther will for loue nor dread,
From thy commaundementes start.
64 Thy mercyes (Lord) most plentsously,
Do all the world fulfil:
Oh teach me how I may obey,
Thy statutes and thy wyll.

¶ The ix. part.
TETH.

65 Accordyng to thy promise Lord,
So hast thou with me delt:
For of thy grace in sundry sortes,
Haue I thy seruaunt felt.
66 Teach me to iudge alwayes a right,
And geue me knowledge sure:
For certaynly beleue I do
That thy preceptes are pure.

67 Yer thou didst touch me with thy rod
I erred and went astray:
But now I keepe thy holy word,
And make it all my stay.
68 Thou art both good and gracious,
And geuest most liberally:
Thy ordinaunces how to keepe,
Therfore (O Lord) teach me.

69 The proud and wicked men haue forgde
Against me many a lye:
Yet thy commaundementes still obserue.
With all my hart will I.
70 Their hartes are swolne with worldlie welth
As grease so are they fat:
But in thy law do I delite,
And nothing seeke but that.

71 O happy time, may I well say,
When thou didst me correct:
For as a guide to learne thy lawes,
Thy rods dyd me direct.
72 So that to me thy word and law.
Is dearer manyfold:
Then thousandes great of siluer and gold.
Or ought that can be tolde.

¶ The x. part.

To be thy creature:
Graunt knowledge likewise how to learne,
To put thy lawes in vre.
74 So they that feare thee shall reioyce,
When euer they me see:
Bycause I haue learnde by thy word,
To put my trust in thee.

75 When with thy rods, the world is plagd
I know the cause is iust.
So when thou didst correct me Lord,
The cause iust needes be must.
76 Now of thy goodnes I thee pray:
Some comfort to me send:
As thou to me thy seruaunt hetest,
So from all ill me shend.

77 Thy tender mercyes poure on me,
And I shall surely lyue:
For ioy and consolation both,
Thy lawes to me doth geue.
78 Confound the proud, whose false pretence
Is me for to destroy:
But as for me thy Hestes to know,
I will my selfe employ.

79 Whose so with reuerence do thee feare,
To me let them retire:
And such as do thy couenants know,
And them alone desire.

Yet will I not out of my hart,

Thinking to make me ſure:
Thus contrary againſt thy law,
My hurt they do procure.
86 But thy commaundements are all true:
And cauſeles they me greue:

That thou mighteſt me relieue.

And brought me quite to ground:
Yet by thy ſtatutes I abode,

And therto lye in wayte:

100 In wiſedome I do paſſe alſo,
The auncient men in deede:
And all by cauſe to keepe thy lawes.
I hold it aye beſt reede.

103 Oh Lord, how ſweete vnto my taſt,
Find I thy wordes alway?
Doubtles no hony in my mouth,

132 With mercy and compaſsion Lord,
Behold me from aboue:
As thou art wont to behold ſuch,
As thy name feare and loue.

133 Direct my footeſteps by thy word,
That I thy will may know:

And as thou haſt me iudged ere now,

¶ Dauid reioyceth in the name of the faithfull that God hath accompliſhed his promeſſe and placed his Arke in Sion, for the whiche he geueth thankes, and prayeth for the proſperitie of the Churche.

I Did in hart reioyce, To heare the peoples voyce, in offering ſo willingly: For let vs vp ſay they, & in the Lords houſe pray: Thus ſpake the folke full louingly. Our feete that wan-dred wide, ſhall in thy gates abide, O thou Ieruſalē full faire, Which art ſo ſeemely ſet, Much lyke a Citie neat, The lyke wherof is not els where.

4 The Tribes with one accord,
The Tribes of God the Lord,
Are thither bent theyr way to take:
So God before did tell
That there his Iſraell,
Their prayers ſhould together make.

5 For there are thrones erect,
And that for this reſpect,
To ſet foorth iuſtice orderly,
Which thrones ryght to mainteyne,
To Dauids houſe perteyne,
His folke to iudge accordingly.

7 To pray let vs not ceaſe,
For Ieruſalem peace.
Thy friendes God proſper mightely,
7 Peace be thy walles about,
And proſper thee throughout,
Thy places eke continually.

8 I wiſh thee proſperous ſtate,
For my poore brethrens ſake,
That comfort haue by meanes of thee.
9 Gods houſe doth me allure,
Thy wealth for to procure
So much alwayes as lyeth in mee.

¶ A prayer of the faithfull, whiche are afflicted by the wicked worldlynges and contemners of God.

¶Sing this as the xxii. Psalme.

O Lord that heauen dooſt poſſeſſe,
I lyft myne eyes to thee,
Euen as the ſeruaunt lifteth his,
His maiſters handes to ſee.
2 As handmaides watch their maiſtreſſe handes
Some grace for to atchiue,
So we behold the Lord our God,
Till he do vs forgeue.

3 Lord graunt vs thy compaſsion,
And mercy in thy ſight.
For we be filled and ouercomen,
With hatred and deſpight.
4 Our mindes be ſtuffed with great rebuke
The rich and worldly wiſe:
Do make of vs theyr mockyng ſtock,
The proude do vs deſpiſe.

¶ The people of God, beyng deliuered out of greate daunger, acknowledge not to haue eſcaped by their owne power, but through the fauour of God, and ſhew in how great perill they were.

Now Iſrael may ſay & that truly, If that the Lord had not our cauſe mainteynd, If that the Lord had not our right ſuſteind, When all the world againſt vs furiouſly, Made theyr vprors, and ſaid we ſhould all dye.

3 Now long a go,
They had deuourd vs all:
And ſwalowed quicke,
For ought that we could deeme,
Such was their rage,
As we myght well eſteeme.
4 And as the floudes,
With mighty force do fall,
So had they now
Our lyfe euen brought to thrall.

5 The ragyng ſtreames,
Moſt proud in roryng noyſe
Had long a go,
Ouer whelmde vs in the deepe,
6 But loued by God,
Which doth vs ſafely keepe
From bloudy teeth,
And theyr moſt cruell voyce,
Which as a pray
To eate vs would reioyce.

7 Euen as the birde,
Out of the foulers grenne
Eſcapeth away:
Right ſo it fareth with vs,
Broke are theyr nets,
And we haue ſcaped thus.
8 God that made heauen
And earth is our helpe then,
His name hath ſaued vs,
From theſe wicked men.

2 As mighty mountayns huge and great,
Ieruſalem about did cloſe:
So will the Lord be vnto thoſe.
Who on his godly will do wayte.
Such are to him ſo deare,
They neuer neede to feare.

3 For though the righteous try doth he,
By makyng wicked men his rodde:
Leaſt they through griefforſake theyr God
It ſhall not as theyr lot ſtill be.
4 Geue(Lord)to thoſe thy lyght,

In conuertendo Dominus.

¶ This pſalme was made after the returne of the people from Babylon, and ſheweth that the meane of their d liueraunce was wonderfull, after the ſeuenty yeares of captiuity foreſpoken by Ieremy 25.12, & 29.10.

When that the Lord againe his Sion had forth brought: From bondage great & all ſo ſeruitude extreme, His work was ſuch as did ſurmount mans hart & thought. So that we were much like to them that vſe to dreame: our mouthes were with laughter filled then, And eke our tongs did ſhew vs ioyfull men.

2 The Heathen folke
Were forced then this to confeſſe,
How that the Lord
For them alſo great things had done,
3 But much more we,
And therefore can confeſſe no leſſe:
Wherfore to ioy
We good haue cauſe as we begon.
4 O Lord go foorth,
Thou canſt our bondage end,
As to deſertes
Thy flowing riuers ſend.

5 Full true it is,
That they which ſowe with teares in deede,
A time will come,
When they ſhall reape in mirth and ioy.
6 They went and wept
In bearing of their precious ſeede,
For that their foes
Full often times did them anoy:
But their returne
With ioy they ſhall ſure ſee,
Their ſheaues home bring,
And not impayred bee.

Niſi Dominus ædificauerit.

¶ It is not mans wyt, power, or labour but the fre goodnes of God that geueth ryches, preſerueth townes and countries, grauneth nouriſhment and children.

¶Sing this as the Lords prayer.

EXcepte the Lord the house doo make,
And therunto do set his hand:
What men doo build, it cannot stand.
Likewise in vayne men vndertake,
Cities and holdes to watch and ward,
Except the Lord be theyr safegard.

2 Though ye rise earely in the morne.
And so at night go late to bed,
Feeding full hardly with browne bread:
Yet were your labour lost and worne
But they whom God doth loue and keepe,
Receyue all thinges with quiet sleepe.

3 Therfore mark well, when euer ye see
That men haue heyres to enioy theyr land:
It is the gyft of Gods hand,
For God him selfe doth multiply.
Of his great liberality,
The blessyng of posterity.

4 And when the children come to age,
They grow in strength and actiuenes,
In person and in comelynes,
So that a shaft shot with courage,
Of one that hath a most strong arme,
Flyeth not so swift, nor doth like harme.

5 Oh well is him that hath his quiuer:
Furnished with such artilery:
For when in peril he shalbe,
Such one shall neuer shake nor shiuer,
When that he pleades before the Iudge,
Against his foes which beare him grudge.

¶ He describeth the prosperous estate of them that be maryed in the feare of God, ioyning withall the promises of Gods blessynges, to all them that lyue in thys honorable estate, recording to his commaundements.

¶Sing this as the cxxxvii. Psalme.

BLessed art thou that fearest God,
And walkest in his way:
2 For of thy labour thou shalt eate,
Happy art thou I say.
3 Like fruitfull vines on thy house sides,
So doth thy wyfe spring out:
Thy children stand like Oliue plants,
Thy table round about.
4 Thus art thou blest that feareſt God,
And he shall let thee see:
5 The promised Ierusalem,
And his felicity.
6 Thou shalt thy childrens children see,
To thy great ioyes increase:
And likewise grace on Israel,
Prosperity and peace.

¶Sing this as the cxxxvii. Psalme.

OFt they, now Israel may say,
Me from my youth assayled:
2 Oft they assayled me frō my youth,
Yet neuer they preuayled,
3 Vpon my backe the plowers plowed
And furrowes long did cast:
4 The righteous Lord hath cut the cords,
Of wicked foes at last.

5 They that hate him shalbe shamed,
And turned backe also:
6 And made as gras vpon the house,
Which withereth ere it grow.
7 Wherof the mower cannot find,
Inough to fill his hand:
Nor he can fyll his lap that goeth
To gleane vpon the land.

8 Nor passers by pray God on them,
To let his blessyng fall fall:
Nor say, we blesse you in the name.
Of God the Lord at all.

3 O Lord our God if thou wey
Our sinnes and them peruse:
Who shall then escape and say,
I can my selfe excuse?
4 But Lord thou art mercyfull,
And turnest to vs thy grace:
That we with hartes most carefull,
Should feare before thy face.

5 In God I put my whole trust,
My soule waytes on his wyll:
For his promise is most iust,
And I hope therin styll.

6 My soule to God hath regard,
Wishing for him alway:
More then they that watch and warde,
To see the dawning day.

7 Let Israel then boldly,
In the Lord put his trust:
He is that God of mercy,
That his deliuer must.
8 For he it is that must saue,
Israel from his synne:
And all such as surely haue,
Their confidence in him.

I do not exercise my selfe.
In things that be to hye.
2 But as a chylde that wayned is,
Euen from his mothers brest:

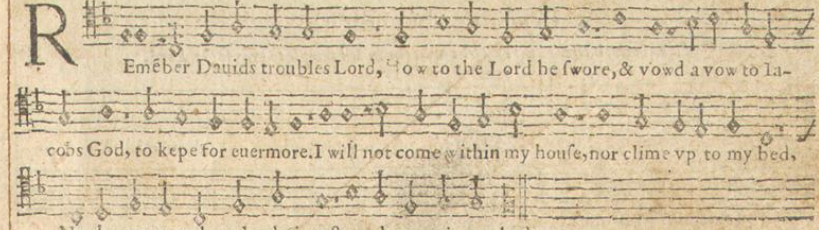
Memento Domine Dauid.

¶ The faithfull, grounded on Gods promyse made vnto Dauid, desireth that he wouldе establish the same, both as touching his posterity, and the buylding of the Temple, to pray there as was forespoken.



5 Tyll I haue found out for the Lord,
A place to syt theron:
An house for Iacobs God to be An habitacion.
6 We heard of it at Ephrata,
There did we heare this sound:
And in the fieldes and forestes there,
These voyces first wer found.

7 We wyll assay and go in now,
His tabernacle there:
Before his footestoole to fall downe
Vpon our knees in feare.
Arise O Lord, arise I say,
Into thy resting place:
Both thou and the arke of thy strength,
The presence of thy grace.

9 Let all thy priestes be clothed Lord,
Wyth truth and righteousnes:
Let all thy sayntes and holy men,
Syng all with ioyfulnes.
10 And for thy seruant Dauids sake,
Refuse not Lord I say:
The face of thyne annoynted Lord,
Or turne thy face away.

11 The Lord to Dauid swore in truth
And wyll not shrinke from it:
Saying, the fruit of thy body
Vpon thy seate shall sit.
12 And if thy sonnes my couenant keepe,
That I shall learne eche one:
Then shall thy sonne for euer syt,
Vpon thy princely throne.

13 The Lord him selfe hath chose Sion,
And loues therin to dwell:
14 Saying, this is my resting place,
I loue and like it well.
15 And I wyll blesse with great increase,
Her vittals euery where:
And I wyll satisfy with bread,
The needy that be there.

16 Yea I wyll decke and cloth her priests
With my saluacion:
And all her saintes shall sing for ioy,
Of my protection.
17 There wyll I surely make the horne,
Of Dauid for to bud:
For I haue there ordaynde for myne,
A lanthorn bright and good.

18 As for his enmies I wyll clothe
With shame for euermore:
But I wyll cause his crowne to shine,
More fresh then heretofore.

Brethren together fast to hold,
The band of amity?
2 It cals to minde that sweete perfume,
And that costly oyntment:
Which on the sacrificers head,
By Gods precept was spent.

It wet not Aarons head alone
But drenched his beard throughout:
And finally it dyd run downe,
His rich attire about.
3 And as the lower ground doth drinke,
The dew of Hermon hyll:
And Sion with hys siluer drops,
The fieldes with fruits doth fyll:

4 For why the Lord hath choſe Iacob
His very own you ſee:
So hath he choſen Iſrael,
His treaſure for to bee.

5 For this I know, and am right ſure,
The Lord is very great:
He is in deede aboue all Gods,
Moſt eaſy to intreat.
6 For whatſoeuer pleaſed him,
All that fulwel he wrought:
In heauen, in earth and in the ſea,
Which he hath framde of nought.

For his mercy endureth for euer.
7 Which made great light to ſhine abrode
For his mercy endureth for euer.
8 As Sunne to rule the lightſome day,
For his mercy endureth for euer.

9 The Moone and Stars to guide the night,
For his mercy endureth for euer:
10 Which ſmote Egypt with their firſt borne
For his mercy endureth for euer:
11 And Iſrael brought out from them,
For his mercy endureth for euer.
12 With mighty hand and ſtretched arme,
For his mercy endureth for euer.

Super flumina Babylonis.

¶ The people of God in theyr banyſhment ſeing Gods true religion decay, liued in great anguiſh and ſorow of hart, the whiche griefe the Caldeans dyd ſo litle pitye that they rather increaſed the ſame dayly, with taunts, reproches, and blaſphemies againſte God. Wherfore the Iſraelites deſyre God to puniſh the Edomites, who prouoked the Babilonians againſt them, and moued (by the ſpirite of God) prophecy the deſtruction of Babylon, where they were handled ſo tyranouſly.

WHen as we ſat in Babylon, the riuers round about: and in remembraunce of Sion, the teare for griefe burſt out. We hangde our harps and inſtruments, the willow tres opon:

for

for in that place men for theyr vſe had planted many one.

3 Then they to whom we priſonners were,
Sayd to vs tauntingly:
Now let vs heare your Ebrue ſongs,
And pleaſaunt melody.
4 Alas (ſayd) we who can once frame,
His ſorowfull hart to ſing,
The prayſes of our louyng God,
Thus vnder a ſtraunge kyng?

5 But yet if I Ieruſalem
Out of my hart let ſlide:
Then let my fingers quite forget,
The warbling harpe to guide.
6 And let my tong within my mouth
Be tyde for euer faſt:
If that I ioy before I ſee,
Thy full deliueraunce paſt.

7 Therfore (O Lord) remember now,
The curſed noyſe and cry:
That Edoms ſonnes againſt vs made,
When they raſed our City.
Remember Lord their cruell woordes,
When as with one accord,
They cried: on ſacke, and raſe their walles,
In deſpight of the Lord.

8 Euen ſo ſhalt thou (O Babylon)
At length to duſt be brought:
And happy ſhall that man be cald,
That our reuenge hath wrought.
9 Yea bleſſed ſhall that man be cald,
That takes thy children yong:
To daſh theyr bones againſt hard ſtones,
Which lye the ſtreetes among.

THee will I prayſe with my whole hart,
My Lord my God alwayes:
Euen in the preſence of the Gods,
I will aduaunce thy prayſe.
2 Toward thy holy Temple I
Wyll looke and worſhip thee:
And prayſed in my thankfull mouth,
Thy holy name ſhalbe.

Euen for thy louyng kindnes ſake,
And for thy truth withall:
For thou thy name haſt by thy word
Auaunced ouer all:
3 When I did call thou heardeſt me,
And thou haſt made alſo
The power of increaſed ſtrength
Within my ſoule to grow.

4 Yea all the kings on earth they ſhall
Geue prayſe to thee, O Lord:
For they of thy moſt holy mouth,
Haue heard the mighty word.

5 They of the wayes of God the Lord,
In ſinging ſhall entreate:
Bycauſe the glory of the Lord,
It is exceedyng great.

6 The Lord is hye, and yet he doth
Behold the lowly ſpirite:
But he contemnyng, knowes a far
The proud and lofty wight.
7 Although in midſt of trouble I
Do walke, yet ſhall I ſtand:
Renued by thee O my Lord,
Thou wylt ſtretch out thy hand.

Vpon the wrath of all my foes,
And ſaued ſhall I bee
By thy right hand, the Lord God will Performe his woorke to mee.
8 Thy mercy Lord, endures for ay,
Lord do me not forſake:
Forſake me not that am the woorke
Which thine own hand did make.

¶Sing this as the cxxxvii. Psalme.

O Lord thou hast me tride and known,
My sytting doost thou know:
2 And rising eke my thoughts a far,
Thou vnderstandst also.
3 My pathes, yea and my lying downe
Thou compassest alwayes.
And by familiar custome art
Acquainted with my wayes.

4 No woord is in my tong, O Lord,
But knowne it is to thee.
5 Thou me behinde holdst, and before,
Thou layest thine hand on mee.
6 To wonderfull aboue my reache,
Lord is thy cunnyng skill:
It is so hye that I the same
Can not attayne vntill.

7 From sight of thy all seyng spirite,
Lord whether shall I go?
Or whether shall I flee away,
Thy presence to scape fro
8 To heauen if I mount aloft,
Loe thou art present there:
In hell if I lye downe below,
Euen there thou doost appeare.

9 Yea let me take the mornings wynges,
And let me go and hide
Euen there where are the fartheſt partes
Where flowing sea doth stide:
Yea euen thether also shall
Thy reachyng hand me guide:
And thy right hand shall hold me fast,
And make me to abyde.

11 Yea if I say thy darknes shall,
Yet shrowde me from thy sight:
Lo euen also the darkest night,
About me shalbe light.
12 Yea darknes hydeth not from thee,
But night doth shine as day?
To thee the darknes and the lyght,
Are both alyke alway.

13 For thou possessed hast my raynes,
And thou hast couered me:
When I within my mothers wombe
Enclosed was by thee.
14 Thee will I prayse made fearfully
And wondrously I am:
Thy workes are marueillous right well
My soule doth know the same.

15 My bones, they are not hid from thee,
Although in secrette place
I haue bene made and in the earth
Beneath I shapen was.
16 When I was formles, then thyne eye
Saw me, for in thy booke
Were written all (nought was before)
That after fashion tooke.

17 The thoughts therfore of thee (O God)
How deare are they to me?
And of them all how passing great,
The endles nombers bee?
18 If I should count them, lo their summe
More then the sand I see:
And whensoeuer I awake,
Yet am I still with thee.

19 The wicked and the bloudy men
Oh that thou wouldest slay,
Euen those O God to whom, depart,
Depart from me, I say.
20 Euen those of thee O Lord my God,
That speake full wickedly:
These that are lifted vp in vayne,
Beyng enemyes to thee.

21 Hate I not them that hate thee Lord?
And not in earnest wyse
Contend I Lord agaynst them all,
Against thee that aryse?
22 I hate them with vnfayned hate,
Euen as my vtter foes:
23 Try me O God, and know my hart,
My thoughts proue and disclose.

24 Consider Lord if wickednes
In me there any be:
And in thy way, O God my guide,
For euer leade thou me.

2 Deliuer me, which euill do
Imagine in their sprite.
Which make on me continuall war,
Their tonges loe they haue whet
3 Like Serpents, vnderneath their lips
Is Adders poyson set.

4 Keepe me, O Lord, from wicked hands,
Preserue

Preſerue me to abyde
Free from the cruell man, that meanes
To cauſe my ſteps to ſlide.
5 The proude haue layd a ſnare for me,
And they haue ſpred a net:
With cordes, in my path way, and gryns
For me eke haue they ſet.

6 Therfore I ſayd vnto the Lord,
Thou art my God alone:
Heare me O Lord oh heare the voyce
Wherwith I pray and mone.
7 O Lord my God thou onely art,
The ſtrength that ſaueth me:
My head in day of battell hath
Bene couered by thee.

8 Let not O Lord the wicked haue
The end of his deſire:
Performe not his yll thought, leaſt they
With pride be ſet on fire.
9 Of them that compas me about,
The chiefeſt of them all:
Lord let the miſchief of theyr lips
Vpon themſelues be fall.

10 Let Coales fall on them, let him caſt
Them in conſuming flame:
And in deepe pyts, ſo as they may
Not ryſe out of the ſame.
11 For no backbiter ſhall on earth
Be ſet in ſtable plight:
And euill to deſtruction ſtyll
Shall hunt the cruell wyght.

12 I know the Lord thafflicted wyll
Reuenge, and iudge the poore:
13 The iuſt ſhall prayſe thy name, iuſt ſhall
Dwell with thee euermore.

PSALME CXLI. N.

Domine, clamaui ad te.

¶ Dauid being greuouſlye perſecuted vnder Saul, onely fleeth vnto God to haue ſuccor, deſiring hym to bridle his affections, that he may pacyentlye abyde tyll God take vengeaunce of his enemyes.

3 My Lord for guiding of my mouth,
Set thou a watch before:
And alſo of my mouing lyps,
O Lord keepe thou the doore.
4 That I ſhould wicked workes commit,
Incline thou not my hart:
With ill men, of their delicates
Lord let me eate no part.

5 But let the righteous ſmite me Lord,
For that is good for me:
Let him reproue me, and the ſame
A precious oyle ſhall be.
Such ſmitting ſhall not breake my head,
The tyme ſhall ſhortly fall:
When I ſhall in theyr miſerie
Make prayer for them all.

6 Then when in ſtony places downe
Their iudges ſhalbe caſt:
Then ſhall they heare my wordes, for thē
They haue a pleaſant taſt
7 Our bones about the graues mouth,
Loe ſcattred are they found:
As he that heaweth wood, or he
That diggeth in the ground.

8 But O my Lord my God, myne eyes
Do looke vp vnto thee:
In thee is al my truſt, let not
My ſoule forſaken bee.
9 Which they haue layd to catch me in,
Lord kepe me from the ſnare,
And from the ſuttle grinnes of them.
That wicked workers are.

10 The wicked into their own nets,
Together let them fall:
Whyle I do by thy helpe eſcape,
The daunger of them all.

PSALME CXLII. N.

Voce mea ad Dominum.

¶ Dauid neither aſtoniſhed with feare, nor caried away with anger, nor forced by deſperation would kill Saul, but with a quiet mind directed his earneſt prayer vnto God, who did preſerue him

¶ Sing this as the cxli. Psalme.

BEfore the Lord God wyth my voyce,
Did I send out my cry:
And with my strayned voyce vnto
The Lord God prayed I.
2 My meditation in his sight,
To poure I did not spare:
And in the presence of the Lord,
My trouble did declare.

3 Although perplexed were my sprite,
My path was knowen to thee:
In way where I did walke, a snare
They slily layd for me.
4 I lookt and vewed on my right hand,
But none there would me know:
All refuge fayled me, and for
My soule none cared tho.

5 Then cryed I Lord to thee, and sayd:
My hope thou onely art:
Thou in the land of lyuing art,
My porcion and my part.
6 Harke to my cry for I am brought Full low, deliuer me
From them that do me persecute:
For me to strong they be.

7 That I may prayse thy name, my soule
From prison Lord bring out:
When thou art good to me the iust
Shal prease me round about.

PSALME CXLIII. N.

Domine exaudi orationem.

¶ An earnest prayer for remission of synnes, acknowledging that the enemyes dyd cruelly persecute hym by Gods iust iudgemẽt. He desireth to be restored to grace, to be gouerned by hys holy spirit, that he may spend the rest of his lyfe in the true feare and seruice of God.

¶ Sing this as the cxli. Psalme.

LOrd heare my prayer, harke the playnt
That I doo make to thee:
Lord in thy natiue truth, and in Thy iustice answer mee.
2 In iudgement with thy seruant, Lord,
Oh enter not at all:
For iustified not in thy sight
Not one that liueth shall.

3 The enmy hath pursude my soule,
My lyfe to ground hath throwne,
And layd me in the darke, like them
That dead are long agone.
4 Within me in perplexitie,
Was my accombred sprite:
And in me was my troubled hart,
Amased and afflight.

5 Yet I record time past, in all
Thy woorkes I meditate:
Yea in thy woorkes I meditate,
That thy handes haue create.
6 To thee O Lord my God, loe I
Do stretch my crauing hands:
My soule desireth after thee,
As do the thirsty lands.

7 Heare me with spede, my sprit doth faile
Hide not thy face me fro:
Els shal I be like them that downe
Into the pit do go.
8 Let me thy louing kindnes in
The morning heare and know:
For in thee is my trust, shew me
The way that I shall go.

9 For I lift vp my sowle to thee,
O Lord deliuer me
From all myne enemies, for I
Haue hidden me with thee.
10 Teach me to do thy will, for thou,
Thou art my God I say:
Let thy good sprite into the land
Of mercy me conuey.

11 For thy names sake with quickning grace
A lyue do thou me make:
And out of trouble bring my soule,
Euen for thy iustice sake.
12 And for thy mercy slay my foes,
O Lord destroy them all:
That do oppresse my soule, for I,
Thy seruant am and shal.

PSALME CXLIIII. N.

Benedictus Dominus Deus meus.

¶ Dauid prayseth the Lord with great affection and humilitie for his kingdome restored, and for his victories obtayned, by calling for helpe, and the destruction of the wicked, promysing to acknowledge the same with song of prayses, and declareth wherin the felicitye of any people consisteth.

¶ Sing

¶Sing this as the cxlv. Pſalme.

BLeſt be the Lord my ſtrength that doth
Inſtruct my hand to fight:
The Lord that doth my fingers frame
To battel by his might.
2 He is my goodnes fort, and toure,
Deliuerer and ſhield:
In hym I truſt: my people he
Subdues to me to yeld.

3 O Lord what thing is man, that him
Thou holdeſt to in price?
Or ſonne of man, that vpon hym
Thou thinkeſt in ſuch wiſe?
4 Man is but like to vanity,
So paſſe his dayes to end
5 As fleeting ſhade. Bow downe O Lord
Thy heauens and deſcend.

6 The mountains touch, and they ſhal ſmoke,
Caſt forth thy lightning flame,
And ſcatter them thyne arrowes ſhoote,
Conſume them with the ſame:
7 Send down thy hand euen from aboue
O Lord deliuer mee:
Take me from waters great, from hand
Of ſtraungers make me free.

8 Whoſe ſubtile mouth of vanity,
And fondnes doth entreat:
And their right hand is a right hand
Of falſhood and deceit.

9 A new ſong I wyll ſyng O God,
And ſinging wyl I bee:
On viole and on inſtrument,
Ten ſtringed vnto thee.

10 Euen he it is that onely geues
Deliuerance to kings:
Vnto his ſeruaunt Dauid helpe,
From hurtful ſword he brings.
11 From ſtraungers hand me ſaue and ſhield,
Whoſe mouth talkes vanitie:
And their right hand is a right hand,
Of guile and ſubteltie.

12 That our ſonnes maye be as the plante
Whom growing youth doth reare:
Our daughters as carued corner ſtones,
Like to a palace fayre.
13 Our corners full, and plenty may
With ſundry ſortes be found:
Our ſheepe bring thouſands, in our ſtretes
Ten thouſands may abound.

14 Oure Oxen be to labour ſtrong,
That none doo vs inuade:
There be no going out, no cry
Within our ſtreetes be made.
15 The people bleſſed are ſy,
Such bleſsings are ſo ſtord:
Yea bleſſed all the people are,
Whoſe God is God the Lord.

PSALME CXLV. N.

Exaltabo te, Deus meus.

¶ This Pſalme was made when the kingdome of Dauid flouriſhed, wherin he deſcribeth the wonderfull prouidence of God, as wel in gouerning man, as in preſeruing all the reſt of his creatures. He prayſeth God for his iuſtice and mercy, but ſpecially for his louing kindnes towarde thoſe that call vpon hym, that feare hym and loue him.

5 I of thy glorious maieſty,
The beuty wyll record.
And meditate vpon thy workes,
Moſt wonderfull (O Lord.)
6 And they ſhal of thy power, and of Thy fearfull actes declare:
And I to publiſh all abrode,
Thy greatnes wyll not ſpare.

7 And they into the mencion ſhall
Crake of thy goodnes great:
And I aloud thy rightuouſnes,
In ſinging ſhall repeate.
8 The Lord our God is gracious,
And mercyfull alſo:
Of great abounding mercy, and
To anger he is ſlow.

9 Yea good to all, and all his workes,
His mercy doth exceede:
10 Lo all thy workes do prayse thee Lord,
And to thine honor spreade.
11 Thy saintes do blesse thee, and they do
Thy kingdomes glory shew:
12 And blase thy power, to cause the sonnes
Of men his power to know.

13 And of his mighty kingdome eke,
To spread the glorious prayse:
Thy kingdome Lord a kingdome is,
That doth endure alwayes.
And thy dominion through eche age,
Endures without decay.
14 The Lord vpholdeth them that fall,
The sliding he doth stay.

15 The eyes of all do wayte on thee,
Thou doost them all relieue:
And thou to eche, sufficing foode
In season due doost geue.

16 Thou openest thy plenteous hand,
And bounteously doost fyll
All thinges whatsoeuer doth lyue,
With giftes of thy good wyll.

17 The Lord is iust in all hys wayes
His woorkes are holy all:
18 Nere all he is that call on hym,
In truth that on him call.
19 He the desires which they require,
That feare him will fulfil:
And he will heare them when they cry,
And saue them all he will.

20 The Lord preserues all those, to him
That beare a louing hart:
But he them all that wicked are:
Will vtterly subuert.
21 My thankful shal gladly speake
The prayse of the Lord:
And flesh to prayse his holy name,
For euer shall accord.

PSALME CXLVI. I. H.

Lauda anima mea Dominum.

¶ Dauid shewing the great desyre he had to prayse God, teacheth that none should put theyr trust in mẽ but in God alone: who is almighty, and deliuereth the afflicted, nourisheth the poore, setteth prisoners at liberty, comforteth the fatherlesse, widowes, and the straungers, and raigneth king for euer.

¶Sing this as the cxxxvii. Psalme.

MY soule prayse thou the Lord alwayes,
My God I will confesse:
2 Whyle breath & life prolõg my dayes
My tong no tyme shall cease.
3 Trust not in worldly princes then,
Though they abound in wealth:
Nor in the sonnes of mortall men,
In whom there is no health.

4 For why? their breath doth soone depart
To earth anon they fall:
And then the counsels of their hart,
Decay and perish all.
5 O happy is that man I say,
Whom Iacobs God doth ayde:
And he whose hope doth not decay,
But on the Lord is stayde.

6 Which made the earth and waters deepe
The heauens hye with all:
Which doth his woord and promise keepe,
In truth and euer shall.
7 With right alwayes doth he proceede,
For such as suffer wrong:
The poore and hungry he doth feede,
And lose the fetters strong.

8 The Lord doth send the blind their sight,
The lame to lyms restore:
The Lord (I say) doth loue the right,
And iust man euermore.
9 He doth defend the fatherles,
The straungers sad in hart:
And quite the wydow from distres,
And yll mens wayes subuert.

10 Thy Lord and God eternally,
O Sion still shall raigne:
In time of all posterity,
For euer to remayne.

PSALME CXLVII. N.

Laudate Dominum, quoniam.

¶ The Prophet prayseth the bountye, wisdome, power, iustice, and prouidence of God vpon all his creatures. But specially vpon his Church, whyche he gathered together after theyr dispersiõ, declaring his word and iudgementes so vnto them, as he hath done to no other people.

Rayse ye the Lord for it is good vnto our God to sing: for it is pleasant: and to prayse it is a comis a comly thing, the Lord his own Ieruſalem, he buildeth vp alone, and the diſperſt of Iſraell, doth gather into one.

3 He heales the broken in their hart,
Their ſore vp doth he binde:
4 He counts the number of the ſtars,
And names them in their kinde.
5 Great is our Lord great is his power,
His wiſdome infinite:
6 The Lord releues the meeke, and throwes
To ground the wicked wight.

7 Syng vnto God the Lord with praiſe,
Vnto the Lord reioyce:
And to our God vpon the harpe
Aduaunce your ſinging voyce.
8 He couers heauen with cloudes, and for
The earth prepareth rayne:
And on the mountaines he doth make,
The graſſe to grow agayne.

9 He geues to beaſtes theyr foode, and to Yong Rauens when they cry:
10 His pleaſure not in ſtrength of horſe,
Nor in mans legs doth lye.
11 But in all thoſe that feare the Lord,
The Lord hath his delight:
And ſuch as do attend vpon
His mercies ſhining light.

12 O prayſe thy Lord Ieruſalem,
Thy God O Syon prayſe:
13 For he the bars hath forged ſtrong,
Wherwith thy gate he ſtayes.
14 Thy chyldren he hath bleſt in thee,
And in thy borders hee
Doth ſettle peace, and with the ſiloure
Of wheate he fylleth thee.

15 And his commaundement vpon
The earth he ſendeth out:
And eke his woord with ſpeedy courſe,
Doth ſwiftly run about.
16 He geueth ſnow like wool, hore froſt
Like aſhes doth he ſpred:
17 Like morſels caſtes his yſe, therof
The cold who can abide?

18 He ſendeth forth his mighty woord,
And melteth them againe:
His winde he makes to blow, and then
The waters flow amayne.
19 The doctrine of his holy worde
To Iacob doth he ſhowe.
His ſtatutes and his iudgements he Geues Iſraell to know.

20 With euery nation hath he not
So dealt, nor they haue knowne
His ſecrete iudgements, yerherfore,
Prayſe ye the Lord alone.

¶ He prouoketh all creatures to prayſe the Lorde in Heauen in earth, and in all places, ſpecially for the power that he hath geuen to hys people Iſraell, whom he hath taken ſo nere vnto hym

Eue laude vnto the Lord, from heauen that is ſo hye: prayſe him in dede & word, aboue the ſtarry ſky. 2. And alſo ye, hys angels all, armies royal, prayſe him with gle.

3 Prayſe him both Moone and Sunne
Which are ſo cleare and bryght,
The ſame of you be done,
Ye gliſtring ſtarres of lyght.
4 And eke no leſſe,
Ye heauens fayre,
5 And cloudes of the ayre,
Hys laude expreſſe.

6 For at hys woord they were,
All formed as we ſee:
At hys voyce did appeare,
All things in theyr degree,
Which he ſet faſt:
To them he made,
A lawe and trade,
For aye to laſt.

7 Extoll and prayſe Gods name,
In earth ye Dragons fell,

All deepes do ye the ſame,
For it becommeth you well,
8 Him magnifie,
Fyre, Hayle, Iſe, ſnow,
And ſtormes that blow,
At hys decree.

9 The hylles and mountaynes all,
And trees that fruitfull are,
The Ceders great and tall,
Hys worthy prayſe declare.
10 Beaſtes and cattell,
Yea birdes flying:
And wormes creepyng,
That on earth dwell.

11 All kyngs both more and leſſe,
With all theyr pompous trayne,
Princes and all iudges,
That in the worlde remayne,
Exalte his name,

12 Yong men and maydes,
Olde men and babes,
Do ye the ſame.

13 For hys name ſhall we proue,
To be moſt excellent:
Whoſe prayſe is farre aboue,
The earth and firmament.
14 For ſure he ſhall,
Exalte with bliſſe,
The horne of hys,
And helpe them all.

His ſaintes all ſhall foorth tell,
His prayſe and worthyneſſe
The children of Iſraell,
Eche one both more and leſſe.
15 And alſo they
That with good will,
His wordes fulfill,
And hym obey.

¶ Sing this as the cxlv. Pſalme.

SIng ye vnto the Lord our God,
A new reioyſing ſong:
And let the prayſe of hym be heard,
Hys holy ſainctes among.
2 Let Iſraell reioyce in hym,
That made hym of nothyng,
And let the ſeede of Syon eke,
Be ioyfull in theyr kyng.

3 Let them ſound prayſe with voyce of flute
Vnto hys holy name:
And with the Timbrell and the Harpe,
Sing prayſes of the ſame.
For why the Lord his pleaſure all,
Hath in hys people ſet:
And by deliueraunce he will rayſe,
The meeke to glory great.

5 With glory and with honor now,
Let all the ſainctes reioyce:
And now aloude vpon theyr beds,
Aduaunce their ſinging voyce.
6 And in their mouthes let be the actes
Of God the mighty Lord:
And in their handes eke let them beare
A double edged ſworde.

7 To plage the Heathen and correct,
The people with their handes,
8 To bind theyr ſtately kings in chaines
Their Lordes in yron bandes.
9 To execute on them the dome,
That written is before:
This honor all his ſainctes ſhall haue,
Prayſe ye the Lord therfore.

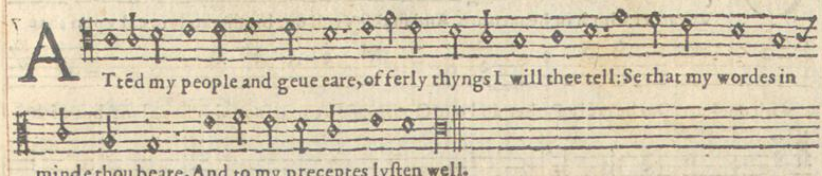
THE X. COMMAVNDEMENTES of almighty God.

Exodus xx.



1 I am thy Souerain Lord and God,
Which haue thee brought from carefull thrall,
And eke reclaymde from Pharaos rod,
Make thee no Gods on them to call.

2 Nor facioned forme of any thyng,
In heauen or earth to woorſhyp it:
For I thy God by reuengyng:
With greuous plages this ſinne will ſmite.

3 Take not in vayne his holy name,
Abuſe it not after thy will.
For ſo thou myght ſoone purchaſe blame
And in his wrath he would thee ſpyll.

3 The Lord from work the ſeuenth day ceaſt
And brought all things to perfect end,
So thou and thyne, that day take reſt,
That to Gods heſtes ye may attend.

5 Vnto thy parentes honor geue,
As Gods commaundements do pretende
That thou long dayes and good mayſt lyue
In earth, where God a place doth lende.

6 Beware of murder, and cruell hate,
7 All filthy fornication feare:
8 See thou ſteale not in any rate,
9 Falſe witnes agaynſt no man beare.

10 Thy neighbours houſe wiſh not to haue,
His wyfe, or ought that he calles myne:
His field, his Oxe, his Aſſe, his Slaue,
Or any thing, which is not thyne.

¶ A prayer.

The ſpirit of grace graunt vs (O Lord)
To keepe theſe lawes, our harts reſtore:
And cauſe vs all with one accorde,
To magnifie thy name therfore.

For of our ſelues no ſtrength we haue,
To keepe theſe lawes after thy will:
Thy might therfore (O Chriſt) we craue,
That we in thee may them fulfill.

Lord for thy names ſake, graunt vs this
Thou art our ſtrength, of Sauior Chriſt:
Of thee to ſpeede, how ſhould we mis,
In whom our treaſure doth conſiſt.

To thee for euermore be prayſe,
With the father in eche reſpect:
And with thy holy ſprite alwayes,
The comforter of thyne elect.

¶The Lordes Prayer.

D. Coxe.

Thy bleſſed name be ſanctified,
Thy holy worde mought vs inflame,
In holy lyfe for to abyde,
To magnifie thy holy name:
From all errours defend and keepe,
The litle flock of thy poore ſheepe

Thy kyngdome come euen at this houre,
And henceforth euerlaſtingly:
Thyne holy Ghoſt into vs poure:
With all his giftes moſt plenteouſly,
From Sathans rage and filthy band,
Defend vs with thy mighty hand.

Thy will be done with diligence,
Like as in heauen in earth alſo,
In trouble graunt vs patience,
Thee to obey in wealth and wo.
Let not fleſh, bloud, or any ill,
Preuayle agaynſt thy holy will.

Geue vs this day our dayly bread,
And all other good giftes of thyne:
Keepe vs from warre, and from bloudſhed,
Alſo from ſicknes dearth and pine,
That we may lyue in quietneſſe,
Without all gredy carefulneſſe,

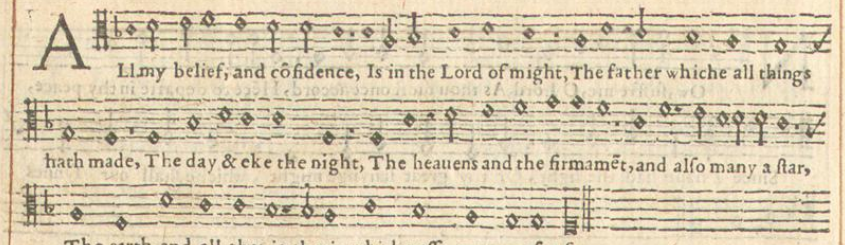
Forgeue vs our offences all,
Releue our carefull conſcience:
As we forgeue both great and ſmall,
Which vnto vs haue done offence,
Prepare vs Lord for to ſerue thee,
In prefect loue and vnitie.

O Lord into temptacion,
Leade vs not when the fende doth rage:
To withſtand his inuaſion:
Geue power and ſtrength to euery age,
Arme and make ſtrong thy feable hoſt,
With faith and with thy holy Ghoſt.

O Lord from euill deliuer vs,
The dayes and tymes are daungerous,
From euerlaſting death ſaue vs:
And in our laſt ende comfort vs,
A bleſſed end to vs bequeath,
Into thy handes our ſoules receyue.

For thou (O Lord) art king of kings,
And thou haſt power ouer all,
Thy glory ſhineth in all things:
In the wide world vniuerſall,
Amen, Let it be done (O Lord)
That we haue prayed with one accord.

¶The. xii. Articles of the Chriſtian Faith.



And in lyke maner I beleue,
In Chriſt our Lord his ſonne:
Coequall with the deitie,

And man in fleſh and bone,
Conceyued by the holy Ghoſt,
His worde doth me aſſure:

And

And of his mother Mary borne,
Yet ſhe a Virgin pure.

Bycauſe mankynd to Sathan was,
For ſinne in bonde and thrall:
He came and offred vp hym ſelfe,
To death to ſaue vs all.
And ſufferyng moſt greuous payne:
Then Pylate beyng iudge,
Was crucified on the croſſe,
And thereat did not grudge.

And ſo he dyed in the fleſh,
But quickned in the ſprite:
His body then was buryed,
As is our vſe and ryte.
His ſprite did after thys deſcend,
Into the lower partes:
To them that long in darknes were,
The true lyght of theyr hartes.

And in the thyrd day of hys death,
He roſe to lyfe agayne:
To thende he might be glorified,
Out of all grief and payne.
Aſcending to the heauens hye,
To ſit in glory ſtill:
On Gods ryght hand, his Father deare,
Accordyng to his will.

Vntill the day of iudgement come,
When he ſhall come agayne:
With Angels power: yet of that day
We all be vncertayne,
To iudge all people righteouſly,
Whom he hath dearly bought:
The lyuing and the dead alſo,
Which he hath made of nought.

And in the holy ſprite of God,
My fayth to ſatisfie:
The thyrd perſon in Trinitie,
Beleue I ſtedfaſtly.
The holy and catholick Church,
That Gods worde doth maintayne:
And holy Scripture doth alowe,
Which Sathan doth diſdayne.

And alſo I do truſt to haue,
By Ieſu Chriſt his death,
Releaſe and pardon of my ſinnes.
And that onely by fayth.
What tyme all fleſh ſhall ryſe agayne,
Before the Lord of might:
And ſee hym with theyr bodely eyes,
Which now do geue them lyght.

And then ſhall Chriſt our ſauior,
The ſheepe and Goates deuide:
And geue lyfe euerlaſtingly,
To thoſe, whom he hath tride,
Which is the realme celeſtiall,
In glory for to reſt
With all the holy company.
Of Saincts and Angels bleſt.

Which ſerue the Lord omnipotent,
Obediently eche houre:
To whom be all dominion,
And prayſe for euermore.

That we do neuer fall.
O holy Ghoſt, viſite our coaſt,
Defend vs with thy ſhielde
Againſt all ſinne and wickednes,
Lord helpe vs win the field.

Lord keepe our Queene and her counſell,
And geue them will and might:
To perſeuer in thy Goſpell,
Which can put ſinne to flyght,
O Lord that geueſt thy holy word,
Send preachers plenteouſly:
That in the ſame we may accord,
And therin lyue and dye.

O holy Sprite, direct a right,
The Preachers of thy word:
That thou by them mayſt cut downe ſynne,
As it were with a ſwoord.
Depart not from thoſe Paſtors pure,
But ayde them at all neede:
Which breake to vs the bread of lyfe,
Where of our ſoules do feede.

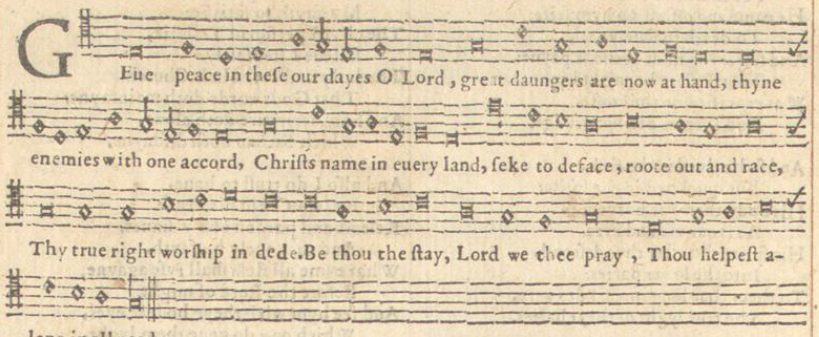
O bleſſed ſpirite of truth, kepe vs
In peace and vnity:
Keepe vs from ſectes and errours all,
And from all papiſtry.
Conuert all thoſe that are our foes,
And bring them to thy light:
That they and we may well agree,
And prayſe thee day and night.

O Lord increaſe our faith in vs,
And loue ſo to abound:
That man and wyfe he voyde of ſtrife,
And neighbours about vs round.
In our time geue thy peace, O Lord,
To nacions far and nye:
And teache them all thy holy woord,
That we may ſing to thee.

All glory to the Trinity,
That is of mightes moſt:
The liuing Father and the Sonne,
And eke the holy ghoſt.

As it hath bene in all the tyme,
That hath bene here to fore:
As it is now, and so shall be,
Hence forth for euermore.

Da pacem Domine.



Geue vs that peace, which we doo lacke,
Through misbelief and ill lyfe:
Thy word to offer thou dost not slacke,
Whiche we vnkindly gainstriue.
With fire and sword,
This healthfull word:
Some persecute and oppres:
Some with the mouth,
Confes the truth,
Wythout sincere godlynes.

Geue peace and vs thy sprite down send Wyth griefe and repentaunce true:
Do pearce our harts, our liues to amend,
And by faith Christ renue:
That feare and dread,
War and bloudshed,
Through thy sweete mercy and grace:
May from vs slyde.
Thy truth abyde,
And shine in euery place.

¶ The Lamentation.

¶ Through perfect repentance the synner hath a sure trust in God that his sinnes shalbe washed away in Christes bloud.

No no not so thy will is bent,
To deale with sinners in thine ire:
But when in hart they shall repent.
Thou graunst with speede their iust desire
To thee therfore still shall I crye,
To washe away my sinfull crime:
Thy bloud (O Lord) is not yet dry
But that it may helpe me in tyme.

Haste thee O Lord, haste thee I say,
To poure on me the giftes of grace,
That when this life must flit away,
In heauen with thee I may haue place,
Where thou doost raigne eternally,
With God which once did down thee send
Where Angels syng continually,
To thee be prayse world without end.

¶ Amen.

¶ A thankes geuing after the receuing of the Lordes ſupper.

¶Sing this as the xxxvii. Pſalme.

THe Lord be thanked for his gifts,
And mercy euermore:
That he doth ſhew vnto his ſayntes,
To him be laud therfore.
Our tonges cannot ſo prayſe the Lord
As he doth right deſerue:
Our hartes can not of him ſo thinke,
As he doth vs preſerue.

2 His benefites they be ſo great,
To vs that be but fyn:
That at our hands for recompence,
There is no hope to wyn.
O ſynfull fleſh that thou ſhouldſt haue,
Such mercies of the Lord:
That dooſt deſerue more worthely
Of him to be abhord.

3 Nought els but ſinne and wretchednes,
Doth reſt within our harts:
And ſtubburnly againſt the Lord,
We dayly play our partes.
The ſunne aboue in firmament,
That is to be a light:
Doth ſhew it ſelfe more cleare and pure,
Then we be in his ſight.

4 The heauens aboue, and all therin
More holy are then wee:
They ſerue the Lord in their eſtate,
Eche one in his degree.
They doo not ſtriue for maſterſhip,
Nor ſlake their office ſet:
But feare the Lord and doo his wyll,
Hate is to them no let.

5 Alſo the earth and all therein,
Of God it is in aw.
It doth obſerue the formers wyll,
By ſkilfull natures law.
The ſea and all that therin is,
Doth bend when God doth becke:
The ſprites beneath doth tremble all,
And feare his wrathfull checke.

6 But we alas, for whom all theſe,
Were made them for to rule:
Doo not ſo know or loue the Lord,
As doth the Oxe or Mule.
A law he gaue, for vs to know
What was his holy wyll:
He would vs good, but we wyll not
Auoyde the thing is yll.

7 Not one of vs that ſeeketh out
The Lord of lyfe to pleaſe:
Nor do the the thing that might vs ioyne,
Our Chriſt and quiet eaſe,
Thus we are all his enemies,
We can it not deny
And he againe of his good wyll,
Would not that we ſhould dye.

8 Therfore when remedy was none,
To bring vs vnto lyfe:
The ſonne of God, our fleſh he tooke,
To mend our mortall ſtrife.
And all the law of God our Lord.
He dyd it full obey:
And for our ſinnes vpon the croſſe
His bloud our dets dyd pay.

9 And that we ſhould not yet forget
What good he to vs wrought:
A ſigne he left our eyes to tell,
That he our bodies bought.
In bread and wyne here viſible,
Vnto thyne eyes and taſte:
His mercies great thou mayſt record,
If that his ſprite thou haſt.

10 As once the corne did lyue and grow,
And was cut downe with ſithe,
And threſhed out with many ſtripes,
Out of his huſkes to driue:
And as the myll with violence,
Did teare it out ſo ſmall,
And made it lyke to earthly duſt,
Not ſparing it at all:

11 And as the ouen with fyre hote,
did cloſe it vp in heate:
And all this done that I haue ſayd,
That it ſhould be our meate:
So was the Lord in his ripe age
Cut downe by cruell death,
His ſoule be gaue in torments great,
And yelded vp his breath.

12 Bycauſe that he to vs might be
An euerlaſting bread:
With much reproch and trouble great,
On earth his life he led.
And as the grappes in pleaſant time,
Are preſſed very ſore,
And plucked downe when they be ripe,
Nor let to grow no more,

13 Bycauſe the iuyſe that in them is
As comfortable drinke,
We might receyue and ioyfull be,
When ſorowes make vs ſhrinke:
So Chriſtes bloud out preſſed was,
With nayles and eke with ſpeare:
The iuyſe wherof doth ſaue all thoſe,
That ryghtly doo him feare.

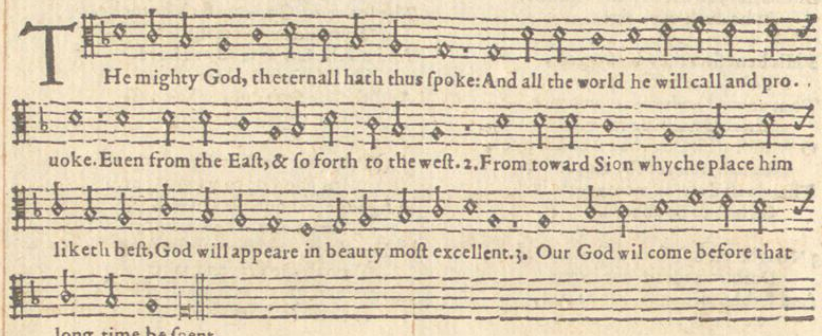
14 And as the cornes by vnitye,
Into one loafe is knyt:
So is the Lord and hys whole church,
Though he in heauen syt.
As many grapes make but one wyne,
So should we be but one:
In faith and loue, in Christ aboue,
And vnto Christ alone.

15 Leading a lyfe without all strife,
In quiet rest and peace:
From enuy and from malice both,
Our hartes and tonges to cease.
Which if we do, then shall we shew
That we his chosen bee:
By fayth in him to leade a lyfe,
As alwayes wylled hee.

16 And that we may so doo in deede,
God send vs all his grace.
Then after death we shall be sure,
With him to haue a place.

Deus Deorum.

Psalme L. VV. vvhit.



Deuouring fire
Shall go before his face:
A great tempest
Shall ronnd about him trace.
4 Then shall he call
The earth and heauen bright,
To iudge his folke
With equity and right,
5 Saying, go to,
And now my Saintes assemble:
My pacte they keepe,
Their giftes do not dissemble.

6 The heauens shall Declare hys righteousnes,
For God is iudge
Of all thynges more and lesse.
7 Heare my people
For I wyll now reueale:
Lyst Israel,
I wyll thee nought concele,
Thy God, thy God
Am I, and wyll not blame thee
8 For geuing not
All maner offringes to me.

9 I haue no neede
To take of thee at all,
Goates of thy fold,
Of Calfe out of thy stall.
10 For all the beastes
Are myne within the woods:
On thousand hyls,
Cattell are mine own goods.

11 I know for myne,
All byrdes that are on mountaynes,
All beastes are myne,
Which haunt the fieldes and fountaines.

12 Hungry if I were,
I would not thee it tell:
For all is myne
That in the world doth dwel,
13 Eate I the flesh
Of great Buls or Bullockes?
Or drinke the blood
Of Goates and of the flockes?
14 Offer to God
Prayse and harty thankes geuing,
And paye thy vowes
Vnto God euerliuing.

15 Call vpon me
When troubled thou shalt be.
Then wyll I helpe,
And thou shalt honour me.
16 To the wycked
Thus sayth the eternall God:
Why doost thou preach
My lawes and hestes abrod,
Seing thou hast
Them with thy mouth abused:
17 And hatest to be
By discipline reformed?

My woordes I say
Thou doost reiect and hate.
18 If that thou see

A thee-

A theefe, as wyth thy mate
Thou runſt with him,
And ſo your pray dooſeeke:
And art all one
With baudes and ruſians eke,
19 Thou geueſt thy ſelfe
To backbite and to ſlaunder,
And how thy tong
Deceiueth, it is a wonder.

20 Thou ſitteſt muſing
Thy brother how to blame:
And how to put
Thy mothers ſonne to ſhame.
21 Theſe things thou dydſt,
And whylſt I held my tong,
Thou dydſt me iudge
(Bycauſe I ſtayd ſo long.)
Lyke to thy ſelfe:
Yet though I kept long ſilence,
Once ſhalt thou feele,
Of thy wronges iuſt recompence.

22 Conſider this,
Ye that forget the Lord,
And feare not, when
He threatneth wyth his word,
Leaſt without helpe
I ſpoyle you as a pray.
23 But he that thankes
Offreth prayſeth me ay,
Sayth the Lord God:
And he that walketh thys trace,
I wyll hym teach
Gods ſauing health to embrace:

PSALME CXXV. R. VV.

Qui confidunt in Domino.

¶Sing this as the x. Commaundements.

THoſe that do put their confidence,
Vpon the Lord our God onely,
And flee to him for his defence,
In all their neede and miſery.
Their faith is ſure firme to endure,
Grounded on Chriſt the corner ſtone,
Moued with none yll, but ſtandeth ſtyll,
Stedfaſt lyke to the mount Sion.

And as about Ieruſalem,
The mighty hyls doo it compaſſe,
So that no enmies comes to them,
To hurt their towne in any caſe:
So God in deede, in euery neede,
His faythfull people doth defend,
Standing them by aſſuredly,
From this time forth world without end.

Right wiſe and good is our Lord God
And wyl not ſuffer certainly:
The ſynners and vngodlyes rod,
To tary vpon his family.
Leaſt they alſo, from God ſhould go,
Falling to ſynne and wyckednes.
O Lord defend world without end,
Thy Chriſten flocke through thy goodnes.

O Lord doo good thy Chriſtians all,
That ſtedfaſt in thy woord abyde:
Such as wyllingly from God fall,
And to falſe doctrine dayly ſlide,
Such wyll the Lord, ſcatter abrode,
With Hipocrites throwne downe to hel,
God wyll them ſend paines without end,
But Lord graunt peace to Iſraell.

Glory to God the father all might,
And to the ſonne our ſauiour.
And to the holy ghoſt whoſe light,
Shine in our harts, and vs ſuccor.
That the right way, from day do day,
We may walke and him glorify.
With harts deſire all that are here,
Worſhip the Lord, and ſay, Amen.

Robert Wiſdome.

Lord Ieſue Chriſt ſhew forth thy might,
That thou art Lord of Lordes by right
Thy poore afflicted flocke defend:
That they may prayſe thee without end.

God holy Ghoſt, our comfortour,
Be our patron, helpe, and ſuccour:
Geue vs one minde and perfect peace:
All giftes of grace in vs encreaſe.

Thou liuing God in parſons three,
Thy name be prayſed in vnitie:
In all our nede ſo vs defend:
That we may prayſe the world without end.

¶ Morning prayer.

ALmighty God and most mercifull father, we do not present our selues here before thy maiesty, trustyng in our own merites or worthynes, but in thy manyfolde mercyes, which hast promised to heare our prayers, and graunt our requests, which we shall make to thee in the name of thy beloued sonne Iesus Christ our Lord: who hath also commaunded vs to assemble our selues together in hys name, with ful assurance that he will not onely be amõgst vs but also be our mediatour and aduocate towards thy maiesty, that we may obtain althings which shal seme expedyent to thy blessed will for our necessities. Therefore we besech thee most mercifull father, to turne thy louing contenance towards vs, and impute not vnto vs our manyfold syns & offences, wherby we iustly deserue thy wrath and sharp punishment: but rather receyue vs to thy mercy for Iesus Christes sake, accepting his death and passion as a iust recompence for all our offences, in whom onely thou art pleased, and through whom thou canst not be offended with vs. And seing of thy great mercyes, wee haue quyetlye passed thys nyght, graunt (O heauenly father) that we may bestow thys daye wholy in thy seruice, so that all our thoughts, words, and dedes, may redound to the glory of thy name, and good ensample to all men: who seing our good works, may glorysy thee our heauēly father. And for as much as of thy mere fauour and loue, thou hast not ouely created vs to thyne own similitude and likenes, but also hast chosen vs to be heyres with thy deare sonne Iesus Christ of that immortall kingdome, whiche thou preparedst for vs before the begynning of the world: we besech thee to encrease our faith and knowledge, and to lyghten our harts with thy holy spirit, that we may in the meane tyme, lyue in godly conuersacion and integryty of lyfe: knowing that idolaters adulterers, couetous men, contencious persons dronkards glottons, and such like, shall not inherite the kingdome of God. And bycause thou hast commaūded vs to pray one for another, we do not onely make requeste (O Lord) for our selues, and for them that thou hast already called to the true vnderstanding of thy hauenlye will but for all people and nacions of the worlde, who as they know by thy wonderfull workes that thou art God ouer all: so they may be instructed by thy holy spirit, to beleue in thee theyr onely sauior aud redemer. But forasmuch as they cannot beleue except they heare, nor cannot heare but by preaching, and none can preach, except they be sent: therefore (O Lord) rayse vp faythful distributers of thy mysteries, who setting a part all worldy respects, may both in theyr lyfe and doctrine, onely seke thy glory. Contrarily confound Satan, Antichrist, with all hirelings, whom thou hast alredy cast of into a reprobate sence, that they may not by sects, schismes, hereses and errors disquiet thy lytle flock. And bycause (O Lord) we be fallen into the latter dayes and daungerons tymes, wherin ignorance hath gotten the vpper hand, and Satan with hys ministers seeke by all meanes to quench the light of thy Gospell, we besech thee to maintaine thy cause against those rauening wolues, and strengthen all thy seruants, whom they kepe in pryson and bondage. Let not thy long suffring be an occasion, either to increase theyr tyranny, or to discourage thy chyldren, neither yet let our sins and wickednes be an hindrance to thy mercies, but with speede (O Lord) consider these great myseries. For thy people Israell many tymes by theyr syns prouoked thine anger, & thou punishedst them by thy iust iudgement, yet though theyr sins wer neuer so greuous, if they once returned from theyr inyquytye, thou receyuedst them to mercy. We therfore most wretched synners beway le our manifolde syns, and earnestly repent vs for our former wickednes and vngodly behauiour towardes thee: and wher as we cannot of our selues purchase thy pardon, yet we humblly besech thee, for Iesus Christes sake, to shew thy mercies vpon vs, and receyue vs again to thy fauour. Graunt vs, deare father, these our requests, and all other thinges necessarye for vs and thy whole Churche, according to thy promyse in Iesus Christ our Lorde. In whose name wee beseche thee, as hee hath taught vs saying: Our Father, &c.

¶ A prayer to be sayd before meales.

ALl thinges depend vpon thy prouidence (O Lord) to receyue at thy hāds due sustenance in tyme conuenient. Thou geuest to them, and they gather it, thou openest thy hand, and they are satisfied with all good things. O heauēly father, whiche art the fountaine and full treasure of all goodnes, we beseche thee to shew thy mercyes vpon vs thy chyldren, and sanctify these giftes whiche we receiue of thy mercyfull liberality, graunt vs grace to vse them soberly and purelye, accordinge to thy blessed wyll. so that hereby wee may acknowledge thee to be the author & geuer of all good things: and aboue all, that we may we may remember continually, to seeke the spirituall foode of thy word, wherwith our soules may be nourished euerlastingly through our sauiour Christ, who is ỹ true bread of life, whiche came downe from heauē, of whom whosoeuer eateth, shal lyue for euer, and reigne with him in glory world without end, Amen.

¶ A thankes geuing after meales.

LEt all nacions magnify the Lord, let all people reioyce in praysing and extolling his great mercyes. For his fatherly kindnes is plenty fullye shewed foorth vpon vs, & the truth of his promyse endureth for euer.

We render thankes vnto the (O Lord God) for the manifold benefites, which we continually receyue at thy bountifull hand, not onely for that it hath pleased thee to feede vs in this present lyfe, geuing vnto vs all thinges necessary for the same, but especially bycause thou hast of thy free mercyes facioned vs a newe, into an assured hope of a farre better lyfe, the whiche thou hast declared vnto vs by thy holy Gospel Therfore we humbly beseche thee (O heauenly father) that thou wylt not suffer our affections to be so intangled or rooted in these earthly and corruptible thinges, but that we may alwayes haue our myndes directed to thee on hye continuallye watchinge for the comming of our Lorde and sauior Christ, tyll he shall appeare for our full redemption. To whom with thee and the holy ghost be all honor and glory, for euer and euer. So be it.

¶ A nother thankes geuing before meate.

ETernall and euerliuing God, Father of our Lord Iesus Christ, who of thy most singular loue whiche thou beareſt to mankind, hast appointed to his, sustenance, not onely the fruits of thearth, but also the foules of the aire, the beastes of thearth, & fishes of the sea, and hast commaunded thy benefites to be receyued, as from thy handes with thankes geuing, assuring thy children by the mouth of thy Apostle, that to the cleane all thinges are cleane as the creatures whiche be sanctified by thy woorde and by prayer: graunt vnto vs so moderatly to vse these thy giftes present, ỹ the bodyes being refreshed, the soules maye be more able to procede in all good workes, to ỹ prayse of thy holy name, through Iesus Christ our Lord. So be it. Our father whiche art in heauen. &c.

¶ Another.

THe eyes of all thinges do looke vp & trust in thee (O Lord) thou geuest them meate in due season, thou openest thy hand, and fyllest with thy blessing euery lyuing creature: good Lord blesse vs & the giftes whiche we receyue of thy large liberalytye, through Iesus Christ our Lord. So be it. Our father whiche art in heauen, &c.

¶ A nother thankes geuing after meate.

GLory, prayse, and honnor be vnto thee most mercyfull and omnipotent father, who of thyne infinyte goodnes hast created man to thyne owen image and similitude, who also hast fed, and dayly feedest of thy most bountiful hand, all lyuing creatures: graunt vnto vs, that as thou hast nourished these our mortall bodyes with corporal foode, so thou wouldest replenish our soules with the perfect knowledge of the liuely woorde of thy beloued sonne Iesus, to whom be prayse, glory, and honnor for euer. So be it.

¶ God saue the Churche vniuersall: our Quene and Realme, God comfort all them that be comfortles: Lord increase our faith: O Lord, for Christ thy sonnes sake, be mercifull to the common wealths, where thy Gospell is truly preached, and harbor graunted to the afflicted mēbers of Christs body, and illuminate, according to thy good pleasure all nations, with the brightnes of thy word. So be it.

¶ Another.

THe God of glori & peace, who hath created redemed & presently fed vs, be blessed for euer and euer. So be it.

¶ The God of all power, who hath called from death that great pastor of the shepe, our Lord Iesus, comfort and defend the flock, whiche he hath redemed by the bloud of the eternall Testament: increase the number of true preachers: repres the rage of obstinate tyrantes: mitigate and lighten the harts of the ignoraunt: releue the paines of such as be afflicted, but especially of those that suffer for the testimony of thy trueth: and finally confound Sathan, by the power of our Lord Iesus Christ, Amen.

Euenyng Prayer.

O Lord God, father enerlasting, and full of pity, we acknowledge and confes, that we be not worthy to lift vp our eyes to heauen, much lesse to presen our selues before thy maiesty, with confidence that thou wilt heare our prayers and graunt our requestes if we consider our owne deseruings: for our consciences do accuse vs, and our synnes witnes against vs, and we knowe that thou art an vpright iudge, whiche doost not iustifie the sinners and wicked men, but punishest the fautes of all such as transgresse thy commaundements. Yet most mercyful father, since it hath pleased thee to commaunde vs to call on thee in all our troubles and aduersyties, promysing euen then to helpe vs, whē we feele our selues (as it were) swallowed vp of death & desperacion, we vtterly renounce all wordly cōfidence, and flee to thy soueraine bounty, as our onely stay and refuge: beseching thee, not to call to remembraunce our many folde sinnes & wickednes, wherby we continually prouoke thy wrath and indignation against vs, neyther our negligence and vnkindnesse, which haue neyther worthely esteemed, nor in our lyues sufficiently expressed the swete comfort of thy Gospell, reueled vnto vs: but rather to accept the obedience and death of thy sonne Iesus Christ, who by offring vp hys body in sacrifice once for all, hath made a sufficient recompence for all our sinnes. Haue mercy therfore vpon vs (O Lord) and forgeue vs our offences. Teach vs by thy holy spirite, that we may rightly wey them, and earnestly repent for the same. And so muche the rather (O Lord) bycause that the reprobate, and such as thou hast forsaken, cannot prayse thee, nor call vpon thy name: but the repentynge hart, the sorowfull minde, the conscience oppressed, hungring and thyrsting for thy grace, shall euer set forth thy prayse and glori. And albeit we be but wormes and dust: yet thou art our creator, and we be the woorke of thy handes: yea thou art our father and we thy children, thou art our shepherd, and we thy flocke, thou art our redemer and we the people whom thou hast bought: thou art our God, and we thyne inheritaunce. Correct vs not therfore in thyne anger (O Lorde) neyther accordinge to our desertes punishe vs, but mercifully chastice vs with a fatherly affection, that all the worlde may knowe, that at what tyme soeuer a synner doeth repent him of his sinne, from the bottome of his hart, thou wilt put away his wickednesse out of thy remembraunce, as thou hast promised by thy holy Prophet.

Finally for asmuche as it hath pleased thee to make the night for man to rest in, as thou hast ordayned him the day to trauell, graunt (O deare father) that we may so take our bodely rest, that our soules may continually watche, for the tyme that our Lord Iesus Christe shall appeare for our deliueraunce out of this mortall life, and in the meane season that we, not ouercomen by any fantasies, dreames, or other temptacions, may fully set our mindes vpon thee, loue thee, feare thee, and rest in thee: furthermore that our sleepe be not excessiue or ouermuch after the insatiable desires of our flesh: but onely sufficient to content our weake nature, that we may be better disposed to liue in all godly conuersation to the glori of thy holy name, and profit of our brethren. So be it.

¶ A godly Prayer to be sayd at all tymes.

HOnor and prayse be geuen to thee (O Lord God almighty) most deare Father of heauen, for all thy mercies and louing kindnesse shewed vnto vs, in that it hath pleased thy gracious goodnesse freely, and of thyne owne accorde to elect & chose vs to saluacion before the beginning of the world, and euen like continual thankes be geuen to thee for creating vs after thine owne image, for redeming vs with the precious bloud of thy deare sonne, when we were vterly lost, for sanctifiyng vs with thy holy spirite in the reuelation and knowledge of thy holy worde, for helping and succoring vs in all our needes and necessities, for sauing vs from all dangers of body and soule, for comforting vs so fatherly in all our tribulations & persecutions, for sparing vs so longe, and geuing vs so large a tyme of repentaunce. These benefites (O most mercifull father) like as we knowledge to haue receyued them of thy onely goodnes, euen so we beseech thee, for thy deare sonne Iesus Christes sake, to graunt vs alwayes thy holy spirite, wherby we may continuallye grow in thankfulnes towardes thee, to be led into all truth, and comforted in all our aduersities. O Lorde strengthen our fayth, kindle it more in feruentnes and loue towardes thee & our neyghbours, for thy sake. Suffer vs not most deare Father, to receyue thy word any more in vayne: but graunt vs alwayes the assistance of thy grace and holy spirit, that in hart, word and deede we may sanctifie and do worship to thy name. Helpe to amplifie and increase thy kingdome, and what soeuer thou sendest, we may be hartely well content with thy good pleasure and will: Let vs not lacke the thing (O Father) without the which we can not serue thee, but blesse thou all the woorkes of our handes, that we may haue sufficient, and not to be chargeable, but rather helpefull vnto others: be mercyfull (O Lord) to our offences, and seyng our det is great, whiche thou hast forgeuen vs in Iesus Christ, make vs to loue thee & our neyghbours so much the more. Be thou our Father, our Captaine and defender, in all temptations holde thou vs by thy mercifull hande, that we

we may be deliuered frō all inconueniences, & ende our lyues in the sanctifiyng & honouring of thy holy name, through Iesu Christ our Lord, and onely sauior. So be it.

Let thy mighty hande and out stretched arme (O Lord) be still our defence: thy mercy and louing kindnes in Iesu Christ thy deare sonne, our saluation: thy true and holy word our instruction: thy grace and holy spirite, our comforte and consolation, vnto the ende and in the end. So be it.

¶ O Lord increase our fayth.

¶ A Confession of all estates and tymes.

O Eternall God and most mercifull father, we confesse, and acknowledge here before thy diuine maiestie, that we are miserable sinners, conceyued and borne in sinne and iniquitie, so that in vs there is no goodnes. For the flesh euermore rebelleth against the spirite, whereby we continually transgresse thy holy preceptes, and commaundements, and so purchase to our selues, throughe thy iust iudgement, death and damnation. Notwithstanding (O heauenly father) forasmuch as we are displeased with our selues for the sinnes that we haue committed against thee, and do vnfeynedly repent vs of the same: we moste humbly beseche thee for Iesus Christs sake, to shew thy mercy on vs, to forgeue vs all our synnes, and to increase thy holy spirite in vs: that we acknowledging frō ỳ bottome of our harts, our owen vnrightousnes, may from henceforth not onely mortifie our sinfull lustes and affections, but also bryng forth such frutes, as may be agreable to thy most blessed will, not for the worthynes thereof, but for the merites of thy dearelye beloued sonne Iesus Christ our onely Sauiour, whom thou hast already geuen an oblation, and offering for our sins, and for whose sake we are certeinly persuaded, that thou wilt denye vs nothyng, that we shall aske in his name, according to thy will. For thy spirite doth assure our consciences, that thou art our mercifull father, and so loueste vs thy children through him, that nothing is able to remoue thy heauenly grace and fauour from vs: to thee therfore (O father) with the sonne and the holy Ghost be all honor and glory, world without ende. So be it.

¶ A prayer to be sayd before a man begyn his worke.

O Lord God most mercifull father and Sauiour, seing it hath pleased thee to commaunde vs to traueill, that we may releue our neede, we beseche thee of thy grace so to blesse our labour that thy blessing may extend vnto vs, without the whiche we are not able to continue: and that this great fauour may be a witnes vnto vs of thy bountifulnes and assistaunce, so that thereby we may know the fatherly care that thou hast ouer vs. Moreouer (O Lord) we beseche thee that thou wouldest strengthen vs with thine holy spirite, that we may faithfully trauayle in our estate and vocation without fraude or deceyt, and that we may endeuour our selues to folow thine holy ordinance, rather than to seeke to satisfie our gredye affections or desire to gayne. And if it please thee (O Lord) to prosper our labour, geue vs a minde also to helpe them that haue neede, according to that abilitie that thou of thy mercye shalte geue vs: and knowyng that all good things come of thee, graunt that we may humble our selues to our neyghbours, and not by any meanes lyft our selues vp aboue thē, whiche haue not receyued so liberall a portion as of thy mercy thou hast geuen vnto vs. And if it please thee to try and exercise vs by greater pouertie and neede than our flesh would desire, that thou wouldest yet (O Lord) graūt vs grace to know that thou wilt nourishe vs continually through thy bountyfull liberalitie, that we be not so tempted that we fall into distrust, but that we may pacientlye wayt till thou fill vs, not onely with corporall graces & benefites, but chiefly with thine heauenly and spirituall treasures, to the intent that we may alwayes haue more ample occasion to geue thee thankes, and so wholly to rest vpon thy mercyes. Heare vs, O Lord of mercy throughe Iesus Christ thy sonne our Lord, Amen.

¶ A Prayer for the whole state of Christes Churche.

ALmighty God and most mercyfull Father, we humbly submit our selues, and fall downe before thy Maiestye, beseechyng thee from the bottome of our hartes, that this seede of thy word nowe sowen amongst vs, may take such deepe roote, that neyther the burning heate of persecution cause it to wyther, neyther the thorny cares of this life choke it, but that as seede, sowen in good ground, it may bring forth thirty, sixtie, and an hundreth folde, as thy heauēly wisedome hath appoynted. And bycause we haue neede contimually to craue many things at thy handes, we humbly beſeche thee (O heauenly father) to graunt vs thy holy ſpirit, to direct our peticions, that they may procede from ſuch a feruent minde, as may be agreable to thy moſt bleſſed will: And ſeyng that our infirmitie is able to do nothyng without thy helpe, and that thou art not ignorant with how many and great temptations we poore wretches are on euery ſide encloſed and compaſſed: let thy ſtrength (O Lord) ſuſtayne our weakenes, that we being defended with the force of thy grace, may be ſafely preſerued againſt all aſſaults of Sathan: who goeth about continually lyke a roringe Lyon, ſeekyng to deuour vs. Increaſe our faith (O mercyfull father) that we do not ſwarue at any tyme from thy heauenly worde: but augment in vs hope and loue, with a carefull keepyng of all thy commaundementes, that no hardnes of hart, no Hipocriſie, no concupiſcence of the eyes, nor intiſementes of the worlde, do draw vs away from thy obediẽce. And ſeyng we lyue nowe in theſe moſt perilous times, let thy fatherly prouidence defend vs againſt the violence of our enemyes, whiche do ſeeke by all meanes to oppres thy truth. Furthermore for as much as by thy holy Apoſtle we be taught, to make our prayers and ſupplications for all men, we pray not onely for our ſelues here preſent, but beſech thee alſo, to reduce all ſuch as be yet ignoraunt, frõ the miſerable captiuitie of blindnes and errour, to the pure vnderſtanding & knowledge of thy heauenly truth: that we all with one conſent & vnitie of minde, may worſhip thee our onely God & ſauiour. And that all Paſtors, Shepheards & Miniſters, to whom thou haſt committed the diſpenſation of thy holy worde, and charge of thy choſen people, may both in theyr lyfe and doctrine, be found faithfull, ſetting onely before theyr eyes thy glory: and that by them all poore ſheepe whiche wander and go aſtray, may be gathered and brought home to thy folde. Moreouer by cauſe the hearts of rulers are in thy hands, we beſeche thee to direct, and gouerne the hartes of all kings, princes and magiſtrats, to whom thou haſt committed the ſwoorde: eſpecilly (O Lord) according to our bounden duty we beſeche thee to mainteyne and encreaſe the honorable eſtate of the Quenes maieſtie & all her moſt noble Counſelers and Miniſtrates, and all the whole body of this commune weale. Let thy fatherly fauor ſo preſerue thẽ, & thy holy ſpirite ſo gouerne their hearts, that they may in ſuche ſorte execute their office, that thy Religion may be purely mayntened maners reformed, and ſinne puniſhed according to the preciſe rule of thy holy word. And for that we be all members of the myſticall body of Ieſus Chriſt, we make our requeſtes vnto thee (O heauenly father) for all ſuch as are afflicted with any kynd of croſſe or tribulation, as warre, plage, famine, ſycknes, pouertie, impriſonment, perſecution baniſhment, or any other kind of thy rodes, whether it be calamitie of body, or vexation of mind, that it would pleaſe thee to geue thẽ pacience, and conſtancy, till thou ſende thẽ full deliueraunce of all their troubles. Roote out from hence, (O Lord) all rauening wolues, whiche to fill their bellyes, ſeeke to deſtroy thy flocke. And ſhewe thy great mercies vpon thoſe our brethren in other countreyes, whiche are perſecuted, caſt into priſon and dayly condemned to death for the teſtimonie of thy truth. And though they be vtterly deſtitute of all mans aide, yet let thy ſweete comfort neuer depart from them, but ſo inflame theyr hartes with thy holy ſpirite that they may boldy and chearfully abide ſuch triall, as thy godly wiſdome ſhall appoint. So that at lenght as well by theyr death as by theyr lyfe, the kingdome of thy deare ſonne Ieſu Chriſte, may increaſe and ſhyne throughe all thee worlde. In whoſe name we make our humble peticions vnto thee as he hathe taught vs. Our Father which art in heauen halowed be thy, &c.

TIT
